 36 Then said I, * Abraham prayed first for the Sodomites, and * Moyses for the farrers that sinned in the wilderness, 37 And they that came after him, for Israel in the time of Achaz, and Samuel,
 38 And * Dauid for the destruction, * and Salomon for them that came into the Sanctuary, 39 * And Elias for those that receiued raine, and for the dead that he might liue, 40 * And Ezechias for the people in the time of Sennacherib, and diuers others for many.
 41 Enen so now, seeing vice is increased, & wickednesse aboundeth, and the righteous haue praised for the vngodly, wherefore shall not the same effect follow also now?

 42 Then he answered me, and said, This present life is not the ende: oft times honour is retained in it: therefore haue they prayed for the weakes.
 43 But the day of iudgement shall be the ende of this world, and the beginning of the immortalitie to come, wherein all corruption shall cease.
 44 Intemperance shall passe away: infidelitie shall be cut off: righteousness shall growe vp, and the veritie shall spring vp.
 45 Then shall no man be able to saue him that is destroyed, nor oppresse him that hath gotten the victory.
 46 I answered then and said, This is my first and last saying, that it had bene better not to haue giuen the earth vnto Adam, or when it was giuen him, to haue kept him that hee should not haue sinned.
 47 For what profite is it for men in this present life to be in heauennesse, and after death to feare punishment?
 48 O Adam, what hast thou done? * For in Rom. 1. 18. that that thou hast sinned, thou art not fallen alone, but the fall also redoundeth vnto vs that come of thee.
 49 For what profite is it vnto vs, if there bee promised an immortal life, when we doe the workes that bring death?
 50 And that an euermolde hope should be promised vs, seeing that we be tied our flues to deadly vanities?
 51 And that there should bee appointed vs dwellings of health and saluety, if wee haue liued wickedly?
 52 And that the glory of the most High should be kept to defend them which haue led a patient life, if we haue walked in the wicked wayes?
 53 And that an eternal Paradise should be shewed, whose fruit remaineth incorruptible, wherein is safetie and health, if we will not enter into it?
 54 (For wee haue bene conuersant in vnpleasant places)
 55 And that the faces of them, which haue abstained, should shine more then the starres, if our faces be blacker then darkenesse?
 56 For while we liued, we did not remember when wee did vnrighteously, that we should suffer after death.
 57 Then answered he me, and sayd, This is the manner of the battell, which man, that is borne in the earth, shall fight, 58 That if he be overcome, he should suffer as thou hast said: but if he get the victorie, he should receiue the thing that I sayd.
 59 For this is the life, wherof Moyses spake vnto the people, while he liued, saying, * Christ thee * Dim. 1. 1. 1. life that thou mayest liue.
 60 Neuertheless, they beleueed him not, neither the Prophets after him, nor mee also which haue sayd vnto them,
 61 That heauennesse should not so be to their destruction, as ioy should come vnto them, to whom saluation is perswaded.
 62 I answered then, and sayd, I know Lord, that the most High is called mercifull, in that he hath mercie vpon them, which are not yet come to that world,
 63 And that he hath pitie on those that walke in his Lawe,

64 And that he be patient: for he long suffereth those that haue sinned as his creatures,

65 And that he be liberrall: for hee will giue as much as needeth,

66 And that he is of great mercy: for he ouer- cometh in mercy those that are present, and that are past, and them which are to come,

67 For if he were not abundant in his mercies, the world could not continue, nor they that haue the possession thereof.

68 He pardoneth also: for if he gaue not of his goodnes, that they which haue done euill, might be relieved from their wickednesse, the ten thousand part of men should not remaine aliue,

69 And if he, being iudge, forgave not those that be healed with his word, and tooke away the multitude of sinnes,

70 There should peradventure be very few left in an innumerable multitude,

CHAP. VIII.

1 The number of the godly is small. 2 The works of God are excellent. 30 Elisha prayeth for him & for his people. 39 The promise of salvation to the iust. 55 The destruction of the uniuersall.

And he answered me, saying, The most High made this world for many, but the world to come for few.

2 I will tel thee a similitude, O Elisha. As when thou askest the earth, it shall say vnto thee, that it giueth much earthly matter to make pottes, but li- tle dust that goldene cometh of, so is it with the worke of this world.

3 There be many created, but few shall be saved.

4 Then answered I, and said, Then swallow vp the wit, O my soule, and deuoure vnderstanding.

5 For thou hast promised to heare, & thou wilt prophesie: for thou hast no longer space, but the life giuen thee.

6 O Lord, if thou suffer not thy seruant, that we may increate thee, that thou mayest giue seede vnto our heart, and prepare our vnderstanding, that there may come fruit of it, whereby euery one which is corrupt, may liue, who can set himselfe for man?

7 For thou art alone, and we all are one work- manship of thine hands, as thou hast said.

8 For when the body is fashioned now in the wombe, and thou hast giuen it members, the creature is preferred by fire and water, and the worke, created by thee, doth suffer nine months the creature, which is fashioned in it.

9 Be the thing that containeth, & that which is contained, shall both be preferred, & when time is come, the wombe, being preferred, deliuereth the things that grew in it.

10 For thou hast commanded the members, euen the breasts, to giue milke vnto the fruit appointed to the breasts,

11 That the thing, which is created, may be nourished for a time, till thou disposest it to thy mercy.

12 Thou bringest it vp with thy righteousness, nourerest it in thy law, and reformest it with thy iudgement.

13 Thou layest it as thy creature, and giuest it life as thy worke.

14 Seeing then that thou destroyest him, which with so great labours is fashioned, it is an easy thing to appoint by thy commandement, that the thing also which is made, might be preferred.

15 Now therefore, O Lord, I will speake (as thou- ding men in general thou shalt rather provide) but concerning thy people, for whose sake I am sorry,

16 And I will haue inheritance for whose cause I mourne, and I will weep, for whom I am sorrowful, and for Iacob, for whose sake I am grieved.

17 For them will I pray before thee, as well for my selfe, as for them: for I see our faults that dwell in the land.

18 ¶ But I haue heard the sudden coming of the iudge, which is to come.

19 Therefore heare my voice, & vnderstand my words, which I will speake before thee. The begin- ning of the words of Elisha, before he was taken vp:

20 O Lord, that liuest for euer, which beholdest from aboue that which is aboue, and in the aire,

21 Whose throne is ineffimable, and his glory incomprehensible, before whome the hoste of the Angels stand with trembling,

22 Whose keeping is turned in winde and fire, whose word is true, & sayings stedfast: whose com- mandement is strong, and gouernment terrible,

23 Whose looke drieth vp the depths, & wrath maketh the mountaines to melt away as the thing beareth witness,

24 Heare the prayer of thy seruant, and receiue into thine eares the petition of thy creature.

25 For while I liue, I will speake, and so long as I haue vnderstanding, I will answer.

26 Look not vpon the sinnes of thy people, ra- ther then thy faithfull seruants.

27 Haue not respect vnto the wicked deeds of men, rather then to them that haue thy testimonies in afflictions.

28 Thinke not vpon those that haue walked fau- rily before thee, but remember them that reu- rence thy will.

29 Let it not be thy will to destroy them, which haue liued like beasts, but looke vpon them that haue clearly taught thy Law.

30 Take not displeasure with them, which ap- pear worse then beasts, but loue them that alway put their trust in thy righteousness and glory.

31 For wee and our fathers haue all the same sicknesse: but because of vs that are sinners, thou shalt be called mercifull.

32 If therefore thou wilt haue mercy vpon vs, thou shalt be called mercifull towards vs which haue no works of righteousness.

33 For the righteous, which haue layd vp many good works, let them receiue the reward of their owne deeds,

34 But what is man, that thou shouldst take displeasure at him? or what is this mortall genera- tion, that thou shouldst be so grieved towards it?

35 ¶ For verely there is no man among them that be borne, but he hath done wickedly, nor any that doth confesse thee, which hath not done amis.

36 For in this, O Lord, thy righteousness and thy goodnes shall be praised, if thou be mercifull vnto them, which haue not y substance of good works.

37 ¶ Then answered he me, & said, Some things hast thou spoken aright, and according vnto thy words it shall be.

38 For I will not verely consider the works of them, before the death, before the iudgement, be- fore destruction:

39 But ¶ I will reioyce in the wayes of the righ- teous, and I will remember the pilgrimage, the sal- uation and the reward that they shall haue.

40 Like as I haue spoken now, so shall it come to passe.

* 1 King 8. 46.

hath lost her worship: for she is deliuered into the hands of them that hate vs.

24 And therefore shake off thy great beauires, and put away the multitude of sorowes, that the Almighty may bee mercifull vnto thee, and that the most High may giue thee rest and ease from thy labour.

25 And when I was talking with her, her face and beauires shined suddenly, and her countenance was bright, so that I was afraid of her and mused what it might be.

26 And behold, immediately she cast out a great voyce, very fearfull, so that the earth shooke at the noyse of the woman.

27 And I looked, and beholde, the woman appeared vnto me no more: but there was a citie builded, and a place was shewed from the ground and foundation. Then was I afraid, and cried with a loud voyce, and sayd,

* Chap. 4.1.

28 Where is Vriel the Angel * which came to me at the first? for he hath caused me to come into many and deepe considerations, and mine ende is turned into corruption, and my prayer to rebuke.

29 And as I was speaking these words, behold, he came vnto me, and looked vpon me.

30 And loe, I lay as one dead, and mine vnderstanding was altered, and he tooke me by the right hand and comforted me, and set me vpon my feet, and said vnto me, 31 What ayleth thee? and why is thine vnderstanding vexed? and the vnderstanding of thine heart? and wherefore art thou fory?

* Chap. 5.20.

32 And I sayde, Because thou hast forsaken me, and I haue done * according vnto thy words: I went into the field, and there haue I seene things, and see that I am not able to expresse.

33 Then said he vnto me, Stand vp manly, and I will giue thee exhortation.

34 Then sayd I, Speake vnto me, my Lord, and forsake me not, lest I die through rashnesse.

35 For I haue seene that I knew not, and heare that I doe not know.

36 Or is mine vnderstanding deceiued, or dooth my minde, being haucie, erre?

37 Now therefore I beseech thee that thou wilt shew thy seruant of this wonder.

38 Then he answered me, and sayd, Heare me, and I will informe thee, & tell thee wherefore thou art afraid: for the most High hath reuiled many secret things vnto thee.

39 He hath seene thy good purpose, that thou art fory continually for thy people, and makest great lamentation for Sion.

40 This therefore is the vnderstanding of the vision, which appeared vnto thee a litle while agoe.

41 Thou sawest a woman mourning, and thou beganest to comfort her:

42 But now feele thou the likenesse of the woman no more, but there appeared vnto thee a citie builded.

43 And where as he tolde thee of the death of her sonne, this is the solution,

44 This woman, which thou sawest, she is Sion: and where as he tolde thee (euen she which thou seest now as a citie builded)

45 And as touching that shee sayde vnto thee, that she was barren thrie yeeres, this was concerning that, there was euen thrie yeeres wherein there was no offering offered in her.

46 But after thrie yeeres, Salomon built the temple, and offered offerings: then bare the barren a sonne.

47 And whereas she tolde thee, that she nourished him with labour, that was the inhabiting of Ierusalem.

48 But where as shee tolde thee that her sonne, as his chance was, died when shee came into her chamber, that is the fall that is come to Ierusalem,

49 And when thou sawest her like one that mourned for her sonne, thou beganest to comfort her: of these things which haue chanced thee are to be opened vnto thee.

50 For now the most High seeth, that thou art fory in thy minde, and because thou suffrest with all thine heart for her, hee shewed thee the clearnesse of her glory, and the fairenesse of her beauires.

51 And therefore I bade thee remaine in the field where no house was built.

52 For I knew that the most High would shew thee these things vnto thee.

53 Therefore I commanded thee to goe into the helde, where no foundation nor building is.

54 For the worke of mans building can not stand in that place where the cite of the most High should be shewed.

55 And therefore feare not, neither let thine heart be afraid, but goe in, and see the beauires and greatnesse of the building as much as thou art able to see with thine eyes.

56 And after this shalt thou heare, as much as thine eares may comprehend.

57 For thou art blessed aboue many, and art called with the most High among the fewe.

58 But to morrow at night thou shalt remaine here.

59 And the most High shall shewe thee three visions of high things, which the most High will doe vnto them that dwell vpon earth, in the last dayes. So I sleepe the same night: and another, as hee had commanded me.

CHAP. XI.

1 The vision of an eagle coming forth of the sea, and of her feathers.

2 Then sawe I a dreame, and beholde, there came vp from the sea an eagle, which had twelue feathered wings and three heads.

3 And I saw and beholde, the spread her wings ouer all the earth, and all the windes of the ayre blew on her, and gathered themselves.

4 And I beheld, and out of her feathers grew our other contrary feathers, and they became litle feathers and small.

5 But her head remained still, and the head in the middes was greater then the other heads, yet rested it with them.

6 Moreouer, I sawe that the eagle flew with his feathers and reigned vpon earth, and ouer them that dwelt therein.

7 And I saw that all things vnder heauen were subiect vnto her, and no man spake against her, no not one creature vpon earth.

8 I sawe also that the eagle stood vp vpon her claws, and spake to her feathers, saying,

9 Watch not altogether: sleepe euery one in his owne place, and watch by course.

10 Neuertheless, I saw that the voice went out out of her heads, but from the middes of her body.

11 Then I numbered her contrary feathers, and beholde, there were eight of them.

12 And I looked, and beholde vpon the right side there arose one feather, and reigned ouer all the earth.

13 And when it had reigned, the end of it came, and the place thereof appeared no more. So the next stood vp, & reigned: it continued a long time.

14 And when it had reigned, the end of it came also, and as the first, so it appeared no more.

15 Then there came a voice vnto it, and sayd,

16 Heare thou that hath kept the earth so long: thus I say vnto thee, before thou beginnest to appear no more.

17 There shall none after thee attaine vnto thy time, neither to the halfe thereof.

18 Then arose the third & reigned as the other afore, and it appeared no more also.

19 So came it to all the others one after another, so that euerie one reigned, and then appeared no more.

20 Then I looked, and beholde in processe of time y feathers that folowed, stood vp on the right side, that they might rule also, & some of them ruled, but within a while they appeared no more.

21 For some of them were set vp, but ruled not.

22 After this I looked, and beholde, the twelue feathers appeared no more, nor the two wings.

23 And there was no more vpon the egles body, but two heads that rested, and fixe wings.

24 Then saw I also that two wings diuided themselves from the fixe, and remained vnder the head, that was vpon the right side: for the four continued in their place.

25 So I looked, and beholde, the vnder wings thought to set vp themselves, and to haue the rule.

26 Then was there one set vp, but shortly it appeared no more.

27 And y second were sooner gone then y first.

28 Then I beheld, and loe, the two that remained, thought also in themselves to reigne.

29 And when they so thought, beholde, there came one of the heads y were at rest, which was in the middes: for that was greater then the two.

30 And then I saw, that the two heads were joyned therewith.

31 And beholde, the head was turned with the, that were with it, and did eate vp the two vnder wings that would haue reigned.

32 But this head put the whole earth in feare & bare rule in it, ouer all those that dwell vpon earth with much labour, & it had the gouernance of the world, more then all the wings that had bene.

33 After this I looked, & behold, the head that was in the middes, suddenly appeared no more, as did the wings.

34 But the two heads remained, which also ruled likewise vpon earth, and ouer those y dwell therein.

35 And I beheld, & loe the head vpon the right side denoured it that was vpon the left side.

36 ¶ Then I heard a voice which said vnto me, Looke before thee, and consider the thing that thou seest.

37 So I saw, and beholde as it were a lion that roareth, running hastily out of the wood: and I saw that he sent out a mans voice vnto the egles, and spake, and sayd, 38 Heare thou, I will talke with thee, and the most High shall say vnto thee.

39 Are not thou that that of the foure beasts remanest, whom I made to reigne in my world, that thou the end of times might come,

40 And the fourth is come, & hath overcome al the beasts that were past, and hath power ouer the world y great fearfulness, and ouer the whole compas of the earth w most wicked oppression, & that dwelleth so long time in all the world with deceit?

41 For thou hast not iudged y earth with truth.

42 Seeing thou hast troubled the meeke, thou hast hurt the peaceable, and thou hast loued liars, and destroyed the dwellings of them that brought forth fruit, and hast cast downe the walles of such as did thee no harme.

43 Therefore is thy wrongfull dealing come vp vnto the most High, & thy pride vnto the Mighty.

44 The most High also hath looked vpon the proud times, and behold, they are ended, and their atominations are fulfilled.

45 Therefore appeare no more, thou egles, nor thine horrible wings, nor thy wicked feathers, nor thy malicious beards, and thy wicked clawes, nor all thy vaine bodie.

46 That all the earth may be refreshed, & come againe as one deliuered from thy violence, & that she may hope for the iudgement and mercy of him that made her.

CHAP. XII.

The declaration of the former vision.

And when the lion spake these wordes to the egles, I saw,

1 And beholde, the head that had the vpper hand, appeared no more, neither did y foure wings appeare any more, that came to it, and set vp them selues to reigne, whose kingdome was small & full of vproares.

2 And I saw, and beholde, they appeared no more, and the whole body of the egles was burnt, so that the earth was in great feare. Then I awaked out of the trouble & trance of my minde, & from the great feare, and sayd vnto my spirit,

3 Lo, this hast thou done vnto me in that thou scarcest out the wayes of the most High.

4 Loe, yet am I wearie in my minde, and very weak in my spirit, and litle strength is there in me, for the great feare that I receiued this night.

5 Therefore now I will beseech the most High that he will comfort me vnto the end.

6 And I sayd, O Lord, Lord, if I haue found grace before thy sight, & if I am iustified with thee before many others, & if my prayer indeed be come vp before thy face,

7 Comfort me, and shew me thy seruant the interpretation and difference of this horrible sight, that thou mayest perfectly comfort my soule.

8 Seeing thou hast iudged me worthy to shew me the last tumer.

9 ¶ Then he sayd vnto me, This is the interpretation of this vision,

10 The egles, whom thou sawest com vp from the sea, is the kingdome which was seene in the vision of thy brother Daniel.

11 But it was not expounded vnto him: therefore now I declare it vnto thee.

12 Beholde, the dayes come, that there shall rise vp a kingdome vpon the earth, & it shall be feared aboue all kingdomes that were before it.

13 In it shall twelue kings reigne one after another,

14 Whereof the second shall begin to reigne, and shall haue more time then the twelue.

15 And this do the twelue wings signifie which thou sawest.

17 As for the voice that thou heardest speake, and that thou sawest not goe out from the heads, but from the middles of the bodies thereof, this is the interpretation,

18 That after the time of that kingdome there shall arise great strife, and it shall be in danger to fall, but it shall not then fall, but shall be restored againe to his beginning.

19 Concerning the eight vnderwings, which thou sawest hang vnto her wings, this is the interpretation,

20 In him shall arise eight Kings, whose time shall be but small, and their yeres swift, and two of them shall perish.

21 But when the middle time commeth, there shall be four kept a time, whiles his time beginneth to come, that it may be ended, but two shall be kept vnto the end.

22 And where as thou sawest three heads resting, this is the interpretation,

23 In his last dayes shall the most High raise vp three kingdomes, and shall call againe many things into them, and they shall haue the dominion of the earth,

24 And of those that dwell therein, with much griefe aboute al those that were before them: therefore are they called the heads of the eagle.

25 For they shall accomplish his wickednesse, and shall finish his last end.

26 And whereas thou sawest that the great head appeared no more, it signifyeth that one of them shall die vpon his bed, and yet with paine.

27 For the two that remaine, the sword shall deuoure them.

28 For y sword of the one shall deuoure y other: but at the last he shall fall by the sword himselfe.

29 And whereas thou sawest two vnderwings, that went off toward the head, which was on the right side, this is the interpretation,

30 These are they whom the most High hath preferred for their end, whose kingdome is little, and full of trouble as thou sawest.

31 And the lion whome thou sawest rising vp out of the wood & roaring, and speaking vnto the eagle, and rebuking her for her vnrighteousnesse with all the words that thou hast heard,

32 This is the winde which the most High hath kept for them, and for their wickednesse vnto the end, and hee shall reprove them, and cast before them their spoiles.

33 For he shall set them aloue in the iudgement, and shall rebukethem and correct them.

34 For he will deliuer the residue of my people by affliction, which are preferred vpon my borders, and he shall make them ioyfull, vntill the comming of the day of iudgement, whereof I haue spoken vnto thee from the beginning.

35 This is the dreame that thou sawest, & these are the interpretations.

36 Thou onely hast bene meet to know this secret of the most High.

37 Therefore write all these things that thou hast seene in a booke and hide them,

38 And teach them the wise of the people, whose hearts thou knowest may comprehend and keepe these secrets.

39 But wait thou here yet seuen dayes mo, that it may be shewed thee what sooner it pleaseth the most High to declare vnto thee: and with that he went his way.

40 And when all the people perceiued, that the seuen dayes were past, and I not come againe into the city, they gathered them all together, from the least vnto the most, and came vnto me, and spake vnto me, saying,

41 What haue we offended thee? or what euill haue we done against thee, that thou forsakest vs, and sittest in this place?

42 For of all the people thou only art left vs as a grape of the vine, & as a candle in a darke place, & as an haueu or ship preferred from the tempest.

43 Are not the euils which are come vnto vs sufficient?

44 If thou then forsake vs, howe much better had it bene for vs, that we had bene burnt also as Sion was burnt?

45 For wee are no better then they that died there: and they wept with a loud voice. Then answered I them, and sayd, 46 Be of good comfort, O Israel, and be not heauy, thou house of Iakob.

47 For the most High hath you in remembrance, and the Almighty hath not forgotten you in temptation.

48 As for me I haue not forsaken you, neither am I departed fro you, but am come into this place to pray for y desolation of Sion, that I might seeke mercy for the lowe citate of your Sanctuary.

49 And nowe goe your way home euery man, and after these dayes will I come vnto you.

50 So the people went their way into the cite, as I commanded them:

51 But I remained still in the field seuen dayes, as he had commanded me, and did eat only of the flowers of the field, and had my meat of the herbes in those dayes.

CHAP. XIII.

The wisdom of a winde coming forth of the sea, which became a man. § His prophecie and power against his enemies. 21 The declaration of this vision.

And after the seuen dayes I dreamed a dreame by night.

1 And beholde, there arose a winde from the sea, and it mooued all the waues thereof.

2 And I looked, and behold, there was a mighty man with the thousands of heauen: and when he turned his countenance to looke, all the things trembled that were seene vnder him.

3 And when the voice went out of his mouth, all they burned that heard his voice, as the earth falleth when it feeleth the fire.

4 After these things I saw, and beholde, there was gathered together a multitude of men out of number, from the foure windes of the heauen, to fight against the man that came out from the sea.

5 And I looked, and beholde, he graced himselfe a great mountaine, and flew vp vpon it.

6 But I would haue seene y country or place whereout the hill was grauen, and I could not.

7 I saw after these things, and beholde, all they which came to fight against him, were fore afrayd, and yet they durst fight.

8 Neuertheless when hee saw the fiercenesse of the multitude that came, hee lifted not vp his hand: for he held no sword nor any instrument of warre.

9 But onely, as I saw, he sent out of his mouth, as it had bene a blast of fire, and out of his lips the winde of the flame, & out of his tongue he cast out sparks and stormes.

11 And they were all mixt together, ^{as} this blast of fire, the winde of the flame, and the great storme, and fell with violence vpon the multitude, which was prepared to fight, and bunt them vp all, so that of the innumerable multitude there was nothing seene, but onely dust, and smell of smoke. When I saw this, I was affraid.

12 Afterward saw I the same man come down from the mountaine, and calling vnto him another peaceable multitude.

13 And there came many vnto him, some with ioyfull countenance, and some with sadde: some of them were bound, and some brought of them that were offered: and I was sicke through great feare, and awaked, and said,

14 Thou hast shewed thy seruant these wonders from the beginning, and hast counted me worthy to receiue my prayer.

15 Shewe menow therefore the interpretation of this dreame.

16 For thus I consider in mine vnderstanding, woe vnto them that shalbe left in those daies, and much more woe vnto them that are not left behinde.

17 For they that were not left, were in heauines.

18 Nowe vnderstand I the thinges that are laide vp in the latter dayes, which shall come both vnto them, and to those that are left behinde.

19 Therefore are they come into great perils and many necessities, as these dreames declare.

20 Yet it is easer, that he that is in danger should fall into these, and forsee the thinges to come hereafter, then to passe away as a cloude out of the world.

21 Then answered he me, and said, The interpretation of the vision will I shew thee, and I will open to thee the thing that thou hast required.

22 Whereas thou hast spoken of them that are left behinde, this is the interpretation,

23 He that shall beare the danger in that time, hee shall keepe himselfe. They that be fallen into danger, are such as haue works and faith toward the most Mightie.

24 Know therefore, that they which be left behinde, are more blessed then they that be dead.

25 These are the meanings of the vision, Where as thou sawest a man coming vp from the mids of the sea,

26 The same is he whome the most High hath kept a great season, who by his owne selfe shall deliuer his creature, and hee shall order them that are left behinde.

27 And whereas thou sawest, that out of his mouth there came a blast with fire and storme,

28 And that he neither held sword nor weapon, but that by his fiercenesse hee destroyed the whole multitude, that came to fight against him, this is the interpretation,

29 Behold, the dayes come that the most High will beginne to deliuer them that are vpon the earth.

30 And he shall astonish the hearts of them that dwell vpon the earth:

31 And one shall prepare to fight against another, citie against citie, and place against place, and nation against nation, and realme against realme.

32 When this commeth to passe, then shall the tokens come, that I shewed thee before, and then shall my sonne be reuiled, whom thou sawest goe vp as a man.

33 And when all the people heare his voice, euery man shall in their owne lande leaue the battell that they haue one against another.

34 And an innumerable multitude shalbe gathered as one, as they that be willing to come, and to fight against him.

35 But he shall stand vpon the toppe of mount Sion.

36 And Sion shall come, and shall be shewed to all, being prepared and builded, as thou sawest the hill grauen forth without any hands.

37 And this my Sonne shall rebuke the wicked inuentions of those nations, which for their wicked life are fallen into the tempest,

38 And into torments like to flame, whereby they shalbe tormented, and without any labour will he destroy them, euen by the Lawe, which is compared vnto the fire.

39 And whereas thou sawest that hee gathered another peaceable people vnto him,

40 Those are the ten tribes which were caried away captiues out of their owne land,* in the time of Ofas the King, whome Salmanasar the king of the Assyrians tooke captiue, and caried them beyond the riuer: so were they brought into another lande.

41 But they tooke this counsell to themselves, that they would leaue the multitude of the heathen, and goe soorth into a further country, where neuer man dwelt.

42 That they might there keepe their statutes, which they neuer kept in their owne land.

43 And they entred in at the narrow passages of the riuer Euphrates.

44 For the most High then shewed them signes, * and stayed the springs of the flood till they were passed ouer.

45 For thorow the country there was a great journey, euen of a yeere and an halfe, and the same region is called || Arareth.

46 Then dwelt they there vntill the latter time: and when they come forth againe, 47 The most High shall hold still the springs of the riuer againe that they may goe thorow: therefore sawest thou the multitude peaceable.

48 But they that be left behinde of thy people, are those that be found within my borders.

49 Nowe when he destroyeth the multitude of the nations that are gathered together, he shall defend the people that remaine,

50 And then shall he shewe great wonders vnto them.

51 Then saide I, O Lorde, Lorde, shew me this, wherefore haue I seene the man coming vp from the middes of the sea?

52 And he saide vnto me, As thou canst neither seeke out, nor knowe these thinges, that are in the deepe of the sea, so can no man vpon earth see my Sonne, or those that be with him, but in the time of that day.

53 This is the interpretation of the dreame which thou sawest, and whereby thou onely art lightened.

54 For thou hast forsaken thine owne Law, and applied thy diligence vnto mine, and sought it.

55 Thy life hast thou ordered in wisdom, and hast called vnderstanding thy mother.

56 Therefore haue I shewed thee the rewards with the most High: and after three other dayes

I will

|| Or Ararat.

I will speake other things vnto thee, and will declare vnto thee great and wonderous things.

17 Then went I forth vnto the field, glorifying and praying the most High for the wonders which he did in time, 18 Which he gouerneth, & such things as come in their seasons: and there I sate three dayes.

CHAP. XIII.

3 How God appeared to Hefias in the bush, 10 All things desired to age, 15 The latter times worse then the former, 19 The ingratitudes of Israel, 25 The resurrection and iudgement.

Vpon the third day I sate vnder an Oke, and beholde, there came forth a voyce vnto me out of the bush, and said, Efdras, Efdras.

2 And I said, Here am I, Lorde, and stooode vp vpon my feete.

Exod. 3. 8.

3 Then said he vnto me, * In the bush I reuelled my selfe, and spake vnto Moyfes, when my people serued in Egypt:

4 And I cut him, and led my people out of Egypt, and brought him vpon the mount Sinai, and I held him with me a long season,

5 And I tolde him many wonders, and shewed him the secrets of the times and the ende, and commanded him, saying,

6 These wordes shalt thou declare, and these shalt thou hide.

7 And now I say vnto thee, that thou lay vp in thine heart the signes that I haue shewed, and the dreames that thou hast seene, and the interpretations which thou hast heard.

8 For thou shalt be taken away from all, and thou shalt remaine henceforth with my counsell, & with such as be like thee, vntill the times be ended.

9 For the world hath lost his youth, and the times begin to waxe old.

10 For the world is diuided into twelue partes, and ten partes of it are gone already, and halfe of the tenth part.

11 And there remaineth that which is after the halfe of the tenth part.

12 Therefore set thine house in order, & reform thy people, and comfort such of them as be in trouble, and now renounce the corruption.

13 Let goe from thee mortall thoughtes: cast away from thee the burdens of men, and put off now the weake nature.

14 And set aside thy most grievous thoughtes, and haste thee to depart from these times.

15 For greater evils then those which thou hast seene now, shall they commit.

16 For the weaker that the worlde is by reason of age, the more shall the evils be increased vpon them that dwell therein.

17 For the truth is fled farre away, and lies are at hand: for now hasteth the vision to come, that thou hast seene.

18 ¶ Then answered I, and said before thee,

19 Behold, O Lord, I will goe as thou hast commanded me, and reforme the people, which are present: but they that shall be borne afterwarde, who shall admonish them?

20 Thus the world is set in darknesse, and they that dwell therein, are without light.

21 For thy Lawe is burnt, therefore no man knoweth the things that are done of thee, or the workes that shalt be done.

22 But if I saw: found grace before thee, sende the holy Ghost into mee, and I will write all that hath bene done in the worlde since the beginning, which was written in thy Law, that men may finde the pathes, and that they which will liue in the latter dayes, may liue.

23 And he answered me, saying, Go, and gather the people, and say vnto them, that they seeke thee not for fourtie dayes,

24 But prepare thee many boxe tables, and take with thee these five, Sarea, Dabria, Sclomia, Ecanus, and Afel, which are ready to write swiftly,

25 And come hither, and I will light a candle of vnderstanding in thine heart, which shall not be put out till the things be performed which thou shalt begin to write.

26 And then shalt thou declare some things openly vnto the perfite men, and some things shalt thou shew secretly vnto the wife: to morow this houre shalt thou begin to write.

27 Then went I forth, as he commanded me, and gathered all the people together, and said,

28 Heare these words, O Israel,

29 * Our fathers at the beginning were strangers * Gen. 4. 1. in Egypt, from whence they were deliuered,

30 And receiued ¶ Law of life, which they kept * Acts 17. 9. not, which ye also haue transgressed after them.

31 Then was the land, euen the lande of Sion parted among you by lot: but your fathers and yee also haue done vnrighteously, & haue not kept the wayes which the most High commanded you.

32 And for so much as he is a righteous Iudge, he tooke from you in time the thing that hee had giuen you.

33 And now are ye here, and your brethren among you.

34 Therefore if so be that you will subdue your owne vnderstanding, and reforme your heart, yee shall be kept aliue, and after death shall ye obtaine mercie.

35 For after death shall the iudgement come, when we shall liue againe: and then shall the names of the righteous be manifest, and the works of the vngodly shall be declared.

36 Let no man therefore come now vnto mee, nor seeke me these fourtie dayes.

37 So I tooke the five men, as he commanded me, and we went into the field, & remained there.

38 The next day, beholde, a voyce called me, saying, Efdras, * open thy mouth, and drinke that * Ezech. 4. 1. I giue thee to drinke.

39 Then opened I my mouth, and beholde, hee reached me a full cup, which was full as it were with water, but the colour of it was like fire.

40 And I tooke it, and dranke, and when I had drunke it, mine heart had vnderstanding, and wisdom grew in my brest: for my spirit was strengthened in memorie.

41 And my mouth was opened, & shut no more.

42 The most High gaue vnderstanding vnto the five men, that they wrote the high things of the night, which they vnderstood me.

43 But in the night they did eate bread, but I spake by day, and held not my tongue by night.

44 In fourtie dayes they wrote two hundredth and foure bookes.

45 And when the fourtie dayes were fulfilled, the most High spake, saying, The first that thou hast written, publish openly, that the worthe and vnto worthe may read it.

46 But keepe the seuenie last, that thou mayest giue them to the wife among the people.

47 For in them is the veine of vnderstanding, and

and the fountaine of wifdome, and the riuer of knowledge: and I did fo.

CHAP. XV.

The prophets of Egipt in vaine. 5 The vail that fhall couer the world. 9 The Lord will avenge the innocent blood. 10 Egypt fhall leaue. 11 Sedition. 20 And punishment vpon the Kings of the earth. 21 Curfed are they that faue. 29 Tremble and weep vpon the whole earth. 33 God is the reuenger of his elect.

Behold, fpeake thou in the eares of my people the wordes of prophetic, which I will put in thy mouth, faith the Lord:

1 And caufe them to be written in a letter: for they are faithfull and true.

2 Fear not the imaginations againft thee: let not the vnfaithfullnes of the fpeakers trouble thee, that fpeake againft thee.

3 For cury vnfaithfull fhall die in his vnfaithfullneffe.

4 Behold, faith the Lord, I will bring plagues vpon all the world, the fword, famine, death, and deftruccion:

5 Becaufe that iniquitie hath fully polluted all the earth, and their wicked workes are fulfilled.

6 Therefore, faith the Lord, I will holde my tongue no more for their wickedneffe, (they doe vngodly) neither will I fuffer them in the things that they doe wickedly.

7 Behold, * the innocent and righteous blood crieth vnto me, and the foules of the iuft crie continually.

8 I will furely avenge them, faith the Lord, and reuiege vnto mee all the innocent blood from among them.

9 Behold, my people is led as a flocke to the flaughter: I will not fuffer them nowe to dwell in the land of Egypt.

10 But I will bring them out with a mightie hand, and a ftreched out arme, and fmite it with plagues as afore, and will deftroie al the land therof.

11 Egypt fhall mourne, and the foundations thereof fhall be fmiten with the plague & punishment, that God fhall bring vpon it.

12 The plowmen that till the ground, fhall moune: for their feedes fhall faile through the blafing and haile, and by an horrible ftarre.

13 Wo to the world, & to them that dwell therein.

14 For the fword, and their deftruccion draweth neere, and one people fhall ftand vp to fight againft another with fwords in their hands.

15 For there fhall be fedition among men, and one king fhall invade another: they fhall not regard their fhall, & the princes fhall meafure their doings by their power.

16 A man fhall defire to go into a city, & fhall not be able.

17 Becaufe of their pride the cities fhall be troubled, the houfes fhall be afraid, men fhall feare.

18 A man fhall haue no pity vpon his neighbour, but fhall deftroie their houfes with the fword, and their goods fhall be fpoyled for lacke of bread, and becaufe of great trouble.

19 Behold, faith God, I call together all the kings of the earth to reuerence mee, which are from the Eaft, and from the South, from the Eaft, and from Libanus, to turne vpon them, & to repay the things that they haue done to them.

20 As they doe yet this day vnto my chofen, fo will I doe alfo, and recompence them in their bofome: thus faith the Lord God,

21 My right hand fhall not fpare the finners, neither fhall the fword ceafe from them, that fhed innocent blood vpon earth.

22 The fire is gaped out from his wrath, & hath confumed the foundations of the earth, & the finners like the ftaw, that is kindled.

23 Woeto them that finne, and keepe not my commandements, faith the Lord.

24 I will not fpare them: depart, O children, from the power: defile not my Sanctuary.

25 For the Lord knoweth all them that finne againft him, and therefore deliuereth them vnto death and deftruccion.

26 For nowe are the plagues come vpon the world, & ye fhall remaine in them: for God will not deliuer you becaufe ye haue finned againft him.

27 Behold, an horrible vifion commeth from the Eaft,

28 Where generations of dragons of Arabia fhall come out with many charrets, & the multitude of them fhall be caried as the winde vpon the earth, that all they which heare them, may feare and tremble.

29 Euen the Carmanians raging in wrath, fhall go forth as the bores of the foreft, and fhall come with great power, and ftande againft them in battell, and fhall deftroie a portion of the lande of the Affyrians.

30 But after this fhall the dragons haue the vpper hand, and remember their nature, & fhall turne about, and confpire to confume them with a great power.

31 Then thefe fhall be troubled, and keepe fience by their power, and fhall flee.

32 From the land of the Affyrians fhall the enemy befiege them and confume fome of them, and their hofte fhall be feare and dread, and ftirre among their kings.

33 Behold cloudes from the Eaft, and from the North vnto the South, and they are very horrible to looke vpon, full of wrath and ftorme.

34 They fhall fmite one vpon another, and they fhall fmite downe a great multitude of ftarres vpon the earth, euen their own ftarre, and the blood fhall be from the fword to the belly.

35 And the dongue of an vnto 3 Camels litter.

36 And there fhall bee great fearefulneffe and trembling vpon earth, and they that fee the wrath, fhall be afraid, and a trembling fhall come vpon them.

37 And then there fhall come great ftormes from the South, and from the North, and part from the Weft.

38 And from the Eaft fhall windes arife, & fhall open it with the cloud, which he raifed vp in wrath, and the ftarre, raifed to feare the Eaft and Weft windes, fhall be deftroied.

39 And the great and mightie cloudes fhall be lift vp full of wrath, and the ftarre, that they may make al the earth afraid, and then that dwell therein, and that they may powre out ouer eury hie place, and lifted vp, an horrible conftellation,

40 As fire and haile, and flying fword, and many waters, that all fieldes may be full, and all riuers with the abundance of great waters.

41 And they fhall breake downe the cities and wallles, and mountaines, and hilles, and the trees of the wood, and the graffe of the medowes, and their corne.

42 And they fhall go with a ftraight courfe vnto Babylon, and make it afraid.

44 They

44 They shall come to her, and besiege her, and shall powre forth the confellation, & al the wrath against her: then shall the dust and smoke goe vp vnto the heauen, and al they that be about her, shall bewaile her.

45 And they that remaine vnder her, shall doe seruice vnto them, that haue put her in feare.

46 ¶ And thou Asia, that art partaker of the hope of Babylon, and the glory of her person, 47 Woe vnto thee, O wretch, because thou hast made thy selfe like vnto her, and hast deckt thy daughters in whoredome, that they might please and glory in thy louts, which haue alway desired to commit whoredome with thee.

48 Thou hast folloved her that is hated in al her works, and in her inuentions: therefore saith God,

49 I will send plagues vpon thee, widowhood, pouertie, and famine, and the sword, and pestilence, to waste thine houses with destruction and death.

50 And the glory of thy power shall bee dried vvas a flower when the heate riseth, that is sent vpon thee.

51 Thou shalt bee sicke as a poore wife that is plagued and beaten of women, so that the mightie and the lousers shall not be able to receiue thee.

52 Would I thus hate thee, saith the Lord,

53 If thou hadst not alway slaine my chosen, exalting the stroke of thine handes, and said our their death, when thou wast drunken,

54 Set forth the beautie of thy countenance?

55 The reward of thy whoredome shall be in thy bosome: therefore shalt thou receiue a reward.

56 As thou hast done vnto my chosen, saith the Lord, so will God doe vnto thee, and will deliuer thee vnto the plague.

57 And thy children shall die of hunger, & thou shalt fall by the sword, and thy cities shall be broken downe, and all thy men shall fall by the sword in the field.

58 And they that be in the mountaines shall die of hunger, and eat their owne flesh, & drinke their owne blood for want of bread and thirst of water.

59 And thou, as vnhappy, shalt come thorowe the sea, and receiue plagues againe.

60 In the passage they shall cast downe the flaine cities, and shall roote out one part of thy land, and consume the portion of thy glory, and shall returne to her that was destroyed.

61 When thou shalt be cast downe, thou shalt be to them as stubble, and they shall be to thee as fire,

62 And they shall destroy thee, and thy cities, thy land, and thy mountaines: all thy woods, & all thy fruitfull trees shall they burne with fire.

63 Thy children shall they carry away captiue, and shall spoile thy substance, and marre the beauty of thy face.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Against Babylon, Asia, and Egypt and Syria. 28. Of the evils that shall come vpon the world, with admonition how to gouerne themselves. in. of B. Chaps. 54. To acknowledge their sinnes, and to commit themselves to the Lord. 55. What might prouidence and iustice is to be remembred.

WO to thee, Babylon and Asia: woe to thee Egypt and Syria.

2 Gird your selues with sacke and hairecloth, and moune your children, and be sorie: for your destruction is at hand.

3 A sword is sent vnto you, and who will turne it backe? a fire is sent among you, and who will quench it?

4. Plagues are sent vnto you, & who can driue them away?

5 May any man driue away an hungry lion in the wood? or quench the fire in stubble when it hath once begun to burne? may one turne againe the arrow, that is shot of a strong archer?

6 The mighty Lord sendeth the plagues, and who can driue them away? the fire is gone forth in his wrath, and who can quench it?

7 He shall cast lightnings, and who shall not feare? he shall thunder, and who shall not be afraid?

8 The Lord shall threaten, and who shall not vterly be broken in pieces at his presence? the earth quaketh, and the foundation thereof: the sea ariseth vp with waues from the deepe, and the filthes thereof, before the Lord, and the glory of his power.

9 For strong is his right hand, that bendeth the bowe: his arrowes that he shooteth, are sharpe, and shall not misse, when they begin to be shot into the ends of the world.

10 Beholde, the plagues are sent, and shall not turne againe, till they come vpon earth.

11 The fire is kindled, and shall not be put out, till it consume the foundations of the earth.

12 As an arrow which is shotte of a mightie archer, returneth not backward, so the plagues that shall beset vpon earth, shall not turne againe.

13 Woe is me, woe is me: who will deliuer me in those dayes?

14 The beginning of sorowes and great mourning: the beginning of famine and great death: the beginning of warres, and the powers shall searthe the beginning of euils, and all shall tremble. What shall I doe in these things, when the plagues come?

15 Behold, famine and plague, and trouble, and anguish are sent as scourges for amendement.

16 But for all these things they will not turne from their wickednesse, nor be alway mendeul of the scourges.

17 Beholde, vitailles shall be so good cheape vpon earth, that they shall thinke themselves to be in good case: but then shall the euils bud forth vpon earth, euen the sword, the famine and great confusion.

18 For many of them that dwell vpon earth, shall perish with famine, and the other that escape the famine, shall the sword destroy.

19 And the dead shall be cast out as dung, and there shall be no man to comfort them: for the earth shall be wasted, and the cities shall be cast downe.

20 There shall be no man left to till the earth, and to sowe it: the trees shall giue fruit, but who shall gather them?

21 The grapes shall be ripe, but who shall treade them? for all places shall be desolate, so that one man shall desire to see another, or to heare his voyce.

22 For of one citie there shall be tenne left, and two of the field, which shall hide themselves in the thick woods, and in the clefts of rocks.

23 As when there remaine three or foure olives in the place where oliues growe, or among other trees,

24 Or as when a vineyard is gathered, there are left some grapes of them that diligently sought thorow the vineyard:

25 So in those dayes there shall be three or foure left by them that searche their houses with the sword.

26 And the earth shall be left waste, & the fields thereof thereof shall wake olde, and her wayes and all her purues shall growe full of thornes because no man shall trauell therethrough.

27 The virgins shall mourne, hauing no bride-gromes: the women shall make lamentation, hauing no husbands: their daughters shall mourne, hauing no helpers.

28 In the waters shall their bridegromes be destroyed, and their husbands shall perish with famine.

29 But, yee seruants of the Lorde, heare these things, and marke them.

30 Behold the worde of the Lorde, receiue it: beleeue not the gods of whom the Lorde speaketh:
behold, the plagues draw neere, and are not slacke.

31 As a travelling woman which in the ninth moneth bringeth forth her sonne, when the houre of birth is come, two or three houres afore y paines come vpon her bodie, and when the childe commeth to the birth, they tarie not a whit.

32 So shall not the plagues bee slacke to come vpon the earth, and the worlde shall mourne, and forowes shall come vpon it on euery side.

33 O my people, heare my worde: make you readie to the battell, and in the troubles bee euen as strangers vpon earth.

34 Hee that selleth, let him be as he that fleeth his way: and he that buyeth, as one that will lose.

35 Who so occupieth merchandise, as he that winneeth not: and he that buildeth, as he that shall not dwell therein.

36 He that foweth, as one that shall not reape:
he that curtheth the vine, as he that shall not gather the grapes.

37 They that marrie, as they that shall get no children: and they that marrie not, so as the wi-dowes.

38 Therefore, they that labour, labour in vaine.

39 For strangers shall reape their fruites, and spoil their goods, and ouerthrow their houses, and take their children captiue: for in captiuitie and famine shall they get their children.

40 And they that occupie their merchandise with couetousnesse, the more they decke their cities, their houses, their possessions, and their owne persons,

41 So much more wil I be angrie against them for their sinnes, saith the Lorde.

42 As a whore enuieth an honest and vertuous woman,

43 So shall righteousnesse hate iniquitie, when shee decketh her selfe, and shall accuse her openly, when he that come that shall bridle the author of all sinne vpon earth.

44 And therefore be ye not like therunto, nor to the works thereof: for or euer it be long, iniquitie shall be taken away out of the earth, and righte-ousnesse shall reigne among you.

45 Let not the sinner say, that he hath not sinned: for coales of fire shall burne vpon his head, which saith, I haue not sinned before the Lorde God and his glorie.

46 Behold, the Lorde * knoweth all the workes of men, their imaginations, their thoughts and their hearts.

47 * For as soone as hee saide, Let the earth bee made, it was made: let the heauen be made, and it was created.

48 By his word were the starres established, and he * knoweth the number of them.

49 Hee searcheth the depth, and the treasures thereof: he hath measured the sea, and what it containeth.

50 Hee hath shut the sea in the mids of the waters, and with his word hath he hanged the earth vpon the waters.

51 Hee spreadeth out the heauen like a vawer:
vpon the waters hath he founded it.

52 In the desert hath he made springs of water, and pooles vpon the toppes of the mountaines, to powre out floods vpon the high rocks to water the earth.

53 He made man, and put his heart in the mids of the bodie, and gaue him breath, life and vnder-standing.

54 And the Spirit of the Almighty God, which made all things, and hath searched all the hid things in the secretes of the earth,

55 Hee knoweth your inuentions, and what ye imagine in your heart: when yee sinne and woulde hide your sinnes.

56 Therefore hath the Lorde searched & fought out all your works, and will put you all to shame.

57 And when your sinnes are brought forth before men, yee shall be confounded, and your owne sinnes shall stand as your accusers in that day.

58 What will ye doe, or how will ye hide your sinnes before God and his Angels?

59 Beholde, God himselfe is the iudge: feare him: cease from your sinnes, and forget your ini-quities, and meddle no more from henceforth with them: so that God leade you forth, and deliuer you from all trouble.

60 For beholde, the heste of a great multitude is kindled against you, and they shall take away certaine of you, and shall slay you for meate to the idoles.

61 And they that consent vnto them, shall bee had in derision and in reproche, and troden vnder foote.

62 For in euery place and cities that are neere, there shall be great insurrection against those that feare the Lorde.

63 They shall be like madde men: they shall spare none: they shall spoil, and waste such as yet feare the Lorde.

64 For they then shall waste and spoil their goods, and cast them out of their houses.

65 Then shall the trial of my chosen appeare,
as the golde is tried by the fire.

66 Heare, O ye my beloued, saith the Lorde, be-holde, the dayes of trouble are at hand, but I will deliuer you from them: be not yete afraide: doubt not, for God is your captaine.

67 Who so keepeth my commandments and precepts, saith the Lorde God, let not your sinnes weigh you downe, and let not your iniquities lift themselves vp.

68 Woe vnto them that are bound with their sinnes, and couered with their iniquities, as a field is hedged in with thushes, and the path thereof co-uered with thornes, whereby no man may traueil:
it is shut vp, and is appointed to bee deliuered with fire.

17 ¶ Powe out thy bread on the buriall of the iust, but give nothing to the wicked.

18 Alke counsell alway of the wife, and despise not any counsell that is profitable.

19 Blesseth thy Lord God alway, and desire of him that thy wayes may be made straight, and that all thy purposes and counsells may prosper: for every nation hath not counsell: but the Lord giueth all good things, and he humbleth whom he will, as he will: now therefore, my sonne, remember my commandements, neither let them at any time be put out of thy minde.

20 * Furthermore I signifie this to thee, that I deliuered thee talents to Gabael the sonne of Gabrias at Rages in Media.

21 And feare not, my sonne, forasmuch as wee are made poore: for thou hast many things, if thou feare God, & flee from all sinne, and do that thing which is acceptable vnto him.

CHAP. V.

Tobias first in Rages, 4. He meeteth with the Angel Raphael, which did command him.

Tobias then answered, and said, Father, I will doe all things which thou hast commanded me.

2 But howe can I receiue the sluer, seeing I know him not?

3 Then he gaue him the hand writing, and said vnto him, Seeke thee a man, which may goe with thee, whiles I yet liue, and I will giue him wages, and goe and receiue the money.

4 Therefore when he was gone to seeke a man, he found Raphael the Angel.

5 But he knew not, and said vnto him, May I goe with thee into the land of Media? and knowest thou those places well?

6 To whom the Angel said, I will go with thee: for I haue remained with our brother Gabael.

7 Then Tobias sayd to him, Tarie for me till I tell my Father.

8 Then he sayd vnto him, Goe, and tarie not: so hee went in, and sayde to his father, Beholde, I haue found one, which will goe with me. Then he sayd, Call him vnto mee, that I may know of what tribe he is, and whether he be faithfull to goe with thee.

9 So he called him, and he came in, and they saluted one another.

10 Then Tobias sayd vnto him, Brother, shewe me of wh tribe and familie thou art.

11 To whom he sayd, Dost thou seeke a stocke or familie, or an hired man to goe with thy sonne? Then Tobias sayd vnto him, I would know, brother, thy kindred and thy name.

12 Then he sayd, I am of the kindred of Azarias and Ananias the great, and of thy brethren.

13 Then Tobias sayd, ¶ Thou art welcome, brother: be not now angry with me, because I haue inquired to know thy kindred, & thy family: for thou art my brother of an honest & good stocke: for I know Ananias & Ionathas, sonnes of that great Samaias: for we went together to Ierusalem to worship, and offered the first borne, & the tenths of the fruits, and they were not deceiued with the error of our brethren: my brother, thou art of a great stock.

14 But tell me, What wages shall I giue thee?

15 Yea, moreouer if ye retaine safe, I will adde something to the wages.

16 So they agreed. Then said he to Tobias, Prepare thy selfe for the journey, and go you on Gods Name. And when his sonne had prepared all things for the journey, his father sayd, Goe thou with this man, and God which dwelleth in heauen, prosper your journey, & the angel of God keepe you company. So they went forth both and departed, and the dogge of the young man with them.

17 But * Anna his mother wept, & sayd to Tobias, Why hast thou sent away our sonne? is he not the staffe of our hand to minister vnto vs?

18 Would to God we had not layed money vpon money, but that it had bene cast away in respect of our sonne.

19 For that which God hath giuen vs to liue with, doth suffice vs.

20 Then said Tobias, Be not careful, my sister: he shall retaine in safety, and thine eyes shall see him.

21 For the good Angel doth keepe him company, and his journey shall be prosperous, and he shall retaine safe.

22 Then he made an end of weeping.

Tobias delivered from the fish. 2. Raphael foretels him certain adventures, 10. His counsell how he should returne.

And as they went on their journey, they came at night to the flood Tigris, and there abode.

2 And when the young man went to wash himselfe, a fish leaped out of the riuer, and would haue deuoured him.

3 Then the Angel said vnto him, Take the fish. And the young man took y fish, and drew it to land.

4 To whom the Angel saide, Cut the fish, and take the heart, and the liuer, and the gall, and put them vp surely.

5 So the young man did, as the Angel commanded him: and when they had roasted the fish, they ate it: then they both went on their way, till they came to Ecbatane.

6 ¶ Then the young man saide to the Angel, Brother Azarias, what auaieth the heart, and the liuer, and the gall of the fish?

7 And he saide vnto him, Touching the heart, and the liuer, if a deuil or an euil spirit trouble any, wee must make a perfume of this before the man or the woman, and he shall be no more vexed.

8 As for the gall, anoint a man that hath white-nesse in his eyes, and he shall be healed.

9 ¶ And when they were come neere to Rages, the Angel said to the young man, Brother, to day we shall lodge with Raguel, who is thy couzine: he also hath one only daughter named Sarrai: will speake for her that she may be giue thee for a wife.

11 For to thee doth * the right of her pertene, seeing thou alone art the remnant of her kindred, and 12. And the maid is faire and wise: now therefore heare me, & I will speake to her father, that we may make the marriage when we are returned from Rages: for I know that Raguel cannot marrie her to another according to the lawe of Moyses: for he should desire death, because the right doth rather appertaine to thee then to any other man.

13 Then the young man answered the Angel, I haue heard, brother Azarias, that this maide hath bene giuen to seuen men, who all died in the marriage chamber:

*Tobias wept forth, the Angel keeping him company, his mother wepteth.

14 And I am the only begotten sonne of my father, and I am afraid lest I goe in to her, and dye as the other before: for a wicked spirit shall loneth her, which hateth no body but those which come in to her: wherefore I also feare lest I die, and bring my fathers and my mothers life because of mee to the graine with sorrow: for they have no other sonne to bury them.

15 Then the Angel sayde vnto him, Dost thou not remember the precepts which thy father gaue thee, that thou shouldest marry a wife of thine own kindred: wherefore heare mee, O my brother: for she shall be thy wife, neither be thou carefull of the euill spirit: for it is the same night shall she be giuen thee in marriage.

16 And when thou shalt goe into the marriage chamber, thou shalt take of the hote coles for perfumes, and make a perfume of the heart, and of the liuer of the filth.

17 Which if the spirit do smel, he will flee away, and neuer come againe any more: but when thou shalt come to her, rise vp both of you, and pray to God which is mercifull, who will haue pittie on you, and saue you: feare not, for she is appoynted vnto thee from the beginning, and thou shalt keepe her, and she shall go with thee: moreover I suppose that she shall beare three children: now when Tobias had heard these things, he loued her, and his heart was effectually ioyned to her.

CHAP. VII.

1 And when they were come to Ecbatane, they came to the house of Raguel: and Sarra mette them, and after they had kissed one another, shee brought them into the house.

2 Then sayde Raguel to Edna his wife, Howe like is this yong man to Tobit my cousin?

3 And Raguel asked, Whence are you, my brethren? To whom they saide, that they were of the tribe of Nephtalim, and of the captiues that dwelt at Nineue.

4 Then he sayd to them, Doe ye knowe Tobit our kinsman? And they sayd, We know him. Then said he, Is he in good health?

5 And they sayd, He is both alive, and in good health: and Tobias said, He is my father.

6 Then Raguel leaped, and kissed him, & wept, and blessed him, and sayde vnto him, Thou art the sonne of an honest and good man: but when he had heard that Tobit was blinde, he was sorrowfull and wept.

7 And likewise Edna his wife, and Sarra his daughter wept. Moreover they receiued them with a ready minde, and after that they had killed a ram of the flocke, they fet much meate on the table. Then said Tobias to Raphael, Brother Azarias, put forth those things whereof thou spakest in the way, that this businesse may be dispatched.

8 So he communicated the matter with Raguel, and Raguel sayd to Tobias, Eate, and drinke and make merry.

9 For it is meete that thou shouldest marrye my daughter: neuerthelesse, I will declare vnto thee the truth.

10 Thane giuen my daughter in marriage to seven men, who dyed that night which they came in vnto her: neuerthelesse, be thou of a good courage and merry. But Tobias sayde, I will eate nothing here, vntill ye bring her hither, and betrothe her vnto me.

11 Raguel said then, Marry her then according to the custome: for thou art her cousin, and shee is thine. God which is mercifull, make this prosperous to you in all good things.

12 Then he called his daughter Sarra, and shee came to her father, and hee tooke her by the hand, and gaue her for wife to Tobias, saying, Beholde, take her after the lawe of Moyses, and leade her away to thy father: and he blessed them.

13 And called his wife Edna, and hee tooke a booke, and wrote a contract, and sealed it.

14 Then they began to eate.

15 After, Raguel called his wife Edna, and sayd vnto her, Sister, prepare another chamber, and bring her in hither.

16 Which when she had done, as he had bidden her, shee brought her thither: then Sarra wept, and her mother wiped away her daughters teares.

17 And sayd vnto her, Be of good comfort, my daughter: the Lord of heauen and earth giue thee ioy for this thy sorowe: bee of good comfort my daughter.

CHAP. VIII.

Tobias driued away the euill spirit, & hel prayeth to God with his wife. 18 Raguel prepareth a banquet for his sonne in law, as Raguel blesseth his Lawe.

1 And when they had supped, they brought Tobias in vnto her.

2 And as he writ, he remembered the words of Tobias followeth Raphael's Counsel, as Chap. 6. 7. Raphael and tooke coles for perfumes, and put the heart and liuer of the filth thereupon, and made a perfume.

3 The which smell when the euill spirit had smelled, he fledde into the vntost parts of Egypt, for, vnto thee.

4 And after that they were both shut in, Tobias rose out of the bed, and sayd, Sister, arise and let vs pray, that God would haue pittie on vs.

5 Then began Tobias to say, Blessed art thou, O God of our fathers, and blessed is thine holy and glorious Name for euertyle the heauens blest thee, and all thy creatures.

6 Thou madest Adam, and gauest him Eua his wife for an helpe, and stay: of them came mankind: thou hast sayde, It is not good, that a man should be alone: let vs make vnto him an ayde like vnto himselfe.

7 And now, O Lord, I take not this my sister for fornication, but vprightly: therefore grant me mercy, that we may be come aged together.

8 And she sayd with him, Amen.

9 So they slept both that night, and Raguel arose, and went and made a graine.

10 Saying, Is not he dead also?

11 But when Raguel was come into his house, he sayd to his wife Edna, Send one of the mayds, and let them see whether he be aliue or not, that I may bury him, and none know it.

12 So the maid opened the doore, and went in, and found them both asleepe.

13 And came forth, & told them that he was aliue.

14 Then Raguel praised God, and sayd, O God, thou art worthy to be praised with all pure, & holy praise: therefore let thy Saints praise thee with all thy creatures, and let all thine Angels and thine Obedient praise thee for euer.

15 Thou art to be praised, O Lord: for thou hast made me ioyfull, and that is not come to mee which I suspected: but thou hast dealt with vs according to great mercie.

17 Thou art to be praised because thou hast had mercy of two that were the only begotten children of their fathers: graunt them mercy, O Lord, and finish their life in health with joy and mercy.

18 Then Raguel bade his seruants to fill a graue.
19 And hee kept the wedding feast fouretee dayes.

20 For Raguel had sayde vnto him by an othe, that hee shoulde not depart before that the fouretee dayes of the marriage were expired.

21 And then hee shoulde take the halfe of his goods and returne in safety to his father, and should haue the rest, when he and his wife were dead.

CHAP. IX.

Raphael iudgeth Gabriel to Tobias marriage.

Then Tobias called Raphael, and sayde vnto him,

1 Brother Azarias, take with thee a seruant and two camels, and goe to Rages of the Medes to Gabael, and bring mee the money, and bring him to the wedding.

2 For Raguel hath sworne that I shall not depart.

3 But my father counteth the dayes: and if I tarry long he will be very sory.

4 So Raphael went out & came to Gabael, and gaue him the hand writing, who brought fourth bags which were sealed vp, and gaue them to him.

5 And in the morning they went fourth both together, and came to the wedding. And Tobias begate his wife with child.

CHAP. X.

Tobias and his wife winter long for their sonne, 20 Raguel iudgeth away Tobias and Sarra.

NOWE Tobit his father counted euery day, and when the dayes of the iourney were expired, and they came not,

1 Tobias sayd, Are they not mocked? or is not Gabael dead, and there is no man to gaue him the money?

2 Therefore he was very sory.

3 Then his wife said to him, My sonne is dead, seeing he tarrieth: and she began to bewaile him, and sayd,

4 Nowe I care for nothing, my sonne, since I haue lost the light of mine eyes.

5 To whom Tobit sayd, Hold thy peace: be not carefull, for he is safe.

6 But she said, Hold thy peace, and deecine me not: my sonne is dead: and she went out euery day by the way which they went, neither did shee eate meate on the day time, and did consume whole nights in bewailing her sonne Tobias vntill the fouretee dayes of y wedding were expired, which Raguel had sworne, that he should tary there. Then Tobias sayd to Raguel, Let me goe: for my father and my mother looke no more to see me.

7 But his father in lawe sayde vnto him, Tarry with mee, and I will fend to thy father, and they shall declare him thine affaires.

8 But Tobias sayd, No, but let me goe to my father.

9 Then Raguel arose, and gaue him Sarra his wife, and halfe his goods, as seruants, and cattel, and money,

10 And hee blessed them, and sent them away, saying, The God of heauen make you, my children, to prosper before I die.

11 And he said to his daughter, Honour thy father, and thy mother in lawe which are nowe thy parents, that I may heare good report of thee, and hee kissed them. Edna also sayde to Tobias, The Lord of heauen restore thee, my deare brother, and graunt that I may see thy children of my daughter Sarra, that I may reioyce before the Lord. Beholde now, I commit to thee my daughter, as a pledge, doe not entreate her cruell.

CHAP. XI.

The returne of Tobias to his father, 9 How he was restored, 10 His father hath his sight restored and proueth the Lord.

AFTER these things Tobias went his way, praying God that hee had giuen him a prosperous iourney, and blessed Raguel and Edna his wife, and went on his way till he drew neere to Ninene.

1 Then Raphael said to Tobias, Thou knowest, brother, how thou diddest leaue thy father,

2 Let vs halfe before thy wife, and prepare the house,

3 And take in thine hand the gill of the fish. So they went their way, and the dog followed them.

4 Nowe Anna sat in the way looking for her sonne,

5 Whom when she sawe coming, she sayd to his father, Behold, thy sonne cometh, and the man that went with him.

6 Then sayd Raphael, I know, Tobias, that thy father shall receiue his sight.

7 Therefore amoynt his eyes with the gall, and being pricked therewith, he shall rub and make the whitenesse to fall away, and shall see thee.

8 Then Anna ranne fourth, and fell on the necke of her sonne, and sayde vnto him, Seeing I haue seene thee, my sonne, from henceforth I am content to die, and they wept both.

9 Tobias also went forth toward the doore, and stumbled, but his sonne ranne vnto him,

10 And tooke hold of his father, and sprinkled of the gall on his fathers eyes, saying, Bee of good hope, my father.

11 And when his eyes began to pricke, he rubbed them,

12 And the whitenesse pilled away from the corners of his eyes, and when he sawe his sonne, he fell vpon his necke,

13 And he wept and sayde, Blessed art thou, O Lord, and blessed be thy Name for euer, and blessed be all thine holy Angels.

14 For thou hast scourged me, and hast had pittie on me: for behold, I see my sonne Tobias: and his sonne, being glad went in, and tolde his father the great things that had come to passe in Media.

15 Then Tobit went out to meete his daughter in lawe, reioicing and praising God to the gaine of Ninene: and they which sawe him goe, marvelled, because he had receiued his sight.

16 But Tobit testified before them all, that God had had pittie on him. And when he came neere to Sarra his daughter in lawe, hee blessed her, saying, Thou art welcome, daughter: God be blessed, which hath brought thee vnto vs, and blessed be thy father: and there was great ioy among all his brethren which were at Ninene.

17 And Achicharus and Nafbas his brothers sonne came.

18 And Tobias marriage was kept seuen dayes with great ioy.

CHAP. XII.

Tobias declares to his father the pleasures that Raphael had done him, 9 The which he would recompence, 11 13 Raphael declares that he is an Angell of God.

Then

Raguel giueth halfe of his goods toward the marriage of his daughter to Tobias.

Tobias care for his sonne, The Angel goeth on Tobias messenger.

The father and mother are in beautie for Tobias tarrying.

Chap. 17.

Raguel giueth Tobias, and his wife leave to depart.

Sarra is instructed by her parents.

Then Tobit called his sonne Tobias, & sayd vnto him, Provide my sonne wages for the man, which went with thee, & thou wilt giue him more.

And he sayd vnto him, O father, it shall not please me to giue him halfe of those things which thou brought.

For hee hath brought me againe to thee in safety, & hath made whole my wife, & hath brought me the money, and hath likewise healed thee.

Then the olde man sayd, It is due vnto him. So he called the Angel, and sayde vnto him, Take halfe of all that y^e haue brought, and goe away in safety.

But he tooke them both apart, and sayd vnto them, Praise God, and confesse him, and giue him the glory, and praise him for the things which hee hath done vnto you before all them that liue. It is good to praise God, and to exalt his Name, and to shew forth his euident works with honour: therefore be not weary to confesse him.

It is good to keepe close the secrets of a king, but it is honourable to reuele the workes of God: do that which is good, & no euill shall touch you.

Prayer is good with fasting, and almes, and righteousness. A litle with righteousness is better then much with vnrighteousnes: it is better to giue almes then to lay vp golde.

For almes doth deliuer from death, and doth purge al sinne. Those which exercise almes & righteousness, shall be filled with life.

But they that sinne, are enemies to their owne life.

Surely I will keepe close nothing from you: neuertheless, I said it was good to keepe close the secret of a king, but that it was honourable to reuele the workes of God.

Now therefore when thou diddest pray, and Sara thy daughter in law, I did bring to memorie your prayer before the Holy one: and when thou diddest burie the dead, I was with thee likewise.

And when thou wast not grieued to rise vp, and leaue thy dinner to burie the dead, thy good deed was not hid from me: but I was with thee.

And now God hath sent me to heale thee, and Sara thy daughter in law.

I am Raphael one of the seuen holy Angels, which present the prayers of the Saints, and which go forth before his holy maiestie.

Then they were both troubled, and fel vpon their face: for they feared.

But he sayd vnto them, Feare not, for it shall go well with you: praise God therefore.

For I came not of mine owne pleasure, but by the good will of your God: wherefore praise him in all ages.

At these daies I did appeare vnto you, but I did neither eat nor drinke, but you saw it in vision.

Now therefore giue God thanks: for I goe vp to him that sent me: but write all things which I haue done, in a booke.

And when they rose, they saw him no more.

Then they confessed the great and wonderful workes of God, and how the Angel of the Lord had appeared to them.

CHAP. XIII.

A thanksgiving of Tobit, who exhorteth all to praise the Lord.

Then Tobit wrote a prayer of reioicing, and sayd, Blessed be God that liueth for euer, and liuest by his kingdome.

For he doeth scourge, and hath pittie: hee

tendeth to Iel, and bringeth vp, neither is there any that can abyde his hand.

Confesse him before y^e Gentiles, ye children of Israel: for he hath scattered you among them.

There declare his greatnesse, and extoll him before all the liuing: for he is our Lord & our God and our Father for euer.

He hath scourged vs for our iniquities, and will haue mercy againe, & will gather vs out of all nations, among whom we are scattered.

If you turne to him with your whole heart, and with your whole minde, & deale uprightly before him, then will he turne vnto you, and will not hide his face from you, but yethall see what he wil doe with you: therefore confesse him with your whole mouth, & praise the Lord of righteousness, & extoll the euerglasting king. I wil confesse him in the land of my captiuitie, & will declare his power and greatnes to a faithful nation. O ye sinners, turne and doe iustice before him: who can tell if he will receiue you to mercy, and haue pity on you?

I will extoll my God, and my soule shall praise the king of heauen, and shall reioyce in his greatnesse.

Let all men speake, and let all praise him for his righteousness.

O Ierusalem the holy city, he will scourge thee for thy childrens works, but he will haue pittie againe on the sonnes of the righteous men.

Giue praise to the Lord duely, and praise the euerglasting king, that his tabernacle may be builded in thee againe with ioy: and let him make ioyfull there in thee those that are captiues, and loue in thee for euer those that are miserable.

Many nations shall come from Ierre to the Name of the Lord God, with gifts in their hands, as gifts to the King of heauen: all generations shall praise thee, and giue signes of ioy.

Cursed are al they, which hate thee: but blessed are they for euer which loue thee.

Reioyce, and be glad for the children of the iust: for they shall be gathered, and shall blesse the Lord of the iust.

Blessed are they which loue thee: for they shall reioyce in thy peace. Blessed are they which haue bene sorrowfull for all thy sorowes: for they shall reioyce for thee, when they shall see all thy glory, and shall reioyce for euer.

Let my soule blesse God the great king.

For Ierusalem shall be built vp with saphires, and emeraulds, and thy walles with precious stones, and thy towers, and thy bulwarks with pure golde.

And the streetes of Ierusalem shall be paved with berall, and carbuncle, and stones of y^e Ophir.

And all her streetes shall say, Halleluiah, and they shall praise him, saying, Blessed be God which hath extolled y^e for euer.

CHAP. XIII.

Lesson of Tobit to his sonne. 4. He prophesith the destruction of Ierusalem, & the restoring of Ierusalem and the Temple. 13. The death of Tobit and his wife. 14. Tobias age and death.

SO Tobit made an end of praising God.

And he was eight & fifty yere olde, when he lost his sight, which was restored to him after eight yere, and he gaue almes, and he continued to feare the Lord God, and to praise him.

And when he was very aged, he called his sonne, and sixe of his sonnes sonnes, & sayd to him, My sonne, take thy children (for behold, I am aged, and am ready to depart out of this life)

4. Go

For Sapphires. Or carbuncles as the Lawd. 13. Halleluiah, Ierusalem.

4 Go into Media, my sonner for I surely beleene those things which Ionas the Prophet spake of Nineue, that it shalbe destroyed, and for a time peace shall rather be in Media, & that our brethren shall be scattered in the earth from that good land, and Ierusalem shall be desolate, and the House of God in it shalbe burned, and shalbe desolate for a time.

*Ezech. 3. and 6. 14.

5 Yet againe God * wil haue pity on them, and bring them againe into the lande where they shall build a Temple, but not like to the first, vntill the pines of that age be fulfilled, which being finished, they shal reurne from euery place out of captiuitie, and build vp Ierusalem gloriously, and the House of God shall be built in it for euer with a glorious building, as the Prophets haue spoken thereof.

6 And all nations shall turne, & feare the Lord God truly, and shall bury their idoles.

7 So shall all nations praise the Lord, and his people shall confesse God, and the Lord shall exalt his people, and all those which loue the Lord in trueth & iustice, shall reioyce, and those also which shew mercy to our brethren.

8 And now, my sonne, depart out of Nineue, because that those things which the Prophet Ionas spake, shall surely come to passe.

9 But keepe thou the Lawe, and the commandments, and then thy selfe mercifull and iust, that is may goe well with thee.

10 And bury me honestly, and thy mother with me: but ray no longer at Nineue. Remember, my son, how Aman handled Achischarus that brought him vp, howe out of light hee brought him into darknes, & how he rewarded him againe: yet Achischarus was fauor'd, but the other had his reward: for he went downe into darknes. Manasses gaue almes, and escap'd the snare of death, which they had set for him, but Aman fell into the snare and perished.

11 Wherefore now, my sonne, consider what almes doeth, and how right coulesse doeth deliuer. When hee had sayd these things, I hee gaue vp the ghost in the bed, being an hundredth and eight and fiftie yere olde, and he buried him honourably.

12 And when Anna was dead, he buried her with his father: but Tobias went with his wife and children to Ecbatane to Raguel his father in law.

13 Where he became olde with honour, and he buried his father & mother in law honourably, and he inherited their substance, and Tobitis his father.

14 And he died at Ecbatane in Media, being an hundredth and seuen and twentie yere olde.

15 But before he died, he heard of the destruction of Nineue, which was taken by Naluchodonosor and Assuerus, and before his death he reioyc'd for Nineue.

1 The building of Ecbatane. 2 Nabuchodonosor made warre against Arphaxad, and ouercame him. 22 His shearmen shew that he could not bribe him.

IN the twelfth yere of the reigne of Nabuchodonosor, who reigned in Nineue the great citie (in the dayes of Arphaxad, which reigned ouer the Medes in Ecbatane,

3 And built in Ecbatane the walles round about, of hewen stone, three cubites broad, and fixe cubits long, and made the height of the wall feuentie cubits, and the bredth thereof fiftie cubites.

4 And made the towres thereof in the gates of it of an hundredth cubits, and the bredth thereof in the foundation three score cubits,

5 And made the gates thereof, euen gates that were lifed vp on his feuentie cubits, & the bredth of them forty cubits, for the going forth of his mighty armies, and for the setting in aray of his footmen.

6 Euen in those dayes, King Nabuchodonosor made warre with king Arphaxad in the great field, which is the field in the coasts of Ragau.

7 Then came vnto him all they that dwelt in the mountaines, & all that dwelt by Euphrates, and Tygris & Hydaspes, & the country of Arioch king of the Elymeans, and very many nations assembled themselves to the battell of the sonnes of Chelod.

8 And Nabuchodonosor King of the Assyrians sent vnto all that dwelt in Persia, & to all that dwelt in the West, and to those that dwelt in Cilicia, and Damascus, and Libanus and Antilibanus, and to all that dwelt vpon the sea coast,

9 And to the people that are in Carmel, and Galaad, and the higher Galile, and the great field of Eldreclan,

10 And to all that were in Samaria, and the cities thereof and beyond Iorden vnto Ierusalem, and

Betane, & Chellus, & Cades, & the river of Egypt, and Taphnes, & Rameffe, & all the land of Gelim, vnto one come to Tanis, and Memphis, and to all the inhabitants of Egypt, and to one come to the mountaines of Ethiopia.

11 But all the inhabitants of this country did not passe for the commandment of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, neither would they come with him to the battell: for they did not feare him: yea, hee was before them as one man: therefore they sent away his ambassadors from them without effect, and with dishonour.

12 Therefore Nabuchodonosor was very angry with all this country, and swore by his thron and kingdom that he would surely be auenged vpon all those coasts of Cilicia & Damascus, & Syria, & that hee would slay with the sword all the inhabitants of the land of Moab, & the children of Ammon, and all Iudea, and all that were in Egypt, till one come to the borders of the two seas.

13 Then hee marched in battell aray with his power against King Arphaxad in the feuenteenth yere, & hee preuailed in his battell: for hee ouerthrew all the power of Arphaxad, and all his hostlemen, and all his chariots.

14 And hee wan his cities, and came vnto Ecbatane, and tooke the towres, and spoiled the treasures thereof, and turned the beaury thereof into shame.

15 Hee tooke also Arphaxad in the mountaines of Ragau, and smote him thorowe with his darts, and destroyed him vterly that day.

16 So he returned afterward to Nineue, both he and all his company with a very great multitude of men of warre, and there hee passed the time, and banketed, both he, and his army an hundredth and twentie dayes.

C H A P. II.

1 Nabuchodonosor commanded presumptuously that all people should be brought in subjection, & to destroy those that disobeyed him. 15 The preparation of Olofernes army. 22 The conquest of his enemies.

And

10th July 1660

10th July 1660

And

And in the eighteenth yeere, the two and twentieth day of the first month, there was talke in the house of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, that hee should avenge himselfe on all the earth, as he had spoken.

So he called vnto him all his officers and all his nobles, and communicated with them his secreete counsell, and set before them with his owne mouth all the malice of the earth.

Then they desired to destroy all flesh, that had not obeyed the commandement of his mouth.

And when he had ended his counsell, Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians called Olofernes his chiefe captaine, and which was next vnto him, and said vnto him,

Thus saith the great king, the Lord of the whole earth, behold, thou shalt goe forth from my presence, and take with thee men that trust in their owne strength, of footmen, an hundred and twentie thousand, and the number of horses with their riders, twelue thousand,

6 And thou shalt goe against all the West country, because they disobeyed my commandement.

7 And thou shalt declare vnto them, that they prepare for me the land and the water: for I will goe forth in my wrath against them, and will cover the whole face of the earth with the feete of mine armie, and I will giue them as a spoyle vnto them,

8 So that theire wounded shall fill their valleys, and their rivers, and the flood shall ouerflowe, being filled with their dead.

9 And I will bring their captiuitie to the vtmost parts of all the earth.

10 Thou therefore shalt depart hence, and take vp for me all their country: and if they yeeld vnto thee, thou shalt reuerse them for me vntill the day that I rebuke them.

11 But concerning them that rebell, let not thine eyes pae them, but put them to death, and spoyle them whereoeuer thou goest.

12 For as I liue, & the power of my kingdome, whatsoever I haue spoken, that will I doe by mine hand.

13 And take thou heede that thou transgresse not any of the commandements of thy lord, but accomplish them fully, as I haue commanded thee, and deferre not to doe them.

14 ¶ Then Olofernes went forth from the presence of his lord, and called all the gouernours, and captaines, and officers of the armie of Assur,

15 And he mustred the chosen men for the battell, as his lord had commanded him, vnto an hundred and twentie thousand, and twelue thousand archers on horsebacke.

16 And he set them in aray according to the manner of setting a great armie in aray.

17 And he tooke camels & asses for their burdens a very great number, and sheepe, & oxen, and goates without number for their prouision,

18 And vitaille for euery man of the army, and very much gold and siluer out of the kings house.

19 Then he went forth and al his power, to goe before in the viage of king Nabuchodonosor, & to ouer all the face of the earth Westward, with their charres, and horsemen, and chosen footmen,

20 A great multitude also of sundry forces came with them like grasshoppers, and like the grauell of the earth: for the multitude was without number.

21 And they went forth of Nineteen three dayes iourney toward the country of Beelileth, and pitched

22 Then he tooke all his armie, his footemen and horsemen, and charres, and went from thence into the mountains,

23 And he destroyed Phud and Lud, and spoiled all the children of Rastles, and the children of Immael, which were toward the wilderness at the South of the Chelians.

24 Then he went ouer Euphrates, and went through Mesopotamia, and destroyed all the he cities that were vpon the river of Arbonai, vntill one come to the sea.

25 And he tooke the borders of Cilicia, and destroyed all that resisted him, and came to the borders of Iapheth, which were toward the South and ouer against Arabia.

26 He compassed also all the children of Madian, and burnt vp their tabernacles, and spoiled their lodges.

27 Then hee went downe into the country of Damascus, in the time of wheate haruest, and burnt vp all their fieldes, and destroyed their flocks and the heards, he robbed their cities, and spoiled their country, and smote all their yong men with the edge of the sword.

28 Therefore feare and trembling fell vpon all the inhabitants of the sea coast, which were in Sidon and Tyrus, and them that dwell in Sur and Ocina, and all that dwell in Iemman: and they that dwell in Azotus, and Ascalon feared him greatly.

CHAP. III.

The people subiect to Olofernes, & how they destroyed their gods that Nabuchodonosor might easily be worshipped.

So they sent ambassadors to him with messages of peace, saying,

2 Behold, we are the seruants of Nabuchodonosor the great king: wee lie downe before thee: vse vs as shall be good in thy sight.

3 Behold, our houses and all our places, and all our fieldes of wheate, & our flocks, and our heards, and all our lodges and tabernacles lie before thy face: vse them as it pleaseth thee.

4 Beholde, euen our cities and the inhabitants thereof are thy seruants: come, and take them, as seemeth good to thee.

5 ¶ So the men came to Olofernes, and declared vnto him after this manner.

6 Then he came downe toward the sea coast, both he and his armie, and set garisons in the he cities, and tooke out of them chosen men for the warre.

7 So they and all the country round about retriued them, with crownes, with daunces, and with timbrels.

8 Yet he brake downe all their borders, and cut downe their woods: for it was inteyned him to destroy all the gods of the land, that all nations should worship Nabuchodonosor only, & that all tongues and tribes should call vpon him as God.

9 Also he came against Efrailon, neere vnto Iudea, ouer against the great straire of Iudea,

10 And hee pitched betwene Geba, and a cite of the Scythians, and there he taried a moneth, that he might assemble all the baggage of his armie.

CHAP. IIIII.

The Israelites were affrayd and defended their country, & Iacob the Priest wrote to Tribulius, that they should forsake their cities, & they cried to the Lord, and humbled themselves before him.

Now the children of Israel that dwell in Iudea, heard all that Olofernes the chiefe captaine of Nabuchodonosor King of the Assyrians had done to the nations, and howe he had spoyled all their temples, and brought them to nought.

It 3 of

2 Therefore they feared greatly his presence, and were troubled for Ierusalem, and for the Temple of the Lord their God.

3 For they were newly returned from the captivity, and of late all the people were assembled in Iudea, and the vessels and the altar of the house had benefited because of the pollution.

4 Therefore they sent into all the coasts of Samaria, and the tillages, and to Bethoro, and Belmen, and Iericho, and to Choba, and Efora, and to the valley of Salem,

5 And tooke all the toppes of the hie mountaynes, & walled the villages that were in them, and put in vitallies for the prouision of warre: for their fields were of late reaped.

6 Also Iosacim the hie Priest which was in those daies in Ierusalem, wrote to them that dwell in Bethulia and Betomestham, which is ouer against Efdraelon toward an open countrey nese to Dothaim,

7 Exhorting them to keepe the passages of the mountaynes: for by them there was an entrie into Iudea, and it was easie to let them that would come vp, because the passage was fitt for two men at the moile.

8 And the children of Israel did as Iosacim the hie Priest had commanded them with the Ancients of all the people of Israel, which dwell at Ierusalem.

9 Then cried every man of Israel to God with great seruencie, & their soules with great affection.

10 Both they, and their wiues, and their children, and their cattell, and every stranger, and hireling, and their bought seruants put sackcloth vpon their loynes.

11 Thus every man and woman, and the children, and the inhabitants of Ierusalem fast before the Temple, and sprinkled ashes vpon their heads, and spread out their sackcloth before the face of the Lord: also they put sackcloth about the altar,

12 And cried to the God of Israel, all with one consent most earnestly, that hee would not giue their children for a pray, & their wiues for a speile, and the cities of their inheritance to destruction, and the Sanctuary to pollution and reproch, and vnto desolation to the heathen.

13 So God heard their prayers, and looked vpon their affliction: for the people fasted many daies in all Iudea and Ierusalem before the Sanctuary of the Lord Almighty.

14 And Iosacim the hie Priest, and all the Priests that stood before the Lord, and ministred vnto the Lord, had their loynes girt with sackcloth, and offered the continuall burnt offering, with prayers and the free gifts of the people,

15 And had ashes on their mytres, and cried vnto the Lord with all their power for grace, and that hee would looke vpon all the house of Israel.

C H A P. V.

Aschior the Ammonite dooth declare to Olofernes of the manner of the thrauerie.

Then was it declared to Olofernes the chiefe captain of the army of Assur, that the children of Israel had prepared for warre, and had shut the passages of the mountaynes, and had walled all the toppes of the hie hilles, and had layd in impediments in the triumph countrey.

2 Wherewith hee was very angrie, and called all the princes of Moab, and the captains of Ammon, and all the gouernours of the sea coast.

3 And he said vnto them, Shew me, O ye founteyns of Chanaan, Who is this people that dwelleth in the mountaynes? and what are the cities that they inhabit? and what is the multitude of their armie, and wherein is their strength and their power? and what king or captain is raised among them ouer their armie?

4 And why haue they determined not to come to meete me, more then all the inhabitants of the West?

5 ¶ Then said Aschior the captain of all the founteyns of Ammon, Let my lord heare the word of the mouth of his seruant, & I wil declare vnto thee the truth concerning this people, that dwell in these mountaynes, neere where thou remainest: and there shall no lie come out of the mouth of thy seruant.

6 This people come of the stocke of the Chaldeans.

7 And they dwell before in Mesopotamia, because they would not followe the gods of their fathers, which were in the land of Chaldea.

8 But they went out of the way of their ancestors and worshipped the God of heauen, the God whom they knew: so they call them out from the face of their gods, and they fled into Mesopotamia, and sojourned there many daies.

9 Then their God commanded them to depart from the place where they sojourned, and to goe into the land of Chanaan, where they dwelt, and were increased with golde and siluer, and with very much cattell.

10 But when a famine covered all the land of Chanaan, they went downe into Egypt, and dwelt there till they repaired, and became there a great multitude, so they could not number their kinage.

11 Therefore the king of Egypt rose vp against them, and sold them against them, and brought them lowe with labouring in bricke, and made them slaues.

12 Then they cried vnto their God, & hee smote all the land of Egypt with incurable plagues: so the Egyptians cast them out of their fight.

13 And God dried the red sea in their presence,

14 And brought them into mount Sina and Cades bame, and cast forth all that dwell in the wilderness.

15 So they dwell in the land of the Amorites, and they destroyed by their strength all them of Efebon, and passing ouer Iordan, they inhabited all the mountaynes.

16 And they cast forth before them the Chanaanites, and the Phercizies, and the Iebusites, and them of Sichem, and all the Gergezites, and they dwell in that countrey many daies.

17 And whiles they sined not before their God, they prospered, because the God that hated iniquitie, was with them.

18 But when they departed from the way which hee appoynted them, they were destroyed in many battels after a wonderfull sort, and were led captiues into a land that was not theirs: and the Temple of their God was cast to the ground, and their cities were taken by the enemies.

19 But now they are turned to their God, and are come vp from the scattering wherein they were scattered, & haue possessed Ierusalem, where their Temple is, and dwell in the mountaynes which were desolate.

20 Now therefore, my lord and gouernour, if there

there be any fault in this people: for that they have sinned against their God: let us consider that this shall be their ruin, and let us go up, and we shall overcome them.

11 But if there be none iniquity in this people, let my lord passe by, lest their Lord defend them, and their God be for them: and we become a reproch before all the world.

12 And when Achior had finished these sayings, all the people, standing round about the tent, murmured: and the chief men of Olofernes, and all that dwelt by the sea side and in Moab, spake that he should kill him.

13 For, say they, we feare not to meet the children of Israel: for loe, it is a people that have no strength nor power against a mighty army.

14 Let vs therefore goe up, O lord Olofernes, and they shall be meat for thy whole army.

CHAP. VI.

Olofernes beleeueth God whom Achior confessed, 14 Achior is thrust into the hands of them of Bethulia, 18 The Bethulians cry vnto the Lord.

And when the tumult of the men that were about the councill, was ceased, Olofernes, the chief captain of the armie of Assur, sayd vnto Achior before all the people of the strangers, and before all the children of Moab, and of them that were hired of Ephraim,

1 Because thou hast prophesied among vs to day, and hast sayde that the people of Ierusalem is able to fight, because their God will defend them: and who is God but Nabuchodonosor?

2 He will send his power, and will destroy them from the face of the earth, and their God shall not defend them: but we his seruants will destroy them as one man: for they are not able to susteine the power of our forces.

3 For we will tread them vnder feet with thee, and their mountaines shall be drunken with their blood, and their fields shall be filled with their dead bodies, and their footstepes shall not be able to stand before vs: but they shall vterly perish.

4 The king Nabuchodonosor, lord of all the earth, hath sayd, euen hee hath sayd, None of my words shall be in vaine.

5 And thou Achior an hirling of Ammon, because thou hast spoken these words in the day of thine iniquity, thou shalt see my face no more from this day vntill I take vengeance of that people that is come out of Egypt.

6 And then shall the yron of mine armie, and the multitude of them that serue me, passe thorow thy sides, and thou shalt fall among their slaine, when I shall put them to flight.

7 And my seruants shall carrie thee into the mountaines, and they shall leaue thee at one of the high cities: but thou shalt not perish, till thou be destroyed with them.

8 And if thou perswade thy selfe in thy minde, that they shall not be taken, let not thy countenance fall: I haue spoken it, and none of my words shall be in vaine.

9 Then commaunded Olofernes them concerning Achior, that they should bring him to Bethulia, and deliuer him into the hands of the children of Israel.

10 So his seruants tooke him, and brought him out of the campe into the plaine: & they went out from the midst of the plaine into the mountaines, & came vnto the fountaines which were vnder Bethulia.

11 And when the men of the citie sawe them from the top of the mountaine, they tooke their armour, and went forth of the citie vnto the top of the mountaine, euen all the throwers with slings, and kept them from coming up by casting stones against them.

12 But they went priuily vnder the hill, and bound Achior, and left him lying at the foot of the hill, and returned to their iour.

13 Then the Israelites came downe from their citie, and stood about him, and loosed him and brought him into Bethulia, and presented him to the gouernours of their citie.

14 Which were in those dayes, Ozias sonne of Micha, of the tribe of Simeon, & Chabris sonne of Gothoniell, and Chammis the sonne of Melchiel.

15 And they called together all the Ancients of the citie, and all their youth came together, and their women to the assembly: and they set Achior in the mids of all their people. Then Ozias asked him of that which was done.

16 And he answered and declared vnto them the words of the councill of Olofernes, and all the words that he had spoken in the mids of the princes of Assur, and whatsoever Olofernes had spoken proudly against the house of Israel.

17 Then the people fell downe and worshipped God, and cried vnto God, saying,

18 O Lord God of heauen, beholde their pride, and haue mercy on the baseness of our people, & beholde this day the face of those that are sanctified vnto thee.

19 Then they comforted Achior, and praised him greatly.

20 And Ozias tooke him out of the assembly into his house, and made a feast to the Elders, and they called on the God of Israel all that night for helpe.

CHAP. VII.

Olofernes death before Bethulia, 2 The councill of the Idumeans and others against the Israelites, 23 The Bethulians murmur against their gouernours for lacke of water.

The next day Olofernes commaunded all his army, and all his people, which were come to take his part, that they should remoue their camps against Bethulia, and that they should take all the streites of the hill, and to make warre against the children of Israel.

2 Then their strong men remoued their camps in that day, and the armie of the men of warre was an hundred thousand and seentie footmen, and twelue thousand horsemen, beside the baggage and other men that were asleepe among them, a very great multitude.

3 And they camped in the plaine neere vnto Bethulia, by the fountaine, and they spread abroad toward Dorhaim vnto Belbaim, and in length from Bethulia vnto Ciamon, which is ouer against Efilraelom.

4 Now the children of Israel, when they sawe the multitude, were greatly troubled, & sayd euery one to his neighbour, Nowe will they thre vp all the whole earth: for neither the high mountaines nor the valleys, nor the hills are able to abide their burden.

5 Then euery one tooke his weapons of war, and burning fires in their towens, they remained & watched all that night.

6 But in the second day, Olofernes brought forth all his horsemen in the sight of the children of Israel, which were in Bethulia.

7 And

7 And viewed the passages vp to their city: & came to the fountains of their waters, and tooke them and set garisons of men of warre ouer them, and remoued toward his people.

8 Then came vnto him all the chiefe of children of Esau, & all the gouernours of the people of Moab, & all the capitaines of the sea coast, & sayd,

9 Let our capitaine now heare a word, least an incontinencie come in thine army.

10 For this people of the children of Israel do not trust in their speares, but in the height of the mountaines, wherein they dwell, because it is not easie to come vp to the tops of their mountaines.

11 Now therefore my lord, fight not against them in battell aray, and there shall not so much as one man of thy people perish.

12 Remaine in thy campe, & keepe all the men of thine army, and let the men keepe fill the water of the country, that commeth forth at the foot of the mountaine.

13 For all the inhabitants of Bethulia haue their water thereof: so shall thirst kill them, and they shall giue vp their city: and we and our people will go vp to the tops of the mountaines that are neere, and will campe vpon them, and watch that none go out of the city.

14 So they and their wiues, and their children shalbe consumed with famine, & before the sword come against them, they shall be overthrowen in the streets where they dwell.

15 Thus shalt thou render them an euill reward, because they rebelled and obeyed not thy person peaceably.

16 And these words pleased Olofernes, and all his souldiers, and he appointed to doe as they had spoken.

17 So the campe of the children of Ammon departed, & with them six thousand of the Assyrians, & they pitched in the valley, and tooke 3 waters, & the fountains of the waters of 3 children of Israel.

18 Then the children of Esau went vp with the children of Ammon, & camped in the mountaines ouer against Dothaim, and they sent some of themselves toward the South, and toward the East, ouer against Rebel, which is neere vnto Chusi, that is vpon the riuer Mochmur: and the rest of the army of the Assyrians camped in the field, and couered the whole land: for their tents and their baggage were pitched in a wonderfull great place.

19 Then the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord their God, because their heart failed: for all their enemies had compassed them about, & there was no way to escape out from among them.

20 Thus all the company of Assur remained about them, both their footmen, chariots & horsemen, foure and thirtie dayes: so that euen all the places of their waters failed all the inhabitants of Bethulia.

21 And the cisternes were empty, and they had not water enough to drinke for one day: for they gaue them to drinke by measure.

22 Therefore their children swooned, and their wiues and yong men failed for thirst, & fell downe in the streets of the city, and by the passages of the gates, and there was no strength in them.

23 Then all the people assembled to Ozias, and to the chiefe of the city, both yong men and women, and children, and cried with a loud voice, and sayd before all the Elders,

24 The Lord iudge betweene vs and you: for you haue done vs great iniury, in that ye haue not required peace of the children of Assur.

25 For now wee haue no helpe: but God hath folde vs into their hands, & we should be thrown down before them with thirst & great destruction.

26 Now therefore call them together, and deliver the whole city for a spoile to the people of Olofernes, and to all his army.

27 For it is better for vs to be made a spoile vnto them, then to die for thirst: for we will be his seruants that we may liue, and not see the death of our infants before our eyes, nor our wiues, nor our children to die.

28 We take to witness against you the heauen and the earth, and our God and Lord of our fathers, which punisheth vs, according to our finnes and the finnes of our fathers, that he lay not these things to our charge.

29 Then there was a great cry of all with one consent in the middes of the assembly, and they cried vnto the Lord God with a loud voice.

30 Then said Ozias to the Brethren, be of good courage: let vs waite yet five dayes, in the which space the Lord our God may turne his mercy toward vs: for he will not forsake vs in the end.

31 And if these dayes passe, and there come not helpe vnto vs, I will do according to your word.

32 So he separated the people, euery one vnto their charge, and they went vnto the walles and towers of their city, and sent their wiues and their children into their houses, and they were very low brought in the cite.

CHAP. VIII.

The puruers of life, and conseruation of Judith. 11 She sheweth the faithfulness of the gouernours. 22 She sheweth that they should not tempt God, but was vpon him for succour. 33 Her enterprise against the enemies.

Now at that time, Judith heard thereof, which was the daughter of Merari the sonne of Ox, the sonne of Ioseph, the sonne of Oziel, the sonne of Elcin, the sonne of Ananias, the sonne of Gedeon, the sonne of Raphaim, the sonne of Actio, the sonne of Eliu, the sonne of Eliab, the sonne of Nathanael, the sonne of Samael, the sonne of Saladai, the sonne of Israel.

2 And Manasses was her husband, of her stock and kinned, who died in the barley haruest.

3 For as he was diligent ouer them that bound sheaves in the field, the heat came vpon his head, & he fell vpon his bed, and died in the city of Bethulia, & they buried him with his fathers in the field betweene Dothaim and Balamo.

4 So Judith was in her house a widow three yeres and foure monthes.

5 And she made her a tent vpon her house, and put on sackcloth on her loines, and ware widows apparell.

6 And she fasted all the dayes of her widowhood, saue the day before the Sabbath & the Sabbaths, and the day before the new moones, and in the feasts and solemne dayes of the house of Israel.

7 She was also of a goodly countenance, and very beautifull to beholde: and her husband Manasses had left her golde and silver, and men seruants, and mayd seruants, and cattell, and possessions, where she remained.

8 And there was none that could bring an euill report of her: for she feared God greatly.

9 Now when she heard the euill words of the people against the gouernour, because they fainted for lacke of waters (for Iudeth had heard all the words that Ozias had spoken vnto them, and that he had s^o sworn vnto them to deliuer the cite vnto the Assyrians within five dayes)

10 Then shee sent her maide, that had the gouernment of all things that she had, to call Ozias and Chabris and Charimis the Ancients of the city.

11 And they came vnto her, and she said vnto them, Heare mee, O ye gouernours of the inhabitants of Bethulia: for your words that ye haue spoken before the people this day, are not right, touching this othe which yee made and pronounced betwene God and you, and haue promised to deliuer to the city to the enemies, vnlesse within these dayes the Lord turne to helpe you.

12 And nowe who are you that haue tempted God this day, & set your selues in the place of God among the children of men?

13 So nowe you seeke the Lorde almighty, but you shall neuer know any thing.

14 For you cannot finde out the depth of the heart of man, neither can yee perceiue the things that hee thinketh; then howe can you searcke out God, that hath made all these things, and know his minde, or comprehend his purpose? Nay my brethren, prouoke not the Lord our God to anger.

15 For if he will not helpe vs within these five dayes, he hath power to defend vs when he wil, euery day, or to destroy vs before our enemies.

16 Doe not you therefore binde the counsels of the Lord our God: For God is not as man that he may be threatened, neither as the sonne of man to be brought to iudgement.

17 Therefore let vs waite for saluation of him and call vpon him to helpe vs, and he will heare our voyce if it please him.

18 For there appeareth none in our age, neither is there any now in these dayes, neither tribe, nor familie, nor people, nor cite among vs, which worshipeth gods made with hands, as hath bene aforesime.

19 For * the which cause our fathers were giuen to the sword, and for a spoile, and had a great fall before our enemies.

20 But we know none other God: therefore we trust he will not despise vs, nor any of our lineage.

21 Neither when we shalbe taken, shal Iudaea be so famous: for our Sanctuarie shalbe spoiled, & he will require the prophanation therof at our mouth.

22 And the feare of our brethren, and the captiuitie of the country, and the desolation of our inheritance will hee turne vpon our heads among the Gentiles, wherefoeuer we shalbe in bondage, & we shalbe an offence and reproch to all them that possesse vs.

23 For our seruitude shal not be directed by fauour, but y^e Lord our God shal turne it to dishonor.

24 Now therefore, O brethren, let vs shew an example to our brethren, because their hearts depend vpon vs, and the Sanctuary, and the House, and the altar rest vpon vs.

25 Moreover, let vs giue thanks to y^e Lord our God, which trieth vs euen as he did our fathers.

26 Rememe^r what things he did to * Abrahā, and how he tried Isaac, & all that he did to * Iacob in Mesopotamia of Syria when he kept the sheepe of Laban his mothers brother.

27 For he hath not tried vs as hee did them to the examination of their heartes, neither doeth he take vengeance on vs, but the Lorde punisheth for instruction them that come neere to him.

28 ¶ Then said Ozias to her, All that thou hast spoken, hast thou spoken with a good heart, and there is none that is able to redit thy words.

29 For it is not to day that thy wisdom is knownen, but from the beginning of thy life all the people haue knownen thy wisdom: for the deuice of thine heart is good.

30 But the people were very thirsty, & compelled vs to doe vnto them, as we haue spoken, & haue brought vs to an oth which we may not transgresse.

31 Therefore now pray for vs, because thou art an holy woman, that the Lord may send vs raine to fill our cisternes, and that we may faint no more.

32 Then said Iudeth vnto them, Heare me, and I will doe a thing, which shalbe declared in all generations, to the children of our nation.

33 You shal stand this night in the gate, & I will go forth with mine handmaid: and within the daies that ye haue promised to deliuer the city to our enemies, the Lord wil visite Israel by mine hand.

34 But inquire not you of mine a^ct: for I will not declare it vnto you, till the things bee finished that I doe.

35 Then saide Ozias and the princes vnto her, Goe in peace, and the Lord God bee before thee, to take vengeance on our enemies.

36 So they returned from the tent, and went to their wardes.

CHAP. IX.

1 Iudeth humbled her selfe before the Lord, and matcheth her prayer for the deliurance of her people. 2 Against the pride of the Assyrians. 31 God is the helpe of the humble.

¶ Then Iudeth fell vpon her face, and put ashes vpon her head, and put off the sackloth wherewith she was clothed. And about the time that the incense of that evening was offered in Ierusalem in the house of the Lorde, Iudeth cried with a loud voice, and saide,

2 O Lord God of my father * Simeon, to whom thou gauest a sword to take vengeance of the strangers which opened the wombe of the maide, and desiled her, and discouered the thigh with shame, & polluted the wombe to reproch (for thou hast commanded that it should not so be).

3 Yet they did things for the which thou gauest their princes to the slaughter, for they were deceiued and washed their beddes with blood; and hast stricken the seruants with the gouernours, and the gouernours vpon their thrones.

4 And hast giuen their wiues for a pray & their daughters to be captiues, and all their spoiles for a booty to the children that thou louedst: which were moued with thy zeale, and abhorred the pollution of their blood, and called vpon thee for aide, O God, O my God, heare me also a widow.

5 For thou hast wrought the things afore, and these, and the things that shall be after, and thou considerest the things that are present, & the things that are to come.

6 For the things which thou doest purpose, are present, and say, Beholde, we are here: for all thy wayes are ready, and thy iudgements are foreknownen.

7 Behold, the Assyrians are multiplied by their power: they haue exalted themselues with horses and horsemen: they glory in the strength of their footmen, they trust in shielde, speare and bowe, and sling, and do not know that thou art the Lord that breakest the battels: the Lord is thy Name.

1 Breake thou their strength by thy power, and breake

breake their force by thy wrath: for they haue purposed to defile thy Sanctuary, and to pollute the Tabernacle where thy glorious Name resteth, and to cast down with weapons thy homes of the Altar.

9 Behold their pride, and send thy wrath vpon their heads: giue into mine hande which am a widow, the strength that I haue conceiued.

* Iud. 4. 21. and 5. 16.

10 * Smite by the deceit of my lips the seruant with the prince, and the prince with the seruant: a bare their height by the hand of a woman.

* Iud. 7. 3. 2 Chron. 14. 11. and 16. 8. and 20. 6.

11 * For thy power standeth not in the multitude, nor thy might in strong men: but thou, O Lord, art the helpe of the humble and little ones, the defender of the weake, and the protectour of them that are forsaken, and the Saviour of them that are without hope.

12 Surely, surely show art the God of my father, and the God of the inheritance of Israel, the Lord of heauen and earth, the creator of the waters, the King of all creatures: heare thou my prayer,

13 And graunt me words & craft, and a wound, and a stroke against them that enterprise cruell things against thy couenant, and against thine holy House, and against the top of Sion, and against the house of the possession of thy children.

14 Shew evidently among all thy people, and all the tribes, that they may know that thou art God of all power and strength, and that there is none other that defendeth the people of Israel, but thou.

CHAP. X.

2. Iudeth decketh her selfe and goeth forth of the citie. 21. She is taken of the watch of the Assyrians and brought to Olofernes.

NOW after she had ceased to cry vnto the God of Israel, and had made an ende of all these wordes,

1 She rose where she had fallen down, and called her maide, and went downe into the house, in the which shee abode in the Sabbath dayes and in the feast dayes.

2 And putting away the sackcloth, wherewith she was clad, and putting off the garments of her widowhood, she washed her body with water, and anoynted it with much byment, and dressed the haire of her head, and put attire vpon it, and put on her garments of gladnes, wherewith she was clad during the life of Manasses her husband.

3 And she put slippers on her feet, and put on bracelets, and fleeces, and rings, and earerings, and all her ornaments, and she decked her selfe brauely to allure the eyes of all men that should see her.

4 Then she gaue her maide a bottell of wine, and a pot of oyle, and filled a scrip with flour, and with dry figges, and with fine bread: so she lapped vp all these things together and laid them vpon her.

5 Thus they went forth to the gate of the citie of Bethulia, and found standing there Ozias, and the Ancients of the citie, Chabris and Charmis.

6 And when they sawe her that her face was changed, and that her garment was changed, they marueiled greatly at her wonderfull beautie, and saide vnto her,

7 The God, the God of our fathers giue thee fauour, and accomplish thine enterprises: to the glory of the children of Israel, and to the exaltation of Ierusalem. Then they worshipped God.

8 And she said vnto them, Command the gates of the citie to be opened vnto mee, that I may goe forth to accomplish the thinges which you haue spoken to me. So they commanded the yong men to open vnto her, as she had spoken.

10 And when they had done so, Iudeth went out, she and her maide with her, and the men of the citie looked after her, vntill there was gone downe the mountaine, and till shee had passed the valley, and could see her no more.

11 Thus they went straight forth in the valley, and the first watch of the Assyrians met her.

12 And tooke her, and asked her, Of what people art thou? and whence comest thou? and whither goest thou? And she saide, I am a woman of the Iebrewes, and am fledde from thence: for they shall be giuen you to be consumed.

13 And I come before Olofernes, the chiefe captaine of your armie, to declare him true things, and I will shewe before him the way wherby hee shall goe and win all the mountaines, without losing the body or life of any of his men.

14 Nowe when the men heard her words, and beheld her countenance, they wondered greatly at her beautie, and saide vnto her,

15 Thou hast saved thy life, in that thou hast halted to come downe to the presence of our lord: nowe therefore come to his tent, and some of vs shall conduct thee vntill they haue deliuered thee into his hands.

16 And when thou standest before him, be not afraid in thine heart, but shew vnto him according as thou hast to say, and he will intreate thee well.

17 Then they chose out of them an hundred men, and prepared a charet for her and her maide, and brought her to the tent of Olofernes.

18 Then there was a running to & fro, through out the campe: for her coming was knued among the tents: and they came and stood round about her: for she stood without the tent of Olofernes vntill they had declared vnto him concerning her.

19 And they marueiled at her beautie, and wondered at the children of Israel because of her, and euery one saide vnto his neighbour, Who would despise this people, that haue among them such women? surely it is not good that one man of them be left: for if they should remaine, they might deceiue the whole earth.

20 Then Olofernes gaide went out, and all his seruants, and they brought her into the tent.

21 Now Olofernes rested vpon his bed vnder a canopie, which was wouen with purple and golde and emerandes, and precious stones.

22 So they shewed him of her, & he came forth vnto the entrie of his tent, and they caried lampes of siluer before him.

23 And when Iudeth was come before him and his seruants, they all marueiled at the beautie of her countenance, and she fel downe vpon her face, and did reuerence vnto him, and his seruants tooke her vp.

CHAP. XI.

1. Olofernes comforteth Iudeth. 3. And when hee came of her coming. 5. Shee deceiueth him by her false word.

Then said Olofernes vnto her, Woman, bee of good comfort: feare not in thine heart: for I neuer hurt any that would serue Nabuchodonosor the king of all the earth.

2 Now therefore if thy people that dwell in the mountaines, had not despised me, I would not haue lifted vp my speare against them: but they haue procured these things to themselves.

3 But now tell me wherfore thou art fled from them, and art come vnto vs: for thou art come for safegard: be of good comfort, thou shalt liue from from this night, and hereafter.

For none shall hurt thee, but intreate thee well, as they doe the seruants of King Nabuchodonosor my lord.

Then Iudeth saide vnto him, Receiue the wordes of thy seruant, and suffer thine handmayd to speake in thy presence, and I will declare no lye to my lord this night.

And if thou wilt followe the wordes of thine handmaid, God wil bring ything perfectly to passe by thee, and my lord shall not faile of his purpose.

As Nabuchodonosor King of all the earth haeth, and as his power is of force, who hath sent thee to reforme all persons, not onely men shalbe made subiect to him by thee, but also the beastes of the fields, and the cattell, and the foules of the heauen shall lue by thy power vnder Nabuchodonosor and all his house.

For wee haue heard of thy wisdom and of thy prudent spirit, and it is declared through the whole earth, that thou only art excellent in all the kingdom, and of a wonderfull knowledge, and in scates of warre maruclous.

Nowe * as concerning the matter which Achior did speake in thy counsell, we haue heard his wordes: for the men of Bethulia did take him, and he declared vnto them all that he had spoken vnto thee.

Therefore, O lord and gouernour, reiect not his word, but set it in thine heart, for it is true: for there is no punishment against our people, neither can the sword preuaile against them, except they giue against their God.

Nowe therefore, left my lord should be frustrate, and voyd of his purpose, and that death may fall vpon them, and that they may be taken in their time whyles they prouoke their God to anger, which is so oft times as they doe that which is not becoming.

For because their vitayles faile, and all their water is wasted, they haue determined to take their cattell, and haue purposed to consume all things that God had forbidden them to eate by his Lawes:

Yea, they haue purposed to consume the first fruits of the wheat, and the tithes of the wine, & of the oyle which they had referued and sanctified for the Priests that serue in Ierusalem before the face of our God: the which things it is not lawfull for any of the people to touch with their hands.

Moreover, they haue sent to Ierusalem, because they also that dwell there, haue done the like, such as should bring them licence from the Senate)

Now when they shall bring them word, they will do it, & they shalbe giuen thee to be destroyed the same day.

Wherefore I thine handmayd, knowing all this, am fledde from their presence, and God hath sent me to worke a thing with thee, whereof all the earth shall wonder, and whosoer shall heare it.

For thy seruant feareth God, and worshippeth the God of he: uen day and night, now let me remaine with thee, my lord, and let thy seruant go out in the night into the valley, and I will pray vnto God, that hee may reuile vnto me when they shall commit their finnes.

And I will come and shew it vnto thee: then thou shalt goe forth with all thine army, and there shalbe none of them that shall resist thee.

And I will leade thee thorow the middes of Iudea, vntill thou come before Ierusalem, & I will set thy throne in the middes thereof, and thou shalt driue them as sheepe that haue no shepherd, and a dog shall not barke with his mouth against thee: for these things haue bene spoken vnto me, and declared vnto mee according to my foreknowledge, and I am sent to shew thee.

Then her wordes pleased Olofernes, and all his seruants, and they maruiled at her wisdom, and sayd,

There is not such a woman in all the world, both for beautie of face, and wisdom of words.

Likewise Olofernes said vnto her, God hath done this, to send thee before the people, that strength might be in our handes, and destruction vpon them that despise my lord.

And nowe thou art both beautifull in thy countenance, and wittie in thy wordes: surely if thou doe as thou hast spoken, thy God shall be my God, and thou shalt dwell in the house of Nabuchodonosor, and shalt be renowned thorowout the whole earth.

CHAP. XII.

Iudeth would not permit her selfe with the multitude of Gentiles, she maketh her request that she might goe out by night to pray. 11 Olofernes cansteth her to come to the banquet.

Then he commanded to bring her in where his treasures were layd, and bade that they should prepare for her of his owne meates, and that she should drinke of his owne wine.

But Iudeth sayd, * I may not eate of them, least there should be an offence, but I can suffice my selfe with the things that I haue brought.

Then Olofernes sayd vnto her, If the things that thou hast, should faile, how should we giue thee the like? for there is none with vs of thy nation.

Then sayd Iudeth vnto him, As thy soule lieth, my lord, thine handmayde shall not spend those things that I haue, before the Lord worke by mine hand the things that he hath determined.

Then the seruants of Olofernes brought her into the tent, and she slepe vntill midnight, and rose at the morning watch,

And sent to Olofernes, saying, Let my lord command that thine handmayd may go forth vnto prayer.

Then Olofernes commanded his garde that they should not slay her: thus shee abode in the campe three dayes, and went out in the night into the valley of Bethulia, and washed herselfe in a fountaine, euen in the water by the campe.

And when she came out, she prayed vnto the Lord God of Israel, that he would direct her way to the exaltation of the children of her people.

So she returned, and remained pure in the tent, vntill she ate her meat at euenng.

And in the fourth day, Olofernes made a feast to his owne seruants only, and called none of them to the banquet, that had the affaires in hand.

Then sayd hee to Bagoas the eunuch who had charge ouer all that he had, Go and perswade this Hebrew woman, which is with thee, that shee come vnto vs, and eate and drinke with vs.

For it were a shame for vs, if we should let such a woman alone, and not talke with her, and if we do not allure her, she will mocke vs.

Then went Bagoas from the presence of Olofernes, and came to her, and sayde, Let not this her, hath done well,

Gen. 43. 32. Daniel 1. 8. heb. 1. 11.

saith

faire maide make difficultie to goe in to my lord, and to be honoured in his presence, and to drinke wine with vs joyfully, and to bee entreated as one of the daughters of the children of Assur, which remaine in the house of Nabuchodonosor.

14 Then said Iudeth vnto him, Who am I now, that I should gaine say my lord? Surely whatsoeuer pleaseth him, I will doe speedily, and it shall be my ioy vnto the day of my death.

15 So she arose and trimmed her with garments, and with all the ornaments of women, and her maide went, and spred forth her skinnies on the grounde ouer against Olofernes, which he had receiued of Bagoas for her daily vie, that she might sit and eate vpon them.

16 Nowe when Iudeth came and satte downe, Olofernes heart was rauished with her, and his spirit was mooued, and he desired greatly her company: for he had waited for the time to deceiue her from the day that he had seene her.

17 Then said Olofernes vnto her, Drinke now, and be merry with vs.

18 So Iudeth said, I drinke nowe, my lord, because my state is exalted this day more then euer it was since I was borne.

19 Then shee tooke, and ate and dranke before him the things that her maide had prepared.

20 And Olofernes reioyced because of her, and dranke much more wine then hee had drunken at any time in one day since he was borne.

CHAP. XIII.

¶ Iudeth prayeth for strength, & shee smiteth off Olofernes necke, & shee returneth to Bethulia and reioyceth her people.

NOWE when the euening was come, his seruants made haste to depart, and Bagoas shut his tent without, & dismissed those that were present, from the presence of his lord, and they went to their beds: for they were all weary, because the feast had bene long.

2 And Iudeth was left alone in the tent, and Olofernes was stretched along vpon his bed: for he was filled with wine.

3 ¶ Nowe Iudeth had commanded her maide to stand without her chamber, and to waite for her comming forth as she did daily: for she said, she would goe forth to her prayers, and the spake to Bagoas according to the same purpose.

4 So all went forth of her presence, and none was left in the chamber, neither little nor great: then Iudeth standing by his bed, saide in her heart, O Lord God of all power, beholde at this present the workes of mine hands for the exaltation of Ierusalem.

5 For nowe is the time to helpe thine inheritance, and to execute mine enterprises, to the destruction of the enemies which are risen against vs.

6 Then she came to the post of the bed which was at Olofernes head, and tooke downe his fauchin from thence,

7 And approached to the bed, and tooke hold of the haire of his head, and said, Strengthen me, O Lord God of Israel this day.

8 And she smote twise vpon his necke, with all her might, and she tooke away his head from him,

9 And tolled his body downe from the bed, and pulled downe the canopie from the pillars, and auafter the way went forth, and gaue Olofernes head to her maide,

10 And she put it in her scrip of meate: so they twaine went together according to their custome vnto prayer, and praesing through the tents, went about by that valley, and went vnto the mountaine of Bethulia, and came to the gates thereof.

11 ¶ Then saide Iudeth shee off to the watchmen at the gates, Open nowe the gates God, euen our God is with vs to shewe his power yet in Ierusalem, and his force against his enemies, as hee hath euen done this day.

12 Nowe when the men of her cite hearde her voyce, they made haste to goe downe to the gate of their cite, and they called the Elders of the city.

13 And they ranne all together both small and great: for it was about their expectation, that he should come. So they opened the gate, and receiued her, & made a fire for a light, and stood round about them twaine.

14 Then she saide to them with a loude voyce, Praise God, praise God: for hee hath not taken away his mercie from the house of Israel, but hath destroyed our enemies by mine hands this night.

15 So shee tooke the head out of the scrippe and shewed it, and saide vnto them, Behold the head of Olofernes, the chiefe capitaine of the armie of Assur, and beholde the canopie wherein hee did lie in his drunkenesse, and the Lord hath smitten him by the hand of a woman.

16 As the Lord liueth, who hath kept me in my way that I went, my countenance hath deceiued him to his destruction, and he hath not committed sinne with me by any pollution or villenie.

17 Then all the people were wonderfully astonished, and bowed themselves, and worshipped God, and said with one accord, Blessed be thou, O our God, which hast this day brought to nought the enemies of thy people.

18 Then said Ozias vnto her, O daughter, blessed art thou of the most hie God above all the women of the earth, and blessed bee the Lord God, which hath created the heauens and the earth, which hath directed thee to the cutting off of the head of the chiefe of our enemies.

19 Surely this thine hope shall neuer depart out of the hearts of men: for they shall remember the power of God for euer.

20 And God turne these things to thee for a perpetuall praise, and visite thee with good things, because thou hast not spared thy life, because of the affliction of our nation, but thou hast holpen our ruine, walking a straight way before our God. And all the people said, So be it, so be it.

CHAP. XIII.

¶ Iudeth causeth to hang vp the head of Olofernes, to which hee is ioyntly himselfe to the people of God, & the Israelites goe out against the Assyrians.

THEN said Iudeth vnto them, Heare me also, my brethren, and take this head, and hang it vpon the highest place of your walles.

2 And so soone as the morning shall appeare, and the sunne shall come forth vpon the earth, take you euery one his weapons, and goe forth euerie valiant man out of the cite, and set you a captaine ouer them, as though you would goe downe into the field, toward the watch of the Assyrians, but goe not downe.

3 Then they shall take their armour, and shall goe into their campe, and raise vp the captaines of the armie of Assur, and they shall runne to the tent of Olofernes, but shall not finde him: then feare shall fall vpon them, and they shall flee before fore your face.

So you & all that inhale the coasts of Israel shall curse them, & overthrow them as they go. But before you do these things, call me. And thou the Ananite, that he may see, and know that he despised the house of Israel, and that sent him to vs as to death.

Then they called Achior out of the house of Ozias, and when he was come and saw the head of Olofernes in a certain mans hand in the assembly of the people, hee fell downe on his face, and his spirit failed.

But when they had taken him vp, hee fell at Iudeths fette, and encountered her, and said, Blessed art thou in all the tabernacle of Iuda, and in all nations which hearing thy name, shall be astonished.

Nowe therefore tell mee all the things that thou hast done in these dayes. Then Iudeth declared vnto him in the midst of the people all that she had done from the day that she went forth, vntill that houre she spake vnto them.

And when she had left of speaking, the people reioyced with a great voyce, and made a noyse of gladnesse through their ciie.

And Achior, seeing all things that God had done for Israel, beleued in God vnfeignedly, and circumcised the foreskin of his flesh, and was toynd vnto the house of Israel vnto this day.

As soone as the morning arose, they hangd the head of Olofernes out at the wall, and euery man tooke his weapons, and they went forth by bands, vnto the straites of the mountaine.

But when the Assyrians sawe them, they sent to their captaines, which went to the gouernours and chiefe captaines, and all their rulers.

So they came to Olofernes tent, and said to him that had the charge of all his things, Waken our lorde: for the slaues haue bene bolde to come slaying against vs to battell, that they may bee destroyed for euer.

Then went in Ragosa, and knocked at the doore of the tent: for he thought that he had slept with Iudeth.

But because none answered, hee opened it, and went into the chamber, and found him cast vpon the floore, and his head was taken from him.

Therefore he cried with a loude voyce, with weeping and mourning, and a mightie crie, and rent his garments.

After, he went into the tent of Iudeth where she vsed to remaine, and found her not: then hee leaped out to the people and cried,

These slaues haue committed wickednesse: one woman of the Hebrewes hath brought shame vpon the house of King Nabuchodonosor: for be-hold, Olofernes lieth vpon the ground without his head.

When the captaines of the Assyrians arme heard these words, they rent their coates, and their heart was wonderfully troubled, and there was a cry and a very great noyse throughout the campe.

CHAP. XV.

The Assyrians are affraid and flee. The Hebrewes pursue them. & Ioachim the hie Priest commeth to Bethulia to see them, and to praise God for her.

And when they that were in the tentes, heard, they were alighted at the thing that was done.

And feare and trembling fell vpon them, so that there was no man that durst abide in the fight of his neighbour: but altogether afraid they fled by euery way of the plaine, and of the mountaines. They also that had camped in the mountains round about Bethulia, were put to flight: then the children of Israel, euery one that was a man, among them, rushed out among them.

Then sent Ozias to Bethomasthem, and to Bethai, and Chobai, and Chola, and to all the coasts of Israel, such as should declare vnto them the things that were done, and that all should ruse forth vpon their enemies to destroy them.

Nowe when the children of Israel heard it, they all fell vpon them together vnto Chobai: likewise also they that came from Ierusalem and from all the mountaines: for men had tolde them what things were done in the campe of their enemies, & they that were in Galad and in Galile chased them with a great slaughter, vntill they came to Damascus and to the coasts thereof.

And the residue that dwelt at Bethulia, fell vpon the campe of Assur and spoyled them, and were greatly enriched.

And the children of Israel that returned from the slaughter, had the rest: and the villages and the cities that were in the mountaines and in the plaine, had a great booty: for the abundance was very great.

Then Ioachim the hie Priest, and the Ancients of the children of Israel that dwelt in Ierusalem, came to confirme the benefis that God had shewed to Israel, and to see Iudeth, and to saluate her.

And when they came vnto her, they blessed her with one accord, and saide vnto her, Thou art the exaltation of Ierusalem: thou art the great glorie of Israel: thou art the great reioycing of our nation.

Thou hast done all these things by thine hand: thou hast done much good to Israel, and God is pleased therewith: blessed bee thou of the almighty Lorde for euermore: and all the people saide, So be it.

And the people spoiled the campe the space of thirtie dayes, and they gaue vnto Iudeth Olofernes tent, and all his siuer and beds, and basins, and all his stuffe, and she tooke it and laid it on her mules, and made readie her charrets, and laid them thereon.

Then all the women of Israel came together to see her, & blessed her, & made a daunce among them for her, and she tooke branches in her hand, and gaue also to the women that were with her.

They also crowned her with oliues, and her that was with her, and she went before the people in the daunce, leading all the women: and all the men of Israel followed in their armour, with crownes, and with songs in their mouths.

CHAP. XVI.

Iudeth prayeth God with a song. She offereth to the Lorde Olofernes fluffe. She is comforted, lift and drab. All Israel loueth her.

Then Iudeth began this confession in all Israel, and all the people sang this song with a loude voyce.

And Iudeth saide, Begin vnto my God with timbrels: sing to my Lorde with cymbales: tune vnto him a psalme: exalt his praise, and call vpon his Name.

For God breaketh the battels, and pitched his campe in the midst of the people, and deliuered me out of the hand of the persecuters.

• Chap. 1. 1.

4 After came from the mountains forth of the North: he came with thousand in his armie: whose multitude hath thus vp the rivers and their horsemen have covered the valleys.

5 He said that hee would blame vp my borders and kill my yong men with the sword, and dash the sucking children against the ground, and make mine infants as a prey, and my virgins a spoile.

6 But the almightie Lord hath brought them to nought by the hand of a woman.

7 For the mightie did not fall by the yong men, neither did the sonnes of Titan smite him, nor the hie giants invade him, but Iudeth the daughter of Merari did discomfite him by the beautie of her countenance.

8 For shee put off the garment of her widow-hood, for the exaltation of those that were oppressed in Israel, and anoynted her face with ointment, and bound vp her haire in a coiffe, and tooke a linnen garment to decerne him.

9 Her slippers rauished his eyes: her beautie tooke him made prisoner, and the fauchin passed through his necke.

10 The Persians were astonished at her boldnes, & the Medes were troubled with her hardines.

11 But mine afflicted reioyced, and my feeble ones shouted: then they feared, they lifted vp their voyce and turned backe.

12 The children of maidcs peaced them, and wounded them as they fledde away like children: they perished by the batell of the Lord.

13 I will sing vnto the Lord a song & praise, O Lord, thou art great and glorious, maruiculous and inuincible in power.

• Gen. 1. 29.
2nd. 12. 3.

14 Let all thy creatures praise thee: for thou hast spoken and they were made: thou hast sent thy Spirit, and hee made them vp: and there is none that can resist thy voyce.

15 For the mountaines leape vp from their foundations with the waters: the rockes melt at thy presence like waxe: yet thou art mercifull to them.

16 For a sacrifice is too little for a sweet savor, and all the fat is too little for thy burnt offering: but he that feareth the Lord is great at all times.

17 Woe to the nations that rise vp against my kinred: the Lord almightie will take vengeance of them in the day of iudgement, in sending fire and wormes vpon their flesh, and they shall feele them and weepe for euer.

18 After, when they went vnto Ierusalem, they worshipped the Lord, and assoone as the people were purified, they offered their burnt offerings, and their free offerings, and their gifts.

19 Iudeth also offered all the stuffe of Olofernes, which the people had giuen her, and gave the canopy which he had taken off his bed, for an oblation to the Lord.

20 So the people reioyced in Ierusalem by the Sanctuary, for the space of three moneths, and Iudeth remained with them.

21 After this time, euery one returned to his owne inheritance, and Iudeth went to Bethulia, and remained in her owne possession, and was for her time honourable in all the country.

22 And many desired her, but none had her companie all the dayes of her life after that Manasse her husband was dead, and was gathered to his people.

23 But shee increased more & more in honour and waxed olde in her husbands house, being a hundred and five yeere olde, and made her maye free: so shee died in Bethulia, and they buried her in the graue of her husband Manasse.

24 And the house of Israel lamented her seven dayes, and before shee died, shee did distribute her goods to all them that were neere of kinred to Manasse her husband, and to them that were the neere of her kinred.

25 And there was none that made the children of Israel any more afraide in the dayes of Iudeth, nor a long time after her death.

ESTHER.

Certaine portions of the storie of Esther, which are found in some Greeke and Latine translations.

Which followe the tenth Chapter.

Hen Mardocheus said, God hath done these things.

5 For I remember a dreame, which I sawe concerning these matters, and there was nothing thereof omitted.

6 A little fountaine which became a flood, and was a light, and as the sunne, and as much water, this flood was Esther whom the King married, and made Queene.

7 And the two dragons are I and Aman.

8 And the people are they that are assembled to destroy the name of the Iewes.

9 And my people is Israel, which cried to God, and are saved: for the Lord hath saved his people, & the Lord hath deliuered vs from all these euils, and God hath wrought signes, & great wonders, which haue not bene done among the Gentiles.

10 Therefore hath hee made two lottes, one for the people of God, & another for all the Gentiles,

11 And these two lottes came before God for all nations, at the houre and time appointed, and in the day of iudgement.

12 So God remembered his owne people, and iustified his inheritance.

13 Therefore those dayes shall be vnto them in the moneth Adar the fourteenth, and fifteenth day of the same moneth, with an assembly and ioy, and with gladnesse before God, according to the generations for euer among his people.

C H A P. XI.

IN the fourth yeere of the reigne of Ptolemeus & Cleopatra Dositheus, who said hee was a Priest & Leuite, and Ptolemeus his sonne, I brought the former letters of Phurrai, which they saide Lyf machus the sonne of Ptolemeus, which was as Ierusalem interpreted.

2 In the second yeere of the reigne of great Artaxerxes in the first day of the moneth Nisan, Mardocheus the sonne of Ianus, the sonne of Semei, the

some of Cis of y^e tribe of Benjamin had a dreame,

1 A Jewe dwelling in the Citie of Susa, a noble man, that bare office in the Kings court.

2 He was also one of the captiues which Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon brought from Ierusalem with Lechonias.

3 And this was his dreame, Beholde a noyse of tempest with thunders, and earthquakes, and vtter in the land.

4 Behold, two great dragons came forth ready to fight one against another.

5 Their cry was great, whereby all the heathen were ready to fight against the righteous people.

6 And the same day was full of darkenesse and obscuritie, and trouble, and anguish: yea, aduersity, and great affliction was vpon the earth.

7 For then the righteous feareing their afflictions, were amazed, & being ready to die, cried vnto God.

8 And while they were crying, the little wel grew into a great river, & flowed ouer with great waters.

9 The light and the sunne rose vp, and the lowly were exalted, and decoured the glorious.

10 Now when Mardocheus had seene this dreame, hee awoke and rose vp, and thought in his heart vntill the night, what God would doe, and so he desired to know all the matter.

CHAP. XII.

1 AT the same time dwelt Mardocheus in the Kings court with Bagathas, & Thara, the Kings eunuchs, and keepers of the palace.

2 But when he heard their purpose, and their imaginations, he perceived that they went about to lay their hands vpon the King Artaxerxes, and so he certified the King thereof.

3 Then caused the King to examine the two eunuchs with torments, and when they had confessed it, they were put to death.

4 This the King caused to be put in the Chronicles. Mardocheus also wrote the same thing.

5 So the King commaunded that Mardocheus should remaine in the court, and for the aduertisement, he gaue him a reward.

6 But Aman the sonne of Amadathus the Agagite, which was in great honour & reputation with the King, went about to hurt Mardocheus and his people, because of the two eunuchs of the king that were put to death.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The copie of the letters of Artaxerxes against the Iewes, 8 The prayer of Esther.

1 HE copie of the letters was this, The great King Artaxerxes writeth these things to the princes and gouernours that are vnder him from India vnto Ethiopia in an hundredth and seuen and twentie provinces.

2 When I was made Lord ouer many people, and had subdued the whole earth vnto my dominion, I would not exalt my selfe by the reason of my power, but purposed with equitie alway and gentlenesse to gouerne my subiects, and wholly to let them in a peaceable life, and thereby to bring my kingdome vnto tranquillitie, that men might safely go thotow on every side, and to renew peace againe, which all men desire.

3 Now when I asked my counsellers, how these things might bee brought to passe, one that was conseruant with vs, of excellent wisdom, and constant in good will, and shewed himselfe to bee of true fidelitie, which had the second place in the kingdome, euen Aman,

4 Declared vnto vs, that in all nations there was scattered abroad, a rebellious people, that had lawes contrary to all people, and haue alway despised the commandements of kings, and so that this general empire, that we haue begun, cannot be gouerned without offence.

5 Seeing now we perceive, that this people alone are altogether contrary vnto euery man, vying strange and other manner of lawes, and hauing an euill opinion of our doings, and goe about to stablish wicked matters, that our kingdome should not come to good estate,

6 Therefore haue we commaunded, that all they that are appointed in writing vnto you by Aman (which is ordeined ouer y^e affairs, & is as our second father) shall all with their wiues & children be destroyed & rooted out: & the sword of their enemies without all mercy, & that none be spared the fourteenth day of y^e twelfth moeth Adar of this yeere.

7 That they which of olde, and now also haue euer bene rebellious, may in one day with violence be thrust downe into the hell, to the intent that after this time our affaires may be without troubles, and well gouerned in all points.

8 Then Mardocheus thought vpon al the works of the Lord, and made his prayer vnto him,

9 Saying, O Lord, the King Almighty (for all things are in thy power) & if thou hast appointed to saue Israel, there is no man y^e can withstand thee.

10 For thou hast made heauen and earth, and al the wonderous things vnder the heauen.

11 Thou art Lorde of all things, and there is no man that can resist thee, which art the Lord.

12 Thou knowest all things, and thou knowest, Lord, that it was neither of malice, nor presumption, nor for any desire of glorie, that I did this, and not bowe downe to proude Aman.

13 For I woulde haue bene content with good will for the saluation of Israel, to haue killt the sole of his feete.

14 But I did it, because I would not prefer the honour of a man aboue the glory of God, & would not worship any but onely thee, my Lorde, and this haue I not done of pride.

15 And therefore, O Lord God and king, haue mercie vpon thy people: for they imagine how they may bring vs to naught: yea, they would destroy the inheritance that hath bin thine fro the beginning.

16 Despise not the portion which thou hast dealinerd out of Egypt for thine owne selfe.

17 Heare my prayer, and be mercifull vnto thy portion: turne our sorow into ioye, that wee may liue, O Lord, and praise thy Name: shut not the mouthes of them that praise thee.

18 All Israel in like manner cried most earnestly vnto the Lord, because death was before their eyes.

CHAP. XIII.

The prayer of Esther for the deliuerance of her and her people.

1 QUENE Esther also, being in danger of death, resorted vnto the Lord,

2 And layd away her glorious apparell, and put on the garments of sighing, and mourning. In the stead of precious oymntment, she scattered ashes and doughe vpon her head: and the humbled her body greatly with fasting, & all the places of her ioy filled she with the haire that she plucked off.

3 And she prayed vnto the Lord God of Israel, saying, O my Lord, thou only art our king, helpe me desolate woman, which haue no helper but thee.

4 For my danger is at hand,

5 From

8 From my youth vs I have heard in the kind of my father, that thou O Lord, lookest backe from among all people, & our fathers from their predecessors for a speciall inheritance, and thou hast performed that which thou diddest promise them.

9 Now Lord, we have sinned before thee: therefore hast thou giue vs into y hands of our enemies.

10 Because we worshipped their gods, O Lord, thou art righteous.

11 Nevertheless, it saith them not, that we are in bitter captiuitie, but they haue broken hands with their idoles.

12 That they wil abolish the thing y thou with thy mouth hast ordeined, & destroy thine inheritance, to shut vp the mouth of them that praise thee, & to quench the glory of thy Temple, & of thine altar, 13 And to open the mouths, of the heathen, that they may praise the power of the idoles, & to magnifie a fleshly king for euer.

14 O Lord, giue no thy scepter vnto them that be nothing, lest they laugh vs to scorne in our misery: but turne their deuit vpo themselves, & make him an example, that hath begun the same against vs.

15 Thinke vpon vs, O Lord, and shewe thy selfe vnto vs in the time of our distresse, and strengthen me, O King of gods, and Lord of all power.

16 Giue me an eloquent speech in my suit before the Lion: tume his heart to hate our enemy, to destroy him, and all such as content vnto him.

17 But deliuer vs & chine hand, & helpe me that am solitary, which haue no defence but only thee.

18 Thou knowest all things, O Lord: thou knowest, that I hate the glorie of the vniuersitee, and that I abhorre the bed of the vncircumcised, and of all the heathen.

19 Thou knowest my pacifitie: for I haue not token of my preeminence, which I beare vpo mine head, what time as I maist shewe my selfe, and that I abhorre it as a monstrous cloth, & that I weate it not when I am alone by my selfe.

20 And that I thine handmaide haue not eaten at Amins table, and that I haue had no pleasure in the Kings feast, nor dranke the wine of the drinke offerings.

21 And that I thine handmaide haue no joy since that day that I was brought hither, vntill this day, but in thee, O Lord God of Abraham.

22 O thou myghty God above al, heare the voice of the y haue none other hope, & deliuer vs out of y hand of y wicked, & deliuer me out of my feare.

CHAP. XV.

1 Ardochus mooueth Esther to goe to the King and make intercession for her people. 2 As the persians haue request.

Ardochus also bade Esther to go in vnto the King, & pray for her people, & for her country.

3 Remember, sayth he, the dayes of thy low estate, how thou wast nourished vnder mine hand: for Aman which is next vnto the king hath giuen sentence of death against vs.

4 Call thou therefore vpon the Lord, & speake for vs vnto the king, and deliuer vs from death.

5 And vpon the third day when he had ended her prayer, he layd away the mourning garments, and put on her glorious apparell,

6 And deckt herselfe goodly, after that he had called vpon God, which is the beholder and saviour of all things, and tooke two handmaids with her.

7 Vpon the one she leant herselfe, as one that was tender.

8 And the other followed her, and bare the name of her valuer.

9 The time of her beaude made her face not coloured: and her face was cheerefull and amiable, but her heart was sorrowfull for great feare.

10 Then she went in thorow all the doores, & stood before the King, and the King layd vpon his royall throne, and was clothed in his goodly array, all glittering with golde and precious stones, and he was very terrible.

11 Then he lift vp his face, that shone with maiestie, and looked fiercely vpon her: therefore the Queene fell downe, and was pale and faine, & leant herselfe vpon the head of the mayd that went with her.

12 Nevertheless, God turned the kings minde, that he was gentle, who being carefull, leaped out of his throne, and toked her in his armes, till he came to herselfe againe: and comforted her with louing words, and sayd, 13 Either, what is the matter? I am thy brother, be of good cheare.

14 Thou shalt not die: for our commandment toucheth the commons, and not thee. Come neere.

15 And so he held vp his golden scepter, and laid it vpon her necke.

16 And kissed her, and said, Talke with me.

17 Then said she, I saw thee, O lord, as an Angel of God, and mine heart was troubled, for feare of thy maiestie.

18 For wonderfull art thou, O lord, and thy face is full of grace.

19 And as she was thus speaking vnto him, she fell downe againe for faintnesse.

20 Then the king was troubled, and all his seruants comforted her.

CHAP. XVI.

The copie of the letters of Artaxerxes, whereby he becometh king which he first wrote.

1 He great King Artaxerxes, which reigned from India vnto Ethiopia, ouer an hundred & euen and twenty prouinces, sendeth vnto the princes and rulers that haue y charge of our affaires, Salutation.

2 There be many that through the goodnesse of Princes and honour giuen vnto them, become very proud,

3 And indeuour not only to hurt our fabrices, but not content to liue in wealth, doe also imagine destruction against those that doe them good,

4 And take not onely all thankfulness away from men, but in pride & presumption, as they that be vnnimicifull of benefites, they thinke to escape the vengeance of God, that seeth all things, and is contrary to euill.

5 And oft times many, which bee set in office, & vnto whom their friends causes are committed, by vaine intlements doe wrap them in calamities, that cannot be remedied for they make them partakers of innocent blood,

6 And deceitfully abuse the simplicitie and gentlenesse of Princes with lying tales.

7 This may be proued not onely by old histories, but also by those things that are before our eyes, and are wickedly committed of such perfidities, as are not worthy to beare rule.

8 Therefore we must take heed hereafter, that we may make the kingdome peaceable for al men, what change sooner shall come.

9 And discern the things that are before our eyes, so with stand them with gentlenesse.

10 For Aman, a Macedonian, the sonne of Amadathus,

And hath procured the friendship that wee beare toward all nations; so that he was called our father, and was honoured of every man as the next person vnto the King.

13 But he could not vie himselfe soberly in this great dignitie, but went about to deprime vs of the kingdome, and of our life.

14 With manifest deceit also hath he desired to destroy Mardocheus our preseruer, which hath done vs good in all things, and innocēt either the partaker of our kingdome, with all her nation.

15 For his minde was (when he had taken them out of the way) to lay waite for vs, and by this means to translate the kingdome of the Persians vnto them of Macedonia.

16 But we finde that the Iewes (which were accursed of this most wicked man,) they might be destroyed are no euill doers, but vs most iust lawes. And that they bee the children of the most High and Almightye and euergluing God, by whom the kingdome hath bene preserued vnto vs, and our progenitors in very good order.

17 Wherefore ye shall doe well, if ye doe not put in execution those letters, that Arian the sonne of Amadathus did write vnto you. For he that imagined them, hanged at Sufa before the gates with all his familie: and God (which hath all things in his power) hath speedily rewarded him after his deserting.

19 Therefore ye shall publish the copie of this letter in all places, that the Iewes may freely liue after their owne Lawes.

20 And ye shall sayde them, that vpon the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth Adar they may be aunged of them, which in the time of their trouble would haue oppressed them.

21 For Almighty God hath turned to ioy the day wherein the chosen people should haue perished.

22 Moreouer, among other solemne dayes ye shall keepe this day with all gladnesse.

23 That both nowe and in time to come, this day may be a remembrance of deliuerance for vs, and all such as lone the prosperitie of the Persians, but a remembrance of destruction to those that be seditious vnto vs.

24 Therefore all cities and countreys that doe not this, shall horribly bee destroyed with sword and fire, and shall not onely not bee inhabited of men, but be abhorred also of the wilde beasts and foules for ever.

THE WISEDOME OF SALOMON.

CHAP. I.

1 What we ought to search and enquire after God. 2. What he shalbe that finde him. 3. The holy Ghost. 4. 11. We ought to be from backbiting and murmuring. 12. Whereof shall cometh. 13. Righteousnesse and the fruit thereof.

OVER *righteousnesse, ye that bee Iudges of the earth: thinke reuerently of the Lord, and seeke him in simplicitie of heart.

2 For he will be frind of them that tempt him not, and appeareth vnto such as be not vsaithfull vnto him.

3 For wicked thoughts separate from God: and his power when it is tryed, reprooeth the vnwise.

4 Because wilddome cannot enter into a wicked heart, nor dwell in the body that is subiect vnto sin.

5 For the holy * Spirit of discipline fleeth from deceit, and withdraweth himselfe from the thoughts that are without vnderstanding, and is rebuked when wickednesse cometh.

6 For the Spirit of wisdom * is louing, and wil not abuse him, that blasphemeth with his lippes: for God is a witness of his reines, and a true beholder of his heart, and an hearer of the tongue.

7 For the Spirit of the Lord filleth all the world: and the same that maintaineth all things, hath knowledge of the voyce.

8 Therefore hee that speaketh vnrighteous things cannot be hid: neither shall the iudgement of reproch let him escape.

9 For inquisition shalbe made for the thoughts of the vngodly, and the found of his words shall come vnto God for the correctio of his iniquities.

10 For the eare of ielousie heareth all things, and the noyse of the grudgings shall not be hid.

11 Therefore beware of murmuring, which profeeth nothing, and reframe your tongue from slander: for thereof no word is secrete, that shall goe for nought, and the mouth that speaketh lies, slayeth the soule.

12. Seeke not death in the error of your life. * destroy not your felus thorow the works of your owne hands.

13 * For God hath not made death, neither hath he pleasure in the destruction of the liuing.

14 For hee created all things, that they might haue their being: and the generations of the world are preferred, and there is no poison of destruction in them, and the kingdom of hel is not vpon earth.

15 For righteousnesse is immortal, but vnrighteousnesse bringeth death.

16 And the vngodly call * it vnto them both with hands and words: and while they thinke to haue a friend of it, they come to nought: for they are confederate with it: therefore are they worthy to be partakers thereof.

CHAP. II.

1 The imaginations and desires of the wicked, and their vainnes against the faithfull.

FOR the vngodly say, as they fallily imagine with themselves, * Our life is short & tedious: and in the death of a man there is no recouerie, neither was any known that hath returned from ygrate.

2 For we are borne at all aduenture, and wee shall bee hereafter as though wee had neuer bene: for the breath is a smoke in our nostrils, and the words as a sparke raised out of our heart.

3 Which being extinguished, the body is turned into ashes, and the Spirit vanisheth as the fose ayre.

4. Our life shall passe away as the trace of a cloude, and come to nought as the miste that is driuen away with the beames of the sunne, and cast downe with the heate thereof. Our name also shall be forgotten in time, and no man shall haue our workes in remembrance.

5 * For our time is as a shadowe that passeth away, and after our ende there is no returning: for it is fast sealed, so that no man cometh againe.

Vu 6 * Come

and 10. 1. 1.

6 * Come therefore and let vs enjoy the pleasures that are perfect, and let vs cheerfully viche creatures as in youth.

7 Let vs fill our felues with costly wine, & ointments, and let vs not spare the flower of life passe by vs.

8 Let vs crowne our felues with rose buds as fore they be withered.

9 Let vs all bee partakers of our wantonnesse: let vs leaue those tokens of our pleasure in euery place: for this is our portion, and this is our lot.

10 Let vs oppress the poore that is righteous: let vs not spare the widow, nor reuerence the white haire of the aged, that haue liued many yeeres.

11 Let our strength be the Lawe of vniuersitoutnesse: for the thing that is feeble, is reprooued as vnprofitable.

12 Therefore let vs defraud the righteous: for he is not for our profite, and he is contrary to our doings: hee checketh vs for offending against the Law, and blameth vs as transgressors of disciplina.

13 He maketh his boast to haue the knowledge of God, & he calleth himselfe f sonne of the Lord.

14 He is made to * reprobate our thoughts.

15 He giveth vs also to looke * vpon him: for his life is not like other mens: his wayes are of another fashion.

16 Hee counteth vs as bastards, and hee withdraweth himselfe from vs: as from filthinesse: hee commendeth greatly the latter ende of the iust, and boasteth that God is his father.

17 Let vs see them if his wordes be true: let vs proue what end he shall haue.

18 For if the righteous man be the * sonne of God, hee will helpe him, and deliuer him from the hands of his enemies.

19 Let vs * examine him with rebukes and torments, that wee may knowe his meeknesse, and proue his patience.

20 Let vs condemne him vnto a shameful death: for he shall be preferred as he himselfe saith.

21 Such things do they imagine, and go astray for their owne wickednesse: they haue blinded them.

22 And they doe not vnderstand the mysteries of God, neither hope for the reward of righteousness, nor can discern the honour of the soules that are faultlesse.

23 For God created man without corruption, and made him after the * image of his owne likeness.

24 * Neuertheless, thorow enuie of the deuil came death into the world: and they that hold of his side proue it.

CHAP. III.

1 The resurrection and glorie of the righteous. 2 The reward of the faithful. 3 Who are miserable.

* B Vt the * soules of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them.

2 * In the fight of the vniuersite they appeared to die, and their end was thought grieuous.

3 And their departing from vs, destruction, but they are in peace.

4 And though they suffer paine before men, yet is * their hope full of immortalitie.

5 They are punished, but in few things, yet in many things that they be well rewarded: * for God proueth them, & findeth them meete for himselfe.

6 Hee tryeth them as the golde in the furnace, and receiueeth them as a perfect fruite offering.

7 * And in the time of their vision they shall shine, and runne thorow as the sparkes among the stubble.

8 * They shall lodge the stations, and haue dominion ouer the people, and their Lord shall reioice for euery one of them.

9 They that trust in him: shall vnderstand the truth, and the faithfull shall remaine with him in loue: for grace and mercy is among his Saints, and he regardeth his elect.

10 But * the vngodly shall be punished according to their imaginations: for they haue despised the righteous, and forsaken the Lord.

11 Who lo despised wisdom, and discipline, is miserable, and their hope is vaine, and their labours are foolish, and their works vnprofitable.

12 Their wises are vndiscreet, and their children wicked: their offering is cursed.

13 Therefore the barren is blessed which is vndeiled, and knoweth not the sinfull bed: she shall haue fruite in the visitation of the sheules.

14 And the church, which with his hands hath not wrought iniquitie, nor imagined wicked things against God: for vnto him shall be given the special gift of faith, and an acceptable portion in the Temple of the Lord.

15 For glorious is the fruite of good labours, and the roote of wisdom shall neuer fade away.

16 But the children of adulterers shall not be partakers of the holy things, and the seede of the wicked bed shall be rooted out.

17 And though they liue long, yet shall they be nothing regarded, and their last age shall be without honour.

18 If they die hastily, they haue no hope, neither comfort in the day of trial.

19 For horrible is the ende of the wicked generation.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The resurrection and the communion thereof. 2 The death of the righteous, and the condemnation of the vnfaithfull.

B Eter is barrennesse with vertue: for the memoriall thereof is immortal: for it is known with God and with men.

2 When it is present, men take example thereat, and if it goe away, yet they desire it: it is alway crowned and triumpheth, and winneth the battell and the vndeiled rewards.

3 But the multitude of the vngodly which abound in children, is vnprofitable: and the ballast plants shall take no deepe roote, nor lay any fast foundation.

4 For though they bud forth in the branches for a time, yet they shall be shaken with the winde: for they stand not fast, and through the vehemencie of the winde they shall be rooted out.

5 For the vnperit branches shall be broken, and their fruit shall be vnprofitable and sowe to eate, and meete for nothing.

6 For al the children that are borne of the wicked bed, shall be witness of the wickednesse against their parents when they be asked.

7 But though the righteous be persecuted with death, yet shall he be in rest.

8 For the honourable age is not that which is of long time, neither that which is measured by the number of yeeres.

9 But wisdom is the gray haire, and an vndeiled life is the olde age.

10 * He pleased God, and was beloued of him, so that whereas he liued among sinners, he translatod him.

11 He was taken away, lest wickednesse should alter for her, and shewed her selfe sheeufully vnto them in the wayes, and meeteth them in euery thought.

17 For the most true desire of discipline is her beginning: and the care of discipline is loue:

18 And loue is the keeping of her lawes: & the keeping of the lawes is assurance of immortality:

19 And immortality maketh vs nere vnto God.

20 Therefore the desire of wisdom leadeth to the kingdom.

21 If your delight be then in thrones, and scepters, O Kings of the people, honour wisdom, that ye may strife for her.

22 Now I will tell you what wisdom is, and whence it cometh, and wil not hide the mysteries from you, but wil seeke her out from the beginning of her nativity, and bring the knowledge of her into light, and wil not keepe backe the truth.

23 Neither wil I haue to do wth confuming enuy: for such a man shall not be partaker of wisdom.

24 But if multitude of the wife is the preservation of the world, & a wife king is stay of the people.

25 Be therefore instructed by my words, and ye shall haue profit.

CHAP. VII.

Wisdom ought to be preferred aboue all things.

I My selfe am also mortal & a man like al other, & am come of him that was first made of y^e earth.

2 And in my mothers wombe was I fashioned to be flesh in tenn moneths: I was brought together into blood of the feed of man, and by the pleasure that cometh with sleepe.

3 And when I was borne, I receiued the common aire, & fell vpon the earth, which is of like nature, crying & weeping at the first as all other doe.

4 I was nourished in swadling clothes, and with cares.

5 For there is no king that lead any other beginning of birth.

6 All men then haue one entrance vnto life, and a like going out.

7 Wherefore I prayd, & vnderstanding was giue me: I called, and the spirit of wisdom came vnto me.

8 I preferred her to scepters and thrones, and counted riches nothing in comparison of her.

9 Neither did I compare precious stones vnto her: for all golde is but a litle grauell in respect of her, and siluer shall be counted but clay before her.

10 I loued her aboue health and beautie, and purposed to take her for my light: for her light can not be quenched.

11 All good things therefore came to me together with her, & innumerable riches thorow her hands.

12 So I was glad in all: for wisdom was the author thereof, and I knew not that she was the mother of these things.

13 And I learned vainly, and communicated without enuy, and I doe not hide her riches.

14 For she is an infinit treasure vnto men, which who so vse, become partakers of the loue of God, and are accepted for the gifts of knowledge.

15 God hath granted mee to speake according to my minde, and to iudge worthily of the things, that are giuen me: for hee is the leader vnto wisdom, and the director of the wise.

16 For in his hand are both we and our works, and all wisdom, and the knowledge of the works.

17 For he hath giuen me the true knowledge of the things that are, so that I know how the world was made, and the powers of the elements,

18 The beginning and the end, and the mids of the times: how the times alter, and the change of the seasons.

19 The course of y^e yere, & situation of the stars,

20 The name of liuing things, & the seruities of beasts, & power of y^e winds, & the imaginations of men, & diuersities of plants, & the vertues of roots.

21 And all things both secret and knowne do I know: for wisdom the worker of all things, hath taught me it.

22 For in her is y^e spirit of vnderstanding, which is holy, the onely begotten, manifold, subtil, innumerable, cleare, vndefiled, euident, not hurtfull, louing y^e good, sharpe, which cannot be letted, doing good,

23 Courteous, stable, sure, without care, hauing all power, circumspect in all things, and passing thorow all intellectuall, pure and subtile spirits.

24 For wisdom is nimble then all nimble things: she goeth thorow & attaineth to all things, because of her purenesse.

25 For shee is the breath of the power of God, and a pure influence that floweth from the glory of the Almighty: therefore can no defiled thing come vnto her.

26 For shee is the brightnes of the everlasting light, the vndefiled mirrour of the maiesty of God, and the image of his goodnesse.

27 And being one, she can do all things, and remaining in herselfe, remembereth all, and according to the apes shee entereth into the holy soules, and maketh them the friends of God and Prophets.

28 For God loveth none, if hee dwell not with wisdom.

29 For shee is more beautiful then the sunne, and is aboue all the order of the starres, and the light is not to be compared vnto her.

30 For night cometh vpon it, but wickednes cannot overcome wisdom.

CHAP. VIII.

The effects of wisdom.

He also reacheth fro one end to another mightily, and cometh doth the order all things.

1 I haue loued her, & sought her fro my youth: I desired to marry her, such loue had I vnto her beautie.

2 In y^e she is conuerfant wth God, he commendeth her nobility: yea, the Lord of all things loveth her.

3 For shee is the scholemistresse of the knowledge of God, and the cheuler out of his works.

4 If riches be a posselsio to be desired in this life, what is richer then wisdom, y^e worketh all things?

5 For if prudence worketh, what is it among all things, that worketh better then she?

6 If a man loue righteousness, her labours are vertuous: for she teacheth sobernes and prudence, righteousness & strength, which are the most profitable things that men can haue in this life.

7 If a man desire great experience, she can tell the things that are past, & discern things to come: she knoweth the subtilities of words, and the solutions of darke sentences: she foreseeth the signes and wonders, or euer they come to passe, and the successe of seasons and times.

8 Therefore I purposed to take her vnto my company, knowing that shee would counsell mee good things, and comfort me in cares and griefe.

9 For her sake shall I haue glory among y^e multitude, & honor among y^e elders, though I be yong.

10 I shall be found of sharpe iudgement, so that I shall be maruelous in the sight of great men.

11 When I hold my tongue, they shall aide my leasure: when I speake, they shall heare diligently, and and if I talke much, they shall lay their hands vpon their mouths.

13 Manner by her I shall obtaine immortalicie, and leaue an euertasting memorie among them that come after me.

14 I shall gouerne the people, and the nations shall be subdued vnto me.

15 Horrible tyrants shall bee afraid when they heare me: among the multitude I shall be counted good, and mightie in battell.

16 When I come home, I shall rest with her: for her company hath no bitterness, and her fellowship hath no tediousnesse, but mirth and ioy.

17 Now when I considered these things by my selfe, and pondered them in mine heart, howe that to be ioyned vnto wisdom is immortalicie.

18 And great pleasure is in her friendship, and that in the works of her hands are infinite riches, and that in the exercise of talking with her is prudence, and glory by communing with her, I went about seeking how I might take her vnto me.

19 For I was a vertue childe, and was of a good spirit.

20 Yea rather being good, I came to an vnde-fil'd body.

21 Neuertheless, when I perceiued that I could not enjoy her except God gaue her, (and that was a point of wisdom also, to know whose gift it was) I went vnto the Lord, and besought him, and with my whole heart I said,

CHAP. IX.

A prayer of Solomon to obtaine wisdom.
O God of fathers, and Lord of mercie, which hast made all things with thy word,

1 And ordeined man through thy wisdom, that he should haue dominion ouer the creatures which thou hast made,

2 And gouerne the world according to equitie and righte counsel, and execute iudgement with an upright heart:

3 Giue me that wisdom which sitteth by thy throne, & put me not out fro among thy children.

4 For I thy seruant, and sonne of thine handmaid, am a feeble person, & of a short time, & yet lesse in vnderstanding of iudgement & the lawes.

5 And though a man be neuer so perfect among the children of men, yet if thy wisdom be not with him, he shall be nothing regarded.

6 Thou hast chosen me to be a King of thy people, and the iudge of thy sounes and daughters.

7 Thou hast commanded me to build a temple vpon thine holy Mount, & an altar in the city where in thou dwellest, a likeness of thine holy Tabernacle, which thou hast prepared from the beginning.

8 And thy wisdom with thee, which knoweth thy works, which also was when thou madest the world, and which knew what was acceptable in thy sight, and right in thy commandments.

9 Send her out of thine holy heauens, and send her from the throne of thy maiestie, that she may bee with mee, and labour, that I may knowe what is acceptable in thy sight.

10 For thee knoweth and vnderstandeth all things, and she shall leade me soberly in my works, and preserve me by her glory.

11 So shall my works be acceptable, and then shall I gouerne thy people righteously, and bee meete for my fathers throne.

12 For what man is he y can know the counsel of God? or who can thinke what the wil of God is?

14 For the thoughts of mortall men are fearefull, and our foresaies are vncertaine.

15 Because a corruptible body is beny vnto the soule, and the earthly mansion keepeth downe the minde that is full of cares.

16 And hardly can we discern the things that are vpon earth, and with great labour finde we out the things which are before vs: who can then cke out the things that are in heauen?

17 Who can knowe thy counsell, except thou giue him wisdom, and send thine holy Spirit from aboue?

18 For so the wayes of them which are vpon earth are reformed, and men are taught the things that are pleasant vnto thee, and are preferred through wisdom.

CHAP. X.

The deliuerance of the righteous, and destruction of the enemies commeth through wisdom.

She preferred the first father of the world, that was formed, and kept him when hee was created alone, and brought him out of his offence.

1 And gaue him power to rule all things.

2 But the vniuersall in his wrath departed from her, and perished by killing his brother in his furie.

3 For whose cause the earth was overflowed, but wisdom preferred it againe, gouerning the iust man by a little word.

4 Moreouer, when the nations were ioyned in their malicious confederacies, he knew the righteous, & preferred him faultlesse vnto God, & kept him sure, because he loued him tenderly as a sonne.

5 She preferred the righteous, when the vngodly perished, when he died from the fire that fell downe vpon the false cities.

6 Of whose wickednesse the waste land that smothereth yet giueth testimonie, and the trees that beare fruit that neuer commeth to ripenesse: and for a remembrance of the vniuersall soule, there standeth a pillar of salt.

7 For all such as regarded not wisdom, had not only this hurt, that they knew not the things which were good, but also left behind them vnto men a memoriall of their foolishnesse, so that in the things wherein they sinned, they can not lie hid.

8 But wisdom deliuered them that feared her.

9 When the righteous fled because of his brothers wrath, the led him the right way, shewed him the kingdome of God, gaue him knowledge of holy things, made him rich in his labours, and made his paines profitable.

10 Against the couetousnesse of such as defrauded him, she flood by him and made him rich.

11 She saved him from the enemies, & defended him from them that lay in wait, and she gaue him the price in a mightie battell, that he might know that the feare of God is stronger then all things.

12 When the righteous was sold, she forsooke him not, but deliuered him from sinne: she went dwayne with him into the dungeon,

13 And sayled him not in the bands, till he had brought him the keeper of the realme, and power against those that oppressed him, and them that had accused him, she declared to be iyers, and gaue him perpetual glorie.

14 She deliuered the righteous people & faultlesse seede from the nations that oppressed them.

15 Shee entered into the soule of the seruant of the Lord, and stood by him in wonders & signes.

against the terrible Kings.

17 Shee gaue the Saints the reward of their labours, and led them forth a marvellous way: on the day time she was a shadowe vnto them, and a light of starres in the night.

20 So the righteous tooke the spoiles of the vn- godly, & praised thine holy Name, O Lord, and magnified thy victorious hand with one accord;

21 For wisdom openeth the mouth of the dumbe, & maketh the tongues of babes eloquent.

19 For in stead of a fountaine of running water, the enemies were troubled at the corrupt blood, which was to rebuke the commandment of the killing of the children, but thou gauest vnto thine owne abundance of water vnlooked for,

21 For when they were tried and chastised with mercie, they knew howe the vngodly were iudged and punished in wrath.

22 For these hast thou exhorted as a father, and proued them: but thou hast condemned the other as a righteous king, when thou didst examine them.

23 Whether they were absent or present, their punishment was alike: for their griefe was double with mourning, & the remembrance of things past.

24 For when they perceived that through their torments good came vnto them, they felt the Lord.

25 And seeing the things that came to passe, at the last they wondered at him, whose afore they had cast out, denyed and decided: for they had an other thirst then the iust.

26 Because of the foolish deuices of their wickednesse wherewith they were deceiued, and worshipped serpents, that had not the vse of reason, and vile beastes, thou sendest a multitude of vn- reasonable beastes vpon them for a vengeance, that they might knowe, that wherewith a man sinneth, by the same also shall he be punished.

*Ezod. 12. 24.
Rom. 1. 23.

27 For vnto thine almighty hand, that made the world of * nought, it was not vnpossible to send among them a multitude of * beares or fiercelions,

28 Or furious beastes newly created, and vn- knownen, which should breathe out blastes of fire and cast out smoke as a tempest, or shoote horrible sparkes like lightnings out of their eyes.

29 Which might not onely destroy them with burning, but also kill them with their horrible sight.

30 Yea, without these might they haue bene cast downe with one winde, being persecuted by thy vengeance, and scattered abroad through the power of thy Spirite: but thou hast ordered all things in measure, number and weight.

31 For thou hast enueiled great strength & might, and who can withstand the power of thine arme?

32 For as the small thing that the balance weigheth, so is the world before thee, & as a drop of the morning dew, that falleth downe vpon the earth.

33 But thou hast mercy vpon all: for thou hast power of all things, & makest as though thou wouldest not the sinnes of men, because they should amend.

34 For thou lovest all the things that are, & hast none of them whom thou hast made: for thou wouldest haue created nothing if thou hadst hated.

35 And how might any thing endure, if it were not thy will? or howe could any thing be pre- served, except it were called of thee?

36 But thou sparest all: for they are thine, O Lord, which art the louer of foules.

C H A P. XII.

1 The miracle of God toward sinners. 12 The works of God are unsearchable. 13 God giueth life to all things.

14 Or thine incorruptible Spirit is in all things.

15 Therefore thou chastenest them measurably that goe wrong, and warrest them by putting them in remembrance of the things, wherein they haue offended, that leauing wickednesse, they may beleeue in thee, O Lord.

16 As for those olde inhabitants of the holy land, thou diddest hate them,

and 13. 1.
and 13. 5, 14.

17 For they committed abominable works, as forceries and wicked sacrifices,

18 And slaying of their own children wout mercy, & eating of the bowels of mans flesh in banking, where the raging Priests shed abominable blood.

19 And the fathers were the chiefe murderers of the foules destitute of all helpe, whom thou wouldest destroy by the hands of our fathers.

20 That the land which thou lovest aboue all other, might be a meete dwelling for the children of God.

21 Neuertheless, thou sparest them also as men, and sendest the fore-runners of thine holie, euen hornets to destroy them by little and little.

*Ezod. 23. 28.

22 Not that thou wast vnable to subdue the vngodly vnto the righteous in battell, or with cru- ell beastes, or with one rough word to destroy them together.

23 But in punishing them by litle and litle, thou gauest them space to repent, knowing well, that it was an vnrighteous nation and wicked of nature, and that their thought could neuer be altered.

24 For it was a cursed seed from the beginning: yet hast thou not spared them when they sinned, because thou fearedst any man.

25 For who dare say, * What hast thou done? or who dare stand against thy iudgement? or who dare accuse thee for the nations that perish, whom thou hast made? or who dare stand against thee to reuenge the wicked men?

*Rom. 9. 20.

26 For there is none other God but thou, that carest for all things, that thou mayest declare how that thy iudgement is not vnright.

27 There dare neither King nor tyrant in thy sight require accounts of them whose thou hast punished.

28 For so much then as thou art righteous thy selfe, thou orderest all things righteously, * thinking it not agreeable to thy power to condemne him, that hath not deserved to be punished,

*Job 12. 23.

16 For thy power is the beginning of righteousness, and because thou art Lord of all things, it canfeth thee to spare all things.

17 When men thinke thee not to be of a perfect power, thou declarest thy power, and reprocst the boastnesse of the wise.

18 But thou ruling the power, indigest with equi-tie, and gouernest vs with great fauour: for thou mayest leue thy power when thou wilt.

19 By such workes nowe hast thou taught thy people, that a man should be iust and loving, and hast made thy children to be of a good hope: for thou giuest repentance to sinners.

20 For if thou hast punished the enemies of thy children, & had deferred death vnto them, giuing them time and place that they might charge fro their wickednes.

21 With how great circumspection wilt thou pu-nith thine owne children, vnto whose fathers thou hast sware, and made covenants of good promises?

22 So when thou dost chasten vs, thou punishest our enemies a thousand times more, to the intente that when we iudge, we should diligently consider thy goodnesse, and when we are iudged, we should hope for mercy.

23 Whenfore thou hast tormented the wicked, & hast liued a dissolute life by their own imaginatōs.

24 * For they went astray very farre in the waies of error, and esteemed the beasts, which their enemies despised, for gods, being abused after the maner of children, that haue none vnderstanding.

25 Therefore hast thou sent this punishment that they should be in derision as children vnto reason.

26 But they that will not be reformed by those somewhat rebukes, shall feele the worthy punishment of God.

27 For in those things when they suffered, they declained: but in these whom they counted godly, when they saw themselves punished by them, they all acknowledged the true God whom afore they had denied to know: therefore came extreme dan-nation vpon them.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 * All things be vaine, except the knowledge of God, 10 Idolaters and isidles are mocked.

2 Vrely all men are vaine by nature, and are ignorant of God, * and could not know him that is,
by the good things that are seene, neither consider by the works, the worke-master.

3 * But they thought the fire, or the winde or the swift aire, or the course of the starres, or the raging water, or the lights of heauen to bee gouer-nours of the world, and gods.

4 Though they had such pleasure in their beau-tie that they thought them gods, yet should they haue known, how much more excellent he is that made them: for the first authour of beautie hath created these things.

5 Or if they manisted at the power, & operation of them, yet should they haue perceived thereby, how much he made these things, is mightier.

6 For by the greatnesse of their beautie, and of the creatures, the Creator being compared with them, may be considered.

7 But yet the blame is lesse in these, & seeks God and would finde him, & yet peradventure doe erre.

8 For * they goe about by his workes to seeke him, and are perfwaded by the sights, because the things are beautiful that are seene.

9 Howbeit they are not to be excused.

10 For if they can know too much, that they can discerne the world, why doe they not rather finde out the Lord thereof?

11 But miserable are they, and among the dead is their hope, that call them gods, which are the workes of mens hands, golde, and silver, and the thing that is inuented by arte, and the similitude of beasts, or any vaine fiction that hath bene made by the hand of antiquity.

12 * Or as when a carpenter cutteth downe a tree meet for the worke, & parth off all the bark thereof cunningly, & by arte maketh a vessel profitable for the vse of life.

13 And the things that are cut off fro his worke, he bestoweth to dresse his meat to fill himselfe.

14 And that which is left of these things, which is profitable for nothing (for it is a crooked piece of wood, and full of knobs) he carueth it diligently at his leisure, and according as he is expert in cunning, he giueth it a proportion, and fashioneth it after the similitude of a man.

15 Or maketh it like some vile beast, and straketh it ouer with red, and painteth it, and couereth every spot that is in it.

16 And when he hath made a conuenient tabernacle for it, he setteth it in a wall, & maketh it fast with yron.

17 Proudling so for it, lest it fall: for he knoweth that it cannot helpe it selfe, because it is an image, which hath need of helpe.

18 Then hee prayeth for his goods, and for his marriage, and for children: hee is not ashamed to speake vnto it, that hath no life.

19 He calleth on him that is weake for health:
he prayeth vnto him that is dead for life: he requireth him of helpe that hath no experience at all.

20 And for his iourney, him that is not able to go, and for gaine, and worke, and successe of his af-fares he requieth furtherance of him, that hath no maner of power.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The destruction and abomination of images, 2 A curse of them and of him that maketh them. 14 Worthy idolatrie proceded. 23 What euill cometh of idolatrie.

2 Gaine, another man purposing to faile, and intending to passe thorow the raging waues, calleth vpon a stocke more rotten then the ship that carrieth him.

3 For as for his it, countenesse of money hath found it out, & the craftsman made it by cunning.

4 But thy providence, O Father, gouerneth it:

5 For thou hast made a way, euen in the sea, and a sure path among the waues.

6 Declaring: thereby, that thou hast power to helpe in all things, yea, though a man went to the sea without meanes.

7 Neuertheless thou wouldest not, that thy workes of thy wisdom should be vaine, and therefore do men commit their liues to a small piece of wood, and passe ouer the stormy sea in a ship, & are saued.

8 * For in the olde time also when the proud giants perished, the hope of the world went into a ship which was gouerned by thine hand, and so left seed of generation vnto the world.

9 For blessed is the tree whereby righteousnes commeth.

10 But that is cursed & is made with hands, * both it, & he that made it, because he made it, & it being a corruptible thing, because it was called god.

11 * For the vngodly, and his vngodlinesse are both both like hated of God: so truly the worke in the that made it shall be punished together.

10 Therefore shall there be a visitation for the idols of the nations: for of the creatures of God they are become abomination; * and stumbling blocks vnto the soules of men; and a snare for the feet of the vnwise.

11 For the inuention of idols was the beginning of whoredome, and the finding of them is the corruption of life.

12 For they were not from the beginning, neither shall they continue for euer.

13 The vaine glory of men brought the into the world: therefore shall they come shortly to an end.

14 When a father mourned grievously for his sonne that was taken away suddenly, he made an image for him that was once dead, whom now he worshippeth as a god, and ordeined to his seruants ceremonies and sacrifices.

15 Thus by proces of time this wicked custome preuailed, and was kept as a law, and idols were worshipped by the commandement of tyrants.

16 As for those that were so farre off that men might not worship them presently, they did counterfeite the visage that was farre off, & made a gorgeous image of a King, whom they would honour, that they might by all means flatter him that was absent, as though he had bene present.

17 Again the ambition of the craftsman thrust forward the ignorant to increase the superstition.

18 For he peradventure willing to please a noble man, laboured with all his cunning to make the image of the best fashion.

19 And so throw the beautie of the worke the multitude was allured, and so tooke him now for a God, which a little afore was but honored as a man.

20 And this was the deceiuing of mans life, when men, being in seruitude, through calamitie and ty-rannie ascribed vnto stones and stockes the name, which ought not to be communicate vnto any.

21 Moreover, this was not enough for them that they erred in the knowledge of God: but where as they liued in great warres of ignorance, those so great plagues called they peace.

22 For either they slew their owne children in sacrifice, or vsed secret ceremonies, or taging dis-solutenesse by strange rites,

23 And so kept neither life nor marriage cleane:
but either one slew another by treason, or els vexed him by adulterie.

24 So were all mixt together, blood and slaughter, theft and deceit, corruption, vnfaithfulness, riualls, perurie,

25 Disquieting of good men, vnthankfulness, defiling of soules, changing of birth, disorder in marriage, adulterie and vnclannesse.

26 For the worshipping of idols that ought not to be named, is the beginning & the cause, and the end of all euill:

27 For either they be mad when they be merry, or prophesie lies, or lue vngodly, or els lightly for-swear themselves.

28 For inasmuch as their trust is in the idols, which haue no life, though they swear falsely, yet they thinke to haue no hurt.

29 Therefore for two causes shall they iustly be punished, because they haue an euill opinion of God, adding themselves vnto idols, & because they swear vainly to deceiue, & despise holines.

30 For it is not the power of them by who they swore, but the vngodly of them that sin, which punisheth alwayes the offence of the vngodly.

CHAP. XV.

The wisdome of the philosopher, praising the mercie of God, by whome grace they haue as slaves.

B Vt thou, O our God, art gracious and true, long suffering and gouernest all things by mercy.

2 Though we sinne, yet are we thine: for wee know thy power: but we sinne not, knowing that we are soulded thee.

3 For to know thee, is perfitt righteousness, and to know thy power, is the root of immortallitie.

4 For neither hath the wicked inuention of deceiued vs, nor the vnprofitable labor of the painters, nor an image spotted with diuers colours,

5 Whose sight stirreth vp the desire of the ignorant: so that he couereth the forme that hath no life, of a dead image.

6 They y loue such wicked things are worthy to haue such things to trust to, & they that make the,
& they that desire them, and they y worship them.

7 The potter also tempereth soft earth, and fashioneth euery vessell with labor to our vtil: but of the same clay he maketh both y vessells, that serue to cleane vses, & the contrary likewise: but where-to euery vessell serueth, the potter is the iudge.

8 So by his wicked labour hee maketh a vaine
God of the same clay: euen he, which a little afore was made of earth himselfe, and within a little while after goeth thither againe whence hee was taken, when he shall make account for the lone of his life.

9 Notwithstanding he careth not for the labor
he taketh, nor that his life is short, but hee strueth with the goldsmiths, and siluer smiths, and counter-feith the copper smiths, and taketh it for an honor to make deceiueable things.

10 His heart is ashes, & his hope is more vile the earth, & his life is lesse worthy of honor then clay.

11 For he knoweth not his owne maker, y gaue him his soule, that had power and breathed in him
the breath of life.

12 But they count our life to be but a pastime, and our conseruation as a market, where there is gaine: for they say we ought to be getting on eu-ry side, though it be by euill meanes.

13 Now he that of earth maketh fraile vessells & images, knoweth himselfe to offend aboue al other.

14 Al the enemies of ehy people, that hold them in subiection, are most vnwise, and more mistable then the very fooles.

15 For they iudge all the idols of the nations to be gods, which neither haue eyefight to see, nor noses to smell, nor eares to heare, nor fingers of hands to grope, and their feet are slow to goe.

16 For man made them, and he that hath but a borrowed spirit, fashioned them: but no man can make a God like vnto himselfe.

17 For seeing he is but mortall himselfe, it is but mortall that he maketh with vnrighteous hands: he himselfe is better then they whom he worshippeth for he liued, but they neuer liued.

18 Yea, they worshipped beasts also, which are their most enemies, and which are the worst, if they be compared vnto others, because they haue none vnderstanding.

19 Neither haue they any beautie to be desired in respect of other beasts: for they are destitute of Gods praise, and of his blessing.

CHAP. XVI.

The punishment of idolaters, as the benefactors doe vnto the foolish.
Therefore

*11p. 10. 18.

*Dent. 18. 10.

10. 4.

1. For sometime by such things they are worldly punished & comforted by multitude of beasts.

2. In stead of the which punishment thou hast bene favourable to thy people, and to satisfie their appetite hast prepared a meate of a strange taste, even quails.

3. To the intent that they that desired meat, by the things which were shewed & sent among them, might turne away their necessarie desire, and that they which had suffered penurie for a space, should also feele a new taste.

4. For it was requisite, that they which vsed tyrannie, should fall into extreme pouertie, and that to these onely it should be shewed, how their enemies were tormented.

5. For when the cruell fiercenes of the beasts came vpon them, & they were hurt with the stings of cruell serpents.

6. Thy wrath endured not perpetually, but they were troubled for a litle season, that they might bee reformed, having a signe of situation, to remember the commandment of thy Law.

7. For he that turned toward it, was not healed by the thing that he saw, but by thee, O Saviour of all.

8. So in this thou shewest our enemies, that it is thou, which deliverest from all euill.

9. For the biting of grasshoppers and flies killed them, and there was no remedie found for their life, for they were worthy to be punished by such.

10. But the teeth of venomous dragons could not overcome thy children, for thy mercy came to helpe them, and healed them.

11. For they were pricked, because they should remember thy words, & were speedily healed, lest they should fall into deepe forgetfulness, that they could not be called backe by thy benefite.

12. For neither herbe nor plaister healed them, but thy word, O Lord, which healeth all things.

13. For thou hast the power of life and death, and hearest downe vnto the gates of hell, & bringest vp againe.

14. A man indeede by his wickednesse may slay himselfe: but when the spirit is gone forth, it turneth not againe, neither can he call againe the soule that is taken away.

15. But it is not possible to escapethine hand.

16. For the vngodlie that would not knowe thee, were punished by the strength of thine arme, with strange rain and with haile, and were purged with tempest that they could not auoyde, and were consumed with fire.

17. For it was a wonderous thing that fire might doe more then water, which quencheeth all things: but the world is the awenger of the righteous.

18. For sometime was the fire so tame, that the beasts which were sent against the vngodly, burnt not: and that, because they should see & know, that they were persecuted with the punishment of God.

19. And sometime burnt the fire in the nids of the water about the power of fire, that it might destroy the generation of the vniust land.

20. In the stead whereof thou hast fed thine owne people with Angels food, & sent them bread ready from heauen without their labour, which had abundance of all pleasures in it, and was meet for all tastes.

21. For thy sustenance declared thy sweetnesse vnto thy children, which serued to the appetite of him that tooke it, and was meet to that that euerly man would.

22. Moreover, the snow and ice abode the fire, and melted not, that they might know, that the fire burning in the haile, and sparkling in the rain, destroyed the fruit of the enemies.

23. Again it forgate his owne strength, that the righteous might be nourished.

24. For the creature that serueth thee which are the makers, is fierce in punishing the vnrighteous: but it is easie to doe good vnto such as put their trust in thee.

25. Therefore was it changed at the same time vnto all fashions to serue thy grace, which nourisheth all things, according to the desire of them that had need thereof.

26. That thy children whome thou lovest, O Lorde, might know, that it is not the increase of fruites that feedeth men, but that it is thy worde, which preferreth them that trust in thee.

27. For that which could not be destroyed with the fire, being onely warmed a litle with the same beames, melted.

28. That it might be knowne that we ought to preuent the sunne rising to give thanks vnto thee, and to salute thee before the day-spring.

29. For the hope of the thankfull shall melt as the winter yce, and flow away as vnprofitable waters.

CHAP. XVII.

The iudgements of God agaynst the wicked.

1. For thy iudgements are great, and cannot be expressed: therefore men doe erre, that will not be reformed.

2. For when the vnrighteous thought to haue thine holy people in subiection, they were bounde with the bands of darkenesse, and long night, and being shut vp vnder the roofo, did lie there to escape the euermlasting prouidence.

3. And while they thought to be hidde in their darke sinnes, they were scattered abroad in the darke couering of forgetfulness, fearing horribly and troubled with visions.

4. For the demne that hid them, kept them not from feare: but the founds that were about them, troubled them, and terrible visions and sorowfull sights did appeare.

5. No power of the fire might giue light, neither might the cleere flames of the starres lighten the horrible night.

6. For there appeared vnto them onely a sudden fire, very dreadfull: so that being afraid of this vision, which they could not see, they thought the things, which they saw, to be worfe.

7. And the illusions of the magical artes were brought downe, & it was a most shamefull reproch for the boasting of their knowledge.

8. For they that promised to driue away feare and trouble from the sicke person, were sicke for feare, and worhie to be laughed at.

9. And though no fearefull thing did feare them, yet were they afraid at the beasts which passed by them, & at the hissing of the serpents, so that they died for feare, and said they saw not the aire, which by no means can beauoied.

10. For it is a fearefull thing, when malice is condemned by her owne testimony: and a conscience that is touched, doeth euer forecast cruel things.

11. For feare is nothing els, but a betraying of the succours which reason offereth.

12. And the lesse that the hope is within, the more doth he esteeme the ignorance of the thing, that

That is, the mightie vision. Exod. 7. 22. 8. 7. 19.

13 But they that did endure the night that was intolerable, and that came out of the dungeon of hell, which is insupportable, slept the same sleepe.

14 And sometimes were troubled with monstrous visions, & sometimes they swooned, as though their own soules should betray them: for a sudden feare nor looked for came vpon them.

15 And thus, who so euer fell downe, he was kept and shut in prison, but without chaines.

16 For whether hee was an husbandman, or a shephard, or one that was set to worke alone, if he were taken, he must suffer this necessitie, that hee could not auoyde.

17 (For with one chaine of darknes were they all bound) whether it were an hissing winde or a sweet song of the birds among the thicke branches of the trees, or the vehemencie of hasty running water,

18 Or a great noyse of the falling downe of stones, or the running of skipping beastes, that could not be seene, or the noyse of cruell beastes, that roared, or the fowle that answered againe in the hollow mountaynes: these fearefull things made them to swoone.

19 For all the world shined with cleere light, and no man was hindered in his labour.

20 Onely vpon them there fell an heauy night, an image of that darknesse that was to come vpon them: yea, they were vnto themselves more grievous then darknesse.

CHAP. XVIII.

The first pillar that the Egyptians had in Egypt. 8 The destruction of the fifth pill. 10 The Lord smote the Egyptians. 20 The plague of the people in the wilderness. 21 A great flood beate out the living, and the dead with them.

Vt thy Saintes had a verie great * light, whose Broyer because they heard, and saw not the figure of them, they thought them blessed, because they also had not suffered the like.

2 And because they did not hurt them, which did hurt them afore, they thanked them, and asked pardon for their enmitie.

3 * Therefore thou gavest them a burning pillar of fire to leadethem in the vnknown way, and made the sunne that it burned not them in their honourable journey.

4 But they were worthe to be deprived of the light, and to bee kept in darknesse, which had kept thy children that vp, by whom the vnconcorrupt light of the Law should be giuen to the world.

5 * Whereas they thought to slay the babes of the Saints, by one childe that was cast out, and persecuted to reprooue them, thou hast taken away the multitude of their children, and destroyed them all together in the mightie water.

6 Of that night were our fathers certified afore, that they knowing vnto what others they had giuen credit, might be of good cheere.

7 Thus thy * people perceived the health of the righteous, but the enemies were destroyed.

8 For as thou hast punished the enemies, so hast thou glorified vs whom thou hast called.

9 For the righteous children of the good men offered secretly, and made a Law of righteounesse by one consent, that the Saints should receive good and euill in like manner, and that the fathers should first sing praises.

10 But a disagreeing crie was heard of the enemies, and there was a lamentable noyse for the children that were bewayled.

11 For the * mulier and the seruant were punished with like punishment, and the common people suffered alike with the King.

12 So they altogether had innumerable that died with one kinde of death: neither were the living sufficient to burie them for in the twinkling of an eye the noblest offspring of them was destroyed.

13 So they that could beleue nothing, because of the enchantments, confessed this people to be the children of God, in the destruction of the first borne.

14 For while all things were in quiet silence, & the night was in the middelt of her swift course,

15 Thine Almighty worde leape downe from heauen out of thy royall throne, as a fierce man of warre in the middles of the land that was destroyed,

16 And brought thine vnconquered commandement as a sharpe worde, and stood vpon filled all things with death, and being come downe to the earth, it reached vnto the heauens.

17 Then the sight of the fearefull dreames vexed them suddenly, and fearefulnes came vpon them vnawares.

18 Then lay there one here, another there half dead, and shewed the cause of his death.

19 For the visions that vexed them, shewed them these things afore: so that they were not ignorant, wherefore they perished.

20 Now temptation of death touched the righteous also, and * among the multitude in the wilderness there was a plague, but the wrath indured not long.

21 For the blamelesse man made haste, and defended them, and tooke the weapons of his ministration, euen prayer, and the reconciliation by the perfume, and set himselfe against the wrath, and so brought the mischief to an end, declaring that hee was thy seruant.

22 For he ouercame not the multitude with bodily power, nor with force of weapons, but with the word he subdued him that punished, alleging the othes and covenant made vnto the fathers.

23 For when the dead were fallen downe by heapes one vpon another, hee stood in the middes, and cut off the wrath, and parted it from coming to the liuing.

24 * For in the long garment was all the ornament, and in the foure rowes of the stones was the glorie of the fathers grauen with thy maiesty in the diademe of his head.

25 Vnto these the destroyer gaue place, and was afraid of them: for it was sufficient, that they had tasted the wrath.

CHAP. XIX.

The death of the Egyptians, and the great joy of the righteous. 11 The meat that was giuen as the desire of the people. 17 All the elements serve to the will of God.

As for the vngodly, the wrath came vpon them without mercy vnto the end: for he knew what should come vnto them.

2 That they (when they had consented to let them goe, and had sent them out with diligence) would repent, and pursue them.

3 For while yet sorrow we was before them, and they lamented by the grames of the dead, they deuised another foolishnesse, so that they persecuted them in their fleeing whom they had cast out afore with prayer.

4 For the destinie whereof they were worthe, brought them to this ende, and caused them to forget forge the things that had come to passe, that they might accomplish the punishment which remained by torments.

13 Both that thy people might trie a maruillous passage, and that these might finde a strange death.

14 For euery creature in his kinde was ficted of newe, and serued in their owne offices inioyned them, that thy children might be kept without hurt.

15 For the cloud overshadowed their tents, and the drie earth appeared, where afore was water: so that in the red sea there was a way without impediment, and the great deepe became a greene field.

16 Through the which all the people went that were defended with thine hand, seeing thy wondrous maruilles.

17 For they stayed like horses, and leaped like lambs, praying thee, O Lord, which haddest delivered them.

18 For they were yet mindefull of those things which were done in the land where they dwelt, how the ground brought forth flies in stead of cattel, and howe the riuier scrawled with the multitude of frogs in stead of fishes.

19 * But at the last they saw a newe generation of birdes, when they were inticed with lust, and desired delicate meates.

20 * For the quailles came forth of the sea vnto them for comfort, but punishments came vpon the ffiness, not without signes that were giuen by great thundrings: for they suffered worthily according to their wickednesse, because they shewed a euill hatred toward strangers.

13 For the one sort would not receiue them when they were present, because they knewe the manner: the other sort brought the strangers into bondage that had done them good.

14 Beside all these things some would not suffer, that any regard should be had of them: for they handled the strangers despitefully.

15 Others that had receiued them with great banquetting, and admitted them to be partakers of the same lawes, did afflict them with great labours.

16 Therefore they were stricken with blindness, as in olde time certaine were at the doores of the * righteous, so that euery one being compassed with darkenesse, sought the entrance of his doore.

17 Thus the elements agreed among themselves in this change, as when one tune is changed vpo an instrument of musike, and the melody still remaineth, which may easily be perceived by the sight of the things that are come to passe.

18 For the things of the earth were changed into things of the water, and the thing that did swim went vpon the ground.

19 The fire had power in the water contrary vnto his owne vertue, and the water forgaue his owne kinde to quench.

20 Again, the flames did not hurt flesh of the corruptible beasts that walked therein, neither melted they which seemed to be yee, & was of a nature that would melt, & yet was an immortal nature.

21 For in all things, O Lord, thou hast magnified and glorified thy people, and hast not despised to assist them in euery time and place.

THE WISDOME OF IESVS THE SONNE OF SIRACH, called Ecclesiasticus.

¶ This Argument was found in a certaine Greeke copie.

This Iesus was the sonne of Sirach, and Sirachs father was also called Iesus, and he lived in the latter times, after the people had bene led away captiue, and brought home againe, and almost after all the Prophets. Now his grandfather, as he himselfe witnesseth, was a man of great diligence, and wisdom among the Hebrewes, who did not onely gather the graue sentences of wise men, thus had bene before him, but he himselfe also spake many full of great knowledge and wisdom. So this first Iesus died, and left this which he had gathered, and Sirach afterward left it to Iesus his sonne, who took it and put it in order in a booke, & called it WISDOME, insinuating in both by his owne name, his fathers name, & his grandfathers: stinking by this title of Wisdom to allure the reader to reade this booke with more great desire, & to consider it more diligently. Therefore this booke consisteth in wise sayings, and darke sentences, and similitudes with certaine diuine histories which are notable and ancient, euen of men that were approued of God, and certain prayres, and songs of the author himselfe: moreover, what benefits the Lord had bestowed vpon his people, and what plagues he had heaped vpon their enemies. This Iesus did imitate Salomon, & was no lesse famous in wisdom and doctrine, who was therefore called a man of great knowledge, as he was indeed.

Wheras manie, and great things haue bene giuen vs by the Law and the Prophets, and by others that haue followed them, (for the which things Israel ought to be commended by the reason of doctrine and wisdom, whereby the readers ought not onely to become learned themselves, but also may be able by the diligent studie thereof to be profitable vnto strangers both by speaking and writing) after that my grandfather Iesus had giuen himselfe to the reading of the Lawe and the Prophets, & other books of our fathers, and had gotten therein sufficient iudgement, he purposed also to write something pertaining to learning and wisdom, to the intent that they which were desirous to learne, and would giue themselves to these things, might profite much more in liuing according to the Law. Wherefore I exhort you to receiue it louingly, and to reade it with diligence, and to take it in good worth, though we seeme to some in some things not able to attain to the interpretation of such words as are hard to be expressed: for the things that are spoken in the Hebrew tongue, haue another force in themselves then when they are translated into another tongue, & not onely these things, but other things also, as the Law it selfe, and the Prophets, and other books haue no small difference when they are spoken in their owne language. Therefore in the eight and thirtieth yeere, when I came into Egypt, vnder king Euergetes, and continued there, I found a copie full of great learning, & I thought it necessary, to bestow my diligence

and

and trauaile to interpret this booke. So for a certaine time while I was teaching and studie I gave my selfe to the finishing of this booke, that it might be published, that such which remaine in bannishment, and are desirous to learne, might apply themselves vnto good manners, and liue according to the Lawe

CHAP. I.

1 Wisdomes cōmment of God. 11 A gift of the fūre of God.
29 The manner to come by wisdom.

1 Wisdomes cōmment of the Lord,
[and hath bene euer with him,]
and is with him for euer.

2 Who can nu mber the sand of the sea, and the drops of the raine, and the dayes of the world? [who can measure] the height of heauen, the breadth of the earth, and the depth?

3 Who can finde the wisdom [of God which hath bene before all things?]

4 Wisdom hath bene created before all things, and the vnderstanding of prudence soo euertlasting.

5 [The word of God most high is the fountaine of wisdom, and the euertlasting commandments are the entrance vnto her.]

6 * Vnto whom hath the root of wisdom bene declared? or who hath known her wise counsele?

7 [Vnto whom hath the doctrine of wisdom bene discouered, and shewed? and who hath vnderstood the manifold entrance vnto her?]

8 There is one wise, [scuen the most hie Creator of all things, the Almighty, the King of power,] and very terrible, which sitteth vpon his throne.

9 He is the Lord, that hath created her [thorow the holy Ghost:] he hath scene her, numbered her, [and measured,]

10 He hath powred her out vpon all his works, and vpon all flesh, according to his gift, and giueh her abundantly vnto them that loue him.

11 The feare of the Lord is glory, and gladnes, and reioycing, and a ioyfull crowne.

12 The feare of the Lord maketh a merie heart, and giueh gladnesse and ioy, and long life.

13 Who so feareth the Lord, it shal go wel with him at the last, and he shall finde fauour in the day of his death.

14 [The loue of God is honourable wisdom, and vnto whom it appeareth in a vision, they loue it for the vision, & for the knowledge of the great works thereof.]

15 * The feare of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and was made with the faithfull in the wombe: [the goeth with the chosen women, and is known with the righteous and faithfull,

16 The feare of the Lord is an holy knowledge. 17 Holines shall preferre, and iustifie the heart, and giueh mirth and gladnesse.

18 Who so feareth the Lord, shall prosper, and in the day of his end, he shalbe blessed.]

19 Shee hath built her euertlasting foundations with men, and is giuen to be with their seed.

20 To feare God is the fulnes of wisdom, and filleth men with her fruits.

21 She filleth their whole house with [all] things desirable, and the gamers with the things, that the bringeth forth, and both twaine are gifts of God.

22 The feare of the Lord is the crowne of wisdom, and giueh peace & perfect health: he hath scene her, and numbered her.

23 [She raineth downe knowledge, and vnderstanding of wisdom, and hath brought vnto honour, them that possided her.

24 The feare of the Lorde is the root of wise-dom, and her branches are long life.

25 [In the treasures of wisdom is vnderstanding, and holy knowledge, but wisdom is abhorred of sinners.]

26 The feare of the Lord drieth out sinne: and when he is present, sinne drieth away anger.

27 [For wicked anger can not be iustified: for his rashnesse in his anger shalbe his destruction.]

28 A patient man in will suffer for a time, & then shall he haue the reward of ioy.

29 He will hide his words for a time, and many mens lips shall speake of his wisdom.

30 In the treasures of wisdom are the secrets of knowledge, but the sinner abhorreth the worship of God.

31 [If thou desire wisdom, keepe the commandments, & the Lord shall giue her vnto thee, [and will fill her treasures.]

32 For the feare of the Lord is wisdom & discipline: he hath pleased in faith, and meeknesse.

33 Be not disobedient to the feare of the Lord, and come not vnto him with a double heart.

34 [Be not an hypocrite that men should speake of thee, but take heed what thou speakest.]

35 Reke not thy selfe, least thou fall and bring thy soule to dishonour, and so God discouer thy secrets, & cast thee down in the middes of the congregation, because thou wouldest not receiue the true feare of God, and thine heart is full of deceit.

CHAP. II.

1 He sheweth the fruites of God in righteousnes, how vnderstanding, and patience, 11 To trust in the Lorde. 12 A counsell vnto them that are faint hearted and impatient.

1 Y [Come, if thou wilt come into the seruice of God, [and fast in right counsele and feare, and] prepare thy soule to temptation.

2 Settle thine heart, and bee patient: [bowe downe thine eare, and receiue the words of vnderstanding,] and shrinke not away, when thou art assailed, [but waite vpon God patiently.]

3 Ioyne thy selfe vnto him, and depart not away, that thou mayest be increased at thy last end.

4 Whatsoeuer cometh vnto thee, receiue it patiently, & be patient in thy change of thine affliction.

5 * For as gold [& siluer are] tried in fire, euen so are men acceptable in the furnace of aduersitie.

6 Beleue in God, and hee will helpe thee: order thy way aright, and trust in him: [hold fast his feare, and grow old therein.]

7 Yee that feare the Lord, wait for his mercie: shrinke not away from him that ye fall not.

8 Yee that feare the Lord, beleue him, & your reward shall not faile.

9 O yee that feare the Lord, trust in good things, and in the euertlasting ioy and mercie.

10 [Ye that feare the Lord, loue him, and your hearts shalbe lightened.]

11 Consider the olde generations [of men, ye children,] and marke them well: * was there euer any confounded, that put his trust in the Lord? or who hath continued in his feare, & was forsaken of whom did he euer despise, that called vpon him?

12 For God is gracious & merciful, and forgiveth sinnes, & saueh in the time of trouble, [and is a defender for all them that seek him in the truth.]

13 Woe vnto them that haue a [fearful heart, [and to the wicked lips] and to the faint hands, and

CHAP. IIL

1 To our father and mother ought we to giue double honour, 10 of the blessing and curse of the father and mother. 22 No man ought more curiously to search out the secrets of God.

1 The children of wisdom are the Church of the righteous, and their off-spring is obedience and loue.]

2 Heare your fathers iudgement, O children, and doe thereafter, that ye may be safe.

3 For the Lord will haue the father honoured of the children, and hath confirmed the authoritie of the mother ouer the children.

4 Who so honoureth his father, his sinnes shall be forgiven him, [and he shall abstaine from them, and shall haue his daily desires.]

5 And hee that honoureth his mother, is like one that gathereth treasure.

6 Who so honoureth his father, shall haue loy of his own children, and when he maketh his prayer, he shall be heard.

7 Hee that honoureth his father, shall haue a long life, and hee that is obedient vnto the Lorde, shall comfort his mother.

8 He that feareth the Lord, honoureth his parents, & doth seruice vnto his parèts, as vnto lords.

9 * Honour thy father and mother, in deed and in word [& in all patience] that thou mayest haue Gods blessing, [and that his blessing may abide with thee in the end.]

10 For the blessing of the father establisheth the houses of the children, and the mothers curse rooteth out the foundations.

11 Reioyce not at the dishonour of thy father: for it is not honour vnto thee, but shame.

12 Seeing that mans glorie commeth by his fathers honour, and the reproch of the mother is dishonour to the children,

13 My Sonne, helpe thy father in his age, and grieue him not as long as he liueth.

14 And if his vnderstanding faile, haue patience with him, and despise him not when thou art in thy full strength.

15 For the good intreatie of thy father shall not be forgotten, but it shall be a fortresse for thee against sinnes, [and for thy mothers offence, thou shalt be recompensed with good, and it shall be found for thee in righteousness.]

16 And in the day of trouble thou shalt be remembered: thy sinnes also shall melt away as theyee in the faire weather.

17 He y forsaketh his father, shall come to shame, and he that angreth his mother is cursed of God.

18 * My son, performe thy doings with meeknesse, so shalt thou bee beloued of them that are approued.

19 The * greater thou art, the more humble thy selfe [in all things,] and thou shalt finde fauour before the Lord.

20 Many are excellent and of renouwe: but the secrets are reueiled vnto the meek.

21 For the power of the Lord is great, and he is honoured of the lowly.

22 * Seeke not out the things that are too hard for thee, neither search the things rashly which are too mightie for thee.

23 [But] what [God] hath commanded thee, thinke vpon that with reuerence, [and be not curious in many of his works:] for it is not needfull for thee to see with thine eyes y things that are secreete.

24 Be not curious in superfluous things: for many things are shewed vnto thee about the capacity of men.

25 The meddling with such hath beguiled many, and an euil opinion hath deceiued their iudgement.

26 Thou canst not see without eyes: profitee not the knowledge therefore that thou hast not.

27 A subome heart shall fare euill at the last: and he that loueth danger shall perish therein.

28 An heart that goeth two wayes, shall not prosper: and he that is froward of heart, shall stumble therein.

29 An obstinate heart shall be laden with sorow: and the wicked man shall heape sinne vpon sinne.

30 The perswasion of the proud is without remedie, and his steppes shall be plucked vp: for the plant of sinne hath taken root in him, [and he shall not be esteemed.]

31 The heart of him that hath vnderstanding, shall perceiue secreet things, and an attentue care is the desire of a wise man.

32 [An heart that is wise & vnderstanding, will abstaine from sinne, and shall prosper in the works of righteousness.]

33 Water quencheeth burning fire, * & almes * Deut. 4. 24. psal. 112. taketh away sinnes.

34 And he that rewardeth good deeds, will remember it afterward, and in the time of the fall, he shall finde a stay.

2 Make not an hungry soule forswallow, neither vex a man in his necessitie.

3 Trouble not the heart that is grieved, and deferre not the gift of the needie.

4 Refuse not the prayer of one that is in trouble: * turne not away thy face from the poore. * Zech. 4. 7.

5 Turne not thine eyes aside [in anger] from the poore, and giue him none occasion to speake euill of thee.

6 For if he curse thee in y bitterness of his soule, his prayer shall be heard of him that made him.

7 Be courteous vnto the companie of poore, and humble thy soule vnto the Elder, [and bowe downe thine head to a man of worship.]

8 Let it not grieve thee to bowe downe thine eare vnto the poore, [but pay thy debts,] and giue him a friendly answer.

hand of the oppressor, and bee not faint hearted when thou judgest.

10 Be as a father vnto the fatherlesse, and as an husband vnto their mother: so shalt thou be as the founte of the most High: & he shall loue thee more then thy mother doeth.

11 Wisdome exalteth her children, and recei-ueth them that seeke her, [and will go before them in the way of righteousness.]

12 He that loueth her, loueth life, and they that seeke life in the morning, shall haue great ioy.

13 He that keepeth her, shall inherite glory: for vnto whom the entrenchment, him the Lord will blest:

14 They that honour her, shall be the seruants of the Holy one, and then shall loue her, the Lord doeth loue.

15 Who so giueth eare vnto her, shall iudge the nations, and he y goeth vnto her, shall dwell safely.

16 He that is faithfull vnto her, shall haue her in possession, and his generation shall possesse her.

17 For first she will walke with him by crooked waies, and bring him vnto feare, and dread, and torment him with her discipline, vntill she haue tried his soule, and haue proued him by her iudgements.

18 Then will she returne the straight way vnto him, and comfort him, and shew him her secretes, [and heape vpon him the treasures of knowledge, and vnderstanding of righteousness.]

19 But if he go wrong, she will forsake him, and giue him out into the hands of his destruction.

20 [¶ My soune,] make much of time, and eschew the thing that is euill,

21 And be not ashamed [to say the truth] for thy life: for there is a shame that bringeth sinne, and a shame that bringeth worship and fauour.

22 Accept no person against thine owne confidence, that thou be not confounded to thine owne decay, [& forsake not thy neighbour in his fault.]

23 And keepe not backe counsell when it may doe good, neither hide thy wisdom when it may be famous.

24 For by the talke is wisdom knowne, and learning by the wordes of the tongue, [and counsell, wisdom & learning by the talking of y wife, and stedfastnesse in the works of righteousness.]

25 In no wise speake against the word of truth, but be ashamed of the lies of thine owne ignorance.

26 Be not ashamed to confesse thy sinnes, and resist not the counsell of the ruler.

27 Submit not thy selfe vnto a foolish man, neither accept the person of the mightie.

28 Strive for the truth vnto death, [& defend justice for thy life] and the Lorde God shall fight for thee [against thine enemies.]

29 Bee not hastie in thy tongue, neither slacke and negligent in thy works.

30 Be not as a Lion, in thine owne house, neither beate thy seruants for thy fantasie, [nor op-presse them that are vnder thee.]

31 Let not thine hand be stretched out to receiue, and shut when thou shouldest giue,

CHAP. V.

¶ In riches may we not put any confidence, y The vengeance of God ought to be feared, and repentance may not be deferred.

Trust not vnto thy riches, and say nor, I haue enough for my life: [for it shall not help in the time of vengeance and indignation]

2 Follow not thine owne minde, & thy strength to walke in the wayes of thine heart.

Neither say thou, [How haue I had strength] or who will bring me vnder for my works: for God
the reuenger will reuenge the wrong done by thee.

4 And say not, I haue sinned, & what euill hath come vnto me? for the Almighty is a patient re-warder, but he will not leaue thee unpunished.

5 Because thy sinne is forgiven, be not without feare, to heape sinne vpon sinne.

6 And say not, The mercie of God is great: he will forgive my manifold sinnes: for mercie and wrath come from him, and his indignation commeth downe vpon sinners.

7 Make no tarying to turne vnto the Lord, and put not off from day to day: for suddenly shall the wrath of the Lord breake forth, and in thy security thou shalt be destroyed, and thou shalt perish in time of vengeance.

8 Trust not in wicked riches: for they shall not help thee in y day of punishment [& vengeance.]

9 Be not caried about with curie wind, & goe not into euery way: for so doth the sinner that hath a double tongue.

10 Stande fast in thy sure vnderstanding [and in the way and knowledge of the Lord] and haue but one maner of word, [and follow the word of peace and righteousness.]

11 Be humble to heare the word of God, that thou mayest vnderstand it, and make a true answer with wisdom.

12 Be swift to heare good things, & lerthy life be pure, and giue a patient answer.

13 If thou hast vnderstanding, answer thy neighbour: if not, lay thine hand vpon thy mouth, [lest thou be trapped in an vndiscrēt word, and so be blamed.]

14 Honour and shame is in the talke, and the tongue of a man causeth him to fall.

15 Be not counted a talebearer, and lie not in wait with thy tongue: for shame [and repentance] follow the thief, & an euill condemnation is ouer him that is double tongued: [but he that is a back-biter, shall be hated, emied and confounded.]

16 Do not rashly, neither in small things nor in great.

CHAP. VI.

¶ It is the property of a sinner to be euill tongued, & Offend-ship. 31. Duller to be taught.

Be not of a friend [thy neighbours] enemy: for such shall haue an euill name, [shame & reproch, and he shall bee in infamie as the wicked that hath

2 Bee not proude in the deuce of thine owne minde, lest thy soule rent thee as a bull,

3 And eat vp thy leaues, & destroy thy fruit, &
so thou be left as a drie tree [in the wilderness.]

4 For a wicked soule destroyeth him that hath it, and maketh him to be laughed to scorn of his enemies, [and bringeth him to the portion of the vngodly.]

5 A sweete talke multiplieth the friends [and pacifieth them: that be at variance,] and a sweete tongue increaseth much good talke.

6 Holde friendship with many, neuertheless be not hastie to credit him.

11 Rife not vp against him that doeth wrong, that he lay not wait as a spie for thy mouth.

*Cap. 29. 4.

12 * Lend not vnto him that is mightier then thy selfe: for if thou lendest him, he count it but lost.

13 Be not surety about thy power: for if thou be surety thinke to pay it.

14 Go not to law with the Iudge: for they will giue sentence according to his owne honour.

*Ex. 23. 2.

15 * Trauaille not by the way wth him that is rash, lest he doe thee iniury: for he followeth his owne wilnesse, and so shalt thou perish through his folly.

*Job. 32. 30.

16 * Strive not with him that is angry, and goe not with him into the wilderness: for blood is as nothing in his sight, and where there is no helpe, he will ouerthrow thee.

17 Take no counsell at a foolle: for hee cannot keepe a thing close.

18 Doe no secret thing before a stranger: for thou canst not tell what hee geeth about.

19 Open not thine heart vnto euery man, lest he be vnthankfull to thee, [& put thee to reproofe.]

CHAP. IX.

Of iouenitie. 12. An olde friend is to be preferred before a new. 18. Righteous men should be holden in thy table.

1 Be not ielous ouer thy wife of thy bosome, neither teach her by thy meanes an euill lesson.

2 Giue not thy life vnto a woman, lest the ouercome thy strength, [and so thou be confounded.]

3 Meete not an harlot, lest thou fall into her snares.

4 Vise not the company of a woman that is a singer, [and a dancer, neither heare her,] lest thou be taken by her craftinesse.

*Gen. 22. 1.

5 Gaze not on a * maye, that thou fall not by that that is precious in her.

*Prov. 5. 3.

6 * Cast not thy minde vpon harlots [in any manner of things,] lest thou destroy [both thy selfe and] thine heritage.

7 Go not about gazing in the streets of the city, neither wander thou in the secret places thereof.

*Matt. 5. 28.

8 * Turne away thine eye from a beautiful woman, and looke not vpon others beaute: for many * haue perished by the beautie of women: for through it loue is kindled as a fire.

*Gen. 34. 3.

9 [Euery woman that is an harlot, shall be troden vnder foote as dung, of euery one that goeth by the way.]

*2. Cor. 11. 3.

10 Manie wondering at the beautie of a strange woman, haue bene cast out: for her words burne as a fire.]

*2. Cor. 11. 3.

11 Sit not at all with another mans wife [neither lie with her vpon the bed,] nor banquet with her, lest thine heart incline vnto her, & so through thy desire fall into destruction.

*2. Cor. 11. 3.

12 ¶ Forfake not an olde friend: for the new shall not be like him: a new friend is as new wine: when it is olde, thou shalt drinke it with pleasure.

*2. Cor. 11. 3.

13 * Desire not the honour [& riches] of a sinner: for thou knowest not what shalbe his end.

*Job. 22. 2.

14 Delight not in the thing that the vngodly haue pleasure in, but remember that they shall not be found iust vnto their graue.

*2. Cor. 11. 3.

15 Keepe thee from the man that hath power to slay: so shalt thou not doubt the feare of death: and if thou come vnto him, make no fault, lest he take away thy life: remember that thou goest in the middes of sinners, and that thou walkest vpon the towers of the citie.

16 Trie thy neighbour as mee as thou canst,* and aske counsell of the wife.

*Cap. 4. 1.

17 * Let thy talke be with the wife, and all thy communication in the Law of the most High.

*2. Cor. 11. 3.

18 Let iust men eate & drinke with thee, and let thy reioying be in the feare of the Lord.

*2. Cor. 11. 3.

19 In [the] handes of the craftsmen shall the works be commended, and the wise prince of the people by his wordes, [and the word by the wisdom of the Elders.]

*2. Cor. 11. 3.

20 A man full of wordes is dangerous in his citie, and he that is rash in his talking, shall be hated.

CHAP. X.

Of Kings and Judges. 7. Pride and countenances are to be shunned. 20. Labour is praised.

1 Wife Iudge will instruct his people with discretion: the gouernance of a prudent man is well ordered.

As the iudge of the people is himselfe, so are his officers, and what manner of man the ruler of the citie is, such are they that dwell therein.

An vnwise king destroyeth his people, but whereby they that be in authoritie, are men of vnderstanding then the citie prospereth.

The government of the earth is in the hand of the Lord, [and all iniquitie of the nations is to be abhorred,] and when time is, hee will set vp a profitable ruler ouer it.

In the hand of God is the prosperity of man, and vpon the scribes will he lay his honour.

Be not angrie for any wrong, with thy neighbour, & doe nothing by inurious practices.

Pride is hateful before God and man, and by both doeth one commit iniquitie.

Because of vniuersal dealing & wrongs, riches gotten by deceit, the kingdom is translated from one people to another.

There is nothing worse then a covetous man: why art thou proud, O earth and ashes? there is not a more wicked thing, the to loue money: for such one would euen sel his soule, & for his life eery one is compelled to pul out his own bowels.

[All tyranny is of small endurance, and the disease that is hard to heale, is grievous to the physician.]

The physician cutteth off the sore disease, and hee that is to slay a king, to morrow is dead.

Why is earth and ashes proude, seeing that when a man dieth, hee is the heire of serpents, beasts and wormes?

The beginning of mans pride is to fall away from God, and to turne away his heart from his maker.

For pride is the original of sinne, & he that hath it, shal powere out abomination, till at last hee be overthrowen therefore the Lord, bringeth the persuasions [of the wicked] to dishonour, and destroyeth them in the end.

The Lord hath cast downe the thrones of the [prou]ncipales, and set vp the meeke in their stead.

The Lorde plucketh vp the rootes of the [prou]ncipales, and planteth the lowly with glorie among them.

The Lorde overthroweth the landis of the heathen, and destroyeth them vnto the foundations of the earth: he causeth them to wither away, and destroyeth them, and maketh their memoriall to cease out of the earth.

Pride was not created in men, neither wiah in the generation of women.

There is a feede of man which is an honourable feede: the honourable feede are they that feare the Lord: there is a feede of man, which is without honour: the feede without honour, are they that reioyce in the commandements of the Lord: it is a feede that remaineth which feareth the Lord, and a faire plant, that loue him: but they are a feede without honour, that despise the law, & a deeuie feede: hee that breaketh the commandements.

He that is the chiefe among brethren, is honorable: so are they that feare the Lord in his sight.

The feare of the Lord causeth that the king, shoue faileth not, but the kingdom is lost by crueltie and pride.

The feare of the Lord is the glory of all of the rich and the noble, as of the poore.

It is not meet to despise the poore man that hath vnderstanding, neither is it conuenient to magnifie the rich that is a wicked man.

The great man & the iudge and the man of authoritie, are honourable, yet is there none of them greater, then he that feareth the Lord.

Vnto the seruant that is wise, shal they that are free doe seruice: hee that hath knowledge, will not grudge when he is reformed, [and the ignorant shal not come to honour.]

Seek not excuses when thou shouldest do thy worke, neither bee ashamed thereof through pride in the time of aduersitie.

Better is he that laboureth and hath plenty, then he that is gorgious, and wanteth bread.

My soune get thy selfe praise by meekenes, and esteeme thy selfe as thou deservest.

Who wil count him iust that sinneth against himselfe? or honour him, that dishonoureth his owne soule?

The poore is honoured for his knowledge [and his feare,] but the rich is had in reputation because of his goods.

He that is honourable in pouertie, howe much more shal he be when he is rich: and he that is vnbonest being rich, how much more will he be so when he is in pouertie.

C H A P. X I.

1 The grace of humilitie. 2 After the outward appearance ought not to be judged. 3 Of the indignitie. 4 All things come of God. 5 All men are not to be brought into that house.

Versedome lifteth vp the head of him that is lowe, and maketh him to sit among great men.

Commend not a man for his beauty, neither despise a man in his vtter appearance.

The Bee is but small among the foules, yet doeth her fruit passe in sweetnesse.

Be not proude of clothing and rayment, and exalt not thy selfe in the day of honour: for the works of the Lord are wonderfull, [and glorious,] secret, [and vnknown] are his works among men.

Many tyrants haue sit down vpon the earth, and the vnlike hath vngone the crowne.

Many mighty men haue bene brought to dishonour, and the honourable haue bene deliuered into other mens hands.

Blame no man [no man] before thou hast inquired the matter: vnderstand first, and then reforme [righteously.]

Giue no sentence, before thou hast heard the cause, neither interrupt men in the middes of their tales.

Saue not for a matter that thou hast not to do with, and sit not in the iudgement of sinners.

My sonne, meddle not with many matters: for if thou gaine much, thou shalt not be blamelesse, and if thou follow after it, yet shalt thou not attaine it, neither shalt thou escape, though thou flee from it.

There is some man that laboureth and seeketh paine, and the more he hatheth, the more he wanteth.

* Job. 42. 10.

12 Again he lifteth vp his head, so that many men marvel at him, [and giue honour vnto God.]

* Job. 1. 11.
* Job. 42. 10.

13 And he lifteth vp his head, so that many men marvel at him, [and giue honour vnto God.]

14 Prosperitie and aduersitie, life and death, pouertie and riches come of the Lord.

15 Wisdome and knowledge, and vnderstanding of the Law are of the Lord: loue and good works come of him.

16 Error and darknesse are appointed for sinners, and they that exalt themselves in euill, waxe olde in euill.

17 The gift of the Lord remaineth for i godly, and his good will giueth prosperitie for euer.

18 Some man is rich by his care and nigardship, and this is the portion of his wages,

* Luke 12. 19.

19 In that he saith, * I haue gotten rest, and now will I eat continually of my goods, yet hee considereth not, that the time draweth neere, that he must leaue all these things vnto other men, and die himselfe.

20 Stand thou in thy state, and exercise thy self therein, and remaine in thy worke vnto thine age.

21 Marvel not at the works of sinners, but trust in the Lord, and abide in thy labour: for it is an easie thing in the sight of the Lord, suddenly to make a poore man rich.

22 The blessing of the Lord is in the wages of the godly, and he maketh his prosperitie soone to flourish.

23 Say not, What profit and pleasure shall I haue: and what good thing shall I haue hereafter?

24 Again say not, I haue enough, and possesse many things, and what euill can come to mee hereafter?

* Chap. 12. 24.

25 * In thy good state remember aduersity, and in aduersitie forget not prosperitie.

26 For it is an easie thing vnto the Lord in the day of death to rewarde a man according to his wayes.

27 The aduersitie of an houre maketh one to forget pleasure: and in a mans end, his works are discouered.

28 Iudge none blessed before his death: for a man shall be known by his children.

29 Bring not euery man into thine house: for the deceitful haue many traires, [and are like stonemasons that belch stinking.]

30 As a partich is taken vnder a biscuit, [and the hind is taken in the snare,] so is the heart of the proud man, which like a spy watcheth for thy fall.

31 For he lieth in wait and turneth good vnto euill, and in things worthy praise he will find some fault.

32 Of one little spark is made a great fire, [and of one deceitful man is blood increased:] for a sinful man layeth waite for blood.

33 Beware of a wicked man: for he imagineth wicked things to bring thee into a perpetual flame.

34 Lodge a stranger, and he will destroy thee with vnquietnesse, & driue thee from thine owne.

CHAP. XII.

1 Notes whom we ought to do good. 20 Sinners ought not to be trusted.

Vhen thou wilt doe good, knowe to whom thou doest it, so shalt thou bee thankd for thy benefices.

2 * Doe good vnto the righteous, and thou shalt finde [great] reward, though not of him, yet of the most High.

3 He cannot haue good i continueth in euill, & giueth no almes, [for the most High hateth the sinners, and hath mercy vpon them that repent.]

4 Giue vnto such as feare God, and receiue not a sinnet.

5 Do well vnto him that is lowly, but giue not to the vngodly: hold backe thy bread, and giue it not vnto him, lest hee come thee thereby: els thou shalt receiue twise as much euill for all the good that thou doest vnto him.

6 For the most High hateth the wicked, & will repay vengeance vnto the vngodly, and keepeth them against the day of honorable vengeance.

7 Giue vnto the good, & receiue not sinners.

8 A friend cannot be knowne in prosperitie, neither can an enemie be vnknowne in aduersitie.

9 When a man is in wealth, hee grieveth his enemies, but in heauinesse and trouble a mans very friend will depart from him.

10 Trust neuer thine enemie: for like as an yron rusteth, so doeth his wickednesse.

11 And though he make much crooehing and kneeling yet aduise thy selfe, and beware of him, and thou shalt be to him as he that wipeth a glass, and thou shalt know that all his rust hath not bin well wiped away.

12 See him not by thine, lest hee destroy thee, and stand in thy place.

13 Neither set him at thy right hand, lest hee seeke thy roome, and thou at the last remember my words, and be pricked with my sayings.

14 * Bind not two sinnes together: for there shall not one be vnpunished.

15 Who will haue picie on the charmer, that is stung of the serpent, or of all such as come neere the beasts? so is it with him that keepeth companie with a wicked man, and wrappeth himselfe in his sinnes.

16 For a season will hee bide with thee: but if thou stumble, hee turneth not.

17 * An enemie is sweet in his lips: he can make many good words, and speake many good things yea, he can weepe with his eyes, but in his heart he imagineth how to throw thee into the fire: and if he may find opportunitie, hee will not be satisfied with blood.

18 If aduersity come vpon thee, thou shalt find him there first, and though hee pretende to helpe thee, yet shall hee vndermine thee: he will shake his head, and clappe his hands, and will make many words, and disgiuise his countenance.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The comparison of the proud and of the lowly: how to be affected.

12 The love of God. 17 Like does company with like.

HE * that toucheth pitch, shall be defiled with it. * Deut. 12. 1.

And he that is familiar with the proud, shall be like vnto him.

2 Burthen not thy selfe about thy power, whilst thou liuest, and companie not with one that is mightier, and richer than thy selfe: for how agree the kettle and the earthen pot together? if the one be smitten against the other, it shall be broken.

3 The rich dealeth vnrighteously, and threatneth withall: but the poore being oppressed must intrete: if the rich haue done wrong, hee must must yet be interested; but if the poore haue done it, he shal flicke wayes be thier end.

4 If thou be for his profit, he vseth thee: but if thou haue nothing, he will forsake thee.

5 If thou haue any thing, he will liue w thee; yea, he will make thee a bare man, and will not care for it.

6 If he haue neede of thee, he will defraude thee, & will laugh at thee, & put thee in hope, and giue thee good words, & say, What watest thou?

7 Thus will he thame thee in his meate, vntill he haue supped cleane vp twice or thrise, and at the last he will laugh thee to scorne: afterward, when he seeth thee, he will forsake thee, and shake his head at thee.

8 [Submit thy selfe vnto God, and waite vpon his hand.]

9 Beware that thou be not deceiued in thine owne conceit, and brought downe by thy simplicity: [be not too humble in thy wisdom.]

10 ¶ If thou be called of a mighty man, absent thy selfe: so shal he cal thee the more oft.

11 Praise not thou vnto him, y thou be not shut out, but go not thou far off, lest he forget thee.

12 Withdraw not thy selfe from his speech, but beleue not his many words: for with much communication will he tempte thee, & laughingly will he groke thee.

13 He is vnmereiful & keepeth not promise: he will not spare to doe thee hurt, and to put thee in prison.

14 Beware, and take good heed: for thou walkest in perill of thine ouerthrowing: when thou hearest this, awake in thy sleepe.

15 Loue the Lord all thy life, & call vpon him for thy saluation.

16 ¶ Euery beast loueth his like, and euery man loueth his neighbour.

17 Al flesh will resort to their like, & euery man will keepe company with such as he is himselfe.

18 How can the wolfe agree with the lambe? no more can the vngodly with the righteous.

19 How fellowship hath hyena with a dog? and what peace is between the rich & the poore?

20 As the wild Ass is the lions pray in the wilderness, so are poore men the meat of the rich.

21 As the poore hate humilitie, so doe the rich abhorre the poore.

22 If a rich man fall, his friends sette him vp againe: but whey poore falleth, his friends crie him away.

23 If a rich man offend, he hath many helpers: he speaketh proud words, & yet men iustifie him: but if a poore man fall, they rebuke him, & though he speake wisely, yet can it haue no place.

24 When the rich man speaketh, euery man holdeth his tongue: and looke what he saith, they praise it vnto the cloudes: but if the poore man speake, they say, What fellow is this? and if he doe misse, they will deliroy him.

25 Riches are good vnto him that hath no sin [in his conscience.] & pouerty is euil in the mouth of the vngodly.

26 The heart of a man changeth his countenance, whether it be good or euil.

27 A charefull countenance is a token of a good heart: for it is an hard thing to know the secrets of the thought.

CHAP. XIII.

¶ The office of the tongue. 17 Man is not a tame thing. 23 A chary is not constant in his desire.

Blessed is the man that hath not fallen by [the sword of] his mouth, & is not tormented with the sorrow of sinne.

2 Blessed is he that is not condemned in his conscience, & is not fallen from his hope in the Lord. 3 Riches are not comely for a niggard, & what should an enuious man doe with money?

4 He that gathereth together from his owne foule, heapeth together for others, that will make good cheare with his goods.

5 He that is wicked vnto himselfe, to whom will he be good? for such one can haue no pleasure of his goods.

6 There is nothing worse, then when one enuie himselfe: and this is as a reward of his wickednes.

7 And if he do any good, he doth it not knowing thereof, and against his will, and at the last he declareth his wickednes.

8 The enuious man hath a wicked looke: he turneth away his face, and despiseth men.

9 A couetous mans eye hath neuer enough of a portion, and his wicked malice withereth his own foule.

10 A wicked eye enuie the bread, and there is scarcenes vpon his table.

11 My sonne, do good to thy fife of that thou hast, and giue the Lord his due offerings.

12 Remember that death tarish not, and that the content of y graue is not shewed vnto thee.

13 Do good vnto thy friend before thou die, and according to thine habilitie stretch out thine hand, and giue him.

14 Despaynd not thy selfe of the good day, & let not the portion of y good desires ouerpasse thee.

15 Shalt thou not leaue thy traueles vnto another, & thy labours for the diuiding of y heritage?

16 Giue & take & sanctifie thy foule: Cworke thou righteousnes before thy death: for in the hel there is no meate to finde.

17 ¶ Al flesh waxeth old, as a garment, & this is y condition of al times, Thou shalt die y death.

18 As the greene leaues on a thicke tree, some fall, & some grow, so is the generation of flesh and blood: one cometh to an end, & another is borne.

19 All corruptible things shall faile, & the worker thereof shall go wicthall.

20 [Euery excellent worke shalbe iustified, and he that worketh it, shal haue honour thereby.]

21 ¶ Blessed is the man that doeth meditate honest things by wisdom, [and exerciseth himselfe in iustice,] and he that reasoneth of holy things by his vnderstanding.

22 Which considereth in his heart her waies, & vnderstandeth her secrets.

23 Goe thou after her as one that seeketh her out, and lye in waite in her waies.

24 He shal looke in at her windowes, & hearken at her doores.

25 He shal abide beside her house, and fasten a stake in her waishe: shal pitch his tent besides her.

26 And he shal remain in the lodging of good men, and shal set his children vnder her covering, and shal dwell vnder her brinches.

27 By her he shal be couered from the heat, & in her glory shal he dwell.

CHAP. XV.

¶ The roadwile that followeth him which ferueth God. 8 God reuileth and casteth off the fower. 11 God is yet the author of rain.

HE that feareth the Lord, will do good: and he that hath the knowledge of the Law, will keep it sure.

2 As an [honourable] mother shall the meeke him, and [she], as his wife married of a virgin, will receiue him.

3 With the bread [of life] and vnderstanding shall he feede him, and giue him the water of [whole some] wisdom to drinke.

4 He shall assure himselfe in her, and shall not be moued, and shall hold himselfe fast by her, and shall not be confounded.

5 She shall exalt him aboue his neighbors, and in the mids of the congregation shall she open his mouth: [with the spirit of wisdom, and vnderstanding shall she fill him, & clothe him with the garment of glory.]

6 She shall cause him to inherite ioy, and the crowne of gladnes, and an euerlasting name.

7 But foolish men will not take hold vpon her: [but such as haue vnderstanding, will meete her:] the sinners shall not see her.

8 For she is farre from pride [and deceit,] and men that lye cannot remember her: [but men of truth shall haunt her, and shall prosper euery vnto the beholding of God.]

9 Praise is not seemely in the mouth of the finner: for that is not sent of the Lord.

10 But if praise come of wisdom, [and be plenteous in a faithfull mouth] then shall the Lord vpon her.

11 Say not thou, It is through the Lord that I turne backe: for thou oughtest not to do y things that he hateth.

12 Say not thou, He hath caused me to erre: for he hath no neede of the sinfull man.

13 The Lord hateth all abomination [of error:] and they that feare God, loue it not.

14 He made man from the beginning, & left him in the hand of his counsell, [and gaue him his commandements and precepts.]

15 If thou wilt, thou shalt obserue the commandements, and testifiethy good will.

16 He hath set water & fire before thee: stretch out thine hand vnto which thou wilt.

17 Before man is life and death, [good and euil,] what him liketh shall be giuen him.

18 For the wisdom of the Lord is great, and he is mighty in power, and beholkeb all things [continually.]

19 The eyes [of the Lord] are vpon them that feare him, & he knoweth alij works of man.

20 He hath commanded no man to doe vngodly, neither hath he giuen any man licence to sinne [for he degeth not a multitude of infidels, and vnprofitable children.]

CHAP. XVI.

1 Of unhappy and wicked children. 22 Of a man can hide himselfe from God. 24 An exhortation to the receiving of instruction.

Desire not the multitude of vnprofitable children, neither delight in vngodly children: though they be many, reioice not in them, except the feare of the Lord be with them.

2 Trust not thou to their life, neither rest vpon their multitude.

3 For one that is iust, is better then a thousand such, and better it is to die without children, then to leaue behinde him vngodly children.

4 For by one that hath vnderstanding, shall the cite be inhabited: but the stocke of the wicked shall be wasted incontinently.

5 Many such things haue I seen with mine eyes, & mine eare hath heard greater things then these.

6 In the congregation of the vngodly shall a fire be kindled, & among vnfaithfull people shall the wrath be set on fire.

7 He spared not the old gyants, which were rebellious, trusting to their owne strength,

8 Neither spared he where as Lot dwelt, those whome he abhorred for their pride.

9 He had no pitie vpon the people that were destroyed, and puffed vp in their sinnes.

10 And so he preferred y fixte hundred thousand footmen, that were gathered in the hardnesse of their heart, in afflicting them and prying them, in smiting them and healing them, with meicy, & with chastisement.

11 Therefore if there be one sinneked among the people, it is maruile if he escape vnpunished: for meicy and wrath are with him: he is ready to forgive and to poure out displeasure.

12 As his meicy is great, so is his penitence also: he iudgeth a man according to his works.

13 The vngodly shall not escape with his spoile, & the patience of the godly shall not be delayed.

14 He will giue place to al good deeds, & euery one shall find according to his works, [and after the vnderstanding of his pilgrimage.]

15 The Lord hardened Pharaos, that he should not know him, & that his works should be knowen vpon the earth vnder the heauen.

16 His meicy is knowen to all creatures: he hath separate his light from the darkenes with an adamant.

17 Say not thou, I will hile my selfe from the Lord: for who will thinke vpon me from aboue? I shall not be knowen in so great a heape of people: for what is my soule among such an infinite number of creatures?

18 Behold the heauen, & the heauen of heauens, which are for God, the depth, & the earth & all that therein is, shall be moued when he shall visit.

19 All the world which is created and made by his will, the mountaines also, & the foundaions of the earth shall shake for feare, when the Lord looketh vpon them.

20 These things do no heart vnderstand worthily, [but he vnderstandeth euery heart.]

21 And who vnderstandeth his waies? and the storme that no man can see? for the most part of his works are hid.

22 Who can declare the workes of his righteousness? or who can abide them? for his ordinance is farre off, and the trying out of all things faileth.

23 He that is humble of heart, will consider these things: but an vnwise and cronious man casteth his mind vpon foolish things.

24 My sonne, hearken vnto me, & learn knowledge, and marke my words with thine heart.

25 I will declare thee weighty doctrine, and I will instruct thee exactly in knowledge.

26 The Lord hath set his works in good order from the beginning, and part of them hath consumed from the other when he first made them.

27 He hath garnished his works for euery, and their beginnings so long as they shall endure, they are not hungry nor wearied in their labours, nor cease from their offices.

28 None of them hindreth another, neither was any of them disobedient vnto his words.

CHAP. XVII.

The creation of man, and the goodness that God hath done vnto him. 10. Of others. 22. And repentance.

THe Lord hath created man of the earth, and turned him vnto it againe.

1 He gaue him the number of dayes and certaine times, and gaue him power of the things that are vpon earth.

2 He clothed them with strength, as they had neede, and made them according to his image.

3 He made all flesh to feare him, so that hee had the dominion ouer the beastes and foules.

4 He created out of him a helper like vnto himselfe, and gaue them discretion & tongue, and eyes, eares, and an heart to vnderstande, and fustly he gaue them a spirit, and fawently he gaue them a speech to declare his workes.

5 And he filled them with knowledge of vnderstanding, and shewed them good and euill.

6 He set his eye vpon their hearts, declaring vnto them his noble workes.

7 And gaue them occasion to reioyce perpetually in his miracles, that they should prudently declare his workes, and that the elect should praise his holy Name together.

8 Besides this, he gaue them knowledge, and gaue them the Lawe of life for an heritage, that they might knowe that they were mortall.

9 He made an euertlasting couenant with the, and shewed them his iudgements.

10 Their eyes sawe the maiestie of his glorie, and their eare heard his glorious voyce.

11 And also he said vnto them, Beware of all vnrighteousngs. * He gaue euery man also a commandement concerning his neighbour.

12 Their wayes are euert before him, and are not hid from his eyes.

13 Euery man from his youth is giuen to euill, and their stonie hearts can not become flesh.

14 Hee appoynted a ruler vpon euery people, when he diuided the nations of the whole earth.

15 * And he did chuse Israel, as a peculiar people to himselfe, whom he nourished with discipline as his first borne, and giueh him most louing light, and doth not forsake him.

16 All their workes are as the sunne before him, and his eyes are continually vpon their wayes.

17 None of their vnrighteousnesse is hid from him, but all their finnes are before the Lord.

18 And as hee is mercifull, and knoweth his workes, he doth not leaue them nor forsake them, but spareth them.

19 * Thealmes of a man, is as a thing sealed vp before him, & he kepeth the good deedes of man as the apple of the eye, and giueh repentance to their finnes, and daughters.

20 * At the last shall he arise, and reward them, and shall repay their reward vpon their heads.

21 * But vnto them that will repent, he giueh them grace to returne, and exhorteth such as faile, with patience, [and sendeth them the portion of the venie.]

22 * Returne then vnto the Lord, and forsake thy finnes: make thy prayer before his face, and take away the offence.

24 Turne againe vnto the most High: for hee will bring thee from darknesse to wholsome light: forsake thine vnrighteousnesse, and hate greatly all abomination.

25 [Knowe the righteousnesse and iudgements of God: stand in the portion that is set forth for thee, and in the prayer of the most High God, and goe in the parts of the holy world with such as be liuing and confesse God]

26 * Who can praye the most High in the hel, as doe all they that liue and confesse him?

27 [Abide not thou in the error of the vngodly, but praye the Lord before death.]

28 Thankfulnessse perisheth from the dead, as though he were not: but the liuing, and he that is founde of heart, praiseth the Lord, [and reioyeth in his mercy.]

29 Howe great is the louing kindenesse of the Lorde our God, and his compassion vnto such as turne vnto him in holines!

30 For all things can not be in men, because the sonne of man is not immortal, [& they take pleasure in the vanitie of wickednesse.]

31 What is more cleare then the sunne? yet shall it faile.

32 So flesh and blood that thinketh euill, [shall be reprocued.]

33 He seeth the power of the high heaven, and all men are but earth and ashes.

CHAP. XVIII.

The maruailous workes of God. 2. The miserie and wretchednesse of man. 9. Against God ought we not to complain. 21. The performing of vniuers.

HE that liueth for euert, * made all things together: the Lord who onely is iust, and there is none other but he, [and he remaineth a victorious King for euert.]

1 He ordereth the world with the power of his hand, and all things obey his will: for he governeth all things by his power, and diueth the holie things from the prophane.

2 To whom hath hee giuen power to expresse his workes? who will seeke out the ground of his noble acts?

3 Who shall declare the power of his greatness? or who will take vpon him to tell out his mercie?

4 As for the wonderous workes of the Lorde, there may nothing bee taken from them, neither can any thing bee put vnto them, neither may the ground of them be found out.

5 But when a man hath done his best, he must beginne againe, and when he thinketh to come to an end, he must goe againe to his labour.

6 ¶ What is man? whereto serueth hee? what good or euill can hee doe?

7 * If the number of a mans dayes be an hundred yeere, it is much: and no man hath certaine knowledge of his death.

8 As droppes of raine are vnto the sea, and as a grauell stone is in comparison of the sand, so are a thousand yeeres to the dayes euertlasting.

9 Therefore is [God] patient with them, and pouereth out his mercie vpon them.

10 He sawe and perceived, that [the arrogancy of their heart, and their ruine was euill: therefore heaped he vp his mercie vpon them, and shewed them the way of righteousness.]

11 The mercie that a man hath, reacheth to his neighbour: but the mercie of the Lord is vpon all flesh.

flesh: he chaſteth, and nutureth, and teacheth, and bringeth backe, as a ſhepherd his ſlocke.

13 He hath mercy of them & receiue diſcipline, and that diligently ſeeketh after his iudgements.

14 ¶ My ſonne, when thou doelt good, rejoyce not: and whoeuer thou giueſt, ſee no diſcomfor-table worlde.

15 Shall not the dewe aſſwage the heate? ſo is a word better then a gift.

16 Love, is not a word better then a good gift: but a gracious man giueth them both,

17 A ſoole wil reproch churchiſhly, & a gift of the envious putteth out the eyes.

18 [Get thee right counſels before thou come to iudgement:] learne before thou ſpeake, and viſe phillicke or cuer thou be ſicke.

19 ¶ Examine thy ſelfe, before thou be iudged, and in the day of the viſitation thou ſhalt finde mercy.

20 Humble thy ſelfe before thou be ſicke, and whilſt thou mayſt yet ſinne, ſhew thy couerſion.

21 Let nothing let thee to pay thy vow in time, and deſert not vnto death to be reformed: [for the reward of God endureth for euer.]

22 Before thou prayeſt, prepare thy ſelfe, & be not as one that reſpecteth the Lord.

23 Think vpon the *wrath, that ſhal beat the end, and the houre of vengeance, when hee ſhall turne away his face.

24 * When thou haſt enough, remember the time of hunger: and when thou art rich, thinke vpon poeuerie and neede.

25 From the morning vntill the eueneng the time is changed, and al ſuch things are ſoone done before the Lord.

26 A wiſe man ſearcheth in all things, and in the dayes of tranſgreſſion he keepeth himſelfe from ſinne: but the ſoole doth not obſerue the time.

27 ¶ Euery wiſe man knoweth wiſedome, and knowledge, and prayeth him that findeth her.

28 They that haue vnderſtanding, deale wiſely in words: [they vnderſtand the truth and righteouſneſſe,] and powre out with modeſtie graue ſentences for mans life.

29 The chiefe authority of ſpeaking is of the Lord alone: for a mortall man hath but a dead heart.

30 ¶ Followe not thy luſtes, but turne thee from thine owne appetites.

31 For if thou giueſt thy ſoule her deſires, it ſhall make thine enemies that enue thee, to laugh thee to ſcorne.

32 Take not thy pleaſure in great voluptuousneſſe, and intangle not thy ſelfe with ſuch cōpanie.

33 Become not a beggar by making banquetes of that that thou haſt borrowed, and ſo leaue nothing in thy purſe, elſe thou ſhouldeſt ſlandereuſly lie in wayte for thine owne life.

CHAP. XIX.

¶ Wine and women bring men to poeuerie. 6. In thy words, uſe diſcretion. 22. The difference of the wiſedome of God and man. 27. Wherby thou mayeſt know what is in man.

A Labouring man that is giuen to drunkennes, ſhall not bee rich: and he that concerneth ſmall things, ſhall fall by little and little.

1 ¶ Wine and women leade wiſe men out of the way, [and put men of vnderſtanding to re-prooch:]

2 And he that companieth adulterers, ſhal become impudent: rottenneſſe & wormes ſhal haue him to heritage, and he that is too bold, ſhal be taken away, and be made a publicke example.

4 ¶ He that is haſtie to giue creche, is light minded, and he that erreth, ſinneth againſt his owne ſoule.

5 Who ſo reioiceth in wickedneſſe, ſhall be puniſhed: [he that hereb to be reformed his life ſhal be ſhortened, and he that abhorreth babbling of words, quencheth wickedneſſe:] but he that reſiſteth pleaſures, crowneth his owne ſoule.

6 He that refraineth his tongue, may liue with a troubleſome man, and he that hateth babbling, ſhall haue leſſe euill.

7 Recheiſe not to another, that which is tolde vnto thee: ſo thou ſhalt not be hindred.

8 Declare not other mens manners, neither to friend nor foe: and if the ſinne appertaine not vnto thee, reueile it not.

9 For hee will hearken vnto thee, and marke thee, and when hee findeth opportunitie, hee will hate thee.

10 ¶ If thou haſt heard a worde [againſt thy neighbour,] let it die with thee, and be ſure it will not burſt thee.

11 A ſoole traueleth when hee hath heard a thing, as a woman that is about to bring forth a child.

12 As an arrowe that ſticketh in ones thigh, ſo is a word in a ſooles heart.

13 ¶ Reproue a friend leaſt hee do euill, and if hee haue done it, that hee do it no more.

14 Reproue a friend that hee may keepe his tongue: and if hee haue ſpoken, that hee ſay it no more.

15 Tel thy friend his fault: for oft times a ſlander is raiſed, and giue no credence to eury word.

16 A man ſalleth with his tongue, but not with his will: * and who is he that hath not offended in his tongue?

17 Reproue thy neighbour before thou threaten him, and being without anger, giue place vnto the Law of the moſt High.

18 The feare of the Lord is the firſt degree to be receiued of him, and wiſdome obtaineth his loue.

19 The knowledge of the commandments of the Lord is the doctrine of life, and they that obey him, ſhall receiue the fruit of immortallitie.

20 The feare of the Lord is all wiſedome, & the performing of the Law is perfe& wiſedome, & the knowledge of his almighty power.

21 If a ſeruant ſay vnto his maſter, I wil not do as it pleaſeth thee, though afterward hee do it, hee ſhall diſpleaſe him that nouritheth him.

22 The knowledge of wickedneſſe is not wiſedome, neither is there prudence wheras the counſell of ſinners is: but it is euen execrable malice: & the ſoole is voyd of wiſedome.

23 He that hath final vnderſtanding, & feareth God, is better then one that hath much wiſedome, and tranſgreſſeth the Law of the moſt High.

24 There is a certaine ſubtiltie: it is fine, but it is vnrighteous: & there is that wreſteth the open and manifeſt Law: yet there is that is wiſe and iudgeth righteouſly.

25 There is ſome that being about wicked purpoſes, doe bowe downe themſelues, and are ſad, whoſe inward parts burne altogether with deceit: hee looketh down with his face, & faimeth himſelfe deafe: yet before thou perceiue, hee will be vpon thee to hurt thee.

37 ¶ A man may be known by his looke, and one that hath vnderstanding, may be perceiued by the marking of his countenance.

38 * A mans garment, and his excessive laughter, and going declare what person he is.

CHAP. XX.

Of correction and repentance. 6 To shake and keepe silence in sinne. 17 The fall of the wicked. 23 Of iung. 24 The sheefe and the mountain. 28 Gifts handle the eyes of the wife.

THere is some rebuke that is not comely: a gaine, some man holdeth his tongue, and he is wise.

1 It is much better to reprove than to beare euill will: and hee that acknowledgeth his fault, shall be preferred from hurt.

3 As * when a gelded man through lust would defile a maide, so is he that vseth violence in iudgement.

4 Howe good a thing is it, when thou art reprov'd, to shew repentance! for so shalt thou escape wilfull sinne.

5 Some man keepeth silence, and is found wise, and some by much babbling becommeth hateful.

6 Some man holdeth his tongue, because he hath not to answer: and some keepeth silence, waiting a convenient * time.

7 * A wife man will holde his tongue till he see opportunitie: but a trifler and a foole will regard no time.

8 Hee that vseth many wordes, shall be abhorred, and he that taketh authoritie to himselfe, shall be hated.

9 Some man hath oft times prosperity in wicked things, and sometimes a thing that is found, bringeth losse.

10 There is some gift that is not profitable for thee, & there is some gift, whose reward is doubtful.

11 Some man humbly leth himselfe for glories sake, and some by humblenes listeth vp the head.

12 Some man buich much for a litle price: for the which he payeth seven times more.

13 * A wife man with his wordes maketh him selfe to be loued, but the merry tales of fooles shall be powred out.

14 The gift receiued of a foole, shall doe thee no good, neither yet of the enuious for his importunitie: for he looketh to receiue many things for ore: he giueth litle, and he vpbraideth much: he openeth his mouth like a towne crier: to day he lendeth, to morrow asketh he againe, and such one is to be hated of God and man.

15 The foole saith, I haue no friend, I haue no thanke for all my good deedes: and they that care my bread, speake euill of me.

16 How oft, and of how many shall he be laughed to scorn? for he comprehendeth not by right iudgement that which he hath: and it is all one as though he had it not.

17 The fall on a pavement is very sudden: so shall the fall of the wicked come hastily.

18 A man without grace is as a foolish tale which is oft tolde by the mouth of the ignorant.

19 A wise sentence loseth grace when it cometh out of a fooles mouth: for he speaketh not in due season.

20 Some man sinneth not because of pouertie, and yet is not grieved when he is alone.

21 Some man there is that destroyeth his own soule, because he is ashamed, and for the regard of persons loseth it.

22 Some man promisseth vnto his friend for shame, and getteth an enemy of him for naught.

23 * A lie is a wicked thing in a manyer: as it * Chap. 25. 30. oft in the mouth of the vnwise.

24 A theefe is better, then a man that is accused: for he tollie: but they both shall haue destruction to heritage.

25 The conditions of lyars are vn honest, and their shame is euer with them.

26 A wise man shall bring himselfe to honour with his wordes, and he that hath vnderstanding, shall please great men.

27 * He that tilleth his land, shall increase his heape [he that worketh righteousness, shall be exalted,] and he that pleaseth great men, shall haue pardon of his iniquitie.  Prov. 12. 11. and 28. 19.*

28 * Rewards and gifts blinde the eyes of the wife: and make them durme, that they cannot re-  2. Cor. 12. 8. Rom. 16. 19.* proue faults.

29 Wisdome that is hid, and treasure that is boarded vp, what profit is in them both?

30 Better is he that keepeth his ignorance secret, then a man that hideth his wisdom.

31 The necessary patience of him, that followeth the Lorde, is better then he that governeth his life without the Lorde.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Not to continue in sinne. 9 The prayer of the afflicted. 6 To hate to be reprov'd. 27 The mouth of the wife man. 26 The thought of the flesh.

M*Y sonne, hast thou sinned? doe so no more, but pray for the fore finnes [that they may be forgiven thee.]  Chap. 9. 9. Psal. 4. 13. 13. 30.*

2 Flee from sinne, as from a serpent: for if thou comest to neere it, it will bite thee: the teeth thereof are as the teeth of a lion, to slay the soules of men.

3 All iniquity is as a two edged sword, the wounds whereof cannot be healed.

4 Strife and iniuries waite riches: so the house of the proude shall be desolate.

5 * The prayer of the poore going out of the mouth, cometh vnto the eares of the Lord, and iustice is done him incontinently.  Ezech. 3. 22. and 22. 32.*

6 Who so hateth to be reformed is in the way of sinners: but he that feareth the Lorde, conuerteth in heart.

7 An eloquent talker is knowne as farre off but he that is wise, perceiueh when he falleth.

8 Who so buildeth his house with other mens money, is like one that gathereth stones to make his graue.

9 * The congregation of the wicked is like * Chap. 12. 4. towne wrapped together: their ende is a flame of fire to delroy them.

10 The way of sinners is made plaine with stones, but at the ende thereof is hell, [darknesse and paines.]

11 He that keepeth the Law of the Lord, letteth his owne affections thereby: and the increase of wisdom is the end of the feare of God. Dr. Jeremie the vnderstanding sheweth.

12 He that is not wise, will not suffer himselfe to be taught: but there is some wit that increaseth bitternesse.

13 The knowledge of the wise shall abound like water that runneth ouer, and his counsell is like a pure fountaine of life.

14 * The inner parts of a foole are like a bro-  Thy. 32. 20.*

ken vessel he can keepe no knowledge whiles he liueth.

15 When a man of vnderstanding heareth a wife worde, hee will commend it, and increase it; but if an ignorant man heare it, he will disallow it, and cast it behind his backe.

16 The talking of a foole is like a burden in the way, but there is comeltnesse in the talke of a wise man.

17 They inquire at the mouth of the wife man in the congregation, and they shall ponder his words in their heart.

18 As is an house that is destroyed, so is wife-dome vnto a foole, and the knowledge of the wife is as words without order.

19 Doctrine vnto fooles is as fetters on the feete, and like manicles vpon the right hand.

chap. 19. 27. 28.

20 *A foole listeth vp his voyce with laughter, but a wise man doeth (carce smile secretly.

21 Learning is vnto a wife man a iewel of gold, and like a bracelet vpon his right arme.

22 A foolish mans foote is soone in [his neighbours] house: but a man of experience is ashamed to looke in.

23 A foole will peepe in at the doore into the house: but he that is wel nurtured, will stand wout.

24 It is the poynt of a foolish man to hearken at the doore: for hee that is wise, will be grieved with such dishonour.

25 The lippes of talkers will bee telling such things as pertaine not vnto them, but the wordes of such as haue vnderstanding, are weighed in the balance.

26 The heart of fooles is in their mouth: but the mouth of the wise is in their heart.

27 When the vngodly curseth Satan, hee curseth his owne soule.

28 *A backbiter defileth his owne soule, and is hated wherfoeuer he is: [but he that keepeth his tongue, and is discrete, shall come to honour.]

A slouthfull man is like a filthy stone, which euery man mocketh at for his shame.

2 A slouthfull man is to bee compared to the dongue of oxen, and euery one that taketh it vp, will shake it out of his hand.

3 An euill nurtured sonne is the dishonour of the father: & the daughter is least to bee esteemed.

4 A wife daughter is an heritage vnto her husband: but the that liueth dishonestly, is her fathers heauinesse.

5 Shee that is bold, dishonoureth both her father and her husband, [and is not inferior to the vngodly.] but they both shall despise her.

6 A tale out of time is as musick in mourning: but wise dome knoweth the seasons of correction and doctrine.

7 Who so teacheth a foole is as one that gleweth a postheard together, & as he that waketh one that sleepe, from a sound sleepe.

8 If children liue honestly, & haue wherewith, they shall put away the shame of their parents.

9 But if children be proud, with hautes and foolishnes they defile y nobilitie of their kindred.

10 Who so telleth a foole of Wisedome, is as a man, which speaketh to one that is asleepe: when he hath lost his tale, he saith, What is the matter?

11 * Weepe for the dead, for he hath lost the light: so weepe for the foole, for he wanteth vnderstanding: make small weeping for the dead, for he is at rest: but the life of the foole is worse then the death.

12 Seuen dayes doe men mourne for him that is dead: but the lamentation for the foole, and vngodly [should endure] all the dayes of their life.

13 Talke not much with a foole, and goe not to him that hath no vnderstanding: * beware of him, lest it turne thee to paine, and least thou be defiled when he shaketh himselfe. Depart from him, and thou shalt find rest, and shalt not receiue sorow by his foolishnesse.

14 What is heavier then lead? and what other name should a foole haue?

15 * Sand and salt, and a lump of yron is easier to beare, then an vnwise, [foolish and vngodly man.]

16 As a frame of wood ioyned together in a building cannot bee loosed with shaking, so the heart that is stablished by aduised counsell shall feare at no time.

17 The heart that is confirmed by discrete wisdom, is as a faire plaister on a plaine wall.

18 As reeds that are set vp on he, cannot abide the winde, so the fearefull heart with foolish imagination can endure no feare.

19 He that hurteth the eye, bringeth fourth teares, and he that hurteth the heart bringeth forth the affliction.

20 Who so casteth a stone at the birds, frayeth them away: and hee that vpbraideth his friende, breaketh friendship.

21 Though thou drewest a sword at thy friend, yet despair not: for there may be a returning to fauour.

22 If thou haue opened thy mouth against thy friend, feare not: for there may be a reconciliation, so that vpbraiding or pride or disclosing of secrets or a traiterous wounde doe not let: for by these things euery friend will depart.

23 Be faithful vnto thy friend in his pouertie, that thou maiest reioyce in his prosperitie. Abide stedfast vnto him in the time of his trouble, that thou maiest be heire with him in his heritage: for pouertie is not alwayes to be contemned, nor the rich that is foolish, to be had in admiration.

24 As the vapour and smoke of the chimney goeth before the fire, so euill words [rebukes and threatnings] goe before bloodshedding.

25 I will not be ashamed to defend a friend: neither will I hide my selfe from him, though he should doe me harme: whosoever beareth it, shall beware of him.

26 Who shall set * a watch before my mouth, & a seale of wisdom vpon my lips, that I fal not suddenly by them, & that my tongue destroy me not?

C H A P. XXIII.

1 A mirror of the author. 12 Of the blacke and white communication. 13 Of the three kinds of power. 14 Many proceed of adulterie. 15 Of the feare of God.

○ Lorde, father and gouernour of al my whole life, leaue me not to their counsell, and let me not fall by y them.

2 Who will correct my thought, and put the doctrine of wisdom in mine heart, that they may not spare me in mine ignorance, neither let y their faultes passe?

3 Least mine ignorances increase, & my finnes abound for my sinnes.

that is, of the tongue and lippes.

abound to my destruction, and least I fall before mine adversary, and mine enemies rejoice ouer me, whose hope is farre from thy mercy.

4 O Lord, Father and God of my life, [leau me not in their imagination:] neither giue me a proud looke, but turne away from thy seruants a stout minde.

5 Take from me vaine hope, & concupiscence, and reiecte him in obedience, that desireth continually to serue thee.

6 Let not the greedines of the belly, nor lust of the flesh hold me, and giue not me thy seruant ouer into an impudent minde,

7 Hears, O ye children, the instruction of a mouth that shal speake truth: who so keepeth it, shal not perish through his lips, [nor bee hurt by wicked workes.]

8 The sinner shall be taken by his owne lips: for the euill speaker and the proud doe offend by them.

9 * Accustome not thy mouth to swearing: [for in it there are many falles,] neither take vp for a custome the naming of the Holy one: [for thou shalt not be vnpanished for such things.]

10 For as a seruant which is oft punished, cannot be without some feare, so he that sweareth, & nameth God continually, shall not be faultlesse.

11 A man that vseth much swearing, shall be filled with wickednes, and the plague shal neuer goe from his house: when he shal offend, his fault shal be vpon him, and if he knowledge not his sinne, he maketh a double offence: and if he sweare in vaine, he shal not be innocent, but his house shall be full of plagues.

12 There is a word which is clothed with death: God grant that it bee not found in the heretage of Iacob: but they that feare God, eschew al such, and are not wrapped in sinne.

13 Vse not thy mouth to signorant rashnes: for therein is the occasion of sinne.

14 Remember thy father & thy mother whe thou art set among great men, lest thou be forgotten in their sight, and so through thy cu'some become a foule, and wish that thou haddest not bene borne, and curse the day of thy nativity.

15 * The man that is accustomed to opprobrious wordes, will neuer be reformed all the daies of his life.

16 There are two sorts [of men] that abound in sinne, and the third bringeth wrath [and destruction:] a mind hot as fire, that cannot be quenched till it be consumed: an adulterous man that giueth his body no rest, till he haue kindled a fire.

17 [Al] bread is sweete to a whoremonger: he will not leaue off till he perish.)

18 A man that breaketh wedlocke, and thinketh this in his heart, * Who seeth me? I am compassed about with darkenes: the walles couer me: no body seeth me: whome neede I to feare? the most High will not remember my sinnes.

19 Such a man only seareth the eyes of men, and knoweth not that the eyes of the Lord are ten thousand times brighter then the sunne, beholding all waies of men, [& the ground of the deere,] and considereth the most secret parts.

20 He knew al things of euer they were made, and after they be brought to passe also, he looketh vpon them all.

21 * The same man shall be punished in the streets of the citie, [and shalbe chastid like a yong horsefoale,] and when hee thinketh not vpon it, he shal be taken: [thus shal he be put to shame of eury man, because he would not vnderstand the feare of the Lord.]

22 And thus shal it go also with eury wife, that leaueh her husband, and getteth inheritance by another.

23 * For first she hath disobeyed the Lawe of the most High, and secondly she hath trespassed against her owne husband, and thirdly, she hath played the whore in adultery, and gotten her children by another man.

24 She shalbe brought out into the congregation, & examination shalbe made of her children.

25 Her children shall not take roote, and hee branches shall bring forth no fruit.

26 A shamefull report shall the leaue, and her reproch shall not be put out.

27 And they that remaine, shall knowe that there is nothing better then the feare of the Lord, & that there is nothing sweeter then to take heed vnto the commandments of the Lord.

28 It is great glorie to follow the Lord, and to be receiued of him is long life.

CHAP. XXIIII.

A prayer of wisdom proceeding forth of the mouth of God, & of her work and place where she resteth, so she is giuen to the children of God.

Wisdom shall praise her selfe, [and be honoured in God,] and reioice in the middles of her people.

1 In the congregation of the most High shall she open her mouth, & triumph before his power.

2 [In the middles of her people shall she be exalted, and wondered at in the holy assemblie.

3 In the multitude of the chosen she shall be commended, & among such as be blessed, she shal be praised, and shal say.]

4 I am come out of the mouth of the most High, [first borne before all creatures.

5 I caused the light that sayeth not, to arise in the heauen, [and couered the earth as a cloude.

6 My dwelling is about in the height, and my throne is in the pillar of the cloude.

7 I alone haue gone round about the compasse of heauen, and haue walked in the bottome of the depth.

8 I possessed the waues of the sea, and all the earth, and all people, & nation, [and with my power haue I troden downe the hearts of all, both high and low.]

9 In al these things I fought rest, and a dwelling in some inheritance.

10 So the creator of all things gaue me a commandment, & he that made me, appointed me a tabernacle, and said, Let thy dwelling be in Iacob, and take thine inheritance in Israel, and roote thy selfe among my chosen.

11 * He created me from the beginning, & before the world, and I shall neuer faile: * In the holy habitation haue I serued before him, and so was I established in Sion.

12 * In the welbeloued citie gaue he me rest, & in Ierusalem was my power.

13 I tooke roote in an honourable people, euen in the portion of the Lords inheritance.

14 I am set vp on hie like a cedar in Libanus, & as a cypres tree vpon the mountaines of Hermon.

15 I am exalted like a palme tree about the banks, and as a rose plant in Iericho, as a sayre olive olive tree in a pleasant felde, and am exalted as a plane tree by the water.

17 I smelled as the cinnamon, and as a bag of spices: I gave a sweet odour as the best mirhe, as galbanum, and onyx, and sweet storax, & perfume of incense in an house.

18 As the terebith, haue I stretched out my branches, and my branches are the branches of honour and grace.

* Job 15. 18.

19 *As the vine haue I brought forth [fruit] of sweete fauour, and my flowers are the fruite of honour and riches.

20 I am the mother of beautiful loue, and of feare, and of knowledge, and of holy hope: I giue eternall things to all my children to whom God hath commanded.

21 [In me is all grace of life and trueth: in me is all hope of life and vertue.]

22 Come vnto me al ye that be desirous of me, and fill your selues with my fruites.

* Psal. 119. 10, 11.

23 *For the remembrance of me is sweeter then hony, and mine inheritance [sweeter] then the honycombe: [the remembrance of me endureth for euermore.]

24 They that eate me, shall haue the more hunger, and they that drinke me, shall thirst the more.

25 Who so hearkeneth vnto me, shall not come to confusion, and they that worke by me, shall not offend: [they that make meto be knowne, shall haue euerslasting life.]

* Exod. 30. 1
and 34. 3
Leuit. 24. 1, and 29. 6.

26 All these things are the booke [of life,] & the couenant of the most high God, [& the knowledge of the trueth,] *and the Law that moyses [in the precept: of righteousness] commanded for an heritage vnto the house of Iacob, [and the promises pertaining vnto Israel.]

27 Be not weary to behaue your selues valiantly with the Lord, that he may also confirme you: cleaue vnto him: for the Lord almighty is but one God, and besides him there is none other Saviour.

28 [Out of Dauid his seruante he ordained to rayse vp a most mighty King that should sit in the throne of honour for euermore.]

* Gen. 1. 26.

29 Hee filleth all things with his wisdom, as *Physon, and as Tygris, in the time of the newe fruites.

* Job. 3. 15.

30 He maketh the vnderstanding to abound like Euphrates, and as * Iorden, in the time of the haruest.

31 He maketh the doctrine of knowledge to appeare as the light, and ouerfloweth as Geon in the time of the vintage.

32 The first man hath not known her perfectly: no more shall the last seeke her out.

33 For her considerations are more abundant then the sea, and her counsell is profounder then the great deepe.

34 I wisdom [haue cast out floods:] I am as an atme of the riuer: I run into Paradise as a water conculit.

35 I sayd, I will water my faire garden, and will water my pleasant ground: and loe, my ditch became a flood, and my flood became a sea.

36 For I make doctrine to shine as the light of the morning, and I lighten it for euer.

37 [I will pearce thorow al the lower parts of the earth: I will looke vpon all such as be a sleepe, and lighten all them that trust in the Lord.]

38 I will yet poure out doctrine, as prophetic, and leaue it vnto all ages for euer.

39 *Beholde that I haue not laboured for my selfe onely, but for all them that seeke wisdom.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Of those things which please God, and of those which he hateth. 2 Of those things that be not to be suspected. 34 Of the malice of a woman.

Three things reioice mee, and by them am I beautified before God and men: *the vniy of brethren, the loue of neighbours, a man and wife that agree together.

Rom. 12. 10.

2 ¶ Three sortes of men my soule hateth, and I utterly abhorre the life of them: a poore man that is proud: a rich man that is a lyar, and an old adulterer that docteth.

3 ¶ If thou hast gathered nothing in thy youth, what canst thou find in thine age?

4 ¶ Oh, howe pleasant a thing is it when gray headed men minister iudgement, and when the elders can giue good counsell!

5 Oh, how comely is wisdom vnto aged men, and vnderstanding and prudency to men of honour!

6 The crown of old men is to haue much experience, and the feare of God is their glory.

7 ¶ There be nine things, which I haue iudged in mine heart to be happy, and the tenth will I pronounce with my tongue: a man that while he liueth, hath ioy of his children, and seeth the fall of his enemies.

8 ¶ Wel is him that dwelleth with a wife of vnderstanding, * and that hath not fallen with his tongue, and that hath not serued such as are vaworthy of him.

* Eccl. 1. 1, and 18. 14.
Leuit. 24. 1.

9 Wel is him that findeth prudencie, & he that speaketh in the eares of them that will heare.

10 ¶ Oh, how great is he that findeth wisdom! yet is there none about him, that feareth the Lord.

11 The feare of the Lord passeth all things in clearenesse.

12 [Blessed is the man vnto whom it is granted to haue the feare of God,] vnto whom shall he be likened that hath attained it?

13 The feare of the Lord is the beginning of his loue, & faith is beginning to be ioined vnto him.

14 ¶ The greatest heauines is the heauines of the heart, and the greatest malice is the malice of a woman.]

15 Giue me any plague saue only the plague of the hart, & any malice saue y malice of a woman:

16 Or any assault, saue the assault of them that hate, or any vengeance, saue the vengeance of the enemy.

17 There is not a more wicked head then the head of a serpent, and there is no wrath about the wrath of an enemy.

[Or, woman
Prov. 21. 10.]

18 *I had rather dwell with a lion and dragon, then to keepe house with a wicked wife.

19 The wickednes of a woman changeth her face, & maketh her countenance black as a becke.

20 Her husband is sitting among his neighbours because of her he sigheth sore or he beware.

21 All wickednesse is but litle to the wickednesse of a woman: let the portion of the sinner fall vpon her.

22 As the climbing vp of a fandie way is to the fete of the aged, so is a wife full of wordes to a quiet man.

23 *Stumble not at the beauty of a woman, and desire her not for thy pleasure.

* Eccl. 7. 2, 1. Cor. 13. 1, and
13. 8.

24 If a woman nourish her husband, he is angry and and impudent and full of reproch.

25 A wicked wife maketh a sore heart, an heauie countenance, and a wounded minde, weake hands and feeble knees, and cannot comfort her husband in heauinesse.

26 Of the woman came the beginning of sinne, and through her we all die.

27 Giue the water no passage, [no not a little,] neither giue a wicked woman libertie to goe out.

28 If she walke not in thine obedience, [thee shalt confound thee in the sight of thine enemies.] Cut her off then from thy flesh, giue her, and forsake her.

C H A P. XXVI.

a. The praise of a good woman. 5. Of the fruit of three things, and of the fourth. 6. Of the ielous and drunken woman. 9. Of two things that cause sorrow, and of the charge which womenes weare.

Blessed is the man that hath a vertuous wife: for the number of his yeeres shall be double.

2 An honest woman reioyceth her husbande, and she shall fill the yeeres of his life with peace.

3 A vertuous woman is a good portion, which shall be giuen for a gift vnto such as feare γ Lord.

4 Whether a man be rich or poore, he hath a good heart toward the Lord, and they shall at all times haue a cheerefull countenance.

5 ¶ There be three things that mine heart feareth, and my face is afraide of the fourth: treason in a citie: the assembly of the people, and false accusation: all these are heauier then death.

6 ¶ But the sorrow and griefe of the heart is a woman that is ielous ouer another: and the that commueth with all, is a scourge of the tongue.

7 An euill wife is as a yoke of oxen that draweth wayes: he that hath her, is as though he held a scorpion.

8 A drunken woman and such as cannot be tamed, is a great plague: for she cannot couer her owne shame.

9 The whoredome of a woman may be knowne in the pride of her eyes, and eye liddes.

10 ¶ If thy daughter be not shamefast, hold her straitly, lest she aluse her selfe through our much libertie.

11 Take heede of her that hath an vnshamefast eye: and marueile not if the trespassse against thee.

12 As one that goeth by the way, and is thirsty, so shall she open her mouth, and drinke of euery next water: by euery hedge shall she sit downe, and open her quinner against euery arrow.

13 The grace of a wife reioyceth her husband, and feedeth his bones with her vnderstanding.

14 A peaceable woman and of a good heart is a gift of the Lorde, and there is nothing so much worth as a woman well instructed.

15 A shamefast & faithfull woman is a double price, and there is no weight to be compared vnto her continent minde.

16 As the Sun when it riseth in the high places of the Lorde, so is the beautie of a good wife the ornament of her house.

17 As the cleere light is vpon the holy candle-sticke, so is the beautie of the face in a ripe age.

18 As the golden pillars are vpon the sockets of shiner: so are faire feete with a constant minde.

19 [Perpetual are the foundations that he laid vpon a strong rocke: so are the commandements of God in the heart of a holy woman.]

20 My sonne, keepe the strength of thine age stable, and giue not thy strength to strangers.

21 When thou hast gotten a fruitfull possession through all the fieldes, sowe it with thine owne seedes, trusting in thy nobilitie.

22 So thy stocke that shall liue after thee, shall grow, trusting in γ great liberality of thy nobilitie.

23 An harlot is compared to a sowe: but the wife that is married, is counted as a towre against death to her husband.

24 A wicked woman is giuen as a rewarde to a wicked man: but a godly woman is giuen to him that feareth the Lord.

25 A shameles woman contemmeth shame: but a shamefast woman will reuerence her husband.

26 A shameles woman is compared to a dog: but she that is shamefast, reuerenceth the Lord.

27 A woman that honoureth her husband, shall be iudged wife of all: but the that despiseth him, shall be blased for her pride.

28 A loud crying woman and a balbler let her be sought out to driue away the enemies: the mind of euery man that liueth with such, shall be conuersant among the troubles of waite.

29 There be two things γ grieue mine heart, and the third maketh me angrie: a man of warre that suffereth prouertie and men of vnderstanding that are not sethy: and when one departeth from righteousness vnto sinne: the Lorde appointeth such to the sword.

30 [There be two things, which me thinke to be hard and perillous.] A marchant cannot lightly keepe him from wrong, and a vitailer is not without sinne.

C H A P. XXVII.

1. Of the poore that would be rich. 2. The prohibition of the men that feareth God. 12. The vnconstancie of a heale. 15. The secrets of friends are not to be reueled. 26. The wicked imagines what which turneth vpon himselfe.

Because of pouerty haue many sinned: and γ he that seeketh to be rich, turneth his eyes aside.

2 As a naille in the wall sticketh fast between the ioynts of the stones, so doth sinne sticke betweene the selling and the buying.

3 If he holde him not diligently in the feare of the Lord, his house shall soone be ouerthrowen.

4 As when one sitteth, the filthinesse remaineth in the sieue, so the filth of man remaineth in his thought.

5 The forniceproueth the porters vessel: γ [so γ Prov. 27. 21. doth [tentation] trie mens thoughts.

6 ¶ The fruit declareth if the tree haue bene γ [so Matth. 7. 17. trimmed: so the word [declareth] what man hath in his heart.

6 Praise no man except thou haue heard his talke: for this is the triall of men.

8 ¶ If thou followest righteoufnes, thou shalt get her, and put her on as a faire garment, [and shalt dwell with her, and she shall defend thee for euer: and in the day of knowledge thou shalt find stedfastnesse.]

9 The birds resort vnto their like: so doth the truth turne vnto them, that are practised in her.

10 As the lion waiteth for the beast, γ so doth sinne vpon them that doe euill.

11 The talking of him that feareth God, is all wisdom: as for a foole, he changeth as the moon.

12 If thou be among the vndercreete, obserue the time, but haunt still the assemblee of them that are wise.

13 The talking of fooles is grieuous, and their sport sport is in the pleasure of sinne.

14 * The talk of him that sweareth much, maketh the haire to stand vp: and to strue with such, floppeth the eares.

15 The strife of the proude is blood shedding, and their scouldings are grievous to heare.

16 * Who so discouereth secrets, loseth his eredit, and findeth no friend after his will.

17 Loue thy friend, and be faithful vnto him: but if thou bewraiest his secrets, thou shalt not get him againe.

18 For as a man destroyeth his enemy, so doest thou destroy the friendship of thy neighbour.

19 As one that letteth a birde goe out of his hand, so if thou giue ouer thy friend, thou canst not get him againe.

20 Follow after him no more, for he is too far off: he is as a roe escaped out of the snare: [for his soule is wounded.]

21 As for wounds, they may bee bound vp againe, and an euill worde may be reconciled: but who so bewrayeth the secrets of a friend, hath lost all his credit.

22 * He that winketh with the eyes, imagineth euill: and he that knoweth him will let him alone.

23 When thou art present he wil speake sweetly, and praise thy wordes: but at the last hee will turne his tale, and slander thy saying.

24 Many things haue I hated, but nothing so euill as such one: for the Lord also hateth him.

25 Who so casteth a stone on him, casteth it vpon his owne head: and he that smiteth with guile, maketh a great wound.

26 Who so diggeth a pit, shall fall therein, [and he that layeth a stone in his neighbours way, shall stumble thereon,] and he that layeth a snare for another shall be taken in it himselfe.

27 He that worketh euill, shall be wrapped in euill, and shall not know from whence they come vnto him.

28 Mockerie and reproch follow the proude, and vengeance lurketh for them as a lyon.

29 They that reioyce at the fall of the righteous, shall be taken in the snare, and anguish shall consume them before they dye.

30 Despise and anger are abominable thinges, and the sinfull man is subiect to them both.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 We ought not to desire vengeance, but to forgive the offender.

2 He that seeketh vengeance shall finde vengeance of the Lord, and he will surely keepe his finnes.

3 [Forgiue thy neighbour the hurt that he hath done to thee, for thou shalt thy finnes be forgiven thee also, when thou prayest.]

4 Should a man beare hatred against man, and desire forgiveness of the Lord?

5 Hee will shew no mercie to a man, which is like himselfe: and will hee aske forgiveness of his owne finnes?

6 If he that is but flesh, nourish hatred [& aske pardon of God, who will intreate for his finnes?]

7 Remember the end, & let enimity passe: imagine not death and destruction to another through anger, but perseuere in the commandments.

8 Remember the commandments: so shalt thou not be rigorous against thy neighbour: [consider diligently the covenent of the most High, and forgive his ignorance.]

8 * Beware of strife, and thou shalt make thy finnes fewer: for an angry man kindleth strife.

9 And the sinfull man disquieteth friends, and bringeth in false accusations among them that bee at peace.

10 * As the matter of the fire is, so it burneth, & mans anger is according to his power: and according to his riches his anger increaseth, & the more vehement the anger is, the more is he inflamed.

11 An hasty brawling kindleth a fire, and an hasty fighting sheddeth blood: [a tongue that beareth false witness, bringeth death.]

12 If thou blowe the sparke, if thou shalt burne: if thou spit vpon it, it shall be quenched, & both these come out of the mouth.

13 * Abhorre the slanderer & double tongued: for such haue destroyed many that were at peace.

14 The double tongue hath disquieted many, and driuen them from nation to nation: strong cities hath it broken downe, and ouerthrowen the houses of great men: [the strength of the people hath it brought downe, and bene the decay of mighty nations.]

15 The double tongue hath cast out many vertuous women, and robbed them of their labours.

16 Who so hearkeneth vnto it, shall neuer find rest, and neuer dwell quietly.

17 The stroke of the rod maketh markes in the flesh, but the stroke of the tongue breaketh the bones.

18 There bee many that haue perished by the edge of the sword, but not so many as haue fallen by the tongue.

19 Well is him that is kept from an euill tongue, and cometh not in the anger thereof, which hath not drawn in that yoke, neither hath bene bound in the bandes thereof.

20 For the yoke thereof is a yoke of yron, and the bandes of it are bandes of braile.

21 The death thereof is an euill death: hell were better than such one.

22 It shall not haue rule ouer them that feare God, neither shall they be burnt with the flame thereof.

23 Such as forsake the Lord, shall fall therein: and it shall burne them, and no man shall be able to quench it: it shall fall vpon them as a lyon, and deuoure them as a leopard.

24 Hedge thy possession with thornes, & make doores and barres for thy mouth.

25 Binde vp thy silver and gold, & weigh thy words in a balance, and make a doore and a barre, [and a sure bridle] for thy mouth.

26 Beware that thou slide not by it, and so fall before him that lieth in waite, [and thy fall be incurable euen vnto death.]

CHAP. XXIX.

1 Do not be angry, and do not be angry: 15 Of a faithful man answering for his friend, 24 The poor mans life.

2 He that will shewe mercie, lendeth to his neighbour: and he that hath power ouer himselfe, keepeth the commandments.

3 Lend to thy neighbour in time of his neede, and pay thou thy neighbour again in due season.

4 Keepe thy word, and deale faithfully with him, and thou shalt alway finde the thing that is necessary for thee.

5 Many when a thing was lent them, reckoned it to be found, and grieved them that had helped them.

* Chap. 23, 24, 25.

* Chap. 19, 20, and 22, 23.

* Prov. 20, 10.

* Psal. 15, v. 16, 27, eccle. 20, 8.

* Deut. 24, 29, Rom. 12, 10.

Man ought not to seeke vengeance.

* Math. 6, 14.

* The tongue, 1 Chap. 20, 24.

10 Prov. 20, 29.

* Deut. 15, 25.

5 Till they receiue, they kisse his hands, and for their neighbours good they hubble their voice: but when they should pay again, they prolong the terme, and giue a careless answer, and make excuses by reason of the time.

6 And though he be able, yet giueth he scarce the halfe againe, & reckoneth the other as a thing found: els he deceiuet him of his money, & maketh him an enemy without an accuse: he paith him with cursing and rebuke, & giueth him euill words for his good deed.

7 There be many which refuse to lend because of this inconuenience, fearing to bee defiaued without cause.

8 Yet haue thou patience with him that humblyeth himselfe, and deferre not mercy from him.

9 Helpe the poore for the commandements sake, and turne him not away, because of his povertie.

10 Lose thy money for thy brothers & neighbours sake, and let it not rust vnder a stone to thy destruction.

11 * Bestow the treasure after the commandement of the most High, & it shall bring thee more profite then gold.

12 Lay vp thine * almes in thy secret chambers, and it shall keepe thee from all affliction.

13 [A mans almes is as a purle with him, and shall keepe a mans fauour as the apple of the eye, and afterward shall it arise, and pay euery man his reward vpon his head.]

14 It shall fight for thee against thine enemies, better then the shield of a strong man, or speare of the mighty.

15 An honest man is [suerty for his neighbour: but he that he is impudent, forsaketh him.

16 Forget not the friendship of thy suerty: for he hath layd his life for thee.

17 The wicked defiecieth the good deed of his suerty.

18 The wicked will not become suerty: and he that is of an vnthankfull minde, forsaketh him that deliuered him.

19 [Some man proueth for his neighbour: and when he hath lost his honestie, he will forsake him.]

20 Suretiship hath destroyed many a rich man, and remoued them as the waues of the sea: mighty men hath it driuen away from their houses, and caused them to wander among strange nations.

21 A wicked man transgressing the commandements of the Lord shall fall into suretiship: and he that medleth much with other mens businesse, is intangled in controuersies.

22 * Helpe thy neighbour according to thy power, and beware that thou thy selfe fall not.

23 * The chiefe thing of life is water, & bread, and clothing, and lodging to couer thy shame.

24 [The poore mans life in his owne lodg is better then delicate fare in another mans.

25 Be it little or much, holde thee contented, though he house speake not euill of thee.

26 For it is a miserable life to go from house to house: for where thou art a stranger, thou darst not open thy mouth.

27 Thou shalt lodge & feede vnthankfull men, and after shalt haue bitter wordes for the same, saying,

28 Come thou stranger, & prepare the table and feede me of that thou hast ready.

29 Giue place, thou stranger, to an honourable man: my brother cometh to be lodged, and I haue neede of my house.

30 These things are heauy to a man that hath vnderstanding, the vprising of the house, and the reproch of the lender.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Of the correction of children. 14 Of the commodity of health. 17 Death is better then a frowfull life. 22 Of the ioy and iurament of the heart.

He that loueth his sonne, * causeth him oft to feelee the rodde, that he may haue ioy of him in the ende.

2 He that chastiseth his sonne, shall haue ioy in him, and shall reioice of him among his acquaintance.

3 He that teacheth his sonne, griueth the enemies, & before his friends he shall reioice of him.

4 Though his father die, yet is he as though he were not dead: for he hath left one behind him that is like him.

5 In his life he saw him, and had ioy in him, & was not sory in his death, [neither was he ashamed before his enemies.]

6 He left behind him an auenger against his enemies, and one that shoulde shew fauour vnto his friends.

7 He that flattereth his sonne, bindeth vp his wounds, and his heart is griued at euery cri.

8 An vntamed horse will be stubborne, and a wanton child will be full.

9 If thou bring vp thy sonne delicately, he shall make thee afraid: and if thou play with him, he shall bring thee to heauinesse.

10 Laugh not with him, lest thou be sory with him, and lest thou gnash thy teeth in the ende.

11 * Giue him no liberty in his youth, & winke not at his follie.

12 Powe downe his necke while he is yong, & beate him on the sides while he is a childe, lest he waxe stubborne, and be disobedient vnto thee, & forbearing sorow to thine heart.

13 Chastise thy childe, and be diligent therein, lest his shame griue thee.

14 [Better is the poore, being whole & strong, then a rich man that is afflicted in his body.

15 Health and strength is aboue all gold, and a whole body aboue infinite treasure.

16 There is no riches aboue a sound body, and no ioy aboue the ioy of the heart.

17 Death is better then a bitter life, [and long rest,] then continuall sicknesse.

18 The good things are powred on a mouth shut vp, are as messes of meate set vpon a graue.

19 What good doth the offering vnto an idole? for he can neither eate nor smell: so is hee that is persecuted of the Lord, [and beareth the rewarde of iniquitie.]

20 He seeth with his eyes, & groweth like * a gelded man that lieth with a virgin and fighteth.

21 * Giue not ouer thy mind vnto heuinesse, and vex not thy selfe in thine owne counsell.

22 The ioy of the heart is the life of man, and a mans gladnesse is the prolonging of his dayes.

23 Loue thine owne soule, and comfort thine heart: driue sorow farre from thee: for sorow hath slaine many, and there is no profite therein.

24 Enuie and wrath shorten the life, and carefullnesse bringeth age before the time.

25 A noble and good heart will haue consideration of his meate and dyet.

C H A P. XXXI.

Of countenance. 2. Of them that take paine to gather riches. 3. The prayer of a rich man without a fault. 12. The anguish for drunkenness, and followe solennes.

*Countenance.
1. Tim. 6. 9, 10.*

Waking after riches pineth away the body, and the care thereof driueth away sleepe:
1 This waking care breaketh the sleepe, as a great sickness breaketh the sleepe.

2 The rich hath great labour in gathering riches together: and in his rest he is filled with pleasures.

3 The poore labourer in liuing poorely, and when he leaueh off, he is still poore.

4 He that loueth gold, shall not be justified, & he that followeth corruption shall haue enough thereof.

 Chap. 8. 2.*

5 Many are destroyed by the reason of golde, and haue found their destruction before them.

6 It is as a stumbling blocke vnto them that sacrifice vnto it, and every foole is taken therewith.

 Lat. 4. 24.*

7 Blessed is the rich which is found without blemish, and hath not gone after golde, [nor hoped in money and treasures.]

8 Who is he, and we will commend him? for wonderful things hath he done among his people.

9 Who hath bene triad thereby, and founde perfect? let him be an example of glory, who might offend, and hath not offended, or doe cuill, and hath not done it.

10 Therefore shall his goods be established, and the congregation shall declare his almes.

Temperancia.

11 If thou sit at a costly table, open not thy mouth wide vpon it, and say not, Beholde much meate.

12 Remember that an euill eye is a shrew: and what thing created is worse than a wicked eye? for it weepeth for every cause.

13 Stretch not thine hand wherefoeuer it looketh, and druff it not with it into the dish.

14 Consider by thy selfe him that is by thee, & marke euery thing.

15 Eat modestly that which is set before thee, and deuoure not, lest thou be hated.

16 Lettue thou off first for natures sake, & be not insatiable, lest thou offend.

17 When thou sittest among many, reach not thine hand out first of all.

 Chap. 37. 9.*

18 How little is sufficient for a man well taught? and thereby he belcheth not in his chamber, [nor seeth any paine.]

19 A wholesome sleepe commeth of a temperate belly: he riseth vp in the morning, and is well at ease in himselfe: but paine in watching and cholerike diseases, and pangs of the belly are with an vnstable man.

20 If thou hast bene forced to eat, arise, goe forth, vnto it, and then take thy rest: [so shalt thou bring no sickness to thy body.]

21 My sonne, heare me, and despite me not, & at the last thou shalt finde as I haue told thee: in all thy works be quick, so shall there no sickness come vnto thee.

 Prov. 13. 9.
* Ecclesiasticus.*

22 Who so is libellous in his meate, men shall blesse him: and the reuerendy of his honesty shall be beloved.

23 But against him that is a niggard of his meate, the whole ciuie shall murmur: the testimonies of his niggardnes shall be sure.

 Iudith 13. 21.*

24 Shew not thy valiantnes in wine: for wine hath destroyed many.

25 The furnace proueth the edge in the tempering: so doeth wine the hearts of the proud by drunkennesse.

26 Wine soberly drunken, is profitable for the life of man: what is his life that is overcome with wine?

 Psal. 104. 15.
* Prov. 31. 6, 7.*

27 Wine was made [from the beginning] to make men glad, [and not for drunkennesse.] Wine measurably drunken, and in time, bringeth gladnesse and cheerefulness of the minde.

28 But wine drunken with excesse, maketh bitternesse of mind with brawlings and scouldings.

29 Drunkennesse encreaseth the courage of a foole, till he offend: it diminisheth his strength & maketh woundes.

30 Rebuke not thy neighbour at the wine, & despite him not in his mirth: giue him no despitefull wordes, and presse not vpon him with contrarie wordes.

C H A P. XXXII.

1. An hortation to modestie. 2. Let the ancient speak. 14. To giue thanks after the repast. 15. Of the feast, feast and conscience in God.

If thou be made the master of the feast, list not thy selfe vp, but be among them, as one of the rest: take diligent care for them, and so sit downe.

Humblete.

2 And when thou hast done all thy dutie, sit downe, that thou mayest be merie with them, and receiue a crowne for thy good behauiour.

3 Speake thou that art the elder: for it becometh thee, but with sound iudgement, and kinder not much.

4 Powe not out wordes, where there is no iudgement, and shew not forth wisdom out of time.

5 The consent of musicians at a banquet, is as a signet of cartuncle set in gold.

6 And as the signet of an Emeraude well trimmed with gold, so is the melodie of musicke in a pleasant banquet.

7 [Giue care, and be still, and for thy good behauiour thou shalt be loued.]

8 Thou that art yong, speake if neede bee, and yet scarcely when thou art twice asked.

9 Comprehend much in few wordes: [in many things be as one that is ignorant:] be as one that vnderstandeth, and yet hold thy tongue.

10 If thou be among great men, compare not thy selfe vnto them: and when an elder speaketh, babble not much.

 Job 35. 6.*

11 Before the thunder goeth lightening, & before a shamefast man goeth fauour.

12 Stand vp betimes, and be not the last: but get thee home without delay.

13 And there take thy pastime, & do what thou wilt, so if thou do none euill, or vse proud words.

14 But aboute all things, giue thanks vnto him that hath made thee, & replenished thee with his goods.

15 Who so feareth the Lord, will receive his doctrine, & they that reuerently shall find fauour.

16 He that seeketh the Law, shall be filled therewith: but the hypocrite will be offended therat.

17 They that feare the Lord, shall finde that which is righteous, & shall kinde iustice as a light.

18 An vngodly man will not be reformed, but findeth out excuses according to his will.

19 A man of vnderstanding despiteeth not easily: but a lewd and proud man is not touched with feare, even when he hath done rashly.

20 [My sonne,] doe nothing without aduise-ment: so that it not repent thee after the deede.

21 Go not in thy way where thou maist fall, nor where where thou maist stumble among the stones, nei-der trust thou in the way that is plaine; 12 And beware of thine owne children, [& take heed of them that be thine owne thou shalt hold.] 13 In every good worke be of a faithful heart:

for this is the keeping of the commandements.
14 Who so beleueth in the Lorde, & keepeth the commandements, and hee that trusteth in the Lorde, shall take no hurt.

CHAP. XXXIII.

The deliverance of him that flourisheth God. 4 The answer of the wisd. 15 Man is in the hand of God, as the clay in the hand of the potter. 23 Of euill seruants.

Here shall no euill come vnto him that feareth the Lorde: but when he is in temptation, he will deliuer him againe.

1 A wife man hateth not the Law: but hee that is an hypocrite therein, is as a ship in a storme.

2 A man of vnderstanding walketh faithfully in the Law, and the Law is faithfull vnto him.

3 As the question is made, prepare the an-swere, and so shalt thou be heard: be sure of the matter, and so to answer.

4 The heart of the foolish is like a cartwheel:
and his thoughts are like a rolling axeltree.

5 As a wild horse neyeth vnder euery one that sitteth vpon him, so is a scornfull friend.

6 Why doeth one day excell another, seeing that the light of the dayes of the yeece come of the sunne?

7 The knowledge of the Lorde hath parted them asunder, and he hath by them disposed the times and solemne feasts.

8 Some of them hath he chosen and sanctified, and some of them hath he put among the dayes to number.

9 And all men are of the * ground, and Adam was created out of the earth: but the Lorde hath diuided them by great knowledge, and made their wayes diuers.

10 Some of them hath he blessed & exalted,
and some of them hath he sanctified, & appropriat to himselfe: but some of them hath he cursed, and brought them low, & put them out of their estate.

11 * As the clay is in the potters hand, to order it at his pleasure, so are men also in the hand of their Creator, so that he may reward them as li-keth him best.

12 Against euill is good, and against death is lifeso is the godly against the sinner, and the vngodly against the faithfull.

13 So in all the works of * most high thou shalt see that there are euertwo, one against another.

14 I am awaked vp last of al, as one that ga-thereth after them in the vintage. In the blessing of the Lorde I am increased, and haue filled my wine presse, like a grape gatherer.

15 * Behold, how I haue not laboured only for my selfe, but for all them that seeke knowledge.

16 Hear me, O ye great me of * people, & hea-ren with your eares, ye rulers of * Congregation.

17 Giue not thy sonne and wife, thy brother & friend, power ouer thee while thou liuest, & giue not away thy substance to another, lest it repent thee, and thou increate for the same againe.

18 As long as thou liuest, and hast breath, giue not thy selfe ouer to any person.

19 For better it is that thy children should pray vnto thee, then that thou shouldst looke vp to the hands of thy children.

20 In all thy workes be excellent, that thine honour be neuer stained.

21 At the time when thou shalt end thy daies, and finish thy life, distribute thine inheritance.

22 ¶ The fodder, the whip, and the turden belong vnto the asse: and meate, correction and worke vnto thy seruant.

23 If thou set thy seruant to labour, thou shalt find rest: but if thou let him go idle, he shall seeke libertie.

24 The yoke and the whip bowe downe the hard necke: so tame diuie euill seruant with the whips and correction.

25 Send him to labour, that he go not idle: for idleness bringeth much euill.

26 Set him to work, for * he belongeth vnto himselfe: he be not obedient, if put on more heauy fetters.

27 But be not excessive toward any, and without discretion doe nothing.

28 * If thou haue a faithful seruant, let him bee vnto thee as thine owne soule: for in blood hast thou gotten him. If thou haue a seruant, increate him as thy brother: for thou hast need of him, as of thy selfe. If thou increate him euill, and he runne away, wilt thou seeke him?

CHAP. XXXIII.

Of dreames. In the power of his stout fierd God. 18 The offering of the wicked. 22 The hatred of the words. 27 God doeth and allow the workes of a faithful man.

The hope of a foolish man is vaine and false, [& dreames make fooles to haue wings.]

1 Who so regardeth dreames, is like him that wil take hold of a shadow, and follow after the wind.

2 Euen so is it with the appeerings of dreames,
as the likenesse of a face is before another face.

3 Who can be cleansed by the vncleane? or what truth can be spoken of a liar?

4 Southsayings, witchcraft, & dreaming is but vanitie, and a mind that is occupied with fantasies, is as a woman that traualleth.

5 Where as such vilions come not of the most High to trie thee, let not thine heart vpon them.

6 For dreames haue deceived many, and they haue failed that put their trust therein.

7 The Lawe shall be fulfilled without lies, and wisdom is sufficient to a faithfull mouth: [what knowledge hath he that is not tried?]

8 A man that is instructed, vnderstandeth much, and he that hath good experience, can talk of wisdom.

9 He that hath no experience, knoweth litle,
and he that erreth, is full of craft.

10 When I waded to & fro, I saw many things,
& mine vnderstanding is greater then I can expresse.

11 I was oft times in danger of death, yet I was deliuered by these things.

12 ¶ The spirit of those that feare the Lorde, shall liue: for their hope is in him that can helpe them.

13 Who so feareth the Lorde, feareth no man, neither is afraid: for he is his hope.

14 Blessed is the soule of him that feareth the Lorde: in whom putteth hee his trust? who is his strength?

15 * For the eyes of the Lorde haue respect vnto them, that loue him: he is their * mighty protection, and strong ground, a defence from the heate, and a shadow for the noone day, a succour from lumbling, and an helpe from falling.

16 He setteth vp the * rule, and lighteneth the eyes: he giueth health, life and blessing.

13 He accepteth not the person of the poore, but he heareth the prayer of the oppressed.

14 He despiteth not the desire of the fatherles, nor the widow, when the power is out her prayer.

15 Doth not the teares run down the widows cheeks, & her cry is against him that causeth them: [for if her cheeks do they go vp vnto heauen, & the Lord which heareth them, doeth accept the.]

fauour, and his prayer shall reach vnto the clouds.

17 The prayer of him that humbleth himselfe, reacheth vnto the cloudes, and crieth not till it come neere, and wil not depart till the most High haue respect thereunto to iudge righteously, and to execute iudgement.

18 And the Lord wil not be slacke, nor the Almighty wil tarry long from them, till he hath visited in funder the loynes of the vnmercifull, and auenged himselfe of the heathen, till he haue taken away the multitude of the cruell, and broken the scepter of the vnrighteous, till hee giue eury man after his workes, and reward them after their deuiſes, till he haue iudged the cause of his people, and comforted them with his mercie.

19 Oh, howe faire a thing is mercy in the time of anguish and trouble. It is like a cloude of raine, that cometh in the time of a drouth.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 A prayer to God in the person of all faithful men, against those that persecute his church. 22. The praise of a good woman.

H Aue mercy vpo vs, O Lord God of all things, and behold vs, & [shew vs the light of thy mercies.]

2 And sende thy feare || among the nations, which seeke not after thee, [that they may knowe that there is no God but thou, and that they may shew thy wonderous works.]

3 Lift vp thine || hand vpon the strange nations, that they may see thy power.

4 As thou art sanctified in vs before them, so be thou magnified among them before vs.

5 That they may know thee, as we know thee: for there is none other God, but only thou, O Lord.

6 Renew the signes, and change the wonders: shew the glory of thine hand, and thy right armes, that they may shew forth thy wonderous actes.

7 Raise vp thine indignatioⁿ, & poure out wrath: take away the aduersarie, and smite the enimie.

8 Make the time short: remember thine othe, that thy wonderous works may be praised.

9 Let the wrath of the fire consume them that escape, & let the perill that oppresse the people.

10 Smite in funder the heads of the princes that be our enemies, & say, There is none other God but we.

11 Gather al the tribes of Iacob together, [that they may know that there is none other God but only thou, & that they may shew thy wonderous works,] & inherit thou them as fro^m the beginning.

12 O Lord, haue mercy vpon the people, that is called by thy Name, and vpon Israel: * whome thou hast likened to a first borne sonne.

13 Oh, be mercifull vnto Ierusalem the citie of thy Sanctuarie, the citie of thy rest.

14 Fill Sion, that it may magnifie thine oracles, and fill thy people with thy glory.

15 Giue wines vnto those that thou hast possessed from the beginning, & raise vp the prophets that haue bene shewed in thy Name.

16 Rewarde them that w^{ill} be for thee, that thy Prophets may be found faithfull.

17 O Lord, heare the prayer of thy seruants according to y^e blessing of Aaron ouer thy people, [and guide thou vs in the way of righteousness.]

that al they which dwell vpon the earth, may know that thou art the Lord the eternal God.

18 ¶ The belly deuoureth all meates, yet is one meate better then another.

19 As the thore tasteth venison, so doth a wise minde discern falsse wordes.

20 A frowny heart bringeth griefe, but a man of experience will resist it.

21 A woman is apt to receiue every man: yet is one daughter better then another.

22 The beauty of a woman cheereh the face, and a man loneth nothing better.

23 If there be in her tongue gentleness, meeknesse, and wholefome talk, then is not her husband like other men.

24 He that hath gotten a [vertuous] woman, hath begun to get a possession: she is an helpe like vnto house, and a pillar to rest vpon.

25 Where no hedge is, there the possession is spoiled; and he that hath no wife, wandereth to and fro, mourning.

26 Who will trust a theefe that is alway ready and wandereth from town to towne? and likewise him that hath no rest, and logeth, where he the night taketh him?

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 How a man should know friends and companions. 2 To keepe his company that feareth God.

3 Every friend faith, I am a friend vnto him also: but there is some friend, which is only a friend in name.

4 Remaineth there not beuaines vnto death, when a companion and friend is turned to an enemy?

5 O wicked presumption, from whence art thou springing vp to couer the earth with deceit?

6 There is some companion which in prosperity reioyceth with his friend: but in the time of trouble he is against him.

7 There is some companion that helpeth his friend for the bellies sake, & taketh vp the tuckler against the enemy.

8 Forget not thy friend in thy mind, and thinke vpon him in thy riches.

9 Seeke no counsel at him of whom thou art suspected, and disclose not thy counsel vnto such as hate thee.

10 Every counsellor praiseth his own counsel: but there is some that counselleth for himselfe.

11 Beware of the counsellor, & be advised to follow where thou wilt use him: for he will counsel for himselfe, least he call the loss vpon thee.

12 And say vnto thee, Thy way is good, and afterward he stand against thee, and looke what shall become of thee.

13 Alaske no counsel for religion of him, that is without religion; nor of justice, of him that hath no iustice; nor of a woman touching her of who she is honest, nor of a coward in matters of war, nor of a merchant concerning exchange, nor of a buier for the sale, nor of an envious man touching thankfulness, nor of the vniuersall touching kindness, [nor of an vn honest man of honesty, nor of a slothfull for any labour, nor of an hireling for a finishing of a worke, nor of an idle seruant for much business, hearken not vnto thee in any matter of counsel.]

14 But be continuall with a godly man whom thou knowest to keepe the commandments of the Lord; whose mind is according to thy minde, and is try for thee when thou stumblest.

15 Take counsel of thine own heart: for there is no man more faithfull vnto thee, then it.

16 For a mans minde is sometime more accustomed to shew more then seven watchmen that sit about in an he tower.

17 And about all this pray to the most High, that he will direct thy way in truth.

16 Let reason goe before every enterprise, and counsell before every action.

17 The [changing] of the countenance is a signe of the changing of the heart: foure things appeare, good and euill, life and death: but the tongue hath euer more the gouernement ouer them.

18 Some man is witty, and hath instructed many; and yet is vnprofitable vnto himselfe.

19 Some man will be wise in words, and is hated; yea, he is destitute of all good.

20 Because grace is not given him of the Lord: for he is destitute of all wisdom.

21 Another is wise for himselfe, and the fruits of vnderstanding are faithful in his mouth.

22 A wise man is instructed in his people, and the fruits of his wisdom faile not.

23 A wise man shall be plentifully blessed, and all they that see him, shall thinke him blessed.

24 The life of man standeth in the number of dayes: but the dayes of Israel are innumerable.

25 A wise man shall obtaine credite among his people, and his name shall be perpetual.

26 My sonne, proue thy soule in thy life, and see what is euill for it, and permitt it not to doe it.

27 For all things are not profitable for a man; neither hath every soule pleasure in every thing.

28 Be not greedy in all desires, and be not too hasty vpon all meates.

29 For excess of meates bringeth sickness, and gluttonie cometh into cholerike diseases.

30 By forsake haue many perished: but he that dieteth himselfe prolongeth his life.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 A Physicion is commendable. 2 To burne the dead, 3 The wisdom of him that is learned.

4 Honour the Physicion with that honour that is due vnto him, because of necessity: for the Lord hath created him.

5 For of the most High cometh healing, and he shall receiue gifts of the King.

6 The knowledge of the Physicion lieth vp his head, and in the sight of great men he shall be in admiration.

7 The Lord hath created medicines of the earth, and he that is wise, will not abhorre them.

8 Was not the water made sweet with wood, that men might knowe the vertue thereof?

9 So he hath giuen men knowledge, that he might be glorified in his wondrous works.

10 With such doeth he heale men, and taketh away their paines.

11 Of such doeth the Apothecary make a confession, and yet he cannot finish his owne works: for of the Lord cometh prosperitie and wealth ouer all the earth.

12 My sonne, faile not in thy sickness, but pray vnto the Lord, and he will make thee whole.

13 Tesse off from sinne, and order thine hands aright, and cleanse thine heart from all wickednesse.

14 Offer sweete incense, and fine floure for a remembrance: make the offering fat, for thou art not the first offerer.

15 Then giue place to the Physicion: for the Lord hath created him: let him not goe from thee, for thou hast neede of him.

16 The houre may come, that their enterprises may haue good successe.

17 For they also shall pray vnto the Lord, that they may haue good successe.

18 For they also shall pray vnto the Lord, that they may haue good successe.

¶ Of mourning.

16 My sonne, powre forth teares ouer y dead, and begin to mourne, as if thou hadst suffered great harme thy selfe, & then couer thy body according to his appointment, & neglect not his buriall.

¶ Or, for custom.

17 Make a grieuous lamentation, & be earnest in mourning, and vnto lamentation, as he is worthy, and that, a day or two, lest thou be euill spoken of, and then comfort thy selfe for thine heauines.

¶ Prov. 19. 13.

18 * For of heauinesse commeth death, and the heauines of the heart breaketh the strength.

19 Of the affliction of the heart commeth sorrow, and the life of him that is afflicted, is according to his heart.

20 Take no heauines to heart: driue it away and remember the last end.

21 Forget it not: for there is no turning againe: thou shalt doe him no good, but hurt thy selfe.

22 Remember his iudgement: thine also shalt likewise, vnto me yesterday, & vnto thee to day.

¶ 1 Sam. 19. 20.

23 * Seeing the deal is at rest, let his remembrance rest, and comfort thy selfe againe for him, when his spirit is departed from him.

24 ¶ The wisdom of a learned man commeth by vnto well his vacant time: and he that ceaseth from his owne matters and labour, may come by wisdom.

25 How can he get wisdom that holdeth the plough, and he that hath pleasure in the plough, and in diuing oxen, and is occupied in their labours, and talketh but of the breed of bullocks?

26 He giueth his minde to make furrowes, and is diligent to giue the kine fodder.

27 So is it of euery carpenter, and workemaster that laboureth night and day: and they that cut, and graue seales, and make sundry diuicities, and giue themselves to counterfaite imagerie, and watch to performe the worke.

28 The smith in like manner abideth by his anvil, and doeth his diligence to labour the yron: the vapour of the fire drieth his flesh, and hee must fight with the heat of the fornaice: the noyse of the hammer is euer in his eares, and his eyes looke still vpon the thing that hee maketh: hee setteth his mind to make vp his workes: therefore hee watcheth to polish it perfectly.

29 So doeth the potter sit by his work: he turneth the wheele about with his feete: he is carefull alway at his work, & maketh his work by number.

30 He fashioneth the clay with his arme, and with his feete he tempereth the hardnes thereof: his heart imagineth how to couer it with lead, and his diligence is to cleanse the ouen.

31 All these hope in their hands, and euery one bestoweth his wisdom in his worke.

32 Without these cannot the cities be maintained, nor inhabited, nor occupied.

33 And yet they are not asked their iudgement in the counsell of the people, neither are they he in the congregation, neither sitte they vpon the iudgement seates, nor vnderstand the order of iustice: they cannot declare matters according to the forme of the Law, and they are not meete for hard matters.

34 But they mainteine the state of the world, and their desire is concerning their worke and occupation.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 A wise man, in the works of God, his pleasure the good, good things profiteth vnto the soul: good things are end.

HE onely that appeeth his minde to the Law of the most high, and is occupied in the meditation thereof, seeketh out the wisdom of all the ancient, and exerciseth himselfe in the prophecies.

¶ Or, use wisdom.

2 He keepeth the sayings of famous men, and entrench in also to the secrets of darke sentences.

3 He seeketh out the myserie of graue sentences, and exerciseth himselfe in darke parables.

4 He shall serue among great men and appeare before the prince: he shall traueile through strange countries: for he hath tried the good and the euill among men.

5 He will giue his heart to resort earely vnto the Lorde that made him, and to pray before the most High, and will open his mouth in prayer, and pray for his sinnes.

6 When the great Lord will, hee shall be filled with the Spirit of vnderstanding, that hee may powre out wise sentences, and giue thanks vnto the Lord in his prayer.

7 He shall direct his counsell, and knowledge, so shall hee meditate in his secrets.

¶ Or, shall Lord.

8 He shall forth his science and learning, and reioyce in the Lawe and covenant of the Lord.

9 Many shall commend his vnderstanding, and his memorie shall neuer be put out, nor depart away: but his name shall continue from generation to generation.

10 * The congregation shall declare his wisdom, and shew it.

¶ Or, shall it.

11 Though he be dead, he shall leaue a greater fame then a thousand: and if he liue still, hee shall get the fame.

12 Yet will I speake of mee things: for I am full as the moone.

13 Hearken vnto me, ye holy children, & bring forth fruite, as the rose that is planted by the brookes of the field,

14 And giue yea sweete smell as incense, and bring forth flowres as the lily: giue a smell & sing a song of praise: blese the Lord in all his works.

¶ Or, shall.

15 Giue honour vnto his Name, & shew forth his praise with the songs of your lippes, and with harpes, and ye shall say after this manner,

16 * All the works of the Lord are exceeding good, and all his commandements are done in due season.

¶ Or, shall it.

17 And none may say, What is this? wherefore is that? for at time convenient they shall all be fought out: at his commandement the water stood as an heape, and at the word of his mouth the waters gathered themselves.

18 His whole fauour appeared by his commandement, and none can diminish that which he wil giue.

19 The works of all flesh are before him, and nothing can be hid from his eyes.

20 Hee seeth from euertlasting to euertlasting, there is nothing wonderfull vnto him.

21 A man need not to say, What is this? wherefore is that? for he hath made all things for their owne vse.

22 His blessing shall run ouer as the streame, and moisten the earth like a flood.

23 As he hath turned the waters into saltnesse, so shall the heathen feelee his wrath.

24 As his waies are plaine and right vnto the end, so are they stumbling blockes to the wicked.

25 ¶ For the good, are good things created frō
the beginning, and euil things for the sinners.

26 ¶ The principall things for the whole vse of mans life is water, fire, and iron, & salt, and meale, wheat and hony, & milke, the blood of the grape,
and oyle and clothing.

27 All these things are for good to the godly:
but to the sinners they are turned vnto euil.

28 There be spirits y created for vengeance, which in their rigor lay on sure strokes: in y time of destruction they shew forth their power, and accomplish the wrath of him that made them,

29 ¶ Fire and haile, and famine, and death: all these are created for vengeance.

30 The teeth of wild beasts, and the scorpions, and the serpents, & the sword execute vengeance for the destruction of the wicked.

31 They shalbe glad to do his commandments:
and when need is, they shalbe ready vpon earth:
and when their houre is come, they shal not ouer-passe the commandment.

32 Therefore haue I taken a good courage vnto me from the beginning, and haue thought on these things, and haue put them in writing.

33 ¶ All the works of the Lord are good, and he giueth euery one in due season, & when need is:

34 So that for man need not to say, This is worse
the that for in due season they are al worthy praise.

35 And therefore praise the Lord with whole heart & mouth, and blesse the Name of the Lord.

5 Wrath and enuie, trouble and vnquietnesse, and feare of death, and rigor, and strife, & in the time of rest the sleepe in the night vpon his bed, change his knowledge.

6 A little or nothing is his rest, & afterward in sleeping he is as in a watchtower in the day: he is troubled with the visions of his heart, as one that wineth out of a battell.

7 And when al is safe, he awaketh, and marueileth that the feare was nothing.

8 Such things come vnto all flesh, both man & beast, but seven fold to the vngodly:

9 Moreouer, ¶ death and blood, and strife, and sword, oppressiō, famine, destructiō, & punishmēt.

10 These things are al created for the wicked, and for their sakes came the ¶ flood also.

11 ¶ All things that are of the earth, shal turne to earth again: and they that are of the ¶ waters, shal turne into the sea.

12 ¶ All bribes and vnrighteousnesse shal be put away: but iusticiū shal endure for euer.

13 The substance of the vngodly shal be dried vp like a river, and they shall make a sound like a great thunder in the raine.

14 When he openeth his hand, he reioiceth:
but all the transgressors shal come to nought.

15 The children of the vngodly shal not obtaine many branches: for the vnclene rooms are as vpon the high rocks.

16 Their tender stalks by what water soeuer it be or water banke, it shal be pulled vp before al other herbes.

17 ¶ Friendlinesse is a most plentiful garden of pleasure, and mercy endureth for euer.

18 ¶ To labour and to bee content with that a man hath, is a sweete life: but he that findeth a treasure, is aboute them both.

19 Children, and the building of the citie mak-eth a perpetuall name: but an honest woman is counted aboute them both.

20 Wine and musike reioice the heart: but the loue of wisdom is aboute them both.

21 The pipe and the psalterion make a sweete noyse: but a pleasant tongue is aboute them both.

22 Thine eye desireth fauour and beauty: but a greene seede time, rather then them both.

23 A friend, and companion come together at opportunity: but aboute them both is a wife with her husband.

24 Friends & help are good in the time of trouble, but almes shal deliuer more then them both.

25 Gold and siluer fasten the feete: but counsell is esteemed aboute them both.

26 Riches and strength lift vp the mind: but the feare of the Lord is aboute them both: there is no want in the feare of the Lord, and it needeth no helpe.

27 The feare of the Lord is a pleasant garden of blessing, and there is nothing so beautiful as it is.

28 ¶ My sonne, leade not a beggars life: for better it were to die then to beg.

29 The life of him that dependeth on another mans table, is not to be counted for a life: for he tormenteth himselfe after other mens meat: but a wise man & wellnourished, will beware thereof.

30 Begging is sweete in the mouth of the vnthamesfull, and in his belly there burneth a fire.

CHAP. XLI.

1 ¶ Of the remembrance of death. 2 ¶ Death is not to be feared. 3
A curse vpon them that forsake the law of God. 12 ¶ Good name and fame. 13 ¶ An exhortation to giue herde vnto wife dome. 17 ¶ Of what things a man ought to be aftermed.

¶ Death, how bitter is the remembrance of these to a man that lieth at rest in his possessions, vnto the man that hath nothing to vex him, and that hath prosperitie in all things: yea, vnto him that yet is able to receiue meate!

2 O death, how acceptable is thy iudgēt vnto
the needful, & vnto him whose strength faileth, and that is now in the last age, & is vexed with all things, & to him y dispaireth, & hath lost patience!

3 Feare not the iudgment of death: remember the that haue bin before thee, & that come after this is the ordinance of the Lord ouerall flesh.

4 And why wouldst thou be against the pleasure of the most High? whether it be true or an hundred or a thousand yeres, there is no defence for life against the graue.

5 ¶ The children of the vngodly are abominable children, and so are they that keepe compa-nie with the vngodly.

6 The inheritance of vngodly children shal perill, & their posterity shal haue a perpetuall shame.

Xy 2

T The

7 The children complaine of an vngodly father, because they are reproched for his sake.

8 Woe be vnto you, O ye vngodly, which haue forsaken the Law of y most high God: for though you increase yet shall you perish.

9 If ye be borne, ye shall be borne to cursing: if ye die, the curse shall be your portion.

* Chap. 40. 11

10 * Al that is of the earth shall turne to earth againe: so the vngodly goe from the curse to destruction.

11 Though men mourne for their body, yet the wicked name of the vngodly shall be put out.

12 Haue regard to thy name: for that shall continue with thee aboue a thousand treasures of gold.

13 A good life hath the dayes numbered: t it is a good name endureth euer.

A good name.

* Chap. 30. 39

14 My children keepe wisdom in peace: * for wisdom that is hid, & a treasure that is not seene, what profit is in them both?

15 A man that hideth his foolishness, is better then a man that hideth his wisdom.

Of shamefastness.

16 Therefore beare reuerence vnto my words: for it is not good in all things to be shamed: neither are all things allowed as faithfull in all men.

17 Be ashamed of whoredom before father & mother: be ashamed of lies before the prince and men of authority:

18 Of sinne before the Iudge and ruler: of offence before the congregation and people: of vnrigheteousnes before a companion and friend.

19, 18, 18

19 And of theft before the place where thou dwellest, and before the truth of God & his covenant, and to leane with thine elbowes vpon the bread, or to be reprooued for giuing or taking,

20 And of silence vnto them that salute thee, and to looke vpon an harlot,

21 And to turne away thy face from thy kinsman: or to take away a portion or a gift, or to be euil minded towards another mans wife,

22 Or to sollicite any mans maid, or to stand by her bed, or to reproch thy friends with words,

23 Or to vpbraid when thou giest any thing, or to report a matter that thou hast heard, or to reuile secrete words.

24 Thus mayest thou wel be shamefast, & shall finde fauour with all men.

C H A P. XLII.

1 The Law of God must be taught. 9 A daughter, 14 A woman, 18 God knoweth all things: yet, purre the secrets of thine heart.

In what things we ought not to be ashamed.

O F these things be not thou ashamed, neither haue regard to offend for any person:

2 Of the Law of the most High and his covenant, and of iudgement to iustifie the godly:

3 Of the cause of thy companion, and of strangers: or of distributing thy heritage among friends:

4 To be diligent to keepe true balance, and weight, whether thou haue much or little:

5 To sell marchandise at an indifferent price, and to correct thy children diligently, and to beat an euil (rurant to the blood:

6 To set a good locke where an euill wife is, & to locke where many hands are:

7 If thou giue any thing by number, & weight to put al in writing, both that that is giuen out, & that that is receiued againe:

8 To teach the vnlearned, & the vniue, & the aged, that cōtend aginst the yong: thus shalt thou be wel instructed, and approved of all men liuing.

10, 9, 10, 10

9 * The daughter shall maketh the father to watch secretly, and the carefulnes that he hath for her,

taken away his sleepe in youth, lest she should passe the flower of her age: and when she hath an husband least shee should be hated:

10 In her virginite, least she should be defiled, or gotten with child in her fathers house, & when she is with her husband, lest the misbetraue herself: & when she is married, lest she continue vnfruitful.

11 * If thy daughter be vnshamefast, keepe her straightly, lest the cause thine enemies to laugh thee to scorne, and make thee a common tale in the cite, and defame thee among the people, and bring thee to publicke shame.

12 * Behold not euery bodys beauty, and companion not among women.

13 For as the moth commeth out of garments: so doeth wickednes of the woman.

14 The wickednes of a man is better then the good intreatie of a woman, to wit, of a woman that is in shame and reproche.

15 * I will remember the works of the Lord, & declare the thing that I hate: senceby the word of the Lord are his works.

16 The sun y thineth, lookeh vpon al things, & al the worke therof is full of y glory of the Lord.

17 Hath not the Lord appointed that his Saines should declare al his wondrous works, which the almighty Lord hath stablished to cōfirm al things by in his maiestie?

18 He seeketh out the depth, & the heart, & he knoweth their practises: for the Lord knoweth all science, & he beholdeth the signes of the world.

19 He declareth the things that are past, and for to come, and discloseth the pates of things that are secrete.

20 * No thought may escape him, neither may any word be hid from him.

21 He hath garnished the excellent works of his wisdom, and he is from euertlasting to euertlasting, & for euer vnto him may nothing be added, neither can he be diminished: he hath no need of any counsellor.

22 Oh, how delectable are all his works, and to be considered euen vnto the sparks of fire!

23 They liue all, and endure for euer: and whensoever need is, they are all obedient.

24 They are double, one againt another: he hath made nothing that hath any fault.

25 The one commendeth the goodness of the other, and who can be satisfied with beholding Gods glory?

10, 11, 11, 11

C H A P. XLIII.

The summe of the creation of the world of God.

T His be ornament: the cleere firmament, the beauty of the heauen so glorious to behold,

2 The Sun also a marvellous instrument when it appeareth, it declareth, at his going out, the work of the most High.

3 At noone it burneth the countrey, and who may abide for the heate thereof?

4 The sunne burneth the mountaines three times more then hee that keepeth a furnace with continuall heate: it casteth out the fire vapours, and with the shining beames blindeth the eyes.

5 Great is the Lord that made it, and by his commandement he caused it to runne hastily.

6 * The moone also hath he made to appeare according to her season, that it should be a declaration of the time, and a signe for the world.

7 * The feasts are appointed by the moone: the light thereof diminisheth vnto the end.

11, 11, 11, 11

8 The

8 The moneth is called after the name thereof, and groweth wonderfully in her changing.

9 It is a campe pitched on high, shining in the firmament of heauen: the beautes of heauen are the glorious starres, and the ornament that shineth in the high places of the Lord.

10 By the commandement of ¶ Holy one they continue in their order, & faile not in their watch.

11 ¶ Look vpon the raine: owe, and praise him that made it: very beautifull it is in the brightness thereof.

12 ¶ It compasseth the heauen about with a glorious circle, and the handes of the most high haue bended it.

13 ¶ Through his commandement he maketh the snowe to halle, and sendeth swiftly the lighting of his iudgement.

14 Therefore he openeth his treasures, and the clouds flie forth as the fowles.

15 In his power hath hee strengthened the clouds, and broken the hailestones.

16 The mountains leap at the sight of him: the South wind bloweth according to his will.

17 The found of his thunder beareth the earth: so doth the storme of the North: the whirlwind also, as birds that flie, scattereth the snowe, and the falling downe thereof is as the grathoppers that light downe.

18 The eye maruileth at the beautes of the whitenesse thereof, and the heart is astonied at the raine of it.

19 Hee also powreth out the frost vpon the earth like salt, and when it is frozen, it sticketh on the tops of pales.

20 When the cold Northwinde bloweth, an yet is frozen of the water, it abideth vpon all the gatheringes together of water, and clootheth the waters as with a brestplate.

21 It deuoureth the mountains, & burneth the wilderness, & destroierth that that is green, like fire.

22 The remedie of all these is when a cloude commeth hastily, and when a dewe commeth vpon the heate, it refresheth it.

23 [By his worde he stilleth the winde] by his counsell hee appeareth the deepe, and plungeth ylands therein.

24 They that faile ouer the sea tell of the perils thereof, and when we heare it with our eares, we maruile thereat.

25 For there be strange and wonderous works, diuers maner of beaues, and the creation of whales.

26 Through him are all things directed to a good end, and are established by his word.

27 And when we haue spoken much, we cannot attaine vnto them: but this is the summe of all, that he is all.

28 What power haue we to praise him? for he is aboute all his works.

29 The Lord is terrible, and very * great, and maruillous is his power.

30 Praise the Lord, and magnifie him as much as ye can, yet dooth hee farre exceede: exalt him with all your power, and be not wearie, yet can ye not attaine vnto it.

31 * Who hath seene him, that he might tel vs? and who can magnifie him as he is?

32 For there are hidde yet greater things then these be, & we haue seene but a few of his works.

33 For the Lord hath made all things, and giueth wisdom to such as feare God.

The praise of our sainte holy man, Enoch, Noe, Ardam, Iaac, and Iacob.

Let vs now commend the famous men, and our fathers of whom we are begotten.

2 The Lord hath gotten great glory by them, & that through his great power from the beginning.

3 They haue borne rule in their kingdomes, and were renowned for their power, and were wise in counsell, and declared prophecies.

4 * They governed the people by counsell and by the knowledge of learning meet for the people, in whose doctrine were wise sentences.

5 They inuented the melody of musick, and expounded the verses that were written.

6 They were rich and mighty in power, and liued quietly at home.

7 All these were honourable men in their generations, & were wel reported of in their times.

8 There are of them that haue left a name behind them, so that their praise shalbe spoken of.

9 There are some also which haue no memorial, * and are perished as though they had neuer bene, and are become, as though they had neuer bene borne, and their children after them.

10 But the former were mercifull men, whose righteousnesse hath not bene forgotten.

11 For whose posterity a good inheritance is reserved, and their seed is contained in the couenant.

12 Their stocke is conieined in the couenant, and their posteritie after them.

13 Their seedes shal remaine for euer, and their praise shal neuer be taken away.

14 Their bodies are buried in peace, but their name liueth for euer more.

15 * The people speake of their wisdom, and the congregation talke of their praise.

16 ¶ Enoch pleased the Lord God: therefore was he translated for an example of repentance to the generations.

17 ¶ * Noe was found perfit, and in the time of wrath he had a reward: therefore was he left as a remnant vnto the earth, when the flood came.

18 An euerlasting couenant was made with him, that all flesh should * perih no more by the flood.

19 ¶ Abraham was a * great father of many people: in glory was there none like vnto him.

20 He kept the Law of the most High, and was in couenant with him, & he set the couenant * in his flesh, and in tentation he was found faithfull.

21 Therefore he assured him by an * othe, that he would blesse the nations in his seede, & that he would multiply him as the dust of the earth, and exalt his seede as the starres, and cause them to inherit from sea to sea, and from the Riuer vnto the end of the world.

22 * With ¶ Iaac did he confirme likewise for Abraham his fathers sake, the blessing of all men, and the couenant.

23 And caused it to rest vpon the head of ¶ Iacob, and ¶ made himself known by his blessings, and gaue him an heritage, and diuided his portions, * and parted them among the twelue tribes.

24 And hee brought out of him a ¶ mercifull man, which found fauour in the sight of all flesh.

C H A P. XLV.

The praise of Moyses, Aaron, and Pharo.

And ¶ Moyses, the * beloued of God and men, brengeth he forth, whose remembrance is blessed.

princes our his people.

14 By the Law of the Lord he iudged the congregation, and the Lord had respect vnto Iacob.

15 This prophet was approued for his faithfulness, and he was knowne faithfull in his words and visions.

16 *He called vpon the Lord Almighty, when his enemies pressed vpon him on euery side, when he offered the sucking lambe.

17 And the Lord thundred from heauen, and made his voice to be heard with a great noyse.

18 So he despoiled the princes of the Tyrians, and all the rulers of the Philistines.

19 *And before his long sleepe he made protestation in the sight of the Lord, and his anointed, that he tooke no substance of any man, no nor so much as a shooe, and no man could accuse him.

20 *After his sleepe also he tolde of the kings death, and from the earth lift he vp his voice, and prophesied that the wickednesse of the people should perish.

CHAP. XLVII.

The praise of Nathan, Dauid and Salomon.

After him rose vp Nathan to prophesie in the time of Dauid.

2 For as the fat is taken away from the peace offering, so was Dauid chosen out of the children of Israel.

3 *He played with the lions, as with kids, and with beares, as with lambes.

4 *Slew he not a gyant when he was yet but yong, and tooke away the rebuke fro the people, when he lift vp his hand with the stone in the sling, to beate downe the pride of Goli?

5 For he called vpon the most high Lord, which gaue him strenght in his right hand, to slay that mighty warrior, and that he might set vp the home of his people againe.

6 *So he gaue him the praise of ten thousand, and honoured him with great praises, and gaue him a crowne of glory.

7 *For he destroyed the enemies on euery side and rooted out the Philistines his aduersaries, and brake their home in sunder vnto this day.

8 In all his works he praised the Holy one, and the most High with honourable words, and with his whole heart he sung songs, and loued him made him.

9 *He set fingers also before the altar, and according to their tune he made sweete songs, that they might praise God daily with their songs.

10 He ordeined to keepe the feast daies comely, and appointed the times perfectly, that they might praise the holy Name of God, and make the Temple to sound in the morning.

11 *The Lord tooke away his finnes, and exalted his home for euer: he gaue him the couenant of the kingdom, & the throne of glory in Israel.

12 After him rose vp a wise woman, who by him dwelt in a large possession.

13 Salomon reigned in a peaceable time, & was glorious: for God made quiet round about, that he might build an house in his Name, & prepare the Sanctuary for euer.

14 *How wise wast thou in thy youth, and wast filled with vnderstanding as with a flood!

15 Thy mind couered the whole earth, & hast filled it with graue and darke sentences.

16 Thy Name went abroad in the yles, & for thy peace thou wast beloued.

17 *The countries marvelled at thee for thy songs, & proverbes, & similitudes, & interpretations.

18 By the Name of the Lord God, which is called the God of Israel, thou hast gathered gold as King 10. 27. time, and hast had as much silver as lead.

19 *Thou diddest bow thy loynes to women, and wast overcome by thy body.

20 Thou diddest staine thine honour, and hast defiled thy posteritie, and hast brought wrath vpon thy children, and hast felt sorowe for thy follie.

21 *So the kingdom was deuided, & Ephraim began to be a rebellious kingdom.

22 *Neither helpe the Lord left not off his mercy, neither was he destroyed for his works, neither did he abolish posteriority of his elect, nor tooke away the seed of him that loued him, but he left a remnant vnto Iacob, and a roote of him vnto Dauid.

23 Thus rested Salomon with his fathers, & of his seed he left behind him Roboam, euen the foolishnes of the people, and one that had no vnderstanding, *who turned away people through his counsell, and Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, *which caused Israel to sin, and shewed Ephraim the way of sinne,

24 So that their finnes were so much increased, that they were diuen out of the land.

25 For they fought out all wickednes, till the vengeance came vpon them.

CHAP. XLVIII.

The praise of Elias, Elisha, and Joram.

Then floode vp Elias the Prophet as a fire, & his word burnt like a lamp.

2 He brought a famine vpon them, and by his zeale he diminished them: [for they might not away with the commandements of the Lord.]

3 By the word of the Lord he shut the heauen *and three times brought he the fire fro heauen,

4 O Elias, how honorable art thou by thy wondrous deeds! who may make his ost to be like thee!

5 *Which hast raised vp the dead fro death, & by the word of the most High out of the graue:

6 Which hast brought Kings vnto destruction, and the honorable from their seate:

7 Which heardest the rebuke of the Lord in Sinai, *and in Horeb the iudgment of the vengeance:

8 *Which daddest anoint Kings that they might grecome, and Prophets to be thy successors:

9 *Which wast taken vp in a whirle winde of fire, and in a chariot of fierie horses:

10 Which wast appointed *to reprove in due season, and to pacifie the wrath of the Lords iudgment before it kindled, and to turne the hearts of the fathers vnto children, & to set vp the tribes of Israel.

11 Blessed were they that saw thee, and slept in loue: for we shall line.

12 *When Elias was couered with the storme, Elisha was filled with his spirit: while he liued, he was not moued for any prince, neither could any bring him into subiection.

13 Nothing could overcome him, *and after his death his body prophesied.

14 He did wonders in his life, and in death were his works marueilous.

15 For altho the people repented not, neither departed they from their finnes: *till they were carried away prisoners out of their land, & were scattered through all the earth, so that there remained but a very few people with the prince vnto the house of Dauid.

high with prayer before him that is mercifull, till the honour of the Lord were performed, and they had accomplished his seruice.

20 Then went he downe and stretched out his hands ouer the whole congregation of 3 children of Israel, that they should giue praise with their lips vnto the Lord, and reioyce in his name.

21 He began againe to worship, that he might receiue the blessing of the most High.

22 Now therefore giue praise all ye vnto God that worketh great things euery where, which hath increased our dayes from the wombe, and dealt with vs according to his mercy,

23 That he would giue vs ioyfulness of heart, and peace in our dayes in Israel, as in old time,

24 That he would confirme his mercie with vs, and deliuer vs at his time.

25 ¶ There be two maner of people that mine heart abhorreth, and the third is no people:

26 They that sit vpon the mountaine of Samaria, the Philistines, and the foolish people that dwell in Sicius.

27 ¶ Iesus the sonne of Syrach, the sonne of Eleazar of Ierusalem, hath written the doctrine of vnderstanding and knowledge in this booke, and hath powred out the wisdom of his heart.

28 Blessed is he that exerciseth himselfe therein: and he that laith vp these in his heart, shall be wise.

29 For if he do these things, he shall be strong in all things: for he stretch his steps in the light of the Lord, which giueth wisdom to the godly. The Lord be praised for euermore. So be it, so be it.

CHAP. II.

A prayer of Iesus the sonne of Syrach.

¶ I Will confesse thee, O Lord and Kings, & praise thee, O God, my sauour: I will giue thanks vnto thy name.

1 For thou art my defender & helper, and hast preferred my body from destruction, and from the snare of the slanderous tongue, and from the lips that are occupied with lies: thou hast holpen me against mine aduersaries,

2 And hast deliuered me according to thy multitude of thy mercy, and for thy Names sake, from the roaring of them that were ready to deuoure me, & out of the hands of such as sought after my life, and from the manifold afflictions, which I had,

3 And from the fire that choked me round about, & from the mids of the fire that I burned not,

4 And from the bottome of the belly of hell, from an vnquiet tongue, from lying words, from false accusation to the King, and from the slander of an vnrighteous tongue.

5 [My soule shall praise the Lord vnto death:] for my soule drew neere vnto death: my life was neere to the hell beneath.

7 They compassed me on euery side, and there was no man to help me: I looked for the succour of men, but there was none.

8 Then thought I vpon thy mercie, O Lord, and vpon thine actes of olde, how thou deliuerest such as waite for thee, and sauest them out of the hands of the enemies.

9 Then lifted I vp my prayer from the earth, and prayed for deliuerance from death.

10 I called vpon the Lord the Father of my Lord, that he would not leaue me in the day of my trouble, & in the time of the need without helpe.

11 I will praise thy Name continually, and will sing praise wth thanksgiving: & my prayer was heard.

12 Thou haucdst me from destruction, and deliuerdst me from the euill time: therefore will I giue thanks and praise thee, and blesse the Name of the Lord.

13 When I was yet yong, or cuer I went abroad, I desired wisdom openly in my prayer.

14 I praised for her before the Temple, & sought after her vnto farr countries, & she was as a grape that waxeth ripe out of the flower.

15 Mine heart reioycied in her: my foote walked in the right way, & from my youth vp sought I after her.

16 I bowed somewhat downe mine eare, and receiued her, and gave me much wisdom:

17 And I profited by her: therefore wil I ascribe the glory vnto him, that giueth me wisdom.

18 For I am aduised to doe thereafter: I will be iolous of that that is good: so shall I not be confounded.

19 My soule hath wrestled with her, and I haue examined my workes: I lifted vp mine hands on hie, and considered the ignorances thereof.

20 I directed my soule vnto her, & I found her in purenesse: I haue had my heart ioyned with her from the beginning: therefore shall I not be forsaken.

21 My bowels are troubled in seeking her: therefore haue I gotten a good possession.

22 The Lord hath giuen me a tongue for my reward, wherewith I will praise him.

23 Draw neere vnto me, ye vnlearned, & dwell in the house of learning.

24 Wherefore are ye slow? and what say you of these things, seeing your soules are very thirsty?

25 I opened my mouth, and said, Buy her for you without money.

26 Bow downe your necke vnder the yoke, & your soule shall receiue instruction: she is ready that ye may find her.

27 Behold with your eyes, how that I haue had but little labour, and haue gotten vnto mee much rest.

28 Get learning with a great summe of money: for by her ye shall possesse much gold.

29 Let you: soule reioyce in the mercy of the Lord, and be not ashamed of his praise.

30 Doe your dutie betimes, and hee will giue you a reward at his time.

BARUCH.

CHAP. I.

¶ Baruch wrote a booke during the captiuitie of Babylon, which he read before Jeremias and all the people. 10 The Jewes first the booke with many waies Ierusalem to their owne destruction, to the intent that they should pray for them.

¶ Neither are the wordes of the booke, which Baruch the sonne of Nerias, the sonne of Masias, the sonne of Sedecias, the sonne of Iuladiaz, the sonne of Hel-ias wrote in at Babylon,

2 In the fift yeere, and in the seuenth day of the moneth, what time as the Chaldeans took Ierusalem, and burnt it with fire.

3 And Baruch did read the wordes of this booke, that Techonias the sonne of Ioacim king of Iuda might heare, and all the people that were come to heare the booke,

4 And

4 And in the audience of the gouernour, & of the Kings sonnes, and before the Elders, & before the whole people, from the lowest vnto the highest, before all them that dwelt at Babylon by the river Iſſud.

5 Which when they heard it, wept, fasted, and made prayers before the Lord.

6 They made a collection also of money, according to euery mans power,

7 And sent it to Ierusalem vnto Ioachim the sonne of Helcias the sonne of Salom priest, and vnto the other priests, and to all the people which were with him at Ierusalem,

8 When he had receiued y vessels of the Tēple of the Lord, y were taken away out of y Tēple, to bring the againe into y land of Iuda, y tenth day of the moneth of Sivan, 10 was silver vessels, which Sedecias the sonne of Iosias King of Iuda had made,

9 After that Nabuchodonosor King of Babylon hadled away Ieconias from Ierusalem, & his princes, and his nobles, prisoners, and the people, and caryed them to Babylon.

10 And they sayd, Behold, we haue sent you money, wherewith ye shall buy burnt offerings for sinne, and incense, and prepare aymeat offering, and offer vpon the altar of the Lord our God,

11 And pray for the life of Nabuchodonosor King of Babylon, and for the life of Baltasar his sonne, that their daies may be vpon earth, as the dayes of heauen,

12 And that God would giue vs strength and lighten our eyes, that we may liue vnder the shadow of Nabuchodonosor King of Babylon, & vnder the shadow of Baltasar his sonne, that we may long do them seruice, & find fauour in their sight.

13 Pray for vs also vnto the Lord our God, (for we haue sinned against the Lord our God, and vnto this day the fury of the Lord and his wrath is not turned from vs.)

14 And reade this booke (which we haue sent to you to be reherald in the Temple of the Lord) vpon the feast daies, and at time conuenient.

15 Thus shal ye say, * To the Lord our God belongeth righteousnes, but vnto vs the confusion of our faces, as it is come to passe this day vnto the of Iuda, and to the inhabitants of Ierusalem,

16 And to our Kings, and to our Princes, & to our Priests, and to our Prophets, & to our fathers,

17 Because we haue * sinned before the Lorde our God,

18 And haue not obied him, neither hearkened vnto the voice of the Lord our God, to walke in the commandements that he gaue vs openly.

19 From y day that the Lord brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, euen vnto this day, we haue bene disobediet vnto the Lord our God, and we haue bene negligent to heare his voice.

20 * Wherefore these plagues are come vpo vs, and the curse which the Lord appointed by Moses his seruant at the time that he brought our fathers out of y land of Egypt, to giue vs a land that floweth with milke & hony, as appeareth this day.

21 Neuerthelesse, we haue not hearkened vnto the voice of the Lord our God, according to all y words of the Prophets, whom he sent vnto vs.

22 But euery one of vs followed y wicked imagination of his owne heart, to serue strange gods, and to do euil in the sight of the Lord our God.

C H A P. II.

1. The Trues confesse that he suffer ingly for their sinnes. The some confesse of the Christian. 10 The Trues desire to know the wrath of God turned from them. 22 He promitteth that he will call againe the people from captiuitie, and giue them a new and euerglasting Testament.

Therefore the Lord our God hath performed his word, which he pronioiced against vs, and against our iudges that gouerned Israel, & against our Kings, and against our princes, and against the men of Israel and Iuda,

2 To bring vpon vs great plagues, such as neuer came to passe vnder the whole heauen, as they that were done in Ierusalem, according to things that were * written in the Law of Moyses,

3 That some among vs should eat y flesh of his own sonne, & some the flesh of his own daughter,

4 Moreouer, he hath deliuered the to be in subiection to all the kingdomes, that are round about vs, to bee as a reproch and desolation among all the people round about whome the Lorde hath scattered them.

5 Thus they are brought beneath and not aboue, because wee haue sinned against the Lord our God, and haue not heard his voice.

6 * To the Lord our God aspertaineth righte-ousnes, but vnto vs and to our fathers open shame, as appeareth this day.

7 For all these plagues are come vpon vs, which the Lord hath pronounced against vs.

8 Yet haue wee not prayed before the Lorde, that we might turne euery one from the imagnations of his owne wicked heart.

9 So the Lord hath watched ouer the plagues, and the Lord hath brought them vpon vs: for the Lord is righteous in all his works, which he hath commanded vs.

10 Yet we haue not hearkened vnto his voice, to walke in the commandements of the Lord that he hath giuen vnto vs.

11 * And now, O Lord God of Israel, that hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and an hie arme, & with signes, and with wonders, and with great power, and hast gotten thy selfe a Name, as appeareth this day,

12 O Lord our God, we haue sinned: we haue done wickedly: we haue offended in all thine ordinances.

13 Let thy wrath turne from vs: for we are but a fewe left among the heathen, where thou hast scattered vs.

14 Heare our prayers, O Lord, and our petitions, and deliuer vs for thine owne sake, and giue vs fauour in the sight of thee, which haue led vs away.

15 That all the earth may know that thou art the Lord our God, and that thy Name is called vpon Israel and vpon their posteritie.

16 Therefore looke downe from thine holie Temple and thinke vpon vs: enclie thine care, O Lord, and heare vs.

17 * Open thine eyes, and behold: for the dead that are in the graues, and whose soules are out of their bodies, * giue vnto the Lord neither praise, nor righteousnes.

18 But the soule that is vexed for the greatest of sinne, and he that goeth crookedly, and weakly, and the eyes that faile, and the hungrie soule will giue thee praise and righteousnes, O Lord.

19 For we doe not require mercie in thy sight, O Lord our God, for the righteousnes of our fathers, or of our Kings, indignation vpon vs, as thou hast spoken by thy seruants the Prophets, saying,

21 Thus saith the Lord, Bowe downe your Shoulders, & serue the King of Babylon: so shal ye remaine in the land that I gaue vnto your fathers.

22 But if yee will not heare the voyce of the Lord, to serue the King of Babylon,

23 I wil cause to cease in the cities of Iuda, and in Ierusalem, I will cause to cease the voyce of mirth, and the voyce of ioy, and the voyce of the bridegrome, and the voyce of the bride, and the land shall be desolate of inhabitants.

24 But we would not hearken vnto thy voyce, to serue the King of Babylon: therefore hast thou performed the words that thou spakest by thy seruants the Prophets: namely, that the bones of our Kings, and the bones of our fathers should be carried out of their places.

25 And lo, they are cast out to the heate of the day, and to the colde of the night, and are dead in great miserie with famine, and with the sword, and in banishment.

26 And the Temple wherein thy Name was called vpon, thou hast brought to the state, as appeareth this day, for the wickednesse of the house of Israel, and the house of Iuda.

27 O Lord our God, thou hast intreated vs, according to equitie, and according to all thy great mercie,

28 As thou spakest by thy seruant Moyses, in the day when thou diddest command him to write thy Law before the children of Israel, saying,

29 If ye will not obey my voyce, then shall this great swarme and multitude be turned into a very few among the nations where I will scatter them.

30 For I know that they will not heare me: for it is a stiffnecked people: but in the land of their captiuitie they shall remember themselves,

31 And know that I am I Lord their God: then will I giue them an heart to vnderstand, & cares.

32 And they shall heare, and praise me in the land of their captiuitie, & thinke vpon my Name.

33 Then shal they turne them from their hard backs, and from their euill works: for they shall remember the way of their fathers, which sinned before the Lord.

34 And I will bring them againe into the land, which I promised with an othe vnto their fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Iacob, and they shal be lords of it: and I will increase them, and they shal not be diminished.

35 And I will make an euertlasting couenant with them, that I will be their God, and they shall be my people: and I will no more drie my people of Israel out of the land that I haue giuen them.

C H A P. III.

1 The people continueth in their prayer begetts for their deliuerance. 2 He proueth wisdom vnto the people, shewing, that so great aduantage cometh vnto them for the desiring thereof. 36 Only God was the fader of wisdom. 37 Of the incarnation of Christ.

O Lorde Almightye, O God of Israel, the foule that is in trouble, and the spirit that is vexed, cryeth vnto thee.

2 Heare, O Lord, and haue mercy: for thou art mercifull, and haue pite vpon vs, because we haue sinned before thee.

3 For thou endurest for euer, & we vterly perishe

4 O Lorde Almightye, the God of Israel, heare now the prayer of the dead Israelites, and of their children, which haue sinned before thee, and not hearkened vnto the voyce of thee their God, wherefore these plagues hang vpon vs.

5 Remember not the wickednesse of our fathers, but thinke vpon thy power, and thy Name at this time.

6 For thou art the Lord our God, and thee, O Lord, will we praise,

7 And for this cause hast thou put thy feare in our hearts, that we should call vpon thy Name, and praise thee in our captiuitie: for we haue considered in our minds all the wickednes of our fathers, that sinned before thee.

8 Behold, we are yet this day in our captiuitie, where thou hast scattered vs, to be a reproch and a curse, and subiect to painments, according to all the iniuries of our fathers, which are departed from the Lord their God.

9 O Israel, heare y commandmēt of life: hearken vnto them, that thou maiest learne wisdom.

10 What is the cause, O Israel, that thou art in thine enemies land, and art waxen old in a strange countrey?

11 And art desiled with the dead? & art counted with them, that goe downe to the graues?

12 Thou hast forsaken y fountain of wisdom.

13 For if thou hadst walked in the way of God, thou shouldst haue remained safe for euer.

14 Learne where is wisdom, where is strength, where is vnderstanding, that thou maist know also from whence cometh long continuance, and life, and where the light of the eyes, and peace is.

15 Who hath found out her place: for who hath come into her treasures?

16 Where are the princes of the heathen, and such as ruled the beasts vpon the earth?

17 They that had their pasture with the foules of the heauen, y boarded vp silver & gold, wherein men trust, & made none end of their gathering?

18 For they y coined silver, & were lo carefull of their worke, & whose instruction had none end, 19 Are come to nought, & gone down to hell, and other men are come vp in their steads.

20 When they were yong, they saw the light, and dwelt vpon the earth: but they vnderstood not the way of knowledge,

21 Neither perceued the pathes thereof, neither haue their children receiued it: but they were farre off from that way.

22 It hath not bin heard of in the land of Chanaan, neither hath it bene seene in Theman,

23 Nor the Agarines y sought after wisdom vpon the earth, nor the marchants of Nerran, & of Theman, nor y expoulers of fables, nor y searchers out of wisdom haue known the way of wisdom, neither doe they thinke vpon the pathes thereof.

24 O Israel, how great is the house of God: and how large is the place of his possession!

25 It is great, and hath none end: it is hie, and vnmeasurable.

26 There were the gyants, famous from the beginning, that were of so great stature, and so expert in warre.

27 Those did not the Lord chuse, neither gaue he the way of knowledge vnto them.

28 But they were destroyed, because they had no wisdom, & perished through their own foolishnes.

29 Who hath gone vp into heauen, to take her, and brought her down from the cloudes?

30 Who hath gone out the sea to finde her, and hath brought her, rather then fine golde?

31 No man knoweth her wayes, neither considereth her paths.

32 But he that knoweth all things, knoweth her, and he hath found her out with his vnderstanding: this same is hee which hath prepared the earth for euermore, & hath filled it wth foure footed beastes.

33 When he sendeth out the light, it goeth: and when he calleth it againe, it obeyeth him wth feare.

34 And the starres shine in their watch, and reioyce. When he calleth them, they say, Here we be: and so with cheerefulness they shewe light vnto him that made them,

35 This is our God, and there shall none other be compared vnto him.

36 Hee hath found out all the way of knowledge, and hath giuen it vnto Iakob his seruant, and to Israel his beloved.

37 Afterward hee was seene vpon earth, and dwelt among men.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The reward of them that keep the Lawes, and the punishment of them that despise it. 2 A comforting of the people being in captiuitie. 3 A complaint of Ierusalem, and vnder the figure thereof of the Church. 25 A consolation and comforting of the same.

THis is the booke of the commandements of God, and the Law that endureth for euer: all they that keepe it, shall come to life: but such as forsake it, shall die.

1 Turne thee, O Iacob, and take holde of it: walke by this brightnesse before the light thereof.

2 Giue not thine honour to another, nor the things y^e are profitable vnto thee, to a strange nation.

3 O Israel, we are blessed: for the things that are acceptable vnto God, are declared vnto vs.

4 Be of good comfort, O my people, which art the memorial of Israel.

5 Ye are folde to the nations, not for your destruction: but because ye prouoked God to wrath, ye were deliuered vnto the enemies.

6 For ye haue displeased him that made you, offering vnto deuils, and not to God.

7 Yee haue forgotten him that created you, euen the euerslasting God, and yee haue grieved Ierusalem, that nourished you.

8 When the saw y^e wrath comming vpon you from God, she said, Hearek^e, y^e that dwell about Sion: for God hath brought me into great heauines.

9 Lste the captiuitie of my sonnes & daughters, which the Euerslasting will bring vpon them.

10 With ioy did I nourish them, but I must leaue them with weeping and mourning.

11 Let no man reioyce ouer me a widow, and forsaken of many, which for the finnes of my children am desolate, because they departed from the Law of God.

12 They would not know his righteousness, nor walke in the way of his commandements: neither did they enter into the pathes of discipline, through his righteousness.

13 Come, y^e that dwell about Sion, and call to remembrance the captiuitie of my sonnes & daughters, which y^e Euerslasting hath brought vpon them.

14 For hee hath brought vpon them a nation from farre, an impudent nation, and of a strange language.

15 Which neither reuerence the aged, nor pitty the yong: thefe haue caried away the deare beloved of the widowes, leauing me alone, and destitute of my daughters.

16 But what can I helpe you?

18 Surely he that hath brought these plagues vpon you, can deliuer you from the hands of your enemies.

19 Go your way, O children, go your way: for I am left desolate.

20 I haue put off the clothing of peace, & put vpon me the sackcloth of prayer, and so long as I liue, I will call vpon the Euerslasting.

21 Be of good comfort, O children: the Lord God, and he will deliuer you from the power, and hand of the enemies.

22 For I haue hope of your saluation through the Euerslasting, and ioy is come vpo me from the Holy one, because of the mercy which shal quickly come vnto you from our Euerslasting Saviour.

23 For I sent you away with weeping, & mourning: but with ioy and perpetual gladnes will God bring you againe vnto me.

24 Like as now y^e neighbours of Sion saw your captiuitie, so shal they also see shortly your saluation from God, which shall come vnto you with great glory and brightnesse from the Euerslasting.

25 My children, suffer patiently the wrath that is come vpo you from God: for thine enemy hath persecuted thee, but shortly thou shalt see his destruction, and shalt treade vpon his necke.

26 My darlings haue gone by rough wayes, & were led away as a flocke: that is scattered by the enemies.

27 Be of good comfort, my children, and crie vnto God: for hee that led you away, hath you in remembrance.

28 And as it came into your mind to go astray from your God, so endeavour your selues tenne times more, to turne againe and to seeke him.

29 For he that hath brought these plagues vpon you, will bring you euerslasting ioy againe, with your saluation.

30 Take a good heart, O Ierusalem: for hee which gaue thee that name, wil comfort thee.

31 They are miserable that afflict thee, and such as reioyce at thy fall.

32 The cities are miserable whom thy children serue: miserable is she that hath taken thy sonnes.

33 For as she reioiced at thy decay, & was glad of thy fall, so shal she be sorry for her own destruction.

34 For I will take away y^e reioicing of her great multitude, & her ioy shal be turned into mourning.

35 For a fire shall come vpon her from the Euerslasting, long to endure, and she shall be inhabited of deuils for a great season.

36 O Ierusalem, look toward y^e East, & behold the ioy that cometh vnto thee from thy God.

37 Lo, thy sonnes (whom thou hast let go) come gathered together from the East vnto the West, reioicing in the word of the Holy one vnto the honour of God.

CHAP. V.

1 An admonition vnto the people, for the returne of her people, and vnder the figure thereof of the Church.

Put off thy mourning clothes, O Ierusalem, and thine affliction, and decke thee with the worship and honour, that cometh vnto thee from God, for euermore.

2 Put on the garment of righteousness, that cometh from God, and set a crown vpon thine head of the glory of the Euerslasting.

3 For God will declare thy brightnes to every countrey vnder the heauen.

4 And God will name thee by this name for euer.

lent, The peace of righteousness, and the glory of the worship of God.

5 Arise, O Ierusalem, and stand vp on hie, and looke about thee toward the East, and behold thy children gathered from the East vnto the West by the word of the holy one, reioicing in the remembrance of God.

6 For they departed from thee on foote, and were led away by their enemies: but God will bring them againe vnto thee, exalted in glory, as children of the kingdom.

7 For God hath determined to bring downe every high mountain, & the long enduring rocks, and to fill the valleys, to make the ground plaine, that Israel may walke safely vnto the honor of God.

8 The woods and all sweete smelling trees shall ouershadow Israel at the commandement of God.

9 For God shall bring Israel with ioy in the light of his maiestie, with the mercie and righteousness that cometh of him.

CHAP. VI.

A COPY OF THE EPISTLE THAT

Ieremias sent vnto them that were led away captiues into Babylon by the King of the Babylonians, to certifie them of the thing that was commanded him of God.

Behold of the finnes, that ye haue committed against God, ye shall be led away captiues vnto Babylon, by Nabuchodonosor, King of the Babylonians.

3 So when ye be come into Babylon, ye shall remaine there many yeres, and a long season, euery seven generations, and after that will I bring you away peaceably from thence.

4 Now shall ye see in Babylon gods of siluer, and of gold, & of wood, borne vpon mens shoulders, to cause the people to feare.

5 Beware therefore that ye in no wise be like the strangers, neither be ye afraid of them, when ye see the multitude before them and behind them worshipping them.

6 But say ye in your hearts, O Lord, wee must worship thee.

7 For mine Angel shall be with you, and shall care for your soules.

8 As for their tongue, it is polished by the carver, and they themselves are gilted, & laid ouer with filuer: yet are they but lies, & cannot speake.

9 And as they take gold for a maide that loveth to be deckt,

10 So make they crownes for the heads of their gods: sometimes also the Priests themselves couey away the gold, and siluer from their Gods, and bestow it vpon themselves.

11 Yea, they giue of the same vnto the harlots, that are in their houses: againe, they decke these gods of siluer, and gods of gold, and of wood with garments like men.

12 Yet cannot they be preferred from rust and wormes.

13 Though they haue covered them with clothing of purple, and wipe their faces because of the dust of the Temple, whereof there is much vpon them.

14 One holdeth a scepter, as though he were a certaine iudge of the country: yet can he not slay such as offend him.

15 Another hath a dagger or an axe in his right hand: yet is he not able to defend himselfe from battell, nor from theenes: so then it is euident, that they be no gods.

15 Therefore feare them not: for as a vessel that a man vseth, is nothing worth when it is broken,

16 Such are their gods: when they be set vp in their temples, their eyes be full of dust by reason of the feet of those that come in:

17 And as the gates are shut in round about vpon him that hath offended the king: or as one that should be led to be put to death, so the Priests keepe their temples with doores, and with lockes, and with barres, lest their gods should be spoyled by robbers.

18 They light vp candles before them: yea, more then for themselves, whereof they cannot see one: for they are but as one of the postes of the temple.

19 They cōfesse, yea, even their hearts are gnawen vpon: but when the things, that creepe out of the earth, eat them and their clothes, they feele it not.

20 Their faces are blacke through the smoke that is in the temple.

21 The owles, swallows and birds flie vpon their bodies, and vpon their heads, yea, and the cats also.

22 By this ye may be sure, that they are not gods: therefore feare them not.

23 Notwithstanding the golde that is about them to make them beaurifull, except one wipe off the rust, they cannot shine: neither when they were molten: did they feele it.

24 The things wherein is no breath, are bought for a most high price.

25 They are borne vpon mens shoulders, because they haue no feet, whereby they declare vnto men, that they be nothing worth: yea, and they that worship them, are ashamed.

26 For if they fall to the ground at any time, they cannot rise vp againe at themselves, neither if one set them vp right, can they moue of themselves, neither if they be bowed downe, can they make themselves straight: but they get gifts before them, as vnto dead men.

27 As for the things that are offered vnto the, their Priests sell them, & abuse them: likewise also the women lay vp of the same: but vnto the poore and sicke they giue nothing.

28 The menstruous women, and they that are in childbed, touch their sacrifices: by these things ye may know that they are no gods: these the not.

29 From whence cometh it then, that they are called gods? because the women bring gifts to the gods of siluer, and gold, and wood.

30 And the Priests sit in their temples, hauing their clothes rent, whose heads and beards are shauen, and being bare headed,

31 They roare, and cry before their gods, as men doe at the feast of one that is dead.

32 The Priests also take away of their garments, and clothe their wives and children.

33 Whether it be euill that one doth vnto the good, they are not able to recompence it: they can neither set vp a King nor put him downe.

34 In like maner they can neither giue riches, nor money: though a man make a vow vnto them and keepe it not, they will not require it.

35 They can save no man from death, neither deliuer the weake from the mighty.

36 They cannot restore a blind man to his sight, nor helpe any man at his neede.

37 They can shewe no mercy to the widowe, nor doe good to the fatherlesse.

38 Their gods of wood, gold, and siluer are as stones, that be hewen out of the mountaine, and they they that worship them shall be confounded.

39 How should a man then thinke or say that they are gods?

40 Moreover the Chaldeans themselves dishonour them: for when they see a dumbe man, that can not speake, they present him to Bel,

41 And desire that hee would make him to speake, as though he had any feeling: yet they that vnderstande these things, cannot leaue them: for they also haue no sense.

42 Furthermore the women, girded with coards, sit in the streetes, and burne strawe.

43 And if one of them be drawn away, and lie with any such as come by, these casteth her neighbour in the teeth, because she was not so worthily reputed, nor her corde broken.

44 Whatsoeuer is done among them, is lies: how may it be thought or sayd, that they are gods?

45 Carpenters and goldsmiths make them, neither be they any other thing, but euen what the workeman will make them.

46 Yea, they that make them, are of no long continuance: how should then the things that are made of them, be gods?

47 Therefore they leaue lies, and shame for their posteritie.

48 For when there cometh any war or plague vpon them, the priests imagine with themselves where they may hide themselves with them.

49 How then can men not perceiue, that they be no gods, which can neither defend themselves from warre nor from plagues?

50 For seeing they be but of wood, & of siluer, and of gold, men shall know hereafter that they are but lies, and it shall be manifest to all nations, and Kings, that they be no gods, but the works of mens hands, and that there is no worke of God in them.

51 Whereby it may be knowne, that they are no gods.

52 They can see vp no King in the land, nor giue raine vnto men.

53 They can giue no sentence of a matter, neither preserue fro iniurie, they haue no power, but are as crows betwene the heauen and the earth.

54 When there falleth a fire vpon the house of those gods of wood, and of siluer, and of gold, the priests will escape and saue themselves, but they burne as the balles therein.

55 They cannot withstand any King or enemies: how can it be thought or said, that they be gods?

56 Moreover these gods of wood, of gold, and of siluer, can neither defend themselves fro theues nor robbers.

57 For they that are strongest, take away their gold and siluer, and apparill, wherewith they be clothed: and when they haue it, they get them away: yet can they not helpe themselves.

58 Therefore it is better to be a King, & so to shew his power, or els a profitable vessel in a house, whereby he that oweth it, might haue profit, then such false gods: or to bee a doore in an house, to keepe such things safe as be therein, then such false gods: or a pillar of wood in a palace, then such false gods.

59 For the sunne, and the moone, & the starres that shine, when they are sent downe for necessary uses, obey.

60 Likewise also, lightening, when it shineth, it is euident: & the wind bloweth in euery country.

61 And when God commandeth the cloudes to go about y whole world, they do as they are bidded.

62 When the fire is sent downe from aboue to destroy hillies and woods, it doth that which is commanded: but these are not like any of these things, neither in forme, nor power.

63 Wherefore men should not thinke, nor say that they be gods, seeing they can neither giue sentence in iudgement, nor do men good.

64 For so much now as ye are fire, that they be no gods, feare them not.

65 For they can neither curse nor blesse Kings:

66 Neither can they shew signes in the heauen among the heathen, neither shine as the moone.

67 The beasts are better then they: for they can get them vnder a couert, & do themselves good.

68 So yee may be certified that by no manner of meanes, they are gods: therefore feare them not.

69 For as a stercow in a garden of cucumbers, keepeth nothing, so are their gods of wood, and of siluer, and of golde:

70 And likewise their gods of wood, and gold and siluer are like to a white thorne in an orchard, that euery bird sitteth vpon, and as a dead bodie that is cast in the darke.

71 By the purple also and brightnes, which fadeth vpon them, yee may vnderstand, that they be no gods: yea, they themselves shall be consumed at the last, and they shall be a shame to the country.

72 Better therefore is the iust man, that hath none idoles: for he shall be far from reproch.

29. The praise of Agarias. 48. The cruelty of the King. 49. The flame deuoureth the Chaldeans. 50. The Angels of the Lord was in the furnace. 51. The three children praise the Lord, and prouoke all creatures to the same.

29 And they walked in the middes of the flame, praising God, & magnified the Lord.

30 The Azarias stood vp, & praised on this manner, & opening his mouth in the mids of the fire, said,

31 Blessed be thou, O Lord God of our fathers: thy Name is worthy to be praised and honoured for euermore.

32 For thou art righteous in all thy things, that thou hast done vnto vs, and al thy works are true, and thy waies are right, and al thy iudgements certaine.

33 In all the things that thou hast brought vpon vs, and vpon Ierusalem, the holy cite of our fathers, thou hast executed true iudgements: for by right and equirie hast thou brought al these things vpon vs, because of our sinnes.

34 For we haue sinned and done wickedly, departing fro thee: in all things haue we trespassed, 35 And not obeyed thy commandements, nor kept them, neither done as thou hast commanded vs, that we might prosper.

36 Wherefore in all that thou hast brought vpon apoc. 11. 13. 14.

upon vs and in every thing that thou hast done to vs, thou hast done them in true iudgement :

32 As in delivering vs into the hands of our wicked enemies, and most hateful traitours, and to an vnrighteous King, and the most wicked in all the world.

33 And now wee may not open our mouthes: we are become a shame and reproofe vnto thy seruants, and so them that worship thee.

34 Yet for thy names sake, we beseech thee, giue vs not vp for cuer, neither breake thy couenant,

35 Neither take away thy mercie from vs, for thy beloued Abrahams sake, and for thy seruant Isaacs sake, and for thine holy Israels sake,

36 To whom thou hast spoken and promised, that thou wouldest multiply their seed as the starres of heauen, & as the sand that is vpon the sea shore.

37 For wee, O Lord, are become lesse then any nation, and he kept vnder this day in all the world, because of our sinnes.

38 So that now we haue neither prince nor prophet, nor gouernour, nor burnt offerings, nor sacrifice, nor oblation, nor incense, nor place to offer the first fruits before thee, that we might finde mercie,

39 Nethertheless in a contrite heart, and an humble spirit, let vs be receiued,

40 As in the burnt offering of rams & bullocks, and as in ten thousand of fat lambs, so let our offering bee in thy sight this day, that it may please thee: for there is no confusion vnto them that put their trust in thee.

41 And now we follow thee with all our heart, and feare thee, and seeke thy face.

42 Put vs not to shame, but deale with vs after thy louing kindenesse, and according to the multitude of thy mercies.

43 Deliuer vs also by thy miracles, and giue thy Name the glory, O Lord,

44 That all they which doe thy seruants euill, may be confounded: euen let them be confounded by thy great force and power, and let their strength be broken,

45 That they may know, that thou only art the Lord God, and glorious ouer the whole world.

46 ¶ Now the kings seruants that had cast them in, ceased not to make the ouen hote with naphtha, and with pitch, and with tow, and with fagots,

47 So that the flame went out of the furnace fowry and nine cubites.

48 And it brake forth, and burnt those Chaldeans, that it found by the furnace.

49 But the Angel of the Lord went down into the furnace with them that were with Azarias, and smote the flame of the fire out of the furnace,

50 And made in the middes of the furnace like a moist hissing winde, so that the fire touched the nose at all, neither grieved nor troubled them.

51 The three three (as out of one mouth) praised & glorified, & blessed God in the furnace, saying,

52 Blessed be thou, O Lord God of our fathers, and prayed, and exalted about all things for cuer, and blessed be thy glorious and holy Name, and praised about all things, and magnified for cuer.

53 Blessed be thou in the Temple of thine holy glory, & praised about all things, and exalted for cuer.

54 Blessed be thou that beholdest the depths, and sittest vpon the Cherubims, and praised about all things, and exalted for cuer.

55 Blessed be thou in the glorious Throne of thy kingdome, and praised about all things, and exalted for cuer.

56 Blessed be thou in the firmament of heauen, and praised about all things & glorified for cuer.

57 Al ye works of the Lord, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, & exalt him about all things for cuer.

58 O *heauens, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer. *Psal. 148. 4.

59 O Angels of the Lord, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, & exalt him about all things for cuer.

60 Al ye waters that be about the heauen, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

61 Al ye powers of the Lord, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, & exalt him about all things for cuer.

62 O sunne & moone, blessed ye the Lord: raise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

63 O starres of heauen, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

64 Euery shewe and dewe, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

65 All ye winds, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

66 O fire and heate, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

67 O winter and summer, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, & exalt him about all things for cuer. 10. col. d.

68 O dewes and stormes of snowe, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer. 10. f. d.

69 O frost and colde, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

70 O yce and snowe, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

71 O nights and daies, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

72 O light and darkenesse, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, & exalt him about all things for cuer.

73 O lightnings and clouds, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

74 Let the earth besse the Lord: let it prayse him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

75 O mountains, and hilles, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

76 All things that grow on the earth, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

77 O fountaines, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

78 O sea and floods, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

79 O whales, and all that moue in the waters, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

80 All ye soules of heauen, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, & exalt him about all things for cuer.

81 All ye beafts and cattel, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, & exalt him about all things for cuer.

82 O children of men, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

83 Let Israel besse the Lord, praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

84 O Priests of the Lord, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

85 O seruants of the Lord, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, & exalt him about all things for cuer.

86 O spirits and soules of the righteous, blessed ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for cuer.

87 O Saints and humble of heart, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboue all things for euer.

88 O Ananias, Azarias, & Misael, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboue all things for euer: for he hath deliuered vs fro the hel, & saued vs from the hand of death, and deliuered vs out of the mids of the fornace, and burning flame: euen out of the middes of the fire hath he deliuered vs.

89 Confesse vnto the Lord, that he is gracious: for his mercie endureth for euer.

90 All ye that worship β Lord, blesse the God of gods: praise him, and acknowledge him: for his mercie endureth world without end.

THE HISTORIE OF \parallel SUSANNA, which some ioyneto the ende of Daniel, and make it the thirteenth Chapter.

172, 181, 182.

8 The two gouernours are taken with the houre of Susanna. 19 They take her about in the garden. 20 They solicite her to wickedness. 21 She chuseth rather to obey God, though it be to the danger of her life. 22 She is accused. 23 Daniel doth deliuer her. 24 The gouernours are put to death.

Here dwelt a man in Babylon called Ioachim,

2 And hee tooke a wife, whose name was Susanna, the daughter of Helcias, a very faire woman, and one that feared God.

3 Her father and her mother also were godly people, and taught their daughter according to the Law of Moyses.

4 Now Ioachim was a great rich man, and had a faire garden ioyning to his house, and to him resorted the Iewes, because he was more honourable than all others.

5 The same yeeere were appointed two of the ancients of the people to bee Iudges, such as the Lord speakech of, that the iniquity came from Babylon, and from the ancient Iudges, which seemed to rule the people.

6 These haunted Ioachims house, and all such as had any thing to doe in the Law, came thither vnto them.

7 Now when β people departed away at noon, Susanna went into her husband's garden to walke.

8 And the two Elders sawe her that she went in daily and walked, so that their lust was inflamed toward her.

9 Therefore they turned away their mind, and cast downe their eyes, that they should not see heauen, nor remember iust iudgements.

10 And althet they both were wounded with her loue, yet durst not one shew another his grief.

11 For they were ashamed to declare their lust, that they desired to haue to doe with her.

12 Yet they watched diligently from day to day to see her.

13 And the one saide to the other, Let vs goe now home, for it is dinner time.

14 So they went their way, and departed one from another: yet they returned againe, and came into the same place, and after that they had asked one another the cause, they acknowledged their lust: then appointed they a time both together when they might finde her alone.

15 Now when they had spied out a conuenient time, that she went in, she her maner was, with two maides onely, and thought to walk her selfe in the garden (for it was an hote season)

16 And there was no body there, save the two Elders that had hid thesclues, & watched for her.

17 She said to her maides, Bring me oile & sope, and shut the garden doores, that I may walk me,

18 And they did as she bade them, and shutte the garden doores, and went out themsclues at a backed doore, to fet the thing that she had commanded them: but they saw not the Elders, because they were hid.

19 Now when the maides were gone forth, the two Elders rose vp and came vnto her, saying,

20 Behold, the garden doores are shut, that no man can see vs, and wee burne in loue with thee: therefore consent vnto vs, and lie with vs.

21 If thou wilt not, we will beare witness against thee, that a yong man was with thee: and therefore thou shalt send away thy maides from thee.

22 Then Susanna stood, & said, I am in trouble on euery side: for if I do this thing, it is death vnto me: and if I do it not, I cannot escape your hands.

23 It is better for me to fall into your hands, & not doe it, then to sinne in the sight of the Lord.

24 With that Susanna cried with a loud voyce, and the two Elders cried out against her.

25 Then ran β one, & opened the garden doore.

26 ¶ So when the seruants of the house heard the cry in the garden, they rushed in at the backed doore, to see what was done vnto her.

27 But when the Elders had declared their matter, the seruants were greatly ashamed: for there was neuer such a report made of Susanna.

28 On the morowe after, came the people to Ioachim her husband, and the two Elders came also, full of mischieuous imagination against Susanna, to put her to death.

29 And saide before the people, Send for Susanna the daughter of Helcias Ioachims wife. And immediately they sent.

30 So shee came with her father and mother, her children and all her kindred.

31 Now Susanna was very tender, and faire of face.

32 And these wicked men commanded to vncouer her face (for shee was couered) that they might so be satished with her beaurie.

33 Therefore they that were about her, and all they that knew her, wept.

34 Then the two Elders stood vp in the mids of the people, and laid their hands vpon her head.

35 Which wept & looked vp toward heauen for her heart trusted in the Lord.

36 And the Elders said, As we walked in β garden alone, she came in with two maides, whom she sent away from her, and shut the garden doores.

37 Then a yong man which there was hidde, came vnto her, and lay with her.

38 Then wee which stood in a corner of the garden, seeing this wickednes, ranne vnto them, and we saw them as they were together.

39 But wee could not holde him: for he was fleege

stronger the we, & opened 3 doore, & leaped out.
40 Now when we had taken this woman, we would tell vs: what yong man this was, but she would not tell vs: of these things are we witnessles.

41 Then the assembly beleued them, as though that were the Elders and Iudges of the people: so they condemned her to death.

42 Then Sufanna cried out with a loud voyce, & said, O ouerlasting God, that knowest the secrets, and knowest all things afore they come to passe,

43 Thou knowest, that they haue borne false witness against me, and beheld, I must die, whereas I neuer did such things as these men haue maliciously inuented against me.

44 And the Lord heard her voyce.

45 Therefore when she was led to be put to death, the Lord raised vp the holy spik of a yong childe, whose name was Daniel.

46 Who cried with a loud voyce, I am cleane from the blood of this woman.

47 Then all the people turned them towarde him, and said, What meane these words that thou hast spoken?

48 Then Daniel stood in the middes of them, & said, Are ye such fooles, O Israelites, that without examination, or knowledge of the trueth, yee haue condemned a daughter of Israel?

49 Returne againe to iudgement, for they haue borne false witness against her.

50 Wherefore the people turned againe in all haste, & the Elders said vnto him, Come, sit down among vs, and shew it vs, seeing God hath giuen thee the office of an Elder.

51 Then said Daniel vnto the, Put these two aside, one far from another, & I will examine them.

52 So when they were put asunder one from another, he called one of them and saide vnto him, O thou that art olde in a wicked life, now thy sinnes which thou hast committed aforetime, are come to light.

53 For thou hast pronounced false iudgements, and hast condemned the innocent, and hast let the guiltie goe free, albeit the Lord saith, * The innocent and righteous shalt thou not slay. * Eccles. 3. 7.

54 Now then if thou hast seene her, tell me, vnder what tree sawest thou them companying together? Who answered, Vnder a lentilke tree.

55 Then saide Daniel, Verily thou hast liyd against thine owne head: for loe, the Angell of God hath receiued the sentence of God, to cut thee therein.

56 So put he him asile, and commatnded to bring the other, and said vnto him, O thou seed of Chanaan, and not of Iuda, beauty hath deceiued thee, and lust hath subuerted thine heart.

57 Thus haue ye dealt with the daughters of Israel, and they for feare companied with you: but the daughter of Iuda would not abide your wickednesse.

58 Nowe therefore tell mee, vnder what tree diddest thou take them companying together? Who answered, Vnder a Prime tree.

59 Then said Daniel vnto him, Verily thou hast also liyd against thine head: for the Angell of God waiteth with the sword to cut thee in two, and so to destroy you both.

60 With that all the whole assembly cryed with a loud voyce, and praised God which saueh them that trust in him.

61 And they arose against the two Elders, (for Daniel had consist them of false witness by their owne mouth)

62 * And according to the Law of Moyses they dealt with them, as they dealt wickedly against their neighbour, and put them to death. Thus the innocent blood was iusted the same day. * Deut. 19. 19. Prov. 19. 5.

63 Therefore Helcias and his wife praised God for their daughter Sufanna, with Iocaim her husband, and all the kindred, that there was no dishonesty found in her.

64 From that day forth was Daniel had in great reputation in the sight of the people.

65 And King Ashtages was laid with his fathers, and Cyrus of Persia reigned in his stead.

THE HISTORIE OF BEL

and of the Dragon, which is the fourteenth Chapter of Daniel after the Latine.

Now when King Ashtages was laid with his fathers, Cyrus the Persian receiued his kingdome.

2 And Daniel did eate at the Kings table, and was honoured aboute till his friends.

3 Now the Babylonians had an idole, called Bel, and there were spent vpon him euery day twelue great measures of fine flour, and fourtie sleepes, and fixe great i pots of wine.

4 And the king worshipped it, & went daily to honour it: But Daniel worshipped his owne God, and the King said vnto him, Why doest thou not worship Bel?

5 Who answered, said, Because I may not worship idoles made with handes; but the liuing God, which hath created the heauen and the earth, and hath power vpon all flesh.

6 Then said the King vnto him, Thinkest thou not that Bel is a liuing God? seest thou not how much he eath and drinketh euery day?

7 Then Daniel smiled and said, O king, be not deceiued: for this is but clay within, and brasse without, and did neuer eate any thing.

8 So the King was wroth, and called for his Priests, and said vnto them, if ye tell me not, who this is that eateh vp these expences, ye shall die.

9 But if yee can certifie mee that Bel eateh them, then Daniel shall die: for hee hath spoken blasphemie against Bel. And Daniel said vnto the King, Let it be according to the word.

10 (Nowe the Priests of Bel were thre score and ten, beside their wives and children:) and the King went with Daniel into the Temple of Bel.

11 So Bel's Priests said, Behold, we will go out, and fet thou the meate there, O King, and let the wine be filled: then shut the doore fast, and seale it with thine owne finger.

12 And to morow when thou comest in, if thou findest not that Bel hath eaten vp all, we will suffer death, or els Daniel that hath liyd vpon vs.

13 Now they thought themselves sure more.

for vnder the table they had made a priuie entrance, and there went they in euer, and tooke away the things.

14 So when they were gone forth, the King fet meate before Bel. Now Daniel had commanded his seruants to bring albes, and these they strowed throughout all the Temple, in the presence of the king alone: then went they out & shut the doore, and sealed it with the Kings signet, & so departed.

15 Now in the night came the Priests, with their wiues and children, (as they were wont to doe) and did eate and drinke vp all.

16 In the morning betimes the king arose, and Daniel with him.

17 And the King said, Daniel, art thou whole? Who answered, yea, O King, they be whole.

18 And assoone as hee had opened the doore, the king looked vpon the table, and cried with a loud voyce, Great art thou, O Bel, and with thee is no deceit.

19 Then laughed Daniel, and held the King that he should not goe in, and saide, Behold nowe the pavement, and marke well whose footsteppes are these.

20 And the king said, I see the footsteppes of men, women, & children: therefore the king was angry.

21 And tooke the Priests, with their wiues, and children, and they shewed him the priuie doores, where they came in, and consumed such things as were vpon the table.

22 Therefore the king slew them, and deliuered Bel into Daniels power, who destroyed him and his temple.

23 ¶ Moreover in that same place there was a great Dragon, which the Babylonians worshipped.

24 And the king said vnto Daniel, Saist thou, that this is of brass & also of iron, he liueth and eateth and drinketh, so that thou canst not say, that he is no liuing god: therefore worship him.

25 Then said Daniel vnto the King, I will worship the Lord my God: for he is the liuing God.

26 But giue mee leaue, O King, and I will slay this dragon without sword or staffe. And the king said, I giue thee leaue.

27 Then Daniel tooke pitch, & fat, and haire, and did see the them together, and made lumps thereof: this he put in the Dragons mouth, and so the Dragon burst in funder. And Daniel saide, Behold, whom ye worship.

28 When the Babylonians heard it, they were wonderfull wroth, and gathered them together against the King, saying, The king is become a Jew: for he hath destroyed Bel, and hath slaine the Dragon, and put the Priests to death.

29 So they came to the King, and said, Deliuer vs Daniel, or else wee will destroy thee, and thine house.

30 Now when the king sawe that they pressed sore vpon him, and that necessitie constrained him, he deliuered Daniel vnto them:

31 Who cast him into the Lions denne, where he was fixe dayes.

32 In the denne there were seuen Lyons, and they had giuen them every day two bodies & two sheepe, which then were not giuen them, to the intent that they might deuoure Daniel.

33 ¶ Now there was in Iurie a Prophet called Abbacuc, which had made pottage, and broken bread into a bowle, and was going into the field, for to bring it to the reapers.

34 But the Angel of the Lord giul vnto Abbacuc, Goe, cary the meat that thou hast, into Babylon vnto Daniel, which is in the Lyons denne.

35 And Abbacuc said, Lord, I neuer saw Babylon, neither doe I know where the denne is.

36 Then the Angel tooke him by the crowne of the head, & bare him by the haire of the head, and through a mighty winde set him in Babylon vpon the denne.

37 And Abbacuc cried saying, O Daniel, Daniel, take the dinner that God hath sent thee.

38 Then said Daniel, O God, thou hast thought vpon me, and thou neuer failest them that feele thee and loue thee.

39 So Daniel arose, and did eate, and the Angel of the Lord set Abbacuc in his owne place againe immediately.

40 Vpon the fourth day, the king went to be-waile Daniel: and when he came to the denne, he looked in, and behold, Daniel sat in the midst of the Lyons.

41 Then cryed the King with a loude voyce, saying, Great art thou, O Lorde God of Daniel, and there is none other besides thee.

42 And he drew him out of the den, and cast them that were the cause of his destruction into the denne, and they were deuoured in a moment before his face.

THE FIRST BOOKE of the Maccabees.

CHAP. I.

1 The death of Alexander the king of Macedonia. 11 Antiochus taketh the kingdom. 12 Many of the children of Israel make covenants with the Gentiles. 21 Antiochus forbiddeth Egypt & Jerusalem to be common. 30 Antiochus falleth up into heauen.

After that Alexander the Macedonian, the sonne of Philip, went forth of the land of Chetrim, & slew Darius king of the Persians & Medes, and reigned for him, as he had before in Grecia.

3 He tooke great warres in hand, and wayne strong holds, and slew the Kings of the earth.

3 So went he thorow to the ends of the world, and tooke spoiles of many nations, in so much that the world stood in awe of him: therefore his heart was puffed vp and was haucie.

4 Nowe when hee had gathered a mightie strong holle,

5 And had reigned ouer regions, nations, and kingdomes, they became tributaries to him.

6 After these things he fell sicke, and knewe that he should die.

7 Then hee called for the chiefe of his seruants, which had bene brought vp with him of children, and parted his kingdome among them, while he was yet aliue.

8 So Alexander had reigned twelue yeeres when he died.

9 And his seruants reigned euerie one in his rourne.

10 And they all caused themselves to be crowned and after his death, and so did their children after them many yeeres, and much wickednes increased in the world.

11 For out of these came the wicked roote, Antiochus Epiphanes, the sonne of King Antiochus, which had bene an hostage at Rome, and he reigned in the hundreth and seven & thirtieth yere of the kingdome of the Greeces.

12 In those daies went there out of Israel wicked men, which caused many, saying, Let vs go, & make a covenant with the heathen, that are round about vs: for since we departed fro them, we haue had much sorrow.

13 So this deuile pleased them well.

14 And certaine of the people were ready, and went to the King, which gaue them licence to doe after the ordinances of the heathen.

15 Then set they vp a place of exercise at Ierusalem, according to the fashions of the heathen,

16 And made themselves vncircumcised, & forsooke the holy Couenant, and ioyned themselves to the heathen, and were soild to do mischiefe.

17 So when Antiochus his kingdome was set in order, he went about to reigne ouer Egypt, that he might haue the dominion of two Realmes.

18 Therefore he entred into Egypt with a mighty company, with chariots, and Elephants, & with horsemen, and with a great noise.

19 And moued war against Ptolemus King of Egypt, but Ptolemus was afraid of him, & fled, and many were wounded to death.

20 Thus Antiochus won many strong cities in the land of Egypt, and tooke away the spoiles of the land of Egypt.

21 And after that Antiochus had smitten Egypt, he turned againe in the hundreth, fortie and three yere.

22 And went vp toward Israel and Ierusalem with a mighty people.

23 And entred proudly into the Sanctuary, and tooke away the golden altar and the candlestick for the light and all the instruments thereof, & the table of the shewbread, and the pouring vessels, & the bowles, and the golden cassins and the vails, & the crownes, & the golden apparel, which was before the Temple, and brake all in pieces.

24 He tooke also the silver & gold, & the precious iewels, and he tooke the secret treasure that he found, and when he had taken away all, he departed into his owne land.

25 After he had murdered many people, & spoken very proudly.

26 Therefore there was a great lamentation in euery place of Israel.

27 For the Princes and the Elders mourned: the young women, & the young men were made feeble, and the beauty of the women was changed.

28 Euery bride frome tooke him to mourning, and shee that sate in the marriage chamber, was in heauinesse.

29 The land also was moued for the inhabitants thereof: for all the house of Jacob was covered with confusion.

30 After two yeres the King sent his chief taxepayers into the cities of Iuda, which came to Ierusalem with a great multitude.

31 Who spake peaceable words vnto them in secret, and they gaue credence vnto him.

32 Then he fell suddenly vpon the citie, and smote it with a great plague, and destroyed much people of Israel.

33 And when he had spoiled the citie, he set fire on it, casting downe the houses thereof, and walles thereof on euery side.

34 The women and their children tooke they captiue, and led away the cattell.

35 Then fortified they the citie of David with a great and thicke wall, and with mighty towers, and made it a strong hold for them.

36 Moreover they set wicked people there, and vngodly persons, and fortified themselves therein.

37 And they stored it with weapons & vitails, and gathered the spoile of Ierusalem, and layd it vp there.

38 Thus became they a fore share and were in ambushment for the Sanctuary, and were wicked enemies euermore vnto Israel.

39 For they shed innocent blood on euery side of the Sanctuary, and defiled the Sanctuary.

40 In so much that the citizens of Ierusalem fled away because of them, and it became an habitation of strangers, being desolat to osen whom the had borne: for her owne children did leaue her.

41 Her Sanctuary was left well as a wilderness: her holy daies were turned into mourning, her Sabbaths into reproch, and her honor brought to nought.

42 As her glory had bene great, so was her dishonour, & her excellencie was turned into sorrow.

43 Also the King wrote vnto all his kingdome, that all the people should be as one, and that euery man should leaue his lawes.

44 And all the heathen agreed to the commandement of the King.

45 Yea, many of the Israelites consented to his religion, offering vnto idols, & desiling his Sabbaths.

46 So the King sent letters by the messengers vnto Ierusalem, and to the cities of Iuda, that they should follow the strange lawes of the countrey.

47 And that they should forbid the burnt offerings, & Sacrifices, & the offerings in his Sanctuary, 48 And that they should defile the Sabbaths, and the feast.

49 And pollute the Sanctuary & the holy men.

50 And to set vp altars, and grones, and chapels of idols, and offer vp swines flesh, and vnclean beastes.

51 And that they should leaue their children vncircumcised, and defile their soules with vncleanes, and pollute themselves, that they might forget the Lawe, and change all the ordinances.

52 And that whosoever would not doe according to the commandement of the King, should suffer death.

53 In like maner wrote he throughout all his kingdomes, and set ouerscers ouer all the people,

54 And he commanded the cities of Iuda to do sacrifice, criie by citie.

55 Then went many of the people vnto them by heapes, euery one that forsooke the Law, and so they committed euill in the land.

56 And they droue his Israelites into secret places, euen wher soeuer they could flee for succour.

57 The fifteenth day of Caslee, in the hundreth and nine and fortieth yere, they set vp the abomination of desolation vpon the altar, and they builded altars throughout the cities of Iuda on euery side.

58 And before the doores of the house, and in the streetes they burnt incense,

59 And the bookes of the Law which they found, they burnt in the fire, and cut in pieces.

60 Whosoever had a booke of the Testament found by him, or whosoever confented vnto the Lawe, the Kings commandement was, that they should pitch him to death by their authoritie.

61 And they executed these things euery moneth vpon the people of Israel that were founde in the cities.

62 And in the five and twentieth day of the moneth, they did sacrifice vpon the altar, which was in the head of the altar of sacrifices.

63 And according to the commandement, they put certaine women to death, which had caused their children to be circumcised.

64 And they hanged vp their children at their neckes, and they spoiled their houses, and slew the circumcisers of them.

65 Yet were there many in Israel, which were of courage, and determined in themselves, that they would not cease euery thing.

66 But chose rather to suffer death, then to be defiled wth those meate: so because they would not break the holy covenant, they were put to death.

67 And this tyranny was very fore vpon the people of Israel.

CHAP. II.

1 The mourning of Mattathias and his sonnes for the destruction of the holy citie. 2 They refuse all sacrifice vnto idols. 3 The zeale of Mattathias for the Law of God. 4 They are slaine and will not fight of mee because of the Sabbath day. 5 Mattathias dying, commandeth his sonnes to fight in the word of God after the example of his fathers.

Joseph. Antig. 12. cap. 7.

IN those daies Hodeo vp Mattathias the Priest, the sonne of Ioannes, the sonne of Simcon, of the sonnes of Ioarib of Ierusalem, & dwelt in Modin.

2 And he had five sonnes, Ionian called Gaddis,

3 Simon called Thassi,

4 Iudas which was called Maccabeus,

5 Eleazar called Abaron, and Ionathan, whose name was Apphus.

6 Now he sawe the blasphemies, which were committed in Iuda and Ierusalem.

7 And he said, Wo is me: wherefore was I borne, to see this destruction of my people, and the destruction of the holy citie, and thus to sit still? it is deliuered into the hands of the enemies.

8 And the Sanctuary is in the hands of strangers: her Temple is as a man that hath no renoume.

9 Her glorious vessels are caried away into captiuitie: her infants are slaine in the streetes, and her young men are fallen by the sword of the enemies.

10 What people is it, that haue not some possession in her kingdome, or hath not gotten of her spoyle?

11 All her glory is taken away: of a free woman, she is become an handmaid.

12 Behold, our Sanctuary and our beauty, and honour is desolate, & the Gentiles haue defiled it.

13 What helpeh it vs then to liue any longer?

14 And Mattathias rent his clothes, he, and his sonnes, and put sackcloth vpon them, and mourned very fore.

15 ¶ Then came men from the King to the citie of Modin to compell them to forsake God, & to sacrifice.

16 So many of the Israelites confented vnto them: but Mattathias & his sonnes assembled together.

17 Then spake the Commissioners of the King, and said vnto Mattathias, thou art the chiefe and an honorable man, and great in this citie, and hast many children and brether.

18 Come thou therefore first, & fulfil the Kings commandement, as all the heathen haue done, and also the men of Iuda, and such as remain at Ierusalem: so shalt thou and thy family be in the Kings fauour; & thou and thy children shall be enriched with siluer and gold, and with many rewards.

19 Then Mattathias answered and said with a loude voice, Though all nations that are vnder the Kings dominion, obey him, & fall away euery man from the religion of their fathers, and consent to his commandements.

20 Yet will I and my sonnes, and my brether, walke in the covenant of our fathers.

21 God be mercifull vnto vs, that we forsake not the Law and the ordinances.

22 We will not hearken vnto the Kings words to transgresse our religion, neither on y^e right side, nor on the left.

23 And when hee had left off speaking these words, there came one of the Iewes, in y^e sight of al to sacrifice vpon the altar which was at Modin, according to the Kings commandement.

24 Now when Mattathias saw it, he was so inflamed with zeale, that his reimes shooke; and his wrath was kindled according to the ordinance of the Law: therefore he ran vnto him, and killed him by the altar.

25 And at the same time he slew the Kinges commissioner that compelled him to do sacrifice, and destroyed the altar.

26 Thus bare he zeale to y^e Law of God. *Nas. 35, 3.

27 ¶ Then cryed Mattathias with a loud voice in the citie, saying, Whosoever is zealous of the Law, and will stand by the coucnant, let him come forth after me.

28 So hee and his sonnes fled into the mountaynes, and left all that they had in the citie.

29 Then many that sought after iustice and iudgement,

30 Went downe into the wilderness to dwell there, both they and their children, & their wives, and their cattell: for the afflictions increased fore vpon them.

31 ¶ Nowe when it was tolde vnto the Kings seruants, and to the parisons, which were in Ierusalem in the tyme of Dauid, that men had broken the kings commandement, and were gone downe into the secret places in the wilderness,

32 Then many pursued after them: and hauing ouertaken them, they camped against them, and set the battell in aray against them on the Sabbath day.

33 And said vnto them, Let this now be sufficient: come forth and do according to the commandement of the King, and ye shall liue.

34 But they answered, We will not goe forth, neither will we doe the Kings commandement, to defile the Sabbath day.

35 Then they gaue them the battell.

36 But the other answered them nothing, neither cast any one stone at them, nor stopped the priuie places.

37 But said, We will die all in our innocencie: the heauen and earth shall testify for vs, that ye destroy vs wrongfully.

38 Thus they gave them the battell vpon the Sabbath, and slew both men and carrell, their wiues and their children to the number of a thousand people.

39 ¶ When Mattathias and his friends vnderstood this, they mourned for them greatly,

40 And said one to another, If we al do as our brethren haue done, and fight not against the heathen for our liues, and for our Lawes, shall they incontinently destroy vs out of the earth.

41 Therefore they concluded at the same time, saying, Whosoever shall come to make battell with vs vpon the Sabbath day, we will fight against him, that we die not all, as our brethren that were murdered in the secret places.

42 Then came vnto them the assembly of the Aſideans, which were of the strongest men of Iſrael, all which as were well minded toward the Law.

43 And all they that were ſet for perfection, ioynted themselves vnto them, and were an helpe vnto them.

44 So they gathered a power, & smote the wicked men in their wrath, & the vngodly in their anger: but the rest fled vnto the heauen, & escaped.

45 Then Mattathias and his friends went about, and destroyed the altars,

46 And circumciſed the children by force that were vncircumciſed, as many as they found within the coaſtes of Iſrael,

47 And they purſued after the proud men: and this act prospered in their hands.

48 So they recovered the Law out of the hand of the Gentiles, and out of the hand of Kings, and gaue no place to the wicked.

49 Now when the time drew neere that Mattathias ſhould die, he ſaid vnto his ſonnes, Now is pite and perſecution increaſed, and the time of deſtruction, and the wrath of indignation.

50 Now therefore, my ſonnes, be ye zealous of the Law, and giue your liues for the couenant of our fathers.

51 Call to remembrance what actes our fathers did in their time: ſo ſhall ye receiue great honour and an euerlaſting name.

52 ¶ Was not Abraham found faithfull in temptation, & it was imputed vnto him for righteouſneſſe?

53 ¶ Ioseph in the time of his trouble kept the commandment, and was made the lord of Egypt.

54 ¶ Phinees our father, became he was zealous and ſeruent, obtained the couenant of the euerlaſting Prieſthood.

55 ¶ Ieſus for fulfilling the word, was made the gouernour of Iſrael.

56 ¶ Caleb, becauſe he bare witneſſe before the Congregation, receiued the heritage of the land.

57 ¶ Dauid, becauſe of his mercie obtained the throne of the kingdome for euermore.

58 ¶ Elias, becauſe he was zealous, and ſeruent in the Law, was taken vp euen vnto heauen.

59 ¶ Ananias, Azarias and Miſael by their faith were deliuered out of the flame.

60 ¶ Daniel becauſe of his innocencie, was deliuered from the mouth of the Lions.

61 And thus ye may conſider throughout all ages, that whoſoever put their truſt in him, ſhall not want ſtrength.

62 ¶ Feare not yet then the wordes of a ſinfull man: for his glory is but dung and wormes.

63 To day is he ſet vp, and to morrow he ſhall not be found: for he is turned into his duſt, & his purpose perſiſteth.

64 ¶ Wherefore my ſonnes, take good hearts and ſlew your ſclues men for the Law: for by it ſhall you obtaine glory.

65 And behold, I know that your brother Simon is a man of counſel: giue care vnto him alway: he ſhall be a father vnto you.

66 And Judas Maccabeus hath bene mighty & ſtrong, euen from his youth vp: let him bee your captain, and fight you the battell for the people.

67 Thus ſhall ye bring vnto you all thoſe that obſcure the Law, and ſhall auenge the iniuries of your people.

68 ¶ Recompence fully the heathen, & giue your ſclues to the commandment of the Law.

69 So he bleſſed them, and was laide with his fathers.

70 And died in the hundreth, ſourte and fixe yeere, and his ſonnes buried him in his fathers ſepulchre at Modin, and al Iſrael made great lamentation for him.

CHAP. III.

1 Judas in ſpide ruler ouer the Iewes. 11 He killith Apollonius and ſleweth the priuies of Syria. 43 The conſtitution of Iudas toward God. 53 Iudas determiueth to fight againſt Lyſias, whom Antiochus had made captaine ouer Iuſeph.

Then Judas his ſonne, called Maccabeus, roſe vp in his place.

2 And all his brethren helped him, and al they that held with his father, and ſought with courage the battell of Iſrael.

3 So he gaue his people great honour: he put on a breſtplate as a gyant, & armed himſelfe, and ſet the battell in aray, and defended the camp with the ſword.

4 In his acts he was like a Lion, and as a Lions whelp roaring after the pray.

5 For he purſued the wicked, & ſought them out, and burnt vp thoſe that vexed his people.

6 So that the wicked fled for feare of him, and all the workers of iniquitie were put to trouble: and ſaluation prospered in his hand.

7 And he grieved diuers Kings, but Iacob reioyced by his actes, and his memorie is bleſſed for ever.

8 He went alſo thorow the cities of Iuda, and destroyed the wicked out of them, and turned away the wrath from Iſrael.

9 So was he renowned vnto the ends of the earth, and hee aſſembled together thoſe that were ready to periſh.

10 ¶ But Apollonius gathered 5 Gentiles, and a great hoſt out of Samaria, to fight againſt Iſrael.

11 Which whē Iudas perceiued, he went forth to meete him, and ſmote him, & ſlew him, ſo that many fell downe ſlaine, and the reſt fled.

12 So Iudas tooke their ſpoiles, & tooke alſo Apollonius ſword, and fought with it all his life long.

13 ¶ Now when Seron a prince of the armie of Syria, heard that Iudas had gathered vnto him the Congregation, & Church of the faithfull, and went forth to the warre,

14 He ſaid, I will get me a name, and wil be glorious in the realme: for I will go fight with Iudas and them that are with him, which haue deſpiſed the Kings commandment.

15 So he made him ready to go vp, & there went with him a mighty hoſte of the vngodly to helpe him, and to be auenged of the children of Iſrael.

16 And when he came neere to the going vp of Bethborton, Iudas went forth to meete him with a small company.

17 But when they saw the armie coming against them, they said to Iudas, How are we able, being so few, to fight against so great a multitude, and so strong, seeing we be so weary, and have fasted all this day?

18 Then said Iudas, It is an easie thing for many to be shut vp in the hands of fewe, and there is no difference before the God of heauen, to deliuer by a great multitude, or by a small company.

19 For the victory of the battell standeth not in the multitude of the host, but the strength cometh from heauen.

20 They come against vs with a cruel & proud multitude to destroy vs, and our wiues, and our children, and to rob vs.

21 But we doe fight for our liues, and for our Lawes.

22 And God himselfe wil destroy them before our face: therefore be not ye afraid of them.

23 And when he had left off speaking, he leapt suddenly vpon them: so was Seron and his hoste destroyed before him.

24 And they pursued them fro the going down of Bethborton vnto the plaine: where there were slaine eight hundred men of them, & the residue fled into the land of the Philistims.

25 Then the feare and terrour of Iudas and his brethren fel vpon the nations round about.

26 So that his fame came vnto the King: for all the Gentiles could tell of the warres of Iudas.

27 But when King Antiochus heard these tidings, he was angry in his minde: wherefore he sent forth, & gathered all the power of his realme, a very strong armie.

28 And opened his treasury, and gaue his hoste a yeeres wages in hand, commanding them to be readie for a yeere for all occasions.

29 Neuerthelesse, when hee sawe that the monney of his treasures failed, and that the tributes in the country were small, because of the dissension, and plagues that hee had brought vpon the land, in taking away the lawes which had bene of olde time,

30 He feared least he should not haue now at the second time, as at the first, for the charges and gifts that he had giuen with a liberal hand afore: for in liberalitie hee fare passed the other Kings that were before him.

31 Wherefore he was heauie in his minde, and thought to goe into Persia, for to take tributes of the countrey, and to gather much money.

32 So he left Lyfias a noble man & of the Kings blood to ouerseer the Kings businesse, from the river of Euphrates vnto the borders of Egypt.

33 And to bring vp his sonne Antiochus, til he came againe.

34 Moreover, he gaue him halfe of his hoste & elephants, and gaue him the charge of all things that he would haue done.

35 And concerning those which dwelt in Iuda & Ierusalem, that he should send an armie against them, to destroy and root out the power of Israel and the remnant of Ierusalem, & to put out their memoriall from that place.

36 And to set strangers for to inhabit all their quarters, and part their land among them.

37 And the king tooke the halfe of the hoste that remained, and departed from Antiochia his royall cite, in the yeere an hundredth fourtie and seuen, and passed the river Euphrates, and went thorow the hie countries.

38 Then Lyfias chose Ptolemies the sonne of Dorimimus, & Nicanor, and Gorgias, mighty men, and the Kings friends, 39 And sent with them fourtie thousand footmen, and seuen thousand horsemen, to go into the land of Iuda, and to destroy it, as the King commanded.

40 So they went forth with all their power, and came and pitched by Binnans in the plaine country.

41 Nowe when the marchants of the countrey heard the rumour of them, they took very much siluer and golde, and seruants, and came into the campe, to buy the children of Israel for slaves, and the strength of Syria and of strange nations ioyned with them.

42 ¶ Nowe when Iudas and his brethren sawe that trouble increased, and that the hoste drew neere vnto their borders, confiding the Kings words, whereby hee had commanded to destroy the people, and vterly abolish them,

43 They said one to another, Let vs redresse the decay of our people, and let vs fight for our people, and for our Sanctuary.

44 Then the Congregation were soone readie gathered to fight, and to pray, and to desire mercy and compassion.

45 As for Ierusalem, it was not inhabited, but was as a wilderness. There went none that was borne in it, in or out at it, and the Sanctuary was troden downe, & the strangers kept the fortress, and it was the habitation of the heathen: and the mirth of Iacob was taken away: the pipe and the harpe ceased.

46 So they gathered themselves together, and came to Maspha before Ierusalem: for in Maspha was y place where they praised aforetime in Israel.

47 And they fasted that day, and put sackcloth vpon them, and cast ashes vpon their heads, and rent their clothes.

48 And opened y book of the law, wherein the heathen sought to paint the likenes of their idoles.

49 And brought the Priestes garments, and the first finites, and the tithes, and set there the Nazarites, which accomplished their dayes.

50 And they cried with a loud voyce toward heauen, saying, What shall we doe with these? and whither shall we carie them away?

51 For thy Sanctuary is troden downe and defiled, and thy Priestes are in heauines, and brought downe.

52 And beholde, the heathen are come against vs, to destroy vs: thou knowest what things they imagine against vs.

53 How can we stand before them, except thou helpe vs?

54 Then they blew the trumpets, and cried with a loud voyce.

55 And after this, Iudas ordeined captaines ouer the people, euen captaines ouer thoulans, and captaines ouer hundredths, and captaines ouer fifties, and captaines ouer tens.

56 And they commanded them that builded houses, or married wiues, or planted vineyards, or were fearful, that they should returne euery one to his owne house, according to the Lawe.

100. 32. 5.
in 7. 7.

57 So the hoste remoued, and pitched vpon the Southside of Emmaus.

58 And Iudas sayd, Arme your selues, and be valiant men, & be ready against y morning to fight with these nations, which are gathered together against vs, to destroy vs and our Sanctuary.

59 For it is better for vs to die in battell, then to see calamities of our people & of our Sanctuary.

60 Nevertheless as the wil of God is in heauen, so be it.

C H A P. I I I I.

1. Iudas goeth against Gorgias which lieth in water. 2. He putteth Gorgias and his hoste to flight. 3. Lysias invadeth Emmaus. 4. Thus Iudas drieth him out. 43 Iudas purifieth the Temple and dedicateth the altar.

1. Hen tooke Gorgias five thousand horse men, and a thousand of the best horsemen, and departed out of the campe by night.

2 To invade the campe of the Iewes, and to slay them suddenly: and the men of the fortreffe were his guides.

3 Now when Iudas heard it, he remoued, and they that were valiant men to imite the Kings armie which was at Emmaus.

4 Whiles yet the armie was disperfed from the campe.

5 In the meane season came Gorgias by night into Iudas campe: and when hee found no man there, he sought them in the mountaines: for sayd he, They flee from vs.

6 But also one as it was day, Iudas shewed himselfe in the field with three thousand men, which had neither harness nor swords to their minds.

7 And they saw that the armies of the heathen were strong and wel armed, and their horsemen about them, & that these were expert men of war.

8 Then sayd Iudas to the men that were with him, Feare ye not their multitude, neither be afraid of their assault.

9 Remember, how our fathers were deliuered in the Red Sea, when Pharao pursued them with an armie.

10 Therefore now let vs crie vnto heauen, and the Lord will haue mercie vpon vs, and remember the ouenament of our fathers, and will destroy this hoste before our face this day.

11 So shall all the heathen know, that there is one which deliuereth and saueth Israel.

12 Then the strangers lift vp their eyes, & saw them comming against them.

13 And they went out of their tentes into the battell, and they that were with Iudas, blew the trumpets.

14 So they ioyned together, and the heathen were discomfited and fled by the plaine.

15 But the hindmost of them fel by the sword, & they pursued the vnto Gazeton, & into y plaines of Idumea, & of Azotus, & of Iamnia, so that there were slaine of them about three thousand men.

16 So Iudas turned againe with his hoste from pursuing them.

17 And Iudas vnto the people, Be not greedy of the spoiles: for there is a battell before vs.

18 And Gorgias and the armie is here by vs in the mountaine: but I see now fast against your enemies, and overcome them: then may ye safely take the spoiles.

19 As Iudas was speaking these words, there appeared one part which looked fro the mountains.

20 But when Gorgias saw that his were fled, & that Iudas souldiers burnt the tentes: (for y smoke that was seene, declared what was done).

21 When they sawe these things, they were fore afraid, and when they saw also that Iudas and his hoste were in the field ready to set themselves in aray.

22 They fled euery one into y land of strangers.

23 So Iudas turned againe to spoile the tentes, where he gate much gold and siluer, and precious stones, and purple of the sea, and great riches.

24 Thus they went home, & sung Psalms, and praised toward the heauen: for he is gracious, and his mercie endureth for euer.

25 And so Israel had great victory in that day.

26 ¶ Now all the strangers that escaped, came, and told Lysias all the things that were done.

27 Who when he heard these things, was fore afraid, and discouraged, because such things came not vpon Israel as he would, neither such things as the King had commanded him, came to passe.

28 Therefore the next ye following, gathered Lysias threecore thousand chosen men, and five thousand horsemen to fight against Ierusalem.

29 So they came into Iddumea, and pitched their tentes at Beth-sura, where Iudas came against them with ten thousand men.

30 And when he saw that mighty armie, he praised, and saide, Blessed be thou, O Saviour of Israel, which diddest destroy the assault of the mightie man by the hand of thy seruant Dauid, & gauest the hoste of the strangers into the hand of Ionathan, the sonne of Saul, and of his armoure bearer.

31 Shut vp this armie in the hand of thy people of Israel, and let them be confounded with their power, and with their horsemen.

32 Make them afraid, and consume their boldnes and strength, that they may be astonied at their destruction.

33 Call them downe by the sword of them that loue thee: then shall al they that know thy Name, praye thee with songs.

34 So they ioyned together, and there were slaine of Lysias hoste, five thousand men, and they fell before them.

35 Then Lysias, seeing his armie pur to flight, and the manlinesse of Iudas souldiers, & that they were ready, either to liue or die valiantly, he went into Antiochia & gathered strangers, and when he had furnished his armie, he thought againe (being prepared) to come against Iudas.

36 Then said Iudas and his brethren, Beholde, our enemies are discomfited: let vs now go vp to cleanse, and to repaire the Sanctuary.

37 So al the hoste gathered them together, and went vp into the mountaine of Sion.

38 Now when they sawe the Sanctuary layde waste, & the altar defiled, & the doores burnt vp, and the shrubs growing in the courts, as in a forest, or as on one of the mountaines, and that y Priests chambers were broken downe,

39 They rent their clothes, and made great lamentation, and cast ashes vpon their heads.

40 And fell downe to the ground on their faces, and blew an alarme with the trumpets, and cryed toward heauen.

41 Then Iudas commanded certaine of the men to fight against those which were in the castle, till he had cleansed the Sanctuary.

42 So he chose Priests that were vndeiled, such as delighted in the Law,

22 4

43 And

43 And they clement the Sanctuary, and bare out the defiled stones into an vnclene place,

44 And consulted what to doe with the altar of burnt offering, which was polluted,

45 So they thought it was best to destroy it, least it should be a reproch vnto them, because the heathen had defiled it: therefore they destroyed the altar,

46 And layd vp the stones vpon the mountain of the Temple in a conuenient place, all there should come a Prophet, to shew what should be done with them.

47 So they tooke whole stones according to the Law, and builded a newe altar according to the former,

48 And made vp the Sanctuary, and the things that were within the Temple, and the courts, and all things.

49 They made also new holy vessels, & brought into the Temple the candlestick, and the altar of burnt offerings, and of incense, and the table.

50 And they burnt incense vpon the altar, and lighted the lampes which were vpon the candlestick, that they might burne in the Temple.

51 They set also the shewbread vpon the table, and hanged vp the vailles, & finished al the workes that they had begun to make.

52 And vpon the five and twentieth day of the ninth moneth, which is called the month of Chisleu, in the hundredth and eight and fortieth yere they rose vp betimes in the morning,

53 And offered sacrifice according to the Lawe, vpon the new altar of burnt offerings, that they had made.

54 According to the time, and according to the day, that the heathen had defiled it, in the same day was it made new with songs, and harpes, and lutes, and cymbales.

55 And all the people fel vpon their faces, worshipping & praying toward the heauen him that had giuen them good successe.

56 So they kept the dedication of the altar eight dayes, offering burnt offerings with gladnes, and offered sacrifices of deliuerance and praise.

57 And deckt the forefront of the Temple with crownes of gold and shieldes, and dedicated the gates & chambers, & hanged doores vpon them.

58 Thus there was very great gladnes among the people, and the reproche of the heathen was put away.

59 So Iudas and his brethren with the whole congregation of Israel, ordeined that the daies of dedicatio of the altar should be kept in their season from yere to yere, by the space of eight daies, from the five and twentieth day of the moneth Chisleu, with mirth and gladnes.

60 And at the same time builded they vp mount Sion with hie wals, & strong towres round about, lest the Gentiles should come, and tread it down, as they had done afore.

61 Therefore they set a garison there to keepe it, and fortified Beth-fura to keepe it, that the people might haue a defence against Idumea.

CHAP. V.

¶ Iudas waspilled the brethren that got about to destroy the altar, and a holp of his brethren Simon and Jonathan, so hee overthrew the citie of Euphras, because they desired them to passe thence.

NOWe when the nations round about heard, that the altar was builded, and the Sanctuary renued as afore, they were sore grieved.

2 Therefore they thought to destroy the generation of Iacob that was among them, and began to slay and destroy the people.

3 Then Iudas fought against the children of Elau in Idumea at I Arrabathene, because they besieged the Israelites, & he smote them with a great plague, and drue them to straits, and tooke their spoiles.

4 He thought also vpon the malice of the children of Bean, which had bene a snare and an hindrance vnto the people, when they lay in waite for them in the hie way.

5 Wherefore he shut them vp in towres, & besieged them, and destroyed them vterly, & burnt their towres with fire, with al that were in them.

6 Afterward went he against the children of Ammon, where he found a mighty power, and a great multitude with Timotheus their captaine.

7 So he had many barrels with them, but they were destroyed before him, and so hee discomfited them.

8 And tooke Gazar with the towres thereof, and so turned againe into Iudea.

9 ¶ Then the heathen that were in Galaad, gathered them together against the Israelites that were in their quarters, to slay them: but they fled to the castle of Datheman,

10 And sent letters to Iudas, & to his brethren, saying, The hearth that are about vs, are gathered against vs, to destroy vs,

11 And they make them ready for to come, & to take the fortress, whereinto we are fled, and Timotheus is captaine of their hoste.

12 Come now therefore, and deliuer vs out of their hands: for many of vs are slaine.

13 And all our brethren that were at Tubin, are slaine, and they haue taken away their wiues, and their children, & their goods, and destroyed there almost a thousand men.

14 While these letters were yet a reading, behold, there came other messengers from Galile, with their clothes rent, which tolde the same tidings.

15 And said, that they of Ptolemais, & of Ty-rus, and of Sidon, and of all Galile of the Gentiles were gathered against them to destroy them.

16 When Iudas, and the people heard these words, a great congregation came together, to consult what they might doe for thy brethren that were in trouble, and whom they besieged.

17 The said Iudas to Simon his brother, Chase thee our men, & go and deliuer thy brethren in Galile, and I and my brother Jonathan, will go into the countrey of Galaad.

18 ¶ So he left Iosephus the sonne of Zacharias, and Azarias to be captaines of the people, and to keepe the remnant of the hoste in Iudea,

19 And commanded them, saying, Take the ouersight of this people, and make no warre against the heathen, vntill we come againe.

20 And vnto Simon were giuen three thousand men to go into Galile, and to Iudas eight thousand men for the countrey of Galaad.

21 Then went Simon into Galile, and gaue diuers batteles to the heathen, and the heathen were discomfited by him.

22 And he pursued the vnto the gates of Ptolemais: & there were slaine of the heathen almost three thousand men: so hee tooke their spoiles.

23 Thus

33 Thus they refused them that were in Galilee and in Arbath with their wives, and their children, and al that they had, and brought them into Iudaea with great ioy.

34 ¶ Iudas Maccabeus also, & his brother Jonathan went ouer Iorden, & traueiled three daies journey in the wilderness,

35 Where they mette with the Nabathites, who receiued them louingly, & told them euery thing that was done vnto their brethren in the countrey of Galaad.

36 And how that many of them were besieged in Boforra and Bofor, in Alerai, & Chafbon, Maged and Carnaim (all these cities are strong & great)

37 And that they were kept in other cities of Galaad, & to morrow they are appointed to bring their hoste vnto these forts, and to take them, and to destroy them all in one day.

38 So Iudas and his hoste turned in all hast by the way of the wilderness toward Boforra, and wan the citie, and slew all the males with the edge of the sword, and tooke al their spoile, and set fire vpon the citie.

39 And in the night he remooued from thence, and went toward the fortresse.

40 And betimes in the morning when they looked vp, behold, there was an innumerable people bearing ladders, and instruments of warre, to take the forte, and had assaulted them.

41 When Iudas saw that the battel was begun, and that the cry of y^e citie went vp to heauen with trumpets, and a great sound, 42 Then he said vnto the armie, Fight this day for your brethren.

43 So he went forward behind the with three companies, and they blew the trumpets, and cryed with prayer,

44 Then the host of Timotheus knew, y^e it was Maccabeus, and they fled from him, and he smote them with a great slaughter, so that there was killed of them the same day almost eight thousand men.

45 ¶ Then departed Iudas vnto Mafpha, & laid siege vnto it, and wan it, and slew all the males thereof, and spoiled it, and set fire vpon it.

46 From thence went he and tooke Chafbon, Maged, and Bofor, and the other cities in Galaad.

47 After these things gathered Timotheus another hoste, & he camped before Raphon beyond the flood.

48 Now Iudas had sent to espie the hoste, and they brought him word againe saying, Al the heathen that be round about vs, are gathered vnto him, and the hoste is very great,

49 And hee hath hired the Arabians to helpe them, & they haue pitched their tents beyond the flood, and are ready to come & fight against thee. So Iudas went to meete them.

50 Then Timotheus said vnto the captaines of his hoste, When Iudas & his hoste come neere the flood, if he passe ouer first vnto vs, we shal not be able to withstand him: for he wil be to strong for vs.

51 But if he be afraid, and campe beyond the flood, we will go ouer vnto him, and shal preuaile against him.

52 Now when Iudas came neere to the flood, he caused the gouernors of y^e people to remaine by the flood, & commanded them, saying, Suffer none to pitch a tent, but let euery man come to y^e battell.

53 So he went first ouer toward them, & al the people after him: and al the heathen were discouered before him, and cast away their weapons, and fled into the Temple that was at Carnaim.

44 Which citie Iudas wan, and burnt the Temple with al that were in it: so was Carnaim subdued, and might not withstand Iudas.

45 ¶ Then Iudas gathered al the Israelites that were in the countrey of Galaad, fiftie the least vnto the most, with their wives and their children, and their baggage, a very great hoste, to come into the land of Iuda.

46 So they came vnto Ephron, which was a great citie by the way, and strongly defended: they could not passe, neither at the right hand nor at the left, but must goe thorow it.

47 But they that were in the citie, shut the sluies in, and stopped vp the gates with stones: and Iudas sent vnto them with peaceable words, saying,

48 Let vs passe thorow your land, that we may goe into our owne countrey, and none shall hurt you: we will but onely goe thorow on foote: but they would not open vnto him.

49 Wherefore Iudas commanded a proclamation to be made throughout the host, that euery man should assault it according to his standing.

50 So the valiant men set vpon it, and assaulted the citie al that day, and al that night, and the citie was giuen ouer into his hands:

51 Who slew al the males with the edge of the sword, & destroyed it, and tooke the spoile thereof, and went thorow the citie ouer them y^e were slain.

52 Then went they ouer Iorden into the great plaine before Bethan.

53 And Iudas gathered together those y^e were behind, and gaue the people good exhortation all the way thorow, till they were come into the land of Iuda.

54 Thus went they vp with ioy and gladnesse vnto mount Sion, where they offered burnt offerings, because there were none of them slaine, but came home againe in safetie.

55 ¶ Now whilest Iudas and Jonathan were in the land of Galaad, and Simon their brother in Galilee before Ptolemais,

56 Ioseph the sonne of Zacharias, and Azarias the captaines hearing of the valiant actes, and batels which they had achieved, said, 57 Let vs get vs a name also, & go fight against the heathen that are round about vs.

58 So they gaue their hoste a commandment and went toward Iamnia.

59 But Gorgias and his men came out of the citie to fight against them.

60 And Ioseph and Azarias were put to flight, and pursued vnto the borders of Iudaea: and there were slaine that day of the people of Israel about two thousand men: so that there was a great overthrow among the people of Israel,

61 Because they were not obedient vnto Iudas, and his brethren, but thought to doe some valiant thing.

62 Also they came not of y^e flock of these men, by whose hands deliuerance was giuen to Israel.

63 But the man Iudas, & his brethren were greatly commended in the sight of all Israel, and of all the heathen, wherefoeuer their name was heard of.

64 And the people came vnto them, bidding them welcome.

65 Afterward went Iudas forth with his brethren, & fought against the children of Esau in the land toward the South, where he waieye Helron, and

and the towres thereof, and he destroyed the castle thereof, and burnt the towres thereof round about.

107, Philipim.

66 Then removed he to go into the land of the strangers, and went thorow Samaria.

67 At the same time were the Priests of the cities slaine in the battell, which would shewe their valiantnes, and went forth to battell without counsell: and when Iudas came to Azotus in the strangers land, he brake down their altars, and burnt with fire the images of their gods, and tooke away the spoyle of the cities, and came again into the land of Iuda.

CHAP. VI.

A. Antiochus willing to save the cuse of Elimas, is driven away of the curem. 8 Hee flieth into sicke and death. 17 Hee found Antiochus made king. 30 The manner to promote elephants to fight. 43 Eleazarus valiant till. 48 The siege of Sion.

Joseph. Antiq. 12.
447, 43.

Now when King Antiochus traueled thorow the high countries, he heard that Elimas in the country of Persia was a citie greatly renowned for riches, silver and gold,

2 And that there was in it a very rich temple, where as were coverings of golde, coat armours, and harness, which Alexander King of Macedonia the sonne of Philip (that reigned first in Grecia) had left there.

3 Wherefore he went about to take the city, and to spoyle it, but he was not able, for the citizens were warned of the matter,

4 And tose vp against him in battell, and he fled and departed thence with great heavines, & came again into Babylon.

5 Moreover, there came one which brought him tidings in the countrey of Persia, that 3 armies that went against the land of Iuda, were driven away.

6 And that Lyfias, which went forth first with a great power, was driven away of the Iewes, and that they were made strong by the armour, and power, and diuers spoiles which they had gotten of the armies whom they had destroyed,

7 And that they had pulled downe the abomination, which he had set vp vpon the altar at Ierusalem, and sented the Sanctuary with high walles, as it was afore, and Beth-sura his citie.

8 So when the king had heard these words, he was astonished, and sore moued: therefore he layd him downe vpon his bed, and fell sicke for very sorrow, because it was not come to passe, as he had thought,

9 And there continued he many dayes: for his griefe was cuer more and more, so that he saw he must needs dye.

10 Therefore he sent for all his friends, & said vnto them, The sleepe is gone from mine eyes, and mine heart faileth for very care.

11 And I thinke with my selfe, Into what aduersity am I come, and into what floods of misery am I fallen now, whereas aforetime I was in prosperity, & greatly set by, by reason of my power? 12 And now doe I remember the cuses that I haue done at Ierusalem: for I tooke all the vessels of gold and of silver that were in it, and sent to destroy the inhabitants of Iuda without cause.

13 I know that these troubles are come vpon me for the same cause, and behold, I must die with great sorrow in a strange land.

14 Then called he for Philip, one of his friends, whom he made ruler of all his realme,

15 And gaue him the crowne, and his robe, and the ring, that he should instruct his sonne Antiochus, & bring him vp, till he might reign himselfe,

16 So king Antiochus died there in the hundredth, and forty and ninth yere.

17 ¶ When Lyfias knew, that the King was dead, he ordained Antiochus his sonne (whom he had brought vp) to reigne in his fathers stead, and called him Eupator.

18 Now they that were in the castle at Ierusalem, kept in the Israelites round about the Sanctuary, and fought alwaies their hurt, and the strengthening of the heathen.

19 Therefore Iudas thought to destroy them, & called all the people together to besiege them.

20 So they came together, and besieged them in the hundredth and fifty yere, and made instruments, to shoote, and other engines of warre.

21 But certain of them that were besieged, gat forth, (vnto whom some vngodly men of Israel ioyned themselves)

22 And they went vnto the King, saying, How long wilt thou cease from executing iudgement, and auenge our bretheren?

23 We haue bene ready to serue thy father, and to goe forward in those things, that he appointed, and to obey his commandements.

24 Therefore they of our nation fel from vs for this cause, and wherefoerer they found any of vs, they slew them, and spoyle our inheritance.

25 And they haue not only layd hand vpon vs, but vpon all about their borders.

26 And behold, this day are they besieging the castle at Ierusalem to take it, and haue fortified the Sanctuary, and Beth-sura.

27 And if thou doest not prevent them quickly, they will do greater things then these, and thou shalt not be able to overcome them.

28 When the King heard this, he was very angry, and called all his friends, the captaines of his armie, and his horsemen,

29 And bands that were hired, came vnto him, from the Kings that were confederate, and from the isles of the sea.

30 So the number of his army was an hundredth thousand footmen, & twenty thousand horsemen, and two and thirty elephants exercised in battell.

31 These came thorow Idumea & drew nere to Beth-sura, & besieged it a long season & made engines of war: but they came out, and burnt them with fire, and fought valiantly.

32 Then departed Iudas from the castle, and removed the host toward Beth-zacarias euer against the kings campe.

33 So the king arose very early, & brought the army and his power toward the way of Beth-zacarias, where the army set themselves in aray to the battell, and blew the trumpets.

34 And to prouoke the elephants for to fight, they shewed them the blood of grapes and mulberries.

35 And they set the beastes according to the ranges: so that by euery elephant there stood a thousand men armed with coats of maille and helmets of brasse vpon their heads, and vnto euery beaft were ordained fise hundredth horsemen of the best.

36 Which were ready at all times wherefoerer the beaft was: and whithersoer the beaft went, they went also, and departed not from him.

37 And vpon them were strong towres of wood that couered euery beaft, which were filled theron with instruments, and vpon euery one was two.

and

and thirtie men that fought in them, and the Indians that ruled him.

38 They set also the remnant of the horsemen vpon both the sides in two wings of the hoste, to flure them vp, and to keepe them in the valleys.

39 And when the sun shone vpon the golden shields, the mountaines glittered therewith, and gaue light as lampes of fire.

40 Thus part of the kings armie was spread vpon the high mountaines, and part beneath so they marched forward warily, and in order.

41 And all they that hearde the noyse of their multitude, and the marching of the company, and the rading of the harness, were astonilhed: for the armie was very great and mightie.

42 Then Iudas and his hoste entred into the battell, and they slewe fixe hundred men of the Kings armie.

43 ¶ Now whē Eleazar the sonne of I Abaron, saw one of the elephants armed with roial harner, and was more excellent then all 9 other beastes, he thought that the King should be vpon him.

44 Wherefore he leaped himselfe to deliuer his people, and to get him a perpetuall name,

45 And ran boldly vnto him through the mids of the hoste, slaying on the right hand and on the left, so that they departed away on both sides.

46 So went he to the elephants fecte, and gate him vnder him, and slewe him: then fell the elephant downe vpon him, and there he died.

47 But the other, seeing the power of the king, and the fiercenesse of his armie, departed from them.

48 ¶ And the Kings armie went vp to meete them toward Ierusalem, and the King pitched his tents in Iudea toward mount Sion.

49 Moreover, the King tooke truce with them that were in Beth-sura: but when they came out of the cite, because they had no vitailles there, and were shut vp therein, and the land had rested,

50 The King tooke Beth-sura, and set there a garison to keepe it.

51 And besieged the Sanctuarie many dayes, and made instruments to shoote, and other engins of warre, and instruments to cast fire and stones, and pieces to cast darts and slings.

52 ¶ They also made engins against their engins, and fought a long season.

53 But in the garners there were no vitailles: for it was the seventh yeere, and then they that were in Iudea, and were deliuered from the Gentiles, had eaten vp the residue of the store,

54 So that in the Sanctuarie were few men left: for the famine came so vpon them, that they were scattered euery man to his owne place.

55 ¶ Now when Lyfias heard that Philip (whō Antiochus the King, whiles he liued, had ordeyned to bring vp Antiochus his sonne, that hee might be King)

56 Was come againe out of Persia and Media, and the Kings hoste with him, and thought to take vnto him the rule of things,

57 He and his halsted, and were stirred forward by them in the castle to goe and tell the King, and the captaines of the hoste, and to others, saying, We decrease daily, & our vitailles are but small: and the place that we lay siege vnto, is strong, and the affaires of the realme depend vpon vs.

58 Now therefore let vs agree with these mē, and take truce with them, and with all their natio,

59 And graunt them to liue after their law, as they did afore: for they be grieved, and do all these things, because we haue broken their lawes.

60 So the king and the princes were content, and sent vnto them to make peace, and they receiued it.

61 When the King and the princes had made an othe vnto them, they came vpon this out of the fortress.

62 And the king went vp to mount Sion: but when he saw that the place was wel defended, hee brake his othe that he had made, and commanded to breake downe the wall round about.

63 Then departed he in all haste, and returned vnto Antiochia, where he found Philip hauing dominion of the cite: so he fought against him, and tooke the cite by force.

CHAP. VII.

1 Demetrius reigned, after hee had killed Antiochus and Lyfias. 2 He troubled the children of Israel through the counsaill of certain wicked persons. 3 The prayer of the Priests against Nicanor. 4 Iudas kills Nicanor, after hee had made a prayer.

¶ In the hundredth, and one and fiftieth yeere, de. parted Demetrius the sonne of Seleucus from Rome, and came vp with a few men vnto a city of the sea coast, and reigned there.

2 And when hee came into the possession of his fathers kingdome, his souldiers tooke Antiochus and Lyfias, and brought them vnto him.

3 But when it was told him, he said, shew mee not their faces.

4 So they put them to death. Now when Demetrius was set vpon the throne of his kingdome,

5 There came vnto him all the wicked & vngodly men of Israel, whose captaine was Alcimus, that would haue bene the hie Priest.

6 These men accused the people vnto the king, saying, Iudas and his brethren haue slaine all thy friends, and driuen vs out of our owne land.

7 Wherefore send now some man whom thou trustest, that he may goe and see all the destruction, which he hath done vnto vs, & to the kings land, and let him punish them with all their partakers.

8 Then the king chose Bacchides a friend of his, which was a great man in the realme, and ruled beyond the flood, and was faithfull vnto the king, and sent him,

9 And that wicked Alcimus, whom he made hie Priest, and commanded him to be auenged of the children of Israel.

10 So they departed, and came with a great hoste into the land of Iuda, & sent messengers to Iudas and his brethren, deceitfully with peaceable words.

11 But they beleueed not their saying: for they saw that they were come with a great hoste.

12 Then a company of the gouernours assembled vnto Alcimus and Bacchides to intreate of reasonable points.

13 And the 11 Asideans were the first that required peace among the children of Israel.

14 For, said they, He that is a Priest of the seed of Aaron, is come with this armie: therefore he will not hurt vs.

15 Then hee spake vnto them peaceably, and swore vnto them, and saide, We will doe you no harme, neither your friends:

16 And they beleueed him: but he took of the threescore men, & slewe them in one day according ding to the words that were written,

17 * They haue cast the bodies of thy Saintes, and their blood round about Ierusalem, & there was no man that would bury them.

18 So there came a feare & trembling among all the people: for they said, There is neither truth nor righteousness in them: for they haue broken the appointment and othe that they made.

19 Then Bacchides removed from Ierusalem, and pitched his tent at Beth-zecha, where he sent forth and tooke many of the men that had forsaken him, and certain of the people whom he slew and cast into the great pit.

20 Then committed he the country vnto Alcimus, and left men of warre with him to helpe him: so Bacchides went vnto the King.

21 Thus Alcimus stroue for the Priesthood,

22 And all such as troubled the people, referred vnto him: in so much that they obtained the lande of Iuda, and did much hurt in Israel.

23 Now when Iudas saw all the mischiefes, that Alcimus and his company had done among the Israelites more then the heathen,

24 He went forth round about all the borders of Iudea, and punished those that were fallen away, so that they came no more abroad in the country.

25 But when Alcimus sawe that Iudas and his people had gotten the vpper hand, & knewe that he was not able to abide them, he went againe to the king, and accused them of wicked things.

26 Then the king sent Nicanor one of his chief princes, which hated Iudas deadly, and commanded him that he should destroy the people.

27 ¶ So Nicanor came to Ierusalem with a great hoste, and sent vnto Iudas, and his brethren deceitfully with friendly words, saying,

28 Let there be no warre betweene mee, and you: I will come with few men, to see how you doe, friendly.

29 So he came vnto Iudas, & they saluted one another peaceably: but the enemies were prepared to take away Iudas.

30 Nevertheless, it was tolde Iudas, that hee came vnto him vnder deceit: therefore he feared him, and would see his face no more.

31 When Nicanor perceived that his counsell was heuwyed, he went out to fight against Iudas, beside [C]arphasalama.

32 Where there were slaine of Nicanors hoste about fife thousand men: so they fledde vnto the cite of David.

33 After this came Nicanor vnto mount Sion, and some of the Priests with the Elders of the people went forth of the Sanctuarie to salute him peaceably, and to shew him the burnt offering that was offered for the King.

34 But he laughed at them, & mocked them, and counted them prophane, and spake proudly, 35 And swore in his wrath, saying, If Iudas and his hoste be not deliuered now into mine handes, if euer I come againe in safetie, I will burne vp this house. With that, he went out in a great anger.

36 Then the Priests came in, and stood before the altar in the Temple, weeping, and saying,

37 For so much as thou, O Lord, hast chosen this * house, that thy Name might be called vpon therein, and that it should bee an house of prayer, and petition for thy people,

38 Be auenged of this man and his hoste, and let them be slaine by the sword: remember their blasphemies, and suffer them not to continue,

39 ¶ When Nicanor was gone from Ierusalem, he pitched his tent at Beth-boron, and there an hoste met him out of Syria.

40 And Iudas pitched in [A]dafa with three thousand men, where Iudas prayed, saying,

41 O Lord, * because the messengers of the King Sennacherib blasphemed thee, thine Angel went forth, and slew an hundredth, fourecore and fife thousand of them.

42 So destroy thou this hoste before vs to day, that all other may know that he hath spoken wickedly against thy Sanctuarie, and punish him according to his malice.

43 So the armies ioyned together in battell, the thirteenth day of the month Adar: but Nicanors hoste was discomfited, and he himselfe was first slaine in the battell.

44 Nowe when his armie sawe that Nicanor was slaine, they cast away their weapons, and fled.

45 But they pursued after them a daies iourney from Adafa vnto Gadera, blowing an alarme with the trumpets after them.

46 So they came forth of all the townes of Iudea round about, and rushed vpon them, and threw them from one to another, so that they fell all by the sword, and there was not one of them left.

47 Then they tooke the spoiles and the pray, and smote off Nicanors head, and his right hand, which he held vp so proudly, and brought it with them, and hanged them vp afore Ierusalem.

48 So the people reioyced greatly, and kept that day as a day of great gladnesse.

49 And they ordeined to keep yereley that day on the thirteenth day of the month Adar.

50 Thus the lande of Iuda was in rest a little while.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Iudas considering the power and policie of the Romanes, made peace with them, 22 The conditions of mansuall friendship sent to the Grekes.

¶ Iudas heard also the fame of the Romanes, that they were mighty, and valiant, and agreeable to all things that were required of them, and made peace with all them that came vnto them,

2 And that they were men of great power, and they tolde him of their batells, and their worthie actes, which they did among the Galatians whom they had conquered, and made to pay tribute,

3 And what they had done in the countrey of Spaine: how that they had wonne there the mines of siluer and gold,

4 And that by their counsel, and gentle behaviour they were rulers in euery place, though the place was farre from them, and that they had discomfited, & giuen great ouerthrowes to the kings that came against them, from the uttermost part of the earth, and that others gaue them tribute euery yere,

5 Howe they had also discomfired by battell Phillip and Peres kings of the [M]acedonians, and others that arose against them, and howe they ouercame them,

8 Euen the country of India, and Media, and Lydia, and of his best countries, which they tooke of him, and gaue them to King Eumenes.

9 Again when it was told them that the Grecians were coming to destroy them,

10 They sent against them a capitaine, which gaue them battell, & slew many of them, & tooke many prisoners with their wiues, and children, & spoiled them, and conquered their land, and destroyed their strong holdes, and subdued them to be their bondmen, vnto this day:

11 Moreover, how they destroyed, & brought into subiection other kingdomes and yles, whose euer had withstood them:

12 But that they kept amitie with their owne friends, and those that stayed vpon them: finally, that they conquered kingdomes, both farre and neere, in such that whose euer heard of their renowne, was afraid of them,

13 For whom they would helpe to their kingdomes, those reigned, and whom they would, they put downe: thus were they in most high authority.

14 Yet for all this that none of them warre a crowne, neither was clothed in purple, to be magnified thereby,

15 But that they had ordeined themselves a counsell, wherein three hundredth and twenty men consulted daily, and provided for the common fautes, to gouerne them well,

16 And that they committed their gouernment to one man euery yere, who did rule ouer all their country, to whom euery man was obedient: and there was neither hatred nor enuy among them,

17 ¶ Then Iudas chose Eupolemus the sonne of Iohn, the sonne of Accus, and Iason the sonne of Eleazer, and sent the vnto Rome to make friendship, and mutuall fellowship with them,

18 That they might take from them the yoke (for they saw that the kingdome of the Grecians would kepe Israel in bondage.)

19 So they went vnto Rome, which was a very great journey, and came into the Senate, where they spake and said,

20 Iudas Maccabecus with his brethren, and the people of Iewes hath sent vs vnto you, to make a bond of friendship, and peace with you, and ye to register vs as your partakers and friends,

21 And the matter pleased them

22 And this is the copie of the epistle that they wrote in tables of brasse, and sent to Ierusalem, that they might haue by the a memoriall of the peace, and mutuall fellowship.

23 Good successe be to the Romans, and to the people of the Iewes, by sea, & by land for euer, & the sword, and enemie be from them.

24 If there come first any warre vpon the Romans, or any of their friends thorowout all their dominion,

25 The people of the Iewes shall helpe them, as the time shall be appointed, with all their heart,

26 Also if they shall giue nothing to them that come to fight for them, nor serue them with wheat nor weapons, nor money, nor ships, as it pleaseth the Romanes, but if they shall keepe their covenants without taking any thing of them.

27 Likewise also if warre come first against the nation of the Iewes, the Romanes shall helpe them with a good will, according as the time shall be appointed them, 28 Neither shall wheat be giuen vnto them, that take their part, nor weapons, nor monie, nor ships, as it pleaseth the Romanes, who will keepe their covenants without deceit.

29 According to these articles the Romanes made the bond with the people of the Iewes.

30 If after these points the one partie, or the other will adde or diminish, they may do it, at their pleasures, and what soeuer they shall adde, or take away, shall be ratified.

31 And as touching the euill that Demetrius hath done vnto the Iewes, we haue writte vnto him, saying, Wherefore liest thou thine heauy yoke vpon our friends, and confederates the Iewes?

32 If therefore they complain any more against thee, we will do them iustice, and fight with thee by sea and by land.

CHAP. IX.

1 After the death of Nicanor, Demetrius sendeth his army against Iudas. 18 Iudas is flour. 31 Jonathan is put in the stead of his brother. 47 The battell betwene Iudas and Bacchides. 55 Alcimus is smitten with the peasse, and with the 68 He cometh vpon Iudas by the counsel of certain wicked priuies, and is overcome. 70 The state of Jonathan with Bacchides.

IN the meane season when Demetrius had heard how Nicanor, and his host had giuen the battell, he sent Bacchides and Alcimus again vnto Iudaea, and his chief strength with them.

2 So they went forth by the way that is toward Galgala, and pitched their tents before Mefaloth which is in Arbelis, and wanit, and slew much people.

3 And in the first moneth of the hundredth, fifty and two yere, they layed their siege against Ierusalem.

4 But they raised their campe, and came to Beza, with twenty thousand men and two thousand horsemen.

5 Now Iudas had pitched his tent at Elcafa, for, Leifsa and three thousand chosen men with him.

6 And when they saw that the multitude of the armie was great, they were sore afraid, & many coueied themselves out of the hoste, so that there abode no mo of them, but eight hundred men.

7 When Iudas saw that his host failed him, and that he must needs fight, he was sore troubled in mind that he had no time to gather the together, and was discouraged.

8 Neuertheles, he said vnto them that remained, Let vs rise, and goe vp against our enemies, if peradventure we may be able to fight with them.

9 But they would haue stayed him, saying, Wee are not able: but let vs rather saue our liues: I turne backe now, seeing our brethren are departed: for shall we fight against them, that are so few?

10 Then Iudas said, God forbid, that we should do this thing, to flee from them: if our time bee come, let vs die manfully for our brethren, & let vs not staine our honour.

11 Then the host removed out of the tents, & stood against the, who had diuided their horsemen into two troups, and they that threw with slings, and the archers marched in the foreward, & they that fought in the foreward, were all valiant men.

12 And Bacchides was in the right vinge. So the armie drew neere on both sides, and blew the trumpets.

13 They

13 They of Iudas side blew the trumpets also, and the earth shooke at the noise of the armie, & the battell continued from morning to night.

14 And when Iudas saw that Bacchides and the strength of his armie was on the right side, hee tooke with him all the hardy men,

15 And drake the right wing, and followed vpon them vnto mount Azotus.

16 Now when they which were of the left wing saw that the right wing was discomfited, they followed Iudas behind, and them that were with him hard at the heels.

17 Then was there a fore battel: for many were slaine of both the parties.

18 Iudas also himselfe was killed, and the remnant fled.

19 So Ionathan and Simon tooke Iudas their brother, and buried him in his fathers sepulchre in the citie of Modin.

20 And all y^e Israelites wept for him, & mourned greatly for him, & lamented many daies, saying,

21 How is the valiant man fallen which deliuered Israel!

22 Concerning the other things of Iudas, both the battells and the valiant acts that he did, and of his worthines, they are not written: for they were very many.

23 ¶ Now after the death of Iudas, wicked men came vp in all the coasts of Israel, and there arose all such as gaue themselves to iniquitie.

24 In those daies was there a very great famine in the land, and all the countrey gaue ouer themselves with them.

25 And Bacchides did chuse wicked men, and made them lords in the land.

26 These sought out, and made search for Iudas friends, & brought them vnto Bacchides, which auenged himselfe vpon them, and mocked them.

27 And there came fo great trouble in Israel, as was not since the time that no Prophet was seene among them.

28 Then came all Iudas friends together, and said vnto Ionathan,

29 Seeing thy brother Iudas is dead, and there is none like him to go forth against our enemies, euen against Bacchides, and against them of our nation that are enemies vnto vs,

30 Therefore, this day we chuse thee, that thou mayest be our Prince and captaine in his place, to order our battell.

31 So Ionathan tooke the gouernance vpon him at the same time, and ruled in stead of his brother Iudas.

32 But when Bacchides knew it, he sought for to slay him.

33 Then Ionathan and Simon his brother, perceiving that, fled into y^e wilderness of Thecuah with all their company, and pitched their tents, by the water poole of Asphar.

34 Wh^{en} when Bacchides vnderstoode, hee came ouer Iordan with all his host vpon the Sabbath day.

35 (Now had Ionathan sent his brother Iohn, a captain of the people, to pray his friends the Nabathites, y^e they would keepe their baggage which was much.

36 But the children of y^e Ambri came out of Medaba, and tooke Iohn, & all that he had, and when they had taken y^e, went their way.

37 After this came word vnto Ionathan, and to Simon his brother, that the children of Ambri made a great marriage, & brought the bride from y^e Medaba with great pompe: for she was daughter to one of the noblest Princes of Canaan.

38 Therefore they remembered Iohn their brother, and went vp, and hid themselves vnder the couert of the mountaine.

39 So they lift vp their eyes, & looked, and behold, there was a great noise, and much preparation: then the bridegrome came forth, and his friends and his brethren met them with timbrels, and instruments of musike, and many weapons.

40 Then Ionathans men y^e lay in ambush, rose vp against them, and slew many of them, and the remnant fled into the mountaines, so that they tooke all their spoiles.

41 Thus y^e marriage was turned to mourning, and the noise of their melody into lamentation.

42 And so when they had auenged the blood of their brother, they turned againe vnto Iordan.

43 When Bacchides heard this, he came vnto the border of Iordan with a great power vpon the Sabbath day.)

44 Then Ionathan said vnto his cosen, Let vs rise now, and fight against our enemies: for it is not to dayes in time past.

45 Behold, the battell is before vs, and behinde vs, and the water of Iordan on this side and that side, and the marish, and forest, so that there is no place for vs to turne aside.

46 Wherefore crye now vnto heauen, that ye may be deliuered from the power of your enemies: so they ioyned battell.

47 Then Ionathan stretched out his hand to smite Bacchides: but he turned aside from him and recoled.

48 Then Ionathan, & they that were with him, leapt into Iordan, & swimmmed ouer vnto the further bank: but the other would not passe thorow Iordan after them.

49 So in that day were slaine of Bacchides side about a thousand men.

50 Then he turned againe to Ierusalem, & breik vp the strong cities in Iuda, as the castle of Iericho, and Emmaus, and Bethoron, & Bethel, and Thamnatha, y^e Pharaohoi, and y^e Tepho, with high walles, with gates, and with barres.

51 And hee garisons in them, that they might see their malice vpon Israel.

52 He fortified also the citie of Beth-sura, and Gazars, and the castle, and set a garison in them with prouision of vitayles.

53 He tooke also the chiefeest mens sonnes in the countrey for hostages, and put them in the castle at Ierusalem to be kept.

54 ¶ Afterward in the hundredth fiftie & three yere, in the second moneth, Alcimus commanded, that the walles of y^e inner court of the Sanctuary should be destroyed, & he pulled down the monuments of the Prophets, & began to destroy them.

55 But at the same time Alcimus was plagued, and his enterprises were hindered, and his mouth was stopp'd: for he was smitten with a palfie, and could no more speake, nor giue order concerning his house.

56 Thus died Alcimus with great torment at the same time.

57 And when Bacchides saw that Alcimus was dead, he turned againe to the king, and so the land of Iuda was in rest two yeres.

58 Then all the vngodly men held a counsell, saying, Behold, Ionathan & his company dwell at ease, and without care: wherefore let vs bring Bacchides hither, & we will take them al in one night.

59 So they went and consulted with him.

60 Who arose & came with a great hoste, and sent letters priuily to his adherents, which were in Iudea, to take Ionathan and those that were with him: but they could not, for their counsell was known vnto them.

61 And if theyooke fisie men of the country, which were the chiefe workors of this wickednes, and slew them.

62 ¶ Then Ionathan and Simon with their companie departed vnto Beth-basin which is in the wilderness, and repaired the decay thereof, and made it strong.

63 When Bacchides knew this, he gathered all his hoste, & sent word to the that were of Iudea.

64 Then came he and laid siege to Beth-basin, and fought against it a long season, and made instruments of warre.

65 But Ionathan had left his brother Simon in the cite, and went forth into the country, and came with a certaine number,

66 And slewe Odometras & his brethren and the children of Phasiron in their tents: so hee began to slay, and increased in power.

67 Simon also and his companie went out of the cite, and turne vp the instruments of warre,

68 And fought against Bacchides, & discomfited him, and vexed him sore, so that his counsell and journey was in vaine.

69 Wherefore he was very wroth at 3 wicked men, that gaue him counsell to come into the country, and slew many of them, and purposed to returne into his owne country.

70 Wherof when Ionathan had knowledge, he sent Ambassadors vnto him, to intreate of peace with him, and if the prisoners should be deliuered.

71 Which thing he accepted, & did according to his desire, & made an othe, that hee would neuer doe him harme all the daues of his life.

72 So hee restored vnto him the prisoners that he had taken aforetime out of the lande of Iuda, and so returned and went into his owne land, neither did he come any more into their borders.

73 Thus the sword ceased from Israel, & Ionathan dwelt at Machmas, & began there to gouern the people, and destroyed the vngodly men out of Israel.

CHAP. X.

Demetrius desired to haue peace with Ionathan. 38 Alexander also desired peace with the Jewes. 48 Alexander made warre against Demetrius. 50 Demetrius vs. 51 The friendship of Ptolemee and Alexander.

¶ In the hundredth and threecore yere came Alexander the sonne of Antiochus Epiphanes, and took Ptolemas, and they receiued him, and there he reigned.

2 Now when Demetrius the King heard it, he gathered an exceeding great hoste, and went forth against him to fight.

3 Also Demetrius sent letters vnto Ionathan, with loving words, as though he would preferre him.

4 For he said, We will first make peace with him, before he ioyne with Alexander against vs.

5 His he will remember all the euill that we haue done against him, and against his brethren and his nation.

6 And so he gaue Ionathan leaue to gather an hoste, & to prepare weapons, and to be confederate with him, and commanded the hostages that were in the castle, to be deliuered vnto him.

7 ¶ Then came Ionathan to Ierusalem, and read the letters in the audience of al the people, and of them that were in the castle.

8 Therefore they were sore afraid, because they heard that the king had giuen him licence to gather an armie.

9 So they that were of the castle, deliuered the hostages vnto Ionathan, who restored them to their parents.

10 Ionathan also dwelt at Ierusalem, and began to build, and repaire the cite.

11 And he commanded the workmen to build the walles, and the mount Sion round about with hewen stone, to fortifie it: and so they did.

12 Then the strangers that were in the castles, which Bacchides had made, fled.

13 So that euery man left his place, and went into his owne country.

14 Onely at Beth Sura remained certain which had forsaken the Lawe, and the commandments: for it was their refuge.

15 ¶ Now when King Alexander had heard of the promises that Demetrius had made vnto Ionathan: and when it was told him of the battels and noble acts, which hee and his brethren had done, and of the paines that they had endured,

16 He said, Might we find such a man? now therefore we will make him our friend & confederate.

17 Vpon this he wrote a letter, and sent it vnto him, with these words, saying,

18 KING ALEXANDER to his brother Ionathan sendeth salutation.

19 We haue heard of thee, that thou art a very valiant man, and worthy to be our friend.

20 Wherefore this day we ordeine thee to be the high Priest of thy nation, and to be called the kings friend: (and he sent him a purple robe, and a crowne of gold) that thou maiest consider what is for our profit, and keepe friendship toward vs.

21 So in the seuenth moneth of the hundred & threecore yere, vpon the feast day of the tabernacles, Ionathan put on the holy garment, & gathered an hoste, and prepared many weapons.

22 ¶ Which when Demetrius heard, hee was marueilous sorie, and said,

23 What haue we done, that Alexander hath preuented vs in getting the friendship of the Iewes for his strength?

24 Yet will I write and exhort them, and promise them dignities and rewards, that they may helpe me.

25 Whereupon he wrote vnto the these words, KING DEMETRIUS vnto the nation of the Iewes Ieth greeting.

26 We haue heard that ye haue kept your covenant toward vs, & continued in our friendship, and haue not ioyned with our enemies, wherof we are glad.

27 Now therefore remaine still, and keep fidelitie toward vs, & we will recompense you for the good things that ye haue done for vs,

28 And will release you of many charges, and giue you rewards.

29 And now I discharge for your sake all the Iewes from tributes, & free you from the customers offsaile, and the crowne tax: and from the third part part of the feede.

30 And from the halfe of the fruite of the trees which is mine owne due tie, I so release them that from this day forth, none shall take any thing of the lande of Iuda, or of the three gouernments which are add. thereunto, as of Samaria and of Galile, from this day forth for euermore.

31 Ierusalem also with all things belonging thereto, shall be holy and free from the tents and tributes.

32 Also I release the power of the castle which is at Ierusalem, and giue it vnto the hie Priest, y he may set in it such men, as he shal chuse to keepe it.

33 Moreover I freely deliuer euery one of the Iewes y were taken away prisoners out of the land of Iuda throughout all my realme, & euery one of them shalbe free fro tributes, yea, euen their cattel.

34 And all the feastes, and Sabbaths, and newe Moones, and the dayes appointed, and the three dayes before the feast, and the three dayes after the feast, shall be dayes of freedome, and libertie for all the Iewes in my realme,

35 So that in them no man shal haue power to doe any thing, or to vexe any of them in any manner of cause.

36 Also thirtie thousand of the Iewes shall be writen vp in the kings hoste, & haue their wages payed them, as appertaineth to all them that are of the Kings armie: and of them shalbe ordeyned certeyne to keepe the Kings strong holds.

37 And some of them shalbe set ouer the kings most secrett affaires, and their gouernours & their Princes shalbe of themselves, and they shall liue after their owne lawes, as the King hath commanded in the land of Iuda.

38 And the three gouernments that are added vnto Iuda from the cuntry of Samaria, shalbe ioyned vnto Iuda, and they shalbe as vnder one, and obey none other power, but the hie Priest.

39 And I giue Ptolemas and the borders thereof vnto the Sanctuarie at Ierusalem, for the necessary expences of the holy things.

40 Moreover, I will giue euery yere fiftene thousand sicles of siluer of the Kings reuenues out of the places appertaining vnto me.

41 And all the ouerplus which they haue not paid for the things due, as they did in the former yeeres, from henceforth they shall giue it toward the works of the Temple.

42 And besides this, the fise thousand sicles of siluer which they receiued yereley of the account appointed for the interteiment of the Sanctuarie these yeres past, euen these things shalbe released because they appertaine to y Priests that minister.

43 Item, whosoever they be that flee vnto the Temple at Ierusalem, or within the liberties thereof, and are inderted to the King for any manner of thing, they shalbe pardoned, and all that they haue in my Realme.

44 For the building also and repairing of the workes of the Sanctuarie, expences shalbe giuen of the Kings reuenues.

45 And for the making of the walles of Ierusalem, and fortifying it round about, that the holds in Iuda may be built vp, shal also the costs be giuen out of the Kings reuenues.

46 ¶ But when Ionathan and the people heard these words, they gaue no credit vnto this, neither accepted them: for they remembered the great wickednesse that he had done in Israel, and how soon he had vexed them.

47 Wherefore they agreed vnto Alexander for he was the first y had intreated of true peace with them, and so were confederate with him alway.

48 Then gathered King Alexander a great hoste, and camped ouer against Demetrius.

49 So the two Kings ioyned battell, ut Demetrius hoste fled, and Alexander pursued him, and preuailed against them.

50 So that fore battell continued till the sunne went downe, & Demetrius was slaine the same day.

51 ¶ Then Alexander sent Ambassadors vnto Ptolemus the king of Egypt with these words, 149b. 149c.

faying, 52 For so much as I am come againe to my Realme, and am set in the throne of my fathers, & haue gotten the dominion, and haue destroyed Demetrius, and enjoy my cuntry,

53 Seeing that I haue euen giuen him the batel, and he and his armie is discomfited by me, and I sit in the throne of his kingdome,

54 Let vs now make friendship together, and giue me now thy daughter to wife: so that I be thy sonne in law, and giue thee rewards, and vnto her things according to thy dignitie.

55 Then Ptolemus the King gaue answer, faying, Happie be the day, wherein thou art come againe vnto the land of thy fathers, and sittest in the throne of thy kingdome.

56 Now therefore wil I fulfill thy writing: but meete me at Ptolemas that we may see one another, and that I may make thee my sonne in law, according to thy desire.

57 So Ptolemus went out of Egypt with his daughter Cleopatra, and came vnto Ptolemas in the hundreth threecore and two yere, 58 Where king Alexander met him, & he gaue vnto him his daughter Cleopatra, & named her at Ptolemas w great glory, as the manner of kings is.

59 ¶ Then wrote King Alexander vnto Ionathan, that he should come and meet him.

60 So hee went honourably vnto Ptolemas, and there he met the two kings, and gaue them great presents of siluer and gold, and to their friends, and found fauour in their sight.

61 And there assembled certeyne pestilent fellows of Israel, & wicked men to accuse him: but the king would not heare them.

62 And the king commanded that they should take off the garments of Ionathan, and clothe him in purple, and so they did: and the king appointed him to sit by him,

63 And said vnto his Princes, Go with him into the mids of the cite, & make a proclamation, that no man complaine against him of any matter, and that no man trouble him for any manner of cause.

64 So when his accusers saw his honour according as it was proclaimed, and that hee was clothed in purple, they fled all away.

65 And the king preferred him to honour, and wrote him among his chief friends, and made him a Duke, and partaker of his dominion.

66 Thus Ionathan returned to Ierusalem with peace and gladnesse.

67 ¶ In the hundreth threecore and fise yere came Demetrius the sonne of Demetrius, from Creta into his fathers land.

68 Whereof when King Alexander heard, he was very sorie, and returned vnto Antiochia.

69 Then Demetrius appointed Apollonius the gouernour.

governour of Cælofryia, who gathered a great hoste, and camped in Iamnia, and sent vnto Ionathan the hie Priest, saying,

70 Dar'eft thou, beeing but alone, lift vp thy selfe against vs? and I am laughed at, & reproched, because of thee: now therefore why dost thou vaunt thy selfe against vs in the mountaines?

71 Now then if thou trust in thine own strength, come downe to vs into the plaine field, and there let vs trie the matter together: for I haue the strength of ciuils.

72 Aske and learne who I am, and they shall take my part: & they shall tel thee that your foote is not able to stand before our face: for thy fathers haue bene twice chafed in their owne land.

73 And now how wilt thou be able to abide so great an hoste of horsemen and footemen in the plaine, where is neither stone, nor rocke, nor place to flee vnto?

74 When Ionathan hearde the wordes of Apollonius, he was moued in his minde: wherefore he chose ten thousand men, and went out of Ierusalem, and Simon his brother mette him for to helpe him,

75 And he pitched his tents at Ioppe: but they shut him out of the citie: for Apollonius garison was in Ioppe.

76 Then they fought against it, and they that were in the citie, for very feare let him in: so Ionathan wanne Ioppe.

77 Apollonius hearing of this, took three thousand horsemen with a great hoste of foote men, and went toward Azotus, as though he would go forward, and came immediately into the plaine field, because he had so many horsemen, and put his trust in them.

78 So Ionathan followed vpo him to Azotus, and the armie skirmished with his arriere band.

79 For Apollonius had left a thousand horsemen behinde them in ambush.

80 And Ionathan knew that there was an ambushment behinde him: and though they had compassed in his hoste, and shot darts at the people from the morning to the euening,

81 Yet the people stood still, as Ionathan had commanded them, till their horses were wearie.

82 Then brought Simon forth his hoste, and set them against the band: but the horses were weary, and he discomfited them, and they fled: so the horsemen were scattered in the field.

83 And they fled to Azotus, and came into the temple of Dagon their idole, that they might there saue themselves.

84 But Ionathan set fire vpon Azotus and all the cities round about it, and tooke their spoiles, and burnt with fire the temple of Dagon with all them that were fled into it.

85 Thus were slaine and burnt about eight thousand men.

86 So Ionathan remoued his hoste from thence, and camped by Ascalon, where the men of the citie came forth, and met him with great honour.

87 After this went Ionathan and his hoste againe to Ierusalem, with great spoiles.

88 And when King Alexander hearde these things, he began to doe Ionathan more honour.

89 And sent him a collar of gold, as the vse is to be giuen vnto such as are of the Kings blood: he gaue him also Accaron, with the borders thereof in possession.

C H A P. XI.

The diffraction betwene Ptolemus and Alexander his sonne in lawe. 17 The death of Alexander. 19 Demetrius reigneth after the death of Ptolemus. 22 Sien is besieged of Jonathan. 42 Demetrius seeing that no man resisted him, smother his aunt strabus. 55 Tryphon smother Antiochus against Demetrius.

And the king of Egypt gathered a great hoste, like the sand that licti vpon the sea shore, and many shippes, and went about through deceit to obtaine the kingdome of Alexander, and to ioine it vnto his owne Realme.

1 Upon this he went into Syria with friendly words, and was let into the cities, and men came forth to meete him for king Alexander had commanded them to meete him, because he was his father in lawe.

3 Now when he entred into the citie of Ptolemis, he left bands and garisons in euery citie.

4 And when hee came nere to Azotus, they shewed him the temple of Dagon that was burnt, and Azotus, and the suburbs therof that were destroyed, and the bodies cast abroad, and them that hee had burnt in the battell: for they had made heapes of them by the way where he should passe.

5 And they told the king what Ionathan had done, to the intent they might get him euill will: but the king held his peace.

6 And Ionathan met the king with great honour at Ioppe, where they saluted one another, and lay there.

7 So when Ionathan had gone with the king vnto the water that was called Eleutherus, he turned againe to Ierusalem.

8 So King Ptolemus gaue the domination of the cities by the sea vnto Seleucia vpo the sea coast, imagining wicked counsels against Alexander.

9 ¶ And sent Ambassadors vnto King Demetrius, saying, Come, let vs make a league betwene vs, and I will giue thee my daughter, which Alexander hath, and thou shalt reigne in thy fathers kingdome.

10 For I repent that I gaue Alexander my daughter: for he goeth about to slay me.

11 Thus he slandered Alexander, as one that should desire his realme.

12 And he tooke his daughter from him, and gaue her vnto Demetrius, & forsooke Alexander, so that their hatred was openly known.

13 Then Ptolemus came to Antiochia, where hee set two crownes vpon his owne head, of Asia and of Egypt.

14 In the meane season was King Alexander in Cilicia: for they that dwell in those places, had rebelled against him.

15 But when Alexander heard it, hee came to warre against him, and Ptolemus brought forth his hoste, and met him with a mightie power, and put him to flight.

16 Then fled Alexander into Arabia, there to be defended: so Ptolemus was exalted.

17 And Zabdiel the Arabian smote off Alexanders head, and sent it vnto Ptolemus.

18 But the third day after, king Ptolemus died: and they that were in the holds, were slaine one of another.

19 And Demetrius reigned in the hundredth, threecore and seuenth yeere.

20 ¶ At the same time gathered Ionathan them that were in Iudea, to lay siege vnto castle, which was at Ierusalem, & they made many instruments of warre against it.

21 Then went there certaine vngodly persons (which hated their own people) vnto King Demetrius, & told him that Ionathan besieged γ castle.

22 So when he heard it, he was angry, and immediately came vnto Ptolemias, and wrote vnto Ionathan, that he should lay no more siege vnto it, but that hee should meete him and speake with him at Ptolemias in all haste.

23 Neuerthelesse when Ionathan heard this, he commanded to besiege it: he chose also certaine of the Elders of Israel, and the Priests, and put himselfe in danger.

24 And tooke with him siluer & gold, and apparel, and diuers presents, and went to Ptolemias vnto the King, and found fauour in his sight.

25 And though certaine vngodly men of his owne nation had made complaints vpon him,

26 Yet the king intreated him as his predecessor had done, and promoted him in the sight of all his friends.

27 And confirmed him in the same priesthoode with all the honourable things, that he had afore, and made him his chiefe friend.

28 Ionathan also desired the king, that he would make Iudea free with the three gouernments, and the countrey of Samaria, and Ionathan promised him three hundred talents.

29 Whereunto the king consented, and gaue Ionathan writing of the same, containing these wordes, 30 KING DEMETRIUS vnto his brother Ionathan, and to the nation of the Iewes sendeth greeting.

31 Wee send you heere a copie of the letter which wee did write vnto our cousin Lathenes concerning you, that ye should see it.

32 King Demetrius vnto Lathenes his father, sendeth greeting.

33 For the faithfulness that our friends the nation of the Iewes keepe vnto vs, and for their good will towards vs, we are determined to doe them good.

34 Wherefore we assigne to them the coasts of Iudea with the three gouernments, Apherema, and Lydda, and Ramathe (which are added vnto Iudea from the countrey of Samaria) and all that appertaineth to al them that sacrifice in Ierusalem: both concerning the payments which the King tooke yeerely aforetime, both for the fruits of the earth, and for the fruites of the trees.

35 As for the other things appertaining vnto vs of the tenths & tributes, which were due vnto vs, and the customes of salt, and crowne taxes, which were payed vnto vs, we discharge them of all from henceforth.

36 And nothing hereof shalbe reuoked from this time forth and for euer.

37 Therefore see that ye make a copy of these things, & deliuer it vnto Ionathan, that it may be set vp vpon the holy mount in an open place.

38 After this when Demetrius the King saw that his land was in rest, and that no resistance was made against him, he sent away all his hoste euery man to his owne place, except certaine bandes of strangers, whom he brought from the yles of the heathen: wherefore all his fathers hoste hated him.

39 Now was there one Tryphon, that had bene of Alexanders part afore, which when he saw that al the hoste murmured against Demetrius, he went to \parallel Simacue the Arabian, that brought vp Antiochus the sonne of Alexander.

40 And lay sore vpon him, to deliuer him this yong Antiochus, that he might reign in his fathers steade: he tolde him also what great euill Demetrius had done, and howe his men of warre hated him, and he remained there a long season.

41 Also Ionathan sent vnto King Demetrius to driue them out which were in the castle at Ierusalem, and those that were in the fortresses: for they fought against Israel.

42 So Demetrius sent vnto Ionathan, saying, I will not onely doe these things for thee, and thy nation, but if opportunitie serue, I will honour thee, and thy nation.

43 Nowe therefore thou shalt doe me a pleasure, if thou wilt send me men to helpe me: for all mine armie is gone from me.

44 So Ionathan sent him three thousand strong men vnto Antiochia, and they came vnto the King: wherefore the King was very glad at their coming.

45 ¶ But they that were of the citie, euen an hundred and twentie thousande men, gathered them together in the mids of the citie, and would haue slaine the King.

46 But the king fled into the palace, and the citizens kept the streets of the citie, and began to fight.

47 Then the king called to the Iewes for help, which came to him all together, and went abroad through the citie.

48 And slew the same day an hundred and threescore, and set fire vpon the citie, and tooke many spoiles in that day, and deliuered the king.

49 So when the citizens saw that γ Iewes had gotten the vpper hand of the citie, and that they theselves were disappointed of their purpose, they made their supplication vnto the king, saying,

50 ¶ Graunt vs peace, and let the Iewes cease from vexing vs and the citie.

51 So they cast away their weapons, & made peace, & the Iewes were greatly honoured before the King, and before all that were in his Realme, & they came again to Ierusalem with great pray.

52 Then King Demetrius fate in the throne of his kingdom, and had peace in his land.

53 Neuerthelesse he dissembled in all that euer he spake, and withdrew himselfe from Ionathan, neither did hee reward him according to the benefites which hee had done for him, but troubled him very fore.

54 ¶ After this returned Tryphon with the yong childe Antiochus, which reigned, and was crowned.

55 Then there gathered vnto him all the men of warre, whom Demetrius had scattered, & they fought against him, whom hee fled and turned his back.

56 So Tryphon tooke the \parallel beasts, and wanne Antiochia.

57 And yong Antiochus wrote vnto Ionathan, saying, I appoint thee to be the chiefe Priest, and make thee ruler ouer the foure gouernments, that thou maiest be a friend of the kings.

58 Vpon this he sent him golden vessels to be seruel in, & gaue him leaue to drinke in gold, and to weare purple, and to haue a collar of gold.

59 He made his brother Simon alio capitaine from the coasts of Tyrus vnto γ borders of Egypt.

60 Then Ionathan went forth, and passed thorow

abow the cities beyond the flood, & all the men of warre of Syria gathered vnto him for to helpe him; so he came to Afsalon, and they of the city receiued him honourably.

61 And from thence went he vnto Gaza : but they of Gaza (that him out: wherefor he laid siege vnto it, and burned the suburbs thereof with fire, and spoyleth them.

62 Then they of Gaza made supplication vnto Jonathan, & he made peace with them, & tooke of the sonnes of the chiefe men for hostages, and sent them to Ierusalem, & went thorow the country vnto Damascus.

63 And when Jonathan heard that Demetrius princes were come into Cades, which is in Galile, with a great host, purposing to driue him out of the country,

64 Hee came against them, and left Simon his brother in the country.

65 And Simon besieged Beth-sura, and fought against it a long season, and shut it vp.

66 So they desired to haue peace with him, which he granted them, and afterward put them from thence, and tooke the citie, and set a garison in it.

67 Then Jonathan with his hoste came to the water of Genesar, & betimes in the morning came to the plaine of Azor.

68 And behold the hostes of the strangers met him in the plaine, and had layd ambushments for him in the mountaines.

69 So that when they came against them, the ambushments rose out of their places & skirmished.

70 So that all that were of Jonathans side, fled: and there was not one of them left, except Matusias the sonne of J Abalomus, and Iudas the sonne of Calphi the captaines of the hoste.

71 Then Jonathan rent his clothes, and cast earth vpon his head, and praied, 72 And turned againe to them to fight, and put them to flight, so that they fled away.

73 Now when his owne men that were fled, saw this, they turned againe vnto him, & helped him to follow after all vnto their tents at Cades, and there they camped.

74 So there were slain of the strangers the same day about three thousand men, and Jonathan turned againe to Ierusalem.

CHAP. XII.

1 Jonathan sendeth ambassadours to Rome, 2 And to the people of Sparta to renew their covenant of friendship. 24 Jonathan putteth to fight the princes of Demetrius. 40 Tryphon taketh Jonathan by deceit.

Jonathan now seeing that y^e time was meete for him, choise certain men, & sent the vnto Rome, to establish and renew the friendship with them.

2 He sent letters also vnto the Spartians and to other places, for the same purpose.

3 So they went vnto Rome, & entred into the Senate, and sayd, Jonathan the high Priest and the nation of the Iewes sent vs vnto you, for to renew friendship with you, and the bond of loue, as in times past.

4 So the Romanes gaue them free passports, that men should lead them home into the land of Iudas peaceably.

5 AND THIS is the copie of the letters that Jonathan wrote vnto the Spartians,

6 Jonathan the high Priest with the Elders of the nation, and the Priests, and the rest of the people of the Iewes, send greeting vnto the Spartians their brethren.

7 Heretofore were letters sent vnto Onias the high Priest, from Arius, which then reigned among you, that ye would be our brethren, as the copie hereunder written sheweth.

8 And Onias intreated the ambassadour honourably, & receiued the letters: wherein there was mention made of the bond of loue & friendship.

9 But as for vs, we neede no such writings: for we haue the holy books in our hands for comfort.

10 Neuertheles we thought it good to send vnto you, for the renewing of the brotherhood and friendship, least we should be strange vnto you: for it is long since the time that ye sent vnto vs.

11 Wherefore we remember you at all seasons continually, & in the feasts & other daies appointed, where we offer sacrifices & prayers, as it is meete and conuenient to thinke vpon our brethren.

12 And we reioyce at your prosperous estate.

13 And though wee haue bene inuironed with great troubles and warres, so that the kings round about vs haue fought against vs,

14 Yet would we not be grieuous vnto you, nor to other of our confederates and friends in these warres.

15 For we haue had helpe from heauen, that hath succoured vs, and we are deliuered from our enemies, and our enemies are full dued.

16 Yet haue we chosen Nicanus the sonne of Antiochus, & Antipater the sonne of Iason, & sent them vnto the Romanes, for to renew the former friendship with them, and league.

17 We commanded them also to go vnto you, and to salute you, and to deliuer you our letters, concerning the renewing of our brotherhood.

18 And now ye shall doe vs a pleasure to giue vs an answer of these things.

19 ¶ And this was the copie of the letters, which Arius the King of Sparta sent vnto Onias.

20 THE KING of the Spartians vnto Onias the high Priest sendeth greeting.

21 It is found in writing, that the Spartians and Iewes are brethren, and come out of the generation of Abraham.

22 And now for so much as this is come to our knowledge, ye shall doe well, to write vnto vs of your prosperity.

23 As for vs we haue written vnto you, that your cattell and goods are ours, & ours are yours: these things haue we commanded to be shewed vnto you.

24 ¶ Now when Jonathan heard, that Demetrius princes were come to fight against him, with a greater hoste then afore,

25 He went from Ierusalem, and met them in the land of Hamath: for he gaue them not space to come into his owne country.

26 And he sent spies vnto their tents, which came againe, and told him, that they were appointed to come vpon him in the night.

27 Wherefore when the sun was gone downe, Jonathan commanded his men to watch, and to be in armes ready to fight all the night, and sent watchmen round about the hoste.

28 But when the aduersaries heard that Jonathan was ready with his men to the battell, they feared, and trembled in their hearts, and kindled fires in their tents, and fled away.

knew it not till the morning: for they saw fiers burning.

30 Then Ionathan followed vpon them, but he could not ouertake them: for they were gone ouer the flood Eleutherus.

31 So Ionathan turned to the Arabians, which were called Zabedei, and slewed them, and tooke their spoile.

32 He proceeded further also, and came vnto Damascus, and went thorow all the country.

33 But Simon his brother went forth, & came to Afcalon, and to the next holds, departing vnto Ioppe, and wan it.

34 For he heard that they would deliuer the hold to them that tooke Demetrius part: wherefore he set a garison there to keepe it.

35 ¶ After this came Ionathan home, and called the Elders of the people together, and deuised wth them for to build vp the strong holds in Iudea,

36 And to make the walles of Ierusalem hyer, and to make a great mount betwixt the castel and the citie, for to separate it from the citie, that it might be alone, and that men should neither buy nor sell in it.

37 So they came together to build vp the city: for part of the wall vpon the brooke of the East side was fallen downe, and they repaired it, and called it Caphenatha.

38 Simon also set vp Adida in Sephela, & made it strong with gates and barres.

39 ¶ In the meane time Tryphon purposed to reigne in Asia, & to be crowned when he had slain the King Antiochus.

40 But he was afraid that Ionathan would not suffer him, but fight against him: wherefore he went about to take Ionathan, and to kill him: so he departed, and came vnto Bethsan.

41 Then went Ionathan forth against him to the battell with fortie thousand chosen men, and came vnto Bethsan.

42 But when Tryphon saw that Ionathan came with so great an hoste, he durst not lay hand vpon him,

43 But receiued him honourably, and comended him vnto all his friends, & gaue him rewards, and commanded his men of warre to be as obedient vnto him as to himselfe.

44 And sayd vnto Ionathan, Why hast thou caused this people to take such trauail, seeing there is no warre betwene vs?

45 Therefore send them now home again, and chuse certaine men to waite vpon thee, & come thou with me to Ptolemais: for I wil giue it thee, with the other strong holds, & the other garisons, and all them that haue the charge of the common affairs: so wil I returne, and depart: for this is the cause of my coming.

46 Ionathan beleued him, and did as he said, and sent away his hoste, which went into the land of Iuda,

47 And reteneid but three thousand with him, whereof he sent two thousand into Galile, and one thousand went with himselfe.

48 Now as soon as Ionathan entred into Ptolemais, they of Ptolemais shut the gates, & tooke him, and slew all them with the sword, that came in with him.

49 Then sent Tryphon an hoste of footmen, and horsemen into Galile, & into the great plaine to destroy all Ionathans company.

50 But when they knew that Ionathan was taken, and slaine, and those that were with him, they encouraged one another, and came forth against them ready to the battell.

51 But when they which followed vpon them, saw that it was a matter of life, they turned backe againe.

52 By this meane as they came into the land of Iuda peaceably, and bewailed Ionathan, and them that were with him, and feared greatly, & all Israel made great lamentation.

53 For all the heathen that were round about them, sought to destroy them.

54 For they sayd, now haue they no captain, nor any man to helpe them, therefore let vs now fight against them, and roote out their memory from among men.

CHAP. XIII.

1 After Ionathan was taken, Simon a chosen captain. 17 Tryphon taking his children, and many for the redemption of Ioseph, killed him and his children. 31 Tryphon killed Antiochus, and possessed the Realm. 38 Demetrius sat in the tower of Sion. 43 Simon was with Gazze. 50 He possessed the tower of Sion. 53 He made his house Iudas captain.

NOW when Simon heard that Tryphon had gathered a great hoste to come into the land of Iuda, and to destroy it,

2 And saw that the people was in great trembling and feare, he came vp to Ierusalem, & gathered the people together,

3 And gaue them exhortation, saying, Ye know what great things I, and my brethren, and my fathers house haue done for the Law & the Sanctuary, and the battells, and troubles that we haue scene.

4 By reason whereof all my brethren are slaine for Israels sake, and I am left alone.

5 Now therefore God forbid, that I should spare mine owne life in any time of trouble: for I am not better then my brethren,

6 But I wil avenge my nation, & the Sanctuary, & our wiues, and our children: for all the heathen are gathered together to destroy vs of very malice

7 In hearing these wordes the hearts of the people were kindled,

8 So that they cryed with a loud voice, saying, Thou shalt be our captain in stead of Iudas and Ionathan thy brethren.

9 Fight thou our battels, and whatsoever thou commandest vs, we will doe it.

10 ¶ So he gathered all the men of warre, making hast to finish the walles of Ierusalem, and fortified it round about,

11 Then sent he Ionathan the sounne of Abisalomus wth a great host vnto Ioppe, which droue them out that were therein, and remained there himselfe.

12 Tryphon also remoued from Ptolemais with a great armie, to come into the land of Iuda, and Ionathan was with him as prisoner.

13 And Simon pitched his tents at Adidias vpon the open plaine.

14 But when Tryphon knew that Simon stood vp in stead of his brother Ionathan, and that he would fight against him, he sent messengers vnto him, saying,

15 Whereas we haue kept Ionathan thy brother, it is for money that hee is owing in the Kings account concerning the busines that he had in hand.

16 Wherefore send now an hundred talents of silver, and his two sonnes for hostages, that when he is letten forth, he will not turne from vs, and wec

we will send him againe.

17 Neurtherles Simon knew f he dissembled in his words, yet commanded he the money and children to be deliuered vnto him, least he should be in greater hatred of the people of Israel,

18 Who might haue said, Because he sent him not the money and the children, therefore is Jonathan dead,

19 So he sent the children and an hundred talents: but he dissembled, and would not let Jonathan goe.

20 ¶ Afterward came Tryphon into the land to destroy it, and went rounde about by the way, that leadeth vnto Adora: but whereloeuer they went, thither went Simon and his hoste.

21 Now they that were in the castle, sent messengers vnto Tryphon that he should make haste to come by the wilderness, & to send the vitayles.

22 So Tryphon made ready all his horsemen: but the same night fell a very great snowe, so that he came not because of the snow: but hee remooued and went into the country of Galaad.

23 And when he came neere to Bascarna, hee slew Jonathan, and was buried there.

24 So Tryphon returned, and went into his owne land.

25 ¶ Then sent Simon to take the bones of Jonathan his brother, and they buried him in Modin his fathers citie.

26 And all Israel bewailed him with great lamentation, and mourned for him very long.

27 And Simon made vpon the sepulchre of his father & his brethren, a building like to looke vnto, of heauen stone behinde and before,

28 And set vp seuen pillars vpon it, one against another, for his father, his mother, and foure brethren,

29 And set great pillars round about them, & set armes vpon the pillars for perpetuall memory, & carued ships beside the armes, that they might be scene of men sailing in the sea.

30 This sepulchre which hee made at Modin, standeth yet vnto this day.

31 ¶ Nowe as Tryphon went forth with the yong King Antiochus, he slew him traiterously, 32 And reigned in his stead, and crowned him selfe king of Asia, and brought a great plague vpon the land.

33 Simon also built vp the castles of Iudea, & compassed them about with his towers, & great walles, euen with towers, and gates, and barres, and laid vp vitayles in the strong holds.

34 Moreover Simon chose certain men & sent them to King Demetrius, that he would discharge the land: for all Tryphons doings were robberies.

35 Whereupon Demetrius the King answered him, and wrote vnto him after this maner, 36 DEMETRIUS the king vnto Simo the hie Priest, & the friend of kings, & to the Elders and to the nation of the Iewes sendeth greeting.

37 The golden crown, & the precious stone that ye sent vnto vs, haue we receiued, and are ready to make a stedfast peace with you, and to write vnto the officers to release you of the things wherein we made you free.

38 So the things that wee haue granted you, shall be stable: the strong holdes which yee haue builded, shall be your owne.

39 Also we forgie the ouersights, and faulces committed vnto this day, & the crowne tax that ye ought vs: and whereas was any other tribute in Ierusalem, it shall be now no tribute.

40 And they that are meete among you to be written with our men, let them be written vp, that there may be peace betwene vs.

41 Thus the yoke of the heathen was taken from Israel in the hundred and seuentie yeere.

42 And the people of Israel began to write in their letters, and publike instruments, IN THE FIRST YEERE of Simon, the hie and chief Priest gouernour and prince of the Iewes.

43 In those daies Simon camped against Gaza, and besieged it round about, where he set vp an engine of warre, and approached neere the citie, and beate a tower, and tooke it.

44 So they that were in the engine, leapt into the citie, and there was great trouble in the citie.

45 Insomuch that the people of the citie rent their clothes, and climbed vp vpon the walles with their wiues, and children, and cried with a loud voice, beseeching Simon to graunt them peace, saying,

46 Deale not with vs according to our wickednes, but according to thy mercy.

47 Then Simon pitied them, & would fight no more against them, but put them out of the citie, and cleaned the houses, wherein the idoles were, and so entered therunto with Psalmes and thanksgiuing.

48 So when he had cast all the filthines out, he set such men in it as kept the Law, and fortified it, and builded there a dwelling place for himselfe.

49 Nowe when they in the castle at Ierusalem were kept, that they could not come forth, nor go into the country, neither buy nor sell, they were very hungry, and many of them were famished to death,

50 Insomuch that they besought Simon to make peace with them, which hee granted them, and put them out from thence, and cleansed the castle from filthines.

51 And vpon the three and twenty day of the second moneth, in the hundredth seuentie and one yeere, they entered into it with thanksgiuing, and branches of palme trees, & with harpes, and with cymbales, and with viols, & with palms, & songs, because the great enemy of Israel was overcome.

52 And he ordeined that the same day should be kept euery yeere with gladnes.

53 And hee fortified the mount of the Temple that was beside the castle where he dwelt himselfe with his company.

54 Simon also seeing that Iohn his sonne was now a man, he made him captain of all his hostis, and caused him to dwell in Gazaris.

CHAP. XIII.

Demetrius is overcome of Asaces. 1. Simon being captain, there is great quietnes in Israel. 2. The conquest of friendship with the Romans, & with the people of Sparta is renewd.

IN the hundred twenty and two yeere gatherd King Demetrius his hoste, & departed vnto Media, to get him help for to fight against Tryphon.

2 But when Asaces the king of Persia and Media heard, that Demetrius was entered within his borders, he sent one of his princes to take him alive.

3 So he went, and overcame the army of Demetrius, and tooke him, and brought him to Asaces, which kept him in ward.

4 Thus all the land of Iuda was in rest, so long.

&c &c 3.

as Simon liued; for he fought the wealth of his nation: therefore were they glad to haue him for their ruler, and to doe him worship alway.

5 Simon alſo wanne the cite of Ioppe to his great honour to be an hauen towne, and made it an entrance vnto the yles of the sea.

6 He enlarged alſo the borders of his people there, and conquered the countreys.

7 Hee gathered vp many of their people that were prisoners, and he had the dominion of Gazaris, and Beth-sura, and the caſtle, which he clenſed from filthineſſe, and there was no man that reſiſted him,

8 So that euery man tilled his ground in peace, and the land gaue her fruites, and the trees gaue their fruit.

9 The Elders ſate in the open places, and conſulted altogether for the common wealth, & the yong men were honourably clothed and armed.

10 He provided vittales for the cities, and all kinde of munition, ſo that his glorious fame was renowned vnto the end of the world.

11 He made peace throughout the land, and Iſrael had perfect mirth and ioy.

12 For euery man ſate vnder his vine, and the fig trees, and there was no man to fray them.

13 There was none in the land to fight againſt them: ſo then the kings were ouercome.

14 He helped alſo thoſe that were in aduerſitie among his people: he was diligent to ſee the Lawe kept, & he tooke away the vngodly, and wicked.

15 He beautified the Sanctuary, and increaſed the veſſels of the Temple.

16 When the Romanes heard, and the Spartians had knowledge, that Ionaſan was dead, they were very ſorry.

17 But when they heard that Simon his brother was made hie Prielt in his ſtead, and howe he had wonne the land againe with the cities in it.

18 They wrote vnto him in tables of braſſe, to renew the friendſhip, & bond of loue, which they had made with Iudas and Ionaſan his brethren.

19 Which writings were read before the congregation at Ieruſalem, and this is the copy of the letters that the Spartians ſent.

20 THE SENATORS and cite of Sparta vnto Simon the great Prielt, and to the Elders, and to the Priests, & to the reſidue of the people of the Iewes their brethren ſend greeting.

21 When your ambaffadors that were ſent vnto our people, certified vs of your glory and honour, we were glad of their coming.

22 And haue regiſtred their ambaffage in the publike records in this manner. NUMENIUS the ſonne of Antiochus, and Antipater the ſonne of Ialon the Iewes Ambaffadors, came vnto vs to renew amicitie with vs.

23 And it pleaſed y^e people, that the men ſhould be honourably intreated, & that the copy of their ambaffage ſhould be regiſtred in the publike records, that it might be for a memoriall vnto the people of Sparta: and a copie of the ſame was ſent to Simon the chiefe Prielt.

24 After this Simon ſent Numenius to Rome, with a great ſield of golde of a thouſand pound weight, to confirme the friendſhip with them.

25 Which when the people vnderſtoode, they ſaid, What thanks ſhall we recompenſe ag. in vnto Simon and his children?

26 For he & his brethren, and the houſe of his father haue ſtabliſhed Iſrael; and ouercome their enemies, and haue confirmed the libertie thereof: therefore they wrote this in tables of braſſe, and ſet it vpon pillars in mount Sion.

27 The copy of the writing is this. In the eighth and twentieth day of the monethy Elul in the hundredth ſeventieth and two yeere, in the third yeere of Simon the hie Prielt.

28 In y^e ſynagoge in the great congregation of the Priests, & of the people, and of the gouernours of the nation, and of the Elders of the countrey, we would ſignifie vnto you, that many battels haue bene fought in our countrey.

29 Wherein Simon y^e ſonne of Matathias (come of the children of Iarib) & his brethren put them ſelves in danger, and reſiſted the enemies of their nation, that their Sanctuary, and Lawe might be maintained, and did their nation great honour.

30 For Ionaſan gathered his nation together, & became their hie Prielt, & is laud with his people.

31 After that would their enemies haue inuaded their countrey, and yeſtroyed their land, and lay their hands on their Sanctuary.

32 Then Simon reſiſted them, and fought for his nation, and ſpent much of his owne ſubſtance, and armed the valiant men of his nation, and gaue them wages.

33 He fortified alſo the cities of Iudea, and Beth-sura that lyeth vpon the borders of Iudea, (where the ordinance of their enemies lay ſometime) and ſet there a garriſon of the Iewes.

34 And he fortified Ioppe, which lieth vpon the ſea, and Gazara that bordereth vpon Azotus, (where the enemies dwelt afore) and there he placed Iewes, and furniſhed them with things neceſſary for the reparation thereof.

35 Now when the people ſaw the faithfullnes of Simon, and to what glory he thought to bring his nation vnto, they made him their gouernour, and the chiefe Prielt, becauſe hee had done all theſe things, and for the vprightneſſe, and fidelitie that he had kept to his nation, and that fought by all meanes to exalt his people.

36 For in his time they prospered well by him, ſo that the heathen were taken out of their countrey, and they alſo which were in the cite of Dauid at Ieruſalem, where they had made him a caſtle, out of the which they went, and deſied all things that were about the Sanctuary, and did great hurt vnto religion.

37 And he ſet Iewes in it, & fortified it for the aſſurance of the land, and cite, and raiſed vp the walles of Ieruſalem.

38 And king Demetrius confirmed him in his hie Prielthood for theſe cauſes.

39 And made him one of his friends, and gaue him great honour.

40 For it was reported that y^e Romanes called the Iewes their friends, and confederates, and that they honourably received Simons ambaffadors.

41 And that the Iewes, and Priests conſented, that Simon ſhould be their Prince, and hie Prielt perpetually, till God raiſed vp the true Prophet.

42 And that he ſhould be their captaine, and haue the charge of the Sanctuary, and ſo ſer men out the works, and ouer the countrey, and ouer the weapons, & ouer the ſortreſſes, and that ſhould make prouiſion for the holy things.

43 And that he ſhould be obied of euery man, and that all the writings in the countrey ſhould be be made in his name, and that he should be clothed in purple, and weare gold,

44 And that it shoul not be lawfull for anie of the people or Priestes to breake any of these things, or to withstand his wordes, or to call anie congregation in the country without him, or be clothed in purple, or weare a collar of gold :

45 And if any did contrary to these things, or brake any of them, he should be punished.

46 So it pleased all the people to agree that it should be done to Simon according vnto these words,

47 Simon also accepted it, and was content to be the high Priest, and the captain, and the Prince of the Iewes, and of the Priestes, and to be the chiefe of all.

48 And they commanded to set vp this writing in tables of brasse, and to fasten it to the wall that compassed the Sanctuary in an open place,

49 And that a copie of the same should be layd vp in their treasury, that Simon and his sounes might haue it.

CHAP. XV.

1 Antiochus maketh a covenant of friendship with Simon. 12 Tryphon a usurper. 15 The Romans write letters vnto King, and warre in the defence of the Iewes. 17 Antiochus refusing the help that Simon sent him, hee taketh by couraunt.

Moreouer King Antiochus the sonne of Demetrius sent letters from the isles of the sea vnto Simon the Priest, and prince of the Iewes, & to all the nation,

3 Containing these words, A N T I O C H Y S the King vnto Simon the great Priest, and to the nation of the Iewes sendeth greeting.

3 For so much as certaine pestilent men haue vsurped the kingdome of our fathers, I am purposed to challenge the Realme againe, and to restore it to the old estate: wherefore I haue gathered a great hoste, and prepared ships of warre,

4 That I may goe thorowe the country, and beauenaged of them, which haue destroyed our country, and wasted many cities in the Realme.

5 Now therefore I do confirme vnto thee all the liberties, whereof all the kings my progenitors haue discharged thee, and at the payments, whereof they haue released thee.

6 And I giue thee leaue to coyne money of thine owne stamp within thy country,

7 And that Ierusalem, and the Sanctuary bee free, and that all the weapons, that thou hast prepared, and the fortresses, which thou hast builded, and keepest in thine hands shalbe thine.

8 And al that is due vnto the king, and all that shalbe due vnto the king, I forgive thee, from this time forth for euermore.

9 And when we haue obtained our kingdome, we will giue thee, and thy nation and the Temple, great honour, so that thy honour shalbe knowne throughout the world.

10 ¶ In the hundredth seuentie and foure yere, went Antiochus into his fathers lande, and all the bands came together vnto him, so that fewe were left with Tryphon.

11 So the King Antiochus pursued him, but he fled, and came to Dora, which lieth by the sea side.

12 For he saw that troubles were toward him, and that the army had forsaken him.

13 Then camped Antiochus against Dora with an hundred and twenty thousand fighting men, and eight thousand horsemen.

14 So he compassed the citie about, & the ships came by the sea. Thus they pressed the citie by land and by sea, in so much that they suffered no man to go in nor out.

15 In the meane season came Numenius, & his company from Rome, hauing letters written vnto the kings & countreys, wherein were contained these words,

16 L V C I V S the Consul of Rome vnto King Ptolemeus sendeth greeting.

17 The Ambassadors of the Iewes are come vnto vs as our friends and confederates from Simon the high Priest, and from the people of the Iewes to renew friendship, and the bond of loue;

18 Who haue brought a shield of gold weying a thousand pound,

19 Wherefore we thought it good to write vnto the kings countreys, that they should not goe about to hurt them, nor to fight against them, nor their cities, nor their country, neither to maintain their enemies against them.

20 And we were content to receiue of them the shield.

21 If therefore there be any pestilent fellows fled from their country vnto you, deliuer them vnto Simon the high Priest, that he may punish the according to their owne Lawe.

22 The same things were written to Demetrius the King, and to Attalus, and to Arathes, and to Antiochus,

23 And to all the countreys, as || Samplames, and to them of Sparta, and to || Delos, and to || Mindus, and to Sydon, and to Caria, and to Samos, and to Pamphylia, and to Lysia, and to Halicarnassus, and to Rhodus, and to Phaselis, and Cos, and to Sidon, and to Cortina, and to Gnidon, and to Cyprus, and to Cyrene.

24 And they sent a copy of them to Simon the high Priest.

25 ¶ So Antiochus the King camped against Dora the second time euermore ready to take it, and made diuers engines of war, and kept Tryphon in, that he could neither go in nor out.

26 Then Simon sent him two thousand chofers men to helpe him with siluer and gold, and much furniture.

27 Neuertheles, he would not receiue them, but brake all the covenant, which he had made with him afore, and withdrew himselfe from him.

28 And sent vnto him Athenobius one of his friends to commune with him, saying, Ye withhold Ioppe, and Gazara with the castell that is at Ierusalem, the citie of our Realme.

29 Whole borders ye haue destroyed & done great hurt in the land, and haue the gouernment of many places of my kingdome.

30 Wherefore now deliuer the cities, which ye haue taken, with the tributes of the places, that ye haue rule ouer without the borders of Iudea,

31 Or else giue me for them five hundred talents of siluer, & for the harme that ye haue done, and for the tributes of the places other five hundred talents: If not, we will come, and fight against you.

32 So Athenobius the kings friend came to Ierusalem, and when he saw the honour of Simon, and the cupborde of gold and siluer plate, and so great preparation, he was astonished, and told him the kings message.

33 Then answered Simon, & said vnto him, We have neither take other mens lands, nor withholden that which appertaineth to others, but our fathers heritage which our enemies had vnrighteously in possession a certaine time.

34 But when we had occasion, we recovered the inheritance of our fathers.

35 And whereas thou requirest loppe & Gazara, they did great harme to our people, & thorrow our country, yet will we give an hundred talents for them. But Athenobus answered him not one word.

36 But turned againe angry vnto the king, and told him al these words, and the dignity of Simon, with all that he had seene: and the King was very angry.

37 ¶ In the meane time fled Tryphon by ship vnto Orobolias.

38 Then the king made Cendebeus captain of the sea coast, and gaue him bands of footmen, & horsemen.

39 And commanded him to remoue the hoste toward Iudea, & to build vp Cedron, and to fortifie the gates, and to warre against the people: but the king pursued Tryphon.

40 So Cendebeus came vnto Iamnia, & began to vex the people, & to invade Iudea, & to take the people prisoners, and to slay them.

41 And he built vp Cedron, where he set horsemen and garisons, that they might make outroides by the wayes of Iudea, as the king had commaunded him.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Cendebeus the captain of Antiochus hoste is put to flight by the forces of Simon. 11 Ptolemus the sonne of Abubus killeth Simon and his two sonnes at a banquet. 23 John killeth them that ye in waste for his life.

¶ Then came Iohn vp from Gazara, and tolde Simon his father, what Cendebeus had done.

2 So Simon called two of his eldest sonnes, Iudas and Iohn, and said vnto them, I, and my brethren, and my fathers house, haue cuer from our youth vnto this day fought against the enemies of Israel, & y matters haue had good successe vnder our hands, & we haue deliuered Israel oftentimes.

3 But I am now old, and ye by Gods mercy are of a sufficient age: be ye therefore in stead of me and my brother, and goe forth and fight for our nation, and the helpe of heauen be with you.

4 So hee chose twenty thousand fighting men of the country with the horsemen, which went forth against Cendebeus, and rested at Modin.

5 In the morning they arose, and went into the plaine field: and beholde, a mighty great hoste came against them both of footmen, and horsemen: but there was a riuer betwixt them.

6 And Iohn ranged his armie ouer against him, and when he saw that the people was afraid to go ouer the riuer, he went ouer first himselfe, and the men seeing him, passed through after him.

7 Then he diuided his men, and set the horsemen in the middes of the footmen.

8 For their enemies horsemen were very many: but when they blew the trumpets, Cendebeus fled with his hoste, whereof many were slaine, and the remnant gate them to the fortreffe.

9 Then was Iudas Iohns brother wounded: but Iohn followed after them, till he came to Cedron, which Cendebeus had built.

10 Also they fled vnto the towers, that were in the fieldes of Azotus, and those did Iohn burne with fire: thus were there slaine two thousand men of them: so he returned peaceably into the land of Iuda.

11 ¶ Now in the field of Iericho was Ptolemus the sonne of Abubus made captaine, and hee had abundance of siluer and gold.

12 (For he had married the daughter of the hie Priest)

13 Therefore he waxed proud in his mind, and thought to rule the land, & thought to slay Simon and his sonnes by deceit.

14 Now as Simon went about thorow the cities of the countrey, & studied carefully for them, he came downe to Iericho with Mattathias, and Iudas his sonnes in the hundredth seuenty & seuen yeere, in the eleuenth moneth, which is the moneth Sabat.

15 Then the sonne of Abubus receiued the by treason into a litle hold, called Dochus which he had built, where he made them a great banker, and had men hid there.

16 So when Simon and his sonnes had made good cheere, Ptolemus stood vp with his men & took the weapons, and entered in to Simon in the banker house, & slew him with his two sonnes, and certaine of his seruants.

17 Whereby he committed a great vilenie, and recompensed euil for good.

18 Then wrote Ptolemus these things & sent to the King, that he might send him an hoste to help him, and to would deliuer him the countrey with the cities.

19 He sent other men also vnto Gazara, to take Iohn, and sent letters vnto the captains to come to him, and he would give them siluer, and golde and rewards.

20 And to Ierusalem he sent other to take it, and the mountaine of the Temple.

21 But one ran before, and told Iohn in Gazara, that his father, and his brethren were slaine, and that Ptolemus had sent to slay him.

22 When he heard this, he was sore afrighted, and laide hands on them that were come to slay him, and slew them: for he knew that they went about to kill him.

23 Concerning other things of Iohn, both of his warres, and of his noble actes (when he behaued himselfe manfully) of the building of walles which he made, and other of his deedes,

24 Behold they are written in the Chronicles of his Priesthood, fro the time that he was made high Priest after his father.

THE SECOND BOOKE OF THE MACCABEES.

CHAP. I.

As a Epistle of the Iewes, that dwelt at Ierusalem, sent vnto them that dwelt in Egypt, wherein they exhort them to fight against the death of Antiochus. 19 Of the fire that was hid in sheol. 24 The prayer of Nehemias.

IN the name of the Lord, Amen. He brethren the Iewes, which be at Ierusalem, and they that are in the country of Iudea, vnto the brethren the Iewes, & are throughout Egypt, send salutation, and prosperitie.

1 God be gracious vnto you and remember his covenant made with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob his faithful seruants,

2 And giue you an heart to worship him, & to do his will with a whole heart and with a willing minde,

3 And open your hearts in his Law, and commandements, and send you peace,

4 And heare your prayers, and be reconciled with you, & neuer forsake you in time of trouble.

5 Thus now we pray here for you.

6 When Demetrius reigned, in the hundredth, threescore & ninth yere, we Iewes wrote vnto you in the trouble, and violence that came vnto vs in those yeres, after that Iason, and his companie departed out of the holy land and kingdome,

7 And burnt the porch, & shed innocent blood: Then we prayed vnto the Lord, & were heard: we offered sacrifices and fine flowre, and lighted the lampes, and set forth the bread.

8 Now therefore keepe ye the daies of the feast of the Tabernacles in the moneth Challeu.

9 In the hundredth fourescore & eight yere, the people that was at Ierusalem, and in Iudea, and the counsell and Iudas, vnto Aristobulus King Ptolemeus master, which is of the stock of the anointed Priests, and to the Iewes that are in Egypt, send greeting and health.

10 In so much as God hath deliuered vs from great perils, we thanke him highly, as though we had overcome the king.

11 For he brought them into Persia by heaps, that fought against the holy cite.

12 For albeit the captaine, and the armie that was with him, seemed invincible, yet they were slaine in the Temple of Nanea, by the deceite of Naneas Priests.

13 For Antiochus, as though he would dwell with her, came thither, he, & his friends with him, to receiue money vnder the title of a dowry.

14 But when the Priests of Nanea had laide it forth, and he was entred with a small company within the Temple, they shut the Temple, when Antiochus was come in,

15 And by opening a priue doore of the vault, they cast stones, as it were thunder, vpon the captaine and his, and hauing hurted them in pieces, they cut off their heads and threw them to those that were without.

16 God be blessed in al things, which hath deliuered vnto the wicked.

17 Whereas we are now purposed to keepe the purification of the Temple vpon the five & twenty day of y moneth Challeu, we thought it necessary to certifie you therof, that ye also might keepe the feast of the Tabernacles, and of the fire which was giuen vs when Neemias offered sacrifice, after that he had built the Temple, and the altar.

18 For when as our fathers were led away vnto Persia, the Priests, which sought the honour of God, tooke the fire of the altar priuily, and hid it in an hollow pit, which was drie in the bottome, and therein they kept it, so that the place was vnknewen vnto euery man.

19 Now after many yeres when it pleased God that Neemias should be sent from the king of Persia, he sent of the posterity of those Priests, which had hid it to fetch the fire, and as they told vs, they found no fire, but thicke water.

20 Then commanded he them to draw it vpon, and to bring it: and when the things appertaining to the sacrifices were brought, Neemias commanded the Priests to sprinkle the wood, & the things laide thereupon with water.

21 When this was done, & the time came y the sun shone, which afore was hid in the cloud, there was a great fire kindled, so y euery man marvelled.

22 Now the Priests, and all praised, while the sacrifice was consuming: Ionathan began, and the other answered thereunto.

23 And the prayer of Neemias was after this maner, O Lord, Lord God maker of all things, which art fearefull, and strong, & righteous, and mercifull, and the onely and gracious king,

24 Onely liberal, onely iust and almighty and euerclasting, thou that deliuerest Israel fro al trouble, & hast chosen the fathers, and sanctified them,

25 Receiue the sacrifice for the whole people of Israel, and pretere thine owne portion, and sanctifie it.

26 Gather those together, y are scattered from vs: deliuer them that sene among the heathen, looke vpon them which are despised & abhorred, that the heathen may know that thou art our God:

27 Punish them that oppresse vs, & with pride doe vs wrong.

28 Plant thy people againe in thine holy place as Moyses hath spoken.

29 And the Priests sang Psalmes thereunto.

30 Now when y sacrifice was consumed, Neemias commanded the great stones to be sprinkled with the residue of the water.

31 Which when it was done, there was kindled a flame, which was consumed by the light, that shined from the altar.

32 So when this matter was knowen, it was told the king of Persia, that in y place where the Priests, which were led away, had hid fire, there appeared water, wherewith Neemias and his company had purified the sacrifices.

33 The king tried out the thing, and closed the place about, and made it holy.

34 And to them that the king fauoured, he gave and bestowed many gifts.

35 And Neemias called y same place Ephthar, which is to say, purification: but many men call it Nephthar.

4 It is written also, how the Prophet, by an oracle that he had, charged the to take the tabernacle, and the arke, and follow him: and when he came vp into the mountaine where Moyses went vp, and saw the heritage of God,

5 Ieremias went forth and found an hollow caue, wherein he laid the Tabernacle, & the Arke, and the altar of incense, and so stopped y doore.

6 And there came certain of those y followed him to marke the place: but they could not find it.

7 Which whē Ieremias perceiued, he reproued them, saying, As for that place, it shall be vnknowne, vntill the time that God gather his people together againe, and that mercy be shewed.

8 Then that the Lord knew them these things, and the maiestie of the Lord shall appeare and the cloud also, as it was shewed vnder Moyses, and as

13 These things also are declared in y writings, and registers of Neeemias, and how he made a library, and how he gathered the acts of the kings, and of the Prophets, and the acts of Dauid, & the epistles of the Kings concerning the holy gifts.

14 Euen so Iudas also gathered all things that came to passe by the warres that were among vs, which things we haue.

15 Wherefore if ye haue neede thereof, send some to fetch them vnto you.

16 Whereas we are then about to celebrate the purification, we haue written vnto you, & ye shall do well if ye keepe the same daies.

17 We hope also that the God, which deliuered all his people, & gaue an heritage to them all and the kingdom, and the Priesthood, and the Sanctuary.

18 *As he promised in the law, will shortly haue mercy vpon vs, and gather vs together fro vnder the heauen into his holy place: for he hath rescued vs from great perils, and hath catted the place.

19 As concerning Iudas Maccabeus, & his brethren, the purification of the great Temple, and the dedication of the altar,

20 And the warres against Antiochus Epiphanes, and Eup. for his sonne,

21 And the manifest signes that came fro heauen vnto those, which manfully stood for y lewe, religion: (for though they were but few, yet they ranne through whole countreies, and pursued the barbarous armies, 22 And repayed the Temple that was renowned throughout all the world, and deliuered the citie, and established the Lawes, that were like to be abolished, because the Lord was mercifull vnto them with all lenitie)

23 We will assay to abridge in one volume these things, that Iason the Cyrenian hath declared in fise bookes.

24 For considering the wonderfull number, & the difficultie that they haue that would be occupied in the rehearsall of stories, because of the diuersitie of the matters,

25 We haue endeoured, that they that would reade, might haue pleasure, & that they which are studious, might easily keepe them in memory, and whosoever reade them, might haue profite.

26 Therefore to vs that haue taken in hand this great labour, it was no easie thing to make this abridgement, but required both swif, & watching.

27 Like as he that maketh a scalt, and seeketh other mens commoditie, hath no small labour: so we also for many mens sakes are very wel content to vndertake this great labour.

28 Leauing to the author the exact diligence of every particular, we wil labour to goe forward according to the prescript order of an abridgement.

29 For as he that will build a new house, must provide for the whole building, but he that stretch out the plat or goeth about to paint it, seeketh but onely what is comely for the decking thereof.

30 Euen so I thinke for ys, that it appertaineth to the first writer of a story to enter deeply into it, and to make mention of all things, and to be curious in every part.

31 But it is permitted to him that will shorten it, to vife fewe words, and to auoide those things that are curious therein.

32 Here then will we begin the story, adding thus much to our former wordes, that is it a foolish thing to abound in wordes before the story, and to be short in the story.

CHAP. III.

Of the honour done vnto the Temple by the kings of the Gentiles, & Simon desireth what shall come in in the Temple. y Hebraeus is sent to take them away, & he is stricken of God, and brailed at the prayer of Onias.

What time as the holy citie was inhabited with all peace, and when the Lawes were very well kept, because of the godlines of Onias the hie Priest, and hatred of wickednes,

2 It came to passe that euen the Kings did honour the place, and garnished the Temple with great gifts.

3 In so much that Seleucus king of Asia of his owne rents, bare all the costs belonging to the seruice of the sacrifices.

4 But one Simon of the tribe of Benjamin being appointed ruler of the Temple, cotended with the hie Priest concerning the iniquity committed in the citie.

for, for and provision.

4 And when he could not ouercome Onias, he gaue him to Appollonius the sonne of Thrales, which then was gouernour of Caeloyria and Phenice,

6 And tolde him that the treasure in Ierusalem was full of innumerable mony, which did not belong to the prouision of the sacrifices, and that it were possible that these things might come into the kings hands.

7 Now when Apollonius came to the King, and shewed him of the money, as it was tolde him, the King chose out Heliodorus his treasurer, and sent him with a commaundement, to bring him the foresaid money.

8 Immediately Heliodorus tooke his journey as though he would visit the cities of Cælosyria and Phœnice, but in effect to fulfill the Kings purpose.

9 So when he came to Ierusalem, & was courteously received of the hie Priest into the citie, he declared what was determined concerning the money, and shewed the cause of his coming, and asked if these things were so indeede.

10 Then the hie Priest told him that there were such things laid vp by the widowes and fatherles.

11 And that a certain of it belonged vnto Hircanus the sonne of Tobias a noble man, and not as that wicked Simon had reported, and that in all, there were but foure hundred talents of siluer, and two hundred of gold,

12 And that it were altogether vnpossible to doe this wrong to them that had committed it of trust to the holines of the place & Temple, which is honoured thorow the whole world for holines and integritie.

13 But Heliodorus because of the kings commaundement giuen him, said that in any wise it must be brought into the kings treasury.

14 So he appointed a day, and went in to take order for these things: then there was no small grieue throughout the whole citie.

15 For the Priests sel down before the altar in the Priests garments, & called vnto heauen vpon him, which had made a Law concerning things giuen to be kept, that they should bee safely preserved for such as had committed them to be kept.

16 Then they that looked the hie Priest in the face, were wounded in their heart: for his countenance, and the changing of his colour declared the sorow of his minde.

17 The man was so wrapp'd in feare & trembling of the body, that it was manifest to the that looked vpon him, what sorow he had in his heart.

18 Others also came out of their houses by heapes vnto the common prier because the place was like to come vnto contempt.

19 And the women girt with sackcloth vnder their breasts, filled the streets, and the virgins that were kept in, ran some to the gates, and some to the walles, & others looked out at the windowes.

20 And all held vp their hands toward heauen, and made prayer.

21 It was a lamentable thing to see the multitude that fell downe of all sorts, and the expectation of the hie Priest being in such anguish.

22 Therefore they called vpon the Almightye Lord, that he would keepe safe & sure the things, which were laid vp for those that had deliuered the.

23 Neuertheles the thing that Heliodorus was determined to doe, that did he performe.

24 And as he and his souldiers wer: now there present by the treasure, he that is the Lord of the spirits, & of all power, shewed a great vision, so that all they which presumed to come with him, were astonish'd at the power of God, and fell into feare, and trembling.

25 For there appeared vnto the an horse with a terrible man sitting vpon him, most richly barbed, and he ran fiercely, and smote at Heliodorus with his forefeete, and it seemed that he that sat vpon the horse, had harness of gold.

26 Moreouer, there appeared two yong men, notable in strength, excellent in beauty, & comely in apparell, which stood by him on either side, and scourged him continually, and gaue him many fore stripes.

27 And Heliodorus fel suddely vnto the ground, and was covered with great darknes: but they that were with him, took him vp, & put him in a litter.

28 Thus he that came with so great company, & many souldiers into the said treasury, was borne out for he could not helpe himself with his weapons.

29 So they did know the power of God manifestly, but he was dumbe by the power of God, and lay destitute of all hope and health.

30 And they praised the Lord that had honoured his own place: for the Temple which a little afore was full of feare & trouble, when the almighty Lord appeared, was filled with ioy & gladnesse.

31 Then straightwaies certaine of Heliodorus friends praised Onias, that he would call vpon the most High to graunt him his life, which lay ready to giue vp the ghost.

32 So the hie Priest, considering that the King might suspect that the Lewes had done Heliodorus some euil, he offered a sacrifice for the health of the man.

33 Now when the hie Priest had made his prayer, the same yong men in the same clothing appeared, & stood before Heliodorus, laying, Giue Onias the hie Priest great thanks: for, for his sake hath the Lord granted thee thy life:

34 And seeing that thou hast bin scourged fro heauen, declare vnto all men the mighty power of God: and when they had spoken these words, they appeared no more.

35 So Heliodorus offered vnto the Lord sacrifice, and made great vows vnto him, which had granted him his life, and thanked Onias, and went againe with his hoste to the King.

36 Then testified he vnto euery man of the great works of God that he had seene with his eyes.

37 And when the king asked Heliodorus, who were meete to be sent yet once againe to Ierusalem, he said,

38 If thou hast any enemy or traitour, send him thither, and thou shalt receiue him wel scourged: if he escape with his life: for in that place, no doubt, there is a speciall power of God.

39 For he that dwelleth in heauen, hath his eie on that place, and defendeth it, & he beareth and destroyeth them that come to hurt it,

40 This came to passe concerning Heliodorus, and the keeping of the treasure.

CHAP. II.

1 Simon reports to Iosafat, 7 Iosafat letteth the office of the hie Priest by corrupting the king, 27 And was by Menelaus defended by like means: 34 Onias a false traitor: by Antiochus.

THIS Simon now, of whom we spake afore, being a bewrayer of the money, and of his owne natural country, reported euil of Onias, as though he had moued Heliodorus vnto this, and had bin the inuenter of the euil.

2 Thus was he bold to call him a traitour that was so beneficiall to the citie, & a defender of his nation, and so zealous of the Lawes.

3 But when his malice increased so farre, that through one that belonged to Simon, murders were were committed,

4 Onias considering the danger of this contention, and that Apollonius, as hee that was the gouernour of Caeleſyria and Phenice, did rage, and increased Simons malice,

5 Hewent to the king not as an accuſer of the citizens, but as one that intended the common wealth both priuately and publiſhly.

6 For he ſawe it was not poſſible except the king tooke order, to quiet the matters, and that Simon would not leaue off his folly.

7 But after the death of Selucur, when Antiochus called Epiphanes, tooke the kingdom, Iafon the brother of Onias Laboured by vnlawfull meanes to be hie Prieſt.

8 For hee came vnto the King, and promiſed him three hundredth and threeſcore talents of ſiluer, and of another rent, foureſcore talents.

9 Beſides this, hee promiſed him an hundredth and ſiftie, if he might haue licence to ſet vp a place for exerciſe, and a place for the youth, & that they would name them of Ieruſalem Antiochians.

10 The which thing when the king had granted, and he had gotten the ſuperioritie, he began immediately to drawe his kinſmen to the cuſtomes of the Gentiles,

11 And aboliſhed ſundry friendly priuiledges of the Kings, that the Iewes had ſet vp by Iohn, the father of Eupolemus, which was ſent ambaffadour vnto Rome, to become friends & confederates: he put downe their Lawes and policies, and brought vp new ſtatutes, and contrary to the Lawe.

12 For hee preſumed to build a place of exerciſe vnder the caſtle, and brought the chiefe young men vnder his ſubiectiō, and made them weare hats.

13 So there began a great deſire to follow the maners of the Gentiles, and they tooke vp the faſhions of ſtrange nations by the exceeding wickedneſſe of Iafon, not the hie prieſt, but the vngodly perſon,

14 So that the Prieſts were now no more diligent about the ſeruiſe of the altar, but deſpiſed the Temple, and regarded not the ſacrifices, but made haſte to bee partakers of the wicked expenſes at the play after the caſting of the ſtone.

15 For they did not ſet by ſhonour of their fathers, but liked the glory of the Gentiles beſt of all.

16 By reaſon wherof great calamity came vp on them: for they had them to bee their enemies and puniſhers, whoſe cuſtome they followed ſo earneſtly, and deſired to be like them in all things.

17 For it is not a light thing to tranſgreſſe againſt the Lawes of God, but the time following ſhall declare theſe things.

18 ¶ Now when the ſe games that were uſed euery ſeue yeere, were played at Tyrus, the king being preſent,

19 This wicked Iafon ſent from Ieruſalem men to looke vpon them, as though they had bin Antiochians, which brought three hundredth drachmes of ſiluer for a ſenſhee to Hercules: albeit they that caried them, deſired they might not bee beſtowed on the ſacrifice (becauſe it was not comely) but to be beſtowed for other expenſes.

20 So he that ſent them, ſent them for the ſacrifice of Hercules: but becauſe of thoſe that brought them, they were giuen to the making of gallies.

21 ¶ Now Apollonius the ſonne of Menelaeus was ſent into Egypt becauſe of the coronation of king Ptolemeus Philometor: when Antiochus perceived that he was euil affectioned toward his affaires, he fought his owne aſſurance, & departed from thence to Ioppe, and ſo came to Ieruſalem.

22 Where hee was honourably receiued of Iafon, and of the city, & was brought in with torchlight, and with great ſhowings, and ſo hee went with his hoſte vnto Phenice.

23 Three yeere afterward Iafon ſent Menelaus, ſoreſaid Simons brother, to beare the money vnto the king, & to bring to paſſe certain neceſſary affaires, whereof he had giuen him a memoriall.

24 But he, being commended to the king, magnified him for the appearance of his power, and turned the Prieſthood vnto himſelfe: for he gaue three hundredth talents of ſiluer more then Iafon.

25 So he gaue the kings letters patents, albeit he had nothing in himſelfe worthy of ſuch Prieſthood, but bare the ſtomack of a cruel tyrant, and the wrath of a wilde beaſt.

26 Then Iafon, which had deceiued his owne brother, being deceiued by another, was compelled to flee vnto the countrey of the Ammorites.

27 So Menelaus gaue the dominion: but as for the money that he had promiſed vnto the king, he tooke none order for it, albeit Soſtratus the ruler of the caſtle required it.

28 For vnto him appertained the gathering of the cuſtomes: wherefore they were both called before the king.

29 Now Menelaus left his brother Lyſimachus in his ſtead in the Prieſthood, and Soſtratus left Crates which was gouernour of the Cyprians.

30 ¶ Whiles theſe things were in doing, the Tharſians and they of Mallor, made an inſurrection, becauſe they were giuen to the kings combine called Antiochia.

31 Then came the king in all haſte to appeaſe the buſineſſe, leauing Andronicus a man of authoritie to be his lieutenant.

32 Now Menelaus ſuppoſing that he had good a convenient time, ſtole certaine veſſels of golde out of the Temple, and gaue certaine of them to Andronicus: and ſome he ſolde at Tyrus and in the cities thereby.

33 Which when Onias knew of a ſuretie, he reſproued him, and withdrew himſelf into a Sanctuary at Daphne by Antiochia.

34 Wherefore Menelaus taking Andronicus apart, praied him to ſlay Onias: ſo when he came to Onias, he counſilled him craftily, giuing him his right hand with an othe: (howbeit hee ſuſpect him, and perſwaded him to come out of the Sanctuary) ſo he ſlew him incontinently without any regard of righteouſneſſe.

35 For the which cauſe not only the Iewes, but many other nations alſo were grieved, and tooke it heauily for the vnrigheteous death of this man.

36 ¶ And when the king was come again from the places about Cilicia, the Iewes that were in the citie, and certaine of the Greekes that abhorred the fact alſo, complained becauſe Onias was ſlaine without cauſe.

37 Therefore Antiochus was ſorry in his mind, and he had compaſſion, and wept becauſe of the modeſty & great diſcretion of him that was dead.

38 Wherefore being kindled with anger, hee tooke away Andronicus garment of purple, & rent his clothes, & commanded him to be led through out the citie, and in the ſame place where hee had committed

For, that hee would write the Antiochians that were at Ieruſalem among them, committed the wickednes against Onias, hee was slain as a murderer. Thus the Lord rewarded him his punishment, as he had deserved.

For, buſineſſe in taken of a customer at the Gentiles aid.

39 ¶ Nowe when Lyfimaclus had done many wicked deedes in the cite through the counsell of Menelaus, & the bruit was spread abroad, the multitude gathered the together against Lyfimaclus: for he had caried out now much vessell of golde.

40 And when the people arose, and were full of anger, Lyfimaclus armed about three thousand, and began to vse vnlawful power, a certain tyrant being their captaine, who was no lesse decayed in wit then in age.

41 But when they vnderstood the purpose of Lyfimaclus, some gate stones, some great clui's, & some cast handfulls of dust, which lay by, vpon Lyfimaclus men, and those that inuaded them.

42 Whereby many of them were wounded, some were slain, and al the other chased away: but the wicked Chicrobber himselfe they killed besides the treasure.

43 For these causes an accusation was laide against Menelaus.

44 And whē the King came to Tyrus, three men sent fro the Senate pleaded the cause before him.

45 But Menelaus being now couincied, promised to Ptolemus the sonne of Dorimenes much money if he would perswade the King.

46 So Ptolemus went to the king into a court, whereas he was to coole himselfe, and turned the kings mind.

47 In so much that hee discharged Menelaus from the accusations (notwithstanding he was the cause of al mischiefe) and condemned those poore men to death, which if they had told their cause, yea, before the Scythians, they should haue bene heard as innocent.

48 Thus were they soone punished vniustly, which followed vpon the matter for the cite, and for the people, and for the holy vessels.

49 Wherefore they of Tyrus hated y wickednes, and ministred al things liberally for their buriall.

50 And so through the couetousnes of them that were in power, Menelaus remained in authoritie, increasing in malice, and declared himselfe a great traitour to the citizens.

C H A P. V.

Of the signes and tokens sene in Ierusalem. 6 Of the ends and wickednes of Isaton. 11 The pursuit of Antiochus against the Iewes. 15 The spoiling of the Temple. 27 Macchabeus fighteth with the wilderers.

ABout the same time Antiochus vnderooke his second voyage into Egypt.

1 And then were there seene throughout al the cite of Ierusalem, forty dayes long, horsemen running in the aire, with robes of golde, and as bands of speare men.

2 And as troups of horsemen set in aray, encountering and coursing one against another with shaking of shields and multitude of darts, and drawing of swords, and shooting of arrowes, and the glittering of the golden armor sene, and harneisse of all fortres.

3 Therefore euery man prayed that those tokens might turne to good.

4 Now when there was gone forth a false rumor, as though Antiochus had bene dead, Isaton tooke at the least a thousand men, & came suddenly vpon the city, and they that were vpon the walls, being put backe, and the cite at length taken,

6 Menelaus fled into the castell, but Isaton slew his own citizens without mercie, not considering that to haue the aduantage against his kinsmen is greatest disadvantage, but the ought y he had gotten the victory of his enemies, & not of his own natio.

7 Yet he gate not the superiority, but at the last receiued shame for the reward of his treason, and went againe like a vagabond into the countrey of the Ammonites.

8 Finally he had this ende of his wicked conuersation, that he was accused before Arete the King of the Arabians, and fled from cite to cite, being pursued of euery man, and hated as a forsaker of the Lawes, and was in abomination, as an enemy of his countrey & citizens, and was druen into Egypt.

9 Thus he that had chased many out of their owne countrey, perished as a banished man, after that he was gone to the Lacedemonians, thinking there to haue gotten succour by reason of kindred.

10 And he that had cast many out vnburied, was throwen out himselfe, no man mourning for him, nor putting him in his graue: neither was he partaker of his fathers sepulchre.

11 ¶ Now when these things that were done, were declared to the King, he thought that Iudea would haue fallen from him: wherefore he came with a succours nind out of Egypt, and tooke the cite by violence.

12 He commanded his men of warre also, that they should kil and not spare such as they met, and to slay such as went into their houses.

13 Thus was there a slaughter of yong men, and old men, and a destruction of men & women and children, and virgins, & infants were murdered:

14 So that within three dayes wereaine fiftie score thousand, and fourty thousand taken prisoners, and there were as many sold as were slaine.

15 Yet was he not content with this, but durst goe into the most holy Temple of all the world, hauing Menelaus that traitour to the Lawes, and to his countrey, to be his guide.

16 And with his wicked hands tooke the holy vessels, which other kings had giuen for the garnishing, glory & honour of that place, and handled them with his wicked hands.

17 So haughty in his minde was Antiochus, that he considered not, that God was not a litle wroth for the finnes of them that dwelt in the cite, for the which such contempt came vpon that place.

18 For if they had not bene wrapped in many finnes, he, as soone as he had come, had suddenly bene punished, and put back from his presumption, as Heliodorus was, whom selucus the King sent to viewe the treasure.

19 But God hath not cholen the nation for the places sake, but the place for the nations sake.

20 And therefore is the place become partaker of the peoples trouble, but afterward shall it be partaker of the benefites of the Lord, and as it is now forsaken in the wrath of the Almighty, so when the great Lord shall be reconciled, it shall be set vp in great worship againe.

21 ¶ So when Antiochus had taken eighteene hundred talents out of the Temple, he gate him to Antiochia in all haste, thinking in his pride to make enuile vpon the dry land, and to walke vpon the sea: such an his mind had he.

22 But he left deputies to vexe y people of Ierusalem.

rusale Philip a Phrygian by birth, in manners more cruel then he that set him there:

23 And at Garizin Andronicus, and with them Menelaus, which was more grievous to the citizens then the other, & was despiteful against the Jewes his citizens.

24 He sent also Apollonius a cruel prince with an armie of two and twenty thousand, whom he commanded to slay those that were toward mans age, and to sell the women and the yonger sort.

25 So when he came to Ierusalem, he fained peace, & kept him still vnto the holy day of Sabbath: & then finding the Jewes keeping the feast, he commanded his men to take their weapons.

26 And so he slew all them that were gone forth to the shewe, and running through the citie with his men armed, he murdered a great number.

27 But Iudas Maccabeus being as it were the tenth, fled into the wilderness, and liued there in the mountaines wth his company among the beasts, and dwelling there, and eating grasse, least they should be partakers of the filthinesse.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Jewes are compelled to leave the Law of God. 4 The temple is defiled. 10 The women cruelly punished. 20 The great paine of Iudas comes.

10^r Andronicus

NOt long after this, sent the king an olde man of I Athens, for to compel the Jewes to transgresse the Lawes of the fathers, and not to be gouerned by the Law of God,

2 And to defile the Temple that was at Ierusalem, & to call it the Temple of Iupiter Olympius, & that of Garizin, according as they did dwell at that place, Iupiter, that keepeth hospitality.

3 This wicked gouernement was fore & grievous vnto the people.

4 For the Temple was full of dissolotion, and gluttonie of the Gentiles, which dallied with harlots, and had to do with women within the circuite of the holy places, and brought in such things as were not lawfull.

5 The altar also was full of such things, as were abominable and forbidden by the Law.

6 Neither was it lawfull to keepe the Sabbathes, nor to obserue their ancient feasts, nor plainly to confesse himselfe to be a Iewe.

7 In the day of the kings birth they were grievously compelled perforce euery moneth to banquet, and when the feast of Bacchus was kept, they were constrained to go in the procession of Bacchus with garlands of yuie.

8 Moreover through the counsell of Ptolemies, there went out a commandement vnto the next cities of the heathen against the Jewes, that the like custome, & banquetting should be kept.

*10^r putting a fire

sanctified.*

9 And who so would not conforme themselves to the manners of Gentiles, should be put to death: then might a man haue scene the present miserie.

10 For these were two women brought forth, that had circumcised their sonnes, who when they had led round about the citie (the babes hanging at their breasts) they cast them down headlong over the walles.

11 Somewhat were runne together into dens to keepe the Sabbath day secretly, were discovered vnto Philip, and were burnt together, because that for the reuerence of the honourable day they were afraid to helpe themselves.

12 ¶ Now I beseech those which read this book, that they be not discouraged for these calamities, but that they iudge these afflictions, not to be for destruction, but for a chastening of our nation.

13 For it is a token of his great goodness not to suffer sinners long to continue, but straightwaies to punish them.

14 For the Lord doeth not long wayte for vs, as for other nations, whom he punisheth when they are come to the fulnes of their sinnes.

15 But thus he dealeth with vs, that our sinnes should not be heaped vp to the full, so that afterward he should punish vs.

16 And therefore he neuer withdraweth his mercie from vs: and though he punish with aduersitie, yet doeth he neuer forsake his people.

17 But let this be spoken nowe for a warning vnto vs, and now will we come to the declaring of the matter in few wordes.

18 ¶ Eleazar then one of the principall scribes, an aged man, and of a wellfaoured countenance, was constrained to open his mouth, and to cate swines flesh.

19 But he desiring rather to die gloriously then to liue with hatred, offered himself willingly to the torment, and spit it out:

20 As they ought to goe to death which suffer punishment for such things, as it is not lawfull to taste of for the desire to liue.

21 But they that had the charge of this wicked banker, for that old friendship of the man, tooke him aside privately, and prayed him, that he would take such flesh, as was lawfull for him to vse, and as he would prepare for himselfe, and dissemble as though he had eaten of the things appointed by the king, euen the flesh of the sacrifice.

22 That in so doing he might be deliuered fro death, and that forth e olde friendship that was among them, he would receiue this fauour.

23 But he began to consider discretely, & as became his age, and the excellencie of his ancient yeres, and the honour of his gray haire, wherunto he was come, and his most honest conseruation from his childhood, but chiefly the holy Law made and giuen by God: therefore he answered consequently, and willed them straightwaies to send him to the graue.

24 For it becommeth not our age, said he, to dissemble, whereby many yong persons might thinke, that Eleazar being foure score yere old and ten were now gone to another religion.

*10^r to moue
us more*

25 And so through mine hypocrisie (for a little time of a transitorie life) they might be decreed by me, and I should procure malediction, and reproch to mine oklage.

26 For though I were now deliuered from the torment of men, yet could I not escape the hand of the Almighty, neither aliuie nor dead.

27 Wherefore I wil now change this life manfully, & wil shew myself such as mine age requirith.

28 And so wil leaue a notable example for such as be yong, to die willingly & courageously for the honorable and holy Lawes. And when he had said these words, immediately he went to torment.

29 Now they that led him, changed the loue which they bare him before, into hatred, because of the words that he had spoken: for they thought it had bene a rage.

30 And as he was ready to giue the ghost because of the strokes, he sighed and said, The Lord that hath the holy knowledge, knoweth manifestly, that whereas I might haue bene deliuered from death, death, I am scourged and suffer these sore pains of my body: but in my mind I suffer them gladly for his religion.

31 Euen now after this maner ended he his life, leauing his death for an example of a noble courage, & a memorial of vertue, not only vnto yong men, but vnto all his nation.

CHAP. VII.

The punishment of the fouen brethren and of their mother.

I Came to passe also, that fouen brethren, with their mother, were taken to be compelled by the King against the Law, to taste swines flesh, & were tormented with scourges and whips.

1 But one of them which spake first, said thus, What seekest thou? & what wouldst thou know of vs? we are ready to die, rather then to transgresse the Lawes of our fathers.

3 Then was the king angry, and commanded to heate pannes and cauldrons, which were incontinently made hote.

4 And he commanded the tongue of him that spake first, to be cut out, and to slay him, & to cut off the vtmost parts of his body in the sight of his other brethren and his mother.

5 Now when he was thus mangled in all his members, he commanded him to be brought alieue to the fire, and to drie him in the pan: and while the smoke for a long time smoked out of the pan, the other brethren with their mother, exhorted one another to die courageously, saying in this maner,

6 The Lord God doth regard vs, and in deede taketh pleasure in vs, as Moyses * declared in the song wherein he testified openly, saying, That God will take pleasure in his seruants.

7 So when the first was dead after this maner, they brought the second to make him a mocking stocke: and when they had pulled the skinne with the haire ouer his head, they asked him, if he would eate, or hee were punished in all the members of the body.

8 But he answered in his owne language, and said, No. Wherefore he was tormented forthwith like the first.

9 And when he was at the last breath, he said, Thou murderer takest this present life from vs, but the king of the world wil raise vs vp, which die for his Lawes, in the resurrection of eueralting life.

10 ¶ After him was the thirde had in derision, and when they demanded his tongue, he put it out incontinently & stretched forth his hands boldly,

11 And spake manfully, These haue I had from the heauen, but now for the Law of God I despise them, and trust that I shall receiue them of him againe.

12 Inasmuch that the king & they which were with him, maruelled at the yong mans courage, as at one that nothing regarded the paines.

13 ¶ Now when he was dead also, they vexed and tormented the fourth in like maner.

14 And when he was now ready to die, he said thus, It is better that wee shoulde change this which we might hope for of men, and write for our hope from God, that we may be raised vp againe by him: as for thee, thou shalt haue no resurrection to life.

15 ¶ Afterward they brought the fifth also and tormented him,

16 Who looked vpon the King, & said, Thou hast power among men, and though thou bee a mortal man, thou dost what thou wilt: but thinke not, that God hath forsaken our nation.

17 But abide a while, & thou shalt see his great power, how he will torment thee and thy feede.

18 After him also they brought the sixt, who being at the point of death, said, Deceiue not thy selfe foolishly: for we suffer these things, which are worthy to be wondered at for our owne sakes, because we haue offended our God.

19 But thinke not thou, which undertakest to fight against God, that thou shalt be unpunished.

20 But the mother was maruelous at ouer all other, and worthy of honorable memory: for when she saw her fouen sonnes slaine within the space of one day, she suffered it with a good will, because of the hope that she had in the Lord.

21 Yea, she exhorted euery one of them in her owne language, and being full of courage and wildome, stirred vp her womanly affections with a manly stomacke, and said vnto them,

22 I cannot tell how ye came into my wombe: for I neither gaue you breath nor life: it is not I that set in order the members of your body.

23 But doubtlesse the Creator of the worlde, which formed the birth of man, & found out the beginning of all things, will also of his owne mercy giue you breath and life againe, as ye now regarde not your owne felues, for his Lawes sake.

24 Nowe Antiochus thinking himselfe despiised, and considering the iniurious wordes, while the youngest was yet alieue, he also exhorted him not onely with wordes, but swore also vnto him by an othe that he would make him rich & wealthy, if he would forsake the Lawes of his fathers, and that he would take him as a friend, and giue him offices.

25 But when the yong man would in no case hearken vnto him, the king called his mother, and exhorted that she would counsel the yong man to saue his life.

26 And when hee had exhorted her with many wordes, she promised him that she would counsel her sonne.

27 So she turned her vnto him, laughing the cruell tyrant to scorne, and spake in her owne language, O my sonne, haue pitie vpon me, that haue thee nine moneths in my wombe, and gaue thee sucke three yeeres, and nourished thee, and tooke care for thee vnto this age, and brought thee vp.

28 I beseech thee, my sonne, looke vpon the heauen and the earth, and all that is therein, and consider that God made them of things that were not, and so was mankind made likewise.

29 Feare not this hangman, but shew thy selfe worthy such brethren by suffering death, that I may receiue thee in mercy with thy brethren.

30 While she was yet speaking these wordes, the yong man said, Whom wait ye for? I wil not obey the Kings commaundement: but I wil obey the commaundement of the Lawe that was giuen vnto our fathers by Moyses.

31 And thou that imaginest all mischief against the Hebrewes, shalt not escape the hand of God.

32 For wee suffer these things, because of our sinnes,

33 But though the liuing Lord be angry with vs a litle while for our chastening and correctiō, yet wil he be reconciled with his owne seruants.

34 But thou, O man without religion & most wicked of all men, list not thy selfe vp in vaine, which which are puffed vp with vncertaine hope, and lift thine hands against the seruants of God, 35 For thou hast not yet escaped the iudgement of Almighty God, which seeth all things.

36 My brethren that haue suffered a litle paine, are now vnder the diuine couenant of euermlasting life: but thou through the iudgement of God, shalt suffer iust punishments for thy pride.

37 Therefore I, as my brethren haue done, offer my body & life for the Lawes of our fathers, beseeching God, that hee will soone be mercifull vnto our nation, and that thou by torment and punishment maifest confesse, that he is the onely God.

38 And that in me and my brethren the wrath of the Almighty, which is righteously fallen vpon all our nation, may cease.

39 Then the king being kindled with anger, ragedit more cruelly against him then the others, and tooke it grievously, that he was mocked.

40 So he also died holily, and put his whole trust in the Lord.

41 Last of all, after the sonnes, was the mother put to death.

42 Let this now be inough spoken concerning the bankets, and extreme cruelties.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Judas gathered together his hoste. 2 Nicanor is sent against Iudas. 3 Iudas rebueth his soldiers to constancy. 4 Nicanor is overcome. 5 The Iewes giue thanks, after they haue put their enemies to flight, diuiding part of the spoyle vnto the fatherlesse, and vnto the widewes. 6 Timotheus & Bacchides are discomfited. 7 Nicanor heere vnto Antiochus.

Then Iudas Maccabeus, & they that were with him, went priuily to the townes, and called their kinsfolkes & friends together, & tooke vnto them all such as continued in the Iewes religion, and assembled fixe thousand men.

2 So they called vpon the Lord, that he would haue an eye vnto his people, which was vexed of euery man, and haue pitie vpon the Temple that was defiled by wicked men.

3 And that he would haue compassion vpon the cite that was destroyed, & almost brought to the ground, and that he would heare the voyce of the blood that cried vnto him,

4 And that hee would remember the wicked slaughter of the innocent children, & the blasphemies committed against his name, and that hee would shew his hatred against the wicked.

5 Nowe when Maccabeus had gathered this multitude, he could not be withstood by the heathen: for the wrath of the Lord was turned vnto mercie.

6 Therefore he came at vnwares, & burnt vp the townes and cities: yet he tooke the most commodious places, and slew many of the enemies.

7 But specially hee vfed the nightes to make such assailes, in so much that the brui of his mannesse was spread euery where.

8 ¶ So when Philip saw that this man increased by litle and litle, & that things prospered with him for the most part, hee wrote vnto Ptolemeus the gouernour of Celsotria and Phenice, to help him in the kings businesse.

9 Then sent he speedily Nicanor the sonne of Patroclus, a special friend of his, and gaue him of all nations of the heathen no lesse then twentie thousand men, to root out the whole generatiō of the Iewes, and ioyned with him Gorgias a captain, which in matters of warre had great experience.

10 Nicanor ordeyned also a tribute for the king, of two thousand talents, which the Romanes should haue to be taken of the Iewes that were taken prisoners.

11 Therefore immediately he sent to the cities on the sea coast, prouoking them to buy Iewes to be their seruants, promising to sell fourescore & ten for one talent, but hee considered not the vengeance of almighty God, that should come vpon him.

12 When Iudas then knew of Nicanors coming, hee tolde them that were with him, of the coming of the armie.

13 Nowe were there some of them fearefull, which trusted not vnto the righteousness of God, but fled away, and abode not in that place.

14 But the other sold al that they had left, and besought the Lord together, to deliuer them from that wicked Nicanor, which had solde them, or euer he came neere them.

15 And though he would not doe it for their sakes, yet for the couenant made with their fathers, and because they called vpon his holy and glorious Name.

16 And so Maccabeus called his me together, about fixe thousand, exhorting them not to be afraid of their enemies, neither to feare the great multitude of the Gentiles, which came against them vnrightheously, but to fight manly,

17 Setting before their eyes y inuirt that they had vniustly done to the holy place, & the cruelty done to the cite by derision, & the destruction of the orders established by their fathers.

18 For they, said he, trust in their weapons and boldnesse: but our confidence is in the Almighty God, which at a beck can both destroy them that come against vs, and all the world.

19 Moreover he admonished them of the help that God shewed vnto their fathers, as when there perished an hundred and fourescore and fixe thousand vnder * Sennacherib,

20 And of the battell y they had in Babylon against the Galatians; how they came in al to y batel eight thousand, with foure thousand Macedonians: & when y Macedonians were astonied, the eight thousand slew an hundred & twenty thousand through the helpe that was giuen them from heauen, wherby they had receiued many benefits.

21 Thus when hee had made them bolde with these wordes, & ready to die for the Lawes & the country, he diuided his armie into foure parties.

22 And made his own brethren capitaines ouer the armie, to wit, Simon, & Ioseph, and Jonathan, giuing ech one fiftene hundred men.

23 And when y Eleazarus had read the holy book, & giuen them a token of the helpe of God, Iudas which led y forward, ioyned with Nicanor,

24 And because the Almighty helped them, they slew aboue nine thousand men, and wounded and maimed the most part of Nicanors bolle, and so put all to flight.

25 And tooke the money from those that came to buy them, and pursued them farre: but lacking time they returned.

26 For it was the day before the Sabbath, and therefore they would no longer pursue them.

27 So they tooke their weapons, & spoiled the enemies, and kept the Sabbath, giuing thanks and praising the Lord wonderfully, which had deliuered them that day, and powred vpon them the beginning of his mercie.

28 And after the Sabbath, they distributed the spoyle.

spoiles to the sicke, and to the fatherlesse, and to the widowes, and diuided the residue among them selues and their children,

29 When this was done, and they all had made a generall prayer, they besought the merciful Lord to be reconciled at the length with his seruants.

30 Afterward with one consent they sel vpon Timotheus and Batrachides, and slew aboue twenty thousand, and wanne hie and strong holds, and diuided great spoiles, & gaue an equal portion vnto the sick, and to the fatherles, and to the widowes, and to aged persons also.

31 Moreouer they gathered their weapons together, and laid them vp diligently in conuenient places, and brought the remnant of the spoiles to Ierusalem.

32 They slewe also Philarches a most wicked person, which was with Timotheus, and had vexed the Iewes many wayes.

33 And when they kept the feast of Victorie in their country, they burnt Calisthenes that had set fire vpon the holy gates, which was fled into a little house: for he receiued a rewarde meete for his wickednesse.

34 And that most wicked Nicanor, which had brought a thousand merchants to buy the Iewes,

35 He was through the help of the Lord brought down of them whom he thought as nothing, in so much that he pur off his glorious raiment, and fled ouerthwart the country like a fugitiue seruant, & came alone to Antiochia, with great dishonour through the destruction of his hoste.

36 Thus he that promised to pay tribute to the Romanes, by means of the prisoners of Ierusalem, brought newes, that the Iewes had a defender, & for this cause none could hurt the Iewes, because they followed the Lawes appointed by him,

1 Antiochus willing to spoile Persopolis, is put to flight. 2 At his pericunt he kills the Iewes, then fructon of the Lord. 3 The lawe of Antiochus. 4 He death miserably.

At the same time, came Antiochus again with a dishonour out of the country of Persia.

2 For when he came to Persopolis, and went about to rob the Temple, and to subdue the citie, the people ranne in a rage to defende themselves with their weapons, and put them to flight, and Antiochus was put to flight by the inhabitants, and returned with shame.

3 Now when he came to Ecbatane, he vnderstoode the things that had cometo Nicanor, and Timotheus.

4 And then being chased, in his fume hee thought to impute to the Iewes their fault, which had put him to flight, and therefore commaunded his charet man to drine continually, & to dispatch the iourney: for Gods iudgement compelled him: for he had saide thus in his pride, I will make Ierusalem a common burying place of the Iewes, when I come thither.

5 But the Lord almightie and God of Israel smote him with an incurable and inuisible plague: for assoone as he had spoken these words, a paine of the bowels, that was remedies, came vpon him, and fore tokens of the inner parts,

6 And that most iustly: for he had tormented other mens bowels with diuers and strange torments.

7 Howbeit he would in no wise cease from his arrogancie, but swelled the more with pride, breac-thing out fire in his rage against the Iewes, & commaunded to haste the iourney: but it came to passe that he fel downe from the charet that ran swiftly, so that all the members of his body were bruised with the great fall.

8 And thus hee that a litle afore thought he might command the floods of the sea (so proude was he beyond the condition of man) & to weigh the hie mountains in the balance, was now cast on the ground, and caried in an horstler, declaring vnto all the manifest power of God,

9 So that the wormes came out of the body of this wicked man in abundance: & whiles he was alieue, his flesh fell off for paine and torment, and all his armie was grieved at his smell.

10 Thus no man could beare, because of his stinke, him that a litle afore thought hee might reach to the starres of heauen.

11 Then he began to leaue off his great pride, and selfewill, when hee was plagued and came to the knowledge of himself by the scourge of God, and by his paine which increased euerie moment.

12 And when he himselfe might not abide his owne stinke, he saide these words, It is meete to bee subiect vnto God, and that a man which is mortall, should not thinke himselfe equall vnto God through pride.

13 This wicked person prayed also vnto the Lord, who would now haue no merie on him.

14 And saide thus that hee would set at libertie the holy citie vnto the which he made haste to destroy it, and to make it a burying place.

15 And as touching the Iewes (whom he had iudged not worthy to be buried, but would haue cast them out with their children to bee deuoured of the foules & wild beasts) he would make them all like the citizens of Athens.

16 And whereas he had spoiled the holy Temple afore, he would garnish it with great gifts, and increase the holy vessels, & of his owne rents beare the charges belonnging to the sacrifices.

17 Yea, and that he would also become a Iew himselfe, and go thorow all the world that was inhabited, and preach the power of God.

18 But for all this his paines would not ceasse for the iust iudgement of God was come vpon him: therefore despairing of his health hee wrote vnto the Iewes this letter vnder written, conteyning the forme of a supplication.

19 ¶ THE KING and Prince Antiochus vnto the Iewes his louing citizens wisheth much ioy and health and prosperitie.

20 If ye and your children fare well, and if all things goe after your minde, I giue great thanks vnto God hauing hope in the heauen.

21 Though I be sick, yet I am mindfull of your honour, and good will for the loue I beare you: therefore when I returned from the country of Persia, and fell into a sore discaise, I thought it necessarieto care for the common sicerie of all,

22 Not distrustful mine health, but hauing great hope to escape this sicknesse.

23 Therefore considering that when my father had an hoste against the high countries, hee appointed who should succeed him:

24 That if any controuersie happened contrary to his expectation, or if that any tidings were brought that were grieuous, they in the land might know to whome the affaires were committed, that they should not be troubled:

25 Again, when I ponder how that the gouernours that are borderers, and neighbours vnto my kingdome, waite for all occasions, & looke out for opportunity, I haue ordeined that my sonne Antiochus shall be King, whom I oft commended and committed to many of you, when I went into the his prouinces, and haue written vnto him as followeth hereafter.

26 Therefore I pray you, and require you to remember the benefices that I haue done vnto you generally, and particularly, and that euery man will be faithfull vnto me and my sonne.

27 For I trust that he will be gentle, and louing vnto you according vnto my minde.

28 ¶ Thus the murderer & blasphemers suffered most grievously, and as he had intreated other men, so he died a miserable death in a strange country among the mountaines.

29 And Philip that was brought vp with him, caried away his bodie, who fearing the sonne of Antiochus, went into Egypt to Ptolemeus Philometor.

CHAP. X.

1 Indas Maccabeus taketh the cite & the Temple, 20 The acts of Eupator. 26 The Jews fight against the Idumians, 27 Timotheus persuadeth Indas, with whom Indas is youth killed. 29 Five men aspiere in the cite to the helpe of the Jewes. 37 Timotheus is slaine.

Maccabeus now and his company, through the helpe of the Lorde, wanne the Temple and the cite againe.

2 And destroyed the altars, and chappels that the heathen had builded in the open places.

3 And clenfed the Temple, and made another altar, and burned stones, and tooke fire of them, and offered sacrifices, and incense two yeres, and sixe moneths after, and set forth the lamps, and the shegbread.

4 When that was done, they fell downe flat vpon the grounde, and besought the Lord, that they might come no more into such troubles, but if they sinne day more against him, that he himselfe would chasten them with mercie, and that they might not be deliuered to the blasphemous and barbarous nations.

5 Nowe vpon the same day, that the strangers polluted the Temple, on the very same day it was clenfed againe, euen the five and twenty day of the same moneth, which is || Chalfeu.

6 They kept eight daies with gladnes as in the feast of the Tabernacles, remembering, that not long afore they held the feast of the Tabernacles when they liued in the mountaines and denes like beasts.

7 And for the same cause they bare greene boughes, and faire branches and palmes, and sang Psalmes vnto him that had giuen them good successe in cleansing his place.

8 They ordeined also by a common statute and decree, that euery yere those daies should be kept of the whole nation of the Jewes.

9 And this was the ende of Antiochus called Epiphanes.

10 ¶ Now will we declare the actes of Antiochus Eupator, which was the sonne of this wicked man, gathering briefly the calamities of the warres, that followed.

11 For when he had taken the kingdome, he made one Lyfis, which had bene captiue of the hoste in Phenice, and Cælosyria, ruler ouer the affaires of the realme.

12 For Ptolemeus that was called Macron purposed to do iustice vnto the Jewes for the wrong, that had bene done vnto them, and went about to behaue himselfe peaceably with them.

13 For the which cause he was accused of his friends before Eupator, and was called oft times traitour, because he had left Cyprus the Philometor had committed vnto him, and came to Antiochus Epiphanes: there fore seeing that hee was no more in estimation, he was discouraged, and poisoned himselfe, and died.

14 ¶ But when Gorgias was gouernour of the same places, hee entertained strangers, and made warre oft times against the Jewes.

15 Moreover the Idumians that helde the strong holds, which were meete for their purpose, troubled the Jewes, and by receiving them that were driuen from Ierusalem, tooke in hand to continue warre.

16 Then they that were with Maccabeus made prayers, and besought God that he would be their helper, and so they fell vpon the strong holds of the Idumians.

17 And assailed them fore, that they wan the places, and slew all that fought against them on the wall, and killed all that they met with, and slew no lesse then twenty thousand.

18 And because certaine (which were no lesse then nine thousand) were fled into two strong castles, hauing all manner of things conuenient to susteine the siege,

19 Maccabeus left Simon, & Ioseph and Zacharias also, and those that were with them, which were ynow to besiege them, and departed to those places which were more necessary.

20 Now they that were with Simon, being led with couetousnesse, were intreated for money (through certain of those that were in the castle) and tooke seuentie thousand drachmes, and let some of them escape.

21 But when it was told Maccabeus what was done, he called the gouernours of the people together, and accused those men that they had solde their brethren for money, and let their enemies goe.

22 So he slew them when they were counsell of treason, and immediately wan the two castles.

23 And hauing good successe, as in all the warres that he tooke in hand, he slew in the two castles more then twenty thousand.

24 Now Timotheus whom the Jewes had ouercome afore, gathered an armie of strangers of all sorts, & brought a great troupe of hostinen out of Asir to winne Ierurie by strength.

25 But when he drew neere, Maccabeus and they that were with him, turned to pray vnto God, and sprinkled earth vpon their heads, and girded their reines with sackcloth.

26 And fell downe at the foote of the altar, and besought the Lord to be mercifull vnto them, and to be an enemy to their enemies, and to be an aduersarie to their aduersaries, as the Lawe declareth.

27 So after the prayer, they tooke their weapons, and went on further from the cite, and when they came neere to the enemies, they tooke heed to themselves.

28 And when the morning appeared, they both ioyned together: the one part had the Lorde for their refuge, and pledge of prosperitie, and noble victorie, vicorie, and the other tooke courage as a guide of the warre.

29 But when the battel waxed strong, there appeared vnto the enemies six hundred comely men vpon horses with bridles of gold, and two of them led the Iewes,

30 And tooke Maccabeus betwixt them, and couered him on euery side with their weapons, & kept him safe, but shot darts, and lightnings against the enemies, so that they were confounded with blindness, and beaten downe and full of trouble.

31 There were slain of foote men twenty thousand and five hundred, and five hundred horsemen.

32 As for Timotheus himselfe, he fled vnto Gazara, which was called a very strong holde, wherein Cheræus was capitaine.

33 But Maccabeus and his company laid siege against the fortresses with courage for four daies.

34 And they that were within, trusting to the bright of the place, blasphemed exceedingly, and spake horrible words.

35 Neuerthelss vpon the fifteenth day in the morning, twenty young men of Maccabeus company, whose hearts were inflamed, because of the blasphemies, came vnto the wall, and with bolde stomackes smote downe those that they met.

36 Others also that climed vp vpon the engines of war against them that were within, set fire vpon the towers, and burnt those blasphemers quicke with the fires that they had made, & others brake vp the gates, and receiued the rest of the armie, & tooke the citie.

37 And hauing founde Timotheus, that was crept into a caue, they killed him, & Cheræus his brother with Appolophanes.

38 When this was done, they praised the Lord with psalmes, and thankgiuing, which had done so great things for Israel, and giuen them the victory.

CHAP. XI.

1 Lyfias goeth alone to ouercome the Iewes. 2 Succour is sent from heauen vnto the Iewes. 3 The letter of Lyfias vnto the Iewes. 4 The letter of King Antiochus vnto Lyfias. 5 A letter of the Ians vnto the Iewes. 6 A letter of the Romans to the Iewes.

V Ery shortly after this, Lyfias, kings steward, and a kinsman of his, which had the gouernance of the affaires, tooke sore displeasure for the things that were done.

2 And when he had gathered about fourescore thousand, with all the horsemen, he came against the Iewes, thinking to make the citie an habitation of the Gentiles.

3 And the temple would he haue to get mony by, like the other temples of the heathen: for he would set the Priests office euery yere.

4 And thus being puffed vp in his mind, because of the great number of footemen, and thousands of horsemen, & in his fourscore Elephants,

5 He came into Iudea, & drew neere to Bethsura, which was a castle of defence, five furlongs from Ierusalem, and layde fore siege vnto it.

6 But when Maccabeus, and his company knew that he besieged the holdes, they, and all the people made prayers with weeping, and teares before the Lord, that he would send a good Angel to deliuer Israel.

7 And Maccabeus himselfe first of all tooke weapons, exhorting the other that they would do parde themselves together with him to help their brethren: so they went forth together with a courageous minde.

8 And as they were there besides Ierusalem, there appeared before them vpon horsebacke a man in white clothing, slaking his harnesse of golde.

9 Then they praised the mercifull God all together, and tooke heart, in so much that they were readie, not onely to fight with men, but with the most cruell beastes, and to breake downe walles of yron.

10 Thus they marched forward in aray, hauing an helper from heauen: for the Lord was mercifull vnto them.

11 And running vpon their enemies like lions, they slew eleven thousand footemen, and sixteene hundred horsemen, and put all the other to flight.

12 Many of them also being wounded, escaped naked, and Lyfias himselfe fled away shamefully, and so escaped.

13 Who as he was a man of vnderstanding, considering what losse he had had, and knowing, that the Hebræus could not be ouercome because the almighty God helped them, sent vnto them,

14 And promised, that he would consent to all things which were reasonable, and perswade the King to be their friend.

15 Maccabeus agreed to Lyfias requests hauing respect in all things to the common wealth, and whatsoeuer Maccabeus wrote vnto Lyfias concerning the Iewes, the King granted it.

16 For there were letters written vnto the Iewes from Lyfias containing these words, LYSIAS vnto the people of the Iewes sendeth greeting.

17 Iohn and Iabessalom, which were sent from you, deliuered me the things that you demand by writing, and required me to fulfill the things that they had declared.

18 Therefore what things soeuer were meete to be reported to the King himselfe, I haue declared them, and he granted that that was possible.

19 Therefore if ye behaue yourselves as friends toward his affaires, hereafter also I will endeavour my selfe to doe you good.

20 As concerning these things, I haue giuen commandement to these men, & to those whom I sent vnto you, to comune with you of some particularly.

21 Fare you well, the hundreth and eight and forty yere, the foure and twentieth day of the month Dioscorinthius.

22 ¶ Now the Kings letter contained these words, KING ANTIOCHVS vnto his brother Lyfias sendeth greeting.

23 Since our father is translated vnto the gods, our will is, that they which are in our Realme, liue quietly, that euery man may apply his own affairs.

24 We vnderstand also that the Iewes would not consent to our father, for to be brought vnto the custome of Gentiles, but would keepe their own manner of liuing: for the which cause they require of vs, that we would suffer them to liue after their owne Lawes.

25 Wherefore our mind is that this nation shall be in rest, and true determined to restore them their Temple, that they may be gouerned according to the custome of their fathers.

26 Thou shalt do well therefore to send vnto them and grant them peace, when they are certified of our mind, they may be of good comfort, and cheerefully goe about their owne affaires.

27 And this was the Kings letter vnto the nation, KENO ANTIOCHVS vnto the Elders of the Iewes, and to the rest of the Iewes, sendeth greeting.

28 If ye fare wel, we haue our desire: we are also in good health.

29 Menelaus declared vnto vs that your desire was to returne home, and to applie your own businessse.

30 Wherefore, those that will depart, we giue them free libertie, vnto the thirthe day of the moneth of Panthicus,

31 That the Iewes may vse their owne manner of liuing and lawes, like as afore, and none of the by any manner of wayes to haue harme for thinge done by ignorance.

32 I haue sent also Menelaus to comfort you.

33 Fare yee well: the hundreth and eight and fourtie yere, the fifteenth day of the moneth of Panthicus.

34 ¶ The Romanes also sent a letter conteneing these words, QVINTVS MEMMVS and Titus Manilius ambassadours of the Romanes, vnto the people of the Iewes send greeting.

35 The things that Lysias the Kings kinsman hath granted you, we grant the same also.

36 But concerning that which he shall report vnto the King, send thither some with speede, when ye haue considered the matter diligently, that we may consult thereupon as shalbe best for you: for we must go vnto Antiochia.

37 And therefore make haste and sende some men, that we may know your minde.

38 Fare wel: this hundreth and eight & fourtie yere, fifteenth day of the moneth of Panthicus.

CHAP. XII.

1 Timotheus troubled the Iewes. 2 The wicked deeds of them of Ioppe against the Iewes. 3 Iudas is auenged of them. 4 He setteth fire in the house of Jamnia. 5 The pursuit of scribes Iewes against Timotheus. 6 Timotheus is taken and let goe and hurt. 7 Iudas put Ierich Gorgias.

WHEN these couenants were made, Lysias went vnto the King, and the Iewes tilld their ground.

2 But the gouernours of the places, Timotheus and Appollonius the sonne of Genneus, and Ieronimus, and also Demophon, and besides them Nicanor the gouernour of Cyprus, would not let them liue in rest and peace.

3 ¶ They of Ioppe also did such a vile acte: they prayed the Iewes that dwelt among them, to goe with their wiues and children into the ships, which they had prepared as thogh they had ought them none euill will.

4 And so by the common aduise of the citie, they obeyed them, and suspect nothing: but when they were gone forth into the deepe, they drowned no lesse then two hundred of them.

5 Now when Iudas knew of this cruelty shewed against his nation, he commaunded those men that were with him, to make them ready.

6 And hauing called vpon God the righteous Iudge, he went forth against the murderers of his brethren, and set fire in the haven by night, and burnt the ships, and those that fled thence, he slewe.

7 And when the citie was shut vp, he departed as though he would come again, and roote out all them out of the citie of Ioppe.

8 ¶ But when he perceived that the Iamrites were minded to do in like manner vnto the Iewes, which dwelt among them,

9 He came vpon the Iamrites by night, and set fire in the haven with the naue, so that the light of the fire was seen at Ierusalem, ypo a two hundred and forty furlongs.

10 Now when they were gone from thence nine furlongs, in their iourney toward Timotheus, about fise thousand men of foote and fise hundred horsemen of the Arabians set vpon him.

11 So the battell was sharpe, but it prospered with Iudas through the helpe of God: the Nomades of Arabia being ouercome, he sought Iudas to make peace with the, and promised to giue him certaine cattell, and to helpe him in other things.

12 And Iudas thinking that they should in deed be profitable concerning many things, granted them peace: wherupon they shooke hands, and so they departed to their tents.

13 ¶ Iudas also assaulted a citie called Capis, which was strong by reason of a bridge, and fenced round about with walles, & had diuers kindes of people dwelling therein.

14 So they that were within it, put such trust in the strength of the walles, and in store of vittails, that they were the slacker in their doings, railing them that were with Iudas, and reproaching them: yea, they blasphemed & spake such words as were not lawfull.

15 But Maccabeus souldiers, calling vpon the great Prince of the world (which without any instruments, or engines of warre, did cast down the walles of Iericho, in y time of Iesus) gaue a fierce assault against the walles,

16 And tooke the citie by the wil of God, and made an exceeding great slaughter, in somuch that a lake of two furlongs broad, which lay thereby seemed to flowe with blood.

17 ¶ Then departed they from thence, seven hundred and fiftie furlongs, and came to Characa vnto the Iewes that are called Tui ieni.

18 But they found not Timotheus there: for he was departed from thence and had done nothing, and had left a garison in a very strong hold.

19 But Dolitheus, and Sosipater, which were captaines with Maccabeus, went forth, and slewe those that Timotheus had left in y fortresse, more then ten thousand men.

20 And Maccabeus prepared, and ranged his armie by bandes, and went courageously against Timotheus, which had with him an hundred and twenty thousand men of foote, and two thousand and fise hundred horsemen.

21 When Timotheus had knowledge of Iudas comming, he sent the women and children, and the other baggage afore vnto a fortresse called Carnion (for it was hard to besiege, and vncasie to come vnto because of the straites on all sides.)

22 But when Iudas first band came in sight, the enemies were smitten with feare, and a trembling was among the through the presence of him that seeth all things, in somuch that they fleeing one here, another there, were oft times hurt by their owne people, and wounded with the pointes of their owne swordes.

23 But Iudas was very earnest in pursuing, and

So called he cause they were sheepheads.

For called rammes. Ioh. 1. 10.

slew those wicked men: yea, he slew thirtie thousand men of them.

34 Timotheus also himself fell into the hands of Dosithus, and Sopater, whom he besought with much craft to let him goe with his life, because he had many of the Iewes parents and the brethren of some of them, which, if they put him to death, should be defiled.

35 So when he had assured them with manie words, and promised that he would restore them without hurt, they let him goe for the health of their brethren.

36 ¶ Then went Maccabeus toward Carnion, and Atargation, and slew five and twentie thousand persons.

37 And after that hee had chased away and slaine them, Iudas remoued the host toward Ephron a strong cite, wherein was Lysias & a great multitude of all nations, and the strong young men kept the walles defending them mightily: there was also great preparation of engines of war, and darts.

38 But when they had called vpon the Lorde, which with his power breaketh the strength of the enemies, they wanne the cite, and slew five and twentie thousand of them that were within.

39 ¶ From thence went they to Scythopolis, which lyeth sixe hundred furlongs from Ierusalem.

40 But when the Iewes which dwelt there, testified that the Scythopolitans dealt louingly with them, & intreated them kindly in the time of their aduersities,

41 They gaue them thanks, desiring them to be friendly still vnto them, and so they came to Ierusalem, as the feast of the weekes approched.

42 ¶ And after the feast called Pentecost they went forth against Gorgias the gouernour of Idumea:

43 Who came out with three thousand men of foote and foure hundred horsmen.

44 And when they ioyned together, a few of the Iewes were slaine,

45 And Dosithus one of the Baccenors, which was on horsebacke and a mighty man, tooke Gorgias, and laid hold of his garment, and drew him by force, because he would haue taken the wicked man aliue: but an horsman of Thracia fel vpon him, and smote off his shoulder, so that Gorgias fled into Marisa.

46 And when they that were with Eserin, had foughten long, and were weary, Iudas called vpon the Lord, that he would shew himselfe to be their helper, and captaine of the field.

47 And then he began in his owne language, and sung psalmes with a loud voice, in so much that straight waies he made them that were about Gorgias, to take their flight.

48 ¶ So Iudas gathered his hoste, and came into the cite of Odolla. And when the seventh day came, they cleansed the Iewes (as the custome was) and kept the Sabbath in the same place.

49 And vpon the day following, as necessity required, Iudas and his company came to take vp the bodies of them that were slaine, and to burie them with their kinsmen in their fathers graues.

50 Nowe vnder the coates of euerie one, that was slaine, they found iewels that had bene consecrate to the idoles of the Iammies, which thing is forbidden the Iewes by the Lawe. Then euerie man sawe, that this was the cause wherefore they were slaine.

41 And so euery mon gaue thanks vnto the Lord, the righteous Iudge, which had opened the things that were hid.

42 And they gaue themselves to prayer, and besought him, y they should not vterly be destroyed for the fault committed. Besides that, noble Iudas exhorted the people to keepe themselves ffrom sinne, for so much as they saw before their eyes the things which came to passe by the sinne of these that were slaine,

43 And hauing made a gathering through the companie, sent to Ierusalem about two thousand drachmes of siluer, to offer a fixe offering, doing very well, and honestly that he thought of the resurrection.

44 For if he had not hoped, that they which were slaine, should rise againe, it had bene superfluous, and vaine, to pray for the dead.

45 And therefore he perceived, that there was great fauour layd vp for those that died godly. (It was an holy, and a good thought.) So he made a reconciliation for the dead, that they might be deliuered from sinne.

ledging his owne infirmity, desireth pardon, if he haue not attained to that he should. And it seemeth, that this Iudas had some opinion, out of whom he tooketh this abridgement, is Ioseph Ben Guion, who hath written in Hebrew five bookes of these matters, and increasing this place, maketh no mention of this prayer for the dead, lib. 3. chap. 19. for it is contrary to the custome of the Iewes, eue to this day, to pray for the dead. And though Iudas had so done, yet this particular example is not sufficient to establish a doctrine, no more then Zipporahs was to: proue that women might minister the Sacraments, Exod. 4. 24. or the example of Razis that one might kill himselfe, whom this author so much commendeth, Chap. 14. 4. 3.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The coming of Eupator into Iudaea. 2 The death of Menelaus. 3 Maccabeus going to fight against Eupator, moneth his followers vnto prayer. 4 He killeth fourten thousand men in the ruins of Antiochus. 5 Antiochus the boye of the Iewes is taken.

IN the hundred forty and nine yere it was told Iudas, that Antiochus Eupator was coming with a great power into Iudaea,

2 And Lysias the steward and ruler of his affaires with him, hauing both in their army an hundred and ten thousand men of foote of the Grecians, & five thousand horsmen, & two and twenty elephants, & three hundred charres fet with hooks.

3 Menelaus also ioined himselfe with them, and with great deceit encouraged Antiochus, not for the safegarde of the country, but because he thought to haue bene made the gouernour.

4 But the King of Kings moued Antiochus minde against this wicked man, and Lysias informed the King that this man was ycaus of all mischief, so that the King commanded to bring him to Berea to put him vnto death, as the rauer was in that place.

5 Now there was in that place a towre of fifty cubites high, full of ashes, and it had an instrument that turned round, and on euery side it rolled downe into the ashes.

6 And there whosoever was condemned of sacriledge, or of any other grieuous crime, was cast of all men to the death.

7 And so it came to passe that this wicked man should die such a death, & it was a most iust thing that Menelaus should want buriall.

8 For because he had committed many sinnes by the altar, whose fire and ashes were holy: hee himselfe also died in the ashes.

9 ¶ Nowe the King raged in his minde, and came

¶ From this verse to the end of this chapter, the Greek text is corrupt, so that no good sense much is discernable therein. Albeit it is evident that this place was not written by the holy Ghost, but because it differeth from the rest of the holy Scriptures, and also the author of this booke acknowcame to shew himselfe more cruel vnto the Iewes then his father.

10 Which things when Iudas perceiued, hee commanded the people to call vpon the Lord night and day, that if euer had holpen them, he would now helpe them, when they should be put from their law, from their country and from the holy temple :

11 And that he would not suffer the people, which a litle afore began to recouer, to be subdued vnto the blasphemous nations.

12 So when they had done this al together, and besought the Lord for mercie with weeping, and fasting, and falling downe three daies together, Iudas exhorted them to make themselves ready.

13 And he being apart with the Elders, tooke counsell to go forth, afore the King brought his host into Iudea, and should take the citie, & commit the matter to the help of the Lord.

14 So committing the charge to the Lord of the world, he exhorted his souldiers to fight manfully, euen vnto death for the Lawes, the Temple, the citie, their country, and the common wealth, and camped by Modin.

15 And so giuing his souldiers for a watchword, The victorie of God, hee picked out the manliest yong men, & went by night into the kings campe, and slew of the hoste fourteene thousand men, & the greatest elephant with al that fate vpon him.

16 Thus when they had brought a great feare, and trouble in the campe, and al things went prosperously with them, they departed.

17 This was done in the breake of the day, because the protection of the Lord did help them.

18 ¶ Now when the king had tasted the manlienesse of the Iewes, he went about to take the holdes by policie,

19 And marched toward Beth-sura, which was a strong hold of the Iewes : but he was chased away, hurt and lost of his men.

20 For Iudas had sent vnto them that were in it, such things as were necessary.

21 But Rhodocus which was in the Iewes host, disclosed the secrets to the enemies : therefore he was sought out, & when they had gotten him, they put him in prison.

22 After this did the king commune with the that were in Beth-sura, & tooke tribute wth the, departed, and ioined battell with Iudas, who ouercame him.

23 But who he understood that Philip (whom he had left to be ouersier of his businesse at Antiochia) did rebell against him, he was astonished, so that he yielded himselfe to the Iewes, & made them an oath to do all things that were right, and was appeased toward them, and offered sacrifice and adorned the Temple, and shewed great gentlenesse to the place,

24 And embraced Maccabeus, and made him captaine and gouernour from Ptolemais vnto the Gerencians.

25 Neuertheless, when he came to Ptolemais, the people of the citie were not content with this agreement : and because they were grieved, they would that he should breake the couenants.

26 Then went Lyfias vp into the iudgement seat and euened the fact as well as he could, and persuaded them, and pacified them, and made the well affected, and came againe to Antiochia. This is the matter concerning the Kings iourney, and his returne.

Demetrius moued by Alcimus, Ierush Nicanor to hit the Iewes, 18 Nicanor maketh a compell with the Iewes, 29 Which he yet breaketh through the motion of the King, 37 Nicanor commandeth Xerxes to be taken, who flyeth himselfe.

AFTER three yeeres was Iudas enfourmed that Antiochus the sonne of Seleucus was come vp with a great power and naue by the haue of Tripolis,

2 When he had wonne the country, & slayne Antiochus and his Lieutnant Lyfias.

3 Now Alcimus which had bene high Priest, and willfully defiled himselfe in the time that all things were confounded, seeing that by no means he could saue himselfe, nor haue any more entrance to the holy Altar,

4 He came to King Demetrius in the hundredth fiftie and one yere, presenting vnto him a crowne of gold, and a Palme, and of the boughes, which were vsed sollemnly in the Temple, and that day he held his tongue.

5 But when he had gotten opportunitie, and occasion for his rage, Demetrius called him to counsell, and asked him what deuises or counsells the Iewes leane vnto.

6 To the which he answered, the Iewes that he called Asideans, whose captaine is Iudas Maccabeus, maintaine warres, and make insurrections, and will not let the Realme be in peace.

7 Therefore I, being deperied of my fathers honour (I meane the high Priesthood) am now come hither,

8 Partly, because I was wel affected vnto the Kings affaires, and secondly, because I sought the profite of mine owne citizens : for all our people through their rashnes, are not a litle troubled,

9 Wherefore, O King, seeing thou knowest all these things, make prouision for the country, and our nation which is abused, according to thine owne humanity, that is ready to helpe al men.

10 For as long as Iudas liueth, it is not possible that the matter should be well.

11 When he had spoken these wordes, other friends also hauing euil will at Iudas, set Demetrius on fire.

12 Who immediately called for Nicanor the ruler of the Elephants, and made him captaine ouer Iudea, 13 And sent him forth, commanding him to slay Iudas, and to scatter them that were with him, and to make Alcimus high Priest of the great Temple.

14 Then the heathen which fled out of Iudea from Iudas, came to Nicanor by flocks, thinking the harme and calamities of the Iewes to be their welfare.

15 Now when the Iewes heard of Nicanors coming, and the gathering together of the heathen, they sprinkled themselves with earth, and prayed vnto him which had appointed himselfe a people for cuer, and did alwaies defend his own position with euident tokens.

16 So at the commandement of the captaine, they renoued straightwaies from thence, and came to the towne of Dessan, 17 Where Simon Iudas brother had ioined battell with Nicanor, and was somewhat astonished through the sudden silence of the enemies.

18 Neuertheless Nicanor hearing the noises of them that were with Iudas, and the bold stomackes that they had for their country, durst not lyfias and made the right hand.

prone the matre with bloodshedding.

19 Wherefore he sent Polidonius, || Theodolus, and || Mattias before, to make peace.

20 So when they had taken long aduise ment thereupon, & the captain shewed it vnto the multitude, they were agreed in one minde, and consented to the covenants.

21 And they appointed a day when they should particularly come together: so when the day was come, they set for euery man his stoole.

22 Neuertheless Iudas commanded certaine men of armes to waite in conuenient places, lest there should suddenly arise any euill through the enemies: and so they communed together of the things wherupon they had agreed.

23 Nicanor, while he stood at Ierusalem, did none hurt, but sent away the people that were gathered together.

24 He || loued Iudas, and fauoured him in his heart.

25 He praised him also to take a wife, & to beget children: so he married, & they liued together.

26 But Alcimus perceiving the loue that was betweene them, and vnderstanding the covenants that were made, came to Demetrius, and told him that Nicanor had taken strange matters in hand, and ordeined Iudas a traitour to the realme, to be his successeur.

27 Then the King was displeased, & by the reports of this wicked man, hee wrote to Nicanor, saying, that hee was very angry for the covenants, commanding him that he should send Maccabeus in all haste prisoner vnto Antiochia.

28 While these things came to Nicanor, he was astonished and foregriued, that he should breake the things wherein they had agreed, seeing that that man had committed no wickednesse.

29 But because it was not commodious to him to withstand the king, he fought craftily to accomplish it.

30 Notwithstanding when Maccabeus perceived that Nicanor began to be rough vnto him, & that he intreated him more rudely then hee was wont, he perceived that such rigour came not of good, and therefore he gathered a few of his men, and withdrew himselfe from Nicanor.

31 But the other perceiving that hee was persecuted by Maccabeus worthy policie, came into the great & holy Temple, and commanded the Priests, which were offering their vsual sacrifices, to deliuer him the man.

32 And when they sware that they could not tell where the man was, whom he sought,

33 He stretched out his right hand toward the Temple, & made an oth in this manner, If ye will not deliuer me Iudas as a prisoner, I will make this Temple of God a plain field, & will break down the altar & will erect a notable Temple vnto Baechus.

34 After these wordes hee departed: then the Priests lift vp their hands toward heauen, and he sought him that was euer the defender of their nation, saying in this manner,

35 Thou, O Lord of all things, which hast need of nothing, wouldst that the Temple of thine habitation should be among vs.

36 Therefore now, O most holy Lorde, keepe this house euer vndersiled, which lately was cleansed, and stop all the mouthes of the vnrighteous.

37 Now was there accused vnto Nicanor, Rabbis one of the Elders of Ierusalem, a loue of Iudas, and a man of very good report, which for his loue was called a father of the Iewes.

38 For this man sometimes when the Iewes were minded to keepe themselves vnderiled and pure, being accused to bee of the religion of the Iewes, did offer to spend his body and life, with all constancie for the religion of the Iewes.

39 So Nicanor willing to declare the hatred that he bare to the Iewes, sent about five hundred men of warre to take him.

40 For hee thought by taking him to doe the Iewes much hurt.

41 But when this company would haue taken his castle, & would haue broken the gates by violence, and commanded to bring fire to burne the gates, so that hee was ready to be taken on cury side, he fell on his sword,

42 Willing rather to die manfully, then to giue himselfe into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer reproch vnworthy for his noble stocke.

43 Notwithstanding what time as he missed of his stroke for haste, and the multitude rushed in violently betweene the doores, hee ran boldly to the wall, and cast himselfe down manfully among the multitude.

44 Which concited himselfe highly away, and gaue place, so that he fell vpon his bellie.

45 Neuertheless while there was yet breath in him, being kindled in his minde, hee rose vp, and though his blood gushed out like a fountaine, and he was very fore wounded, yet he ran thorow the midst of the people,

46 And gate him to the top of an high rocke: so when his blood was vterly gone, he tooke out his owne bowels with both his hands, and threwe them vpon the people, calling vpon the Lord of life and spirit, that he would restore them againe vnto him, and thus he died.

CHAP. XV.

1 Nicanor smoth alons facem vpon Iudas on the Sabbath day.
2 The disciples of Nicanor. 3 Maccabeus expounding vnto the Iewes the vnfancie amongst them. 4 The prayer of Maccabeus. 5 Maccabeus commandeth Nicanors head and hand to be cut off, and his tongue to be giuen vnto the foules. 6 The answere of Nicanor himselfe.

NOW when Nicanor knewe that Iudas and his Neighbours were in the countrey of Samaria, he thought with all assurance to come vpon them, vpon the Sabbath day.

2 Neuertheless, the Iewes that were compelled to goe with him, said, O kill not so cruelly and barbarously, but honour and sanctifie the day, that is appointed by him that seeth all things.

3 But this most wicked person demanded, Is there a Lorde in heauen, that commanded the Sabbath day to be kept?

4 And when they said, There is a liuing Lord, which ruleth in the heauen, who commanded the seventh day to be kept,

5 Then he said, And I am mighty vpon earth to come, and them for to arme themselves, and to performe the Kings businesse. Notwithstanding, he could not accomplish his wicked enterprise.

6 For Nicanor lifted vp with great pride, purposed to set vp a memorial of the victorie obtained of all them that were with Iudas.

7 But Maccabeus had euer sure confidence and a perfect hope that the Lord would helpe,

8 And exhorted his people not to be afraid at the coming of these heathen, but alway to remember

At this private example ought not to be followed of the godly, because it is contrary to the word of God although the author seeme here to approve it. So that place as touching prayer, Chama, though Iudas had appointed it yet were it not sufficient to prone a doctrine, because it is only a particular example.

ber the helpe that had beene shewed vnto them from heauen, & to trust now also, that they should haue the victorie by the Almighty.

9 Thus he encouraged them by the Lawe and Prophets, putting them in remembrance of the battels that they had wonne afore, and so made them more willing,

10 And stirred vp their hearts, and shewed them also the deceitfulnes of the heathen, and how they had broken their othes.

¶ Thus he armed euery one of them, not with the assurance of Shields & speares, but with wholesome words and exhortations, and shewed them a dreame woorthy to bee beleued, and reioyced them greatly.

12 And this was his vision. He thought that he saw Onias (which had bene the high Priest, a virtuous and a good man, reuerent in behaviour, and of sober conuersation, well spoken, and one that had bene exercised in all points of godlines from a child) holding vp his hands towards heauen, and praying for the whole people of the Iewes.

13 ¶ After this there appeared vnto him another man which was aged, honourable, and of a wonderful dignitie, and excellencie aboue him.

14 And Onias spake, and said, This is a lover of the brethren, who prayeth much for the people, and for the holy citie, to wit, Ieremias the Prophet of God.

15 He thought also that Ieremias helde out his right hand, and gaue vnto Iudas a sword of golde: and as he gaue it, he spake thus,

16 Take this holy sworde a gift from God, wherewith thou shalt wound the aduerfaries.

17 And he being comforted by the wordes of Iudas, which were very sweet & able to stirre th^e vp to valiantnesse and to encourage the heartes of the yong men, they determined to pitch no camp, but courageously to set vpon them, and manfully to assaile them, & to try the matter hand to hand, because the citie and the Sanduarie and the Temple were in danger.

18 As for their wiues, and children, & brethren and kinsfolkes, they set lesse by their danger: but their greatest and principal feare was for the holy Temple.

19 Again they that were in the cite, were carefull for the armie that was abroad.

20 Now while they all waited for the trial of the matter, and the enemies now met with them, and the host was set in array, and the beasts were separated into convenient places, and the horsemen were placed in the wings:

as Maccabees considering the coming of the multitude, & the diuers preparations of weapons, and the fiercenesse of the beastes, helde vp his hands toward heauen, calling vpon the Lord that doeth wonders, & that looked vpon them, knowing that the victorie commeth not by the weapons, but that he giueth the victorie to them that are worthe, as seemeth good vnto him,

22 Therefore in his praier he said after this manner, O Lorde, * thou that didst send thine Angel in the time of Ezechias King of Iudea, who in the hoste of Sennacherib flew an hundreth, fourescore and five thousand.

23 Send now also thy good Angel before vs,
O Lorde of heauens, for a feare and dread vnto them.

24 And let the be discomfited by the strength of thine arme, which come againt thine holie people to blaspheme. Thus with these wordes he made an ende.

25 Then Nicanor & they that were with him, drew neere with trumpets and shewings for ioy.

26 But Iudas and his companie praying & calling vpon God, encountred with the enemies,

27 So that with their hands they fought, but with their hearts they prayed vnto God, and slew no lesse then fise and thirtie thousand men: for through the presence of God they were wonderfully comforted.

28 Nowe when they left off, and were turning againē with joy, they vnderstoodē that Nicanor himselfe was slaine for all his armour.

29 Then they made a great shout & a cry, praying the Almighty in their owne language.

30 Therefore Judas, which was ever the chief defender of his citizens both in body and minde, and which bare ever good affection towards them of his nation, commanded to smite off Nicanors head, with his hand and shoulder, and to bring it to Jerusalem.

31 And when he came there, he called all them of his nation, and set the Priests by the altar, and sent for them of the castle.

32 And shewed them wicked Nicanors bead, and the hand of that blasphemour, which he had holden vp against the holy Temple of the Al-mightie with proud bragges.

33 He cauled the tongue also of wicked Nic-nora to be cut in little pieces, and to be cast vnto the fowles, & that the rewards of his madnettle should be hangd vpon before the Temple.

34 So euery man praised towarde the heauen the glorious Lord, saying, Blessed be he, that hath kept his place vndefiled.

35 Hee hanged also Nicanors head vpon the hie castle, for an euident and plaine token vnto all of the helpe of God.

36 And so they established all together by a common decree, that they would in no case suffer this day without keeping it holy:

37 And that the feast should be the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth, which is called Adar in the Syrians language, the day before Mardocheus day.

38 Thus far as concerning Nicanors matters, and from that time the Helbrewes had the citie in possession. And here will I also make an ende.

39 If I haue done wel, and as the storie required, it is the thing that I desired: but if I haue spoken slenderly and bareley, it is that I could.

40 For as it is hurtful to drinke wine alone, and then againe water: and as wine temper'd with water is pleasant, and delighteth the taste: so the setting out of the matter delighteth the eares of the that reade the storie. And here shall be the ende.

THE PRINTER

to the diligent Reader.

Eare Christian Reader, to the intent that thou mightest the better enioy the benefit of these notes or expositions vpon the New Testament: I thought it not amisse to declare vnto thee the vse of the same. And first, forasmuch as the quotations or citing of places of the Scriptures in the margent which direct to other places, containing like phrase or sense, haue bene so placed, that none without great labour could finde out the texts alledged, I haue made these fixe seuerall figures or marks, + ♣ ✕ * *, and haue set them aswell in the margent as in the text, so that thou mayest easily finde that which thou desirest. For example, in the first word of the first Chapter of Matthew is placed this first marke +: looke out the like marke in the margent, and there thou shalt finde Luke 3. 23. which place agreeth to this of Matthew: and so likewise thou shalt finde in the residue. But if many quotations belong to one place, word, or sentence, the first is onely marked, and those that follow vnmarked appertaine to the same. And if it fall out that there be more then fixe directions in one columnne, then is the first repeated againe, and the residue following in order as at the beginning: as it appeareth in the first columnne of Matthew, where both in the text and margent also, they are all two times set downe, and the foure first repeated againe.

The Notes which are directed by figures of Arithmetick, as 1. 2. 3. 4. &c. thoroughout the Euangelists and Acts, declare the effect or summe of the doctrine contained betwene one of the sayd figures, & the next that followeth: as for example, from the figure 1. in the first line and first word of Matthew vnto the figure 2. in the 18. verse of the same Chapter, the doctrine there gathered is set downe in the margent in this sort: 1 Iesus came of Abraham of the tribe of Iuda, and of the stocke of David as God promised. And in the Epistles in like sort they declare the methode and arte which the Apostles vse, and how euery argument or reason dependeth one vpon another: these figures are begunne againe at the beginning of euery Chapter.

Lastly, the Notes which go by order of the letters of the Alphabet placed in the text, with the like answering vnto them in the margent, serue to expound and lighten the darke wordes and phrases immediatly following them. As in the first line and second word, the letter, a, being referred vnto a, directly against him in the margent, sheweth that this word, Booke, signifieth A rehearsall as the Hebrewes use to speake: as Genes. 5. 1. The booke of the generations. These letters beginne at the beginning of euery Chapter, continuing vnto z. and so beginning againe with a.

If there be so many Notes that they do exceed in number the letters of one Alphabet. This haue I faithfully done for thy commodity, reape thou the fruit, and giue the praise to God.

Farewell.

THE

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF IESVS CHRIST, ACCORDING TO S. MATTHEV.

CHAP. I.

1 That Iesus is that Messias, The Saviour promised to the Fathers, 18 The birth of Christ.

18 In a booke of the generation of Iesus Christ the sonne of Dauid, the sonne of Abraham.

2 Abraham begate Isaac, and Isaac begate Jacob, and Jacob begate Iudas and his brethren.

3 And Iudas begate Phares, and Zara of Thamar. And Phares begate Esrom. And Esrom begate Aram.

4 And Aram begate Aminadab. And Aminadab begate Naasson. And Naasson begate Salmon. And Salmon begate Booz of Rachab. And Booz begate Obed of Ruth. And Obed begate Iesse.

5 And Iesse begate Dauid the King. And Dauid the King begate Solomon of her that was his wife of Vrias.

7 And Solomon begate Roboam. And Roboam begate Abia. And Abia begate Asa. 8 And Asa begate Iosaphat. And Iosaphat begate Ioram. And Ioram begate Hozias.

9 And Hozias begate Ioatham. And Ioatham begate Achaz. And Achaz begate Ezeckias.

10 And Ezeckias begate Manasses. And Manasses begate Amon. And Amon begate Iosias.

11 And Iosias begate Iakim. And Iakim begate Iechonias and his brethren about the time they were carried away into Babylon.

12 And after they were carried away into Babylon, Iechonias begate Salathiel. And Salathiel begate Zorobabel.

13 And Zorobabel begate Abiud. And Abiud begate Eliachim. And Eliachim begate Azor.

14 And Azor begate Sadoc. And Sadoc begate Achim. And Achim begate Eliud.

15 And Eliud begate Eleazar. And Eleazar begate Matthan. And Matthan begate Iacob.

16 And Iacob begate Ioseph the husband of Mary, of whom was borne Iesus, who is called Christ.

17 So are all the generations from Abraham to Dauid, are fourteen generations. And from Dauid until they were carried away into Babylon, fourteen generations: and after they were carried away into Babylon until Christ, fourteen generations.

18 Now the birth of Iesus Christ was thus. When as his mother Mary was betrothed to Ioseph, before they came together, there was found with childe of the holy Ghost.

19 Then Ioseph her husband being a iust man, and not willing to make her a publike example, was minded to put her away secretly.

20 But while he thought these things, behold, the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto him in a dreame, saying, Ioseph, the sonne of Dauid, feare not to take Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her, is of the holy Ghost.

21 And thee shall bring forth a sonne, and thou shalt call his name Iesus: for he shall be called Iesus of God himselfe, by the Angel. Luke 1.31.

19 I saw his people from their finnes. 22 And all this was done that it might be fulfilled, which is spoken of the Lord by the Prophet, saying,

23 Beholde, a virgine shall be with childe, and shall beare a sonne, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which is by interpretation, God with vs.

24 Then Ioseph, being raised from sleepe, did as the Angel of the Lord had inioyned him, and tooke his wife.

25 But he knew her not, till she had brought forth her first borne sonne, and hee called his name Iesus.

26 Understand also, that a thing shall not come to pass in times to come: as Iacob had no children till hee death day, 1 Sam. 6.19. And in the last Chapter of the Evangelist I beheld, I am with you, till the ende of the world.

CHAP. II.

The wise men, who are the first fruites of the Gentiles, worship Christ. 14 Ioseph fleeth into Egypt with Iesus and his mother. 16 Herod slayeth the children.

When Iesus then was borne at Bethlehem in Iuda, in the dayes of Herod the king, behold, there came Wise-men from the East to Hierusalem,

2 Saying, Where is the King of the Iewes that is borne? for we haue seene his starre in the East, and are come to worship him.

3 When king Herod heard this, he was troubled, and all Hierusalem with him.

4 And gathering together all the chiefe Priestes, and Scribes of the people, he asked of them, where Christ should be borne.

5 And they sayde vnto him, At Beth-leem in Iuda: for so it is written by the Prophet,

6 And thou Beth-leem in the land of Iuda, art not the least among the Princes of Iuda: For out of thee shall come the gouernour that shall feede my people Israel.

7 Then Herod prauely called the Wise-men, and diligently inquired of them the time of the starre that appeared,

8 And sent them to Beth-leem, saying, Goe, and search diligently for the babe: and when ye haue found him, bring me word againe, that I may come also, and worship him.

9 So when they had heard the king, they departed: and loe, the starre which they had seene in the East, went before them, till it came and stood ouer the place where the babe was.

10 And when they saw the starre, they reioiced with an exceeding great ioy.

11 And went into the house, and found the babe with Mary his mother, and fell downe, and worshipped him, and opened their treasures, and presented vnto him gifts, of gold, and frankincense, and myrrhe.

12 And after they were warned of God in a dreame, that they should not go againe to Herod, they returned into their country another way.

13 Though thou be a small town, yet shalt thou be very famous and renowned through the birth of the Messias, who shall be borne in thee. 14 That shall rule and gouerne the Kings are fully called fathers and shepherds of the people. 15 A kinde of humbly and lowly seruence. 16 The rich and costly presents, which they brought him. 17 God warned and tolde them of it, when as they asked it not.

Judges, who had the hearing and deciding of weighty affairs, and matters of life and death, the highest judges of almes, as to the number of 71, which had the hearing of most weighty affairs, as the master of a whole state, or of an high Priest, or a false prophet.*

4 As there was made here, it is in the text in 33. Judges, which is an Alderman word, made of two, and is as much to say, as the quality of a Minister, which otherwise the Judges called Judges, as to the place where the officers were used most cruelly to the officers, their children to fill gods, whereupon it was taken for a place appointed to command the reputation in 7. 2. 31.

5 The Lawes of 33. four kinds of punishments, before their government was taken away by Herod, Augustus, Claudius, Nero, and burning, and burning is thus it is that Christ that as, because burning was the greatest punishment, therefore in that he maketh mention of a judgement, a council, and a fire, he sheweth that some sinners are worse then other sinners, but yet they are all such that we must give account for them, and shall be punished for them. The courteous Pharisee taught that God was appeased by the sacrifices appointed in the Law, which they themselves denounced. But Christ on the contrary saith denieth that God accepteth any mans offering, unless he maketh satisfaction to his brother whose he hath offended: and sayeth moreover, that these flatterers and flisse seeked despisers of their brethren, shall never escape the wrath and curse of God, before they have made full satisfaction to their brethren.

6 He applyeth all this speech, to the state of his time, when as there was an altar standing in Hierusalem: and therefore they as a very foolish, that gather herupen, that we must build altars, and use sacrifices: but they are more foolish, which drive that to pervertise, which is spoken of great making and amendment one with another. As Luke 11. 51. F. (What is all cause of crime, 9. Thou shalt be dealt withall to the utmost extremity. 7. He is taken for an adulterer before God, whatsoever he be, that couseth a woman: and therefore we must keepe our eyes chaste, and all the members we have, yea, and we must beware all occasions which might moove vs to euill, howe deere lesser it cost vs.

7 As Rom. 10. 14. Rom. 13. 9. Chap. 23. 35. mathe 23. 9. He nameth the right eye and the right hand, (because the parties of the right side of our bodies are the chiefest, and nextly be committed unto wickedness). F. (What is all cause of crime, 9. Thou shalt be dealt withall to the utmost extremity. 7. He is taken for an adulterer before God, whatsoever he be, that couseth a woman: and therefore we must keepe our eyes chaste, and all the members we have, yea, and we must beware all occasions which might moove vs to euill, howe deere lesser it cost vs.

8 The meaning of the third commandment against the forward opinion of judgement of the Seribes, which excludeth by outs or indirect formes of swearing.

9 As Luke 11. 51. F. (What is all cause of crime, 9. Thou shalt be dealt withall to the utmost extremity. 7. He is taken for an adulterer before God, whatsoever he be, that couseth a woman: and therefore we must keepe our eyes chaste, and all the members we have, yea, and we must beware all occasions which might moove vs to euill, howe deere lesser it cost vs.

10 But if say vnto you, whoeuer is angry with his brother vniuallly, shall be culpable of judgement. And whoeuer sayeth vnto his brother, Raca, shall be worthy to be punished by the Council. And whoeuer shall say, Foole, shall be worthy to be punished with = hell = fire.

11 If then thou bring thy gift to the altar, & there rememberst that thy brother hath ought against thee,

12 Leave there thine offering before the altar, and goe thy way: first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

13 Agree with thine aduersarie quickly, whilst thou art in the way with him, lest thine aduersarie deliuer thee to the Iudge, and the Iudge deliuer thee to the sergeant, and thou be cast into prison.

14 Verely I say vnto thee, thou shalt not come out thence, till thou hast payed the vtmost farthing.

15 Ye haue heard that it was sayd to them of olde time, Thou shalt not commit adulterie.

16 But I say vnto you, that whoeuer looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adulterie with her already in his heart.

17 Wherefore if thy right eye cause thee to offend, plucke it out, & cast it from thee: for better it is for thee, that one of thy members perish, then that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

18 Also if thy right hand make thee to offend, cut it off, & cast it from thee: for better it is for thee, that one of thy members perish, then that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

19 It hath beene sayd also, Whoeuer shall put away his wife, let him giue her a bill of diuorceement.

20 But I say vnto you, whoeuer shall put away his wife (except he be for fornication) causeth her to commit adulterie: & whoeuer shall marry her that is diuorced, committeth adulterie.

21 Again, ye haue heard that it was sayd to them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thy selfe, but shalt perforce thine othes to the Lord.

22 But I say vnto you, Swear not at all, neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God:

23 Nor yet by the earth, for it is his footstool: neither by Hierusalem: for it is the citie of the great King.

24 Neither shalt thou sweare by thine head, because thou canst not make one haire white or blacke.

25 But let your communication be: Yea, yea; Nay, nay. For whoeuer is more then these, commeth of euill.

26 Ye haue heard that it hath beene sayd, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.

27 But I say vnto you, Resist not euill: but whoeuer shall smite thee on the right cheeke, turne to him the other also.

28 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him haue thy cloke also.

29 And whoeuer will compell thee to goe a mile, go with him twaine.

30 Giue to him that asketh, and from him that would borrow of thee, turne not away.

31 Ye haue heard that it hath bin sayd, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy.

32 But I say vnto you, Love your enemies: bleste them that curse you: doe good to them that hate you, & pray for them which hurt you, and persecute you,

33 That yee may be the children of your father that is in heauen: for hee maketh his sunne to arise on the euill, and the good, and sendeth raine on the iust and vniust.

34 For if ye loue them, which loue you, what reward shall you haue? Doe not the Publicanes thus: for they doe so.

35 And if ye be friendly to your brethren only, what singular thing doe ye? doe not euen the Publicanes likewise?

36 Ye shall therefore be perfect, as your Father which is in heauen, is perfect.

37 The children of God must be better, then the children of this world. As Luke 6. 35. They that were the iust magistres, and had the charge of 11 cities and castles: a bande of men that the ferner had to death, but because they feared the Romans in their offices, (whilst you full bondage they could hardly away withall) and also because they were magistres, as for the most part you are not so.

CHAP. VI.

1 Almes. 2. Prayer. 3. Forgiving our brother. 4. Fasting. 5. Our brother. 6. We must succour the poore. 7. A God and riches. 8. Carefull seeking for meate and drinke, and apparel, forbidden. 9. The kingdom of God and his righteousness.

Take heed that ye giue not your almes before men, to be seene of them, or els yee shall have no reward of your Father which is in heauen.

2 Therefore when thou giuest thine almes, thou shalt not make a trumpet to be blown before thee, as the hypocrites do in the Synagogues and in the streets, to be praised of men. Verely I say vnto you, they haue their reward,

3 But when thou doest thine almes, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth,

4 That thine almes may be in secret, and thy Father that seeth in secret, hee will reward thee openly.

5 And when thou prayest, be not as the hypocrites: for they loue to stand, and pray in the Synagogues, and in the corners of the streets, because they would be seene of men. Verely I say vnto you, they haue their reward.

6 But when thou prayest, enter into thy chamber: and when thou hast shut thy doore, pray vnto thy Father which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

7 Also when ye pray, vse no vaine repetitions as the Heathen: for they thinke to be heard for their much babbling.

8 Be yee not like them therefore: for your Father

As Luke 11. 51. F. (What is all cause of crime, 9. Thou shalt be dealt withall to the utmost extremity. 7. Father knoweth whereof ye haue neede, before ye aske of him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye, & Our father which art in heauen, hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done euen in earth, as it is in heauen.

11 Giue vs this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive vs our dettes, as we also forgive our detters.

13 And leade vs not into temptation, but deliuer vs from euill: for thine is the Kingdome, and the power, and the glory for euer. Amen.

14 For if ye doe forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

15 But if ye doe not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your father forgive your trespasses.

16 Moreover, when ye fast, looke not fowre as the hypocrites: for they f disguise their faces, that they might seeme vnto men to fast. Verily I say vnto you that they haue their reward.

17 But when thou fastest, annoynt thine head, and wash thy face,

18 That thou seeme not vnto men to fast, but vnto thy Father which is in secreete: and thy Father which seeth in secreete, will reward thee openly.

19 Lay not vp treasures for your selues vp on the earth, where the moche and canker corrupt, and where thecues digge through and steale.

20 But lay vp treasures for your selues in heauen, where neither the moche nor canker corrupteth, and where thecues neither digge through nor steale.

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The light of the body is the eye: if then thine eie be single, thy whole body shall be light.

23 But if thine eie be wicked, then all thy body shall be darke. Wherefore if the light that is in thee, bee darknesse, how great is that darknesse!

24 No man can serue two masters: for either he shall hate the one, and loue the other, or els he shall leaue to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serue God and riches.

25 Therefore I say vnto you, bee not careful for your life, what ye shall eate, or what ye shall drinke: nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more worth than meate? and the body then raiment?

26 Behold the fowles of the heauen: for they sowe not, neither reape, nor carie into the barnes: yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking care is able to add one cubite vnto his stature?

28 And why care ye for raiment? Learne how the lilies of the field doe growe: they are not weened, neither spinne:

29 Yet I say vnto you, that euen Solomon in all his glory, was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore if God do clothe the grasse of the field which is to day, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not doe much more vnto you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eate? or what shall we drinke? or wherewith shall we be clothed?

32 For all these things shall be added vnto you, if ye shall but seek first the kingdom of God, and his righteousnesse, and all these things shall be added vnto you.

with shall we be clothed?

33 (For after all these things seeke the Gentiles) for your heavenly Father knoweth, that ye haue neede of all these things.

34 But seeke ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousnesse, and all these things shall be ministred vnto you.

35 Care not then for the morrow: for the morrow shall care for it: suffice it day hath ynough with his owne griefe.

CHAP. VII.

1 We may not giue iudgement of our neighbours. 2 Nor cast thou which is holy vnto dogs. 3 The bread and strait way. 4 The house build on a rocke. 5 And on the sande.

Iudge not, that ye be not iudged.

2 For with what iudgement ye iudge, ye shall be iudged, and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured vnto you againe.

3 And why seest thou the mote, that is in thy brothers eye, and perceiuest not the beame that is in thine owne eye?

4 Or how sayest thou to thy brother, Suffer me to cast out the mote out of thine eye, and behold, a beame is in thine owne eye?

5 Hypocrite, first cast out that beame out of thine owne eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brothers eye.

6 Giue ye not that which is holy to dogges, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they treade them vnder their feete, and turning againe, all to rent you.

7 Alaske, and it shall be giuen you: seeke, and ye shall finde: knocke, and it shall be opened vnto you.

8 For whosoeuer asketh, receiueith: and hee that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

9 For what man is there among you, which if his sonne aske him bread, would giue him a stone?

10 Or if he aske fish, will he giue him a serpent?

11 If ye then, which are euill, can giue to your children good gifts, how much more shall your Father which is in heauen, giue good things to them that aske him?

12 Therefore whosoever ye would that men should doe to you, euen so doe ye to them: for this is the Law and the Prophets.

13 Enter in at the strait gate: for it is the wide gate, and broad way that leadeth to destruction: and many there be which goe in therat.

14 Because the gate is strait, and the way narrow that leadeth vnto life, and fewe there be that finde it.

15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheeps clothing, but inwardly they are rauening wolues.

16 Ye shall know them by their fruites. Doe men gather grapes of thornes, or figs of thistles?

17 So euery good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and a corrupt tree bringeth forth euill fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth euill fruit: neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 Euery tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewen downe, and cast into the fire.

20 Therefore by their fruites ye shall knowe them.

21 Shall I tell you, how ye shall knowe them? By their fruites. For the figge tree is knowne by his fruit, and the figge tree by his fruit.

1 We ought to finde fault one with another, but we must be carefull we doe it not without cause, or to seeme holier then they, or in hatred of them.

21 ¶ 7 Not every one that saith vnto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdome of heauen, but he that doeth my Fathers will which is in heauen.

22 ¶ 8 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, haue we not by thy Name prophesied, and by thy name cast out deuils? and by thy name done many great works?

23 And then will I professe to them, I neuer knew you I depart from me, ye that worke iniquitie.

24 ¶ 9 Whofoeuer then heareth of mee these words, and doth the same, I will liken him to a wife man, which hath builded his house on a rock.

25 And the raine fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat vpon that house, and it fell not: for it was grounded on a rock.

26 But whofoeuer heareth these my wordes, and doth them not, shall be likened vnto a foolish man, which hath builded his house vpon the sande.

27 And the raine fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat vpon that house, and it fell, and the fall thereof was great.

28 ¶ 10 And it came to passe, when Iesus had ended these wordes, the people were astonished at his doctrine.

29 For he taught them as one hauing authority, and not as the Scribes.

C H A P. VIII.

1 The Leper cleansed, 2 The Centurions faith, 3 The calling of the Gentiles, 4 And of the twelve, 5 Peter's answer to Iesus, 6 A Scribe desires to follow Iesus, 7 The temple on the ierusalem, 8 Two possessed with deuiis cured, 9 The deuils cast out.

NOW when hee was come down from the mountaine, great multitudes followed him.

2 ¶ 1 And loe, there came a Leper and worshipped him, saying, Master, if thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

3 And Iesus putting forth his hande, touched him, saying, I will be thou cleane: and immediately his leprosie was cleansed.

4 Then Iesus saide vnto him, See thou tell no man, but goe, and shewe thy selfe vnto the Priest, and offer the gift that Moses commaunded, for a witness to them.

5 ¶ 2 When Iesus was entred into Capernaum, there came vnto him a Centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saide, Master, my seruant lieth sicke at home of the palsey, and is grievously pained.

7 And Iesus saide vnto him, I will come and heale him.

8 But the Centurion answered, saying, Master, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come vnder my roofe: but speake the word only, and my seruant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man also vnder the authoritie of another, and haue souldiers vnder me: and I say to one, Goe, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my seruant, Doe this, and hee doeth it.

10 When Ie'us heard that, hee marueiled, and saide to them that followed him, Verily I say vnto you, I haue not found so great faith, eu' in Israel.

11 But I say vnto you, that manie shall come from the East and West, and shall sit downe with Abraham and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdome of heauen.

12 And the children of the kingdome shall be cast out into utter darkness: there shall weepe and gnashing of teeth.

13 ¶ 3 Then Iesus saide vnto the Centurion, Go thy way, and as thou hast beleueed, so be it vnto thee: And his seruant was healed the same houre.

14 ¶ 4 And when Iesus came to Peters house, he saue his wiues mother laid downe, and sicke of a feuer.

15 And he touched her hand, and the feuer left her: so he arose, and ministered vnto them.

16 ¶ 5 When the Euen was come, they brought vnto him many that were possessed with deuils, and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sicke.

17 That it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by Esaias the Prophet, saying, He tooke out infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ 6 And when Iesus saue great multitudes of people about him, hee commaunded them to goe out of the ciuities.

19 ¶ 7 Then came there a certaine Scribe, and saide vnto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 But Iesus saide vnto him, The foxes haue holes, and the birdes of the heauen haue nestes, but the Sonne of man hath not whereon to rest his head.

21 ¶ 8 And another of his disciples saide vnto him, Master, suffer mee first to goe, and burie my father.

22 But Iesus saide vnto him, follow me, and let the dead burie the dead.

23 ¶ 9 And when hee was entred into the ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, so that the ship was couered with waues: but hee was asleepe.

25 Then his disciples came, and awoke him, saying, Master, saue vs: we perishe.

26 And he saide vnto them, Why are ye fearefull, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea: and so there was a great calme.

27 And the men marueiled, saying, What man is this, that both the winds and the sea obey him?

28 ¶ 7 And when hee was come to the other side into the countrey of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with deuils, which came out of the graues very fierce, so that no man might go by that way.

29 And beholde, they cried out, saying, Iesus the sonne of God, what haue we to doe with thee? Art thou come hither to torment vs before y time?

30 Now there was a farr off from them, a great heerd of swine feeding.

31 And the deuils besought him, saying, If thou cast vs out, suffer vs to go into the heerd of swine.

32 And he saide vnto them, Goe, So they went out and departed into the heerd of swine: and beholde, the whole heerd of swine ran headlong into the sea, and died in the water.

33 Then the herdmen fled: and when they were come into the citie, they tolde all things, and what was become of them that were possessed with the deuils.

34 And beholde, all the citie came out to meet Iesus: and when they saw him, they besought him to depart out of their coasts.

CHAP. IX.

1 Two first of the palsey healed. 2 Remission of sin. 3 The blind called. 4 Simon. 5 The ruler's daughter raised. 6 A woman healed of a bloody issue. 7 Two blinde men by touch receive sight. 8 A dumb man possessed in beelzebub. 9 The harvest and workmen.

¶ Then he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his owne cite.

2 And ¶ loc, they brought to him a man sicke of the palsey layed on a bed. And Iesus seeing their faith, sayd to the sicke of the palsey, Some, be of good comfort: thy sinnes are forgiven thee.

3 And beholde, certaine of the Scribes sayde with themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 But when Iesus saw their thoughts, hee sayd, Wherefore thinke ye euill things in your hearts?

5 For whether is it easier to say, Thy sinnes are forgiven thee, or to say, Arise, and walke?

6 And that yee may know that the Sonne of man hath authoritie in earth to forgive sinnes, (then sayd he vnto the sicke of the palsey,) Arise, take vp thy bed, and go to thine house.

7 And hee arose, and departed to his owne house.

8 So when the multitude saw it, they maruelled, and glorified God, which had giuen such authoritie vnto him.

9 ¶ And as Iesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man sitting at the custome, named Matthew, and sayd to him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 And it came to passe, as Iesus sate at meat in his house, beholde, many Publicanes and sinners, came thither, sate downe at the table with Iesus and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees law that they said to his disciples, Why eatech you master with Publicanes and sinners?

12 Now when Iesus heard it, he said vnto them, The whole need not the Physician, but they that are sicke.

13 But goe ye and learne what this is, for I will haue mercie, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but the sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ ¶ Then came the disciples of Iohn to him, saying, Why doe we and the Pharisees fast oft, and thy disciples fast not?

15 And Iesus sayde vnto them, Can the children of the marriage chamber moue as long as the bridegrome is with them? But the dayes will come, when the bridegrome shall bee taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 Moreover, no man piecth an olde garment with a peece of new cloth: for that that should fill it vp, taketh away from the garment, and the breach is worse.

17 Neither do they put new wine into olde vessels: for then the vessels would breake, and the wine would be spilt, and the vessels should perish: but they put new wine into new vessels, and so are both preserved.

18 ¶ ¶ While hee thus spake vnto them, beholde, there came a certaine ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is now deceased, but come and lay thine hand on her, and she shall liue.

19 And Iesus arose and followed him with his disciples.

20 (And beholde, a woman which was diseased with an issue of blood twelue yeeres, came behind him, and touched the hemme of his garment.

21 For she said in her selfe, If I may touch but his garment onely, I shalbe whole.

22 Then Iesus turned him about, and seeing her, did say, Daughter, bee of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole at the same moment.)

23 ¶ ¶ Nowe when Iesus came into the Rulers house, and sawe the minstrels and the multitude making noyse,

24 He saide vnto them, Get you hence: for the maid is not dead, but sleepech. And they laughed him to scorne.

25 And when the multitude were put forth, he went in and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And this brute went throughout all the land.

27 ¶ And as Iesus departed thence, two blinde men followed him, crying, and saying, O sonne of David, haue mercie vpon vs.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blinde came to him, and Iesus saide vnto them, Beleeue ye that I am able to doe this? And they saide vnto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it vnto you.

30 And their eyes were opened, and Iesus gaue them great charge, saying, See that no man knowit.

31 But when they were departed, they spread abroad his fame thorowout all that land.

32 ¶ ¶ And as they went out, beholde, they brought to him a dumme man possessed with a deuill.

33 And when the deuill was cast out, the dumme spake: then the multitude maruelled, saying, The like was neuer seene in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, ¶ He calseth out deuils, through the price of deuils.

35 ¶ ¶ And ¶ Iesus went about all cities and townes, teaching in their Synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the kingdome, and healing euery sicknesse and euery disease among the people.

36 ¶ But when he saw the multitude, hee had compassion vpon them, because they were dispersed, and scattered abroad, as sheepe hauing no shepheard.

37 Then said he to his disciples, ¶ Surely the harvest is great, but the labourers are few.

38 Wherefore pray the Lorde of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

and Lebbeus whose surname was Thaddæus:

4 Simon the Cananite, and Iudas the Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelue did Iesus send forth, and commanded them, saying, Goe into the way of the Gentiles, and into the cities of the Samaritans enter ye not:

6 But goe rather to the lost sheepe of the house of Israel.

7 And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdome of heaven is at hand.

8 Heale the sicke: cleanse the lepers: raise vp the dead: cast out the devils. Freely ye haue re-ceiued, freely giue.

9 Possessee not golde, nor siluer, nor money in your girdles,

10 Nor a scrip for the journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nora staffe: for the workman is worthy of his meat.

11 And into whatsoever city or towne ye shall come, enquire who is worthy in it, and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute the same.

13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come vpon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace returne to you.

14 And whosoever shall not receiue you, nor heare your wordes, when ye depart out of that house, or that city, shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Truly I say vnto you, it shall be easier for them of the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of iudgement, then for that city.

16 Beholde, I send you as sheepe in the middles of the wolues: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and innocent as doves.

17 Beware of men, for they will deliuer you vp to the Councils, and will scourge you in their Synagogues.

18 And ye shall be brought to the gouernours and kings for my sake, in witness to them, and to the Gentiles.

19 But when they deliuer you vp, take no thought how or what ye shall speake: for it shall be giuen you in that houre, what ye shall say.

20 For it is not ye that speake, but the spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

21 And the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the sonne, and the children shall rise against their parents, and shall cause them to die.

22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my Name: but he that endureth to the end, he shall be saved.

23 And when they persecute you in this citie, flee into another: for verely I say vnto you, ye shall not goe out all the cities of Israel, till the Sonne of man be come.

24 The discipule is not about his master, nor the seruant about his Lord.

25 It is enough for the discipule to be as his master is, and the seruant as his Lord. If they haue called the master of the house Beelzebub, howe much more them of his household?

16 I fear them not therefore: for there is nothing couered, that shall not be disclosed, nor hid, that shall not be knowne.

17 What I tell you in darkness, that speake ye in light, and what ye heare in the eare, that preach ye on the houes.

18 And feare ye not them which kill the bodie, but are not able to kill the soule: but rather feare him, which is able to destroy both soule and body in hell.

19 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing, and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father?

20 Yea, and all the haire of your head are numbered.

21 Feare ye not therefore, yee are of more va-lie then many sparrows.

22 Whosoever therefore shall confesse me before men, him will I confesse also before my Father which is in heauen.

23 But whosoever shall denie me before men, him will I also denie before my Father which is in heauen.

24 Think not that I am come to sende peace into the earth, but the sword,

25 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, &c.
the daughter in law against her mother in lawe.

26 And many enemies shall bee they of his owne household.

27 Hee that loueth father or mother more then me, is not worthy of mee. And he that loueth sonne, or daughter more then me, is not worthy of me.

28 And he that taketh not his croffe, and fol-loweth after me, is not worthy of me.

29 Hee that will finde his life, shall lose it:
and hee that loseth his life for my sake, shall finde
it.

30 Hee that receiueu you, receiueu me,
and he that receiueu mee, receiueu that sent me.

31 Hee that receiueu a Prophet in the name of a Prophet, shall receiue a Prophets reward:
and he that receiueu a righteous man, in the name of a righteous man, shall receiue the reward of a righteous man.

32 And whosoever shall giue vnto one of these y little ones to drinke a cuppe of colde water only, in the name of a discipule, verely I say vnto you, he shall not lose his reward.

17. And say, We haue piped vnto you, and yee haue not daunced, wee haue mourned vnto you, and yee haue not lamented.

18. For Iohn came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a deuil.

19. The foone of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Beholde a glutton and a drinker of wine, a friende vnto Publicanes and sinners: but wisdom is justified of her children.

20. ¶ Then began hee to vpraid the cities, wherein most of his great works were done, because they repented not.

21. Woe be to thee Chorazin: Woe be to thee Bethsaida: for if the great works, which were done in you, had bene done in Tyrus and Sidon, they had repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22. But I say to you, It shall be easier for Tyrus and Sidon at the day of iudgement, then for you.

23. And thou, Capernaum, which art lifted vp vnto heauen, shalt be brought downe to hell: for if the great works, which haue bene done in thee, had bene done among them of Sodom, they had remained to this day.

24. But I say vnto you, that it shall be easier for them of the land of Sodom in the day of iudgement, then for thee.

25. ¶ At that time Iesus answered, and sayde, I giue thee thanks, O Father, Lord of heauen and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and men of vnderstanding, and hast opened them vnto babes.

26. It is so, O Father, because thy good pleasure was such.

27. ¶ All things are giuen vnto me of my Father: & no man knoweth the Sonne, but the Father: neither knoweth any man the Father, but the Sonne, & he to whom the Sonne will reueile him.

28. Come vnto mee, all ye that are wearie and laden, and I will ease you.

29. Take my yoke on you, and learne of mee that I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall finde rest vnto your soules.

30. ¶ For my yoke is easie, & my burden light.

CHAP. XII.

1. The disciples plucke the eares of cornes. 2. Mercie, sacrifice. 3. The withered hand is healed. 4. We must doe good on the Sabbath. 5. The possessed is helpe. 6. A Kingdome is diuised. 7. Simon pleases Iesus. 8. The name of the Son of man. 9. The Kingdoms. 10. The name of Saba. 11. The master and brethren of Christ.

At that time Iesus went on a Sabbath day through the corne, and his disciples were hungred, and began to plucke the eares of corne and to eate.

2. And when the Pharisees sawe it, they sayde vnto him, Beholde, thy disciples doe that which is not lawfull to doe vpon the Sabbath.

3. But he sayd vnto them, ¶ Hauye ye not read what Dauid did when he was hungred, & they that were with him?

4. Howe he sayd vnto the house of God, and did eate the shewbread, which was not lawfull for him to eate, neither for them which were with him, but onely for the Priests?

5. Or haue ye not read in the Lawe, howe that on the Sabbath dayes the Priests in the Temple brake the Sabbath, and are blamed lesse?

6. But I say vnto you, that here is one greater then the Temple.

7. Wherefore if yee knewe what this is, I will haue mercie, and not sacrifice, ye would not haue condemned the innocents.

8. For the sonne of man is Lord, & more of the Sabbath.

9. ¶ And he departed thence, and went into their Synagogue:

10. And beholde, there was a man which had his hand dried vp. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawfull to heale vpon a Sabbath day? that they might accuse him.

11. And he said vnto the, What man shall there be among you, I haue a sheepe, & if it fall on a Sabbath day into a pit, doth not take it and lift it out?

12. Howe much more then is a man better then a sheepe? therefore, it is lawfull to doe well on a Sabbath day.

13. Then said he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth, and it was made whole as the other.

14. ¶ Then the Pharisees went out, & consulted against him, how they might destroy him.

15. But when Iesus knew it, he departed thence, & great multitudes folowed him, & he healed the al.

16. And charged them in threatening wise, that they should not make him known.

17. That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the Prophet, saying,

18. ¶ Beholde my seruant whom I haue chosen, my beloued in whom my soule delighteth: I will put my Spirit on him, and hee shall shew iudgement to the Gentiles.

19. Hee shall not strue, nor crie, neither shall any man heare his voyce in the streetes.

20. A bruised reede shall he not breake, & smoking flaxe shall he not quench, till he bring forth iudgement vnto victory.

21. And in his Name shall the Gentiles trust.

22. ¶ ¶ The was brought to him one possessed with a deuil, both blind & dum, & he healed him, so I he which was blind & dum, both spake & saw.

28 ¶ Hear ye therefore the parable of the fowls.

29 Whensoever any man heareth the word of this kingdom, and understandeth it not, that shall one cometh, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart: and this is hee which hath received the seed by the way side.

30 And hee that receiveth seede in the stonie ground, is he which heareth the word, and inconsequently which joy receiveth it.

31 Yet hath he no roote in himselfe, and therefore when a season is for some as tribulation or persecution cometh because of the worde, by and by he is offended.

32 And hee that receiveth the seede among thornes, is he that heareth the worde: but the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he is made unfruitfull.

33 But hee that receiveth the seed in the good ground, is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it, which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundred fold, some sixtie fold, and some thirtie fold.

34 ¶ Another parable put hee forth vnto them, saying, The kingdom of heauen is like vnto a man which sowed good seed in his field.

35 But while men slept, there came his enemy and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

36 And when the blade was sprung vp, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

37 Then came the seruants of the householder, and sayd vnto him, Master, fowdest thou not good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

38 And he sayde to them, Some envious man hath done this. Then the seruants sayd vnto him, Will thou that we go and gather them vp?

39 But he sayd, Nay, lest while ye go about to gather the tares, ye plucke vp also with them the wheat.

40 Let both grow together vntil I harvest, and in time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye first the tares, & bind them in sheaves to burne them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

41 ¶ Another parable he put forth vnto them, saying, The kingdom of heauen is like vnto a graine of mustard seed, which a man taketh and soweth in his field:

42 Which in deed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and it is a tree, so that the birds of heauen come and build in the branches thereof.

43 ¶ Another parable spake hee to them, The kingdom of heauen is like vnto leaven, which a woman taketh and hideth in three pecks of meale, till all be leavened.

44 ¶ All these things spake Iesus vnto the multitude in parables, and without parables spake hee not to them.

45 That it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by the Prophet, saying, * I will open my mouth in parables, and will utter the things which have bene kept secret from the foundation of the world.

46 Then sent Iesus the multitude away, and went into the house. And his disciples came vnto him, saying, Declare vnto vs the parable of the leaven of the field.

47 ¶ Then answered he, and sayd to them, He that soweth the good seede, is the Sonne of man,

38 And the field is the worlde, and the good seede are the children of the kingdom, and the tares are the children of that wicked one.

39 And the enemy that soweth them, is the deuill, and the harvest is the end of the world, and the reapers be the Angels.

40 As then the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so shall it be in the end of the world.

41 The Sonne of man shall send forth his Angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which doe iniquities.

42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

43 ¶ Then shall the iust men shine as the sunne in the kingdom of their Father. Hee that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heauen is like vnto a treasure hid in the field, which when a man hath found, he hideth it, and for ioy thereof departeth, and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth the field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heauen is like to a merchant man that seeketh good pearles, 46 Who hauing found a pearle of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heauen is like vnto a drawe net cast into the sea, that gathereth of all kinds of fishes.

48 Which, when it is full, men draw to land, and sit and gather the good into vessels, and cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world. The Angels shall goe forth, and seuer the bad from among the iust.

50 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be weeping, and gnashing of teeth.

51 ¶ Iesus sayd vnto them, Vnderstand ye all these things? They sayd vnto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then sayd he vnto them, Therefore euery scribe which is taught vnto the kingdom of heauen, is like vnto a householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things both new & olde.

53 ¶ And it came to passe, that when Iesus had ended these parables, he departed thence.

54 ¶ And came into his owne country, and taught them in their Synagogue, so that they were astonished, and sayde, Whence cometh this wisdom and great works vnto this man?

55 Is not this the carpenters son? Is not his mother called Marie, & his brethren James and Iosef, and Simon and Iudas?

56 And are not his sisters all with vs? Whence then hath he all these things?

57 And they were offended with him. Then Iesus said to the, * A prophet is not without honour, saue in his owne country, and in his owne house.

58 And he did not many great works there, for their vnbeliefe sake.

11 ♦ That which goeth into the mouth, defileth not the man, but that which cometh out of the mouth, that defileth the man.

12 ¶ Then came his disciples, and sayd vnto him, Perceiuest thou not, that the Pharisees are defiled in hearing thy saying?

13 But he answered and sayd, ¶ Every plant which mine heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted vp.

14 Let them alone, they be the blinde leaders of the blind: and if the blinde lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 ¶ Then answered Peter, and said to him, Declare vnto vs this parable.

16 Then sayd Iesus, Are ye yet without understanding?

17 Perceiue yee not yet, that whatsoever eneth into the mouth, goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But those things which procede out of the mouth, come from the heart, and they defile the man.

19 For out of the heart come euil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false testimonies, flanders.

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to cate with vnwashed hands, defileth not a man.

21 ¶ And Iesus went and departed into the coasts of Tyne and Silon.

22 And beholde, a woman a Cananite came out of the same coastes, & crying, sayd vnto him, Haue mercy on me, O Lord, the sonne of Dauid: my daughter is miserably vexed with a deuill.

23 ¶ But he answered her not a word. Then came to him his disciples, and besought him, saying, Send her away, for the crieth after vs.

24 But he answered, and said, I am not sent, but vnto the lost sheepe of the s house of Israel.

25 Yet she came, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, helpe me.

26 And he answered, & said, It is not good to take the childrens bread, and to cast it to whelpes.

27 But he said, Truth, Lord: yet in deed the whelpes eat of the cummes, which fall from their masters table.

28 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it to thee, as thou desirest. And her daughter was made whole at that houre.

29 ¶ So Iesus went away from thence, and came nere vnto the sea of Galilee, and went vp into a mountaine and sate downe there.

30 And great multitudes came vnto him, hauing with them, halt, blinde, dumme, & maimed, and many other, and callt them downe at Iesus feet, and he healed them.

31 In so much that the multitude wondered, to see the dumme speake, the maimed whole, the halt to goe, and the blinde to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 ¶ Then Iesus called his disciples vnto him, and said, I haue compassion on this multitude, because they haue continued with mee already three dayes, & haue nothing to eat: and I will not let them depart fasting, least they faint in the way.

33 And his disciples said vnto him, Whence should we get so much bread in the wilderness, as should suffice so great a multitude?

34 And Iesus said vnto them, How many loaves haue ye? And they said, Seuen, & a few little fishes,

35 Then hee commanded the multitude to sit downe on the ground,

36 And tooke the seuen loaves, and the fishes, and gaue thanks, and brake shem, and gaue to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all cate, and were sufficed: and they tooke vp of the fragments that remained, seuen baskets full.

38 And they that had eaten, were foure thousand men, beside women, and little children.

39 Then Iesus sent away the multitude, and tooke ship, and came into the parts of Magdala.

Then came the Pharisees and Sadducees, and did tempt him, desiring him to shew them a signe from heauen.

2 But he answered, & said vnto them, When it is euening, ye say, Faire weather, for y skie is red.

3 ¶ And in the morning, ye say, To day shall be a tempest: for the skie is red and lowring. O hypocrites, yee can discern the face of the skie, and can ye not discern the signes of the times?

4 ¶ The wicked generation, and adulterous seeketh a signe, but there shall no signe be giuen it, but the signe of the Prophet Jonas: for hee left them, and departed.

5 ¶ And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread with shem.

6 Then Iesus said vnto them, Take heede and beware of the leauen of the Pharisees & Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we haue brought no bread.

8 But Iesus knowing it, sayd vnto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye thus among your selves, because ye haue brought no bread?

9 Doe ye not yet perceiue, neither remember the foue loaves, when there were foue thousand men, and how many baskets tooke ye vp?

10 Neither the seuen loaves when there were foure thousand men, and how many baskets tooke ye vp?

11 Why perceiue ye not that I sayd not vnto you concerning bread, that yee should beware of the leauen of the Pharisees and Sadducees?

12 Then understood they that he had not said that they should beware of the leauen of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees, and Sadducees.

13 ¶ Nowe when Iesus came into the coastes of Cesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I, the sonne of man am?

14 And they said, Some say, Iohn Baptist: and some, Elias: and others, Ieremias, or one of the Prophets.

15 He said vnto them, But whom say ye I am?

16 Then Simon Peter answered, and said, Thou art that Christ, the sonne of the liuing God.

17 ¶ And Iesus answered, and sayd to him,

¶ Word for word, to be done but word, as waters doe when in running they drawe their owne to shew.

^{1 The greatness in the kingdom of God. 2 To receive a little child. 3 To giue offence. 4 Offences. 5 The putting out of the eye. 6 The Angels. 7 The last sheepe. 8 The selling of our owne soules. 9 Excommunication. 10 We must all wayes pardon the brother that repenteth. 11 The parable of the King that taketh an account of his seruants.}

THE [¶] same time the disciples came vnto Iesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heauen?

1 And Iesus called a little child vnto him, and set him in the mids of them,

2 And sayd, Verely I say vnto you, except ye be [¶] conuered, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdome of heauen.

3 Whosoever therefore shall humble himselfe as this little child, the same is the greatest in the kingdome of heauen.

4 And whosoever shall receiue one such little child in my Name, receiue me.

5 ¶ But whosoever shall offend one of these little ones which beleue in mee, it were better for him, that a millstone were hanged about his necke, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

6 ¶ Woe be vnto the world because of offences: for it must needs bee that offences shall come, but woe be to that man by whom the offence cometh.

7 ¶ Wherefore, if thy hand or thy foote cause thee to offend, cut them off, and call them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life, halt, or maimed, then hauing two hands, or two feet, to be cast into euellasting fire.

8 And if thine eye cause thee to offend, plucke it out and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, then hauing two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

9 ¶ See that ye despise not one of these little ones: for I say vnto you, that in heauen their Angels alwayes beholde the face of my Father which is in heauen.

10 For the Sonne of man is come to saue that which was lost.

11 How thinke ye? ¶ If a man haue an hundred sheepe, & one of them be gone astray, doth hee not leaue ninetie and nine, and goe into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

12 And if so be that hee finde it, verely I say vnto you, heretoyceeth more of that sheepe, then of the ninetie and nine which went not astray:

13 So is it not the wil of your Father which is in heauen, that one of these little ones should perishe.

14 ¶ Moreover, if thy brother trespass against thee, goe, and tell him his fault betwene thee and him alone: if hee heare thee, thou hast wonne thy brother.

15 But if he heare thee not, take yet with thee one or two, that by the mouth of two or three witnesses, euery word may be confirmed.

16 And if hee refuse to heare them, tell it vnto the Church: and if he refuse to heare the Church also, let him be vnto thee as an heathen man, and a Publicane.

17 Verely I say vnto you, Whatsoeuer ye binde on earth, shall bee bound in heauen: and whatsoeuer ye loose on earth, shall be loosed in heauen.

18 Again, verely I say vnto you, that if two of you shall agree in earth vpon any thing, whatsoever they shall desire, it shall be giuen them of my Father which is in heauen.

19 For where two or three are gathered together in my Name, there am I in the mids of them.

20 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Master, how oft shall my brother sinne against me, and I shall forgive him? ¶ vnto seven times?

21 Iesus said vnto him, I say not to thee, vnto seven times, but, vnto seuentie times seuen times. 22 Therefore is the kingdome of heauen likened vnto a certaine king, which would take an account of his seruants.

23 And when hee had begun to reckon, one was brought vnto him, which ought him tenne thousand talents.

24 And because hee had nothing to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and his children, and all that he had, and she deb to be payed.

25 The seruant therefore fell downe, & worshipped him, saying, Lord, refrain thine anger toward me, and I will pay thee all.

26 ¶ Then that seruants lord had compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

27 But when the seruant was departed, hee found one of his fellow seruants which ought him an hundred pence, and he laid hands on him, and thrated him, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

28 ¶ Then his fellow seruant fell downe at his feete, and besought him, saying, Refrain thine anger towards me, and I will pay thee all.

29 ¶ Yet he would not, but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

30 And when his other fellowe seruants sawe what was done, they were very sorry, and came, and declared vnto their lord all that was done.

31 ¶ Then his lord called him vnto him, and said to him, O euill seruant, I forgive thee all that debt, because thou prayest me.

32 Oughtest not thou also to haue had pittie on thy fellow seruant, euen as I had pittie on thee?

33 So his lord was wroth, and deliuered him to the tormentours, till he should pay all that was due to him.

34 So likewise shall mine heavenly Father doe to you, if ye doe not to euery one of these brethren, although they haue beene diuersly and grievously iniured by them. ¶ Luke 17. 4. ¶ Here is set downe a very great summe of shrethours hundred thousand crowns, and a small summe of ten crowns, that the difference may be the greater, for there is no proportion betwene them. ¶ This was a ciuill reuerence which was due betwene the East. ¶ To be so much to shew anger against men: so is God called in the Scriptures, slow to anger, that is to say, gentle, and one that refraineth the burning of his wrath, Titus 3. 6. patient and of great mercy.

19 And seeing a figge tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaues onely, and sayd to it, Neuer fruit grow on thee henceforward. And anon the figge tree withered.

20 And when his disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soone is the fig tree withered!

21 And Iesus answered and sayd vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, if ye haue faith, & I doubt not, ye shall not onely do that, which I haue done, to the figge tree, but also if ye say vnto this mountaine, Take thy selfe away, and cast thy selfe into the sea, it shall be done.

22 And whatsoever ye shall aske in prayer, if ye beleue, ye shall receiue it.

23 ¶ And when hee was come into the Temple, the chiefe Priests, and the Elders of the people came vnto him, as hee was teaching, and said, By what authoritie doest thou these things? and who gaue thee this authority?

24 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, I also will aske of you a certaine thing, which if ye tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authoritie I do these things.

25 The baptisme of Iohn, whence was it? from heauen, or of men? Then they reasoned among themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will say vnto vs, Why did ye not then beleue him?

26 And if we say, Of men, we feare the multitude, for all hold Iohn as a Prophet.

27 Then they answered Iesus, and said, We can not tell. And he sayd vnto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 ¶ But what thinke yee? A certaine man had two sonnes, and came to the elder, and sayd, Sonne, come and worke to day in my vineyard.

29 But he answered, and said, I will not: yet afterward he repented himselfe, and went.

30 Then came he to the second, and said likewise, And he answered, and said, I will, Sir: yet he went not.

31 Whether of them twaine did the wil of the father? They sayd vnto him, The first. Iesus sayd vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, that the Publicanes and the harlots go before you into the kingdom of God.

32 For Iohn came vnto you in the way of righteousness, and ye beleueed him not: but the Publicanes and the harlots beleueed him, and ye, though ye saw it, were not moueued with repentance afterward, that ye might beleue him.

33 ¶ Heare another parable. There was a certaine householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, & made a winepresse therein, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a strange country.

34 And when the time of the fruit drew neere, he sent his seruants to the husbandmen to receiue the fruits thereof.

35 And the husbandmen tooke his seruants & beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again he sent other seruants, more then the first: and they did like vnto them.

37 But last of all he sent vnto them his owne sonne, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the sonne, they sayd among themselves, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, and vs take his inheritance.

¶ And the place being full of men, the strongest place of a wall.

¶ Word for word, vs to hold it fast.

39 So they tooke him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and flew him.

40 When therefore the Lord of the vineyard shall come, what will he do to those husbandmen?

41 They sayd vnto him, He will cruelly destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard vnto other husbandmen, which shall deliuer him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Iesus sayd vnto them, Read ye neuer in the Scriptures, The stone which the builders refused, the same is made the head of the corner? This was the Lords doing, and it is maruelous in our eyes.

43 Therefore I say vnto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and shall be giuen to a nation, which shall bring forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whoeuer shall fall on this stone, he shall be broken: but on whomoeuer it shall fall, it will dash him in pieces.

45 And when the chiefe Priests and Pharises had heard his parables, they perceiued that he spake of them.

46 And they seeking to lay hands on him, feared the people, because they tooke him as a Prophet.

¶ A chaffe vs to be scattered with the wind, so to say a word which signifieth properly, so to say the corn with winnowing, and to scatter it abroad. The wicked can do nothing, but what God will.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The parable of the marriage. 2 The calling of the Gentiles. 3 The wedding garment. 4 Of the servants. 5 They question with Christ touching the resurrection. 6 Of the living. 7 The greatest commandment. 8 To love God. 9 To love our neighbour. 10 They request with the Pharises touching the Messias.

¶ Iesus answered, and spake vnto them in allegories, saying,

1 The kingdom of heauen is like vnto a certaine King which married his sonne,

2 And sent forth his seruants, to call them that were bidden to the wedding, but they would not come.

3 Again he sent forth other seruants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I haue prepared my dinner: mine oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come vnto the marriage.

4 But they made light of it, and went their wayes, one to his farme, and another about his merchandise.

5 And the remnant tooke his seruants, and intreated them harshly, and slew them.

6 But when the king heard it, he was wroth, and sent forth his warriers, and destroyed those murderers, and hurnt vp their cite.

7 Then sayd he to his seruants, Truly the wedding is prepared: but they which were bidden, were not worthy.

8 Go ye therefore out into the hie wayes, and as many as ye find, bid them to the marriage.

9 So those seruants went out into the hie wayes, and gathered together all that euer they found, both good and bad: so the wedding was furnished with guests.

10 ¶ Then the king came in, to see the guests, and he said to his seruants, when we thinke nothing of it. The general calling of the Gent. It to all men: but their life is examined. In the small number which come at the calling, there are some called in which do not confirme their faith with newueltie of life.

11 But he that is greatest among you, let him be your servant.

12 ¶ For whoeuer i will exalt himselfe, shall be brought lowe: and whoeuer will humble himselfe, shall be exalted.

13 ¶ Woe therefore be vnto you, Scribes and Pharises, m hypocrites, because ye flut vp the kingdome of heauen before men: for yee your selues goue not in, neither suffer yee them that would n enter, to come in.

14 ¶ Woe be vnto you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye deuoure widows houses, euen vnder a colour of long prayers: wherefore yee shall receiue the greater damnation.

15 Woe be vnto you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye compasse sea and l land to make one of your profession: and when he is made, ye make him two fold more the childe of hell, then you your selues.

16 Woe be vnto you blinde guides, which say, Whoeuer sweareth by the Temple, it is nothing: but whoeuer sweareth by the golde of the Temple, he is offendeth.

17 Ye fooles and blinde, whether is greater, the golde, or the Temple that sanctifieth the golde?

18 And whoeuer sweareth by the altar, it is nothing: but whoeuer sweareth by the offering that is vpon it, offendeth.

19 Ye fooles and blinde, whether is greater, the offering, or the altar which sanctifieth the offering?

20 Whoeuer therefore sweareth by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 ¶ And whoeuer sweareth by the Temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 ¶ And hee that sweareth by heauen, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 ¶ Woe be to you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye tie mynt, & annye, and cummyn, & leaue the weightier matters of the law, as iudgement, and mercy and fidelitie. These ought ye to haue done, and not to haue left the other.

24 Ye blinde guides, which straine out a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 ¶ Woe be to you, Scribes & Pharises, hypocrites: for yee make cleane the vter side of the cuppe, and of the platter: but within they are full of briberie and excefie.

26 Thou blinde Pharisee, cleanse first the inside of the cuppe and platter, that the outside of them may be cleane also.

27 Woe be to you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye are like vnto whitened tombes, which appeare beautiful outward, but are within full of dead mens bones, and all filthinesse.

28 So are yee also: for outward yee appeare righteous vnto men, but within ye are full of hypocrite and iniquite.

29 ¶ Woe be vnto you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye build the tombes of the Prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous.

30 And say, If we had bene in the dayes of our fathers, wee would not haue bene partners with them in the blood of the Prophets.

31 So then yee be witness vnto your selues, that yee are the children of them that murdered the Prophets.

32 ¶ Fulfill ye also the measure of your fathers.

33 O serpents, the generation of vipers, howe should ye escape the damnation of hell!

34 ¶ Wherefore behold, I send vnto you Prophets, and wisdomen, and Scribes, and of them yee shall kill and crucifie: and of them shall ye couge in your Synagogues, and persecute vnto citie to citie.

35 ¶ That vpon you may come all the righteous blood that was shed vpon the earth, & from the blood of Abel the righteous, vnto the blood of Zacharias the sonne of y Barachias, & whom ye slew between the Temple and the altar.

36 Verily I say vnto you, all these things shall come vpon this generation.

37 ¶ Hierusalem, Hierusalem, which killest the Prophets, and stonest them which are sent to thee, how often would I haue gathered thy children together, as the henne gathereth her chickens vnder her wings, and ye would not!

38 Beholde, your habitation shall be left vnto you desolate.

39 For I say vnto you, yee shall not see mee henceforth till that ye say, Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

3 The foolish tooke their lampes, but tooke no oyle with them.

4 But the wise tooke oyle in their vessels with their lampes.

5 Now while the bridegrome taried long, all slumbered and slepe.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegrome cometh: goe out to meete him.

7 Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lampes.

8 And the foolish sayd to the wise, Giue vs of your oyle, for our lampes are out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so, leaſt there will not be enough for vs and you: but goe ye rather to them that sel, and buy for your selues.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegrome came: and they that were ready, went in with him to the wedding, and the gate was shut.

11 Afterwards came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs.

12 But he answered, and sayd, Verily I say vnto you, I know you not.

13 ¶ Watch therefore: for ye know neither y day, nor y houre, when y sonne of man will come.

14 ¶ For the kingdom of heauen is as a man that going into a strange country, called his seruants, and deliuered to them his goods.

15 And vnto one he gaue five talents, & to another two, and to another one, to euery man after his own ability, & straightway went from home.

16 Then he that had receiued the five talents, went and occupied with them, and gained other five talents.

17 Likewise also he that receiued two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that receiued that one, went & digged it in the earth, and hid his masters money.

19 But after a long season, the master of those seruants came, and reckoned with them.

20 Then came hee that had receiued five talents, and brought other five talents, saying, Master, thou deliueredst vnto me five talents: behold, I haue gained with them other five talents.

21 Then his master sayd vnto him, It is well done good seruant, and faithfull, Thou hast bene faithfull in little, I will make thee ruler ouer much: enter into thy masters ioy.

22 Also he y that had receiued two talents, came, and said, Master thou deliueredst vnto me two talents: behold, I haue gained two other talents more.

23 His Master sayd vnto him, It is well done good seruant, and faithfull, Thou hast bene faithfull in little, I will make thee ruler ouer much: enter into thy masters ioy.

24 Then he that had receiued the one talent, came, and sayd, Master, I knewe that thou wast an hard man, which respect where thou sowedst not, and gatherest where thou strawdest not:

25 I was therefore afraid, & went, and hid thy talent in the earth: behold, thou hast thine owne.

26 And his master answered, and said vnto him, Thou oult seruant, and slothfull, thou knowest that I reape where I sowed not, and gather where I strawed not.

27 Thou oughtest therefore to haue put my money to y^e exchangers, & then at my coming should I haue receiued mine owne with vantage.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and giue it vnto him which hath ten talents.

29 ¶ For vnto euery man that hath, it shall be giuen, and he shall haue abundance, and from him that hath not, euē that he hath shall be taken away.

30 Cast therefore that vnprofitable seruant into vter darkness: there shall he be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ And when the Sonne of man cometh in his glory, and all the holy Angels with him, then shall he sit vpon the throne of his glory,

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations, and he shall separate them one from another as a shepheard separateth the sheepe from the goates.

33 And he shall set the sheepe on his right hand, and the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the king say to them on his right hand, Come ye blessed of my father: take the inheritance of the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

35 ¶ For I was an hungred, & ye gaue me meat: I thirsted, and ye gaue me drinke: I was a stranger, and ye tooke me in vnto you.

36 ¶ I was naked, & ye clothed me: I was sicke, and ye visited me, I was in prison, and ye came vnto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or athirst, and gaue thee drinke?

38 And when saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in vnto vs? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sicke, or in prison, and came vnto thee?

40 And the king shall answer and say vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, in as much as ye haue done it vnto one of the least of these my brether, ye haue done it to me.

41 Then shall he say to them on the left hand, Depart from me ye cursed, into euerslasing fire, which is prepared for the deuill and his angels.

42 For I was an hungred, and ye gaue me no meate: I thirsted, and ye gaue me no drinke:

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in vnto you: I was naked, and ye clothed me not: sicke, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sicke, or in prison, and did not minister vnto thee?

45 Then shall hee answer them, and say, Verily I say vnto you, in as much as ye did it not to one of the least of these ye did it not to me.

46 ¶ And these shall goe into euerslasing paine, and the righteous into life eternall.

And it came to passe, when Iesus had finished all these sayings, hee sayd vnto his disciples,

2 ¶ Ye know that after two dayes is the Pasche, and the Sonne of man shall be deliuered to be crucified.

3 ¶ Then assembled together the chiefe Priests, and the Scribes, and the Elders of the people into the hall of the high Priests called Caiaphas:

4 And consulted together that they might take Iesus by subtiltie, and kill him.

5 But they sayd, Not on the ^a feast day, lest any vproare be among the people.

6 ¶ And when Iesus was in Bethania, in the house of Simon the leper,

7 ^b There came vnto him a woman, which had a ^c boxe of very costly oyntment, and powred it on his head, as he sate at the table.

8 And when his ^ddisciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, 'What needeth this ^ewaste?

9 For this oyntment might haue bene folde for much, and bene giuen to the poore.

to 4 And Iesus knowing it, said vnto them, Why trouble yee the woman? for (hee hath wrought a good worke vpon me,

11 + For ye haue the poore alwayes with you, but me shall ye not haue alwayes.

13 For in that she powred this oymnt on my body, she did it to bury me.

13 Verely I say vnto you, Wherefoeuer this Gospel shall be preached thorowout all the world, there shall also this that he hath done, be spoken of for a memoriall of her.

14 ¶ Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went vnto the chiefe Priests.

15 And sayd, What will ye giue me, and I will deliuer him vnto you? and they appoynted vnto him thirtie pieces of filuers.

16 And from that time, he sought opportunitie to betray him.

17 ¶ Now on the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Iesus, saying vnto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eate the Pasche?

18 And he sayd, Goe ye into the citie to such a man, and say to him, The master saith, My time is at hand : I will keepe the Pascheouer at thine house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Iesushad giuen them charge and made ready the Passouer.

10 * So when the even was come, he ^b fate downe with the twelve.

21 And as they did eate, he sayd, * Verely, I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding forowfull, and began euery one of them to say vnto him, Is it I, Master?

23 And he answered and sayd, 4. Hee that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, hee shall betray me.

24 Surely the Sonne of man goeth his way, as it is written of him : but woe be to that man, by whom the Sonne of man is betrayed : it had been good for that man, if he had neuer bene borne.

25 Then Iudas which betrayed him, answered, and said, Is it I, master? I see sayde vnto him. Thou hast said it.

X26 ¶ 7. And as they did eate, Iefustooke the bread, and when he had ¹ blessed, hee brake it, and gaue it to the disciples, and said, Take, eate : ^m this is my body. And

27 Also he took the cup, and when he had gi-uen thanks, he gaue it to them, saying, Drinke ye all of it.

28 * For this is my blood of the newe Testament that is shed for many, for the remission of sinnet.

29 I say vnto you that I wil not drinke henceforth of this fruite of the vine vntill that day, when I shall drinke it new with you in my Fathers kingdome.

30 And when they had sung a Psalm, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31. ¶ Then said Iesus vnto them, Al ye shal be offended by me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheepe of the flocke shall be scattered.

32 But wafter I am risen againe, I will goe before you into Galile.

33 But Peter answered, and sayde vnto him,
Though that all men should be offended by thee,
yet will I neuer be offended.

34 * Iesus sayd vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, that this night, before the cocke crow, thou shalt denie me thrise.

35 Peter sayd vnto him, Though I should die with thee, I will in no case denie thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ * 9 Then went Iesus with them into a place which is called Gethsemane, & said vnto his disciples. Sit ye here, while I go, and pray vnder.

37 And he tooke vnto him Peter, and the two sonnes of Zebedeus, and began to waxe for-rowfull and grieuouſly troubled.

38 ¹⁰ Then said Iesus vnto them, My soule is very heauie, even vnto the death: tarie ye here, and watch with me.

39 So he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup passe from me: neuerthelesse, or as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 ¹¹ After, he came vnto the disciples, and found them asleepe, and sayd to Peter, What?
could'st thou not watch with me one houre?

17 When they were then gathered together, Pilate sayd vnto the, Whether wilt ye y I let loose vnto you Barabbas, or Iesus which is called Christ?

18 (For he knew well, that for enuie they had deliuered him.)

19 Also when hee was set downe vpon the iudgement seate, his wife sent to him, saying, Haue thou nothing to doe with that iust man for I haue suffered many things this day in adream by reason of him.)

20 But the chiefe Priestes and the Elders had perswaded the people that they shoulde aske Barabbas, and shoulde destroy Iesus.

21 Then the gouernour answered, and said vnto them, Whether of the twaine wilt ye that I let loose vnto you? And they said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate said vnto them, What shall I doe then with Iesus, which is called Christ? They all said to him, Let him be crucified.

23 Then sayd the gouernour, But what euill hath he done? Then they cryed the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pilate saw that he auailed nothing, but that more tumult was made, hee tooke water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this iust man: lokeyou to it.

25 Then answered all the people, & said, His blood be on vs, and on our children.

26 Thus let he Barabbas loose vnto them, and scourged Iesus, and deliuered him to be crucified.

27 ¶ Then the fouldiers of the gouernour tooke Iesus into the common hall, and gathered about him the whole band,

28 And they stripped him, and put about him a skarlet robe,

29 And platted a crowne of thornes, and put it vpon his head, and a reed in his right hande, and bowed their knees before him, and mocked him, saying, God saue thee King of the Iewes,

30 And spitte vpon him, and tooke a reede, and smote him on the head.

31 Thus when they had mocked him, they tooke the robe from him, and put his owne rayment on him, and led him away to cuttie him.

32 ¶ And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, named Simon: him they compelled to beare his crosse.

33 ¶ And when they came vnto y place called Golgotha (y is to say, the place of dead mens skulls)

34 They gaue him vineger to drinke, mingled with gall: and when hee had tasted thereof, he would not drinke.

35 ¶ And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, and did cast lots, that it might bee fulfilled, which was spoken by the Prophet,

¶ They deuided my garments among them, and vpon my velture did cast lots.

36 And they fate, and watched him there.

37 ¶ They set vp also ouer his head his cause written, THIS IS IESVS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

38 ¶ And there were two thieves crucified w him, one on the right hand, & another on the left.

39 And they that passed by, sculded him, wagging their heads,

40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the Temple, and buildest it in three dayes, saue thy selfe: if thou be y Sonne of God, come downe fro y crosse.

41 Likewise also the hie Priestes mocking him, with the Scribes, and Elders, and Pharisees, said, 42 He saued others, but hee cannot saue himselfe: if he be the King of Israel, let him now come downe from the crosse, & we will beleue in him.

43 ¶ Hee trusted in God, let him deliuer him now, if he will haue him: for hee sayde, I am the Sonne of God.

44 The selfe same thing also the theues which were crucified with him, cast in his teeth.

45 ¶ Now from the sixth houre was there darkness ouer all the land, vnto the ninth houre.

46 And about the ninth houre Iesus cried with a loud voyce, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? y is, My God, my God, why hast thou forsake me?

47 And some of them that stood there, when they heard it, sayd, This man calleth Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ran, & tooke a sponge, and filled it with vineger, and put it on a reede, and gaue him to drinke.

49 Other said, Let bee: let vs see, if Elias will come and saue him.

50 ¶ Then Iesus cryed againe with a loud voice, and yelded vp the ghost.

51 ¶ And behold, the 9 vaile of the temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottome, & the earth did quake and the stones were clouen.

52 And the 4 graues did open them selues, and many bodies of the Saints, which slept arofe, 53 And came out of y graues after his resurrection, and went into the holy ciitie, and appeared vnto many.

54 ¶ When the Centurion, and they that were with him watching Iesus saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this man was the Sonne of God.

which hath all the parts of true baptisme (amendment of life, and forgiuening of sinnes).

5 But the Angell answered, and said to the women, Feare ye not: for I know that ye seek Ie-sus which was crucified:

6 Hee is not here, for he is risen, as hee sayde:
come, see the place where the Lord was layd.

7 And go quickly, & tell his disciples that he is risen fro the dead: behold, he goeth before you into Galilee: there ye shall see him: loe I haue told you.

8 So they departed quickly from the sepulchre, with feare and great ioy, and did runne to bring his disciples word.

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Iesus also met them, saying, God saue you.
And they came, and tooke him by the feete, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Iesus vnto them, Be not afraide, Goe, and tell my brethren, that they goe into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶ Nowe when they were gone, beholde some of the watch came into the cite, & shewed vnto the hie Priests all the things that were done.

12 And they gathered them together with the Elders, and tooke counsell, and gaue large money
vnto the soldiers,

13 Saying, Say, his disciples came by night,
and stole him away while we slepe.

14 And if this matter come before the go-uernour to be heard, we will perswade him, and so visie the matter that you shall not neede to care.

15 So they tooke the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is noyed among the Iewes vnto this day.

16 ¶ Then the eleven disciples went into Galileinto a mountaine, where Iesus had appointed the.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

18 And Iesus came, & spake vnto them, saying, remission of sinnes.

5 And all countrey of Iudea, & they of Hieru-salem went out vnto him, and were all baptized of him in the riuer Iordan, confessing their finnes.

6 ¶ Now John was clothed with camels haire, and with a girdle of a skin about his loynes: and he did eate Locusts and wild honey.

7 ¶ And preached, saying, A stronger then I eyes vpon cometh after me whose shoes latchet I am not worthy to: shoue downe, and vnloose.

8 Truth it is, I haue baptized you with water: but he will baptize you with the holy Ghost.

9 ¶ ¶ And it came to passe in those dayes, that Iesus came from Nazareth, a citie of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Iordan.

10 ¶ And as soon as he was come out of the water, Iohn saw the heauens clouen in twaine, and the holy Ghost descending vpon him like a doue.

11 Then there was a voyce from heauen, saying, Thou art my beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

12 ¶ And immediately the Spirite I driueh him into the wilderness.

13 And hee was in the wilderness foure dayes, and was tempted of Satan: he was also with the wilde beastes, and the Angels ministred vnto him.

14 ¶ Now after that Iohn was committed to prison, Iesus came into Galilee, preaching the Gospel of the kingdom of God.

15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent and beleeue the Gospel.

16 ¶ And as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were fishers.)

17 Then Iesus said vnto them, Follow me, and I will make you to be fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forooke their nets, and followed him.

19 ¶ And when hee had gone a litle further thence, he saw James the sonne of Zebedee, and Iohn his brother, as they were in the ship, mending their nets.

20 And anon he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the shippe with his hired seruants, and went their way after him.

21 ¶ So as they entred into Capernaum, and straightway on the Sabbath day he entred into the Synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were astonied at his doctrine, for he taught them as one that had authoritie, and not as the Scribes.

23 ¶ And there was in their Synagogue a man, in whom was an vnclene spirite, and hee cried out,

24 Saying, Ah, what haue we to do with thee, O Iesus of Nazareth? Art thou come to destroy vs? I know thee what thou art, euen that thou art a holy one of God.

25 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And the vnclene spirite tare him, and cried with a loude voyce, and came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, so that they demanded of one another, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for he commandeth euen the foule spirits with authoritie, and they obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region bordering on Galilee.

29 ¶ And as soone as they were come out of the Synagogue, they entred into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and Iohn.

30 And Simons wifes mother lay sicke of a feuer, and anon they tolde him of her.

31 And he came and tooke her by the hand, and lifted her vp, and the feuer forsooke her by and by, and the ministred vnto them.

32 And when euen was come, at what time the house fetterh, they brought to him all that were diseased, & them that were possessed with deuils.

33 And the whole citie was gathered together at the doore.

34 And he healed many that were sicke of diuers diseases: and he cast out many deuils, & suffered not the deuils to say that they knew him.

35 And in the morning very early before day, Iesus arose and went out into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon, and they that were with him, followed carefully after him.

37 And when they had found him, they sayde vnto him, All men seeke for thee.

38 Then he said vnto them, Let vs go into the next towne, that I may preach there also: for I came out for that purpose.

39 And hee preached in their Synagogues, throughout all Galilee, and cast the deuils out.

40 ¶ And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, & kneeled downe vnto him, & said to him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

41 And Iesus had compassion, and put forth his hand, and touched him, and said to him, I will be thou cleane.

42 And as soone as hee had spoken, immediately the leprosie departed from him, and he was made cleane.

43 And after hee had giuen him a straight commandement, he sent him away forthwith,

44 ¶ And sayde vnto him, See thou say nothing to any man, but get thee hence, and shew thy selfe to the Priests, and offer for thy cleansing those things, which Moses commanded, for a testimoniall vnto them.

45 But when hee was departed, he began to tell many things, and to publish the matter: so that Iesus could no more openly enter into the citie, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from euery quarter.

CHAP. II.

3 and 4 One sicke of the Palsie, having his sinnes forgiven him, is heard. 10 Matthew is called. 19 Fastings and afflictions are forbidden. 23 The disciples plucke the eares of corne. 28 The shewbread.

After a few dayes, he entred into Capernaum againe, and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And anon, many gathered together, in so much that they places about the doore could not receive any more: & hee preached by word vnto the.

3 And there came vnto him, that brought one sicke of the palsie, borne of foure men.

4 And because they could not come neere vnto him for the multitude, they vncovered the rooffe of the house where he was: and when they had broken it open, they let downe the bed, wherein the sicke of the palsie lay.

5 Now when Iesus saw their faith, he sayde to the sicke of the palsie, Sonne, thy sinnes are forgiven thee.

6 And there were certaine of the Scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts.

7 Why doeth this man speake such blasphemies? who can forgive sinnes but God onely?

8 And immediately when Iesus perceiued in his spirit, that thus they reasoned with themselves, he sayd vnto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether it is easier to say to the sicke of the palsie, Thy sinnes are forgiven thee? or to say, Arise, take vp thy bed, and walke?

10 But that yee may know, that the Some of man hath authoritie in earth to forgive sinnes, he sayd vnto the sicke of the palsie,

11 I say vnto thee, Arise and take vp thy bed, and get thee hence into thine owne house.

12 And by and by he arose, and tooke vp his bed, and went out into his house.

30 ¶ Because they sayd, He had an vncleane spirit.

31 ¶ Then came his 4 brethren and mother, and stood without, and sent vnto him, and called him.

32 And the people fate about him, and they sayd vnto him, Behold, thy mother, and thy brethren seeke for thee without.

33 But he answered them, saying, Who is my mother and my brethren?

34 ¶ And he looked round about on them, which fate in compaigne about him, and sayd, Behold my mother and my brethren.

CHAP. IIII.

4 The parable of the sower, 14. And the meaning thereof, 18. Thereof, 21. The candle, 25. Whom that candle, 26. The key, 27. The grain of mustard seed, 28. Christ's kingdom in the ship.

And he began againe to teach by f a sea side, and there gathered vnto him a great multitude, so that he entred into a ship, and fate b in the sea, & all the people was by the sea side on f land. And he taught them many things in parables, and sayd vnto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken: Behold, there went out a sower to sow.

4 And it came to passe as he sowed, that some fell by the way side, and the foules of the heauen came, and deuoured it vp.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth, and by and by sprang vp, because it had not depth of earth.

6 But as soone as f Sunne was vp, it was burnt vp, and because it had not roote, it withered away.

7 And some fell among the thornes, and the thornes grew vp, and choked it, so that it gaue no fruit.

8 Some againe fell in good ground, and did yelde fruite that sprang vp, and grew, and it brought forth, some thirtie folde, some sixtie fold, and some an hundred fold.

9 Then he said vnto them, He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelue, asked him of the parable.

11 And he sayd vnto them, To you it is giuen to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but vnto them that are without, all things be done in parables,

12 ¶ That they seeing, may see, and not discern: and they hearing, may heare, and not vnderstand, least at any time they should turne, and their sinne should be forgiven them.

13 Againe he said vnto them, Perceiue ye not this parable? how then should ye vnderstand all other parables?

14 The sower sowed the word.

15 And these are they that receiue the seed by the way side, in whom the word is sowed

but when they haue heard it, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sowed in their hearts.

16 And likewise they that receiue the seed in stony ground, are they, which when they haue heard the word, straightwayes receiue it with gladnesse.

17 Yet haue they no roote in themselves, and endure but a time: for when trouble and persecution ariseth for the word, immediately they be offended.

18 Also they that receiue the seed among the thornes, are such as heare the word:

19 But the cares f of this world, and the deceitfulnesse of riches, and the lusts of other things enter in, and choke the word, and it is vnfruitfull.

20 But they that haue receiued seed in good ground, are they that heare the word, and receiue it, and bring forth fruit: one cometh thirtie, and other sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ Also he sayd vnto them, ¶ Commeth the candle in, to be put vnder a bushell, or vnder the bed, and not to be put in a candlestick?

22 ¶ For there is nothing hid, that shall not be opened: neither is there a secret, but that it shall come to light.

23 If any man haue eares to heare, let him heare.

24 ¶ And he said vnto them, Take heed what ye heare: ¶ With what measure ye mete, it shall be measured vnto you: and vnto you that heare, shall more be giuen.

25 ¶ For vnto him that hath, shall it be giuen, and from him that hath not, shall be taken away, euen that he hath.

26 ¶ Also he sayd, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed in the ground,

27 And s should sleepe, and rise vp night and day, and the seed should spring and grow vp, he not knowing how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit: of it selfe, first the blade, then the eares, after that full come in the eares.

29 And as soone as the fruit sheweth it selfe, anon he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ ¶ He sayd moreover, Wherunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a graine of mustard seed, which when it is sowed in the earth, is the least of all seeds that be in the earth:

32 But after that it is sowed, it groweth vp, and is greatest of all herbes, and beareth great branches, so that the foules of heauen may build vnder the shadow of it.

33 And ¶ with many such parables he preached the word vnto the, as they were able to heare it.

34 And without parables spake he nothing vnto them: but he expounded all things to his disciples apart.

35 ¶ ¶ Now the same day when euen was come, he sayd vnto them, Let vs passe our vnto the other side.

36 And they left the multitude, and tooke him as he was in the shippe, and there was also with him other little ships.

37 ¶ And there arose a great storme of wind, and the waues dashed into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the sterne asleepe on a pillow.

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, Who is this, that both the wind and sea obey him !

CHAP. V.

1 One possideth a heale, 7 The deuil acknowlegeth Christ.
2 A Legion of devils 13 curreth into swine. 25 Iairus daughter. 25 A woman is healed of a bloody issue. 30 Physicians. 34 Faith. 39 Sleep.

And 1 they came out to the other side of the sea into the country of the Gadarens.
2 And when he was come out of the ship, there met him incontinently out of the graues, a man b which had an vnclane spirit:

3 Who had his abiding among the graues, and no man could bind him, no not with chaines:

4 Because that when he was often bound with fetters and chaines, he plucked the chaines asunder, and brake the fetters in peeces, neither could any man tame him.

5 And alwayes both night and day he cryed in the mountains, and in the graues, and strooke himselfe with stones.

6 And when he saw Iesus asfarre off, he ranne, and worshipped him,

7 And cryed with a loud voyce, and sayd, What haue I to do with thee, Iesus the Sonne of the most High God ? I c will that thou sweare to me by God, that thou torment me not.

8 (For he sayd vnto him, Come out of the man, thou vnclane spirit.)

9 And he asked him, What is thy name ? and he answered, saying, My name is Legion : for we are many.

10 And he d prayed him instantly, that he would not fend them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there in the c mountaines a great heard of swine, feeding.

12 And all 7 devils befought him, saying, Send vs into the fyne, that we may enter into them.

13 And incontinently Iesus gaue them leaue. Then the vnclane spirits went out & entered into the swine, & the heard ranne headlong from the high bank into the sea, & there were about two thousand (swine) & they were choked vpin the sea.

14 And the fwincheards fled, & told it in the cite, and in the country, and they came out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they came to Iesus, and saw him that had bene possessed with the deuil, and had the legion, sit both clothed, and in his right mind : and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it, told them, what was done in him that was possessed with the deuil, and concerning the swine.

17 Then they began to pray him, that he would depart from their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had bene possessed with the deuil, praised him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit, Iesus would not suffer him, but said vnto him, Go thy way home to thy friends, and shew them what great things the Lord hath done vnto thee, and howe he hath had compassion on thee.

20 So hee departed, and began to publish in Decapolis, what great things Iesus had done vnto him : and all men did marueile.

21 ¶ And when Iesus was come ouer againe by ship vnto the other side, a great multitude gathered together to him, and he was nere vnto the sea.

22 ¶ And s behold, there came one of the rulers of the Synagogue, whose name was Iairus, and when he saw him, he fell downe at his feet,

23 And befought him instantly, saying, My little daughter lieth at point of death : I pray thee that thou wouldest come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed, and liue.

24 Then he went with him, and a great multitude followed him and thronged him.

25 ¶ And there was a certaine woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelue yeeres,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and it auailed her nothing, but she became much worse,

27 When the head heard of Iesus, he came in the presse behind, and touched his garment.

28 For the sayd, if I may but touch his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the course of her blood was dried vp, and she felt in her body, that she was healed of that plague.

30 And immediately when Iesus did know in himselfe the vertue that went out of him, he turned him round about in the presse, and sayd, Who hath touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said vnto him, Thou seekest the multitude throng thee, and sayest thou, Who did touch me?

32 And he looked round about, to see her that had done that.

33 And the woman feared and trembled : for she knew what was done in her, and she came and fell downe before him, and told him the whole truth.

34 And he sayd to her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole: go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.)

35 While he yet spake, there came from the same ruler of the Synagogue house certaine which sayd, Thy daughter is dead : why dost thou trouble the master any further?

36 ¶ As Iesus heard that word spoken, he sayd vnto the ruler of the Synagogue, Be not afraid : onely beleeue.

37 And he suffred no man to follow him save Peter and James, and Iohn the brother of Iames.

38 So he came vnto the house of the ruler of the Synagogue, and saw the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And he went in, and sayd vnto them, Why make ye this trouble, and weepe? the child is not dead, but sleepeeth.

40 ¶ And they laugh him to scorne : but he put them all out, and tooke the father, and the mother of the child, and them b that were with him, and entered in where the child lay,

41 And tooke the child by the hand, and sayd vnto her, Talitha cumi, which is by interpretation, Maiden, I say vnto thee, arise.

42 And straightway the maiden arose, and walked : for she was of the age of twelue yeeres, and they were astonished out of measure.

July 31. 1600. 6. 2.

38 ¶ Then hee gaide vnto them, Howe many loaves haue yee? goe and looke. And when they knew it, they said, Fiue, and two fishes.

39 So hee commanded them to make them all sit downe by companies vpon the greene grasse.

40 Then they sat downe by fiftes, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And hee tooke the fiue loaves, and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, and gaue thanks, and brake the loaves, and gaue them to his disciples to set before them, and the two fishes hee diuided among them all.

42 So they did all eate, and were satisfied.

43 And they tooke vp twelue baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that had eaten, were about fiue thousand men.

45 ¶ And straightway hee caused his disciples to goe into the ship, and to goe before vnto the other side vnto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 Then as soone as he had sent them away, hee departed into a mountaine to pray.

47 ¶ And when euen was come, the ship was in the mids of the sea, and hee alone on the land.

48 And hee saw them troubled in rowing, (for the winde was contrary vnto them) and about the fourth watch of the night, hee came vnto them, walking vpon the sea, and would haue passed by them.

49 And when they sawe him walking vpon the sea, they supposed it had bene a spirit, and cried out.

50 For they all saw him, and were fore afraid: but anon hee talked with them, & said vnto them, Be ye of good comfort: it is I, be not afraid.

51 Then hee went vp vnto them into the ship, and the winde ceased, and they were much more amazed in themselves, and marvelled.

52 For they had not considered the matter of the loaves, because their hearts were hardened.

53 ¶ And they came ouer, and went into the land of Gennesaret, and arrived.

54 So when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him.

55 And ran about throughout all that region round about, and began to cary higher and thither in couches all that were sicke, where they heard that hee was.

56 And whither soeuer hee entred into townes, or cities, or villages, they layd their sicke in the streetes, and prayed him that they might touch at the least the edge of his garment. And as many as touched him, were made whole.

1 The Apostles are found feasting with vnlawfull banquets. 2 The Pharisees traditions about washing. 3 Hypocrites. 4 Mens traditions more fit by then Gods. 5 Parents must be honoured. 6 The things that doe in deede defile a man. 7 The women of Cleopatra. 8 The deafe dumme man is healed.

8 Math. 15. 2.

¶ Then x gathered vnto him the Pharisees, and certaine of the Scribes which came from Hierusalem.

And that vpon a zeale of their owne traditions: for men doe not please themselves more in any thing then in superstition, that is to say, in a worship of God fondly denied of themselves.

2 And when they sawe some of his disciples eate meate with common hands, (that is to say, vnwashed) they complained.

3 (For the Pharisees, and all the Iewes, except they wash their hands oft, eate not, holding the traditions of the Elders.)

4 And when they came from the market, except they wash, they eate not: and many other things there be, which they haue taken vpon them to obferue, as the washing of cups, and pots, and of brazen vessels, and of beds.)

5 Then asked him the Pharisees and Scribes, Why walkst thou not thy disciples according to the tradition of the Elders, but eate meate with vnwashed hands?

6 Then hee answered and sayd vnto them, Surely ¶ Elay had prophesied well of you, hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth mee with lippes, but their heart is faire away from me.

7 But they worship mee in vaine, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For yee lay the commandment of God apart, and obferue the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and of cups, and many other such like things yee doe.

9 And he said vnto them, Well yee reiect the commandment of God, that yee may obferue your owne tradition.

10 For Moses said, ¶ Honour thy father and thy mother: and whoeuer shall speake euill of father or mother, let him die the death.

11 But yee say, If a man say to father or mother, Corban, that is, By the gift that is offered by me, thou mayest haue profite, hee shall be free.

12 So yee suffer him no more to doe any thing for his father or his mother.

13 Making the word of God of none authority, by your tradition which yee haue ordained: and yee doe many such like things.

14 ¶ Then hee called the whole multitude vnto him, and said vnto them, Hearken you all vnto me, and vnderstand.

15 There is nothing without a man, that can defile him, when it entrech into him: but the things which procede out of him, are they which defile the man.

16 If any haue eares to heare, let him heare.

17 And when hee came into an house, away from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And hee sayde vnto them, What are yee without vnderstanding also? Doe yee not knowe that whatsoever thing, from without entrech into a man, cannot defile him,

19 Because it entrech not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, which is the purging of all meates?

20 Then hee said, That which cometh out of man, that defileth man.

21 ¶ For from within, euen out of the heart of men proceed euill thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, i couetousnesse, wickednesse, deceit, vnclannesse, a wicked eye, backebiting, pride, foolishnesse.

23 All these euill things come from within, and defile a man.

24 ¶ And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyrus and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would that no man should haue known: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certaine woman, whose little daughter had an vnlesue spirite, heard of him, and came, and fell at his feete, 26 And the woman was a Greeke, a Syrophenician by nation) and she besought him that he would cast out the deuil out of her daughter.

27 But Iesus sayd vnto her, Let the children first be fedde: for it is not good to take the childrens bread, and to cast it vnto a whelpes.

28 Then she answered, and sayd vnto him, True, Lord: yet in deede the whelpes eate vnder the table of the childrens crummes.

29 Then he said vnto her, For this saying, goe thy way: the deuil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come home to her house, she found the deuil departed, and her daughter lying on the bed.

31 ¶ And he departed againe from the coasts of Tyrus and Sidon, and came vnto the sea of Galilee, through the middes of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they brought vnto him one that was deafe and flambred in his speech, and prayed him to put his hand vpon him.

33 Then he tooke him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers in his eares, and did spit, and touched his tongue.

34 And looking vp to heauen, he sighed, and said vnto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his eares were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plaine.

36 And he commanded them that they should tell no man: but how much fouler hee forbade them, the more a great deale they published it.

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deafe to heare, & the dumme to speake.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The miracle of the leuen hauer. 2 The leues fike figes. 3 To beware of the leuen of the Pharisees. 4 A blinde man heales. 5 The people's opinion of Christ. 6 The Apostles acknowledge Christ. 7 His foretold death. 8 Peter's answer. 9 To Iesus and his left. 10 To be alone I of Christ.

¶ In those dayes, when there was a very great multitude, and had nothing to eate, Iesus called his disciples to him, and sayd vnto them,

1 I haue compassion on the multitude, because they haue now continued with mee three dayes, and haue nothing to eat.

2 And if I send them away fasting to their owne houses, they would be faint by the way: for some of them came from farre.

3 Then his disciples answered him, Whence can a man satisfie these with bread herein the wilderness?

4 And he asked them, How many loaves haue ye? And they sayd, Seuen.

5 Then he commanded the multitude to sit downe on the ground: and he tooke the seuen loaves, and gaue thanks, brake them, and gaue to his disciples to set before them, and they did set them before the people.

6 They had also a few small fishes: and when he had giuen thanks, he commanded them also to set before them.

7 So they did eat, and were sufficed, and they tooke vp of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets full.

8 (And they that had eaten, were about foure thousand) so he sent them away.

9 ¶ And anon he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

10 ¶ And the Pharisees came forth, and began to dispute with him, seeking of him a signe from heauen, and tempting him.

11 Then he sighed deeply in his spirit, and sayd, Why doeth this generation seeke a signe? Verily I say vnto you, a signe shall not be giuen vnto this generation.

12 ¶ So he left them, and went into the ship againe, and departed to the other side.

13 ¶ And they had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them, but one loafe.

14 And he charged them, saying, Take heede and beware of the leauen of the Pharisees, and of the leauen of Herod.

15 ¶ And they reasoned among themselues, saying, Is it because we haue no bread.

16 And when Iesus knew it, he said vnto them, Why reason you thus, because ye haue no bread? perceiue ye not yet, neither vnderstand? haue ye your hearts yet hardened?

17 Haue ye eyes, and see not? and haue ye eares, and heare not? and do ye not remember?

18 ¶ When I brake the seuen loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of broken meat tooke ye vp? They said vnto him, Twelue.

19 And when I brake seuen among foure thousand, how many baskets of the leauings of broken meat tooke ye vp? And they said, Seuen.

20 Then he said vnto them, How is it that ye vnderstand not?

21 ¶ And he came to Bethsaida, and they brought a blind man vnto him, and desired him to touch him.

22 Then he tooke the blind by the hand, and ledde him out of the towne, and spat in his eyes, and put his hands vpon him, and asked him, if he saw ought.

23 And he looked vp, and said, I see men: for I see them walking like trees.

24 After that, he put his hands againe vpon his eyes, and made him to looke againe. And he was restored to his sight, and saw euery man a farre off clearly.

25 And he sent him home to his house, saying, Neither go into the towne, nor tell it to any in the towne.

26 ¶ And Iesus went out, and his disciples into the townes of Cesarea Philippi. And by the way he asked his disciples, saying vnto them, Whom do men say that I am?

27 And they answered, Some say, Iohn Baptist: and some, Elias, and some, one of the Prophets.

28 And he sayd vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? Then Peter answered, and sayd, vnto him, Thou art that Christ.

29 And he sharply charged them, that concerning him they should tell no man.

30 ¶ He commanded him againe to sit in death, wher hee could see death or no.

31 Christ will not haue his miracles to bee separated from his doctrine. 32 Many praye Christ, which yet notwithstanding spoyle him of his praife. 33 Christ hath appeared his time to the preaching of the Gospell: and therefore hee deserveth it to be more commodious time, least Iudas halle should rather hinder then further the myserie of his coming.

33 Then he began to teach them that the sonne of man must suffer many things, & should be reprobued of the Elders, and of the hie Priests, and of the Scribes, and be slaine, and within three dayes rise againe.

34 And he spake that thing boldly. Then
Peter tooke him aside, and began to rebuke him.

35 Then he turned backe, & looked on his disciples, and rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou vnderstandest not the things that are of God, but the things that are of men.

36 And he called the people vnto him with his disciples, and sayd vnto them, Whosoeuer will follow me, let him forsake him selfe, and take vp his crosse, and follow me.

should winne y whole world, if he lose his soule?

39 Or what exchange shall a man giue for his soule?

ashamed also, when he commeth in the glorie of his arms. 41 To offend. 50 Salu. Peace.

1 And he said vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, that there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death till they have seene the kingdom of God come with power.

2 And six dayes after, Iesus taketh vnto him Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and carrieth vp into an hie mountaine out of the way alone, and his shape was changed before them.

3 And his raiment did shine, and was very white as snow, so white as no fuller can make ypon the earth.

4 And they appeared vnto them Elias with Moses, and they were talking with Iesus.

5 Then Peter answered, and said to Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: let vs make also three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 Yet he knew not what they sayd: for they were afraid.

7 And there was a cloude that shadowed them, and a voyce came out of the cloude, saying,
This is my beloued Sonne: hear him.

8 And suddenly they looked round about, and saw no more any man save Iesus only with them.

9 And as they came downe from the mountaine, he charged them, that they should tell no man what they had seene, till the Sonne of man were risen from the dead againe.

10 So they kept that matter to themselves, and demanded one of another, what they saying from the dead againe should meane.

11 Also they asked him, saying, Why say the Scribes, that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered, and said vnto them, Thus verily shall first come, and restore all things: and as it is written of the Sonne of man, he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.

13 But I say vnto you, that Elias is come, and they haue done vnto him whatsoever they would as it is written of him.

14 And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the Scribes disputing with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were amazed, and ranne to him, and saluted him.

16 Then he asked the Scribes, What dispute you among your selves?

17 And one of the company answered, and said, Master, I haue brought my sonne vnto thee, which hath a dumme spirit:

18 And wherefore he taketh him, he testeth him, and he smeth, and gnatheth his teeth, and pincheth away: and I spake to thy disciples, that they should cast him out, and they could not.

19 Then he answered him, & said, O faithlesse generation, how long now shall I be with you? how long now shall I suffer you? Bring him vnto me.

20 So they brought him vnto him: and as soone as the spirit saw him, he tare him, and he fell downe on the ground wallowing and foming.

21 Then he asked his father, How long time is it since it hath bene thus? And he said, Of a child.

22 And oft times he catcheth him into the fire, and into the water to destroy him: but if thou canst doe any thing, helpe vs, and haue compassion vpon vs.

23 And Iesus said vnto him, if thou canst beleeue it, all things are possible to him y beleeueth.

24 And straightway the father of the child crying with teares, said, Lord, I beleeue: helpe my vnbeliefe.

25 When Iesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked y vnbeliefe spirit, saying vnto him, Thou dumme & deafe spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, & enter no more into him.

26 Then the spirit cried, and rent him fore, and came out, and he was as one dead, in so much that many sayd, He is dead.

27 But Iesus tooke his hand, and lift him vp,
and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him secretly, Why couldst not we cast him out?

29 And he said vnto them, This kind can by no other meanes come forth, but by prayer & fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and I went together through Galilee, and he would not that any should haue knowen it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said vnto them, The Sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him, but after that he is killed, he shall rise againe the third day.

32 But they vnderstood not that saying, and were afraid to aske him.

33 ¶ After he came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among you by the way?

34 And they held their peace: for by the way they reasoned among themselves, who should be the chiefest.

35 And he sat downe, and called the twelue, and sayd to them, If any man desire to be first,
he must be last.

¶ And he answered, and sayde vnto them, What did Mofes command you?

¶ And they said, Mofes suffered to write a bill of diuorcement, and to put her away.

¶ Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, For the hardnes of your heart he wrote this precept vnto you,

For as much as your hearte made a good promise for the times of old times. But at the beginning of the creation ¶ God made them male and female:

¶ For this cause shall man leaue his father and mother, and cleaue vnto his wife.

¶ And they twaine shalbe one flesh: so that they are no more twaine, but one flesh, ¶ Therefore, what God hath coupled together, let no man separate.

¶ And in the house his disciples asked him againe of that matter.

¶ And he sayd vnto them, ¶ Whosoever shall put away his wife and marry another, committeth adulterie against her.

¶ And if a woman put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adulterie.

¶ ¶ Then they brought little children to him, that he should touch them, and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

¶ But when Iesus sawe it, he was displeased, and sayd to them, Suffer the little children to come vnto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdome of God.

¶ Verely I say vnto you, Whosoever shall not receiue the kingdome of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

¶ And he tooke them vp in his armes, and put his hands vpon them, and blessed them.

¶ ¶ And when hee was gone out on the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I doe, that I may possesse eternall life?

¶ Iesus sayd to him, Why callest thou mee good? there is none good but one, euen God.

¶ Thou knowest the commandments, ¶ Thou shalt not commit adulterie. Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not steale. Thou shalt not beare false witness. Thou shalt doe hurt no man. Honour thy father and mother.

¶ Then he answered, and said to him, Masters all these things haue I observed from my youth.

¶ And Iesus looked vpon him, and loued him, and sayde vnto him, One thing is lacking vnto thee. Goe and sell all that thou hast, and giue to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, followe me, and take vp the crosse,

¶ But he was sad at that saying, and went away sorrowfull: for he had great possessions.

¶ And Iesus looked round about, and sayde vnto his disciples, How hardly doe they that haue riches, enter into the kingdome of God!

¶ And his disciples were afraid at his words, But Iesus answered againe, and sayd vnto them, Children, howe hard is it for them that trust in riches, to enter into the kingdome of God!

¶ It is easier for a camel to goe through the eye of a needle, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.

¶ And they were much more astonished, saying with themselves, Who then can be saved?

¶ But Iesus looked vpon them, and said, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

¶ ¶ Then Peter began to say vnto him, Lo, we haue forsaken all, and haue followed thee.

¶ Iesus answered, and said, Verely I say vnto you, there is no man that hath forsaken house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my sake and the Gospels,

¶ But he shall receiue an hundred fold now, and life.

at this present houses, and brethren; & sisters, and mothers, and children, and landes with persecutions, and in the world to come, eternal life.

31 ¶ But many that are first, shall be last, and the last, first.

32 ¶ And they were in the way going vnto Hierusalem, and Iesus went before them, and they were troubled, and as they followed, they were afraid, and Iesus tooke the twelue againe, and began to tell them what things should come vnto him.

33 ¶ Saying, Beholde, we goe vnto Hierusalem, and the Sonne of man shall be deliuered vnto the hie Priests, and to the Scribes, and they shall condemne him to death, and shall deliuer him to the Gentiles.

34 And they shall mocke him, and scourge him, and spit vpon him, and kill him: but the third day he shall rise againe.

35 ¶ Then Iames & Iohn the sonnes of Zebedeus came vnto him, saying, Master, swee would that thou shouldst doe for vs that we desire.

36 And he said vnto them, What would ye I should doe for you?

37 And they said to him, Graunt vnto vs, that we may sit, one at thy right hand, and the other at thy left hand in thy glory.

38 But Iesus said vnto them, Yee knowe not what ye aske. Can ye drinke of the cup that I shal drinke of, and be baptized with the baptisme that I shal be baptized with?

39 And they said vnto him, We can. But Iesus said vnto them, Yee shall drinke in deede of the cup that I shal drinke of, and bee baptized with the baptisme wherewith I shal be baptized:

40 But to sit at my right hand and at my left, is not mine to giue, but it shalbe giuen to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard that, they began to disdaine at Iames and Iohn.

42 ¶ But Iesus called them vnto him, and said to them, ¶ Ye knowe that they which are princes among the Gentiles, haue domination ouer them, and they that be great among them, exercise authoritie ouer them.

43 But it shall not be so among you: but whofoeuer will be great among you, shall be your seruant.

44 And whofoeuer will be chiefe of you, shall be the seruant of all.

45 For euen the Sonne of man came not to be serued, but to serue, and to giue his life for the ransom of many.

46 ¶ ¶ Then they came to Iericho: and as he went out of Iericho with his disciples, and a great multitude, Bartimeus the sonne of Timeus, a blinde man, sat by the wayes side, begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Iesus of Nazareth, he began to cry, and to say, Iesus the Sonne of David, haue mercy on me.

48 And many rebuked him, because he should hold his peace: but he cried much more, O Sonne of David, haue mercy on me.

49 Then Iesus stood still, and commanded him to be called: and they called the blinde, saying vnto him, Be of good comfort arise, he calleth thee.

50 So he threwe away his cloke, and rose, and came to Iesus.

51 And Iesus answered, & said vnto him, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And the blinde said vnto him, Lord, that I may receiue sight.

52 Then Iesus said vnto him, Go thy way: thy faith hath saved thee. And by and by he receiued his sight, and followed Iesus in the way.

¶ CHAP. XI.

¶ Christe rideth into Hierusalem riding on an Asse, 13 The fruit of the Asse is curfew. 15 Scribes and Pharisees are cast out of the Temple. 17 The force of faith. 18 Faith in prayer. 19 The heauens officers must be prepared. 27 The Fourtes after he had written his writings that he did, 30 Where he shal be baptized.

¶ And ¶ when they came neere to Hierusalem, A to Bethphage and Bethania vnto the mount of Olives, he sent forth two of his disciples,

2 And said vnto them, Goe your wayes into that towne that is ouer against you, and as soon as ye shall enter into it, ye shall finde a colt tied, whercon neuer man fate: loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say vnto you, Why doe ye this? Say that the Lord hath neede of him, and straightway he will find him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found a colt tied by the doore without, in a place where two wayes met, and they loosed him.

5 Then certaine of them that stood there, said vnto them, What doe ye loosing the colt?

6 And they said vnto them, as Iesus had commanded them: So they let them goe.

7 ¶ And they brought the colt to Iesus, and cast their garments on him, and he sat vpon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: other cut downe branches off the trees, & strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna: blessed be he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

10 ¶ Blessed be the kingdom that cometh in the Name of the Lord of our father David: Hosanna, O thou which art in the highest heauens.

11 ¶ So Iesus entred into Hierusalem, and into the Temple: and when hee had looked about on all things, and now it was evening, he went forth vnto Bethania with the twelue.

12 ¶ And on the morrowe when they were come out from Bethania, he was hungry.

13 ¶ And seeing a figge tree afare off, that had leaues, he went to see if hee might finde any thing thereon: but when he came vnto it, hee found nothing but leaues: for the time of figges was not yet.

14 Then Iesus answered, and said to it, Neuer man ate fruit of thee hereafter while the world standeth: and his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ ¶ And they came to Hierusalem, and Iesus went into the Temple, and began to cast out them that solde and bought in the Temple, and overthrowed the tables of the money changers, and the seates of them that solde doves.

16 Neither would hee suffer that any man should carry a vessel through the Temple.

17 And he taught, saying vnto them, Is it not written, Mine house shalbe called the house of prayer vnto all nations? but you haue made it a den of theues.

18 And the Scribes and hie Priests heard it, and sought howe to destroy him, for they feared him, because the whole multitude was astonished at his doctrine.

19 But when euen was come, Iesus went out of the cite.

31 Then Peter remembered, and said vnto him, Master, behold, the figge tree which thou cursedst, is withered.

32 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Henceforth the figge of God.

33 For verily I say vnto you, that whosoever shall say vnto this mountaine, Bee thou taken away, and cast into the sea, and shall not wauer in his heart, but shall beleue that those things which he saith, shall come to passe, what soeuer hee saith, shall be done to him.

34 ¶ Therefore I say vnto you, Whatsoeuer yee desire when ye pray, beleue that yee shall haue it, and it shall be done vnto you.

35 ¶ But when ye shall stand, and pray, forgive, if ye haue any thing against any man, that your Father also which is in heauen, may forgive you your trespasses.

36 For if you will not forgive, your Father which is in heauen, wil not pardon you your trespasses.

37 ¶ 1 Then they came againe to Hierusalem: and as he walked in the Temple, there came to him the hie Priests, & the Scribes, & the Elders,

38 And said vnto him, By what authoritie dost thou these things? and who gaue thee this authoritie, that thou shouldst doe these things?

39 Then Iesus answered, & said vnto the, I will also aske you a certain thing, & answer ye me, & I will tel you by what authoritie I do these things.

40 The baptisme of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men? answer me.

41 And they thought with themselves, saying, If we shal say, From heauen, he will say, Why then did ye not beleue him?

42 ¶ But if we say, Of men, wee feare the people: for all men counted Iohn that he was a Prophet in deed.

43 Then they answered, and sayd vnto Iesus, We cannot tel. And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Neither will I tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.

CHAP. XII.

1 Of the vineyard. 2 Christ the stone refused of the Iewes. 23 of tribute to be giuen to Cesar. 28 The Sadduces denying the resurrexion. 28 The first commandment. 31 To loue God and the neighbour better then sacrifices. 36 Christ Danish fount. 38 To beware of the Scribes and Pharisees. 43 The power of Iohn.

And he began to speake vnto them, in parables. ¶ A certaine man planted a vineyard, & compassed it with an hedge, & digged a pit for the winepresse, and built a towre in it, & let it out to husbandmen, and wet into a strange country.

2 And at the time, he sent to the husbandmen a seruant, & he might receiue of the husbandmen of the fruite of the vineyard.

3 But they tooke him, and beat him, and sent him away emptye.

4 And againe he sent vnto them another seruant, and at him they cast stones, and brake his head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And againe he sent another, and him they slew, & many other, beating some, & killing some.

6 Yet had hee one sonne, his deare beloued: him also he sent the last vnto them, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.

7 But the husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 So they tooke him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall then the Lorde of the vineyard doe? Hee will come and destroy those husbandmen, and giue the vineyard to others.

10 Haue ye not read so much as this Scripture? ¶ The stone which the builders did refuse, is made the head of the corner.

11 This was done of the Lord, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

12 Then they went about to take him, but they feared the people: for they perceived that he spake that parable against them: therefore they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ 2 And they sent vnto him certaine of the Pharisees, & of the Herodians that they might take him in his talke.

14 And when they came, they sayd vnto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou dost confessest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God truly, is it lawfull to giue tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Should we giue it, or should we not giue it? but he knew their hypocrisie, and said vnto them, Why tempt ye me? Bring me a penny, that I may see it.

16 So they brought it, and he said vnto them, Whose is this image and superscription? and they sayd vnto him, Cesar.

17 Then Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Giue to Cesar the things that are Cesar, and to God, those that are Gods: and they maruelled at him.

18 ¶ 3 Then came the Sadduces vnto him, (which say, there is no resurrexion) & they asked him, saying,

19 Master, ¶ Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die, and leaue his wife, and leaue no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seed vnto his brother.

20 There were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and when he died, left no issue.

21 Then the second took her, and he dyed, neither did he yet leaue issue, and the third likewise.

22 So these seuen had her, and left no issue: last of all the wife died also.

23 In the resurrexion then, when they shall rise againe, whose wife shall shee be of them? for seuen had her to wife.

24 Then Iesus answered and sayde vnto them, Are ye not therefore decciued, because yee know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise againe from the dead, neither men maie, nor wiues are married, but are as the Angels which are in heauen,

26 And as touching the dead, that they shall rise againe, haue ye not read in the booke of Moses, how in the bulsh God spake vnto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob?

27 God is not the God of the dead, but the God of the liuing. Ye are therefore greatly decciued.

28 ¶ 4 Then came one of the Scribes that had heard the disputing together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, hee asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 Iesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, ¶ Heare, Israel, The Lord our God is the onely Lord, 30 Thou shalt therefore loue the Lorde thy God with all thine heart; and with all thy soule, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like that, is, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. There is none other commandment greater then these.

32 Then that Scribe said vnto him, Well, Master, thou hast sayd the truth, that there is one God, and that there is none but he,

33 And to loue him with all the heart, & with all the vnderstanding, and with all the soule, and with all the strength, and to loue his neighbour as himselfe, is more then all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 Then when Iesus saw that he answered directly, he said vnto him, Thou art not farr from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst aske him any question.

35 ¶ And Iesus answered & said teaching in the Temple, How say the Scribes that Christ is the sonne of David?

36 For Dauid himselfe sayd by holy Ghost, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 Then Dauid himselfe calleth him Lord: by what meanes is he then his sonne? and much people heard him gladly.

38 ¶ Moreover hee said vnto them in his doctrine, Beware of the Scribes which loue to go in a long robe, & lawe salutations in the markets,

39 And the chiefe seates in the Synagogues, and the first roumes at feastes, 40 Which denoure widowes houses, euen vnder a colour of long prayers. These shall receiue the greater damnation.

41 ¶ And as Iesus fate ouer against the treasure, he beheld how the people cast money into the treasure, and many rich men cast in much.

42 And there came a certaine poore widow, & she threw in two mites, which make a quadran.

43 Then he called vnto him his disciples, and sayd vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, that this poore widow hath cast more in, then all they which haue cast into the treasure.

44 For they all did cast in of their superfluitie: but she of her poutrice did cast in all that she had, euen all her liuing.

CHAP. XIII.

1. Of the destruction of Ierusalem. 9. Persecutions for the Gospel. 10. The Gospell must be preached to all nations. 26. Of Christes coming to iudgement. 33. We must watch & pray.

And ¶ as he went out of the Temple, one of his disciples sayd vnto him, Master, see what maner stones, and what maner buildings are here.

¶ Then Iesus answered and sayd vnto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone vpon a stone, that shall not be thrown downe.

3 And as he fate on the mount of Oliues, ouer against the Temple, Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and Andrew asked him secretly,

4 Tell vs, when shall these things bee? and what shall be the signe when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Iesus answered them, and began to say, Take heed least any man deceiue you,

6 For many shall come in my Name, saying, I am Christ, and shall deceiue many.

7 Furthermore when ye shall heare of warres, and rumors of warres, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be: but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, & kingdomes against kingdomes, and there shall be earthquakes in diuers quarters, and there shall be famine and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorowes,

9 But take ye heede to your selues: for they shall deliuer you vp to the Councils, and to the Synagogues: ye shall be beaten, and brought before rulers and Kings for my sake, for a testimony vnto them.

10 And the Gospell must bee published among all nations.

11 ¶ But when they lead you, and deliuer you vp, be not carefull before hand, neither studie what ye shall say: but what is giuen you at the same time, that speake: for it is not you that speake, but the holy Ghost.

12 Yea, and the brother shall deliuer the brother to death, and the Father the sonne, and the children shall rise against their parents, and shall cause them to die.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my Names sake: but whosoever shall endure vnto the end, he shall be saved.

14 ¶ Moreover, when ye shall see the abomination of desolation (spoken of by Daniel the Prophet) set where it ought not, (let him that readeth, consider it) then let them that be in Iudea, flee into the mountains,

15 And let him that is vpon the house, net come down into the house, neither enter therein, to fetch any thing out of his house.

16 And let him that is in the field, nor turne backe againe to take his garment.

17 Then woe shall be to them that are with child, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes.

18 Pray therefore that your flight bee not in the winter.

19 For those dayes shall be such tribulation, as was not from the beginning of the creatiō which God created vnto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lorde had shortened those dayes, no flesh should be saved: but for the elects sake, which hee hath chosen, he hath shortened those dayes.

21 Then if any man say to you, Loe, here is Christ, or lo. he is there, belecue it not.

22 For false Christs shall rise, and false prophets, & shall shew signes & wonders, to deceiue if it were possible the very elect.

23 But take ye heede: behold, I haue shewed you all things before.

24 ¶ Moreover in those dayes, after that tribulation, the sunne shall waxe darke, & the moone shall not giue her light,

25 And the starres of heauen shall fall: and the powers which are in heauen, shall shake.

26 And then shall they see the Sonne of man coming in the clouds, wth great power and glory.

27 And he shall then send his Angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, and from the vtmost part of the earth to the vtmost part of heauen.

6 This doubling of the words was used in these days, when their language were so mixed together for this word, Abba, is a Syrian word.
31 An horrible example of the flagitiousness of men, even in the disciples whom Christ had chosen.

4 Matt. 26. 47. Luke 22. 47. John 18. 3.
32 As men did willingly paye to God their Creator for his praise in forsaking and betraying him, so Christ willingly going about to make satisfaction for this sin, is forsaken of his owne, and betrayed by one of his familiars as a thief, that the punishment might be agreeable to the sinne, and we who are very traitors, forsakers, and scelerates might be delineated out of the damnations.

1 So disguisely, that he scape not out of your hands.
4 That is, Peter.
11 All his disciples.
13 Under presence of godlines, all things are lawful to such as doe violence against Christ.
14 Which he call about him, when he bearing what shame in the night sleep, denyed what he was doing.

4 Matt. 26. 57. Luke 22. 54. John 18. 24.
5 The high council was assembled, because Christ was accused in a blasphemy and a false prophesie: for as for the other crime of treason, it was forgiven against him by the Priests, to enforce Pilate by that reason to condemn him.
14 Christ, who was so innocent that he could not be oppressed, nor by false witnesses, is at the length, for confessing God to be his Father, condemned of impiety before the hie Priest: that was, who denied God and made wicked might be quit before God. Matt. 26. 59. John 18. 19.

38 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible vnto thee: take away this cup from me: neuertheless not that I will, but that thou wilt be done.
39 Then he came, & found them sleeping, and said to Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldst not thou watch one hour?
40 Watch ye, and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeede is readie, but the flesh is weakie.
41 And againe he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.
42 And he returned, and found them asleepe againe: for their eyes were heauie: neither knew they what they should answer him.
43 And he came the third time, and said vnto them, Sleepe henceforth, and take your rest: it is ynough: the houre is come: behold, the Sonne of man is deliuered into the hands of sinners.
44 Rise vp: let vs goe: loe, he that betrayeth me, is at hand.
45 And immediately while he yet spake, came Judas that was one of the twelue, and with him a great multitude with swordes and staves from the hie Priests, and Scribes, and Elders.
46 And he that betrayed him, had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kisse, he is it: take him and leade him away safely.
47 And assoone as he was come, hee went straightway to him, and sayd, Haile Master, and kissed him.
48 Then they layd their hands on him, and tooke him.
49 And one of them that stood by, drew out a sword, and smote a seruant of the hie Priest, and cut off his eare.
50 And Iesus answered and sayd to them, Ye be come out as against a thiefe with swordes, and with staves, to take me.
51 I was daily with you teaching in the Temple, and ye tooke me not: but this is done that the Scriptures should be fulfilled.
52 Then they all forsooke him, and fled.
53 And there followed him a certaine yong man, clothed in a linnen vpon his bare body, and the yong men caught him.
54 But he left his linnen cloth, and fled from them naked.
55 So they led Iesus away to the hie Priest, and to him came together all the hie Priests, and the Elders, and the Scribes.
56 And Peter followed him as farre off, even into the hall of the hie Priest, and sate with the seruants, and warmed himself at the fire.
57 And the hie Priests, and all the Councill fought for witness against Iesus, to put him to death, but found none.
58 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.
59 Then there arose certaine, and bare false witness against him, saying,
60 Wee heard him say, I will destroy this Temple made with hands, and within three dayes I will build another, made without hands.
61 But their witness yet agreed not together.
62 Then the hie Priest stoode vp amongst them, and asked Iesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is the matter that these beare witness against thee?

63 But he held his peace, & answered nothing. Again the hie Priest asked him, & said vnto him, Art thou that Christ the sonne of the Blessed?
64 And Iesus said, I am he, & ye shall see the Sonne of man sit at the right hand of the power of God, and come in the cloudes of heauen.
65 Then the hie Priest rent his clothes, and said, What haue we any more neede of witness?
66 And hee heard the blasphemy: what thinke ye? And they all condemned him to be worthy of death.
67 And some began to spit at him, and to couer his face, and to beat him with filts, and to say vnto him, Prophesie. And the sergeants smote him with their rods.
68 And as Peter was beneath in the hall, there came one of the maides of the hie Priest.
69 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked on him, and said, Thou wast also with Iesus of Nazareth.
70 But he denied it, saying, I know him not, neither wot I what thou sayest. Then he went out into the porch, and the cocke crew.
71 Then Peter saw him againe, & began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.
72 But hee denied it againe: and anon after, they that stood by, sayd againe to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art of Galilee, and thy speech is like.
73 And he began to curse, and sweare, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speake.
74 Then the second time the cocke crew, and Peter remembered the worde that Iesus had sayd vnto him, Before the cocke crowe twise, thou shalt denie me thrise, and waying that with himselfe, he wept.
75 And he began to curse, and sweare, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speake.
76 Then the second time the cocke crew, and Peter remembered the worde that Iesus had sayd vnto him, Before the cocke crowe twise, thou shalt denie me thrise, and waying that with himselfe, he wept.

1 And anon in the dawning, the hie Priests helde a Councill with the Elders, and the Scribes, and the whole Councill, and bound Iesus, and led him away, and deliuered him to Pilate.
2 Then Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And he answered, and sayd vnto him, Thou sayest it.
3 And the hie Priests accused him of many things.
4 Wherefore Pilate asked him againe, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.
5 But Iesus answered no more at all, so that Pilate maruelled.
6 Now at 5 feast, Pilate did deliuer a prisoner vnto them, whomsoever they would desire.
7 Then there was one named Barabbas, which was bound with his fellows, that had made insurrection, who in the insurrection had committed murder.
8 And the people cried aloude, and began to 21 Matt. 26. 16. John 18. 16.

21 Christ being bound before an iudgement seat, an earthly iudge, in open assembly is condemned to giue vnto the death of his crucifixion, not for his owne finnes, (as we are by the lawe) but for all ours, that we may see the creature being deliuered his finnes, (as we are by the lawe) might be giued before an iudgement seat of God, and in the open assembly of the Angels. It was not lawfull for them to put any man to death, for all causes of life and death were referred to them from the first by Moses the great, and afterward by the Romans, about four hundred years before the destruction of the Temple, and therefore they deliuer Iesus to Pilate. desire that he would doe as he had euer done vnto them.

9 Then Pilate answered them, and said, Will ye that I let loose vnto you the King of Iewes?

10 For he knew that the hie Priests had deliuered him of enuie.

11 But the hie Priests had moued the people to desire that he would rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.

12 And Pilate answered, and said againe vnto them, What will ye then I doe with him, whom ye call the King of the Iewes?

13 And they cried againe, Crucifie him.

14 Then Pilate said vnto them, But what euill hath he done? And they cried the more feruently, Crucifie him.

15 So Pilate willing to content the people, loosed them Barabbas, and deliuered Iesus, when he had scourged him, that he might be crucified.

16 Then the soldiers led him away into the hall, which is the common hall, and called together the whole band,

17 And clad him with purple, and platted a crowne of thornes, and put it about his head.

18 And began to salute him, saying, Haile, King of the Iewes.

19 And they smote him on the head with a reede, and spat vpon him, and bowed the knees, and did him reuerence.

20 And when they had mocked him, they tooke the purple off him, & put his owne clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

21 And they compelled one that passed by, called Simon of Syrene (which came out of the country, and was father of Alexander and Rufus) to beare his crosse.

22 And they brought him to a place named Golgotha, which is by interpretation, the place of dead mens skulls.

23 And they gaue him to drinke wine mingled with myrthe: but he receiued it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots for them, what euery man should haue.

25 And it was the third houre, when they crucified him.

26 And the title of his cause was writtē about, THAT KING OF THE IEWES.

27 They crucified also with him two theues, the one on the right hand, and the other on his left.

28 Thus the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was counted among the wicked.

29 And they that went by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Hee, thou that destroyest the Temple, & buildest it in three dayes,

30 Saue thy selfe and come downe from the crosse.

31 Likewise also euen the hie Priests mocking, said among themselves with the Scribes, He saued other men, himselfe he cannot saue.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel now come downe from the crosse, that we may see, and beleue. They also that were crucified with him reuiled him.

34 And at the 7th ninth houre Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, saying, ¶ Eloi, Eloi, lama-sabach-thani? which is by interpretation, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, sayd, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ranne, and filled a sponge full of vineger and put it on a reede, and gaue him to drinke, saying, Let him alone I see vs see if Elias will come, and take him downe.

37 And Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and gaue vp the ghost.

38 And the vaile of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottome.

39 Nowe when the Centurion, which stood ouer against him, sawe that he thus crying gaue vp the ghost, hee sayd, Truly this man was the Sonne of God.

40 ¶ There were also women which beheld afaire off, among whome was Marie Magdalene, and Marie the mother of Iames the lesse, and of Ioses, and Salome, 41 Which also when hee was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered vnto him, and many other women which came vp with him vnto Hierusalem.

42 And now when the night was come (because it was the day of the preparation that is before the Sabbath)

43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honourable counsellour, which also looked for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus.

44 And Pilate maruiled, if he were already dead, and called vnto him the Centurion, and asked of him whether he had bene any while dead.

45 And when he knewe the truth of the Centurion, he gaue the body to Ioseph:

46 Who bought a linen cloth, and tooke him downe, and wrapped him in the linen cloth, and layed him in a tombe that was hewen out of a rocke, and rolled a stone vnto the doore of the sepulchre:

47 And Marie Magdalene, and Marie Ioses mother, beheld where he should be layed.

2 Therefore early in the morning, the first day of the weeke, they came vnto the sepulchre, when the sunne was now risen.

3 And they sayde one to another, Who shall roll vs away the stone from the doore of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they sawe that the stone was rolled away (for it was a very great one)

5 So they went into the sepulchre, and sawe a yong man sitting at the right side, clothed in a long white robe: and they were sore troubled.

6 But he sayd vnto them, Be not so troubled: ye seeke Iesus of Nazareth, which hath bene crucified: he is risen, he is not here: behold the place where they put him.

7 Christ striuing mightily with Satan, with sinne and with death, all three armed with the horrible curse of God, grievously tormented in body hanging vpon the crosse, and in soule plunged in the depth of hell, yet he riddeth himselfe, crying with a mighty voyce, and notwithstanding the wound which he receiued of death, in that that he died, yet by fainting about things above, and things beneath, by reuiving of the velle of the Temple, & by the testimony wrang out of them which murdered him, he sheweth euidently vnto the rest of his enemies which are as yet obstinate, and mocks at him, that he shalbe knowne out of hand to be conquerour and Lord of all.

16. And it came to passe three dayes after, that they found him in the Temple, sitting in the midst of the doctours, both hearing them, and asking them questions:

17. And all that heard him, were astonished at his understanding and answers.

18. ¶ So when they saw him, they were amazed, and his mother said vnto him, Sonne, why hast thou thus dealt with vs? behold, thy father and I haue sought thee with very heauie hearts.

19. Then said he vnto them, How is it that ye sought me? knew ye not that I must go about my Fathers busines?

20. But they vnderstood not the word that he spake to them.

21. ¶ Then he went downe with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subiect to them: and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

22. And Iesus increased in wisdom, and stature, and in fauour with God and men.

CHAP. III.

John exhorteth to repentance as a testimony of Christ, as Herod putteth him in prison: as Christ is baptized. 23 His pedigree.

Now in the fiftenth yeere of the reigne of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being gouerhour of Iudea, and Herod being Tetrarch of Galile, and his brother Philip Tetrarch of Iudaea, and of the country of Trachanitis, and Lysanias the Tetrarch of Abilene,

2. ¶ When Annas and Caiaphas were the hie Priests, the word of God came vnto John, the sonne of Zacharias in the wildecitte.

3. ¶ And he came into all the coastes about Iordan, preaching the baptisme of repentance for the remission of finnes,

4. As it is written in the booke of the sayings of Esaias the Prophet, which saith, The voyce of him that crieth in the wildernes, Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make his paths straight.

5. Euery valley shall be filled, and euery mountaine and hill shall be brought low, and crooked things shall be made straight, and the rough wayes shall be made smooth.

6. And all flesh shall see the saluation of God.

7. Then said he to the people that were come out to be baptized of him, ¶ O generations of vipers, who hath forewarned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8. Bring forth therefore frutes worthy amendment of life, and beginne not to say with your selues, We haue Abraham to our father: for I say vnto you, that God is able of these stones to raise vp children vnto Abraham,

9. Now also is the axe layd vnto the roote of the trees: therefore euery tree which bringeth not forth good fruit, shall be hewen downe, and cast into the fire.

10. ¶ Then the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11. And he answered, and said vnto them, ¶ He that hath two coats, let him part with them that hath none: and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12. Then came there Publicanes also to be baptized, and said vnto him, Master, what shall we doe?

13. And he said vnto them, Require no more then that which is appointed vnto you.

14. The souldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said vnto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely, and be content with your wages.

15. ¶ As the people waited, and all men mused in their hearts of Iohn, if he were not that Christ,

16. Iohn answered, and said to them all, ¶ In deed I baptize you with water, but one stronger then I cometh, whose shoes I latchet I am not worthy to vnloose: he will baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

17. ¶ Whose fanne is in his hand, and he will make cleane his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner, but the chaffe will hee burne vp with fire that neuer shall be quenched.

18. Thus then exhorting with many other things, he preached vnto the people.

19. ¶ But when Herod the Tetrarch was rebuked of him, for Herodias his brother Philips wife, and for all the euils which Herod had done,

20. He added yet this aboue all, that he shuld vp Iohn in prison.

21. ¶ Now it came to passe, as all the people were baptized, and that Iesus was baptized and did pray, that the heauen was opened:

22. And the holy Ghost came downe in a bodily shape like a doue vpon him, and there was a

CHAP. III.

¶ Of Christes temptation, and fasting. He teacheth in Nazareth in the great admiration of all. ¶ 1 A Prophet that teacheth in his owne country is contemned. ¶ 2 One possessed of the deuill is cured. ¶ 3 Peters mother in law is healed, and diuers sick persons are restored to health. ¶ 4 The diuile acknowledge his lord.

¶ And Iesus full of the holy Ghost returned from Iordan, and was led by that Spirit into the wilderness,

¶ 2 And was there fourtie dayes tempted of the deuill, & in those dayes he did eat nothing, but when they were ended, he afterward was hungry.

¶ 3 Then the deuill sayd vnto him, If thou be the sonne of God, commaund this stone, that it be made bread.

¶ 4 But Iesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not liue by bread only, but by euery word of God.

¶ 5 Then the deuill tooke him vp into an high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the world, in the twinkling of an eye.

¶ 6 And the deuill sayde vnto him, All this power will I giue thee, and the glory of those kingdoms: for that is delivered to me, and to whomsoeuer I will, I giue it.

¶ 7 If thou therefore wilt worship mee, they shall be all thine.

¶ 8 But Iesus answered him, and sayde, Hence from me, Satan: for it is written, ¶ Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God; and him alone thou shalt serue.

¶ 9 Then he brought him to Hierusalem, and set him on a pinacle of the Temple, and sayd vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe from hence,

¶ 10 For it is written, ¶ That hee will giue his Angels charge ouer thee to keepe thee:

¶ 11 And with their handes they shall lift thee vp least at any time thou shouldst dash thy foote against a stone.

¶ 12 And Iesus answered, and said vnto him, It is sayd, ¶ Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

¶ 13 And when the deuill had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a little season.

¶ 14 ¶ And Iesus returned by the power of the spirit into Galilee: and there went a fame of him throughout all the region round about,

¶ 15 For hee taught in their Synagogues, and was honoured of all men.

¶ 16 ¶ And hee came to Nazareth where hee had bene brought vp, and (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood vp to reade.

¶ 17 And there was deliuered vnto him the booke of the Prophet Esaias: and when hee had opened the booke, he found the place, where it was written,

¶ 18 ¶ The Spirit of the Lord is vpon mee, because he hath anointed me; that I should preach the Gospel to the poore: he hath sent mee, that I should heale the broken hearted, that I should preach deliuerance to the captiues, & recovering of sight to the blinde, that I should set at libertie them that are bound:

¶ 19 And that I should preach the acceptable yeere of the Lord.

¶ 20 And hee closed the booke, and gaue it againe to the minister, and satte downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagogue were fastened on him.

¶ 21 Then he began to say vnto them, This day is the Scripture fulfilled in your eares.

¶ 22 ¶ And all eare him wiles, and wondered at the gracious wordes, which proceeded out of his mouth, and said, Is not this Iosephs sonne?

¶ 23 Then he sayd vnto them, Ye will surely say vnto me this Prouerbe, Physician, heale thy selfe: whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, doe it here likewise in thine owne country.

¶ 24 And hee sayd, Verily I say vnto you, ¶ No Prophet is accepted in his owne country.

29 And rose vp, and thrust him out of the cite, and led him vnto the edge of the hill, whereon their cite was built, to cast him down headlong.

30 But hee passed through the mids of them, and went his way,

31 ¶ And came downe into Capernaum a cite of Galile, and there taught them on the Sabbath dayes.

32 ¶ And they were astonied at his doctrine: for his word was with authoritie.

33 ¶ And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a Spirit of an vnclene deuill, which cried with a loud voyce, 34 ¶ Saying, Oh, what haue wee to doe with thee, thou Iesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy vs? I know who thou art, euen the holy one of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Holde thy peace, & come out of him. Then the deuill throwing him in the middes of them, came out of him, and hurt him nothing at all.

36 So feare came on them all, and they spake among themselves, saying, What thing is this: for with authoritie and power he commaundeth the foule spirits, and they come out?

37 And the fame of him spread abroad throughout all the places of the countrey round about.

38 ¶ And he rose vp, and came out of the Synagogue, and entred into Simons house. And Simons wiues mother was taken with a great feuer, and they required him for her.

39 Then he floode ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her, and immediately she arose, and ministred vnto them.

40 Now at the sunne setting, all they that had sicke salues of diuers diseases, brought them vnto him, and he laid his hands on euery one of them, and healed them.

41 ¶ And deuils also came out of many, crying, and saying, Thou art that Christ that Sonne of God: but he rebuked them, and suffered them not to say that they knew him to be that Christ.

42 ¶ And when it was day, he departed, and went fourth into a desert place, and the people sought him, and came to him, and kept him that he should not depart from them.

43 But hee said vnto them, Surely I must also preach the kingdome of God to other cities: for therefore am I sent.

44 And hee preached in the Synagogues of Galile.

¶ THEN ¶ It came to passe, as the people pressed vpon him to heare the word of God, that he stood by the lake of Genesareth,

2 And sawe two shippes stand by the lakes side, but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entred into one of the shippes, which was Simons, and required him that he would thrust off a litle from the land: and hee fate downe, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 ¶ Nowe when he had left speaking, he said vnto Simon, Lanch, our into the deepe, and let downe your nets to make a draught.

5 Then Simon answered, and said vnto him, Master, wee haue trauailed for all night, and haue taken nothing: neuertheless if at thy word I will let downe the net.

6 And when they had so done, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes, so that their net brake.

7 And they beckened to their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and helpe them, who came then, and filled both the shippes, that they did linke.

8 Now when Simon Peter saw it he fell downe at Iesus knees, saying, Lord, go from me: for I am a sinfull man.

9 For hee was vtterly astonied, and all that were with him, for the draught of fishes which they tooke.

10 And so was also Iames and Iohn the sonnes of Zebedee, which were companions with Simon. Then Iesus said vnto Simon, Feare not: from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought the shippes to land, they forsooke all, and followed him.

12 ¶ ¶ Nowe it came to passe, as he was in a certaine cite, behold, there was a man full of leprosie, and when he sawe Iesus, he fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

13 So he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, be thou cleane. And immediately the leprosie departed from him.

14 And hee commaunded that hee should tell it no man: but Go, saith he, and shew thy selfe to the Priest, and offer for thy cleansing, as Moses hath commaunded, for a witnesse vnto them.

15 But so much more went there a faine abroad of him, and great multitudes came together to heare, and to be healed of his infirmities.

16 But hee kept himselfe apart in the wilderness, and prayed.

17 ¶ ¶ And it came to passe, on a certaine day, as he was teaching, that the Pharises and doctours of the Lawe fate by, which were come out of euery towne of Galile, and Iudea, and Hierusalem, and the power of the Lord was in him, to heale them.

18 ¶ Then beholde, men brought a man lying in a bed, which was taken with a palsey, and they sought meanes to bring him in, and to lay him before Iesus.

19 And when they coulde not finde by what way they might bring him in, because of the palsey, they went vp on the houise, and let him downe through the tiling, bed and all, in the mids before Iesus.

20 And when he sawe their faith, he said vnto him, Man, thy finnes are forgiven thee.

21 Then the Scribes and the Pharises began to reason, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive finnes, but God onely?

22 But when Iesus perceived their reasoning, he answered, and said vnto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

26 And they were all amazed, & praised God, and were filled with feare, saying, Doubtlesse wee haue seene strange things to day.

27 ¶ 2 And after that, he went forth and saw a Publicane named Leui, sitting at the receite of custome, and said vnto him, Follow me.

1 The disciples put the eares of cornes on the Sabbath, & of him that had a withered hand. 2 The rebuke of the Apostles. 30 The blessing and curse. 37 We must leaue our enemies.

46 With what fruit the word of God is to be heard.
A ND ¶ it came to passe on a second solemne Sabbath, that hee went through the corne fields, & his disciples * plucked the eares of corne, and did eate, and rub them in their hands.

2 And certaine of the Pharisees said vnto them, Why doe ye that which is not lawfull to doe on the Sabbath dayes?

3 Then Iesus answered them, and said, * Haue ye not read this, that Dauid did when he himselfe was an hungred, and they which were with him,

4 Howe hee went into the house of God, and ooke, and ate the shewbread, and gaue also to them which were with him, which was not lawfull to eate, but for the Priests onely?

5 And he said vnto them, The Sonne of man is Lord also of the Sabbath day.

6 ¶ 2 It came to passe also on another Sabbath, that hee entered into the Synagogue, and taught, and there was a man, whose right hand was dried vp.

7 And the Scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether hee would heale on the Sabbath day, that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But hee knewe their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Arise, and stande vp in the middes. And hee arose, and stood vp.

9 Then said Iesus vnto them, I will aske you a question, Whether is it lawfull on the Sabbath dayes to do good, or to do euill? to saue life, or to destroy?

10 And hee beheld them all in compass, and said vnto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he did so, and his hand was restored againe, as whole as the other.

11 Then they were filled full of madnesse, and communed one with another, what they might doe to Iesus.

12 ¶ 3 And it came to passe in those dayes, that hee went into a mountaine to pray, and spent the night in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called his disciples, and of them he chose twelue which also hee called Apostles.

14 (Simon whom hee named also Peter, and Andrew his brother, James and Iohn, Philip and Bartlemewe,

15 Matthew and Thomas: James the sonne of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelous, 16 Iudas James brother, and Iudas Iscariot, which also was the traitour.)

17 Then he came downe with them, and stood in a plaine place with the companie of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Iudea, and Hierusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyrus and Sidon, which came to heare him, and to be healed of their diseases.

18 And they that were vexed with foule spirits, and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: fortherne went vertue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ 4 And hee lifted vp his eyes vpon his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poore: for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 * Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be satisfied: * blessed are ye that weepe now: for ye shall laugh.

22 * Blessed are ye when men hate you, and when they separate you, and reuile you, and put out your name as euill, for the Sonne of mans sake.

23 Reioyce ye in that day, and be glad: for behold, your reward is great in heauen: for after this manner their fathers did to the Prophets.

24 ¶ 5 But woe be to you that are full: for ye haue receiued your consolation.

25 ¶ Woe be to you that are full: for ye shall hunger. Woe be to you that now laugh: for ye shall weep and weepe.

26 Woe be to you when all men speake well of you: for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

throughout all Iudaea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.

19 So Iohn called vnto him two certaine men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou he that should come, or shall we waite for another?

20 And when the men were come, vnto him, they said, Iohn Baptist hath sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or shall we waite for another?

21 And he at that time, he cured many of their sicknesses, and plagues, and of euill spirits, and vnto many blind men he gaue sight freely.

22 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Go ye your wayes and shew Iohn, what things ye haue seene and heard: that the blind see, the halt go, the lepers are cleansed, the deafe heare, the dead are raised, and the poore receiue the Gospel.

23 And blessed is he, that shall not be offended in me.

24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, he began to speake vnto the people of Iohn, What went ye our into the wilderness to see? A reede shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft rayment? behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and liue delicately, are in Kings courts.

26 But what went ye forth to see? A Prophet? yea, I say to you, & greater than a Prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written, Behold,
I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say vnto you, there is no greater Prophet then Iohn, among them that are begotten of women: neuertheless, he that is the least in the kingdom of God, is greater then he.

29 Then all the people that heard, and the Publicanes, justified Iohn, being baptized with the baptism of Iohn.

30 But the Pharisees and the exponents of the Law despised the counsell of God against themselves, and were not baptized of him.

31 And the Lord said, Whereunto shall I liken the men of this generation? and what thing are they like vnto?

32 They are like vnto little children sitting in the market place, and crying one to another, and saying, We haue piped vnto you, and ye haue not danced: we haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept.

33 For Iohn Baptist came neither eating bread, nor drinking wine: and ye say, He hath the deuill.

34 The sonne of man is come, and eateth, and drinketh: and ye say, Behold, a man which is a glutton, and a drinker of wine, a friend of Public-anes and sinners:

35 But widome is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him: and he went into the Pharisees house, and sat downe at table.

37 And behold, a woman in the citie, which was a sinner, when she knew that Iesus sat at table in the Pharisees house, she brought a boxe of oyntment.

38 ¶ And she stood at his feete behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with teares, and did wipe them with the haire of her head, and kissed his feet, and anoynted them with the oyntment.

39 ¶ Now when the Pharise which bade him, saw it, he spake within himselfe, saying, If this man were a Prophet, he would surely haue known who, and what manner of woman this is which toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40. ¶ And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee: And he said, Master, say on.

41 There was a certaine lender which had two debtors: the one ought fise hundred pence, and the other fifty:

42 When they had nothing to pay, he forgave them both: Which of them therefore, tell me, will loue him most?

43 Simon answered, and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said vnto him, Thou hast truly iudged.

44 Then he turned to the woman, and said vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into shine house, and thou gauest me no water to my feet: but she hath washed my feet with teares, and wiped them with the haire of her head.

45 Thou gauest me no kisse but she, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kisse my feet.

46 Mine head with oyle thou didst not anoint:
but she hath anoynted my feet with oymnt.

47 Wherefore I say vnto thee, many finnes are forgiuen her: for she loued much. To whom little is forgiven, he doth loue a little.

48 And he sayd vnto her, Thy finnes are forgiuen thee.

49 And they that sat at table with him, began to say within themselves, Who is this that euen forgiveth finnes?

vp, and bare fruite, an hundred folde. And as he said these things, he cried, Hee that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

9 Then his disciples asked him, demanding what parable that was.

10 And he said, Vnto you it is giuen to know the secrets of the kingdome of God, but to other in parables, that when they see, they should not see, and when they heare, they should not vnderstand.

11 ¶ The parable is this, The seede is the word of God.

12 And they that are beside the way, are they that heare: afterward commeth the deuill, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should beleue, and be saued.

13 But they that are on the stones, are they which when they haue heard, receiue y word with ioy: but they haue no rootes: which for a while beleue, but in the time of temptation goe away.

14 And that which fell among thornes, are they which haue heard, and after their departure are choked with cares and with riches, and voluptuous liuing, and bring forth no fruite.

15 But that which fell in good ground, are they which with an honest and good heart heare the word, & keepe it, and bring forth fruite with patience.

16 ¶ No man when he hath lighted a candle, couereth it vnder a vessell, neither putteth it vnder the bed, but setteth it on a candlesticke, that they that enter in, may see the light.

17 Neither is nothing in secret, that shall not be euident: neither any thing hidde, that shall not be known, and come to light.

18 ¶ Take heed therefore how ye heare: for whosoauer hath, to him shall be giuen: and whosoauer hath not, from him shall be taken euen that which it seemeth that he hath.

19 ¶ Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come neere to him for the presse.

20 And it was told him by certaine which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, and would see thee.

21 But he answered, and sayd vnto them, My mother and my brethren are these which heare the word of God, and doe it.

22 ¶ And it came to passe on a certaine day, that he went into a ship with his disciples, and he said vnto them, Let vs goe ouer vnto the other side of the lake. And they lancht forth.

23 And as they sailed, hee fell a sleepe, and there came downe a storme of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 Then they went to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, Master, we perish. And he arose, and rebuked the winde, and the waues of water: and they ceased, and it was calme.

25 Then hee sayd vnto them, Where is your faith? and they feared, & wondered among themselves, saying, Who is this that commandeth both the windes and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ So they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Galilee.

27 ¶ And as hee went out to land, there met him a certaine man out of the citie, which had deuils long time, and he ware no garment, neither abode in house, but in the graues.

28 And when he saw Iesus, hee cried out, and fell downe before him, and with a loud voice said, What haue I to doe with thee, Iesus the sonne of God the most high? I beseech thee torment me not.

29 For he commanded the foule spirit to come out of the man: (for oftentimes hee had caught him: therefore hee was bound with chaines, and kept in fetters: but he brake the bands, & was caried of the deuill into wildernesses.)

30 Then Iesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? and he said, Legion, because many deuils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him, that he would not command them to goe out into the deepe.

32 And there was thereby an heard of many swine feeding on an hill: and the deuils besought him, that hee would suffer them to enter into them. So hee suffered them.

33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the swine: and the heard was caried with violence from a sleepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.

34 When the herdemen saw what was done, they fled: and when they were departed, they told it in the citie and in the country.

35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Iesus, and found the man, out of whom the deuils were departed, sitting at the feete of Iesus, clothed, and in his right minde: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it, tolde them by what means he that was possessed with the deuill, was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the country about the Gadarenes, besought him that hee would depart from them: for they were taken with a great feare: and he went into the ship, and returned.

38 Then the man, out of whom the deuils were departed, besought him that hee might bee with him: but Iesus sent him away, saying,

39 Returne into thine owne house, and shewe what great things God hath done to thee. So he went his way, and preached throughout all the citie, what great things Iesus had done vnto him.

40 ¶ And it came to passe, when Iesus was come againe, that the people receiued him: for they all waited for him.

41 ¶ And beholde, there came a man named Iustus, and hee was the ruler of the Synagogue, who fell downe at Iesus feete, and besought him that hee would come into his house.

42 For hee had but a daughter onely, about twelue yeeres of age, and she lay dying (and as he went, the people thronged him).

43 And a woman hauing an yssue of blood, twelue yeeres long, which had spent all her substance vpon physicians, and could not bee healed of any:

51 And when he went into the house, he suffered no man to goe in with him, save Peter and James, and Iohn, and the father and mother of the maid.

52 And all wept, and sorrowed for her: but he said, Weepe not: for she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laugh him to scorne, knowing that she was dead.

Then 7 called hee his twelve disciples together, and gaue them power and authoritie ouer all deuils, and to heale diseases.

2 And hee sent them forth to preach the kingdom of God, and to cure the sicke,

3 And hee said to them, Take nothing to your iourney, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, nor filuer, neither hawke two coates apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And how many soeuer will not receiue you, when ye goe out of that cite, shake off the very dust from your feete for a testimonie against them.

7 ¶ Nowe Herod the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he doubted, because that it was him of some, that Iohn was risen against from the dead. 8 Of some, that Elias had appeared: and of some, that one of the olde Prophets was risen againe.

9 Then Herod sayd, I bebohold who then is this of whom I heare such things; and he desired to see him.

10 ¶ And when the Apostles returned, they tolde him what great things they had done. 11 Then he tooke them to him, and went aside into a solitary place, nere to the cite called Bethsaida.

12 But when the people knewe it, they followed him: and he receiued them, and spake vnto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had neede to be healed.

13 And when the day began to wære away, the twelve came, and said vnto him, Send the people away, that they may goe into the towne and villages round about, and lodge, and get meate, for weare here in a desert place.

14 But he said vnto them, Giue ye them to eate. And they said, Wee haue no meate but five loaves and two fishes, 4 except we should goe and buy meate for all this people.

15 For they were about fise thousand men. Then hee said to his disciples, Cause them to sit downe by fifties in a company.

16 And they did so, and cruised all to sit downe.

17 Then he tooke the five loaves, and the two fishes, & looked vp to heauen, and blessed them, and brake, and gaue to the disciples, to set before the people.

18 So they did all eate, and were satisfied: and there was taken vp of that remained to them, twelve baskets full of broken meate.

19 ¶ And it came to passe, as hee was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

20 They answered, and said, Iohn Baptist: and others say, Elias: and some say, that one of the old Prophets is risen againe.

21 And he said vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answered, and said, That Christ of God.

22 And hee warned and commanded them, that they should tell that to no man.

23 Saying, The sonne of man must suffer many things, and be reprooued of the Elders, and of the hie Priests, and Scribes, and be slaine: and the third day rise againe.

24 ¶ And he said to them all, If any man will come after mee, let him denie himselfe, and take vp his crosse & daily, and follow me.

25 ¶ For whosoever will saue his life, shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall saue it.

27 ¶ For whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, of him shall the Sonne of man be ashamed, when hee shall come in his glorie, and in the glorie of the Father, and of the holy Angels.

28 ¶ And I tell you of a suretie, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the kingdom of God.

30 And another sayd, I haue married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

31 So that seruant returned, and shewed his master these things. Then was the goodman of the house angrie, and sayd to his seruant, Goe out quickly into the streets and lanes of the citie, and bring in hither the poore, & the maimed, and the halfe, and the blinde.

32 And the seruant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is roomie.

33 Then the master said to the seruant, Goe out into the hie wayes, and hedges, & compell them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

34 For I say vnto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

35 Now there went great multitudes with him, and he turned and sayd vnto them,

36 ¶ If any man come to me, and 4 hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters: yea, and his owne life also, he cannot be my discipule.

37 ¶ And whosoever beareth not his crosse, and cometh after me, cannot be my discipule.

38 For which of you minding to build a towre, 4 sitteth not downe before, and counteth the cost, whether he haue sufficient to performe it?

39 Left that after he hath layed the foundation, and is not able to performe it, all that beholde it, begin to mocke him,

40 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to make an end?

41 Or what king going to make warre against another King, sitteth not downe first, and taketh counsell, whether he be able with ten thousand, to meete him that cometh against him with twentie thousand?

42 Or els while he is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth peace.

43 So likewise, whosoever he be of you, that forsaketh not all that he hath, hee cannot be my discipule.

44 ¶ Salt is good: but if salt haue lost his saluour, wherewith shall it be salted?

45 It is neither meete for the land, nor yet for the dunghill, but men cast it out. Hee that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

CHAP. XV.

The parable of the lost sheepe, 8 Of the groate, 11 And of the prodigall sonne.

¶ Then I resorted vnto him 4 all the Publicanes and sinners, to heare him.

4 Therefore the Pharisees and Scribes murmured, saying, Here cometh this man, and eateth with them.

5 Then spake he this parable to them, saying,

6 ¶ What man of you hauing an hundred sheepe, if he lose one of them, doeth not leaue ninetie and nine in the wilderness, and goe after that which is lost, vntill he finde it?

7 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, and bringeth it home.

8 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying vnto them, I haue found my sheepe which was lost.

9 I say vnto you, that likewise ioy shall be in heauen for one sinner that conuerteth, more then for ninetie and nine iust men, which neede none amendment of life.

10 ¶ Either what woman hauing ten groates, if she lose one groate, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seeke diligently till she finde it?

11 ¶ And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends, and neighbours, saying, Reioyce with me: for I haue found the groate which I had lost.

12 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioy in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.

13 ¶ He said moreover, A certaine man had two sonnes.

14 And the younger of them sayd to his father, Father, giue me the portion of the goods that falleth to me. So he diuided vnto them his substance.

15 So not many dayes after, when the younger sonne had gathered all together, he tooke his journey into a farre country, and there he wasted his goods with riotous liuing.

16 Now when he had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessitie.

17 Then hee went and claued to a citizen of that country, and he sent him to his farme, to feede swine.

18 And he would faine haue filled his belly with the husks, that the swine ate: but no man gaue them him.

19 ¶ Then he came to himselfe, and said, How many hired seruants at my fathers haue bread ynough, and I die for hunger?

20 I will rise and go to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee,

21 And am now no more worthy to be called thy sonne: make me as one of thy hired seruants.

22 So he arose and came to his father, and when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion, and ranne and fell on his necke, and kissed him.

23 And the sonne said vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, and am now no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

24 Then the father sayd to his seruants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shooes on his feete,

25 And bring the fat calfe, and kill him, and let vs eate, and be merry:

26 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but he is found. And they began to be merry.

27 ¶ Now the elder brother was in the field, and when he came and drew neere to the house, he heard melodie, and dancing,

28 And called one of his seruants, and asked what those things meant.

29 And he sayde vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because he hath receiued him safe and sound.

30 Then he was angry, and would not goe in: therefore came his father out and entreated him.

31 But he answered and said to his father, Lo, these many yeeres haue I done thee seruaice, neither brake I at any time thy commandement, and yet thou neuer gauest mee a kiddie that I might make merry with my friends.

2 Men by their voluntary falling from God, haue spoiled themselves of the benefits which they receiued of him, call themselves headlong into sinners, but God of his singular goodness, offering himself freely to them, whom he called to repentance, through the mercies of their miserie wherewith they were ramed, doeth not only gently reclaim them, but also enricheth them with farr greater gifts, and blest them with the chiefe bliss.

3 The beginning of repentance is the acknowledging of the mercy of God, which sinners vs to hope well.

4 Against God, because he is said to dwell in heauen.

5 In true repentance there is a feeling of our sinnes, lorned with sorrow and shame, first when we sinners are conscious of our sin, after which followeth sorow, weill.

6 Such as truly fear God, desire to haue all men to be their fellowes.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pieces of money, and said vnto them, Occupie till I come.

14 Nowe his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not haue this man to reigne ouer vs.

15 And it came to passe, when he was come agayne, and had receiued his kingdom, that he commanded the seruants to be called to him, to whom he gaue his money, that hee might knowe what euery man had gained.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy piece hath encreased ten pieces.

17 And he said vnto him, Well, good seruant: because thou hast bene faithfull in a very litle thing, take thou authoritie ouer ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy piece hath encreased five pieces.

19 And to the same he said, Be thou also ruler ouer five cities.

20 So the other came, and said, Lord, behold thy piece, which I haue laid vp in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a strict man: thou takest vp that thou laydest not downe, and respect that thou diddest not fowe.

22 Then hee said vnto him, Of thine owne mouth will I iudge thee, O oull seruant. Thou knowest that I am a strict man, taking vp that I laid not downe, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore then gauest not thou my money into the banke, that at my coming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And hee said to them that stood by, Take from him that piece, and giue it him that hath ten pieces.

25 (And they said vnto him, Lord, he hath ten pieces.)

26 For I say vnto you, that vnto all them that haue, it shall be giuen: and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, shall be taken from him.

27 Moreover, those mine enemies, which would not that I should reigne ouer them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, he went fourth before, ascending vp to Hierusalem.

29 And it came to passe, when he was come neere to Bethphage, and Bethania, besides the mount which is called the mount of Oliues, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye to the towne which is before you, wherein as soone as ye are come, ye shall finde a colt tied, whereon neuer man fate: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man aske you, why ye loose him, thus shall ye say vnto him, Because the Lord hath neede of him.

32 So they that were sent, went their way, and found it as he had said vnto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof sayd vnto them, Why loose yee the colt?

34 And they sayde, The Lord hath neede of him.

35 So they brought him to Iesus, and they cast their garments on the colt, and set Iesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was now come neere to the going downe of the mount of Oliues, the whole multitude of the disciples began to reioyce, and to praise God with a loud voyce, for all the great works that they had seene, 38 Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the Name of the Lord: peace in heauen, and glory in the highest places.

39 Then some of the Pharisees of the company said vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 But he answered, and said vnto them, I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, the stones would cry.

41 And when hee was come neere, he beheld the Citie, and wept for it,

42 Saying, O if thou haddest euen knowne at the least in this ke day those things, which belong vnto thy peace! but now are they hid from thine eyes.

43 For the daies that come vpon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keepe thee in on euery side.

44 And shall make thee euen with the ground, and thy children which are in thee, and they shall not leaue in thee a stone vpon a stone, because thou knewest not what season of thy visitation.

45 He went also into the Temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought,

46 Saying vnto them, It is written, Mine house is the house of prayer, but yee haue made it a den of theues.

47 And hee taught daily in the Temple. And the hie Priests and the Scribes, and the chiefe of the people sought to destroy him.

48 But they could not finde what they might doe to him: for all the people hanged vpon him when they heard him.

CHAP. XX.

From whence Iohn baptisme was. The wickedness of the Priests is noted by the parable of the vineyard and the husbandmen. 31 To give tribute to Caesar. 37 Hee committeth the Sadducees draping the resurrection. 43 How Christ is the sonne of David.

And it came to passe, that on one of those dayes, as he taught the people in the Temple, and preached the Gospel, the hie Priests and the Scribes came vpon him, with the Elders,

2 And spake vnto him, saying, Tell vs by what authoritie thou doest these things, or who is hee that hath giuen thee this authoritie?

3 And he answered, and said vnto them, I also will aske you one thing: tell me therefore:

4 The baptisme of Iohn was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned within themselues, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will say, Why then beleuest ye him not?

6 But if we shall say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: for they be perswaded that Iohn was a Prophet.

7 Therefore they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 Then Iesus said vnto them, Neither tell I you, by what authoritie I doe these things.

9 Then began he to speake to the people this parable, A certaine man planted a vineyard,

8 When they liog to be the chiefe priests and teachers fourth of the kingdom of God, he will raise vp other exst: accordingly, in despite of them.

9 Christ is not simply delisted with the defractions, no not of the wicked.

10 Christ breaketh off his speech, which themselves nearly how he was moved with compassion for the destruction of the citie, that was like to refuse, and perily to upbraid them for their traditions and traditions against him, such as now highly hath bene heard of.

11 He had wile show, O how solemnly to whom his message was properly sent.

12 After the slaying of so many Prophets, and so after slaying the Lord of the Prophets, now especially in this my last coming to thee thou shalt find any regard to thy self.

13 The first and second times is called the day of this citie. 1 That is, whole things wherein thy happiness standeth, me that is, the very instant wherein God visited thee.

10 And when ye heare of warres and ſeditions, be not affrayd: for theſe things muſt firſt come, but the end followeth not by and by.

11 Then ſayd he vnto them, Nation ſhall riſe againſt nation, and kingdome againſt kingdome,

12 And great earthquakes ſhall be in diuers places, and hunger, and peſtilence, and fearefull things, & great ſignes ſhall there be from heauen.

13 But before al theſe, they ſhall lay their hands on you, and perſecute you, & deliuering you vp to the aſſembles, and into priſons, and bring you before kings and rulers for my Namesake.

14 And this ſhall turne to you, for a teſtimoniali.

15 Lay it vp therefore in your hearts, that ye caſt not before hand, what ye ſhall and ſhould.

16 For I will giue you a mouth and wiſdome, whereagainſt all your aduerſaries ſhall not be able to ſpeake nor reſiſt.

17 Yea, ye ſhall be betrayed alſo of your parents, and of your brethren, and kinſmen, and friends, and ſome of you ſhall they put to death.

18 And ye ſhall be hated of all men for my Names ſake.

19 Yet there ſhall not one haire of your heads periſh.

20 By your patience & poſſeſſe your ſoules.

21 And when ye ſee Hieruſalem beſieged with ſouldiers, then vnderſtand that the deſolation thereof is neere.

22 Then let them which are in Iudea, flee to the mountaines: and let them which are in the middes thereof, depart out and let not them that are in the country, enter therein.

23 For theſe be the dayes of vengeance, to fill all things that are written.

24 But wee be to them that be with child, and to them that giue ſucke in thoſe dayes: for there ſhall be great diſtreſſe in this land, and wrath ouer this people.

25 And they ſhall fall on the ſedge of the ſword, and ſhall be captiue into all nations, and Hieruſalem ſhall be troden vnder foot of the Gentiles, vntill the time of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

26 * Then there ſhall be ſignes in the ſunne, and in the moone, and in the ſtarrs, and vpon the earth trouble among the nations with perplexitie: the ſea and the waters ſhall roare.

27 And mens hearts ſhall faile them for feare, and for looking after thoſe things which ſhall come on the world: for the powers of heauen ſhall be ſhaken.

28 And then ſhall they ſee the Sonne of man come in a cloud, with power and great glory.

29 And when theſe things beginne to come to paſſe, then looke vp, and lift vp your heads: for your redemption draweth neere.

30 * And he ſpake to them a parable, Behold, the figtree, and all trees, 31 When they now ſhoot forth, ye ſeeing them, know of your owne ſeſues, that ſummer is then neere.

32 So likewiſe ye, when ye ſee theſe things come to paſſe, know ye that the kingdome of God is neere.

33 Verily I ſay vnto you, This age ſhall not paſſe, till theſe things be done:

34 Heauen and earth ſhall paſſe away, but my words ſhall not paſſe away

35 Take heed to your ſeſues, left at any time your hearts be oppreſſed with ſurfeiting and drunkenneſſe, and cares of this life, and leſt that day come on you at vnwares.

36 For as a ſnare ſhall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

37 Watch therefore, and pray continually, that ye may be counted worthy to eſcape all theſe things that ſhall come to paſſe, and that ye may ſtand before the ſonne of man.

38 ¶ Now in the day time he taught in the Temple, and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mountes of Oliues.

39 And all the people came in the morning to him, to heare him in the Temple.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Judas ſelleth Chriſt. 2 The Apoſtles prepare the Paſſeouer.

3 Chriſt ſheweth that they wanted nothing. 4 He prayeth in the mount. 5 He ſweateth blood. 6 Judas carieth out and beheadeth. 7, 8, 9 Peter denieth Chriſt three times. 10 Chriſt is mocked and ſcourged. 11 He conſtituteth himſelf to be the Sonne of God.

12 ¶ Ow & the feaſt of vnleavened bread drew neere, which is called the Paſſeouer, 13 And the hie Prielts and Scribes fought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

14 ¶ Then entered Satan into Iudas who was called Iſcariot, and was of the number of the twelue.

15 And he went his way, and communed with the hie Prielts and captains, how he might betray him to them.

16 So they were glad, and agreed to giue him money.

17 And he conſented, and ſought opportunity to betray him vnto them; when the people were abaway.

18 ¶ ¶ Then came the day of vnleavened bread, when the Paſſeouer muſt be ſacrificed.

19 And the ſcſt Peter and Iohn, ſaying, Go and prepare vs the Paſſeouer that we may eat it.

20 And they ſaid to him, Where wilt thou, that we prepare it?

21 Then he ſaid vnto them, Behold, when ye be entered into the citie, there ſhall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water: follow him into the houſe that he entereth in.

22 And ſay vnto the good man of the houſe, The Maſter ſaith vnto thee, Where is the lodging where I ſhall eat my Paſſeouer with my diſciples?

23 Then he ſhall ſhew you a great hie chamber trimmed: there make it ready.

24 So they went, and found as he had ſayd vnto them, and made ready the Paſſeouer.

25 ¶ And when the hie hour was come, he ſate downe, and the twelue Apoſtles with him.

26 Then he ſayd vnto them, I haue earneſtly deſired to eat this Paſſeouer with you, before I ſuffer.

27 For I ſay vnto you, Henceforth I will not eat of it any more, vntill it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God.

28 And he tooke the cup, and gaue thanks, and ſayd, Take this, and diuide it among you:

29 For I ſay vnto you, I will not drinke of the fruit of the vine, vntill the kingdome of God be come.

30 ¶ ¶ Chriſt hauing ended the Paſſeouer according to the order of the Law, ſo ſwearth them that this ſhall be his laſt ſupper with them, alters the water and neceſſitie of this life. ¶ The evening and twilight, at which time the ſupper was to be had. ¶ I am paſt to death.

20 Likewise also after supper he tooke the cup, saying, This cup is that new Testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ Yet behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me at the table.

22 And truly the Sonne of man goeth as it is appointed: but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed.

23 Then they began to inquire among themselves, which of them it should be, that should do that.

24 ¶ And there arose also a strife among them, which of them should seeme to be the greatest.

25 But he sayd vnto them, The Kings of the Gentiles reigne ouer them, and they that beare rule ouer them, are called hountifull.

26 But ye shall not be so: but let the greatest among you be as the least: and the chiefeest as he that serueth.

27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or he that serueth? Is not he that sitteth at table? And am I among you as he that serueth.

28 And ye are they which haue continued with me in my tentations.

29 Therefore I appoint vnto you a kingdome, as my Father hath appointed vnto me,

30 That ye may eate, and drinke at my table, in my kingdome, and sit on seates, and iudge the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord sayd, Simon, Simon, behold, ¶ Satan hath desired you, I to winnow you as wheat.

32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith faile not: therefore when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 ¶ And he said vnto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee into prison, and to death.

34 But he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shall not crow this day, before thou hast thrice denied that thou knowest me.

35 ¶ And he said vnto them, ¶ When I sent you without bagge, and scrip, and shooes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 ¶ Then he said to them, But now he that hath a bagge, let him take it, and likewise a scrip: and he that hath none, let him sel his coate, and buy a sword.

37 For I say vnto you, That yet the same which is written, must be performed in me, ¶ Euen with the wicked was he numbered: for doubtlesse those things which are written of me, haue an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said vnto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went (as he was wont) to the mount of Olives: and his disciples also followed him.

40 ¶ And when he came to the place, hee sayd to them, Pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

41 ¶ And he was drawn aside from them about a stones cast, & kneeled downe, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this cuppe from me: neuertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an Angel vnto him from heauen, comforting him.

44 But being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was like drops of blood, trickling downe to the ground.

45 ¶ And he rose vp from prayer, and came to his disciples, & found them sleeping for heaviness.

46 And he said vnto them, Why sleepe ye yet? and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, behold, a company, and he that was called Iudas one of the twelve, went before them, and came neere vnto Iesus to kisse him.

48 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Iudas, betrayest thou the Sonne of man with a kisse?

49 ¶ Now when they which were about him, saw what would follow, they said vnto him, Lord, shal we smite with the sword?

50 And one of them smote a servant of the high Priest, and strook off his right eare.

51 Then Iesus answered, and said, Suffer them thus farre: and he touched his eare, & healed him.

52 ¶ Then Iesus said vnto the high Priests, and captains of the Temple, and the Elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as vnto a thiefe with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the Temple, ye stretched not forth the hands against me: but this is your very houre, & the power of darkness.

54 ¶ Then tooke they him, and led him, and brought him to the high Priests house.

55 ¶ And Peter followed after off.

56 ¶ And when they had kindled a fire in the middes of the hall, and were set downe together, Peter also sat downe among them.

57 And a certaine mayd beheld him as he sat by the fire, and hauing well looked on him, said, This man was also with him.

58 But he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

59 And after a little while, another man saw him, and sayd, Thou art also of them, Eue Peter sayd, Man, I am not.

60 And about the space of an houre after, a certaine other affirmed, saying, Verily, euen this man was with him: for he is also a Galilean.

61 And Peter sayd, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediatly while he yet spake, the cocke crew.

62 Then the Lord turned backe, and looked vpon Peter: and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had sayd vnto him, ¶ Before the cocke crow, thou shalt denie me thrise.

63 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

64 ¶ And the men that held Iesus, mocked him, and strooke him.

65 And after a little while, another man saw him, and sayd, Thou art also of them, Eue Peter sayd, Man, I am not.

C H A P. XXIII.

¶ He is accused before Pilate. 7. He is sent to Herode. 11. He is mocked. 24. Pilate yieldeth him up to the Iewes request. 27. The women bewaile him. 33. He is crucified. 39. One of the thieves reuileth him. 43. The other is saued by faith. 45. He dieth. 53. He is buried.

¶ Then the whole multitude of them arose, and led him vnto Pilate.

1 And they began to accuse him, saying, We haue found this man peruerting the nation, and forbidding to pay tribute to Cesar, saying, That he is Christ a King.

2 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And he answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

3 Then said Pilate to the hie Priests, and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.

4 But they were the more fierce, saying, Hee moueth the people, teaching throughout all Iudea, beginning at Galilee, euen to this place.

5 ¶ Now when Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

6 And when he knew that he was of b Herods iurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, which was also at Hierusalem in those dayes.

7 And when Herod saw Iesus, he was exceedingly glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him, and trusted to haue seene some signe done by him.

8 Then questioned hee with him of many things: but he answered him nothing.

9 To the hie Priests also and Scribes stoode foorth and accused him vehemently.

10 And Herod with his men of warre, despised him, and mocked him, and arrayed him in white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

11 ¶ And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

12 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priests, and the rulers, and the people,

13 ¶ And said vnto them, Ye haue brought this man vnto me, as one that peruerth the people: and beholde, I haue examined him before you, and haue found no fault in this man, of those things whereof ye accuse him:

14 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him:

15 And hee hath done nothing against you. ¶ Christ is quite the contrarye of him of whom hee is condemned, that it might appeare, how hee is redeemed vs which were vnjust. d Those whom the Iewes called and loe, nothing worthy of death is done of him.

16 ¶ I will therefore chastise him, and let him loofe.

17 (For of necessitie hee must haue let one loofe vnto them at the feall.)

18 Then all the multitude cried at once, saying, Away with him, and deliuer vnto vs Barabbas:

19 Which for a certaine insurrection made in the citie, and murder, was cast in prison.

20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus loofe.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him.

22 ¶ And he said vnto them the third time, But what euill hath hee done? I finde no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him loofe.

23 But they were instant with loud voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voyces of them and of the hie Priests preuailed.

24 So Pilate gaue sentence, that it should be as they required.

25 And hee let loofe vnto them him that for insurrection and murder was cast into prison, whom they desired, and deliuered Iesus to doe with him which they would.

26 ¶ ¶ 7 And as they ledde him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, coming out of the field, and on him they laid the crosse, to beare it after Iesus.

27 ¶ And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women, which women bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Iesus turned backe vnto them, and said, Daughters of Hierusalem, weepe not for me, but weepe for your selues, and for your children.

29 For behold, the dayes will come, when men shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombes that neuer bare, and the pappes which neuer gaue sucke.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountaines, & Fall on vs: and to the hilles, Couer vs:

31 ¶ For if they doe these things to a greene tree, what shall be done to the drie?

32 ¶ And there were two others, which were euill doers, led with him to be saine.

33 ¶ And when they were come to the place which is called Caluarie, there they crucified him, and the euill doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

34 ¶ Then said Iesus, Father, forgive them: for they knowe not what they doe. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood, and beheld: and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, Hee saued others: let him saue himselfe, if he be that Christ, the Chosen of God.

36 The souldiers also mocked him, and came and offered him vineger, 37 And said, If thou be the King of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.

38 ¶ And a superscription was also written on him, in Greeke letters, and in Latin, and in Hebrew, THIS IS THAT KING OF THE IEWES.

39 ¶ ¶ 8 And ¶ 12 one of the euill doers, which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou beest that Christ, saue thy selfe and vs.

40 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, Fearest thou not God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

¶ The wisdoms of the flesh, of two euils chuseth the lesse, but God curseth such counsels.

19 Then Nathanel sayde vnto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip said to him, Come, and see.

20 Iesus saw Nathanel coming to him, and sayd of him, Behold in deede an Israelite, in whom is no guile.

21 Nathanel sayd vnto him, Whence knewest thou me? Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast vnder the figge tree, I saw thee.

22 Nathanel answered, and sayd vnto him, Rabbi, thou art that Sonne of God: thou art that King of Israel.

23 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, Because I sayd vnto thee, I saw thee vnder the figge tree, beleeuest thou? thou shalt see greater things then these.

24 And he sayd vnto him, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Hereafter shal ye see heauen open, and the Angles of God shal ascende and descend vpon that Sonne of man.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ with water was wine, 11 which was the beginning of his miracles. 12 He goeth down to Capernaum: 13 from thence he goeth vnto Jerusalem, 14 and casteth the merchants out of the Temple, 15 He foretelleth that the Temple, that is, his body shalbe destroyed of the Iewes. 16 Many beleeue in him, seeing the miracles which he did.

And the third day, was there a mariage in Cana a towne of Galile, and the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his disciples vnto the marriage.

3 Now when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus said vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus sayd vnto her, Woman, what haue I to doe with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother sayd vnto the seruants, Whatsoeuer he saith vnto you, doe it.

6 And there were set there, sixe c waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Iewes, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 And Iesus sayd vnto them, Fill the waterpots with water. Then they filled them vp to the brimme.

8 Then he sayd vnto them, Draw out now, and beare vnto the gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

9 Now when the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, (for hee knew not whence it was, but the seruants, which drew the water, knew) the gouernour of the feast called the bridegrome,

10 And said vnto him, All men at the beginning fed foorth good wine, and when men haue well drunke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntill now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Iesus in Cana a towne of Galile, and shewed forth his glorie: and his disciples beleeued on him.

12 After that, he went downe into Capernaum, and his mother, and his brethren, & his disciples: but they continued not many dayes there.

13 For the Iewes Pascheur was at hand. Therefore Iesus went vp to Hierusalem.

14 And he found in the Temple those that sold oxen, and sheepe, and doves, and changers of money sitting there.

15 Then he made a searge of small cordes, and draue them all out of the Temple with the sheepe and oxen, and powdered out the changers money, and ouerthrew their tables.

16 And sayd vnto them that sold doves, Take these things hence: make not my fathers house, an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered, that it was written, The Zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and sayd vnto him, What? signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered and sayd vnto them, & Destroy this Temple, and in three dayes I will rayfe it vp againe.

20 Then said the Iewes, Fourtie and six yeres was this Temple a building, and wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes?

21 But he spake of the temple of his body.

22 As soone therefore as hee was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that hee thus said vnto them: and they beleeued the Scripture, and the word which Iesus had said.

23 Nowe when he was at Hierusalem at the Pascheur in y feast, many beleeued in his Name, when they saw his miracles which he did.

24 But Iesus did not committ himselfe vnto them because he knew them all,

25 For he knewe no neede that any should testifie of man, for he knewe that was in man.

26 He saith also, It is not good crediting them, which stand only vpon miracles. 27 Christ is the searcher of hearts, and therefore true God.

CHAP. III.

1 Christ teacheth Nicodemus the very principles of Christian regeneration. 2 The serpent in the wilderness. 3 Iohn baptizeth, 7 and teacheth vs, that he was Christ.

Here was now a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Iewes.

2 This man came to Iesus by night, and sayd vnto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God, for no man could doe these miracles that thou doest, except God were with him.

3 Iesus answered and sayd vnto him, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, Except a man be borne againe, he cannot see the kingdome of God.

4 Nicodemus said vnto him, How can a man be borne which is old? can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

5 Iesus answered, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except that a man be borne of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdome of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is a flesh: and that that is borne of the Spirit, is spirit.

7 Maruaile not that I sayd to thee, Ye must be borne againe.

8 The winde bloweth where it listeth, and that we knowe our selues not onely to be corrupt in part, but to be wholly dead in sinne: so that our nature hath neede to be created anew, as touching the quality thereof, which can be done by no other vertue, but by the diuine and heavenly, whereby we were first created. That is, in our nature, he expounds himselfe afterward, vnto vs. The Church: for Christ sheweth in this place, how we come to be citizens, and so haue ought to doe to the city of God. How can it that an old man be borne against the flesh? Iesus sayd, that hee was borne against the flesh, and therefore the word of the Spirit is the new nature of man: contrary to which is the corruption of the flesh, and therefore the Spirit is borne in the grace of the holy Ghost, which nature is everlasting and immortal, though the flesh remaineth, is still free and wandering blis, as is light,

3 The secret mystorie of our regeneration which cannot be com-prehended by mans capacitee,
is perceived by faith,
and that in Christ
only, because that he is both God on earth, and man in heaven, that is to say, in such sort man, that he is God also; & therefore almighty; and in such sort God,
that he is man also, and the elerhis power is manifest unto vs.

4 You should doubt-full things, and such as you have no certaine assurance for,
and yet men beleue
you: but I teach such things, that are of faith, and well known, & you beleue me not.

5 Only Christ can teach vs heavenly things, for no man
ascendeth thither.

6 That is, hath any priviledge to shew us things, that are understanding, or ever had, but only that Sonne of God, which came down
to vs.

7 Whereas he is said to have come down from heaven, that must be understood of his Godhead, and of the manner of his consecration: for Christ his birth upon the earth was heavenly,
and not earthly,
for he was conceived by the holy Ghost.

8 That which is proper to the di-mities of Christ, is here broken of whole Christ, & given, vs to understand that he is but one person, wherein two natures are united, and this kind of speech men call, the communicating of properties.

9 Iohn 4. 9. 5
Nothing els but the free love of the Father, is the beginning of our salvation, and Christ is he in whom wee righteousness and salvation have obtained: and faith is the instrument or means whereby we apprehend it, and life everlasting is that which is free before vs to apprehend. 6 It must not be believe in a thing, and to believe of a thing: for we may not believe (in any thing) save only in God, but we may believe (of any thing) what heere, that Iohn Nazarenus in his oration of the Spirit. 7 Chap. 3. 9. and 13. 47. 6 Not Christ, but the describing of Christ doth condemn. 7 That is, to be the cause of the condemnation of the world, for in these times are the cause of death, but Christ shall bring the quickness and the life. 8 Not only the people of the Jewes, but whosoever shall believe in him. 9 Chap. 1. 9. 7 Only wickedness is the cause, by men refuse the light that is offered them.

10 That is, the cause of condemnation, which flieth off men, turne toward God: for he that is delinquent, that is, that is a teacher, is howe left, and void of all craft and deceit. 1 That is, with God, God as it were going before. 2 Chap. 1. 8 Satan in Iohn the disciples of Iohn with a fond emulation of his master, to hinder the course of the Gospel: but Iohn believing mindfull of his office, doe he not only break off their envious, but also re-bath occasion thereby to give testimony of Christ, how that in him only the Father hath set forth life everlasting. 9 Chap. 1. 34.

11 Nicodemus answered, and said vnto him,
How can these things be?

12 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and knowest not these things?

13 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, We speake that we know, and testifie that we have seene:
but ye receive not our witness.

14 If when I tell you earthly things, ye beleeue not, how should ye beleeue, if I shall tell you of heavenly things?

15 For no man ascendeth vp to heaven, but he that hath descended from heaven, is that Sonne of man which is in heaven.

16 And as Moses lift vp the serpent in the wildernes, so must that Sonne of man be lift vp.

17 That whosoever beleeueth in him, should not perish, but have eternal life.

18 For God so loved the world, that he hath given his only begotten Sonne, that whosoever beleeueth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life.

19 For God sent not his Sonne into the world, that he should condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved.

20 He that beleeueth in him, is not condemned: but he that beleeueth not, is condemned already, because he hath not beleeued in the Name of that only begotten Sonne of God.

21 And this is the condemnation, that light came into the world, and men loved darkenes rather than light, because their deeds were euill.

22 For every man that euill doeth, hateth the light, neither cometh to light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

23 But he that doth truth, cometh to the light, that his deeds might be made manifest, that they are wrought according to God.

24 After these things came Iesus and his disciples into the land of Iudea, and there tarried with them, & baptized.

25 And Iohn also baptized in Enon besides Salem, because there was much water there: and they came and were baptized.

26 For Iohn was not yet cast into prison.

27 Then there arose a question betwene
Iohns disciples and the Jewes, about purifying.

28 And they came vnto Iohn, and sayd vnto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Iordan, to whom thou barest witnesseth, behold, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whether it goeth: so is every man that is borne of the Spirit.

27 Iohn answered, & said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye your selves are my witnesses, that I said, I am not that Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride, is the bridegrome:
but the friend of the bridegrome, which standeth and heareth him, reioyceth greatly, because of the bridegromes voyce. This my ioy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that is come from an hee, is above all: he that is of the earth, is of the earth, and speaketh of the earth: he that is come from heaven, is above all.

32 And what he hath seene & heard, that he testifieth: but no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony, hath sealed that God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God: for God giueth him not the Spirit by measure.

35 The Father loueth the Sonne, and hath given all things into his hand.

36 He that beleeueth in the Sonne, hath everlasting life, & he that obeyeth not the Sonne, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

C H A P. IIII.

Iesus bringeth water, & maketh drink of the woman of Samaria.
1 He teacheth the true worship. 2 He saith that he is the Messiah. 3 He saith, 30 The Samaritans in herem in him. 40 He beareth the rulers sonne.

Now when the Lord knew, how the Pharisae had heard, that Iesus made & baptized moe disciples then Iohn.

3 (Though Iesus himselfe baptized not: but his disciples)

3 He left Iudea, and departed againe into Galilee.

4 And he must needs goe thorow Samaria:
5 Then came he to a cite of Samaria called Sychar, neere vnto the possession that Jacob gave to his sonne Ioseph.

6 And there was Jacobs well. Iesus then wa-ried in the iourney, sare 3 thus on the well: it was about the 6th houre.

7 There came a woman of Samaria to draw water. Iesus said vnto her, Giue me drinke.

8 For his disciples were gone away into the cite, to buy meate:

9 Then sayd the woman of Samaria vnto him, How is it, that thou being a Jew, askest drinke of me, which am a woman of Samaria?

For the Jewes & meddle not with the Samaritanes.

10 Iesus answered and sayd vnto her, If thou knowest 4 that gift of God, and who is it that sayeth to thee, Giue me drinke, thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would haue giuen thee water of life.

11 The woman sayd vnto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?

12 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gave vs the well, and he himselfe dranke

11 What manner is that gift of God, that I knowest not?
12 How is it that thou being a Jew, askest drinke of me, which am a woman of Samaria?

13 For the Jewes & meddle not with the Samaritanes.

14 Iesus answered and sayd vnto
her, If thou knowest 4 that gift of God, and who is it that sayeth to thee,
Giue me drinke,
thou wouldest
have asked of him, and he would haue
giuen thee
water of life.

15 The woman
sayd vnto him,
Sir, thou hast
nothing to draw with, and the well is deepe:
from whence then hast thou that water of life?

16 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gave vs
the well, and he himselfe

17 Iesus answered
and sayd vnto
her, Thou art right, for thou sayest, I know not: for the gift of God, and
who is it that
sayeth to thee,
Giue me drinke,
thou wouldest
have asked of
him, and he would haue
giuen thee
water of life.

gift of God, and
who is it that
sayeth to thee,
Giue me drinke,
thou wouldest
have asked of
him, and he would haue
giuen thee
water of life.

thereof, and his sonnes, and his caries.

13 Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water, shall thirst againe:

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall giue him, shall neuer be more athirst: but the water that I shall giue him, shall bee in him a well of water, springing vp into euerslasting life.

15 The woman said vnto him, Sir, giue me of that water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to draw.

16 Iesus sayd vnto her, Go, call thine husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I haue no husband. Iesus said vnto her, Thou hast well sayd, I haue no husband.

18 For thou hast had siue husbands, and hee whom thou nowest hast, is not thine husband: that saydest thou truly.

19 The woman said vnto him, Sir, I see that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and yee say, that in Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, beleue me, the houre commeth, when yee shall neither in this mountaine, nor at Hierusalem worship the Father.

22 Ye worship that which yee know not: we worship that which we know: for saluation is of the Iewes,

23 But the houre commeth, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit, and in truth: for the Father requireth such to worship him.

24 God is a spirit, and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman said vnto him, I know wel that Messias shall come which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell vs all things.

26 Iesus said vnto her, I am he, that speake vnto thee.

27 And vpon that, came his disciples, and manueled that he talked with a woman: yet no man sayd vnto him, What alkest thou? or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the cite, and said to the men,

29 Come, see a man which hath tolde mee all things that euer I did: is not he that Christ?

30 Then they went out of the cite, and came vnto him.

31 In the meane while, the disciples prayed him, saying, Master, cate.

32 But he saide vnto them, I haue meate to cate that ye know not of.

33 Then sayde the disciples betwene themselves, Hath any man brought him meate?

34 Iesus sayde vnto them, My meate is that I may doe the will of him that sent mee, and finish his worke.

35 Say not ye, There are yet foure monthes, and then cometh harvest? Beholke, I say vnto you, Lift vp your eyes, and looke on the regions: for they are white alreadie vnto harvest.

36 And hee that reapeth, receiueeth reward, and gathereth fruite vnto life eterna. That both he that soweth, and he that reapeth might reioyce together.

37 For the sowing of the Gospel, as the sower, and there is an excellent promise of the fruit, and the ministration of them both.

37 For herein is the saying true, that our sower is that promise, and another reapech.

38 I sent you to reape that, whereon yee beflowed no labour: other men laboured, and yee are entred into their labours.

39 Now many of the Samaritanes of that cite beleueed in him, for the saying of the woman which testified, He hath tolde me all things that euer I did.

40 Then when the Samaritanes were come vnto him, they besought him, that hee would carrie with them: and he abode there two dayes.

41 And many more beleueed because of his owne word.

42 And they sayd vnto the woman, Now we beleuee, not because of thy saying: for wee haue heard him our selues, and know that this is in deed that Christ the Sauour of the world.

43 So two dayes after he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For Iesus himselfe had testified, that a Prophet hath no honour in his owne country.

45 Then when hee was come into Galilee, the Galileans receiued him, which had seene all the things that he did at Hierusalem at the feast: for they went also to the feast.

46 And Iesus came againe into Cana a towne of Galilee, where hee had made of water wine. And there was a certaine ruler, whose sonne was sicke at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Iesus was come out of Iudea into Galilee, hee went vnto him, and besought him that he would goe downe, and heale his sonne: for he was euen readie to die.

48 Then sayd Iesus vnto him, Except yee see signes and wonders, ye will not beleuee.

49 The ruler sayde vnto him, Sir, goe downe before my sonne die.

50 Iesus sayd vnto him, Goe thy way, thy sonne liueth: and the man beleueed the word that Iesus had spoken vnto him, and went his way.

51 And as he was now goinge downe, his seruantes met him, saying, Thy sonne liueth.

52 Then enquired he of them the houre when he began to amend. And they sayd vnto him, Yesterday the seuenth houre the feuer left him.

53 Then the father knew, that it was the same houre in the which Iesus had sayd vnto him, Thy sonne liueth. And he beleueed, & all his household.

54 This second miracle did Iesus againe, after he was come out of Iudea into Galilee.

2 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blind, halt, and withered, waiting for the moouing of the water.

3 For an Angell went downe at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoever then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

1 There is no difference in old, which Christ cannot heale. 2 Whereof testifies drinke, and vnto be plunged in, whereof there could not be but great cure at Hierusalem. 3 That is to say, the house of pouring out, because great store of water was poured out into that place.

16 Iesus answered them, and sayd,* My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my selfe.

18 He that speaketh of himselfe, seeketh his owne glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no vniueitousnesse is in him.

19 ¶ Did not Moses giue you a Law, and yet none of you keepeth the Law? 4 Why goe ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered, and sayd, Thou hast a deuil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Iesus answered, and sayd to them; I haue done one worke, and ye all maruaile.

22 ¶ Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers) and yee on the Sabbath day circumsise a man.

23 If a man on the Sabbath receiue circumcision, that the Law of Moses should not be broken, he ye angry with me, because I haue made a man euery whit whole on the Sabbath day?

26 And behold, he speaketh openly, and they say nothing to him: doe the rulers know in deed that this is in deed that Christ?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when that Christ cometh, no man shall know whence he is.

28 ¶ Then cried Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and know whence I am: yet I am not come of my selfe, but he that sent me, is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him, but no man layd hands on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Now many of the people beleued in him, and said, When that Christ cometh, will he doe moe miracles then this man hath done?

32 ¶ The Pharisees heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharisees, and high Priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Iesus vnto them, Yet am I a little while ¶ you, and then go I vnto him that sent me.

34 ¶ Ye shall seeke me, and shall not find me, and where I am, can ye not come.

35 Then sayd the Iewes among themselves, Whither will he goe, that we shall not find him? Will he go vnto them that are ¶ dispersed among the Grecians, and teach the Grecians?

36 What saying is this that he sayd, Ye shall seeke me, and shall not find me? and where I am, can ye not come?

37 ¶ Now in the last and ¶ great day of the feast, Iesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto me, and drinke.

38 He that belieueth in me, ¶ as sayth the Scripture, out of his belly shall flowe riuers of water of life.

39 ¶ This spake he of the Spirit which they that beleued in him, should receiue: for the Holy Ghost was not yet giuen, because that Iesus was not yet ¶ glorified.)

40 ¶ So many of the people, when they heard this saying, sayd, ¶ So fa a trueth this is that Prophet.

41 Other sayd, ¶ This is that Christ: and some sayd, But shall that Christ come out of Galilee?

42 ¶ Saith not the Scripture that that Christ shall come of the stede of Dauid, and out of the towne of Bethleem, where Dauid was?

43 So was there dissenion among the people for him.

44 And some of them would haue taken him; but no man layd hands on him?

45 ¶ Then came the officers of the hie Priests and Pharisees, and they sayd vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him.

46 The officers answered, Neuer man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, ¶ Are ye also deceiued?

48 ¶ Doeth any of the rulers, or of the Pharisees beleue in him?

49 But this people, which know not the Law, are cursed.

50 Nicodemus said vnto them, ¶ He that came to Iesus by night, and was one of them.)

51 Doth our Law iudge a man before it heare him, ¶ and know ¶ what he hath done?

52 They answered, and said vnto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search and looke: for out of Galileeareth no Prophet.

53 ¶ And euery man went vnto his owne houle.

¶ The glory of the only begotten. 16 There is contention euen in the Church it selfe about the chiefe point of religion: neither hath Christ any more cruell enemies then those that occupie the seare of trueth yet can they not dy what they would. ¶ 17 God, from heauen descended such as he has louest enemies. 18 False Pallours are in sound and faithfull, that they esteeme the Church of God according to the multitude and outwarde shew.

CHAP. VIII.

¶ The woman taken in adulterie, 11 hath her sinnes forgiven her. 22 Christ the light of the world. 19 The Pharisees aske where his Father is. 39 The sinnes of Abraham. 43 The sinnes of God. 44 The deuil the father of lying. 56 Abraham saw Christ's day.

¶ And Iesus went vnto the mount of Oliues.

¶ 2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, and all the people came vnto him, and he fate downe and taught them.

¶ 3 Then the Scribes and the Pharisees brought vnto him a woman taken in adulterie, and set her in the middes.

¶ 4 And said vnto him, Master, we found this woman committing adulterie, euen in the very act.

¶ 5 ¶ Now Moses in our Law commanded that such should be stoned: what saiest thou thereto?

¶ 6 And they this said to tempt him, that they might haue whereof to accuse him. But Iesus stooped downe, & with his finger wrote on his ground.

¶ 7 ¶ And while they continued asking him, he lift himselfe vp, and sayd vnto them, ¶ Let him that is among you without sinne, call the firste stone.

¶ And againe he wrote on the ground.

15 There are two principles of our nature: the first is to be thoroughly rooted with a true feeling of our extreme pouertie to the other, to teache in Christ only (whom we should hold on by faith) the abundance of all good things. ¶ The last day of the feast of Tabernacles that was eight dayes, was such a day as was ¶ 16. ¶ 17. ¶ 18. ¶ 19. ¶ 20. ¶ 21. ¶ 22. ¶ 23. ¶ 24. ¶ 25. ¶ 26. ¶ 27. ¶ 28. ¶ 29. ¶ 30. ¶ 31. ¶ 32. ¶ 33. ¶ 34. ¶ 35. ¶ 36. ¶ 37. ¶ 38. ¶ 39. ¶ 40. ¶ 41. ¶ 42. ¶ 43. ¶ 44. ¶ 45. ¶ 46. ¶ 47. ¶ 48. ¶ 49. ¶ 50. ¶ 51. ¶ 52. ¶ 53. ¶ 54. ¶ 55. ¶ 56. ¶ 57. ¶ 58. ¶ 59. ¶ 60. ¶ 61. ¶ 62. ¶ 63. ¶ 64. ¶ 65. ¶ 66. ¶ 67. ¶ 68. ¶ 69. ¶ 70. ¶ 71. ¶ 72. ¶ 73. ¶ 74. ¶ 75. ¶ 76. ¶ 77. ¶ 78. ¶ 79. ¶ 80. ¶ 81. ¶ 82. ¶ 83. ¶ 84. ¶ 85. ¶ 86. ¶ 87. ¶ 88. ¶ 89. ¶ 90. ¶ 91. ¶ 92. ¶ 93. ¶ 94. ¶ 95. ¶ 96. ¶ 97. ¶ 98. ¶ 99. ¶ 100.

grouping, in that place he said
witness of his selfe to the testimony of his hearers, which acknowledged him to be the Son of God, and therefore he was committed they should believe by his own witness, which is more otherwise confirmed. But in this place he speaks for the testimony of his Godhead, and professes his Father, who is his witness, and agrees with him.

was first place appointed for the gathering of the offering. 9. We live and die at the pleasure of God and not of men. Therefore this teaching, which is the good toward constantly in our relation. 10. Because that men do naturally abhorre heavenly things, no man can be a disciple of Christ, unless he spile the spirit of God from him. 11. In the mean season notwithstanding, the world hath of necessity perished, because it refuseth the life that is offered by Christ. 12. He that I teach know who Christ is, which will diligently hear, what he saith. 13. That is, I am Christ, and the Father, for I tell you from the beginning that I was. 14. God is the author of Christ's doctrine depicted. 15. Then the contempt of Christ maketh for his glory, which thing his enemies shall see at length to their great shame.

that I was.

14. God is the author of Christ's doctrine depicted.

15. Then the contempt of Christ maketh for his glory, which thing his enemies shall see at length to their great shame.

8. And againe he stomped downe, and wrote on the ground.

9. And when they heard it, being accused by their own conscience, they went out, one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to I last, so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the mids.

10. When Iesus had lift vp himselfe againe, and sawe no man, but the woman; he sayd vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11. She said, No man, Lord. And Iesus said, Neither do I condemne thee: go and sinne no more.

12. Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying, I am that light of the world: he that followed me, shall not walke in darkenes, but shall haue that light of life.

13. The Pharisees therefore sayd vnto him; Thou bearest record of thy selfe: thy record is not true.

14. Iesus answered, & said vnto the, Though
I beare record of my selfe, yet my record is true:
I know whence I came, and whither I goe: but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I goe.

15. Ye iudge after the flesh: I iudge no man.

16. And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true, for I am not alone, but I, and the Father, that sent me.

17. And it is also written in your Law, that the testimonie of two men is true.

18. I am one that beare witness of my selfe, and the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me.

19. Then sayd they vnto him, Where is that Father of thine? Iesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor the Father of mine: If ye had known me, ye should haue known that Father of mine also.

20. These words spake Iesus in the temple, as he taught in the temple, and no man layd hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21. Then sayd Iesus againe vnto them, I goe my way, and ye shall seeke me, & shall die in your finnes. Whither I goe, can ye not come.

22. Then said the Iewes, Will he kill himselfe, because he saith, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

23. And he sayd vnto them, Ye are from beneath, I am from above: ye are of this world, I am not of this world.

24. I said therefore vnto you, That ye shall die in your finnes: for except ye beleuee, that I am he, ye shall die in your finnes.

25. Then sayd they vnto him, Who art thou?
And Iesus sayd vnto them, Euen (the same thing that I sayd vnto you from the beginning.

26. I have many things to say, and to iudge of you: but he that sent me, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those spake I to the world.

27. They vnderstood not that hee spake to them of the Father.

28. Then said Iesus vnto them, When ye haue lift vp the Sonne of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of my selfe, but as the Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29. For he that sent me, is with mee: the Father hath not left me alone, because I do alwaies those things that please him.

30. As he spake these things, many beleued in him.

31. Then said Iesus to the Iewes which be-leued in him, If ye continue in my word, ye are verily my disciples,

32. And shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33. They answered him, We be Abrahams seede, and were neuer bond to any man: why sayest thou then, Ye shall be made free?

34. Iesus answered them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, that whosoever committeth sinne, is the seruant of sinne.

35. And the seruant abideth not in the house for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36. If that Sonne therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37. I know that ye are Abrahams seede, but ye seeke to kill mee, because my word hath no place in you.

38. I speake that which I haue seene with my Father, and ye doe that which ye haue seene with your father.

39. They answered, and sayd vnto him, Abraham is our father. Iesus sayd vnto them, If ye were Abrahams children, ye would doe the workes of Abraham.

40. But now ye goe about to kill me, a man that haue tolde you the truth, which I haue heard of God: this does not Abraham.

41. Ye do the workes of your father. Then said they to him, We are not borne of fornications:
we haue one Father, which is God.

42. Therefore Iesus sayd vnto them, If God were your Father, then would ye loue me: for I proceeded forth, and came from the Father, neither came I of my selfe, but he sent me.

43. Why doe ye not vnderstand my talke?
because ye cannot heare my word.

44. Ye are of your fathers the deuill, and the lustes of your father ye will doe: he hath bene a murderer from the beginning, and al oide not in the truth, because there is no truth in him.

When he speaketh a lie, then speaketh he of his owne: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.

45. And because I tell you the truth, ye beleeue me not.

46. Which of you can rebuke me of sinne?
and if I say the truth, why do ye not beleeue me?

47. He that is of God, heareth Gods words:
ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.

48. Then answered the Iewes, and sayd vnto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a deuill?

49. Iesus answered, I haue not a deuill, but I honour my Father, and ye haue dishonoured me.

50. And I seeke not mine owne praye: but there is one that seeketh it, and judgeth.

51. Verily, verily I say vnto you, If a man keepe my word, he shall neuer see death.

52. Then thoroughly executed the office, as his Father Ioynted him. John 8. 15. The word of God was given; and the Scripture can not be broken.

36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest, because I sayd, I am the Sonne of God?

37 If I do not the works of my Father, beleeue me not.

38 But if I do, then though ye beleeue not me, yet beleeue the works, that ye may know and beleeue, that the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 Again they went about to take him: but he escaped out of their hands.

40 And went againe beyond Iordan, into the place where Iohn first baptized, and there abode.

41 And many resorted vnto him, and sayd, Iohn did no miracle: but all things that Iohn spake of this man, were true.

42 And many beleeued in him there.

CHAP. XI.

(Briefly to shew that he is 25 the life and the resurrection, 12 cometh to Lazarus being dead, 17, 34 and buried, 43 and raised him vp. 47 As the Priests were consulting together, 49 Cataphas 50 propheseth that one must die for the people. 54, 57 They cometh to Ierusalem, and to take him.)

And a certaine man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the towne of Marie, and her sister Martha.

2 (And it was that Mary which anoynted the Lord with oymnt, and wiped his feet with her haire, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou louest, is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard it, he sayd, This sicknesse is not vnto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 ¶ Now Iesus loued Martha and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after he had heard that he was sicke, yet abode he two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, sayd he to his disciples, Let vs go into Iudaea againe.

8 ¶ The disciples said vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to stone thee, and dost thou go thither againe?

9 Iesus answered, Are there not twelve houres in the day? If a man walke in the day, hee stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walke in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, and after, he said vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth: but I go to wake him vp.

12 Then sayd his disciples, Lord, if he sleepe, he shalbe safe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the naturall sleepe.

14 Then sayd Iesus vnto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleeue: but let vs go vnto him.

16 Then sayd Thomas (which is called Didymus) vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also go, that we may die with him.

17 ¶ Then came Iesus, and found that he had lien in the graue four dayes already.

18 (Now Bethania was neere vnto Hierusalem, about fifteene furlonges off.)

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Mary to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha, when she heard that Iesus was coming, went to meet him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou hadst bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

22 But now I know also, that whatsoever thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

23 Iesus sayd vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha sayd vnto him, I know that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus sayd vnto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleeueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.

26 And whosoever liueth, and beleeueth in me, shall neuer die: Beleeuest thou this?

27 She said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleeue that thou art that Christ that Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 ¶ And when he had so sayd, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when she heard it, she arose quickly, and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

31 The Iewes then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose vp hastily, & went out, followed her, saying, She goeth vnto the graue, to weepe there.

32 Then when Marie was come where Iesus was, and saw him, she fell downe at his feet, saying vnto him, Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

33 ¶ When Iesus therefore saw her weepe, and the Iewes also weepe which came with her, he was grieved in the spirit, & was troubled in himselfe.

34 And sayd, Where haue ye layd him? They sayd vnto him, Lord, come and see.

35 And Iesus wept.

36 Then sayd the Iewes, Beholde, how he loued him.

37 And some of them sayd, Could not hee, which opened the eyes of the blind, haue made also, that this man should not haue died?

38 Iesus therefore againe grieved in himselfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was layd vpon it.

39 Iesus sayd, Take ye away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, sayd vnto him, Lord, he stinketh already: for he hath bene dead four dayes.

40 Iesus sayd vnto her, Sayd I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleeue, thou shoulddest see the glory of God?

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was layd. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, and sayd, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I know that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I sayd it, that they may beleeue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As he had spoken these things, he cried with a loud voyce, Lazarus come forth.

44 Then he that was dead, came forth, bound hand and foot with bandes, and his face was bound with a napkin. Iesus sayd vnto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 ¶ Then many of the Iewes, which came to-¶ Christ tooke vpon him together with our flesh all afflictions of man (since onely excepted) and amongst them especially mercy and compassion. ¶ These are tokens that he was greatly mourned, but yet they were without sinne: and these afflictions are proper to mans nature. ¶ Chap. 9. 6.

32 * And I, if I were a lift vp from the earth, will draw fall men vnto me.

33 Nowe this said he, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, We haue heard out of the Law, that Christ bideth for euer: and how saidst thou, that that Sonne of man must be lift vp? Who is that Sonne of man?

35 * Then Iesus layde vnto them, Yet a litle while is the light with you: walke while ye haue that light, lest the darkenesse come vpon you: for he that walketh in the darke, knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye haue that light, beleene in that light, that ye may be the children of the light. These things spake Iesus, and departed, and hid himselfe from them.

37 ¶ And though he had done so many miracles before them, yet beleued they not on him,

38 That the saying of Esaias the Prophet might be fulfilled, that he said, Lord, who beleueed our report? and to whom is the arme of the Lord reuelled?

39 Therefore could they not beleue, because that Esaias saith againe,

40 * He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor vnderstand with their heart, and should be conuerted, and I should heale them.

41 These things said Esaias when he sawe his glory, and spake of him.

42 * Neuertheless, euen among the chiefe rulers, many beleued in him: but because of the Pharisees they did not confesse him, lest they should be cast out of the Synagogue.

43 * For they loued the praise of men, more then the praise of God.

44 * And Iesus cried, and said, He that beleueth in me, beleueth not in me, but in him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth mee, seeth him that sent mee.

46 I & am come a light into the world, that whosoever beleueth in me, should not abide in darkenesse.

47 * And if any man heare my wordes, and beleue not, I iudge him not: for I came not to iudge the world, but to saue the world.

48 He that refuseth me, and receiueeth not my wordes, hath one that iudgeth him: the word that I haue spoken, it shall iudge him in the last day.

49 For I haue not spoken of my selfe: but the Father which sent mee, hee gaue me a commandement what I should say, and what I should speake.

50 And I knowe that his commandement is life euerlasting: the things therefore that I speake, I speake them to as the Father said vnto me.

Nowe * before the feast of the Pasche, when Iesus knewe that his houre was come, that hee should depart out of this world vnto the Father, forasmuch as hee loued his owne which were in the world, vnto the end hee loued them.

2 And when supper was done (and that the deuill had now put in the heart of Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne, to betray him)

3 Iesus knowing that the Father had giuen all things into his hands, and that hee was come forth from God, and went to God,

4 He & riseth from supper, and layeth aside his upper garments, and tooke a towell, and girded himselfe.

5 After that, hee powred water into a bason, and beganne to wash the disciples feete, and to wipe them with the towell, wherewith hee was girded.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, dost thou wash my feete?

7 Iesus answered & said vnto him, What I doe, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know it hereafter.

8 Peter said vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feete. Iesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou shalt haue no part with me.

9 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, not my feete onely, but also the hands and the head.

10 Iesus said to him, Hee that is washed, needeth not, saue to wash his feete, but is cleane curly white: and ye are cleane, but not all.

11 For hee knewe who should betray him: therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.

12 ¶ So after he had washed their feete, and had taken his garments, & was set down againe, he said vnto them, Know ye what I haue done to you?

13 Ye call mee Master, and Lord, and ye say well: for so am I.

14 If I then your Lord, and Master, haue washed your feete, ye also ought to wash one anothers feete.

15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye should doe, euen as I haue done to you.

16 Verely, verely I say vnto you, the seruant is not greater then his master, neither the ambassadour greater then he that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, blessed are ye if ye doe them.

18 ¶ I speake not of you all: I know whom I haue chosen: but it is that the Scripture might be fulfilled, * He that eateth bread with me, hath lift vp his heele against me.

19 From henceforth tell I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleue that I am he.

20 * Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I send any, he that receiueeth him, receiueeth me, and hee that receiueeth me, receiueeth him that sent me.

21 When Iesus had said these things, hee was troubled in the Spirit, and & testified, and said, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 * Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, which leaned on Iesus bosome, whom Iesus loued.

1 Christ to lesse certaine of the victorie then of the combat which was at hand, yfing the glory of waite the feete, doth partly thereby giue an example of singular modestie, and his great loue toward his Apolles in this notable case being like very shortly to depart from them: and partly wittnesse vnto them, that it is he only which walke away the first of his people, as if that by little and little, in their time and season.

CHAP. XIII.

¶ Christ rising from supper, to commend himselfe to his Apolles, washeth their feete. 21 He watech the traitour Judas 26 which an euill doer. 34 He commendeth charitie, 37-39 He firsteth Peter of his deuill.

marke 14.18. Iher. 23.21. f. John his meaning was such, that sitting downe in the bed, his head was toward Iesus his head: so that it was an easie matter for him to touch Iesus his bosome: for it is certaine that in old time men used not to sit at the table, but so it downe on the one side.

17 ⁹Peace I leaue with you: my peace I giue vnto you: as the world giueth, giue I vnto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor feare.

18 ¹⁰Yee haue heard how I sayd vnto you, I goe away, and will come vnto you. If ye loved me, ye would verely reioyce, because I said, I go vnto the Father: for the Father is I greater than I.

19 And now haue I spoken vnto you, before it come, that when it is come to passe, yee might beleuee.

20 ¹¹Hereafter will I not speake many things vnto you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath m^e nought in me.

21 But it is that the worlde may know that I loue my Father: and as the Father hath commanded me, so I doe. Arise, let vs goe hence.

22 ¹²But it is that the worlde may know that I loue my Father: and as the Father hath commanded me, so I doe. Arise, let vs goe hence.

CHAP. XV.

1 By the parable of the vine, 3 & the branches, 5 & he declareth how the disciples may beare fruit. 12, 17. He commeth maine the world. 18 He exhorteth them to beare affliction patiently, 20 by his owne example.

1 ¹Am that true vine, and my Father is that husbandman.

2 ²Fuery branch that beareth not fruit in me, he taketh away: and euery one that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 ³Now are ye cleane through the worde, which I haue spoken vnto you.

4 ⁴Abide in mee, and I in you: as the branch cannot beare fruit of it selfe, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 ⁵I am that vine: ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, & I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me can ye doe nothing.

6 ⁶If a man abide not in me, hee is cast forth as a branch, & withereth: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burne.

7 ⁷* If ye abide in mee, and my wordes abide in you, a ke what ye wil, & it shall be done to you.

8 ⁸Herein is my Father glorified, that yee beare much fruit, and be made my disciples.

9 ⁹As the Father hath loved mee, so haue I loved you: b continue in that my loue.

10 ¹⁰If ye shall keepe my commandments, yee shall abide in my loue, as I haue kept my Fathers commandments, and abide in his loue.

11 ¹¹The things haue I spoken vnto you, that my ioy might remaine in you, and that your ioy might be full.

12 ¹²* This is my commandment, that ye loue one another, as I haue loved you.

13 ¹³Greater loue than this hath no man, when any man bestoweth his life for his friends.

14 ¹⁴Ye are my friends, if yee doe whatsoever I command you.

15 ¹⁵Hereafter call I you not seruants: for the seruant knoweth not what his master doeth: but I haue called you friends for all things that I haue heard of my Father, haue I made knowne to you.

16 ¹⁶* Ye haue not chosen me, but I haue chosen you, and ordeined you, & that yee goe and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit remaine, that whatsoever ye shall aske of the Father in my Name, hee may giue it you.

17 ¹⁷These things command I you, that ye loue one another.

18 ¹⁸* If the world hate you, yee knowe that it hated me before you.

19 ¹⁹If ye were of the worlde, the worlde would loue his owne: but because ye are not of the worlde, but I haue chosen you out of the worlde, therefore the worlde hateth you.

20 ²⁰Remember the word that I sayd vnto you, & the seruant is not greater then his master. * If they haue persecuted me they will persecute you also: if they haue kept my worde, they will also keepe yours.

21 ²¹* But all these things will they doe vnto you for my Names sake, because they haue not knowne him that sent me.

22 ²²* If I had not come and spoken vnto them, they should not haue had sinne: but now haue they no cloke for their sinne.

23 ²³He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 ²⁴If I had not done worke among them, which none other man did, they had not had sinne: but now haue they both seene, and haue hated both mee, and my Father.

25 ²⁵But it is that the word might bee fulfilled, that is written in their Lawe, * they hated mee without a cause.

26 ²⁶But when that Comforter shall come, * Whom I will send vnto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, hee shall testifie of me.

27 ²⁷And ye shall witnesse also, because ye haue bene with me from the beginning.

*indgement fringes that they are religious, and voyde of sinne: but seeing I came to them, and they cleane refuse me, they can haue no cloke for their wickedness. A Sermon from by the word, Lawe, are meant the five books of Moyses, but in this place, the whole Scripture: for the place alledged is in the Psalmes. * Psalm. 119. 8 Against the rage of the wicked, we shall stand surely by the inward testimonie of the holy Ghost: But the holy Ghost speaketh not otherwise, then hee spake by the mouth of the Apolles. * Chap. 14. 26 Luke 24. 49.*

CHAP. XVI.

1 He foretelleth the disciples of persecution. 7 He promisseth the Comforter, and declareth his office. 22 He compareth the afflictions of this world to a woman that travaileth with child.

1 ¹These things haue I sayde vnto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 ²They shall excommunicate you: yea the time shall come, that whosoever killeth you, will thinke that he doeth God seruice.

3 ³And these things will they doe vnto you, because they haue not knowne the Father, nor me.

4 ⁴* But these things haue I tolde you, that when the houre shall come yee might remember that I tolde you them. And these things sayd I not vnto you from beginning, because I was in you.

5 ⁵But now I goe my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 ⁶But because I haue sayde these things vnto you, your heartes are full of sorrow.

7 ⁷* Yet I tell you the truth, it is expedient for you that I goe away: for if I goe not away, that Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will send him vnto you.

20 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

21 And now am I no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee, Holy Father, keep them in thy Name, even them whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

22 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy Name: those that thou gavest me, have I kept, and none of them is lost, but the child of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

23 And now come I to thee, and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

24 I have given them thy word, and the world hath hated thee, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

25 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keep them from evil.

26 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

27 Sanctifie them with thy truth: thy word is truth.

28 As thou diddest send me into the world, so have I sent them into the world.

29 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may be sanctified through the truth.

30 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shall beleue in me, through their word.

31 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, art in me, and I in thee: even that they may be also one in vs, that the world may beleue that thou hast sent me.

32 And the glory that thou gavest me, I have given them, that they may be one, as we are one.

33 In them, and I thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me.

34 Father, I will that they which thou hast given me, be with me even where I am, that they may behold that my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

35 O righteous Father, the world also hath not known thee, but I have known thee, and these have known thee, that thou hast sent me.

36 For I have declared unto thee thy Name, and will declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loved me, may be in them, and I in them.

37 And I will that they which thou hast given me, may also with him enjoy everlasting glory. Chap. 12. The countenances with his byrle and litle, the knowledge of the world is now full in Christ the Mediator, that they may in him be below the Father, with the selfe same loue wherewith he loveth the Sonne.

CHAP. XVIII.

By Christ's prayer, whom Judas betrayeth, & the soldiers are cast down to the ground. 13 Christ is led to Anna, and from him to Caiaphas. 22 His answer to the officers that smote him with a rod. 28 Bring delivered to Pilate, 36 he delivereth him Kingdome.

When Iesus had spoken these things, hee went forth with his disciples over the brooke Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas which betrayed him knew also the place: for Iesus oft times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 And Judas then, after he had received a band of men and officers of the high Priests, and of the Pharisees, came thither with lanterns and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Iesus, knowing all things that should come vnto him, went forth and said vnto them, Whom seeke ye?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazareth. Iesus said vnto them, I am he. Now Judas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 Assoone then as he had said vnto them, I am he, they went away backwards, and fell to the ground.

7 Then he asked them againe, Whom seeke ye? And they said, Iesus of Nazareth.

8 Iesus answered, I said vnto you, that I am he: therefore if ye seeke me, let these goe their way.

9 This was that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me, have I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter having a sword, drew it, and smote the hie Priest's servant, and cut off his right eare. Now the servants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sword into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cup which my Father hath given me?

12 Then the band and the captaines, and the officers of the Iewes tooke Iesus and bound him.

13 And led him away to Anna first (for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest that came yeere)

14 And Caiaphas was he, that gave counsell to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ Now Simon Peter followed Iesus, and another disciple, & that disciple was known of the hie Priest: therefore he went in with Iesus into the hall of the hie Priest:

16 But Peter stood at the doore without. Then went out the other disciple which was known vnto the hie Priest, and spake to him that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then said the mayd that kept the doore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He said, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, which had made a fire of coles: for it was colde, and they warmed themselves. And Peter also stood among them, and warmed himselfe.

19 ¶ The hie Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake openly to the world: I euer taught in the Synagogue and in the Temple, whither the Iewes resort continually, and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? I aske them which heard me what I said vnto them: behold, they know what I sayd.

22 When he had spoken these things, one of the officers which stood by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the hie Priest so?

23 Iesus answered him, If I have cull spoken, beare witness of the euill: but if I have well spoken, why smitest thou me?

24 ¶ Now Annas had sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest.

25 ¶ And Simon Peter stood & warmed himselfe, and they said vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

mother, and his mothers sister, Marie the wife of Cleopas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 And when Iesus sawe his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he said vnto his mother, Woman, behold thy sonne.

27 Then sayd he to the disciple, Beholde thy mother: and from that houre, the disciple tooke her home vnto him.

28 ¶ After, when Iesus knewe that all things were performed, that the Scripture might bee fulfilled, he said, I thirst.

29 And there was set a vessell full of vinegar, and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it about an Hyssope stalk, and put it to his mouth.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vinegar, he sayd, It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue vp the ghost.

31 ¶ The Iewes then (because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an hie day) besought Pilate that their legges might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

32 Then came the souldiers and brake the legges of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legges.

34 ¶ But one of the souldiers with a spere ¶ peared his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And hee that sawe it, bare recorde and his record istrueth: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might beleue it.

36 For these things were done, that the Scripture should be fulfilled, ¶ Not a bone of him shall be broken.

37 And againe another Scripture saith, ¶ They shall see him whom they have thrust thorow.

38 ¶ And after these things, Ioseph of Arimathea (who was a disciple of Iesus, but secretly for feare of the Iewes) besought Pilate that hee might take downe the body of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licence. Hee came then and tooke Iesus body.

39 And there came also Nicodemus (which first came to Iesus by night) & brought of myrrhe and aloes mingled together about an hundred pound.

40 Then tooke they the bodie of Iesus, and wrapped it in linnen clothes with the odours, as the manner of the Iewes is to burie.

41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was ¶ neuer man yet layd.

42 There then layd they Iesus, because of the Iewes Preparation day, for the sepulchre was nere.

CHAP. XX.

¶ Marie bringeth word how Christ is risen: 3 Peter and Iohn go vnto the sepulchre: 19 Iesus appeareth to Marie: 29 and to the disciples that were together in the house: 35 Thomas, being doubtfull, 39 now beleueth.

¶ Nowe ¶ the first day of the weeke came Marie Magdalene, carely when it was yet darke, vnto the sepulchre, and sawe the stone taken away from the tombe.

2 Then she ranne, and came to Simon peter, and to the other disciple whom Iesus loved, and sayd vnto them, They haue taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they haue laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they came vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they ranne both together, but the other disciple did outrunne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stouped downe, and sawe the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and sawe the linnen clothes lie,

7 And the kercheife that was vpon his head, not lying with the linnen clothes, but wraped together in a place by it selfe.

8 Then went in also the other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he sawe it, and beleeued.

9 For as yet they knewe not the Scripture, That he must rise againe from the dead.

10 And the disciples went away againe vnto their owne home.

11 ¶ But Marie stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she bowed her selfe into the sepulchre,

12 ¶ And sawe two Angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feete, where the body of Iesus had lain.

13 And they said vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She said vnto them, They haue taken away ¶ my Lord, and I know not where they haue laid him.

14 ¶ When he had thus saide, shee turned her selfe backe, and saw Iesus standing, and knew not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? she supposing that hee had bene the gardener, saide vnto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell mee where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Iesus sayd vnto her, Marie. She turned her selfe, and said vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 ¶ Iesus sayd vnto her, Touch me not: for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but goe to my brethren, and say vnto them, I ascend vnto my Father, and to your Father, and to my God, and your God.

18 Marie Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seene the Lord, and that he had spoken these things vnto her.

19 ¶ ¶ The same day then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the doores were shut where the disciples were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iesus and stood in the mids, and said to them, Peace be vnto you.

CHAP. XXI.

✧ Iesus appeareth to his disciples as they were a fishing, 6. 7. whom they knew by a miraculous draught of fishes. 15. 16. committeth the charge of the sheepe to Peter, 28. and forswearth him of the manner of his death.

✧ Peter these things, I Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himselfe.

1 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, and two other of his disciples.

2 Simon Peter said vnto them, I goe a fishing. They sayd vnto him, Wee also will goe with thee. They went their way and entred into a shippe straightway, and that night caught they nothing.

3 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stood on the shore: neuenelesse the disciples knew not that it was Iesus.

4 Iesus then sayd vnto them, Syrs, haue ye any meate? They answered him, No.

5 Then he sayd vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall finde. So they cast out, and they were not able at all to drawe it, for the multitude of fishes.

6 Therefore said the disciple whom Iesus loued, vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girded his coat (for he was naked) and cast himselfe into the sea.

7 But the other disciples came by shippe, (for they were not farre from lande, but about two hundred cubites) and they drewe the net with fishes.

8 As soone then as they were come to lande, they sawe hote coales, and fish layed thereon, and bread.

9 Iesus sayde vnto them, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

10 Simon Peter stepped forth and drewe the net to land, full of great fishes, an hundred, fiftie and thre: and albe it there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

11 Iesus sayde vnto them, Come, and dine. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou? seeing they knewe that hee was the Lord.

12 Iesus then came and tooke bread and gaue them, and fish likewise.

13 This is now the third time that Iesus shewed himselfe to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

14 ¶ So when they had dined, Iesus sayd to Simon Peter, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me more then these? He said vnto him, Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He sayd vnto him, Feed my lambes.

15 He sayd to him againe the second time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? He sayde vnto him, Yea, Lorde, thou knowest that I loue thee. He sayd vnto him, Feed my sheepe.

16 He sayd vnto him the third time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? Peter was sorie because he said to him the third time, Louest thou me? and said vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus said vnto him, Feed my sheepe.

17 Verely, verely, I say vnto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdest thy selfe, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt bee olde, thou shalt stretch forth thine handes, and another shall girde thee, and lead thee whither thou wouldest & c.

18 And this spake he signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when he had said this, he said to him, Follow me.

19 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the disciple whom Iesus loued, following, which had also leane on his brest at supper, and had sayde, Lord, which is hee that betrayeth thee?

20 When Peter therefore saw him, he sayde to Iesus, Lord, what shall this man doe?

21 Iesus sayd vnto him, If I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee? follow thou me.

22 Then went this worde abroad among the brethren, that this disciple shoulde not die. Yet Iesus sayd not to him, He shall not die: but if I will that hee tary till I come, what is it to thee?

23 This is that disciple, which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we know that his testimonie is true.

24 ¶ Nowe there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they shoulde be written every one, I suppose the worlde coulde not containe the bookes that should be written, Amen.

✧ It was a known garment, which could not be his swimming.

✧ Peter by his triple confession is restored into his former degree from whence he fell by his denial: and thus he is made a witness of the resurrection, which doth loue to Christ feeding his sheepe: for hee is now more than hee that had denied him: he is now the chief Peter, not the second Peter, as he was before of his refusal to the effect of the resurrection: the violent death of Peter is foretold.

THE ACTES OF THE HOLY APOSTLES WRITTEN BY LVKE THE EVANGELIST.

CHAP. I.

1 Take this his title to his Gospel. 9 Christ being taken into heaven, 10 the Apostles 11 being warned by the Angels, 12 returne, 13 and give themselves to prayer, 14 By Peters motion, 15 into Iudas the traitours place, 16 Matthias is chosen.

HAUE made the former treatise, O Theophilus, of all that Iesus began to doe and teach, 2 Vntill the day that he was taken vp, after that he through the holy Ghost, had giuen commandments vnto the Apostles, whom hee had chosen:

3 To whom also he presented himselfe alive after that he had suffered, by many infallible tokens, being seene of them by the space of foure dayes, and speaking of those things which appertaine to the Kingdome of God.

4 And when he had gathered them together, he commanded them that they should not depart from Hierusalem, but to waite for the promise of the Father, which said theye haue heard of me.

5 For Iohn in deede baptized with water, but yee shall be baptized with the holy Ghost within these few dayes.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore the Kingdome to Israel?

7 And he sayd vnto them, It is not for you to know the times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power,

8 But yee shall receive power of the holy Ghost, when he shall come on you: and yee shall be witnesses vnto me both in Hierusalem and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the vttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken vp: for a cloude tooke him vp out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven, as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white apparell,

11 Which also sayd, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing into heauen? This Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shall so come, as yee haue seene him goe into heauen.

12 Then returned they vnto Hierusalem from the mount that is called the mount of Olives, which is neere to Hierusalem, being from it a Sabbaths dayes iourney.

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an vpper chamber, where abode both Peter and Iames, and Iohn, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartlemew, and Matthew, Iames the sonne of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Iudas Iames brother.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication with the women, and Marie the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

15 And in those dayes Peter stood vp in the middes of the disciples, and sayd (now the number of names that were in one place were about an hundredth and twentie.)

16 Ye men and brethren, this scripture must needs haue bene fulfilled, which the holy Ghost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was guide to them that tooke Iesus.

17 For he was numbered with vs, and had obtained fellowship in this ministration.

18 He therefore hath purchased a field with the reward of iniquity: and when he had thrust downe vpon himselfe headlong, he brast asunder in the middes, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it is known vnto all the inhabitants of Hierusalem, in so much, that that field is called in their owne language, Acedama, that is, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the booke of Psalmes, Let his habitation be voyd, and when he shall dwell therein: also, Let another take his charge.

21 Wherefore of these men which haue companied with vs, all the time that the Lord Iesus was conuerfant among vs,

22 Beginning from the baptism of Iohn vnto the day that he was taken vp from vs, must one of them be made a witness with vs of his resurrection.

23 And they presented two, Ioseph called Barsabas, whose surname was Iustus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, saying, Thou Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 That he may take the yrome of this ministration and Apostleship, from which Iudas hath gone astray, to goe to his owne place.

26 Then they gaue forth their lottes: and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was by a common consent counted with the eleuen Apostles.

¶ John 13. 27. 9 Take considered not Iudas his purpose, but that that followed of it, and so was wise to say, that a man hath procured himselfe burne, not that his will and purpose was to be in respect of that which followed. 10 Math. 27. 5. David wrote these words against Dore the Kings bearer men: And these words, Shepherd, Shepher, and Flocke, are put next to the Church of office and minister, so that the Church and the officers thereof are called by these names. 8 The Apostles deliberate vpon nothing, but first they consult and take advice by Gods word: and againe they doe nothing that concerneth it and is behouable for the whole body of the Congregation, without making the Congregation priue vnto it. 1 Wherefore words, votes, and assents, which kind of speech relation with as much in the Hebrew tongue, as the exercising of a publicke and painful office, when they speak of such as are in any publicke office. Drer. 1. 2. 1. Chronic. 27. 1. From our company. 9 Apostles must be chosen immediately from God and therefore after prayers, Matthias is chosen by lotte, which is as it were, GODS owne voice. 10 Openly, and by the voices of all the whole company. 9 That he may be fellow and partaker of this ministration. 10 Departed from, or fallen from. And is a 11 Betrayeth taken from the way: For sellings are signified by the name of wages, with the disciples.

15 Any where, and this fasseth forth vnto us the large-ness of Christs knowlege.

16 The good liber-tye and boldnesse of God doth yet thus much good that such as by his vnder a vail of reule do at length becometh ill, they be in deede wicked men. 17 The word of God is a light, which bringeth in the darkness of sin, and maketh a man to be a Minister, and to be a Minister, when we speak of sciences, or studies, at signifieth one that is vnderstand: and in accompt of hon-our, and estimation is importeth one of high degree, and an estimation. 18 Layd their hands together. 19 He that barreth himselfe in ignorance, cometh at length to do open wickednesse, and that against his owne conscience. 20 We must lo obey men to whom we are subiect, that especially and before all things we obey God. 21 So farre off are the wicked from doing what they list, that contrariwise God vnder-standeth that to the setting forth of his glory, which he giueth them leave to doe, and the Sadduces came vpon them, 2 Taking it grievously that they taught the people, and preached in Iesus Name the resur- rection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold, vntill the next day: for it was now euentide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word, beleued, and the number of the men was about fise thousand.

5 And it came to passe on the morow, that their rulers, Elders, and Scribes, were gathered together at Hierusalem,

6 And Annas the chiefe Priest, and Caiaphas, and Iohn, and Alexander, and as many as were of the 4 kindred of the hie Priests,

7 And when they had set them before them, they asked, By what power, or in what Name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter full of the holy Ghost, said vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, & Elders of Israel,

9 For as much as we this day are examined of the good deede done to the impotent man, by whome that mannes he is made whole,

10 Be it known vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye haue crucified, whom God raised againe from the dead, asen by him doth this man stand here before you, whole.

11 This is the stone cast aside of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither is there saluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other Name vnder heauen, wherby we must be saued,

13 Now when they saw the boldnesse of Peter and Iohn, and vnderstood that they were vnlearned men and without knowledge, they mar- uelled, & knew them, that they had bene w Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commaunded them to goe aside out of the Councill, and k conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, What shall we doe to these men? for surely a manifest signe is done by them, and it is openly known to all them that dwell in Hierusalem: and we cannot denie it.

17 But that it be noised no farther among the people, let vs threaten and charge them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this Name.

18 So they called them, and commaunded them that in no wise they should speake or teach in the Name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and said, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.

20 For we cannot but speake the things which we haue seene and heard.

21 So they threatened them, and let them goe, and found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men prayed God for that which was done.

22 For the man was about fourtie yeere old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then after as they were let goe, they came to their felowes, and shewed all that the hie Priests and Elders had said vnto them.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voices to God with one accord, and said, O Lord, thou art y God which hast made the heauen, and the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them:

25 Which by the mouth of thy seruant David hast said, Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?

26 The Kings of the earth assembled, and the rulers came together against the Lord, & against his Christ.

27 For doubtlesse, against thine holy Sonne Iesus, whom thou haddest anoynted, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel gathered themselves together, 28 To do whatsoeuer thine hand, and thy counsell had determined before to be done.

29 And now, O Lord, behold their threatenings, and graunt vnto thy seruants with all boldnesse to speake thy word,

30 So that thou stretch forth thine hand, that healing, and signes, and wonders may be done by the Name of thine holy Sonne Iesus.

31 And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together: and they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God boldly.

32 And the multitude of them that beleued, were of one heart, and of one soule: neither any of them said, that any thing of that which he possessed, was his owne, but they had all things in common.

33 And with great power gaue the Apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Iesus: and great grace was vpon them all.

filled thine heart, that thou shouldst lye vnto the holy Ghost, and keepe away parts of the price of this possession?

4 Whiles it remained, appertained it not vnto thee? & after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? how is it that thou hast conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied vnto men, but vnto God.

5 Nowe when Ananias heard these words, he fell downe, and gaue vp the ghost. Then great feare came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the yong men rose vp, and tooke him vp, and caried him out, and buried him.

7 And it came to passe about the space of three houres after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.

8 And Peter said vnto her, Tell me, soldst thou the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said vnto her, Why haue yee agreed together, to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feete of them which haue buried thine husband, are at the doore, and shall carie thee out.

10 Then she fell downe straightway at his feete, and yeeled vp the ghost: and the yong men came in, and found her dead, and caried her out, and buried her by her husband.

11 And great feare came on all the Church, and on as many as heard these things.

12 Thus by the hands of the Apostles were many signes and wonders shewed among the people: and they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.

13 And of the other durst no man ioyne himselfe to them: neuertheless the people: & magnified them.

14 Also the number of them that beleueed in the Lord, both of men and women, grew more and more.

15 In so much that they brought the sicke into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least way the shadowe of Peter, when he came by, might shadowe some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about vnto Hierusalem, bringing sicke folkes, and them which were vexed with vncleane spirits, who were all healed.

17 ¶ Then the chiefe Priest rose vp, and all they that were with him (which was the sect of the Sadducees) were full of indignation,

18 And laid hands on the Apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 ¶ But the Angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doores, and brought them forth, and said,

20 Goe your way, and stand in the Temple, and speake to the people, all the wordes of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entered into the Temple early in the morning, and taught. And the chiefe Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Council together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned and told it,

23 Saying, Certainly we found the prison shut as sure as was possible, and the keepers standing without, before the doores: it was when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Then when the chiefe Priest and the captain of the Temple, and the chiefe Priests heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would growe.

25 ¶ Then came one and shewed them, saying, Beholde, the men that yee put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teach the people.

26 ¶ Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence (for they feared the people, lest they should haue bene stoned)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the Councill, and the chiefe Priest asked them,

28 Saying, Did not we straightly command you, that ye should not teach in this name? & behold, yee haue filled Hierusalem with your doctrine, and ye would bring this mans blood vpon vs.

29 ¶ Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and said, We ought rather to obey God than men.

30 ¶ The God of our fathers hath raised vp Iesus whom ye slew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God lift vp with his right hand, to be a Prince and a Saviour, to giue repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of finnes.

32 And wee are his witnesses concerning these things, which we say: yea, & the holy Ghost, whom God hath giuen to them that obey him.

33 Nowe when they heard it, they braile for anger, and consulted to slay them.

34 ¶ Then stood there vp in the Councill a certaine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctour of the Lawe, honoured of all the people, and commanded to put the Apostles forth a litle space.

35 And said vnto them, Men of Israel, take heede to your selues, what ye intend to doe touching these men.

36 ¶ For before these times, rose vp Theudas, boasting himselfe, to whom referred a number of men, about a foure hundredth, who was slaine: and they all which obeyed him were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man, arose vp Iudas of Galilee, in the dayes of the tribute, and drew away much people after him: hee also perished, and all that obeyed him, were scattered abroad.

38 And nowe I say vnto you, Refraine your selues from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsell, or this worke bee of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, yee cannot destroy it, lest ye be found enen fighters against God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apostles: and when they had beaten them, they commanded that they should not speake in the Name of Iesus, and let them goe.

41 ¶ So they departed from the Councill, reioicing, that they were counted worthie to suffer rebuke for his Name.

42 And daily in the Temple, and from house to house they ceased not to teach, and preach Iesus Christ.

¶ He dissembled his fellowes from murdering the Apostles, whether death be sinfull: it good to referre to matter to the Roman Magistrate, for the lawes could abide nothing worse, then to haue the yerman of the Romanes confirmed. ¶ If it be conuenient and desired. ¶ The Apostles, accustomed to suffer and beare wounds, are at length inured to beare stripes, yet so, that by that maner they become stronger. ¶ Both publicly and privately.

7 The more openly that Christs vertue the world telle, the more increaseth the madness of his enemies which conspire against him.

8 Tyrants which feare not God, are constrained to feare his seruants.

9 It is the permittance of tyrants to let our owne commandments as right and reason, be they neuer so wicked.

10 Make vs quicke of murthering, them whom yet they wil not touch: safe to name.

11 We ought to obey no man, but to farrre forth as obeying him, we may obey God.

12 Christ is appointed and indredeclared Prince and preferre: use of his Church in despite of his enemies.

a Of these parties which of Grecians became religious Jewes.

6 In the lawing of almes according to steuen necessary.

a The office of preaching the word, and dispensing the goods of the Church, are a distinct one from another, and not easily to be ioyned together, as the Apostles doe here instructe : And the Apostles doe not chafe so much as the Deacons without the comfort of the Church.

AND in those daies, as the number of the disciples grew, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians towards the Hebrewes, because their widowes were neglected in the daily ministring.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples together, and sayd, It is not meete that wee should leaue the word of God to serue the tables.

3 Wherefore brethren, looke you out among you euen men of honest report, and full of the holy Ghost, and of wisdom, which we may appoint to this businesse.

4 And we will giue our selues continually to prayer, and to the ministrallion of the word.

5 And they choyse pleased the whole multitude: and they choyse Steuen a man full of faith and of the holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a Proselyte of Antiochia,

6 Which they set before the Apostles: and they prayed, and layed their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased, and the number of the disciples was multiplied in Hierusalem greatly, and a great company of the Priests were obedient to the faith.

8 ¶ Now Steuen full of faith & power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certaine of the Synagogue, which are called Libertines, & Cyrenians, and of Alexandria, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, and disputed with Steuen.

10 But they were not able to resist the wisdom, and the Spirit by the which he spake.

11 Then they suborned men, which sayd, We haue heard him speake blasphemous wordes against Moses, and God,

12 Thus they moued the people and the Elders, and the Scribes : and running vpon him, caught him, and brought him to the Councill.

13 And set forth false witness, which sayd, This man ceaseeth not to speake blasphemous wordes against this holy place, and the Law.

14 For we haue heard him say, that this Iesus of Nazareth shal destroy this place, & shal change the ordinances which Moses gaue vs.

15 And as all that fate in the Councill looked stedfastly on him, they saw his face as it had bene the face of an Angel.

THEN sayde the chiefe Priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Ye men, brethren, and Fathers, hearken. ¶ That God of glory appeared vnto our father Abraham, while he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

3 And said vnto him, Come out of thy country, and from thy kined, and come into the land which I shall thew thee.

4 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran. And after that his father was dead, God brought him from thence, into this land, wherein ye now dwell,

5 And he gaue him none inheritance in it, no, not the breadth of a foot: yet he promised that he would giue it to him for a possession, and to his seede after him, when as yet he had no childre.

6 But God spake thus, that his seede should bee a sojourner in a strange land: and that they should keepe it in bondage, and entreate euill course hundredth yeeres,

7 But the nation to whom they shall bee in bondage, will I iudge, saith God: and after that they shall come forth and serue me in this place.

8 ¶ He gaue him also the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begate Isaac, and circumcised him the eight day: and Isaac begate Jacob, and Iacob the twelve Patriarchs.

9 And the Patriarchs moued with enuie, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,

10 And deliuered him out of all his afflictions, and gaue him a fauour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt, who made him gouernour ouer Egypt, and ouer his whole house.

11 ¶ Then came there a famine ouer all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: that our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jacob heard that there was come in Egypt, he sent our fathers first:

13 And at the second time Joseph was known of his brethren, and Iosephs kined was made known vnto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Joseph and caused his father to be brought, and all his kined, quen threecore and fiftene soules.

15 So Jacob went downe into Egypt, and he died, and our fathers, & so:

16 And were he remoued into Sychem, and were put in the sepulchre, that Abraham had bought for money of the sonnes of Emor, sonne of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew neere, which God had sworne to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, a Steuen is admitted to pleade his cause, out to this end and purpose, that vnder a colour of lawe, and honour of lawe, he might be condemned.

a Steuen witnesseth vnto the lawes, that hee acknowledge the true fathers, and the onely true God, and sheweth moreouer, that they are more ancient then the Temple, with all their service appoynted by the lawe and therefore they oughte by another foundation of true religion, that is to say, the true covenent that God made with the fathers.

18 Till another King arose, which knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kinned, and will intreat our fathers, and made them to cast out their yong children, that they should not remain alieue.

20 The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished vp in his fathers house three moneths.

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaohs daughter tooke him vp, and nourished him for her owne sonne.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mightie in words and in deeds.

23 Now when he was full fortie yeere old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the children of Israell.

24 And when he saw one of his suffer wrong, he defended him, & auenged his quarrel that had the harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian.

25 For he supposed his brethren would haue vnderstood, that God by his hand should giue them deliuerance; but they vnderstood it not.

26 And the next day, he shewed himselfe vnto them as they stroue, and would haue set them at one againe, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren: why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at that saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begate two sonnes.

30 And when fortie yeeres were expired, there appeared to him in the wilddernes of Moe sin, an Angel of the Lord in a flame of fire, in a bush.

31 And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew neere to consider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, saying,

32 I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob. Then Moses trembled, & durst not behold it.

33 Then the Lord sayd to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest, is holy ground.

34 I haue seene, I haue seene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, & I haue heard their groning, and am come downe to deliuer them: and now come, and I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they forsooke, saying, Who made thee a prince and a iudge? the same God sent for a prince, & a deliuerer by the hand of the Angel, which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He brought them out, doing wonders, and miracles in the land of Egypt, and in the red sea, and in the wilddernes: fortie yeeres.

37 This is that Moses, which sayd vnto the children of Israell, A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise vp vnto you, euen of your brethren, like vnto me: him shall ye heare.

38 This is he that was in the Congregation, in the wilddernes with the Angel, which spake to him in mount Sina, and with our fathers, who received the liuely oracles to giue vnto vs.

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but refused, and in their hearts turned backe againe into Egypt,

40 Saying vnto Aaron, & Make vs gods that may goe before vs: for we know not what is become of this Moses that brought vs out of the land of Egypt.

41 And they made a calf in those dayes, and offered sacrifice vnto the idole, & reioycied in the works of their owne hands.

42 Then God turned himselfe away, and gaue them vp to serue the pholt of heauen, as it is written in the booke of the Prophets, O house of Israell, haue ye offered to me flaine beasts & sacrifices by the space of fortie yeeres in the wilddernes?

43 And ye took vp the tabernacle of Moloch, & the starre of your god Remphan, figures, which ye made to worship them: therefore I will cary you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the Tabernacle of witness in the wilddernes, as he had appointed, speaking vnto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seene.

45 Which tabernacle also our fathers received, and brought in with Iesus into the possession of the Gentiles, which God draue out before our fathers, vnto the dayes of Dauid:

46 Who found fauour before God, and desired that he might finde a tabernacle for the God of Iacob.

47 But Salomon build him an house.

48 Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands, as saith the Prophet, 49 Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build for me, saith the Lord? or what place is it that I should rest in?

50 Hath not mine hand made all these things?

51 Ye refused, and of vnmercifull hearts and eares, ye haue alwayes resisted the holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do you.

52 Which of the Prophets haue not your fathers persecuted? & they haue slaine them, which shewed before of the coming of that Iust, of whom ye are now the betrayars and murderers.

53 Which haue receiued the law by the ordinance of Angels, and haue not kept it.

54 But when they heard these things, their hearts brast for anger, and they gnashed at him with their teeth.

55 But he being full of the holy Ghost, looked stedfastly into heauen, and saw the glory of God, & Iesus standing at the right hand of God.

56 And sayd, Behold, I see the heauens open, and the Sonne of man standing at the right hand of God.

57 Then they gaue a shout with a loud voyce, and stopped their eares, and ranne vpon him violently all at once.

58 And cast him out of the citie, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid downe their clothes at a yong mans feet, named Saul.

59 And they stoned Steuen, who called on nature, and stick fast in them: for otherwise all the Truies were circumcised as touching the flesh, and therefore there were two kinds of circumcision, Rom. 2. 28.

7 He that is assured by the Samaritans with his witchcraft, that as himselfe had bewitched they were wholly addicted to him.

8 The wicked and the very reprobate are constrained continually to call for the good gift of God, but they call it vp againe forthwith.

9 Peter not chiefe, but as an ambassador sent from the whole company of the Apostles, and Iohn his companion, according to the authority which was committed vnto them, confirme and build up the Churches of Samaria, whose foundation had bene layd before by Philip.

10 These excellent gifts, which are necessary, especially for them that were to be appointed rulers and gouernours of the Church. 8 Ambition and couetousnes doe at length plucke forth poeities out of their denes.

God, and sayd, Lord Iesus, receive my spirit.

60 And he kneeled downe, and cried with a loud voyce, Lord, lay not this sinne to their charge. And when he had thus spoken, he slept.

61 And when he had thus spoken, he slept. 4 Lookes 1. The 9. vs.

2 Saul maketh haucke of the Church. 3 Philip preacheth Christ at Samaria. 4 Simon Magus is bewitched by his sorceries. 5 He is baptized by Philip.

1 And Saul consented to his death. And at that time, there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Hierusalem, and they were all scattered abroad thorow the regions of Iudea and of Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certain men fearing God, as carried Steuen among them, to be buried, and made great lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made haucke of the Church, and entered into euery house, and drew out both men and women, and put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went to and fro preaching the word.

5 ¶ Then came Philip into the city of Samaria, and preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heed vnto those things which Philip spake, with one accord, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For vncleane spirits crying with a loud voice, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palsies, and that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great ioy in that citie.

9 And there was before in the citie a certaine man called Simon, which used witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying that he himselfe was some great man.

10 To whom they gaue heed from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is that great power of God.

11 And they gaue heed vnto him, because that of long time hee had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But as soone as they beleued Philip, which preached the things that concerned the kingdom of God, and the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 ¶ Then Simon himselfe beleued also, and was baptized, and continued with Philip: & wondered, when he saw the signes and great miracles which were done.

14 ¶ Now when the Apostles, which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had receiued the word of God, they sent vnto them Peter & Iohn.

15 Which when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receiue the holy Ghost. 16 (For as yet he was fallen downe on none of them, but they were baptized onely in the Name of the Lord Iesus.)

17 Then layd they their hands on them, and they receiued the holy Ghost.

18 ¶ And when Simon saw, that through laying on of the Apostles hand the holy Ghost was giuen, he offered them money.

19 Saying, Giue me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay the hands, he may receiue the holy Ghost.

20 ¶ Then sayd Peter vnto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou thinkest that the gift of God may be obtained with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor fellowship in this: because thou hast said: it is not right in the sight of God.

22 ¶ Repent therefore of this thy wickednes, and pray God, that if it be possible, the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 ¶ For I see that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquitie.

24 Then answered Simon, and sayd, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye haue spoken come vpon me.

25 ¶ So they, when they had testified & preached the word of the Lord, returned to Hierusalem, and preached the Gospel in many townes of the Samaritans.

26 ¶ Then the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the South vnto the way that goeth downe from Hierusalem vnto Gaza, which is waste.

27 And he arose, and went on: and beholde, a certaine Eunuch of Ethiopia, Candaces the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe Gouernour, who had the rule of all her treasure, and came to Hierusalem to worship.

28 And as he was returned sitting in his charet, he read Esaias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said vnto Philip, Go neere, and ioyne thy selfe to yonder charat.

30 And Philip ranne thither, and heard him read the Prophet Esaias, and said, But vnderstande thou what thou readeest?

31 And he sayd, How can I, except I had a guide? And he desired Philip, that he would come vp and sit with him.

32 ¶ Now the place of the Scripture which he read, was this. ¶ He was led as a sheepe to the slaughter: and like a lambe dumme before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth.

33 In his humilitie his iudgement hath bene exalted: but who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 Then the Eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the Prophet this of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, & preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, and the Eunuch sayd, See, here is water: what doth let me to be baptized?

37 ¶ And Philip said vnto him, If thou beleuest with all thine heart, thou mayest. Then he answered, and said, I beleuee that that Iesus Christ is that Sonne of God.

38 Then he com maunded the charet to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip & the Eunuch, and he baptized him:

39 And as soone as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the Eunuch saw him no more: so he went on his way reioycing.

40 ¶ The Eunuch, which was baptized, was a eunuch of Ethiopia, Candaces the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe Gouernour, who had the rule of all her treasure, and came to Hierusalem to worship.

41 ¶ Then the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the South vnto the way that goeth downe from Hierusalem vnto Gaza, which is waste.

42 ¶ And he arose, and went on: and beholde, a certaine Eunuch of Ethiopia, Candaces the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe Gouernour, who had the rule of all her treasure, and came to Hierusalem to worship.

43 ¶ Then the Spirit said vnto Philip, Go neere, and ioyne thy selfe to yonder charat.

44 ¶ And Philip ranne thither, and heard him read the Prophet Esaias, and said, But vnderstande thou what thou readeest?

45 ¶ And he sayd, How can I, except I had a guide? And he desired Philip, that he would come vp and sit with him.

¶ They are the same persons as Simon Magus, and not of Simon Peter, which either way we tell him.

CHAP. IX.

a Saul going inward Damascus. 4. A stroke down to the ground of the Lord: so Ananias is first 18 in baptizing him, 23 The laying await of the Lord 25 he discipled, bring him down through the wall, 33 Peter curseth Ananias of the pallie, 38 and by him Tabbitha being dead, 40 is restored to life.

1 And ^a Saul yet ^a breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went vnto the hie Priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the Synagogues, that if he found any that were of that way, (either men or women) hee might bring them bound vnto Hierusalem.

3 Now as he iourneyed, it came to passe that as hee was come neere to Damascus, ^a suddenly there shined rounde about him a light from heauen.

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voyce saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou mee?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kicke against pricks.

6 He then both trembling and astonished, said, Lord, what wilt thou that I doe? And the Lord said vnto him, Arise, and goe into the cite, and it shall be tolde thee what thou shalt doe.

7 The men also which iourneyed with him, stood amazed, hearing his voyce, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the ground, and opened his eyes, but saw no man. Then led they him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 Where hee was three dayes without sight, and neither ate nor dranke.

10 And there was a certaine discipule at Damascus named Ananias, and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And hee said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 Then the Lord said vnto him, Arise, and goe into the freete which is called streight, and seeke in the house of Iudas after one called Saul of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth.

12 (And he saw in a vision a man named Ananias coming in to him, and putting his hands on him, that he might receiue his sight.)

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I haue heard by many of this man, how much euil he hath done to thy Saints at Hierusalem.

14 Moreover here hee hath authoritie of the hie Priestes, to binde all that call on thy Name.

15 Then the Lord said vnto him, Go thy way: for he is a chofen vessel vnto me, to beare my Name before the Gentiles, and Kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shew him, how many things he must suffer for my Names sake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entred into that house, and put his hands on him, and said, Brother Saul, the Lord hath sent mee (Iesus that appeared vnto thee in the way as thou camest) that thou mightest receiue thy sight, and be filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediatly there fell from his eyes as it had bene scales, and suddenly he receiued sight, and arose, and was baptized,

19 And receiued meate, and was strengthened.

So was Saul certaine dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway hee preached Christ in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God.

21 So that all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this hee, that made hauocke of them which called on this Name in Hierusalem, and came hither for that intent, that hee should bring them bound vnto the hie Priestes?

22 But Saul encreased the more in strength, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damascus, confirming that this was that Christ.

23 And after that many dayes were fulfilled, the Iewes tooke counsell together, to kill him,

24 But their laying awaite was knownen of Saul: now he watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe by a rope in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Hierusalem, hee stayed to ioyne himselfe with the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and beleueed not that he was a discipule.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, and brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how he had seene the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken vnto him, and how he had spoken boldly at Damascus in the Name of Iesus.

28 And hee was conuerfant with them at Hierusalem,

29 And spake boldly in the Name of the Lord Iesus, and spake and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him,

30 But when the brethren knewe it, they brought him to Cefarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest through al Iudea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, he came also to the faine which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his couch eight yeres, and was sicke of the pallie.

34 Then said Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and trusse thy couch together. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron, sawe him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Ioppa a certaine woman, a discipule named Tabbitha, (which by interpretation is called Dorcas) the was full of good works and almes which she did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was sicke and died: and when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 Now forasmuch as Lydda was neere to Ioppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that he would not delay to come vnto them.

inter. 10 Peters Apostleship is confirmed by healing the man that was sicke of the pallie. 10 Lydda was a cite of Paphlagonia and Saron a chetymene country, and a place of good pottage betwixen Cefarea of Palestine and the mount of Tabbitha, and the lake of Genezareth which extendeth is fiftie in great length beyond Tappa. 11 Peter declareth evidently by raising up a dead body through the Name of Christ, that he preacheth the glad tidings of life.

Paul beginneth straightwayes to execute the office which was eneynted him, neuer consoling with flack and blood.

Paul strineth not with his owne authoritie alone, but with the testimonies of the Prophets.

8 Typpeth places of the Scriptures together, as cunning craftsmen doe, when they make up any thing, they typp together all parts together, to make it more firmly set with another.

Paul who was before a persecutor, hath now a persecution laid before himselfe but yet a fore off.

2 Cor. 11. 32. We are not feared to be taken to any and elsewhere the dangers and conspiracies that befall him.

1 In ancient time, no man was rashly or lightly reckoned into the number of and amongst the sheepe of Christ, much lesse to be a pistor.

7 The constant rewards of God must looke for danger after danger: yet God watcheth for them.

1 With Peter and James, hee saith that he saw none of the Apostles but them, Gal. 2. 9. 10. Look Chap. 6. 1.

8 The Ministers of the word may charge their place, by the aduite and wait of the congregation and Church.

7 The ende of persecutions is the building of the Church: that was wait for the Lord.

10 A man of a broken kind of speech, which signifieth establishment and increase.

35 But in every nation he that seareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.
36 Ye p know the word which God hath sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace by Iesus Christ, which is Lord of all:

37 ¶ Then the worde which came through all Iudaea, & beginning in Galile, after the Baptisme which Iohn preached:

38 ¶ To wit, howe God anointed Iesus of Nazareth with the holy Ghost, and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the deuill: for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which hee did both in the land of the Iewes, and in Hierusalem, where they slew, hanging him on a treee.

40 Him God raised vp the third day, and caused that he was shewed openly:

41 Not to all the people, but vnto 7 witnesses chosen before of God, vnto vs which did eat and drinke with him, after he arose from the dead.

42 And he commanded vs to preach vnto the people, and to testifie, that it is he that is ordained of God iudge of quick and dead.

43 To him also giue all the Prophets wines, that through his Name all that beleue in him, shall receiue remission of sinnes.

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these wordes, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 So they of the circumcision, which beleue, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speake with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 ¶ Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which haue receiued the holy Ghost, as well as we?

48 So he commanded them to be baptized in the Name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tary certaine dayes.

¶ The first taken from an old custome of the Iewes, who used to anoint their heads with oil, wherupon it grew, to call them anointed, vpon whom God bestowed his spirit. ¶ The changing of the Apostles in properly giuen to God, for he had bestowed in the last full blessing of Minerva, yet there is in the place a remembrance and fitting of Gods choice, and men voices the one against the other. ¶ The Apostles are immediately appointed of God, and the Church Ministers by him. ¶ The first 7. 12. chap. 15. 9. 8 The spirit of God sealeth in the heart, which the Minister of the worde (spoken by the commande- ment) sheweth by the effects. 9 Baptisme doeth not sanctifie or make holy, which receiue it, but sealeth vp and confirmeth their sanctification.

CHAP. XI.

¶ Peter being accused for going to the Gentiles, 5 defendeth himselfe. 11 ¶ Petrus first to Antiochia, 22 ¶ where the disciples are called Christians: 28 And there Agabus fore- seeth a famine to come.

Nowe the Apostles and the brethren that were in Iudaea, heard, that the Gentiles had also receiued the word of God.

¶ And when Peter was come vp to Hierusalem, they of the circumcision contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to them, saying,

5 I was in the citie of Ioppa, praying, and in a trance I sawe this vision, A certaine vessell coming downe as it had bene a great sheete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me,

6 Towarde the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and sawe foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voice, saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: stay and eate.

8 And I sayd, God forbid, Lorde: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done three times, and al were taken vp againe into heauen.

11 Then behold, immediately there were three men already come vnto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit said vnto me, that I should go with them, without doubting: moreover these fixe brethren came with mee, and we entred into the mans house.

13 And he shewed vs, how hee had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and sayd to him, Send men to Ioppa, and cal for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

14 He shall speake wordes vnto thee, whereby both thou and thine house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, & cuen as vpon vs at the beginning.

16 Then I remembered the word of the Lorde, how he said, Iohn baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 For as much then as God gaue them a like gift, as he did vnto vs, when wee beleueed in the Lorde Iesus Christ, who was I, that I could let God?

18 ¶ When they heard these things, they helde their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance vnto life.

19 ¶ And they which were scattered abroad because of the affliction that arose about Steuen, went throughout till they came vnto Phenice, and Cyprus, & Antiochia, preaching the word to no man, but vnto the Iewes only.

20 ¶ Nowe some of them were men of Cyprus and of Cyrene, which when they were come into Antiochia, spake vnto the Grecians, and preached the Lord Iesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, so that a great number beleueed and turned vnto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Hierusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should goe vnto Antiochia.

23 Who when hee was come and had seene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they would continue in the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, & much people ioyned themselves vnto the Lord.

25 ¶ Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seeke Saul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him vnto Antiochia: and it came to passe that a whole yere they were conuersant w the Church, and taught much people, in so much that the disciples were first called Christians in Antiochia.

33 17 And he beckoned vnto them with the hand, to hold their peace, and told them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said: God shew thesethings vnto Iames and to the brethren: and hee departed and went into another place.

34 18 Now assoone as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

35 19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, & commanded them to be led to be punished. And hee went downe from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.

36 20 Then Herod was angry with them of Tyrus and Sidon, but they came all with one accord vnto him, and perswaded Blautus the Kings Cham-berlaine, and they desired peace, because their country was nourished by the Kings Land.

37 21 And vpon a day appointed, Herod arrayed himselfe in royall apperell, and sat on the iudge-ment seate, and made an oration vnto them.

38 22 And the people gaue a shoute, saying, The voyce of God, and not of man.

39 23 But immediately the Angel of the Lorde smote him, because he gaue not glory vnto God, so that he was eaten of wormes, and gaue vp the ghost.

40 24 19 And the f wordes of God grewe and multiplied.

41 25 So Barnabas and Saul returned from Hierusalem, when they had fulfilled their office, and took with them Iohn, whose surname was Marke.

16 Put Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and sawe him, they were alionied.

17 And he beckoned vnto them with the hand, to hold their peace, and told them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said: God shew thesethings vnto Iames and to the brethren: and hee departed and went into another place.

18 Now assoone as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, & commanded them to be led to be punished. And hee went downe from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 Then Herod was angry with them of Ty-
rus and Sidon, but they came all with one accord vnto him, and perswaded Blautus the Kings Cham-berlaine, and they desired peace, because their country was nourished by the Kings Land.

21 And vpon a day appointed, Herod arrayed himselfe in royall apperell, and sat on the iudge-ment seate, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shoute, saying, The voyce of God, and not of man.

23 But immediately the Angel of the Lorde smote him, because he gaue not glory vnto God, so that he was eaten of wormes, and gaue vp the ghost.

24 19 And the f wordes of God grewe and multiplied.

25 So Barnabas and Saul returned from Hierusalem, when they had fulfilled their office, and took with them Iohn, whose surname was Marke.

26 And hee came to Antiochia, where hee was wont to teach, and there hee dwelt many dayes.

27 And there came certain of the brethren from Iudea, and taught the brethren.

28 And there stood vp one of them named Agabus, & signified by the Spirit, that there should be great famine throughout all the world, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

29 8 Then the disciples euery man according to his habilitie, purposed to send 6 succour vnto the brethren which dwelt in Iudea.

30 Which thing they also did, and sent it to the Elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

the prophet, being a Jew, named Barabas, a prudent man. He called vnto him Barabas and Saul, and desired to heare the word of God.

8 But Elymas the forcerer, (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, and sought to turne away the Deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him, and said, O full of all subtiltie and all mischief, the child of the deuill, and enemy of all righteousnes, wilt thou not cease to pervert the straight wayes of the Lord?

11 Now therefore behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blinde, and not see the sunne for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist & a darkness, and he went about, seeking some to leade him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputy when he saw what was done, beleeued, and was astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and they that were with him were departed by shippe from Paphus, they came to Parga a citie of Pamphylia: then Iohn departed from them, and returned to Hierusalem.

14 But when they departed from Parga, they came to Antiochia a city of P. Pisidia, & went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, & sat downe.

15 And after the lecture of the Law & Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men & brethren, if ye haue any word of exhortation for the people, lay on.

16 Then Paul stood vp, and beckened with the hand, and said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the land of Egypt, and with an high arme brought them out thereof.

18 And about the time of forty yeeres, fulfilled he their maners in the wilderness.

19 And he destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, & diuided their land to the by lot.

20 Then afterward he gaue vnto them Iudges about 4 foure hundredth and fiftie yeeres, vnto the time of Samuel the Prophet.

21 So after that, they desired a King, and God gaue vnto them Saul, the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of 40. foure yeeres.

22 And after he had taken him away, he raised up David to be their King, of whom he witnessed, saying, I haue found David the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which will doe all things that I will.

23 Of this man seed hath God vnto according to his promise raised vp to Israel, I Sauiour Iesus: 24 When I Iohn had first preached before his coming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when Iohn had fulfilled his course, he said, Whom ye thinke that I am, I am not he: but behold, there cometh one after me, whose shooe of his fete I am not worthy to loofe.

26 Ye men and brethren, children of the generation of Abraham, and whoeuer among you feareth God, to you is the word of this saluation sent.

27 For the inhabitants of Hierusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the wordes of the Prophets, which are read every Sabbath day, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they tooke him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him vp from the dead,

31 And hec was seene manie dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galile to Hierusalem, which are his witness vnto the people.

32 And we declare vnto you, that touching the promise made vnto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled it vnto vs, their children, in that he raised vp Iesus, as is written in the second Psalm, Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.

34 Now as concerning that he raised him vp from the dead, no more to returne to corruption, he hath sayd thus, I will giue you the holy things of David, which are faithfull.

35 Wherefore hee sayeth also in another place, Thou wilt not suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

36 Howbeit, David after he had serued his time by the counsell of God, he slept, and was layed with his fathers, and saw corruption.

37 But he whom God raised vp, saw no corruption.

38 Be it known vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you the forgiveness of sinnes.

39 And from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the Law of Moses, by him is said one that beleueeth, is justified.

40 Beware therefore lest that come vpon you, which is spoken of in the Prophets,

41 Behold, yee despisers, and wonder, and vanish away: for I worke a worke in you dayes, a worke which ye shall not beleuee, if a man would declare it to you.

42 And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentile besought, that they would preach these words to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Now when the congregation was dissolved, many of the Iewes and Prophets, that feared God, followed Paul & Barnabas, which spake vnto them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

1 Hen I came downe a certaine from Iuda, I taught the brethren saying, Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moyses, yee cannot be saved.

2 And when there was great diffention, and disputacion by Paul and Barnabas against them, they ordeined that Paul and Barnabas, and certaine other of them, should goe vp to Hierusalem vnto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being brought forth by the Church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles, and they brought great ioy vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Hierusalem, they were received of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

5 But said they, certaine of the sect of the Pharisees, which did beleue, rose vp, saying that it was needfull to circumcise them, and to commaunde them to keepe the law of Moyses.

6 Then the Apostles and Elders came together to looke to this matter.

7 And when there had bene great disputacion, Peter rose vp, and said vnto them, 4 Ye men and brethren, ye know that a good while agoe, among vs God chose out me, that the Gentiles by my mouth should heare the word of the Gospel, and beleue.

8 And God which knoweth the heartes, bare them witness, in giuing vnto them the holy Ghost, euen as he did vnto vs.

9 And he put no difference betweene vs and them, after that he by faith he had purified their heartes,

10 Now therefore, why tempt ye God, to lay a yoke on the disciples necks, which neither our fathers, nor we were able to beare?

11 But we beleue, through the grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to be saved, euen as they doe.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas and Paul, which told what signes and wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they held their peace, James answered, saying, Men, and brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 7 Simeon hath declared, how God first did visite the Gentiles, to take of them a people vnto his Name.

15 And to this agree the wordes of the Prophets, as it is written,

16 After this I will returne, and will builde againe the Tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen down, and the ruines thereof will I builde againe, and I will set it vp.

17 That the residue of men might seeke after the Lord, and all the Gentiles vpon whom my Name is called, sayeth the Lord which doeth all these things.

18 From the beginning of the worlde, God knoweth all his workes.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God, 20 But that we send vnto them, that they abstaine themselves from filthinesse of idoles, and fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moyses of oldetime hath in euery cite them that preach him, seeing he is read in the Synagogues euery Sabbath day.

22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church to sende chosen men of their owne companie to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas: to wit, Iudas whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren,

23 And wrote letters by them after this maner: The Apostles, and the Elders, and the brethren, Vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia, send greeting.

24 Forasmuch as we haue heard, that certaine which went out from vs, haue troubled you with wordes, and combed your mindes, saying, Ye must be circumcised and keepe the Law: to whom we gaue no such commandement,

25 It seemed therefore good to vs, when we were come together with one accord, to sende chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men that haue giuen vp their liues for the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 We haue therefore sent Iudas and Silas, which shal also tel you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to vs, to lay no more burden vpon you, then these necessarie things, 29 That ye abstaine from things offered to idoles, and blood, and that that is strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keepe your selues, ye shall doe well. Fare ye well.

30 Now when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, and after that they had assembled the multitude, they deliuered the Epistle.

31 And when they had read it, they reioiced for the consolation,

32 And Iudas and Silas being Prophets, exhorted the brethren with many wordes, and strengthened them.

33 And after they had taried there a space, they were lett goe in peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding Silas thought good to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antiochia, teaching and preaching with many other, the word of the Lord.

36 But after certaine dayes, Paul said vnto Barnabas, Let vs returne and visite our brethren in euery cite, where we haue preached the word of the Lord, and see how they doe.

7 Not that men haue any authoritie of themselves, but to shew the faithfull that they used in their ministerie and labour. 8 There was no precise necessity, but in respect of the state of that time, that the Gentiles and the Jewes might more peaceably live together with life occasion of quarrell. 9 Charity is requisite euen in things indifferent. 10 It is requisite for all people to knowe certainly what to holden matters of faith and religion, and not that the Church by ignorance and knowing nothing, should depend vpon the pleasure of a few. 11 This is an heinous kinde of breach, which is as much to say, as the brethren wished them all profane success, and the Church dissuaded them with good hearts. 12 Congregacions of Churches doe easily degenerate, vntill they be diligently seene vnto, and therefore want the Apostles to ouersee in such as they had planted, and for this cause also Synodes were instituted and appointed.

8 In matters indifferent, we may so farre bene with the weaknesse of our brethren, as they may haue time to be instructing.

9 From sacrifices or from habits which were kept in Idols temples. 10 In lawfull Synodes, neither they which are appointed and chosen Judges, appoynted and determine any thing tyrannously or vpon a Lordes, neither do the common multitude set their selues tumultuously against them, which sit in Iudges by the wordes of God: as the like order also is holden in publishing and raising those things which haue bene determined and agreed vpon.

11 The Council of Nien fall concluded, that they trouble mens consciences, which teach vs to seeke illumination in any other manner than in Christ onely, apprehended by faith. 12 From our congregation. 13 A borrowed kinde of speech taken of them which pull downe what that was a build type and is a way of small metaphor in the Scriptures to say the Church is a build, for the Church is planted in plants and Apostles.

14 How greatly heaued their heart. 15 That is, lawfull Council, which the holy Ghost ruleth. 16 Frisbys make mention of the holy Ghost, but it may not seeme to be any meanes worke.

15 A lamentable example of discord between excellent men and very great friends, yet not for private affairs, neither yet for doctines.

16 God with the smiles of his servants to the praise and building of his Church, yet we have to take heed, even in the best matters that we palle not measure in our heat.

17 They were in great heat; but herein we have to consider the force of Gods counsellors for by this means to cause to passe, that the doctrine of the Gospel was exercised in many places.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Paul having converted Timotheus, 12 being at Philippi, 13 in the city of Lydia in the faith, 14 The first of Timotheus, 15 he by him converts 20 and for that cause 21 they are whipped, 22 and imprisoned, 23 Through an earthquake the prison doors are opened, 24 The Gaoler recieveth the faith.

13 The Lord onely openeth the heart to heare the word which is preached.

Then came he to Derbe and to Lystra: and beholde, a certaine discipule was there named Timotheus, a womans sonne, which was a Jewesse and beleeced, but his father was a Grecian.

2 Of whom the brethren which were at Lystra and Iconium, reported well.

3 Therefore Paul would that hee should goe forth with him, and tooke and circumcised him, because of the Jewes, which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Grecian.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees to keepe, ordeined of the Apostles and Elders which were at Hierusalem.

5 And so were the Churches established in the faith, and increased in number dayly.

6 Nowe when they had gone through- out Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, they were forbidden of the holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia.

7 Then came they to Myfia and sought to goe into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered they not.

8 Therefore they passed through Myfia, and came downe to Troas,

9 Where a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come into Macedonia, and helpe vs.

10 And after he had seene the vision, immediatly we prepared to go into Macedonia, being assured that the Lord had called vs to preach the Gospel vnto them.

11 Then went we forth from Troas, and with a straight course came to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis,

12 And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe citie in the parts of Macedonia, and whose inhabitants came from Rome to dwell there: and we were in that citie abiding certaine dayes.

13 And on the Sabbath day we went out of the citie, besides a riuer, where they were wont to pray: and we sat downe, and spake vnto the women, which were come together,

14 And a certaine woman named Lydia, seller of purple, of the cite of the Thyatirians, which worshipped God, heard vs: whose heart the Lorde opened, that shee attended vnto the things, which Paul spake.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought vs, saying, If ye haue iudged me to bee faithfull to the Lorde, come into mine house, & abide there: and she constrained vs.

16 And it came to passe that as we went to prayer, a certaine maid hauing a spirit of diuination, met vs, which gate her masters much vantage with diuining.

17 She followed Paul and vs, and cried, saying, These men are the seruantes of the most high God, which shew vnto you the way of saluation.

18 And this did shee many dayes: but Paul being grieved, turned about, and said to the spirit, I commaund thee in the Name of Iesus Christ, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

19 Nowe when her masters sawe that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the market place vnto the Magistrates,

20 And brought them to the gouernours, saying, These men which are Iewes trouble our citie,

21 And preach ordinances, which are not lawfull for vs to receiue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes.

22 The people also rose vp together against them, and the gouernours rent their clothes, and commanded them to be beaten with rods,

23 And when they had beaten them, they cast them into prison, commanding the Gaoler to keepe them surely.

24 Who hauing receiued such correction, cast them into the inner prison, and made their feete fast in the flockes.

25 Now at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sung Psalmes vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and by an by all the doores opened, and euery mans bands were loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe, and when he saw that the prison doores open, he drew out his sword and would haue killed himselfe, supposing the prisoners had bin fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Doe thy selfe no harme: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and leaped in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and sayd, Syrs, what must I doe to be saved?

31 And they sayde, Beleue in the Lord Iesus Christ, & thou shalt be saved, & thine household.

32 And they preached vnto him the worde of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 Afterwarde hee tooke them the same houre of the night, and walked their stripes, and was baptized with all that belonged vnto him straightway.

34 And when hee had brought them into his house, he set meate before them, and reioyced that he with all his household had beleeced in God.

35 And when it was day, the gouernours sent the sergents, saying, Let those men goe.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Constant disciples at Ephesus, 3 having only received John baptisme, 8 and howe not the visible gift of the holy Ghost, whereunto God had testified his Sonnes kinngdome, 9 are baptizd in the Name of Iesus. 13 The Iewish exorcists 15 are beaten of the deuil. 19 Conuincing bookes are burnt. 23 Demetrius vs. rageful iudiciall against Paul.

ANd it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul when he passed thorow the vpper coasts, came to Ephesus, and found certaine disciples,

2 And sayd vnto them, Haue ye received the holy Ghost since ye beleued? And they sayd vnto him, We haue not so much as heard whether there be an holy Ghost.

3 And he said vnto them, Vnto what were ye then baptized? And they sayd, Vnto Iohns baptisme.

4 Then sayd Paul, & Iohn verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they should beleue in him, which should come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

5 And when they heard it, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

6 So Paul layd his hands vpon them, and the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake the tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 Moreover he went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and exhorting to the things that appertaine to the kingdome of God.

9 But when certaine were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euill of the way of God before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disordered daily in the schole of one Tyrannus.

10 And this was done by the space of two yeeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of y Lord Iesus, both Iewes & Grecians.

11 And God wrought no small miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 so that fro his body were brought vnto the sick, kercheis, or handkercheis, & the diseases departed fro them, & the euill spirits went out of the.

13 Then certaine of the vagabond Iewes, exorcists, tooke in hand to name out them which had euill spirits, the name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We aduise you by Iesus, whom Paul preacheth,

14 (And there were certaine sonnes of Scua a Iew, the Priest, about seuen which did this)

15 And the euill spirit answered, and sayd, Iesus Iacknowledge, & Paul I know: but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the euill spirit was, ranne on them, & ouercame them, & spreauiel against them, so that they fledde out of that house, naked, and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Iewes and Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified,

18 And many that beleued, came and confessed, and shewed their works.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious artes, brought their bookes, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fiftie thousand pices of siluer.

20 So the word of God grew mightily, and prevailed.

21 Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed by the spirit to passe through Macedonia and Achaia, and to goe to Hierusalem, saying, After I haue bene there, I will also see Rome.

22 So sent he into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus, and Erastus, but he remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small trouble about that way.

24 For a certaine man named Demetrius a siluer smith, which made siluer temples of Diana, brought great gaine vnto the craftsmen,

25 Whom he called together, with the workmen of like things, and sayd, Sirs, ye knowe that by this craft we haue our goods:

26 Moreover ye see and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia this Paul hath perswaded, and turned away much people, saying, That they be not Gods which are made with hands.

27 So that not onely this thing is dangerous vnto vs, that this our portion shall bee reprobued, but also that the temple of the great goddesse Diana should bee nothing esteemed, and that it would come to passe that her magnificence, which all Asia and the worlde worshippeth, should be destroyed.

28 Now when they heard it, they were full of wrath, and cryed out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And y whole cite was full of confusion, and they rushed into the common place with one assent, and caught Gaius, and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, & Pauls companions of his journey.

30 And when Paul would haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 Certaine also of the chiefe of Asia, which were his friends, sent vnto him, desiring him that he would not present himselfe in the Common place.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was out of order, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And some of the company drew forth Alexander, the Iewes thrusting him forward, Alexander then beckened with the hand, and would haue excused the matter to the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Iewe, there arose a howte almost for the space of two houres, of all men crying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 Thenthe towne cleark when he had stayed the people, sayd, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is it that knoweth not how that the cite of the Ephesians is a worshippor of the great goddesse Diana, & of the image, which came downe from Iupiter?

36 Seeing then that no man can speake against these things, ye ought to be appeased, and to doe nothing rashly.

37 For ye haue brought hither these men, which haue neither committed sacriledge, neither doe blasphemie your goddesse.

38 Wherefore, if Demetrius and the craftsmen which are with him, haue a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are Deputies: let them accuse one another.

39 But if ye inquire any thing concerning other

Paul is neuer wearie. By the motion of Gods spirit: therefore we may not say that Paul ran head on head to death, but as the spirit of God led him.

7 Gaine cloked with a shew of religion, is the very cause whereof idolatrie is hourly and stubbornly defended. These were certaine conuincers temples with Dianan pictures in them, which they brought out for supplicat.

m. As if he said, If Paul were in this case, he should be content to confesse the opinion which men haue of Dianan image, all this our gaine will come to nought.

Rem. 1. 23. 1 cor. 1. 10. Gal. 3. 10.

There ought to be in all Christians, and especially in the Ministers, an inuincible confidence, which may not by any storme of assaults be overcome, which notwithstanding multitudes of difficulties is to be gotten by wisdom. In reade of reason, the idolaters are sufficiently contented with their owne madnesse and contessey, and those are the greatest defence that they haue. An example of apostolicke man who redemeth peace & quietnesse with liues, which Paul would neuer haue done.

The Ephesians beleeued superstitiously, that the image of Diana came downe from heauen to them. Haue ought to assest in some of. For there are certaine dayes appointed for ciuill causes and matters of law, where the Deputies sit. By the Deputies, are meant also the Deputies subaltern, that is, such as do sit for them.

CHAP. XXL

1 Paul goeth toward Hierusalem: 8 as he cometh he talketh with Philip the Evangelist: 10 Agabus foretelleth him of his bonds. 17 After he came to Hierusalem. 26 And into the Temple, 27 the Jews layde hands on him: 32 Layeth the captaine takeeth him from thence.

And as we launched forth, and were departed from thence, we came with a straight course vnto Coos, and the day following vnto the Rhodes, and from thence vnto Patara.

2 And we found a ship that went our vnto Phenice, and went aboard, and set forth.

3 And when we had discoursed Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed toward Syria, and arrived at Tyrus: for there the ship vniaded the burden.

4 And when we had found disciples, we taried there seven daies. And they told Paul through the Spirit, that he should not goe vp to Hierusalem.

5 But when the daies were ended, we departed & went our way, and they all accompanied vs with their wives & children, cunen out of the citie: and we kneeling downe on the shore, prayed.

6 Then when we had embraced one another, we tooke ship, and they returned home.

7 And when wee had ended the course from Tyrus, we arriued at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day, Paul and wee that were with him, departed, and came vnto Cesaire: and we entered into the house of Philip the Evangelist, which was one of the seven Deacons, and abode with him.

9 Now he had foure daughters virgins, which did prophesie.

10 And as we were taried there many daies, there came a certaine Prophet from Iudea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, he tooke Pauls girdle, & bound it owne hands & feet, and said, Thus saith the holy Ghost, So shall the Iewes at Hierusalem binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliuer him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we had heard these things, both we and other of the same place besought him that he would not goe vp to Hierusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, and said, What doe ye weeping and breaking mine heart? For I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Hierusalem for the Name of the Lord Iesus.

14 So when he would not beperswaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those daies were trusted vp our fardels, and went vp to Hierusalem.

16 There went with vs also certaine of the disciples of Cesaire, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an olde disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Hierusalem, the brethren received vs gladly.

18 And the next day Paul went in with vs vnto Iames: and all the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when he had embraced them, hee tolde by order all things, that God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministiation.

20 So when they heard it, they glorified God, and said vnto him, Thou feest, brother, how many thousand Iewes there are which beleeeue, and they are all zealous of the Law:

21 Now they are informed of thee, that thou teacheest all the Iewes, which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, and sayest that they ought not to circumcise their sonnes, neither to keepe after the customes.

22 What is then so done? the multitude must needs come together: for they shall heare that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that we say to thee, We haue foure men, which haue made a vowe,

24 That take, & contribute with them, that they may haue their heads: and all shall know, that those things, whereof they haue bene informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also walkest and keepest the Law.

25 For as touching the Gentiles, which beleeeue, we haue written, & determined that they obserue no such thing, but that they keepe themselves from things offered to idoles, and from blood, and from that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and the next day was purified with them, and entered into the Temple, declaring the accomplishment of the daies time: for although of the purification, vntill that an offering should be offered for euery one of them.

27 5. And when the seven daies were almost ended, the Iewes which were of Asia (when they saw him in the Temple) moued all the people, and layd hands on him.

28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where against the people, and the Law, and this place: moreover, he hath brought Grecians into the Temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 For they had scene before Trophimus an Ephesian with him in the citie, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the cite was moued, and the people ran together: and they tooke Paul, and drew him out of the Temple, and forthwith the doores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tidings came vnto the chiefe captain of the band, that all Hierusalem was on an uproare.

32 Who immediately tooke souldiers and Centurions, and ran downe vnto them: and when they sawe the chiefe Captaine and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe Captaine came neere and tooke him, & commanded him to be bound with two chaines, and demanded who hee was, and what he had done.

34 And one cried this, another that, among the people. So when he could not know the certaintie for the tumult, he commaunded him to be led into the castell.

35 And when he came vnto the grieces, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul should haue bene led into the castell, hee sayd vnto the chiefe Captaine, May I speake vnto thee? Who sayd, Canst thou speake Greeke?

38 Art not thou? Egyptian who before these daies raised a sedition, & led out into the wilderness foure thousand men that were murderers?

39 Then Paul sayd, Doublelesse, I am a man which am a Iewe, and citizen of Tarsus, a famous

d That is, constitute thy selfe: for he sheweth not bene of the vowe, and that of such as were subiect to the vowe of the Naueies.

e That it may be knowne, that thou wast not onely purged as the vowe, but also a chiefe man in it: and therefore it is said afterwards, that Paul declared the daies of purification: for although the charges for the Naueies offerings were appointed, yet they might adde some that vnto them. Num. 3. 32. Chap. 18. 15. Num. 6. 18.

f The Prisoners were to be advertised of the accomplishment of the daies of the purification, because there were sacrifices to be offered the same day, when they were was ended.

g A preposterous zeale is the cause of great confusion, and great mischiefes.

h God findeth some euill amongst the wicked and prophane themselves, to hinder the endeoures of the righteous.

i Teaching this Egyptian which offered thorne about men, raised Iulius, 2. Chap. 12.

Pharisee, hee cried in the Councill, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the sonne of a Pharisee: I am accused of the hope and resurrection of the dead.

7 And when hee had sayde this, there was a diffension betwene this Pharisee and the Sadducees, for that the multitude was divided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confesse both.

9 Then there was a great crye: and the Scribes of the Pharisees part rose vp, and shroue saying, Wee finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great diffension, the chiefe captaine, fearing lest Paul should haue bene pulled in pieces of them, commanded the souldiers to go downe, and take him from among them, and to bring him into the castell.

11 Nowe the night following, the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of mee in Hierusalem, so must thou beare witness also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Iewes made an assemblie, and bound themselves with a curse, saying, that they would neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then fourtie, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priests and Elders, and said, We haue bound our selues with a solemn curse, that we will eate nothing, till we haue slaine Paul.

15 Nowe therefore, ye and the 8 Councill, signifie vnto the chiefe captaine, that hee bring him forth vnto you to morrow, as though you would knowe something more perfectly of him, and we, or euer he come nere, will be ready to kill him.

16 But when Pauls sisters sonne heard of their laying a wait, he went, and entred into the castell, and tolde Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and said, Take this yong man hence vnto the chiefe captaine: for he hath a certaine thing to shew him.

18 So hee tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed mee to bring this yong man vnto thee, which hath something to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hand, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And he sayd, The Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morrow into the councell, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more perfectly:

21 But let them not perswade thee: for there lie in wait for him of them, more then forty men, which haue bound themselves with a curse, that they will neither eate nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and now are they ready, and wait for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the yong man depart, after hee had charged him to vter it to no man, that he had shewed him these things.

23 And he called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, that they may goe to Celsarea, and horsemen threefcore and ten, and two hundred with darts, at the third houre of the night:

24 And let them make ready an horse that Paul being seer, may be brought safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

25 And he wrote an Epistle in this maner:

26 Claudius Iulius vnto the most noble Gouernour Felix sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of the Iewes, and should haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, and rescued him, perceiving that he was a Roman.

28 And when I would haue knowne the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their Councill.

29 There I perceived that hee was accused of questions of their Lawe, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was shewed mee, how that the Iewes layd wait for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day, they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned vnto the Castell.

33 Now when they came to Celsarea, they deliuered the Epistle to the Gouernour, and presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the Gouernour had read it, he asked of what prouince he was: and when he vnderstood that he was of Cilicia,

35 I will heare thee, said hee, when thine accusers also are come, and commanded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

Tertullus accuseth Paul: 10 He answereth for himselfe: 22 Hee prayeth Christ to the gouernour and his wife, 27 Felix hopeth to receive a bribe, 28 who going from his office, leaues Paul in prison.

Nowe 2 after five dayes, Ananias the hie Priest came downe with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certaine orator, which appeared before the Gouernour against Paul.

2 And when hee was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that wee haue obtained great quietnesse through thee, and that many worthy things are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thanks.

4 But that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest heare vs of thy curtesie a few words.

5 Certainly we haue found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mouer of sedition among all the Iewes thoroughout the world, and a chiefe maintainer of the sect of the Nazarites:

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we tooke him, and would haue iudged him according to our Lawe:

7 But the chiefe captaine Iulius came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou mayst (if thou wilt inquire) know all things whereof we accuse him.

of the Iewes name where they thought that Christ was borne, whereupon it came that Iulian the Apostata called him Galilee.

13 Iulius is suddenly made by the Lord Pauls patron.

Hypocrites, when they can not doe what they would doe by force and deceit, they goe about to compasse it by the name of Law.

A Felix ruled that prouince with great crueltie and crueltie, and yet Tertullus recorded that hee did many worthy things, as that hee made Iulian the captain of certain castles, and put that detestable wicked the Egyptian to flight, which caused great troubles in Iudaea. Hee wished a word which the Scribes desired to be a profit durst and dishonest.

A word for word, a prayer, as you would say, a long leader, or engine bearer. A to say call the Christians confessing.

*7 Paul goeth in the case of religion,
from a state con-strait to a state of quality, not onely not denying that religion which was obeyed against him,
but also proo-
ing it to be true,
to be heavenly and all religions.*

*8 Here this word,
I heretofore, is still in is doubtfull.*

*13 Felix could not iudge whether he had done wickedly in the matters of his religion or no,
could he had better vnderstanding of that way which Paul professed; and as for ather matters touching the station, he thinketh good to deferre it till he heere Lyfian, and therefore hee gave Paul four what more heerier. 6 God is a most faithfull keeper of his seruants, and the force of the truth is wonderfull, even amongst men which are otherwise prophane. 8 This Drusilla was Agrippas his sister, of whom Luke speaketh afterwards, a very beautiful and discrete woman, and being the wife of Aretas King of Emfura, who was circumcised, departed from him, and went to this Felix the brother of our Paulus, who was sometime Nero his Goodman. 9 In a naughty minde, that is guilty to it selfe, although sometime there be some hope of equitie yet by and by it will be extinguished: but in the meane season we haue needes of patience, and that continuall.*

9 And the Iewes likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the gouernour had beckoned vnto him that hee should speake, answered, I do the more gladly answer for my selfe, forasmuch as I know that thou hast bene of many yerres a iudge vnto this nation,

11 Seeing that thou mayest knowe, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vp to worship in Hierusalem.

12 And they neither found me in the Temple, disputing with any man, neither making vproare among the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the cite.

13 Neither can they b proue the things, whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way (which they call theretofore) so worship I the God of my fathers, beleeuing all things which are written in the Law and the Prophets,

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead, which they themselves looke for also, shalbe both of iust and vniust.

16 And herein I inueiue my selfe to haue alway a cleare conscience toward God and toward men.

17 Now after many yerres, I came & brought almes to my nation and offerings.

18 At what time, certaine Iewes of Asia found mee purified in the Temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 Who ought to haue bene present before thee, and accuse me, if they had ought against me.

20 Or let these themselves say, if they haue found any vniust thing in mee, while I stode in the Council,

21 Except it be for this one voyce, that I cried standing among them, Of the resurrection of the dead am I accused of you this day.

22 Nowe when Felix heard these things, hee deferred them, and said, When I shall more perfectly knowe the things which concerne this way, by the comming of Lyfian the chiefe Capitaine, I will decide your matter.

23 Then hee commaunded a Centurio to keepe Paul, and that he should haue ease, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

24 And after certaine dayes, came Felix with his wife o Drusilla, which was a Iewesse, and hee called fourth Paul, and heard him of the faith in Christ.

25 And as hee disputed of righteousness & temperance, & of the iudgement to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time, and when I haue convenient time, I will call for thee.

26 Hee hoped also that money should haue bene giuen him of Paul, that hee might loose him: wherefore hee sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 When two yerres were expired, Porcius Festus came into Felix roome: and Felix willing to get fauour of the Iewes, left Paul bound.

Festus came into Felix roome: and Felix willing to get fauour of the Iewes, left Paul bound.

In the prisoner, had I not been forsaken of his brother Paulus, hee should not have waited for his: so that we may gather hereby why he would haue pleased the Iewes.

CHAP. XXV.

Festus succeeding Felix, 6 commaunders Paul to be brought fourth, 11 Paul appealeth vnto Cesar, 12 Felix appealeth Pauls matter to King Agrippa, 13 and bringeth him before him, 17 that he may vnderstand his cause.

WHEN Festus was then come into the prouince, after three dayes hee went vp from Cesarea vnto Hierusalem.

2 Then the high Priest, and the chiefe of the Iewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,

3 And desired fauour against him, that hee would send for him to Hierusalem: and they layd wait to kill him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should bee kept at Cesarea, and that he himselfe would shortly depart thither.

5 Let them therefore, sayd hee, which among you are able, come downe with vs: and if there be any wickedness in the man, let them accuse him.

6 Nowe when he had taried among them no more then ten dayes, hee went downe to Cesarea, and the next daye fate in the iudgement seate, and commaunded Paul to be brought.

7 And when hee was come, the Iewes which were come from Ierusalem, stood about him and layd many and grieuous complaints against Paul, whereof they could make no plaine proofe.

8 Forasmuch as hee answered that he had neither offended any thing against the Lawe of the Iewes, neither against the temple, nor against Cesar.

9 Yet Festus willing to get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul and sayd, Wilt thou goe vp to Hierusalem, and there be iudged of the things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cessars iudgement seate, where I ought to be iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthe of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man, to pleasure them, can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with the Council, hee answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 And after certaine dayes, King B Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there many dayes, Festus declared Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix,

15 Of whom when I came to Hierusalem, the high Priests and Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, that it is not the manner of the Romans for sauor to deliuer any man to the death, before that he which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend himselfe, concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following I fate on the iudgement seate, and commaunded the man to be brought fourth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood vp, they they brought no crime of such things as I supposed.

19 But had certain questions against him of their owne superstition, and of one Iesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of question, I asked him whether he would go to Hierusalem, and there be judged of these things.

21 But because he appealed to be referred to the examination of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept, till I might send him to Cæsar.

22 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morrow, sayd he, thou shalt heare him.

23 And on the morrow when Agrippa was come, and Bernice with great pompe, and were entred into the Common hall with the chiefe capitaines and chiefe men of the citie, at Festus commandement Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus sayd, King Agrippa, and all men which are present with vs, yee see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Iewes haue called vpon me, both at Hierusalem, and here, crying, that he ought not to liue any longer.

25 Yet haue I found nothing worthy of death, that he hath committed: neither the lesse, seeing that he hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him.

26 Of whom I haue no certaine thing to write vnto my Lord: wherefore I haue brought him forth vnto you, and especially vnto thee, King Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue somewhat to write.

27 For mee thinketh it vnreasonable to send a prisoner, and not to shew the causes which are layd against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

3 Paul in the presence of Agrippa, & declareth his life from his childhood, 16 and his calling, 32 with such efficacie of words, as that almost he perswaded him to Christianity: 36 But he and his company depart doing nothing in Pauls matter.

1 Hen Agrippa sayd vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himselfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answer this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Iewes:

3 Chiefly, because thou hast knowledge of all customs, and of questions which are among the Iewes: wherefore I beseech thee to heare me patiently.

4 As touching my life from my childhood, and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Hierusalem, know all the Iewes,

5 Which knew me heretofore, euen from my Elders (if they would testifie), that after the most strait feyt of our religion I liued a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am accused for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelve tribes instantly serving God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, O King Agrippa, I am accused of the Iewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

9 I also verely thought in my selfe, that I ought to doe many contrary things against the Name of Iesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Hierusalem: for many of the Saints I hath vp in prison, hauing receiued authoritie of the high Priests, and when they were put to death, I gaue my sentence.

11 And I punished them thorowout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being more madde against them, I persecuted them, euen vnto strange cities.

12 At which time, euen as I went to Damascus with authoritie, and commission from the high Priests,

13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heauen, passing the brightnesse of the sunne, shine round about me, and them which went with me.

14 So when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking vnto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke against prickes.

15 Then I sayd, Who art thou, Lord? And he sayd, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vp on thy feet: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witness, both of the things which thou hast seene, & of the things in the which I will appeare vnto thee,

17 Deliuering thee from this people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom now I send thee,

18 To open their eyes, that they may turne from darkenesse to light, and from the power of Satau vnto God, that they may receiue forgiveness of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heavenly vision, 20 But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Hierusalem, and thorowout all the coasts of Iudæa, and then to the Gentiles, that they should reuerent and turne to God, and do works worthy amendment of life.

21 For this cause the Iewes caught mee in the Temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Neuerthelesse, I obtained helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophets and Moses sayd I should come,

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light vnto this people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus answered for himselfe, Festus sayd with a loud voice, Paul, thou art besides thy selfe, much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he sayd, I am not mad, O noble Festus, but I speake the words of truth and sobernesse.

26 For the King knoweth of these things, before whom also I speake boldly: for I am perswaded that none of these things are hidden from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 O King Agrippa, beleueest thou the Prophets? I know that thou beleueest.

28 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Paul, Almost thou perswadest me to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul sayd, I would to God that not onely thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the King

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betweene themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, nor of bonds.

32 Then sayd Agrippa vnto Festus, This man might haue bene loosed, if he had not appealed vnto Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Paul 7. 9. foretold the perill of the voyage, 11 how he was betrayed, 12 they are tossed to and fro with the tempest, 21. 41 and suffer shipwracke: 34 Yet all safe and sound 44 escape to land.

NOW when it was concluded, that we should faile into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, and certaine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Julius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And we entred into a shippe of Adramyttium, purposing to faile by the coastes of Asia, and launched forth, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

3 And the next day we arriued at Sidon: and Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we launched, & failed hard by Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

5 Then failed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion found a shippe of Alexandria, failing into Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had failed slowly many dayes, and scarce were come against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we failed hard by Candie, neere to a Salomone.

8 And with much adoe failed beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the Faire hauens, neere vnto the which was the citie Lasea.

9 So when much time was spent, and failing was nowe leoparous, because also the 10 Fast was now passed, Paul exhorted them,

10 And sayd vnto them, Sirs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt, and much damage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuertheless the Centurion beleued rather the gouernour and the master of the shippe, then those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the haueen was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence, if by any means they might attaine to Phenice, shure to winter, which is an haueen of Candie, and lieth toward the Southwest and by West, and Northwest and by West.

13 And when the Southerne winde blew softly, they supposing to attaine their purpose, loosed neerer, and failed by Candie.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormie winde called 4 Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the winde, we let her goe, and were carried away.

16 And we ran vnder a little Ile named Clauda, and had much adoe to get the boat, 17 Which they tooke vp and vied all helpe, vndergirding the ship, fearing least they should haue fallen into Syrtis, and they strake faile, and so were caried.

18 4 The next day when we were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they lightened the ship.

19 And the third day wee cast out with our owne hands the tackling of the shippe.

20 And when neither sunne nor flarres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that we should be saved, was then taken away.

21 5 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and sayd, Sirs, ye should haue hearkened to me, and not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue gained this hurt and losse.

22 But now I exhort you to be of good courage: for there shall be no losse of any mans liue among you, save of the shippe onely.

23 For there stood by me this night the Angell of God, whose I am, and whom I serue, 24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Cesar: and loe, God hath giuen vnto thee freely all that faile with thee.

25 Wherefore, sir, be of good courage: for I beleue God, that it shall be so as it hath bene tolde me.

26 Howbeit, we must be cast into a certaine Iland.

27 7 And when the fourteenth night was come, as we were carried to and fro in the Adriaticke about midnight, the shipmen deemed that some countrey I approached vnto them,

28 And founded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a litle further, they sounded againe, and found fifteene fathoms,

29 Then fearing least they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure ankers out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

30 Nowe as the mariners were about to flee out of the shippe, and had let downe the boat into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ankers out of the foreship.

31 8 Paul sayd vnto the Centurion and the souldiers, Except these abide in the shippe, ye can not be safe, 32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let it fall away.

33 10 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meat, saying, This is the fourteenth day that ye haue taried, and continued fasting, receiuing nothing:

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meat: for this is for your safeguard: for there shall not an haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thanks to God in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eate.

36 Then were they all of good courage, and they also tooke meat.

37 Now we were in the ship in all two hundred threescore and sixteen foules.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the whear into the sea.

39 11 And when it was day, they knew not the countrey, but they spied a certaine creek with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.

40 So when they had taken vp the ankers, they committed the shippe vnto the sea, and loosed the rudder bonds, and hoised vp the maine sail to the winde, and drew to the shore.

41 And when they fell into a place, where two seas mette, they thrust in the shippe: and the forepart stucke fast, and could not be mooued, but the hinderpart was broken with the violence of the waues.

1 Paul wish many other prisoners, & through the midst of many deaths, is brought to Rome, but yet by Gods owne hand as it were, and set forth and commended vnto the world with many fater testimonies, 46. 47. 48. 49.

1 Which was as the bill of Canbie, a Gods providence taketh not away the causes which God vouch as means, but rather ordereth and directeth and disposeth their right vie euen then when he openeth an extraordinarie issue.

2 This is a mean of the lowest fall, which they keepe in the fall of captiuitie, as we read, Leuit. 25. 17. which fell in the fourth month which we call October, and is now good for navigation, or sailing, 3 Men cast themselves willingly into an infinite sort of dangers, when they chuse to followe their owne wisdom, rather then Gods speaking by the mouth of his seruants.

4 Thy Canbie, in which floorer our ship was driven by that means, 4 North-east winds, 5 The sud proceed that none would be for themselves, then they which commit themselves to be gouerned onely by their owne wisdom,

6 God promisseth the wicked Iud as a time, for his elect and chusing sake.

6 The promise is made efficacie through faith.

7 We attaine not come to the promised land, but we are cast out through the midst of tempests and death's bill, 8 For Paul was test that the Adramyttian ship was the East Indes ship.

9 There is need to fede an anchor, when we are driven into some danger, and we will not suffer men to suffer men.

10 Although the performing of Gods promise doth not easily depend vpon our good will, yet they make themselves wayes by Gods blessing, which do not embrace that means which God will rather than our will.

11 When the world trembleth the faithful alone be not only quiet but continue their faith by their strength.

12 This is a promise which the Lord will, wherein, that they shall be safe, and not be cast out, 13 These two points must be of all to be feared and looked for, the port or harbor, and the weather.

43 Then the souldiers counsell was to kill the prisoners least any of them, when he had swumme out, should see away.

44 But the Centurion willing to saue Paul, layed them from this counsell, and commanded that they that could swimme, shoulde cast them selues first into the sea, and goe out to land.

45 And the other, some on boards, & some on certaine pieces of the ship: and so it came to passe that they came all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

The Barbarians carrie towards Paul and his company. 3 A viper on Pauls hand. 6 His flesh is off without harme. 8 Publius 9 and others are by him healed. 21 They depart from Melita, 26 and come to Rome, 27 Paul openeth to the Iewes 10 the cause of his coming: 28 His preacheth Iesus 30 two yeeres.

And when they were come safe, then they knew that the life was called Melita.

3 And the Barbarians shewed vs no little kinde, for they kindled a fire, and receiued vs euerie one, because of the present shewre, and because of the colde.

3 And when Paul had gathered a number of stickes, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heate, and leapt on his hand.

4 Now when the Barbarians sawe the worne hanging on his hande, they saide among themselves, This man surely is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance hath not suffered to liue.

5 But hee shooke off the worne into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit they waited when he should haue swolne, or fallen downe dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and sawe no inconuenience come to him, they changed their mindes, and said, That he was a God.

7 In the same quarters, the chiefe man of the Isle (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same receiued vs, and lodged vs three dayes courteously.

8 And so it was, that the father of Publius lay sicke of the feuer, and of a bloodie fluxe: to whome Paul entred in, and when he prayed, hee laide his hands on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the Isle, which had diseases came to him, and were healed.

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when we departed, they laded vs with things necessarye.

11 Now after three monthes wee departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the Isle, whose badge was Castor, and Pollux.

12 And when we arrived at Syracuse, we taried there three dayes.

13 And from thence wee set a compassse, and came to Rhegium: and after one day, the South winde blew, and we came the second day to Puteoli:

14 Where wee found brethren, and were described to tary, with them foure dayes, and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meete vs at the Market of Appius, and at the three tauernes, whome when Paul sawe, hee thanked God, and waxed bolde.

16 So when wee came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himselfe with a souldier that kept him.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together, and when they were come, hee sayde vnto them, Men and brethren, though I haue committed nothing against the people, or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Hierusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined me, would haue let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrarie, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you to see you, and to speake with you: for that hope of Israels sake, I am bound with this chaine.

21 Then they said vnto him, We neither receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that shewed or spake any euill of thee.

22 But wee will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that euery where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many vnto him into his lodging, to whome hee expounded & testifying the kingdom of God, and perswading them those things that concerne Iesus, both out of the Lawe of Moses and out of the Prophets, from morning to night.

24 And some were perswaded with things which were spoken, and some beleued not.

25 Therefore when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, I will speake the holy Ghost by Esaias the Prophet vnto our fathers,

26 Saying, Hee goe vnto this people, and say, By hearing ye shall see, & shall not vnderstand, and seeing ye shall see, and not perceiue.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed fatte, and their eares are dull of hearing, and with their eyes haue they winked, lest they shoulde see with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and vnderstand with their hearts, and shoulde returne that I might heale them.

28 Be it knowne therefore vnto you, that this saluation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they shall heare it.

29 And when he had saide these things, the Iewes departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 And Paul remained two yeeres full in an house hired for himselfe, and receiued al that came in vnto him,

31 Preaching the kingdom of God, & teaching those things which concerne the Lord Iesus Christ, with all boldnesse of speech, without let,

9 God neuer faileth his to be afflicted above their strength.

10 Appius was a paganist made by Appius the blind with the helpe of his souldiers, long and broad, and rough out so much the sea, and there were many saueries in it.

11 Not in a common prison, but in a house which he hired for himselfe.

12 Pauls every place remembereth himselfe to be an Apostle.

13 We may see the meane which God giueth vs, but to that we seeke the glory of God, & not our selues.

14 The law and the Gospell agree well together.

15 The Gospell is a fauour of life to them that beleene, & a favour of death to them that be disobedient.

THE EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE PAUL TO THE ROMANES.

CHAP. I.

He first sheweth on what authority his Apostolicke Authority, 15 Then he commendeth the Gospel, & by which God is made manifest in power to those that are saved 17 by faith, 21 but were guilty of wicked unbelief in the Gospel 26 For which his wrath was worthily poured on them; 29 so that they were deserving to all kinds of punis.

R

AVL 2121 a servant of Iesus Christ called to be an Apostle, & put apart to preach the Gospel of God,

(Which he had promised afore by his Prophets in the holy Scriptures)

3 Concerning his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord (which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh,

4 And declared mightily to be the sonne of God, touching the Spirit of sanctification by the resurrection from the dead)

5 By whom wee have received grace and Apostleship (that obedience might be given unto the faith) for his name among all the Gentiles,

6 Among whom ye be also the called of Iesus Christ :

7 To all you that be at Rome beloved of God, called to be Saints: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

8 First I thanke my God through Iesus Christ for you all, because your faith is published throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witness (whome I serve in my spirit in the Gospel of this Sonne) that without ceasing I make mention of you

10 Always in my prayers, beseeching that by some meynes, one time or other I might haue a prosperous journey by the will of God, to come vnto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I might bestow among you some spiritual gift, that you might be strengthened:

12 That is, that I might be comforted together with you, about our mutual faith, both yours and mine.

13 Now my brethren, I would that yee should not be ignorant, howe that I haue oftentimes pur-posed to come vnto you (but have bin lettethen) that I might haue some fruite also among you, as I haue among the other Gentiles.

14 I am deterrd both to the Grecians, and to the Barbarians, both to the wife men and to the vniuerse.

15 Therefore, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you also yare at Rome.

16 For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God vnto saluation to eury one that beleueeth, to the Jew first, and also to the Grecian.

17 For by it the righteousness of God is re-veiled from faith to faith: as it is written, The iust shall liue by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is reueiled from heaven against all vngodlinesse, and vnrightheousnes of men, which withhold the truth in vnrightheousnes.

19 For as much as that, which may be known of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For the invisible things of him, that is, his eternal power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the world, being considered in his works, to the intent that they should be without excuse.

21 Because that when they knowe God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankfull, but became vaine in their thoughts, and their foolish heart was full of foolishnes.

22 When they professed themselves to be wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birds, and four footed beasts, and of creeping things.

24 Wherefore also God gaue them vp to their hearts lusts, vnto vncleanness, to defile their owne bodies between themselves.

25 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for ever, Amen.

26 For this cause God gaue them vp to vile affections: for euen their women did change the natural vfe into that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men left the natural vfe of the woman, and burned in their lust one toward another, and man with man wrought likelike, and received in themselves such recompence of their error, as was meete.

28 Therefore must they needs be righteous: (as in some other places I haue written vnto you) that they may be without blame.

29 For we knowe that what so ever they do, they do it without excuse.

30 For when they knewe God, they did not glorify him as God, but became vaine in their thoughts, and their foolish heart was full of foolishnes.

31 When they professed themselves to be wise, they became fooles.

32 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birds, and four footed beasts, and of creeping things.

33 Wherefore also God gaue them vp to their hearts lusts, vnto vncleanness, to defile their owne bodies between themselves.

34 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for ever, Amen.

35 For this cause God gaue them vp to vile affections: for euen their women did change the natural vfe into that which is against nature.

36 And likewise also the men left the natural vfe of the woman, and burned in their lust one toward another, and man with man wrought likelike, and received in themselves such recompence of their error, as was meete.

37 Therefore must they needs be righteous: (as in some other places I haue written vnto you) that they may be without blame.

38 For we knowe that what so ever they do, they do it without excuse.

39 For when they knewe God, they did not glorify him as God, but became vaine in their thoughts, and their foolish heart was full of foolishnes.

40 When they professed themselves to be wise, they became fooles.

41 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birds, and four footed beasts, and of creeping things.

42 Wherefore also God gaue them vp to their hearts lusts, vnto vncleanness, to defile their owne bodies between themselves.

43 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for ever, Amen.

44 For this cause God gaue them vp to vile affections: for euen their women did change the natural vfe into that which is against nature.

45 And likewise also the men left the natural vfe of the woman, and burned in their lust one toward another, and man with man wrought likelike, and received in themselves such recompence of their error, as was meete.

46 Therefore must they needs be righteous: (as in some other places I haue written vnto you) that they may be without blame.

47 For we knowe that what so ever they do, they do it without excuse.

48 For when they knewe God, they did not glorify him as God, but became vaine in their thoughts, and their foolish heart was full of foolishnes.

49 When they professed themselves to be wise, they became fooles.

50 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birds, and four footed beasts, and of creeping things.

51 Wherefore also God gaue them vp to their hearts lusts, vnto vncleanness, to defile their owne bodies between themselves.

52 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for ever, Amen.

53 For this cause God gaue them vp to vile affections: for euen their women did change the natural vfe into that which is against nature.

54 And likewise also the men left the natural vfe of the woman, and burned in their lust one toward another, and man with man wrought likelike, and received in themselves such recompence of their error, as was meete.

55 Therefore must they needs be righteous: (as in some other places I haue written vnto you) that they may be without blame.

56 For we knowe that what so ever they do, they do it without excuse.

57 For when they knewe God, they did not glorify him as God, but became vaine in their thoughts, and their foolish heart was full of foolishnes.

58 When they professed themselves to be wise, they became fooles.

59 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birds, and four footed beasts, and of creeping things.

60 Wherefore also God gaue them vp to their hearts lusts, vnto vncleanness, to defile their owne bodies between themselves.

61 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for ever, Amen.

62 For this cause God gaue them vp to vile affections: for euen their women did change the natural vfe into that which is against nature.

63 And likewise also the men left the natural vfe of the woman, and burned in their lust one toward another, and man with man wrought likelike, and received in themselves such recompence of their error, as was meete.

64 Therefore must they needs be righteous: (as in some other places I haue written vnto you) that they may be without blame.

65 For we knowe that what so ever they do, they do it without excuse.

66 For when they knewe God, they did not glorify him as God, but became vaine in their thoughts, and their foolish heart was full of foolishnes.

67 When they professed themselves to be wise, they became fooles.

68 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birds, and four footed beasts, and of creeping things.

69 Wherefore also God gaue them vp to their hearts lusts, vnto vncleanness, to defile their owne bodies between themselves.

70 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for ever, Amen.

71 For this cause God gaue them vp to vile affections: for euen their women did change the natural vfe into that which is against nature.

72 And likewise also the men left the natural vfe of the woman, and burned in their lust one toward another, and man with man wrought likelike, and received in themselves such recompence of their error, as was meete.

73 Therefore must they needs be righteous: (as in some other places I haue written vnto you) that they may be without blame.

74 For we knowe that what so ever they do, they do it without excuse.

75 For when they knewe God, they did not glorify him as God, but became vaine in their thoughts, and their foolish heart was full of foolishnes.

76 When they professed themselves to be wise, they became fooles.

77 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birds, and four footed beasts, and of creeping things.

78 Wherefore also God gaue them vp to their hearts lusts, vnto vncleanness, to defile their owne bodies between themselves.

79 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for ever, Amen.

80 For this cause God gaue them vp to vile affections: for euen their women did change the natural vfe into that which is against nature.

81 And likewise also the men left the natural vfe of the woman, and burned in their lust one toward another, and man with man wrought likelike, and received in themselves such recompence of their error, as was meete.

97 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for ever, Amen.

98 For this cause God gaue them vp to vile affections: for euen their women did change the natural vfe into that which is against nature.

99 And likewise also the men left the natural vfe of the woman, and burned in their lust one toward another, and man with man wrought likelike, and received in themselves such recompence of their error, as was meete.

100 Therefore must they needs be righteous: (as in some other places I haue written vnto you) that they may be without blame.

101 For we knowe that what so ever they do, they do it without excuse.

102 For when they knewe God, they did not glorify him as God, but became vaine in their thoughts, and their foolish heart was full of foolishnes.

103 When they professed themselves to be wise, they became fooles.

104 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birds, and four footed beasts, and of creeping things.

105 Wherefore also God gaue them vp to their hearts lusts, vnto vncleanness, to defile their owne bodies between themselves.

18 For as they regarded not to acknowledge God, even so God denoted them vp vnto a reprobate minde, to doe those things which are not convenient.

19 Being full of all vnrighteousnesse, fornication, wickednesse, couetousnesse, malitiousnesse, full of enuy, of murder, of debate, of deceit, taking all things in the euill part, whisperers,

20 Backbiters, haters of God, doers of wrong, proud, boasters, inuencers of euill things, disobedient to parents, without vnderstanding, a couenant breakers, without naturall affection, such as can neuer be appeaied, merciless.

21 Which men, though they knew the Law of God, how that they which commit such things are worthy of death, yet not conely doe the same, but also v fawour them that doe them.

By the Law of God he meaneth the Prophets called the Law of nature, and the Lawyers themselves interpreters of the Law of nature. v. Are fillicious and partakers with them in their wickednesse, that persecuted them which do auoid.

CHAP. II.

He bringeth all before the iudgements first of God. 12 The teachers that the Gentiles ought to gett rid of ignorance, to be taught quite away. 17 He saith the lawe with the written Law, 18 in which they haue sinned. 19 and 20 maketh both Jew and Gentile alike.

Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, who forgett thou art that condemnest: for in that thou condemnest another, thou condemnest thy selfe: for thou that condemnest, doest the same things.

But we know that the iudgement of God is according to v truth, against them which commit such things.

And thinkest thou this, O thou man, that condemnest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

22 Or despisest thou the riches of his bountifullnesse, and patience, and long sufferance, not knowing that the bountifullnesse of God leadeth thee to repentance?

But thou, after thine hardnesse, and heart that can not repent, heapest vp as a treasure vnto thy selfe wrath against the day of wrath, and of the declaration of the iust iudgement of God,

Who will reward euery man according to his works:

7 That is, to them which through patience in well doing, seeke glory, and honour, and immortalitye, enuicrassing life:

But vnto them that are contentious, and disobey the c truth, and obey vnrighteousnesse, shall be indignation and wrath.

8 Tribulation and anguish shall be vpon the soule of euery man that doeth euill: of the Jew first, and also of the Grecian.

9 But to euery man that doeth good, shall be glory, and honour, and peace: to the Jew first, and also to the Grecian.

ward: neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew which is one within, and the circumcision is of the heart, in the spirit, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

Here begins the Jews, from a misinterpretation of the former chapter, to say that both Jews and Gentiles are saved, 1. by the promise of Scripture: 2. and showing the right of the Law, 20. by concluding that we are justified by faith.

What is then the preference of the Jew? or what is the profit of circumcision?

2 Much every manner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were of credit committed the oracles of God.

3 For what, though some did not believe? that their vniuersality make of faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, and every man a liar, as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy words, and overcome, when thou art judged.

5 Now if our vniuersality commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God vniuersally which punisheth? (I speak as a man.)

6 God forbid: (els how shall God iudge the world?)

7 For if the verities of God hath more abounded through my lie vnto thy glory, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

8 And as we are blamed, and as some ascribe, that we say why doe we not euilt, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we more excellent? No, in no wise; for we have already proved, that all, both Iewes and Gentiles are under sinne.

10 As it is written, 1. There is none righteous, no not one.

11 There is none that understandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

12 They have all gone out of the way: they have bene made altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

13 Their throat is an open sepulchre: they have vied their tongues to deceit: the poison of asps is vnder their lips.

14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.

15 Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction and calamity are in their wayes.

17 And the way of peace they haue not known.

18 The feare of God is not before their eyes.

19 Now we knowe that whatsoever the law sayeth, it sayeth it to them which are vnder the lawe, that every manner may bee stopped.

20 Therefore I speake not these wordes to mine excuse, but this is the tale of mannes wickedness, who is not justified to the sight of God.

21 Another objection, which addeth somewhat to the former, if sinnes doe tume to the glorie of God, they are not enely not to be punished, but we ought rather to giue our selues to them: which blasphemie Paul countering himselfe to carle and detest, pronounceth ill punishment against such blasphemers.

22 Another answer to the last objection: that the Iewes, if they be confuted in themselves, are no better then other men are: as it hath bene long since pronounced by the mouth of the Prophets.

23 A conclusion of all the former disposition from the verse of the first Chapter. Therefore with the Apostle, No man can hope to be justified by any Law, whether it be that general Law, or the particular Law of Moses, and therefore to be laied: seeing it appeareth that we haue already prouced, by comparing the Law and mans life together, that all men are sinners, and therefore worthy of condemnation in the sight of God.

and all the world be subject to the iudgement of God.

24 Therefore by the works of the Lawe shall no flesh bee justified in his sight: for by the Lawe cometh the knowledge of sinne.

25 But now is the righteousnes of God made manifest without the Lawe, hauing witness of the Lawe, and of the Prophets,

26 To wit, the righteousnesse of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleue.

27 For there is no difference for all haue sinned, and are deperied of the glorie of God,

28 And are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus,

29 Whom God hath set forth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood to declare his righteousnesse, by the forgiveness of the finnes that are passed,

30 Through the patience of God, to shewe at this time his righteousnesse, that hee might bee iust and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.

31 Where is then the reioicing? It is excluded. By what Law? of works? Nay: but by the Lawe of faith.

32 Therefore wee conclude, that a man is iustified by faith, without the woordes of the Lawe.

33 God, is he the God of the Iewes onely, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

34 For it is one God, who shall iustifie a circumcision of faith, and vncircumcision through faith.

35 Doe we then make the Lawe of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the Law.

36 The matter, as it were, of this righteousness is Christ Iesus apprehended by faith, and for this ende offered to all people, as without him all people are lost from the kingdom of God.

37 Which we giue to Iesus Christ, as which we fast upon him. 38 By the glorie of God, it means that work which we do of him, that is, our faith, which standeth in that we are made partakers of the glorie of God.

39 Therefore this righteousness, which we do of him, for it standeth vpon those things which we haue not done of ourselues, but such as Christ hath suffered for us, to direct vs to him.

40 Of his grace, and mere liberality. 41 God then is the author of the free iustification, because it pleased him: and Christ is hee, which suffered punishment for our finnes, and in whome wee haue remission of them: and means whereby we are apprehended Christ, is faith.

42 To be short, the end is the thing sought of the goodness of God, that by this means it may appoyne, hee is merciful indeed, and constant in his promises, as hee hath freely offered grace iustification to the beleuer.

43 True words of blood, called vs here to the figure of the old sacrifice, the death and substance of which sacrifice Christ, of these finnes which we committed when we were his carners.

44 These his pattern, and suffering nature, a To wit, when Paul writt this, it is to be might be found exceeding true and faithful. 45 Noting him self, and without doubt by imputing Christ's righteousness vnto him.

46 Of the number of these things, faith he holdeth open Christ: contrary to whom, as they whoe are to be justified, faith is by the Lawe. 47 An argument to preclude this conclusion, that we were justified by faith without works, taken from the ende of iustification.

48 The ende of iustification is the glorie of God alone: therefore we are iustified by faith without works: for if we were iustified either by our owne works, or partly by faith, and partly by works, the glorie of this iustification should bee wholly giuen to God.

49 By what desire was the desire of our faith, that we should be made like Iesus Christ, and the desire of faith is the desire of the same.

50 Another argument of an advantage: if iustification depend vpon the name of Iesus, then should God bee a Saviour to the Iewes only, because if he should save the Iewes after one sort, and the Gentiles also, as much he should not be one and like himselfe.

51 Therefore hee will iustifie both of the after one selfe same manner, that is to say, by faith. Moreover, this argument may be ioynted to that which followeth next, that this conclusion may be more manifest, God is ready to be their God, after the manner of the Scripture: it is iustified and made known.

52 The circumstance. 53 The tribulation which is in the Law, yet is not the Law taken away therefore, but is rather established, as it is called in his proper place. 54 Wayes, to be so on purpose, and of no force, it is made in itselfe and strong.

CHAP. III.

He proueth that which he saide before of faith, by the example of Abraham, 3. 4. and the testimony of the Scriptures and testimonies to the contrary he sheweth open this word promission.

VV Hat I shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath found concerning the ^a faith?

X 3 For if Abraham were iustificed by workes, he hath wherein to reioyce, but not with God.

X 3 For what faith the Scripture? Abraham beleeued God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.

X 4 Nowe to him that ^b worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by dectee.

X 5 But to him that worketh not, but beleeueth in him that ^c iustificeth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

X 6 Euen as Dauid declareth the blessednes of the many, vnto whom God imputeth righteousness without workes, saying,

X 7 Blessed are they: whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose finnes are couered.

X 8 Blessed is the man, to whome the Lorde imputeth not finne.

X 9 ^d Came this blessednes then vpon the circumcision onely, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousness.

X 10 How was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not when hee was circumcised, but when hee was vncircumcised.

X 11 After, he receiued the signe of vncircumcision, as the seale of the righteousness of the faith which he had, when hee was vncircumcised, so that he should be the father of all them that beleeue, not being circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also.

X 12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the steppes of the faith of our father Abraham which he had when hee was vncircumcised.

X 13 Vnto the promise that hee should bee the heire of the world, was not ^e giuen to Abraham, or to his seede, through the ^f Lawe, but through the righteousness of faith.

X 14 For if they which are of the ^g Lawe, be heires, faith is made voyd, and the promise is made of none effect.

X 15 For the Lawe causeth wrath: for where no Law, is there is no transgression.

X 16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might be sure to all the seede, ^h not to that onely which is of the Lawe: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all.

X 17 (As it is written, I haue made thee a father of many nations) ⁱ euen before ^j M God whome he beleeued, who quickeneth the dead, & calleth those things which be not, as though they were.

X 17 Which Abraham about hope, beleeued vnder hope, that he should be the father of many nations: according to that which was spoken to him, So shalt thou bee.

X 19 And hee ^k not weake in the faith, considered not his owne body which was nowe ^l dead, being almost an hundred yeere olde, neither the deadnes of Saras wombe,

X 20 Neither did hee doubt of the promise of God through vnbeliefe, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue ^m glory to God,

X 21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to doe it.

X 22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

X 23 Nowe is it not written for him onely, that it was imputed to him for righteousness,

X 24 But also for vs, to whom it shalbe imputed for righteousness, which beleeue in him that raysed vp Iesus our Lord from the dead,

X 25 Who was deliuered to death for our finnes, and is risen againe for our iustification.

X 26 This fatherhood is spiritual, depending onely vpon the vertue of God, who made the promise. ⁿ Before God, that is by a spiritual kinred, which hath place before God, and maketh vs acceptable to God. ^o Who reuerenseth his

^p With whom these things are already, which are not in deed, as he that can with a worde make what he will of nothing. ^q A description of true faith wholly resting in the power of God, and his good willet forth in the example of Abraham.

^r True strength and constancy. ^s Vnder of strength, and commeth to god children. ^t Acknowledged and prayed God as our benefactor and true. ^u A description of true faith.

^v The role of iustification is alwayes one, both in Abraham and in all the faithfull: that is to say, faith in God, who after that there was made a full satisfaction for our finnes in Christ our mediator, rayed him from the dead, that we also being iustified, might be righteous in him.

CHAP. V.

X 1 He amplifieth ^a Christes righteousness, which is layde holden on by faith, ^b who was giuen for the wake, ^c and fulfill. ^d He compareth Christ with Adam, ^e 17 Ditch will life, so and the Law with Grace.

X 2 Hen being iustified by faith, wee haue peace toward God through our Lorde Iesus Christ.

X 3 By whom also through faith, we haue effects: we are iustified with this access into this grace, ^f wherein wee stand, ^g and reioyce vnder the hope of the glory of God.

X 4 Neither that onely, but also wee ^h reioyce in tribulations, ⁱ knowing that tribulation bringeth

the Lawe, as it was before sayd, therefore by faith we are iustified and not by the Lawe. ^j X 5 ^k Whereas quinquens of conscience is attributed to faith, it is referred to Christ, who is the giuer of faith in itselfe, in whom faith is selfe similitude of his death, even so shall we be as the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead, is freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall live also with him,

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died ^{once} to sinne: but in that he lieth, he lieth to ^{God}.

11 Likewise thinke ye also, that ye are dead to sin, but are alive to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne ^{reigne} therefore in your mortal bodies, if ye should obey it in ^{his} lusts thereof:

13 Neither give ye your members as weapons of unrighteousnes vnto sinne: but give your selves vnto God, as they that are alive from the dead, and give your members as weapons of righteousness vnto God.

14 For sinne shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not vnder ^{the} Law, but vnder grace.

15 What then? shall we sinne, because we are not vnder the Law, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 ^{Know} we yee not, that to whomsoever ye give your selves as servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey, whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of obedience vnto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye have bene the servants of sinne, but ye have obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine, whereunto ye were deliuered.

18 Being then made free from sinne, yee are made the servants of righteousness.

19 I speake after the manner of man, because of the infirmities of your flesh: for as ye have given your members servants to uncleannes and to iniquitie, to ^{committ} iniquity, now give your members servants vnto righteousness in holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sinne, ye were freed from righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things, whereof ye are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

22 But now being freed from sinne, & made servants vnto God, ye haue your fruit in holiness, and the end, euerallasting life.

23 For the wages of sinne is death: but the gift of God is eternal life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

24 He reprobeth that sinne is not yet so dead in vs as they thinke: but he promitteth victory to them that contend manfully, so as they haue the grace of God which worketh so, that the law is not the power and instrument of sinne.

8 To vnder the law and vnder grace, in respect of them which are not sanctified, as on the contrary he bringeth grace and righteousness agree to them that are regenerate. Now he sheweth, that one cannot agree with the other. Therefore let righteousness be the contrary end of both, being first downe before vs.

9 By nature we are sinners to sinne, and are righteous, but by the grace of God we are made servants to righteousness, and therefore free from sinne.

10 This kinde of speech hath a force in it, to remoueth thereby the doctrine of the Gal. in his words a certaine mould we are called to be freed and fashioned like vnto it.

11 Righteousness is not by works. In an exhortation to the studie of righteousness and holiness, he exhorteth to the study of righteousness and holiness, which are the contrary end of both, being first downe before vs.

12 Death is the punishment due to sinne, but we are sanctified, and live eueralsting.

CHAP. VII.

1 He declareth what it is, to be vnder the Law, 2 by an example taken of the Law of marriage: 7, 12 And lest the Law should seeme further, 14 he reprobeth, that our sinne is the cause, 15 that the same is an occasion of death, 17 which was giuen vnto life: 21 He sheweth vnto the battell betweene the Law and the Spirit.

Now ye not, brethren, (for I speake to them that know the Law,) that the Law hath dominion ouer a man as long as he lieth?

2 For the woman which is in subiection to a man, is bound by the Law to the man, while he lieth: but if the man be dead, shee is deliuered from the Law of the man.

3 So then, if while the man lieth, she taketh another man, she shall be called an adulteresse: but if the man be dead, shee is free from the Law, so that she is not an adulteresse, though she take another man.

4 So ye, my brethren, are dead also to ^{the} Law by the body of Christ, that ye should be vnto an other, ^{even} vnto him: y is raised vp from the dead, that we should bring forth ^a fruit vnto ^{God}.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the afflictions of sin, which were by the Law, had force in our members, to bring forth fruit vnto death.

6 But now we are deliuered from the Law, he being dead, in whom we were holden, that we should serue in ^{the} newnesse of Spirit, and not in the oldnesse of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sinne, but by the Law: for I had not known ^a lust, except the Law had said, Thou shalt not luff.

8 But sinne tooke an occasion by the commandment, and wrought in me all manner of concupiscence: for without the Law sinne is dead.

9 For I once was alive, without the Law: but when the commandment came, sinne reuiued,

10 But I died: and the same commandment which was ordained vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandment, and decieued me, and thereby slew me.

12 Wherefore the Law is holy, and that commandment is holy, and iust, and good.

3 A declaration of the former saying: for the concupiscence (which he which the law stirred vp in vs, were in vs as it were a husband, of whome we brought forth deadly & cursed children. But now since the husband is dead, & so consequently being deliuered from the force of that killing Law, we haue passed into the governance of the spirit, so that we bring forth now, not those rotten & dead, but lively children.

4 When we were in the state of the first marriage, which he calls in the next verse following, the almes of the letter. The motions that egged vs to sinne, which stem from their force even in our minds. He saith not of the Law, but by the Law, because they spring of sinne which dwelleth within vs, and take occasion to sinne by the reason of the restraint that the law maketh, not that the fault is in the law, but in our flesh.

5 He saith their strength. 1 As if he said, The bond which bound vs, is dead, and vanisied away, inasmuch that sin which held vs, hath now more power to hold vs. 6 For the husband is within vs. 1 Satan is our vniuersal possessor, for he brought vs in bondage of sinne and himselfe, deceitfully, and yet not without sinning so long as we are sinners, we sinne willingly. 2 As he commeth then, which after the death of their old husband are turned to the spirituous husband of God which is within vs. By the letter he meaneth the Law, in respect of that alse condition: for before that our will be framed by the holy Ghost, the Law speaketh but to death now, and therefore is inumble and dead to vs, as touching the fulfilling of it.

4 An Objection: What then? are the law and sinne all one, and do they agree together? nay, faith he: Sinne is reprobated and condemned by the law. But because sinne cannot abide to be reprobated & was not in a manner felt: vntill it was provoked and stirred vp by the Law, it taketh occasion thereby to be more outrageous, and yet by no fault of the Law.

2 By the word, Law, he meaneth that place he moueth not in this flesh, but the fountain from whence they spring: for the very beakish philosophy is in flesh condemned we had left, though sinne had darkly, but as for this fountain of them, they could not so much as suspect it, and yet it is the very cause of this natural and vniuersal spot and filth.

Exod. 20. 17. And 23. 2. Though sinne be in vs, yet it is not known for sinne, neither doeth it so rage, as it rageth after the law is known. 5 He telleth himselfe before vs for an example in whom all were so sinners, as he was.

6 When he saith, vnto death, he meaneth that we were brought to death by the Law of God: to wit, blackish: as I had to sinne and wickednes, without all true feeling and feeling of sinne, then what manner of persons they become, when their consciences is reproved by the testimonie of the Law, to wit, flubborne, and more enflamed with the desire of sinne, then ever they were before.

7 When I knew not sin, then me thought I lived in death: for my conscience was troubled me, as it were was my displeasure. 8 When he saith, vnto death, he meaneth that we were brought to death by the Law of God: to wit, blackish: as I had to sinne and wickednes, without all true feeling and feeling of sinne, then what manner of persons they become, when their consciences is reproved by the testimonie of the Law, to wit, flubborne, and more enflamed with the desire of sinne, then ever they were before.

9 When I knew not sin, then me thought I lived in death: for my conscience was troubled me, as it were was my displeasure. 8 When he saith, vnto death, he meaneth that we were brought to death by the Law of God: to wit, blackish: as I had to sinne and wickednes, without all true feeling and feeling of sinne, then what manner of persons they become, when their consciences is reproved by the testimonie of the Law, to wit, flubborne, and more enflamed with the desire of sinne, then ever they were before.

10 When he saith, vnto death, he meaneth that we were brought to death by the Law of God: to wit, blackish: as I had to sinne and wickednes, without all true feeling and feeling of sinne, then what manner of persons they become, when their consciences is reproved by the testimonie of the Law, to wit, flubborne, and more enflamed with the desire of sinne, then ever they were before.

11 When he saith, vnto death, he meaneth that we were brought to death by the Law of God: to wit, blackish: as I had to sinne and wickednes, without all true feeling and feeling of sinne, then what manner of persons they become, when their consciences is reproved by the testimonie of the Law, to wit, flubborne, and more enflamed with the desire of sinne, then ever they were before.

12 When he saith, vnto death, he meaneth that we were brought to death by the Law of God: to wit, blackish: as I had to sinne and wickednes, without all true feeling and feeling of sinne, then what manner of persons they become, when their consciences is reproved by the testimonie of the Law, to wit, flubborne, and more enflamed with the desire of sinne, then ever they were before.

13 When he saith, vnto death, he meaneth that we were brought to death by the Law of God: to wit, blackish: as I had to sinne and wickednes, without all true feeling and feeling of sinne, then what manner of persons they become, when their consciences is reproved by the testimonie of the Law, to wit, flubborne, and more enflamed with the desire of sinne, then ever they were before.

14 When he saith, vnto death, he meaneth that we were brought to death by the Law of God: to wit, blackish: as I had to sinne and wickednes, without all true feeling and feeling of sinne, then what manner of persons they become, when their consciences is reproved by the testimonie of the Law, to wit, flubborne, and more enflamed with the desire of sinne, then ever they were before.

10 And Christ be in you, the body is dead, because of sinne: but the Spirit is life for righteousnes sake.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortal bodies, by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, we are debtors not to the flesh to liue after the flesh:

13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye mortifie the deedes of the body by the Spirit, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye haue not receiued the Spirit of bondage, to feare againe: but ye haue receiued the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The same Spirit beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 If we are children, we are also heires, euen the heires of God, and heires annexed with Christ: so that we shall suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time are not worthy of the glory, which shall be shewed vnto vs.

19 For the feruent desire of the creature waiteth when the sonnes of God shall be reueiled.

20 Because the creature is subiect to vanitie, not of it owne will, but by reason of him, which hath subdued it vnder a hope.

21 Because the creature also shall be deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.

22 For we know that euery creature groweth with vs also, and is traueiled in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the first frutes of the Spirit, euen we doe fight in our felues, waiting for the adoption, euen as the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saued by hope: but the hope that is seene, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, we doe with patience abide it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what to pray as we ought: but the Spirit it self maketh request for vs with sighs, which cannot be expressed.

27 But he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for he maketh request for vs Saints, according to the will of God.

28 Also we know that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For those which he knew before, he also predestinate to be made like to the image of his Sonne, that hee might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreouer, whom he predestinate, the also he called, & whom he called, them also he iustified, & whom he iustified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can be against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, how shall he not with him also giue vs all things also?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? it is God that iustificeth.

34 Who shall condemne? it is Christ which is dead, yea, or rather, which is risen againe, who is also at the right hand of God, & maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christ? shall tribulation or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sword?

36 As it is written, For thy sake are we killed al day long: we are counted as sheepe for slaughter.

37 Neuerthelesse, in all these things we are more than conquerours through him whom we loued vs.

38 For I am perswaded that neither death, nor life, nor Angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature shall be able to separate vs from the loue of God, which is in Christ Iesus our Lord.

not afflicted, either by chance or to our harme, but by Gods providence for our great profit: who as he chose vs from the beginning, so hath he predestinate vs to be made like to the image of his Sonne: and therefore will bring vs in his time, being called and iustificato glory, by the crosse. I. Not only affliction, but tribulation also. He calleth this, Tribulation, which God hath from our calling appointed with himself according to his good will and pleasure. In the first time, for the time present, as the Hebrews say, who sometimes set vpon the thing that is to come, by the time that is past, to signify the certainty of it: and he hath also a regard to Gods continual working. Secondly, we haue no cause to feare that the Lord will not giue vs what we need for vs, seeing that he hath not forgotten his owne Sonne to forsake vs. Giue me freely. A most glorious & comfortable conclusion of the whole second part of this Epistle, that is, of the treatise of iustification. There are no secreters that we haue neede to be afraid of before God, seeing that God himselfe aboleth vs as vniust: and therefore much lesse neede we to feare damnation, seeing that we rest vpon the death & resurrection, he almighty power and defence of Iesus Christ. Therefore what can there be so weightie in this life, of so great force and power, that might cause vs to be afraid of it, as though it might be able to overcome vs? Surely nothing, because it is in itselfe most constant & sure, & also in vs being comforted by stedfast faith. Whereupon we are not only comforted, but also perswaded in his Sonne. Whereupon Christ saith vs. Psa. 44. 32. We are not only our owne comfort with vs great and many miseries and calamities, but also more than conquerours in all of them.

CHAP. IX.

It answereth an objection, that might be brought on the Trinitie, saying, 7. and the flesh of two sorts of Abrahams children, 15. and that God purgeth all things in this water according to

d. Iust from the baptism of our hearts. 7. And I will be a Father to the fatherless, & a merciful Father to the widow. 15. And that God purgeth all things in this water according to 17 And though some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wilde Olive tree, wast graffed in, for them, and made a partaker of the root, and fatnesse of the Olive tree:

18 Boast not thy selfe against the branches: if thou boast thy selfe, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches are broken off, that I might be graffed in.

20 Well: through vnbeliefe they are broken off, and thou standest by faith: bee not high minded, but feare.

21 For if God spared not the naturall branches, take heed, lest he also spare not thee.

22 Beholde therefore the bountifullnesse, and clemencie of God: toward them which have fallen, fertility: but toward thee, bountifullnesse, if thou continue in his bountifullnesse: or els thou shalt also be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in vnbeliefe, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.

24 For if thou wast cut out of the Olive tree, which was wilde by nature, and wast graffed contrary to nature in a right Olive tree, howe much more shall they that are by nature, be graffed in their owne Olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this secret (lest ye should be arrogant in your felices) that partly obtinacie is come to Israel, vntill the fullnesse of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved, as it is written, & The deliuerer shall come out of Sion, and shall turne away the vngodlinesse from Jacob.

27 And this is my covenant to them, & When I shall take away their sinnes.

28 As concerning the Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers sakes.

29 For the gifts & calling of God are without repentance.

30 For euen as yet in times past haue not beleued God, yet haue howe obteined mercy through their vnbeliefe:

31 Euen fo now haue they not beleued by the mercy shewed vnto you, that they also may obtaine mercy.

32 For God hath giue vp all in vnbeliefe that he might haue mercy on all.

33 O the deepnesse of the riches, both of the wisdom, and knowledge of God: how vnsearchable are his iudgements, and his wayes past finding out!

34 For who hath knowne the minde of the Lord? or who was his counsellor?

35 Or who hath giuen vnto him first, and he shall be recompensed?

36 For of him, and through him, and for him are all things: to him be glory for euer. Amen.

of the same benefice, and so it might appeare that both Iewes and Gentiles were saved, onely by the free mercy and grace of God, which could not have bene so manifest, if at the beginning, God had brought altogether into the Church, as if he had spared the nation of the Iewes without this interruption, f. B. h. leu. and Gen. 11. The Apostle crieth out as afforeshaid with this wonderfull wisdom of God, which he teacheth vs, ought to be religiously reuerenced, and not curiously and prophandy to be searched beyond the compasse of that that God hath reuelled vnto vs. 2. The cor. 12. he beate in gaurding all things both generally and particularly. The order of his counsaile and designe, cf. Job. 41. 2. 1. Cor. 13. 1. 2. Cor. 12. 10. Hee breideth three manner of wayes, the wicked boldnesse of man: First, because that God is about all, moill wile, and therefore it is very absurd, and plainly godlesse, to measure him by our folly. Moreover, because hee is debter to no man, and therefore no man can complaine of iniury done vnto him. Thirdly, because all things are made for his glory, and therefore we must reuerse all things to his glory, which selfe may not contend and debate the matter with him. 4. To wit, for God so who glory all things are referred, not onely things that were made, but especially his actions which be wrought in his childe.

CHAP. XII.

1 He exhorteth 2 to that worship which is acceptable to God 3 to be not confused, 4 to run toward our enemies.

1 Beseech 2 you therefore brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye be giue vp your bodie as a liuing sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your reasonable seruice of God.

2 And fashion not your felices like vnto this world, but bee ye changed by the renewing of your minde, that ye may approve what is good, and acceptable and perfect will of God.

3 For I say through the grace that is giuen vnto me, to euery one that is among you, that no man presume to vnderstand about that which is meet to vnderstand, but that he vnderstand according to 1. For as much as God hath deale to euery man the measure of faith.

trusting to the grace of God. *a. By this preface he sheweth that Gods glory is the vntoall end of all our doings. b. In times past the sacrifices were presented before the altar, but now the altar is within where. c. Your felices: in times past, other bodies than our own were offered, but now we must offer such as about the first of life in them. d. Spirituall. e. The second precept is this, That we take not other men's opinions for matters for anule of life: but that we wholly reuerence this world, before we can make the will of God as it is manifested and opened vnto his word. f. Why then there is no place left for reason, which the heathen Philosopher place as a Quere in a Cuffell, nor for mans free will, which the Popish schoolmen dreame must the minde must be reuend. Lookes Eph. 4. 17. and 2. 10. and Coloss. 2. 18. Eph. 5. 17. 1. Cor. 13. 3. Thirdly, he admonisheth vs very earnestly, that euery man keepe himselfe within the boundes of his knowledge, that euery man be wise according to the measure of this world, but which person is ignorant they know more there in deede they do. It is for to be sober, if we take not this upon vs, which we haue not, and if we be not of that we haue. *cf. 1. Cor. 13. 11. 1. Eph. 4. 7. b. By faith be measure the knowledge of God in Christ, and the gifts which the holy Ghost powreth vpon the faithful.

16 Another reason: because that although they which are hardward, are worthily punished, yet haue not this stubbornnesse of the Iewes to come to passe properly for the nation, but that an euerie might as it were be opened to bring in the Gentiles, and afterward the Iewes being in flames with emulation of that mercie which is shewed to the Gentiles, might themselves also be partakers.

1 The fourth part of this Epistle, which after the finishing of the chief points of Christian doctrine, consisteth in declaring of precepts of Christian life, And first of all, he giueth generally precepts and groundeth the chiefe of which is, that whoso is in this, that euery man conserue himselfe wholly to the spirital seruice of God, and do as it is his sacrifice himselfe.

19 He giueth a double warning in this matter, out which perswades to the strong, that he which hath obtained a free knowledge of this liberie, keepe that treasure to the end he may vie it wisely and profitably, as hath bene said: the other which respecteth the weak, that they doe nothing rashly by other mens example with a wavering conscience, for that cannot be done without sinne, whereof wee are not perswaded by the word of God, that he liketh and approoveth it. 9 Hee shewed before, vers. 14. what bet mensure by faith, to wit: for a man to bee certaine and out of doubt in matters and things indifferent. 10 And thus, 1 Reasoneth with himselfe,

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: all things in deede are pure: but it is a cull for the man which eateth with offence.

21 ¶ It is good neither to cate flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or made weake.

22 ¶ Hast thou faith? haue it with thy selfe, before God: blessed is hee that condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.

23 For he that doubteth, is condemned if he cate, because he eateth not of faith: and whatsoever is not of faith, is sinne.

24 ¶ The stronger must imply their strength to strengthen the weaker, 3 By Christs example, 7 who received it not only the lawes, but also the Gentiles. 25 The cause why he wrote this Epistle.

CHAP. XV.

1 The stronger must imply their strength to strengthen the weaker, 3 By Christs example, 7 who received it not only the lawes, but also the Gentiles. 25 The cause why he wrote this Epistle.

1 Nowe the Apostle reasoneth generally of tolerating or bearing with the weak by all means, so farre forth as may be for their proficte. And dispute others.

2 For his proficte and edification.

3 A confirmation taken of the example, who suffered all things to bring not only the weak, but also his most cruell enemies, overcoming them with patience, to his Father.

4 The preventing of an objection. Such things as are cited out of the examples of the ancients, are propounded vnto vs to this end and purpose, that according to the example of one Father, we should in patience and hope beare one with another.

5 By Moses and the Prophets.

6 The Scriptures are joynt to teach and comfort, because God willeth vs to teach and comfort his people withall.

7 We must take the example of patience, of God that both the weak and the strong serving God with a mutual consent, may bring one another to God, as Christ also received vs into himselfe, although we were neuer by ourselues. 8 1. Cor. 1. 10. 9 He did not disdain vs, but received vs of his own accord, to make vs partakers of Gods glory. 10 An applying of the example of Christ to the lawes, whome hee vouchsafed this honour for the promises which he made vnto their fathers, although they were neuer so vnworthy, that he executed the office of a Minister amongst them with merciful patience. Therefore much lesse ought the Gentiles despite their former sinfull state, whom the Sonne of God so much redeemed. 11 f Of the circumcised lawes, for as long as he liued, he neuer went out of their quarters. 12 That God might by sinne to be draw. 13 An applying of the time to the Gentiles, whome also the Lord of his incomprehensible goodnesse had regard of, so that they are not to be contemned of the lawes as strangers. 14 Psalm. 117. 30. 15 f With openly professe, and let forth thy name. 16 Psalm. 117. 30. 17 f With openly professe, and let forth thy name.

WHICH are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weak, & not to please our selves.

2 Therefore let every man please his neighbour in that that is good to edification.

3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, 7 The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, fill on me.

4 For whatsoever things are written aforetime, are written for our learning, that we through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures might haue hope.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation giue you that yee bee as like minded one toward another, according to Christ Iesus,

6 That yee with one minde, and with one mouth may praise God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receiue ye one another, as Christ also received vs to the glory of God.

8 Nowe I say, that Iesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision, for the truth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God, for his mercie, as it is written, ¶ For this cause I will blesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe hee saith, ¶ Reioyce, ye Gentiles with his people.

11 And againe, ¶ Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles, and laude ye him, all people together.

12 And againe Elias saith, ¶ There shall bee

a roote of Iesse, and he that shall rise to reigne ouer the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 ¶ Now the God of hope fill you with all ioy, and peace in beleeuing, that yee may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 ¶ And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that yee also are full of goodnesse, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to aduise one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I haue somewhat boldly after a sort written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen me of God,

16 That I should bee the minister of Iesus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministering the Gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 ¶ I haue therefore whereof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not speake of any thing, which I Christ hath not wrought by mee, to make the Gentiles obedient in word and deede.

19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the spirit of God: so that from Hierusalem, and round about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should haue built on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, ¶ To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see him, and they that heard not, shall vnderstand him.

22 ¶ Therefore also I haue bene of set to come vnto you:

23 But now seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue bene desirous many yeeres agone to come vnto you,

24 When I shall take my journey into Spaine, I will come to you: for I must to see you in my journey, and to bee brought on my way thitherward by you, after that I haue bene somewhat filled with your company.

25 But now goe I to Hierusalem, to minister vnto the Saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certaine distribution vnto the poore Saints which are at Hierusalem.

27 ¶ For it hath pleased them, and their detters are they: for if the Gentiles bee made partakers of their spiritual things, their due tie is also to minister vnto them in carnall things.

28 When I haue therefore performed this, and haue reaped them this fruit, I will passe by you into Spaine.

29 ¶ And I knowe when I come, that I shall and working of the wonders in piercing mens minds: and in letters, as I haue done, *1. come come to you with abundance of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

30. Also brethren, I beseech you for our Lorde Iesus Christe, and for the 3^e issue of the spirit, that ye would strive with me by prayers to God for me.

31. That I may be delivered from them which are disobedient in Iudea, & that my service which I have to doe at Hierusalem, may be accepted of the Saints.

32. That I may come vnto you with ioy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed. Amen. Thus the God of peace be with you all.

CHAP. XVI.

1. I commend vnto you Phoebe our sister, which is a seruante of the Church of Cenchrea.

2. That yee receive her in the Lorde, as it becommeth Salutes, and that yee assist her in whatsoever businesse shee needeth of your ayde: for she hath giuen hospitalitie vnto many, and to me also.

3. Greete & Priscilla, and Aquila, my fellowe helpers in Christ Iesus.

4. Which have for my life layde downe their owne necke, vnto whom not I onely giue thanks, but also all the Churches of the Gentiles.

5. Likewise greete the Church that is in their house. Salute my beloued Epenetus, which is the first fruite of Achaia in Christ.

6. Greete Marie which bestowed much labour on vs.

7. Salute Andronicus and Iunia my cousins and fellow prisoners, which are notable among the Apostles, and were in Christ before me.

8. Greete Amplias my beloued in the Lord.

9. Salute Vibranus our fellowe helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloued.

10. Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobolus friends.

11. Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greete them which are of the friends of Narcissus which are in the Lord.

12. Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, which women labour in the Lorde. Salute the beloued Peris, which woman hath laboured much in the Lord.

13. Salute Rufus chosen in the Lorde, and his mother and mine.

14. Greete Asyncritus, Philegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Mercurius, and the brethren which are with them.

15. Salute Philologus and Iulias, Nereas, and his sister, and Olympeas, and all the Saintes which are with them.

16. Salute one another with an holy kisse. The Churches of Christ salute you.

17. Nowe I beseech you brethren, I marke them diligently which cause diuision and offences, contrarie to the doctrine which ye have learned, and & auoid them.

18. For they that are such, Tene not the Lorde Iesus Christ but their owne Bellies, & with a faire speach and flattering deccie the heartes of the simple.

19. For your obedience is come abroade among all: I am glad therefore of you: but yet I woulde haue you a wise vnto that which is good, and simple concerning euill.

20. The God of peace shall treade Satan vnder your feete shortly. The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ be with you.

21. Timotheus my helper, and Lucius and Iason, and Sosipater my kinsmen, salute you.

22. Tertius, which wrote our this Epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23. Gaius mine hoste, & of the whole Church saluteth you. Erastus the steward of the citie saluteth you, and Quartus a brother.

24. The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

25. To him now that is of power to establish you according to my Gospel, and preaching of Iesus Christ, by the reuelation of the myserie, which was kept secret since the world began:

26. (But nowe is opened, and published among all nations by the Scriptures of the Prophets, at the commandment of the euertlasting God for the obedience of faith)

27. To God, I say, onely wise, be praise through Iesus Christ for euer. Amen.

3. Simplicitie must be ioynd with wisdom. 4. Therefore with the knowledge of the truth, and wisdom, that you may embrace good things, and sheweth out the bewares of the deccit, & sheweth of false prophecie, and resist them openly, in this place dooth plainly destroy the Papist faith of secret, wherein they maintain it to be justified for any man to believe in as much as he believeth, without further knowledge, or examination what the matter is, or what ground hath: vnto these dayes I praye, We beleue as our fathers beleued, and we beleue as the Church beleueth, I am sure that knowe no way to deccie, much lesse doe deccie in deede. 4. We must fight, with a certaine hope of victorie. 5. He that annexeth salutation, partly to reuene mutual friendship, and partly to the ends that this Epistle might be of some weight with the Romans, having the consideration of many that subscribed vnto it. 6. Wherein as Paul uttereth, whereupon dependeth all the force of the former doctrine. 7. He stretcheth forth the power and wisdom of God with great thanksgiving, which especially appere in the Gospel: and maketh mention also of the calling of the Gentiles to confirme the Romans in the hope of this saluation. 8. 8 Another objection: But how could it be that those who were not carnal could not perceive this wisdom? Paul answers: Because we preach these things which pass all man's understanding.

9 Man can not so much as think of these things, much less court them with his senses.

10 A question: If it surpasseth the capacity of men, how can it be understood of any man, or how can you declare & preach it by a peculiar lightning by Gods Spirit, whereas wisdom is inspired he can come even to the very secrets of God.

11 There is nothing so secret and hidden in God, but the Spirit of God perceives it.

12 He saith that for by a foolishness, which he speaks of the inspiration of the Spirit. As the force of man's wit reacheth up things pertaining to man, so doth coming by that power of the holy Ghost, understand heavenly things. The minds of men, which is induced with wisdom, is to understand and judge: but the Spirit, which we have received, doth not reach to things of this world, but lifteth us up to God; and so plant teacheth us against the wisdom of this world. For we have it common, and what first is in us. 13 The which he speaks generally, beareth witness unto us, that which God hath opened unto vs of our foolishness in Christ, tell that any man should separate the Spirit from the preaching of the word and Christ; or should think that those foolish men are governed by the Spirit of God, which wandering besides the word, think upon at their vain imaginations for the secrets of God. The word (two) is taken here in its proper sense: first, for true knowledge, which the Spirit of God worketh in us. 14 Now he returneth to his purpose, and concludeth the argument which he began with, & saith it is that the word must be inspired, and the mind must be inspired, with words which is a meeting and opposition for us; now this wisdom is spiritual and not of man, and therefore it must be delivered by a spiritual kind of teaching, and not by earthly words of man's eloquence, that the simple, and yet wonderful wisdom of the holy Ghost may therein appear. Chapter 14. vers. 1-16. 15 Applying the words unto themselves, to wit, that as we teach spiritual things, so must our kind of teaching be spiritual. 16 Again he presenteth an offence of stumbling block; how cometh it to pass that so few allow these things? This is not to be unlearned, sayeth the Apostle, seeing that men in their natural powers (as they termed them) are not induced with this wisdom whereby spiritual things are discerned (which I call carnal) another way; and therefore they accept spiritual wisdom as foolish; and it is as if he should say: It is no marvel that blind men cannot judge of colours, seeing that they lack the light of their eyes, and therefore light is to them as darkness. For the man that hath no further light of understanding, than that which he is taught with his senses, from his mothers womb, as I said in the first chapter, 18. In the words of the holy Ghost, 19. He that speaketh with the manner by contrast. 20 Under foolishness and ignorance. 21 The wisdom of the flesh, Paul, determineth nothing certainly, no not in its own affairs, much less can it discern strange, that is, spiritual things. But the Spirit of God, where with spiritual men are induced, can be deceived by no means, and therefore be reproved of no man. Of us men; for when the Prophets are judged of the Prophets, it is the Spirit that judgeth, and not the man. 22 Eph. 13. rom. 12. 14. A reason of the foregoing saying, for he is called spiritual, which hath learned that by the virtue of the Spirit, which Christ hath taught us. Now if that which we have learned of that Master, could be reproved of any man, he must needs be wiser than God: whereupon it followeth, that they are not overly foolish, but also wicked, which think that they can deceive themselves that is either deceived, or that they can teach the wisdom of God better way than they know or taught, which undoubtedly were induced with Gods Spirit. 15. Lay his hand up on him, and teach him what he should do, 16. We are induced with the Spirit of Christ, who speaketh unto us of high secrets, which by all our senses we cannot reach, and all that is made manifest.

13 But as it is written, 14 The things which eye hath not seen, neither ear hath heard; neither came into mans heart, which God hath prepared for them that love him.

15 But God hath revealed them unto vs by his Spirit: for the spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

16 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of a man, which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the spirit of God.

17 Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the spirit, which is of God, 18 that we might know the things that are given to vs of God.

19 Which things also we speak, not in the words which mans wisdom teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things.

20 But the natural man perceiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

21 But he that is spiritual, discerneth all things: yet is he himselfe judged of no man.

22 For who hath known the minde of the Lord, that he might instruct him? But we have the minde of Christ.

23 I could not speak unto you, brethren, as unto spiritual men, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

24 I gave you milke to drinke, & not meat: for ye were not yet able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

25 For ye are yet carnall: for whereas there is among you enuying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnall, and walke as 4 men?

26 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

27 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whom ye beleaved, and as the Lord gave to every man?

28 I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase.

29 So then, neither is hee that planteth, any thing, neither he that watereth, but God that giveth the increase.

30 And hee that planteth, and he that watereth, are one; and every man shall receive his wages, according to his labour.

31 For we together are Gods labourers: ye are Gods husbandry, and Gods building.

32 According to the grace of God given to mee; as a skilfull master builder, I have layd the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let every man take heed, how hee buildeth upon it.

33 For other foundation can no man lay, than that which is layed, which is Iesus Christ.

34 And if any man build on this foundation, therefore to express it the better, he termeth them babes. For we have it common, and what first is in us. 24 I gave you milke to drinke, & not meat: for ye were not yet able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. 25 For ye are yet carnall: for whereas there is among you enuying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnall, and walke as 4 men? 26 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall? 27 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whom ye beleaved, and as the Lord gave to every man? 28 I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase. 29 So then, neither is hee that planteth, any thing, neither he that watereth, but God that giveth the increase. 30 And hee that planteth, and he that watereth, are one; and every man shall receive his wages, according to his labour. 31 For we together are Gods labourers: ye are Gods husbandry, and Gods building. 32 According to the grace of God given to mee; as a skilfull master builder, I have layd the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let every man take heed, how hee buildeth upon it. 33 For other foundation can no man lay, than that which is layed, which is Iesus Christ. 34 And if any man build on this foundation, therefore to express it the better, he termeth them babes. For we have it common, and what first is in us. 24 I gave you milke to drinke, & not meat: for ye were not yet able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. 25 For ye are yet carnall: for whereas there is among you enuying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnall, and walke as 4 men? 26 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall? 27 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whom ye beleaved, and as the Lord gave to every man? 28 I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase. 29 So then, neither is hee that planteth, any thing, neither he that watereth, but God that giveth the increase. 30 And hee that planteth, and he that watereth, are one; and every man shall receive his wages, according to his labour. 31 For we together are Gods labourers: ye are Gods husbandry, and Gods building. 32 According to the grace of God given to mee; as a skilfull master builder, I have layd the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let every man take heed, how hee buildeth upon it. 33 For other foundation can no man lay, than that which is layed, which is Iesus Christ. 34 And if any man build on this foundation,

C H A P. III.

1. Hee speaketh a reason why he preached small matters unto them: 2. Hee sheweth how they ought to esteem of Ministers: 3. The ministers office, to a true form of edifying. 4. He warneth the Corinthians, that they be not drawn away to prophesying, in through the proud wisdom of the flesh.

And as touching things sacrificed vnto idoles, we knowe that wee all haue knowledge: ¶ puffed vp, but loue ¶ edified.

1 Nowe, if any man thinke that hee knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to knowe.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is knowen of him.

4 Concerning therefore the eating of things sacrificed vnto idoles, we knowe that an idole is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God but one.

5 For though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth (as there be many gods, and many lords)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is that Father, of whom are all things, and we gin him, and ¶ one Lord Iesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we bin him.

7 But euery man hath not that knowledge: for ¶ many haue ¶ conscience of the idole, vntill this houre, eate as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conscience being weake, is defiled.

8 But meate maketh vs not acceptable to God, for neither if we eate, haue we the more: neither if we eate not, haue we the lesse.

9 But rake heede least by any meanes this power of yours be an occasion of falling, to them that are weake.

10 For if any man see thee which hath knowledge, sit at table in the idoles temple, (hal not the conscience of him which is weake, bee boldened to eat those things which are sacrificed to idoles?)

the liberty of pride: nay it doeth not so much as defende the name of Christ, as it keepe separate from the love of God, and therefore from the love of hisne. a This general word is not abridged, as appeareth in the first of iacob in it, as may be perceived by the next.

the occasion of vanity and pride: because it is vnto of the neighbour. a The application of that answer to the idole I graunt, sayeth hee, that an idole is in dede a vaine thing, and thus there is but one God and Lord, and therefore that meat can be lawfully vsed in the temple, which is but it followeth not therefore that we should not respect the consciences as any other. d This word is taken from the apostle for an image, which is made to represent some godhead, which is giuen vnto it: whereupon came the words (Tolerauist) that is to say, thou canst. e This is a vaine dream, f When the Father is distinguished from the Son, He is named the beginning of all things, g We haue our Father in the Law, chapter 12.3. h But as the Father is called Lord, and the Son is called Lord, (for) doeth not respect the person, but the office.

the words (By) doeth not respect the will, as it is said, but the office. b The Father and the Son are one together, which is not so to be taken, as if they were one, seeing they haue both the one nature, though they be distinct.

The reason why that followeth not, is this: because there are many things that we knowe that which you knowe. Nowe the iudgements of men depende not onely vpon your conscience, but vpon the conscience of them that beholde you, and therefore your actions must be applied not to your knowledge, but also to the ignorance of your brethren. a An 11 And through thy knowledge (shall the ¶ weake brother perish, for whom Christ died.

An other amplification: Such offending of our weake brethren, doeth offend vnto Christ, and therefore let not these men thinke that they haue to doe onely with their brethren. e Rom. 12.13. f The conclusion, which Paul concerneth in his own person, that he might not seeme to exact that of other, which hee will not be first labied vnto himselfe, I had rather (saith hee) abstaine for euer from all kinde of flesh, then giue occasion of sinne to any of my brethren, much lesse would I re- lise in any certaine place or time for any brothers sake not to eate flesh offered to idoles.

CHAP. IX.

1 He declareth what from the libertie which the Lord gae him, 15 he willingly abstained, 18, 21 least in things which offend his brother's conscience, 24 He forswearth that our life is not to be at stake.

AM I not an Apostle? am I not free? haue I not scene Iesus Christ our Lord? are ye not my worke ¶ in the Lord?

2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtlesse I am vnto you: for ye are the ¶ scale of mine Apostleship in the Lord.

3 My defence to them that ¶ examine mee, is this,

4 Haue we not power to ¶ eate and to drinke?

5 Or haue we not power to lead about a wife being a ¶ sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I onely and Barnabas, haue not we power ¶ not to worke?

7 Who ¶ goeth a warfare any time at his owne colde? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 Say I these things ¶ according to man? faith not the Law the same alfo?

9 For it is written in the Lawe of Moses, ¶ Thou shalt not muffle the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take care for i oxe?

¶ This is spoken by the figure Metonymy, for of things that are of use in the temple, as of partakers with the altar in dividing the sacrifice.

¶ Therefore they preach the Gospel, it followeth by this place, that Paul gave no living unto them, but would have any other man get by any commendation of minister, say any such superfluous transgression.

¶ He taketh away occasion of suspicion by the way, that it might not be thought that he wrote this as though he challenged his wages that was not payed him. Nay sayth he, I had rather die, then continue in this purpose to preach the Gospel freely. For I am bidden to preach the Gospel, feeling that the Lord hath injoyed me this office, but valde I doe it willing, and for the love of God, nothing is to be allowed that I doe. If I had rather that the Gospel should be evil spoken of, then that I should not require any wages, then should it appeare that I took their pains not so much for the Gospels sake, as for my games and advantages. But I say, no: so much to move, but abuse my right and liberie. Therefore not only in this thing, but also in all other (as much as I could) I am made all things to all men, that I might winne them to Christ, and might together with them be wonne to Christ.

¶ Doe ye not knowe, that they which minister about the holy things, cate of the things of the Temple? and they which waite at the altar, are partakers with the altar?

¶ So also hath the Lord ordeined, that they which preach the Gospel, should live of the Gospel.

¶ But I have vied none of these things: neither wrote I these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my reioycing vain.

¶ For though I preach the Gospel, I have nothing to reioyce of: for needfull is I lay upon me, and wote is unto me, if I preach not the Gospel.

¶ For if I do it willingly, I have a reward, but if I do it against my will, notwithstanding the dispensation is committed unto me.

¶ What is my reward then? verely that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ olce, that I abuse not mine authority in the Gospel.

¶ For though I be free from all men, yet have I made my selfe servant unto all men, that I may winne the more.

¶ And unto the Jewes, I become as a Jewe, that I may winne the Jewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as though I were vnder the Lawe, that I may winne them that are vnder the Lawe:

¶ To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Lawe, (when I am not without Lawe as pertaining to God, but am in the Lawe through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Lawe:

¶ To the weakke I become as weakke, that I may winne the weakke: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all meanes save some.

¶ And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker therof with you.

¶ Knowe ye not, that they which runne in a race, runne all, yet one receiveth the price? so runne that ye may obtaine.

¶ And every man that putteth his hand to the plow, shall not look backe: and they that doe it to obtaine a corruptible crowne: but we for an incorruptible.

¶ He changed my selfe into all figures, that by all meanes I might save some. ¶ That both I and they to whom I preach the Gospel, may receive fruits by the Gospel.

¶ He bethighs in another cause of this mischief, to wit, that they were given to gluttonie, for there were solenne banquets of sacrifices, and the rite of the Priests was alwayes too much celebrated & kept. Therefore it was hard for them to be converted, who were accustomed to riotousnesse, especially when they pretended the liberie of the Gospel, to be restrained from these banquets: but contrariwise, the Apostle calleth them by a pleasant similitude, and also by his owne example, to forsbear and mortification of the flesh, shewing that they cannot be fit to runne or wrestle (as then the games of libertie were) which panner up their bodies: and therefore affirming that they can have no reward, valde if they take another course and trade of life.

¶ I therefore for ranne, not as vncertainly: so fight I, not as one that beatech the ayre.

¶ But I beate downe my body, & bring it into subiection, lest by any meanes after that I have preached to other, I my selfe should be reproved.

¶ As contrary to the word (selfe) but as contrary to the word (I) for one by experience must be so such an one as he ought to be.

CHAP. X.

¶ If God spared not the Jewes, neither will he spare those who are of the condition: so touching the outward sign of his grace, so that it is allowed, that such should be partakers of the same of death, who are partakers of the Lords Supper, so to have confirmation of our meekness in things insensible.

¶ Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, that all our fathers were vnder that cloud, and all passed through that sea,

¶ And were all baptized vnto Moses, in that cloud, and in that sea,

¶ And did all eat the same spiritual meat,

¶ And did all drinke the same spiritual drinke: for they dranke of the spiritual Rock that followed them: and the Rocke was Christ.

¶ But with many of them God was not pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

¶ Nowe these things are our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after such things as they also lusted.

¶ Neither be ye idolaters as were some of them, as it is written, ¶ The people sat downe to eat and drinke, and rose up to play.

¶ Neither let vs commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and fell in one day three and twentie thousand.

¶ Neither let vs tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted him, and were destroyed of serpents.

¶ Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

¶ Nowe all these things came vnto them for examples, & were written to admonish vs, upon whom the mercies of the world are come.

¶ Wherefore, let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall.

¶ There hath no temptation taken you, but such as appertaineth to man: and God is faithful which will not suffer you to be tempted about that you are able, but will cunningly give the issue with the temptation, that ye may be able to bære it.

14 Wherefore my beloved, flee from idolatrie.

15 I speake as vnto them which have understanding: Iudge ye what I say.

16 The cup of blessing which we besle, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we breake, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For we that are many, are one bread and one body, because we all are partakers of one bread.

18 Beholde Israel, which is after the flesh: are not they which eate of the sacrifices & partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idle is any thing? or that that which is sacrificed to idoles, is any thing?

20 Nay, but that these things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not vnto God: and I would not that ye should haue fellowship with the devils,

21 Ye cannot drinke the cup of the Lord, and the cup of the devils. Ye cannot be partakers of the Lords table, and of the table of the devils.

22 Do we prouoke the Lord to anger? we are stronger then he?

23 ¶ All things are lawfull for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawfull for me, but all things are vsue not.

24 Let no man seeke his owne, but euery man anothers wealch.

25 Whatsoeuer is solde in the shambles, eate ye, and aske no question for conscience sake.

26 ¶ For the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is.

27 If any of them which beleue not, call you to a feast, and if ye will go, whatsoeuer is set before you, eate, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say vnto you, This is sacrificed vnto idoles, eate it not, because of him that shewed it, and for the conscience (for the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is)

29 And the conscience, I say, not thine, but of that other: for why should my liberty be condemned of another mans conscience?

30 For if I through Gods benefit be partaker, why am I cūil spoken of, for that wherefore I giue thanks?

31 ¶ Whether therefore ye eate, or drinke, or whatsoeuer ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 Giue none offence, neither to the Iewes, nor to the Grecians, nor to the Church of God:

33 Euen as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine owne profit, but the profit of many, that they might be saved,

we seeke not our selues, but Gods glory, and so the saluation of as many as we may: wherein the Apostle sheweth not to propound himselfe to the Corinthians (euen his owne flocke) as an example, but to that he calleth them backe to Christ, vnto whom he himselfe hath regard.

CHAP. XI.

1 Her I commend the Corinthians for that in their holy assemblies, 4 men do pray having slurs heads covered, & and women bare headed, and because their meetings tended to unity, 22 who singed prophane banckets with the holy Supper of the Lord, 23. which he requirerh to be celebrated according to Christs institution.

BE ye followers of mee, euen as I am of Christ:

2 Now brethren, I commend you, that ye remember all my things, and keepe the ordinance, as I deliuered them to you.

3 ¶ But I will that ye know, that Christ is the head of euery man: and the man is the womans head: and God is Christs head.

4 ¶ Euery man praying or prophesying hauing any thing on his head, dishonoureth his head.

5 ¶ But euery woman that prayeth or prophesiech bareheaded, dishonoureth her head: for it is euen one very thing, as though she were haueen.

6 Therefore if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorne: and if it be shame for a woman to be shorne or haueen, let her be covered.

7 ¶ For a man ought not to couer his head: forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 ¶ For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 ¶ For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.

10 ¶ Therefore ought the woman to haue power on her head, because of the Angels,

1. If I may through Gods benefit be partaker, why must I be cūil spoken of, for that wherefore I giue thanks?
2. Whether therefore ye eate, or drinke, or whatsoeuer ye do, do all to the glory of God.
3. Giue none offence, neither to the Iewes, nor to the Grecians, nor to the Church of God.
4. Euen as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine owne profit, but the profit of many, that they might be saved.
5. We seeke not our selues, but Gods glory, and so the saluation of as many as we may: wherein the Apostle sheweth not to propound himselfe to the Corinthians (euen his owne flocke) as an example, but to that he calleth them backe to Christ, vnto whom he himselfe hath regard.

2. The fifth verse of this epistle concerning the right ordering of publicke assemblies, containing three points, to wit: 1. That we comely appaile all of men and women, of the order of the Lords Supper, and of the right vse of spiritual gifts. But giuing also to the reader certein things, to beginne with a general praile of them, calling forth particuler laws of comelines and honestie, which belong to the ecclesiastical policie, tradition: as which called Canons.
2. Five letters downe God, in Christ our mediator, for the end and make not early of doctrine, but also of ecclesiastical comelines. Then applying it to the question proposed touching the comely apparell both of men and women in publicke assemblies, he declareth that the woman is one degree beneath the man by the ordinance of God, and that the man is to be subiect to Christ, that the glory of God might to appeare in him for the preeminence of the sexe.
3. If men do either pray or preach in publicke assemblies hauing their heads covered (which was then a signe of subiection) they did it as were ipsoe themselves of their dignitie, against Gods ordinance.
4. It apperith that this was a pollicie law (being only for the circumstances of the time) but that it was a law of the Lord, because it was for a man to praye bareheaded in an assembly, as a sign of his dignity.
5. And in like sort he concludeth that women which shew themselves in publicke and ecclesiastical assemblies without the signe and token of their subiection, that is to say, without a haire covered.
6. The fifth argument taken from the common sense of man, forasmuch as nature teacheth women, that it is dishonest for them to come abroad bareheaded, seeing that the hath giuen them thicke and long haire, which they doe so diligently trimme and decke, that they can in no wise be able to haue it flauen.
7. The sixth argument of an obligation. Haue not men also haire giuen them? I haire, sayth the Apostle, but there is another matter in it: For man was made to this end and purpose, that the glory of God should appeare in his life & authority: but the woman was made, that by pretension of her obedience, she might more honour her husband.
8. Secondly, by that, that the woman was made for man, and not the man for the womans sake.
9. The conclusion: Women must be covered, to shew by this general signe their subiection.
10. A covering which is a token of subiection.
11. What this meaneth, I do not yet vnderstand.

Of thanksgiving: whereupon, that hat, haire? was called thanksgiving, as a most effectfull pledge and note of our thanksgiving, and an offering to God. ¶ That is, as yet before we haue not yetting with Christ, and an offering to God. ¶ And concerning and salu, both of that world and this life, and an offering to God, and an offering to God. ¶ The brethren are propounded by the words of the Lord, and an offering to God, and an offering to God. ¶ Coming to another kinde of things offered to idoles, he repeateth that which, that in the life of things indifferent: we ought to haue consideration of things only of our neighbours, and therefore there are many things of consideration are lawfull, which may be used done also, because of offence to none. ¶ 1. Let us also, 1 Cor. 10. 29. ¶ An applying of the rule to another matter: Whatsoeuer is solde in the shambles, you may indifferently use it, whether the Lords hand, and I eate it either at home with the faithful, or called home to the vsuall feate, wit in a private bancket: but yet with this, that no man may be present which is weak, howe conscience may be troubled by being made offered to idoles before them: for then you ought to be careful of their weaknesse. ¶ In the first that we haue said, we offer things in shambles, and the price returned to the Priests. ¶ ¶ 1. ¶ 2. ¶ 3. ¶ 4. ¶ 5. ¶ 6. ¶ 7. ¶ 8. ¶ 9. ¶ 10. ¶ 11. ¶ 12. ¶ 13. ¶ 14. ¶ 15. ¶ 16. ¶ 17. ¶ 18. ¶ 19. ¶ 20. ¶ 21. ¶ 22. ¶ 23. ¶ 24. ¶ 25. ¶ 26. ¶ 27. ¶ 28. ¶ 29. ¶ 30. ¶ 31. ¶ 32. ¶ 33. ¶ 34. ¶ 35. ¶ 36. ¶ 37. ¶ 38. ¶ 39. ¶ 40. ¶ 41. ¶ 42. ¶ 43. ¶ 44. ¶ 45. ¶ 46. ¶ 47. ¶ 48. ¶ 49. ¶ 50. ¶ 51. ¶ 52. ¶ 53. ¶ 54. ¶ 55. ¶ 56. ¶ 57. ¶ 58. ¶ 59. ¶ 60. ¶ 61. ¶ 62. ¶ 63. ¶ 64. ¶ 65. ¶ 66. ¶ 67. ¶ 68. ¶ 69. ¶ 70. ¶ 71. ¶ 72. ¶ 73. ¶ 74. ¶ 75. ¶ 76. ¶ 77. ¶ 78. ¶ 79. ¶ 80. ¶ 81. ¶ 82. ¶ 83. ¶ 84. ¶ 85. ¶ 86. ¶ 87. ¶ 88. ¶ 89. ¶ 90. ¶ 91. ¶ 92. ¶ 93. ¶ 94. ¶ 95. ¶ 96. ¶ 97. ¶ 98. ¶ 99. ¶ 100.

God is the same which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man, to profit withall.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of a wisdom: and to another the word of knowledge, by the same Spirit:

9 And to another is given faith by the same Spirit:

10 And to another the operations of great works: and to another, prophecies: and to another, the discerning of spirits: and to another, diversities of tongues: and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 And all these things worketh one and the selfe same Spirit, distributing to every man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are they one body: even so is the Church.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jewes, or Grecians, whether we be bond, or free, and have bene all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the care would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God disposed the members every one of them in the body at his own pleasure.

19 For if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now we are there many members, yet but one body.

21 Reminding of things to come. 1. Whosoever shall prophesy are to be edified, comforted, and strengthened, as the Church is to be edified, comforted, and strengthened.

2. How edified, comforted, and strengthened, as the Church is to be edified, comforted, and strengthened.

3. How edified, comforted, and strengthened, as the Church is to be edified, comforted, and strengthened.

4. How edified, comforted, and strengthened, as the Church is to be edified, comforted, and strengthened.

5. How edified, comforted, and strengthened, as the Church is to be edified, comforted, and strengthened.

6. How edified, comforted, and strengthened, as the Church is to be edified, comforted, and strengthened.

7. How edified, comforted, and strengthened, as the Church is to be edified, comforted, and strengthened.

8. How edified, comforted, and strengthened, as the Church is to be edified, comforted, and strengthened.

9. How edified, comforted, and strengthened, as the Church is to be edified, comforted, and strengthened.

10. How edified, comforted, and strengthened, as the Church is to be edified, comforted, and strengthened.

11. How edified, comforted, and strengthened, as the Church is to be edified, comforted, and strengthened.

12. How edified, comforted, and strengthened, as the Church is to be edified, comforted, and strengthened.

13. How edified, comforted, and strengthened, as the Church is to be edified, comforted, and strengthened.

14. How edified, comforted, and strengthened, as the Church is to be edified, comforted, and strengthened.

21 And the eye can not say unto the hand, I have no neede of thee: nor the head againe to the feete, I have no neede of you.

22 Yes, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to be more feeble, are necessarie.

23 And upon those members of the bodie, which wee thinke most vnhoneſt, put wee more honeſtie on: and our vncomely partes haue more comelineſſe on.

24 For our comely partes neede it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honour to that parts which lacked.

25 Left there should be any diuifion in the body: but that the members should haue the ſame care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member ſuffer, all ſuffer with it: if one member be had in honour, all the members reioyce with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Chriſt, and members for his part.

28 And God hath ordeyned ſome in the Church: as first Apoſtles, ſecondly Prophets, thirdly teachers, then them that doe miracles: after that, the gifts of healing, & helpers, & gouernours, diuerſitie of tongues.

29 Are all apoſtles? are all Prophets? are all teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the gifts of healing? doe all ſpeake with tongues? doe all interpret?

31 But deſire you the beſt gifts, and I will yet ſhewe you a more excellent way.

C H A P. XIII.

1 He ſheweth that there are no gifts to be ſought, which in God's gifts are not corrupt, if Chariſ be aſayed: 4. and therefore be diſcreet vnto the commendation of it.

Though I ſpeake with the tongues of men and Angels, and haue not loue, I am as ſounding braſſe, or a tinkling cymbal.

And though I had the gift of propheſie, and knew all ſecrets and all knowledge, yet, if I had all faith, ſo that I could remoue mountains, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Therefore thoſe gifts are giuen. For, to what purpoſe are thoſe gifts, but to Gods glory, and the profit of the Church, as is before promiſed: in that thoſe gifts without Chariſ, haue no right vie.

5 A very rare kind of amphiſtich, as I ſee, if there were any tongue of Amphiſtich, and did not ſit them in the hands of my neighbours, it were nothing elſe but a vain and prating kind of habbling.

6 That ſpeaketh a tongue and no creature ſound, as I ſee, ſaith, he meaneth the gift of doing miracles, and not that ſaith which ſpeaketh, which can not be voyd of Chariſ in the other way. Math. 17. 20.

Kkk 3. 4. Loue

seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily guesst thoukest well, as the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake 5 or 6 words with mine understanding, than I might also instruct others, then ten thousand words in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not ϕ children in understanding, but as concerning maliciousnesse be children, but in understanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Law it is written, ϕ by men of other tongues, and by other languages will I speake vnto this people: yee so shall they not heare me, sayeth the Lord.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleue, but to them that beleene not: but prophesying strengthen not for them that beleue not, but for them which beleue.

23 Therefore, when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake strange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleue not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wits?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleue not, or one vnlearned, he is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And so are ϕ secrets of his heart made manifest, & so he will fall downe on his face & worship God, and say plainly that God is in you in deed.

26 What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euery one of you hath a Psalmie, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most, by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to himselfe, and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake, two, or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing be reuiled to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.

32 And the ϕ spirits of the Prophets are subiect to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 Let your women keepe silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subiect, as also ϕ the Law sayth.

It cometh to passe, that the faithfull come to other to bee instructed. The edifying of the Congregation is a rule and iqua of spiritual gifts. The manner how to use the gift of tongues, is in an asseblee, so that there be some to expound the same; but not to expound, let him that hath the gift, speake to himselfe alone. The manner of prophesying: Let two or three propound, and let the other that propounded, whether it be agreeable to the word of God or no, examine the Lord give any man ought to speake, let them giue audience. Let many men be admitted to prophesie, humbly and in order, as the fourth text is verily for the edifying of the Church: Let the doctrine which is taught to others iudge. The doctrine which is taught which are inspired with Gods Spirit. Women are commanded to be in public assembles, and they are commanded to take of their husbands. 1 Tim. 2.11. 2 Cor. 14.34.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 Came the word of God out from you? either came it vnto you only?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to be a Prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge, that the things that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 And if any man be ignorant, let him bee ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, come to prophesie, and forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things be done honestly, and by order.

for such as be stubbornly ignorant, and will not abide to be taught, but to goe forthward notwithstanding in those things which are right. Prophecie ought to be able to be received and kept in Congregations, the gift of tongues is not to be forbidden, but all things must be done orderly.

CHAP. XV.

The Gospel that Paul preached. 3 The death and resurrection of Christ. 4 Paul saith Christ. 5 Hee had persecuted that Church, whereof afterward he was made a minister. 13 Christ first rose againe, and we all shall rise by him. 16 The first cometh, as also. 19 To be baptised for dead. 20 All they that sleepe in Christ shall be raised. 25 Hee that is dead is raised. 27 The first Adam. 28 The first and second man. 31 He shall be changed, we shall be all like. 35 Daniels sing. 37 Priests. 38 Confess and stretch forth.

Moreover, ϕ brethren, I declare vnto you the Gospel, which I preached vnto you, which yee haue also receiued, and wherein yee continue.

2 And whereby yee are saved, if yee keepe in memory, after what manner I preached it vnto you, except ye haue beleued in vaine.

3 For first of all, I deliuered vnto you that which I receiued, howe that Christ died for our finnes, according to the Scriptures.

4 And that he was buried, and that he arose the third day according to the Scriptures.

5 And that he was seene of Cephas, then of the twelve.

6 After that, hee was seene of more then fiftie hundred brethren at once; whereof many remaine vnto this present, and some also are asleepe.

7 After that, hee was seene of Iames: then of all the Apostles.

8 And last of all hee was seene also of me, as of one borne out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the Apostles, which am not meete to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am that I am: and his grace which is in me, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore, whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleued.

12 Now if it be preached, that Christ is risen and of more then fiftie hundred brethren, and last of all by his apostle, as in the profession wherof you continue yet. 13 Which a very doctrine, as I say, but that they that beleeue, must receiue faith. 14 I say, 15 I say, 16 I say, 17 I say, 18 I say, 19 I say, 20 I say, 21 I say, 22 I say, 23 I say, 24 I say, 25 I say, 26 I say, 27 I say, 28 I say, 29 I say, 30 I say, 31 I say, 32 I say, 33 I say, 34 I say, 35 I say, 36 I say, 37 I say, 38 I say, 39 I say, 40 I say, 41 I say, 42 I say, 43 I say, 44 I say, 45 I say, 46 I say, 47 I say, 48 I say, 49 I say, 50 I say, 51 I say, 52 I say, 53 I say, 54 I say, 55 I say, 56 I say, 57 I say, 58 I say, 59 I say, 60 I say, 61 I say, 62 I say, 63 I say, 64 I say, 65 I say, 66 I say, 67 I say, 68 I say, 69 I say, 70 I say, 71 I say, 72 I say, 73 I say, 74 I say, 75 I say, 76 I say, 77 I say, 78 I say, 79 I say, 80 I say, 81 I say, 82 I say, 83 I say, 84 I say, 85 I say, 86 I say, 87 I say, 88 I say, 89 I say, 90 I say, 91 I say, 92 I say, 93 I say, 94 I say, 95 I say, 96 I say, 97 I say, 98 I say, 99 I say, 100 I say.

16 A general conclusion of the treatise of the right vie of spiritual gifts in assembles with a sharpe reuerencie, least the Congregation should be troubled from the abuse of these things to be used. 17 This Church ought not to care for such as be stubbornly ignorant, and will not abide to be taught, but to goe forthward notwithstanding in those things which are right. 18 Prophecie ought to be able to be received and kept in Congregations, the gift of tongues is not to be forbidden, but all things must be done orderly.

The first treatise of this Epistle, concerning the resurrection: and therein a tradition, or passing over from one matter to another, shewing first that hee bringeth no new thing to the end, that the Corinthians might vnderstand that they had beene to swaue from the right course; and that that hee goeth not about in matters of trifling matters, but of such as be of chief importance of the Gospel, which if it be taken away, their faith would needs come to naught. And so to the length he begetteth this treatise at Christes resurrection, which is the ground and foundation of ours, and confirmeth it first by the confirmation of the Scriptures, and by the witness of the Apostles.

of the Apostles, and last of all by his apostle, as in the profession wherof you continue yet. 13 Which a very doctrine, as I say, but that they that beleeue, must receiue faith. 14 I say, 15 I say, 16 I say, 17 I say, 18 I say, 19 I say, 20 I say, 21 I say, 22 I say, 23 I say, 24 I say, 25 I say, 26 I say, 27 I say, 28 I say, 29 I say, 30 I say, 31 I say, 32 I say, 33 I say, 34 I say, 35 I say, 36 I say, 37 I say, 38 I say, 39 I say, 40 I say, 41 I say, 42 I say, 43 I say, 44 I say, 45 I say, 46 I say, 47 I say, 48 I say, 49 I say, 50 I say, 51 I say, 52 I say, 53 I say, 54 I say, 55 I say, 56 I say, 57 I say, 58 I say, 59 I say, 60 I say, 61 I say, 62 I say, 63 I say, 64 I say, 65 I say, 66 I say, 67 I say, 68 I say, 69 I say, 70 I say, 71 I say, 72 I say, 73 I say, 74 I say, 75 I say, 76 I say, 77 I say, 78 I say, 79 I say, 80 I say, 81 I say, 82 I say, 83 I say, 84 I say, 85 I say, 86 I say, 87 I say, 88 I say, 89 I say, 90 I say, 91 I say, 92 I say, 93 I say, 94 I say, 95 I say, 96 I say, 97 I say, 98 I say, 99 I say, 100 I say.

the resurrection of Christ be taken from the dead, howe say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 ¶ For if there be no resurrection of the dead,
then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine.

God: for wee haue testified of God, that he hath raised vp Christ: whom he hath not raised vp, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 6 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vaine: ye are yet in your finnes.

19 ⁹ If in this life only we have hope in Christ,

20 ¹⁰ But nowe is Chrift risen from the dead,

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed, is

27. For hee hath put downe all things vnder his foote. (And when he sayeth that all things are subdued to him, it is manifest that hee is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, ^m then shall the Sonne also himselfe be subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, whose God was he all in all.

33 19 Be not deceiued : euill speakings corrupt

34 Awake to live righteously, and sinne not: for somewhat we have the knowledge of God. 16

35 ²⁰ But some man will say, Howe are the dead raised vp ? and with what body come they foorth?

36 ²¹ O foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.

37 And that which thou lovest, thou lovest not that body that shall bee, but bare corneas it fallerh. of wheat. or of some other.

38 ²² But God giueth it a body at his pleasure, cien to euery feede his owne body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fishes, and another of birds:

40 There are also heavenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is another glory of the sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead, The body is sown in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sown in dishonour, and is raised in glory: it is sown in weaknesse, and is raised in power.

44 It is sown a natural body, and is raised a spiritual body: there is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 As it is also written, The first man Adam was made a living soule, and the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual: but that which is natural, and afterwards that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthly: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthly, such are they that are earthly: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as wee have borne the image of the earthly, so shall we beare the image of heavenly.

50 This I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a decree that, We shall not all sleepe, but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye at the last trumpet: for the trumpet shall blow, and the dead shall be raised vp incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 That is called a natural body, which is quickened by a living soule onely, such as Adam was, of whose all we are made: and that is sayde to be a spiritual, which together with the soule has a farre more excellent vertue: to wit, with the Spirit of God, which is the soule of the second Adam into vs. And Adam is called the first man, because he is the first that was created by God, and Christ is the second man, because he is the first that was created by the Spirit of God.

55 As it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soule, and the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. And Adam is called the first man, because he is the first that was created by God, and Christ is the second man, because he is the first that was created by the Spirit of God.

56 As it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soule, and the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. And Adam is called the first man, because he is the first that was created by God, and Christ is the second man, because he is the first that was created by the Spirit of God.

64 As it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soule, and the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. And Adam is called the first man, because he is the first that was created by God, and Christ is the second man, because he is the first that was created by the Spirit of God.

34 So when this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortal hath put on immortality, then shall be brought to passe the saying, that is written, Death is swallowed vp into victory.

35 O death where is thy sting? O grave where is thy victory?

36 The sting of death is sinne, and the strength of sinne is the Law.

37 But thanks be vnto God, which giveth vs victory through our Lord Iesus Christ.

38 Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, vnmoveable, abundant in the worke of the Lord, for as much as ye know that your labour is not in vaine in the Lord.

CHAP. XVI.

1 He exhorted them to helpe the poore brethren of Hierosolime: 2 Then he commendeth Timothy, 13 and so with a greeting commends the Epistle.

Concerning the gathering for the Saintes, as I have ordeined in the Churches of Galatia, so doe ye also.

2 Euery first day of the weeke, let euery one of you put aside by himselfe, and lay vp as God hath prospered him, that then there bee no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I am come, whomeuer ye shall allow by letters, then will I send to bring your liberality vnto Hierusalem.

4 And if it be meete that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Nowe I will come vnto you, after I have gone through Macedonia (for I will passe through Macedonia.)

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, or winter with you, that yee may bring mee on my way, whither soeuer I goe.

7 For I will not see you now in my passage, but I trust to abide a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 And I will tary at Ephesus vntill Pentecost.

9 For a great doore and effectual is opened vnto me, and there are many aduersaries.

10 ¶ Now if Timotheus come, see that he bee without feare with you: for he worketh the worke of the Lord, euen as I doe.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conuey him forth in peace, that hee may come vnto me: for I looked for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come vnto you with the brethren: but his minde was not at all to come at this time: howbeit he will come when he shall haue convenient time.

13 ¶ Watch yefad fast in the faith: quyte you like men, and be strong.

14 Let all your things be done in loue.

15 Now brethren, I beseech you (yee know the house of Stephens, that it is the first fruite of Achaia, and that they haue giuen themselves to minister vnto the Saintes)

16 That yee be obedient euery vnto such, and to all that helpe with vs and labour.

17 I am glad of the comming of Stephens, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for they haue supplied the want of you.

18 For they haue comforted my spirit and yours: acknowledge therefore such men.

19 The Churches of Asia salute you: Aquila and the preaching of the Lawe. The answereth. The fault is in the men themselves, while they seeke to be ruled in this world. And yet notwithstanding doth he and his fellowes let forth the most cleare light of the Gospel to be seene counsaunce (which glorie is done away.)

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministrie of condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministration of righteousness exceede in glory.

10 For euery that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glorie.

11 For if that which should be abolished, was glorious, much more shall that which remaineth, be glorious.

12 Seeing then that we haue such trust, wee see great boldnesse of speech.

13 And we are not as Moses, which put a vail vpon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the ende of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore, their mindes are hardened: for vntill this day remaineth the same covering: vntaken away in the reading of the olde Testament, which vails in Christ is put away.

15 Nor euen vnto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is layed ouer their hearts.

16 Neuertheless when their hearts shall be turned to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberte.

18 But wee all beholde as in a mirrour the glorie of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

*19. By the way the allegorie of Moses his covering, which was a token of the dark-

10 In whome the god of this world hath blinded the minds, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the image of God, should not shine vnto them.

11 For wee preach not our selues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

12 For God that commanded the light to shine out of darkness, is he which hath shined in our hearts, to giue the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

13 But wee haue this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God, and not of vs.

14 We are afflicted on euery side, yet are we not in distresse: we are in doubt, but yet we despaire not.

15 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

16 Euery where we beare about in our bodie the dying of the Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

17 For we which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortal felicity.

18 So then death worketh in vs, and life in you.

19 And because we haue the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I beleueed, and therefore haue I spoken, wee also beleuee, and therefore speake.

20 Knowing that he which hath raised vp the Lord Iesus, shall raise vs vp also by Iesus, and shall sit vs with you.

21 For all things are for your sakes, that that most precious grace by the thanksgiving of many, may redound to the praise of God.

22 Therefore we faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed daily.

23 For our light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre most excellent and eternall weight of glory.

24 While we looke not on the things which are seene, but on the things which are not seene for the things which are seene, are temporal: but the things which are not seene, are eternall.

*25. To the ende faith be, that all men may perceive that they stand not by any means true, but by the singular veritie of God: so that they die a thousand times, but not perish. 6. An amplification of the former sentence, wherein he accompanieth be short, we die, that you may liue by our death, for that they renoued into those dangers for the building of the Churches sake, and they ended not to make all the fulness of the Church committed vnto them. 12. He declareth the former sentence, shewing that he and his fellowes die in a short purchase life, so often but yet notwithstanding they are partakers of the same life with them: because they themselves do first beleue that, which they propounde to others to beleue to wit, that they also shall be saved together with them in Christ. 13. The same 11 After the manner of the Hebrews, he calleth those things which offend the heart, foolish.

 12 Nowe he rebuketh them boldly, for that they became followers with infidels in outward idolatrie, as though it were a thing indifferent. And this is the fourth part of this Epistle, the conclusion whereof is, that such as the Lord haue bought, the name of his children, must keepe themselves pure not onely in minde but alwaies bodily, that they may wholly be holy vnto the Lord.

ches of Macedonia,

2 Because in a great trial of affliction their joy abounded, and their most extreme poverty abounded unto their rich liberality.

3 For to their power (I beare record) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing,

4 And prayed vs with great instance that we would receive the grace, and fellowship of the ministring which is toward the Saints.

5 And that they did, notwithstanding that we looked for: but gave their own selves, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the will of God,

6 That we should exhort Titus, that as hee had begun, so he would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore, as ye abound in euery thing, in faith and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, euen so see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 This I say I not by commendation, but because of the diligence of others: therefore prouoe I the naturallnesse of your loue.

9 For ye knowe the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that hee being rich, for your sakes became poore, that yee through his povertie might be made rich,

10 And I shew my minde herein: for this is expedient for you, which haue begun not to doe only, but also to will, a yere agoe.

11 Nowe therefore performe to doe it also, that as there was a readinesse to will, euen so yee may performe it of that which ye haue.

12 For if there be fitt a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 Neither is it that other men should be eased, and you grieved: But vpon like condition, at this time your abundance supplieth their lacke:

14 That also their abundance may be for your lacke, that there may be equalitie:

15 As it is written, He that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.

16 And thanks be vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.

17 Because he accepted the exhortation, yea, he was so careful that of his owne accord he went vnto you.

18 And wee haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospel thorowout all the Churches,

19 And not so only, but is also chosen of the Churches to be a fellow in our iourney, concerning this grace that is ministered by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt minde)

20 Auiding this, that no man should blame vs in this abundance that is ministered by vs,

21 Providing for honest things, not only before the Lord, but also before men.

22 And we haue sent with them our brother, whom we haue oft times prouoed to be diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, for the great confidence, which I haue in you.

23 Whether any doe inquire of Titus, he is my fellow and helper to youward: or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, and of the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew toward them, and before the Churches the proofe of your loue, and of the reioicing that we haue of you.

For as much as you see the messengers whom they haue chosen by all their consents, and sent them vnto you.

CHAP. IX.

1 Why, altho hee sheweth well of their ready wills, yet earnestly exhorteth them, & be preclerish a reason: & the comparison almes is fed sowing, so which God doth repay with great gaine.

For as touching the ministring to the Saints, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.

2 For I know your readines of minde, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achaia was prepared a yere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Now haue I sent the brethren, left our reioicing ouer you should bee in vaine in this behalf, that ye (as I haue sayd) be ready:

4 Left if they of Macedonia come with me, and finde you vnprepared, we (that wee may not say you,) should be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessarie to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appointed afore, that it might bee ready, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of nigardinesse.

6 This ye remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and hee that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As euery man c wilth in his heart, so let him sowe, & as grudgingly, or of necessitie: for God loveth a cheerful giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that ye alwayes hauing all sufficiency in all things, may abound in euery good worke.

9 As it is written, He hath sparfed abroad and hath giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth cuer.

10 Also he that findeth seede to the sower, will minister likewise bread for foode, and multiple your feede, and increaseth the frutes of your beneuolence.)

11 That on all partes ye may be made rich vnto all liberality, which causeth through vs thanksgiuing vnto God.

12 For the ministring of this seruice not only supplieth the necessities of the Saints, but also abundantly causeth many to giue thanks to God,

13 (Which by the k experiment of this ministrifion praise God for your voluntarie subd With a sparing and nigardly heart. e Against his will, as hee is to be called. f All God his beneficent liberality. g To bring others in all men as poss. his in time, when good men are necessary. h I have said a man that sareth God, and so. i I have said, who shall neuer man (open her) to giue to others. j There is now so good an inheritance to the godly, as beneficent is. k An other excellent and double fruite of liberality towards the Saints, in this: that it giveth occasion to praise God, and that our faith is also hereby made manifest. l By this proofe of your liberality in this helping and incomming of others. m I have said, that you acknowledge that only Christ, who you haue written, is interested your fathers, declaring thereby, that you agree with the Church of Hierusalem.

CHAP. X.

3 Hee sheweth with what confidence, & with what weapons, & with what revenge he is armed against the caustious of the wicked, & that, where he is present, his daunt have no left power, 15 then his words have force, when he is absent.

NOWE ¹ I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meekenes, & gentleness of Christ, which when I am present among you am bafe, but am bolde to you being absent:

2 And thus I require you, that I neede not be bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde against some, which esteeme vs as though wee walked b according to the flesh.

3 Neuerthelesse, though wee walke in the flesh, yet we doe not warre after the flesh.

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mightie through ⁴ God, to cast downe holdes)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ,

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 ¹ Lookoe ye on things after the ¹ appearance? If any man trust in himselfe that he is Christes, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christes, euen so are we Christes.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 Thus I say, that I may not seeme as it were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, sayeth ⁸ hee, are fore and strong, but his bodily presence is weake, and his speech is of no value.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as wee are in word by letters, when we are absent, such will we be also in deede, when we are present.

12 So for we dare not make our felues of the number, or to compare our felues to them, which of worldly offices, that is according to the outward appearance. That nature which is inclined to sinne, is not then the signe of iustice. 4 As though I had no other aid and hope then that which outwardly I seeme to haue. And therefore Paul streit his selfe, that as hee weake condition and state, against his spiritual and Apostolic dignitie. 2 Secondly hee witnesseth, that although he be like vnto other men, yet he commeth furnished with that strength, which no holder of mans can match, whether they rest by craft and deceit, or by force & might, because hee warreth with diuine weapons. 3 Are not such as men get them authoritie withall one of comfort, and yet great still. 4 Same vnto that witnesseth power of God. 5 An amplification of this spiritual vertue, which in fact is witnesseth the continen be they come to craffe & mightie, that it bringeth some of them by repentance vnto Christ, and justly reuenge others, that are stubbornly obdurate, separating them from the other which suffer themselves to be ruled. 4 Hee beareth into their heads that same matter, with great weight of words and sentences. 5 Doe ye iudge of things according to the outward shew? 6 Not being able of it by me. 6 Hee setteth some out that was the freest man of his speich. 7 Being constrained to reuill the foolish braggers of certaine ambitious men, hee witnesseth that they are able to bring nothing, but that they falsly peruse themselves of themselves; and as for himselfe, although he bragge of excellent things, yet hee will not passe the boundes which God hath measured him out, according wherunto he came euen vnto them in preaching the Gospel of Christ, and trusteth that he shall goe further, when they haue so profited that he shall not neede to say any longer amongst them to in-flect them. And lastenore is added an amplification, in that he neuer succeeded others men in their labours. 8 Thus hee sheweth after a launing fort.

praise themselves: but they vnderstand not that they measure themselves with themselves, and compare themselves with themselves,

13 But we will not reioyce of things, which are not within ¹³ our measure, ¹³ but according to the measure of the line, wherof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you,

14 For we stretch not our felues beyond our measure, as though we had not attained vnto you:
for euen to you also haue wee come in preaching
the Gospel of Christ,

15 Not boasting of things, which are ¹⁵ without our measure: ¹⁵ that is, of other mens labours:
and we hope, when your faith shall increase, to be magnified by you according to our line abundantly,

16 And to preach the Gospel in those regions which are beyond you: not to reioyce in ¹⁶ another mans line, ¹⁶ that is, in the things that are prepared already.

17 ¹⁷ & But let him that reioyceeth, reioyce in the Lord.

18 For he that praiseth himselfe, is not allowed which hee spake of himselfe, and therewith also prepareth the Corinthians to beare other things, without saying that hee seeketh nothing els but to approue himselfe to God, whose glory hee onely seeketh.

CHAP. XI.

1 *He testifieth, that for the great losses (also hee beareth to the Corinthians, hee is compelled. 5 to utter his owne praife:
9 And that hee sheweth his labour on them without any reward, 13 that the fully apostles should not passify him in any thing, 23 whom hee saith hee hath in those things which are not worthy to be desired.*

WOULD ¹ to God, ye could suffer a little my foolishnesse, and in deede, ye suffer me.

3 For I am ielous ouer you, with ³ godly ielousie: for I haue prepared you for one husband, to present you to as a pure virgin to Christ:

3 But I feare leale as the serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your mindes should be corrupt from the simplicitie that is in ⁴ Christ.

4 ⁴ For if he that commeth, preacheth ⁴ and Iesus whom wee haue not preached: or if ye recieve another spirit whom ye haue not recieued:
either another Gospel which ye haue not recieued:
ye might well haue suffered him.

5 Verely I suppose that I was not inferior to the very chiefe Apostles.

6 ⁶ And though I be ⁶ rude in speaking, yet
I am not ⁶ so in knowledge, but among you wee haue bene made manifest to the vttermost, in all things.

7 ⁷ Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my selfe, that ye might be exalted, and because I preached to you ⁷ y Gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you seruice.

9 And when I was present with you, and had needes, ⁹ I was not slouthfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto me, the brethren which came from Macedonia, if they decieue themselves, if they looke to recieve of any other man, hee knoweth an excellent Gospel, or more excellent gifts of the holy Ghost. ¹⁰ I am not distrust of Iesus Christ: ¹⁰ Hee refuteth the flanders of those Christs, I pray faith be, that I am not to eloquent an Orator, but yet they cannot take away knowledge of the Gospel from me, wherof you haue had good proofe, and in every manner of way. ¹¹ Paul iacknot that kinde of eloquence which is a man, and still for the Gospel, but hee willingly wended that painted kinde of speeche which hee many now a dayes haue after and follow. ¹² An other flander, is that he was a raskall, and lined by the labour of his owne hands. But I haue the Apostle, what can you say against me, but that I was content to take any paine for your sakes, and when I lacked, so trouble for my liuing with mine owne in part, and partly also when poeuerie constrained me, I chose rather to be seeke my sufficiency, then to be any burden to you, although I preached the Gospel vnto you? ¹³ Chap. 12. 13.

supplied, and in all things I kept, ¹ and will keep my selfe, that I should not be grievous to you.

10 The truth of Christ is in me, that this rejoycing shall not be ² thus vp against mee in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I doe, that will I doe, that I may cut away occasion from them which desire occasion, that they might be found like vnto vs in that wherein they ³ reioyce.

13 For such false apostles are deceitfull workers, and transforme themselves into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no maruile: for Satan himselfe is transformed into an Angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transforme themselves, as though they were the ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works.

16 For againe, let no man thinke that I am foolish, or else take me euen as a foole, that I also may boast my selfe a little.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

18 Seeing that many reioyce after the flesh, I will reioyce also.

19 For ye suffer fooles gladly: because that ye are wise.

20 For ye suffer, euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himselfe, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speake as concerning the reproch: as though that we had bene ⁴ weakke, but wherein any man is bold (I speake foolishly) I am bold also.

22 They are Hebrewes, so am I: they are Israelites, so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, so am I.

23 They are the ministers of Christ (I speake as a foole) I am ⁵ more: in labours more abundant: in stripes above measure: in prison more plentifully: in death oft.

24 Of the Iewes ⁶ five times received I fourtie stripes auncient.

25 I was thrice ⁷ beaten with roddes: I was once stoned: I suffered thrise shipwracke: night and day haue I bene in the deepe sea.

26 In iourneying I was often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine own nation, in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the cite, in perils in wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren,

27 In weariedness and painfulnesse, in watching, that they will at length berray themselves, what countenance may they make of zeale that they haue to Gods glory.

28 ⁸ By light is meant the Angels are persecutors. He goeth forward boldly, in a vehement, ironic or kinde of taunting, desirith the Corinthians to persecute him when he contend as a foole before them being wiselike those ioly to their externall things go to wit, touching his flocke, his ancellers, &c. Before he cometh to the matter, he toucheth the Corinthianes perswading themselves to be very wise mend not make in the meane that these false apostles abused their simplicity for aduantage. I as if he thought of that reproch which they do vnto you (I speake it) which I surely as if they did braue you. ⁹ Paulus called weak, in that he seemeth to the Corinthians a weak and slight man, a beggerly artificer, a most wretched and miserable man, notwithstanding therein Gods mighty power was made manifest.

32 In ¹³ Damascus the gouernour of the people vnder King Aretas, layde watch in the cite of the Damascenes, and would haue caught mee.

33 But at a window was I let downe in a basket through the wall, and escaped his hands.

34 I would boast my selfe, I would take no better argument: as my witnesse that I diuine and forge nothing. ¹⁴ Act. 26. 24.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He doth euen willingly make rehearsal 3 of the heavenly witness, 4 that were vnto him: 5 for which though he might in deede glory, yet he will not, 6 vnto being priuie of his owne infirmitie: 11 but they drive him to the kinde of fury, 20 in that they give care to erriate vnto his persons, who draw them from Christ.

IT is not expedient for mee no doubt to reioyce: for I will come to visions and reuelations of the Lord.

2 I know a man ¹⁵ in Christ about foureteeene yeeres agone, (whether he were in the body, I can not tell, ¹⁶ out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the ¹⁷ third heauen.

3 And I knowe such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth)

4 How that he was taken vp into ¹⁸ Paradise, and heard words which cannot be spoken, which are not ¹⁹ possible for man to vtter.

5 Of such a man will I reioyce: of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it bee of mine infirmities.

6 For though I would reioyce, I should not be a foole, for I will say the truth: but I reifaine, lest any man should thinke of me about that hee seeth in me, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted out of measure through the abundance of reuelations, there was giuen vnto me a ²⁰ prick in the flesh, the messenger of ²¹ Satan to buffet mee, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I befought the Lord ²² thrise that it might depart from me.

9 And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee, for which name they that translated the olde Testament out of Hebrew into Greeke, called the garden Eden, wherinto Adam was put straight after his creation, as a most delicate and pleasant place. And herewith groweth in, that that blessed state of the glory of God is called by that name. 4 Which no man is able to vtter. 5 Which the Saints themselves are not by any means able to expresse, because it is Gods grace, grace, thus doth I mean. for thee: for my power is made perfect through weaknesse. 4 Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may I dwell in me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguishes for Christs sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe: yee haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bene commended of you: for in nothing was I inferior vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I bee nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes, and wonders, and great works,

13 For what is it, when I yee were inferior vnto other Churches, except that I haue not bene sothfull to your hinderance: forgiue me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not be sothfull to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but yours for the children ought not to lay yv for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestow, and will be bestowed for your foules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loved.

16 But bee it that I charged you not: yet for as much as I was craftie, I tooke you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing? walked we not in the selfe same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, thinke yee that wee excuse our selues vnto you? we speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I feare lest when I come, I shall not find you such as I would: and that I shall be found vnto you such as yee would not, and left there to strife, enuying, wrath, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, and discord.

21 I feare lest when I come againe, my God abuse me among you, and I shall bewaile many of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of the vncleannesse, and fornication, and wantonnesse which they haue committed,

1 *Condemning the third time, a he denounceth the sharper con-

10 It is in the third time that I come vnto you.
L In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall euery word stand.

11 I told you before, and tell you before: as though I had bene present the second time, so write I now being absent to them, which heretofore haue sinned, and to all others, that if I come againe, I will not spare.

12 Seeing that yee seeke experience of Christ, that speaker in mee, which toward you is not weak, but is mightie in you.

13 For though hee was crucified concerning his infirmities, yet lieth he through the power of God. And we no doubt are weak in him, but we shall liue with him, through the power of God toward you.

14 Proue your selues whether yee are in the faith: examine your selues: knowe yee not your owne selues, how that Iesus Christ is in you, except yee be reprobates?

15 But I trust that yee shall know that wee are not reprobates.

16 Nowe I pray vnto God that yee doe none euill, not that we should feeme approved, but that yee should doe that which is honest: though wee be as reprobates.

17 For wee can not doe any thing against the truth, but for the truth.

18 For we are glad when wee are weak, and that yee are strong: this also we wish for, even your perfection.

19 Therefore write I these things being absent, lest when I am present, I should vse sharpnesse, according to the power which the Lorde hath giuen mee, to edification, and not to destruction.

20 Finally brethren, fare yee well: be perfect: be of good comfort: be of one minde: liue in peace, and the God of loue and peace shall be with you.

21 Greete one another with an holy kisse.

22 All the Saints salute you.

23 The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ, and the loue of God, and the communion of the holy Ghost be with you all, Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE PAUL TO THE GALATIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 Straight after the salutation, & he representeth the Galatians for reading. 2 From his Gospel, 15 which hee received from God, 17 before he had communicated with any of the Apostles.

AVL is an Apostle (not 2 of men, neither by man, & but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father which hath raised him from the dead)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, vnto the Churches of Galatia :

3 Grace be with you, and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Which gave himselfe for our finnes, that he might deliuer vs & for this present euill & world according to the will of God euen our Father,

5 To whom be glory for euer and euer, Amen.

6 I maruile that ye are so soone & remoued away vnto another Gospel, from him that had called you in the grace of Christ,

7 Which is not another Gospel, saue that there be some which trouble you, and intend to pervert the Gospel of Christ.

8 But though that wee, or an Angel from heauen preach vnto you otherwise, then that which we haue preached vnto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now againe, If any man preach vnto you otherwise, then that ye haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 For nowe preach I mans doctrine, or Gods, or go I about to please men? for if I should yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

11 Now I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after man.

12 For neither receiued I of man, neither was I taught it, but by the reuelation of Iesus Christ.

13 For ye haue heard of my conuersion in time past, in the Iewish religion, howe that I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it, 14 And profited in the Iewish religion about many of my companions of mine owne nation, and was much more zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God (which had separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace)

16 To reuile his Sonne in me, that I should preach him among the Gentiles immediately, I communicated not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither came I againe to Hierusalem to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, and turned againe vnto Damascus.

18 Then after three yeeres I came againe to Hierusalem, to visite Peter, and abode with him fiftene dayes.

19 And none other of the Apostles sawe I, saue Iames the Lords brother.

20 Nowe the things which I write vnto you, beholde, I witness before God, that I lie not.

21 After that, I went into the coastes of Syria and Cilicia: for I was unknowne by face vnto the Churches of Iudea which were in Christ.

22 But they had heard only some say, Hee which persecuted vs in time past, nowe preacheth the faith which before he destroyed.

23 And they glorified God for me.

And others, whose names (as I said before) the false apostles abused to destroy his Apostleship, as though he desired another Gospel then the true Apostles did, and as though hee were not of their number, which are to be credited without exception: therefore Paul auereth, that he began straightaway after his calling to preach at Damascus and in Arabia, and was not from thence time in Hierusalem but only fiftene dayes, where he saw only Peter, James, and afterwards he began to teach in Syria and Cilicia, with the content and approbation of the Churches of the Iewes, which knew him only by name, so farre off was it, that hee was there instructed of men. A Whom many in the world.

This is a kinde of sub. p The doctrine of faith.

CHAP. II.

1 That the Apostles did nothing disagree from his Gospel, 3 he declareth by the example of Titus being uncircumcised, 12 and also by his aduancing the same against Peters dissimulation: 17 And so he prisseth to the handling of our first instruction by Christ, &c.

Then 14 yeeres yeres after, I went vp againe to Hierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke with me Titus also.

2 And I went vp by reuelation, and declared vnto them that Gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but particularly to them that were the chiefe, lest by any means I should runne, or had runne sin in vaine:

3 But neither yet Titus which was with mee, though hee were a Grecian, was compelled to be circumcised,

4 To wit, for the false brethren which were craftily sent in, and crept in priuily to spie out our libertie, which we haue in Christ Iesus, that they felices therein, which traitorously laid wayes against him, but in vaine: neither did they adde the least ree to the doctrine which hee had preached, but contrariwise they gaue him and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, and acknowledged them as Apostles appointed of the Lord to the Gentiles, a Disputing, for as touching his doctrine, Paul desired not of it, but because there were certain reports cast abroad of him, that hee was of another opinion then the rest of the Apostles were, who had thing much bene hindered the work of his Gospel, therefore hee laboured to remoue this doubt. b Which by decree, and counsell, he himselfe kept in among the faithful.

After gr. k Hee callith vnto the traditions of his fathers, because hee was not only a Pharise himselfe, but also he had Pharisees to his fathers.

l The spirit of Gods earliasing predication, whereby hee appointed him to be an Apostle, without hee cometh three degrees, the earliasing comfite of Gods, his appointing from his mothers wombe, and his calling: there is no mention of any, yet first of wnter, and then to me, and then in a kinde of spirit which the Hierosy, whereby this is given vs to understand, and this hee cometh from Gods.

CHAP. III.

^a Being delivered from the bondage of the Law, ^b by Christ, who is the end thereof; ^c so as we are not bound to fall back to beggerly circumstances; ^d His call is him against therefore in the spirit of the doctrine of the Gospel, as concerning his eternally made a free ally.

^e He declareth that by another double friendship, which he had before concerning the keeper and scholar-master; For he saith, that the Law, (that is the whole government of Gods house according to the Law) was as it were a tutor or overseer supported for a time, until faith came in that proceeding and succeeding which was but for a time, being ended, we should at length come to be at our own liberty, and should live as children, and not as servants. Moreover, he sheweth by the way, that the government of the Law, was as it were an A.B.C., and as certain principles in comparison of the doctrine of the Gospel.

^f Then ^g I say, that the fire as long as hee is a child, directeth nothing from a servant, though he be Lord of all, ^h But is under tutors and governors, ⁱ until the time appointed of the Father.

^j Even so, we when we were children, were in bondage under the rudiments of the world.

^k But when the fulness of time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, and made under the Law,

^l That he might redeem them which were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption of the sonnes.

^m And because we are sonnes, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Sonne into your hearts, which crieth, Abba, Father.

ⁿ Wherefore, then art no more a servant, but a sonne: now if thou be a sonne, thou art also the heir of God through Christ.

^o But even then, when ye knewe not God, yee did service vnto them, which by nature are not gods.

^p But now feeling yee know God, yea, rather are known of God, howe tame ye againe vnto impotent and beggerly rudiments, whereunto as from the beginning ye will be in bondage againe?

^q Yee observe dayes, and moneths, and times and yeeres.

^r I am in feare of you, lest I have bestowed on you labour in vaine.

^s Ye as yet (for I am euen as you) brethren, I beseech you: ye have not hurt me at all.

^t And ye know, how through infirmity of the flesh, I preached the Gospel vnto you at y first.

^u And the trial of me which was in my flesh, ye despised not, neither abhorred: but ye received me as an Angel of God, yea, as Christ Iesus.

^v What was then your felicity? for I bear you record, that if it had bene possible, yee would have plucked out your owne eyes, and have given them unto me.

^w Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

^x They are jealous out of you I misse: yea, they would exclude you, that yee should altogether lose them.

^y But it is a good thing to lose earnestly always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

^z My little children, of whom I traile in birth againe, until Christ be formed in you, ^{aa} And I would I were with you now, that I might change my voyce: for I am indoubt of you.

^{ab} Tell me, ye that will be under the Law, do ye not heare the Law?

^{ac} For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, ^{ad} one by a servant, and ^{ae} one by a free woman.

^{af} But he which was of the servant, was borne after the flesh: and he which was of the free woman, was borne by promise.

^{ag} By the which things another thing is meant: for these members are the two testaments, the one which is Agar of mount Sinai, which becometh vnto bondage.

^{ah} (For Agar or Sina is a mountain in Arabia, and is answereth to Hierusalem which now is) and the is in bondage with her children.

^{ai} But Hierusalem, which is above, is free: which is the mother of vs all.

^{aj} For it is written, ^{ak} Reioyce thou barren that bearest no children: break forth, & cry, thou that trailest not: for the Lord hath many moe children, then the which hath an husband.

^{al} Therefore, brethren, we are after the manner of Isaac, children of the promise.

^{am} But as then hee that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the Spirit, even so it is now.

^{an} As we have seen a father common to them both, but not with like favour: for as Abraham begate Isaac, by the common course of nature, so Agar his bond woman and stranger, and began Isaac of Sara a free woman by the virtue of the promise and by grace only, and the first was not only not here, but also persecuted the latter.

^{ao} So there are two covenants, and as it were two sonnes borne to Abraham of two concubines, as it were of two mothers. The one was made in Sin, without the land of promise, according to which covenant Abraham children were they to the flesh were begotten: to which the Law, which teacheth righteousness by the command, that is by the Law: but they are not heirs, say they that are by the house, as they that persecute the true heirs.

^{ap} The other was made in the Spirit of Hierusalem, or in Zion, (to wit, by the Gift of Christ) which begetteth children of promise, to wit, believers, by the virtue of the holy Ghost, which children in Abraham do rest themselves in the free promise, and they only by the gift of the Spirit shall partake of the fathers inheritance, and they only by the gift of the Spirit shall be the common course of nature.

^{aq} By virtue of the promise, which Abraham kept holds on for himself and his to us fields, for afterwards Abraham and Sara were left beggining and bearing children.

^{ar} These two represent and shadow forth, as they are called two covenants, one of the old Testament, and another of the New Testament, were not two in deed and in spirit of the time, and the diversity of the government.

^{as} He maketh mention of Sina, because that covenant was made in that mountain, at which mountain after was the common course of nature.

^{at} Look how the title himselfe becometh Agar and her children, such his bondage is between the flesh and her, and that is, Sina, which is exalted, and of great account.

^{au} He saith that in this allegorie, he hath followed the steps of Esay, who foretold that the Church should be made and consist of the children of barren Sina, the day, of them which were only spiritually should be made Abraham and Esay, the father and calling of the Gentiles.

^{av} Esay saith, ^{aw} Sina that is a desolate and void, ^{ax} & Rom. 9. ^{ay} After the manner of Isaac, who is the Sina of the Gentiles, Hierusalem, as I have said of the faith Synagoga, ^{az} But there, was which promise becometh, ^{ba} By the common course of nature, ^{bb} By the virtue of the promise and after a spiritual manner.

8 ¹⁰ Whereby he hath bin abundant toward vs in all wisdom and vnderstanding.

9 And hath opened vnto vs the myserie of his will according to his good pleasure, which he hath purposed in him.

10 That in the dispensation of the fulness of the times, he might gather together in one all things, both which are in heauen, and which are in earth, ⁱⁿ Christ.

11 In whom also we are chosen when we were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsell of his owne will.

12 That we, which first trusted in Christ, should be vnto the praise of his glory:

13 In whom also ye have trusted, after ye heard the word of truth, ^{even} the Gospel of your saluation, wherein also after that ye beleue, ye were sealed with the holy Spirit of promise,

14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, for the redemption of that libertie purchased vnto the praise of his glory.

15 Therefore also after that I heard of the faith, which ye haue in the Lord Iesus, and loue toward all the Saints,

16 I ceased not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the God of our Lord Iesus Christ, that Father of glory, might give vnto you the Spirit of wisdom, and reuelation through the acknowledgement of him,

18 That the eyes of your vnderstanding may be lightened, that ye may know what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance are in the Saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward vs, which beleeue, according to the working of his mightie power,

20 Which hee wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his right hand in the heauenly places,

21 Farre aboue all principallitie, and power, and might, and domination, and euerie Name, that is named, not in this world only, but also in that that is to come,

22 And hath made all things subiect vnder his feet, and hath giuen him ouer all things to bee the head of the Church,

23 Which is his body, ^{now} the fulness of him that filleth all in all things.

^{the} weakness of the flesh.

¹ To be first on Gods right hand, is to be a partner of the four-all things: they of weaker flesh power or excedence. 21 That we should not think that that excellent glorie of Christ is a thing where with we have sought to doe, he witnesseth, that he was appointed of God the Father head of all the Church, & therefore the body must be ioyned to this head which otherwise should be a mayned thing without the members: which notwithstanding is not of necessity (seeing that the Church is rather quickened & sustained by the onely verue of Christ, for Lawfulness it thus hee seeketh the fulness of the body) but of the infinite good will and pleasure of God, who wonderfully to loue vs to his Sonnes. ² Inasmuch there is nothing but is subiect to him. 2 For the loue of Christ is great towards the Church, that hee doth fully subiect all with all things, yet hee strength himselfe and a married and perfect head, which is to be the Church as to him as the body.

CHAP. II.

¹ The letter to set out the grace of Christ, hee vseth a comparison, calling them to remembrance, 5 that they were altogether calluities and blinde, 8 that they are saved by grace, 13 and through mercy, 16 by reconciliation through Christ, 17 published by the Gospel

And ¹ you hath he quickened, that were dead in trespasses and finnes,

2 Wherein in times past ye walked, according to the course of this world, and after the prince that reuleth in the aire, ^{even} the spirit, that now worketh in the children of disobedience,

3 Among whom we also had our conuersation in time past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the will of the flesh, and of the minde, and were by nature the children of wrath as well as others.

4 But God which is rich in mercie, through his great loue wherewith hee loued vs,

5 Euen when we were dead by finnes, hath quickened vs together in Christ, by whose grace ye are saved,

6 And hath raysed vs vp together, and made vs sit together in the heauenly places in Christ Iesus,

¹ them dead, which are not regenerate: for as the immortallitie of them which are damned, is no life, so the living together of body and soule, is properly no life, neither them which are not ruled by the Spirit of God. 2 Hee then with the course of death, to wit finnes. 3 Hee prooeth by the effects that are done by spirituall death. 4 He prooeth this euill to be vniuersall, in so much as all are sinners of Satans. 5 As the nature of the prince. 6 Men are therefore sinners in Satans, because they are willingly rebellious against God. 7 They are called the children of disobedience, which are given to disobedience. 6 After that hee hath fearefully condemned the Gentiles, hee confesseth that the Iewes amongst whom hee himselfe hath himselfe not a whit better. 7 By the name of Christ, hee sheweth, hee meaneth the whole man, which hee indelish into two parts: into the flesh, which is the part that the Pharisees were without reason, and into the thought, which they called wisdom: in what hee leaueh nothing in man half dead, but concluding that the whole man of nature
the frame of man. 7 The conclusion: All men are borne subiect to the wrath and curse of God. 8 Men are laid to be the children of wrath perfectly, that is to say, guilty of cursing death by the inuigment of God, who is angry with them.
9 Pharisee people which knew not God. 8 Nowe hee followeth another member of the comparison, declaring our excellencie, to wit, that by the verue of Christ we are delivered from that death, and made partakers of eternall life, to the end that that length we may reigne with him. And by diuers and sundry means he heareth this into their heads, that the efficient cause of this benefite is the free mercie of God: and Christ himselfe is the meritorie cause: and faith is the instrument, which also is the free gift of God: and the end is Gods glory. 9 To wit, as hee saith afterwards in Christ, for as yet it is not fulfilled in vs, but only in our head, by whose spirit we haue begun to die to sinne, and live in God, which that we be fully brings us on, and maketh vs the hope is certifier for we are as sure of that we looke for, as we are of that we haue received already.

so The Apostle willeth to be holden our most glorious Christ with the eyes of faith, that we excellent power and glorie of God, whereof all the faithfull are partakers, although it be as yet very dark in vs by reason of the ignominie of the crosse and the weaknesse of the flesh.

1 Hee declareth against the generencie of Gods good will, by comparing that miserable state wherein we are borne,
with that dignity wherewith
we are aduanced
by God the Father in Christ. So that hee describeth that condition in such sort, that he faith, that such condition is motions we are not onely borne halfe dead, but wholly and altogether dead.

2 Look how, 2
to shew hee saileth them dead, which are not regenerate: for as the immortallitie of them which are damned, is no life, so the living together of body and soule, is properly no life, neither them which are not ruled by the Spirit of God. 2 Hee then with the course of death, to wit finnes. 3 Hee prooeth by the effects that are done by spirituall death. 4 He prooeth this euill to be vniuersall, in so much as all are sinners of Satans. 5 As the nature of the prince. 6 Men are therefore sinners in Satans, because they are willingly rebellious against God. 7 They are called the children of disobedience, which are given to disobedience. 6 After that hee hath fearefully condemned the Gentiles, hee confesseth that the Iewes amongst whom hee himselfe hath himselfe
not a whit better. 7 By the name of Christ, hee sheweth, hee meaneth the whole man, which hee indelish into two parts: into the flesh, which is the part that the Pharisees were without reason, and into the thought, which they called wisdom: in what hee leaueh nothing in man half dead, but concluding that the whole man of nature
the frame of man. 7 The conclusion: All men are borne subiect to the wrath and curse of God. 8 Men are laid to be the children of wrath perfectly, that is to say, guilty of cursing death by the inuigment of God, who is angry with them.
9 Pharisee people which knew not God. 8 Nowe hee followeth another member of the comparison, declaring our excellencie, to wit, that by the verue of Christ we are delivered from that death, and made partakers of eternall life, to the end that that length we may reigne with him. And by diuers and sundry means he heareth this into their heads, that the efficient cause of this benefite is the free
mercie of God: and Christ himselfe is the meritorie cause: and faith is the instrument, which also is the free gift of God: and the end is Gods glory. 9 To wit, as hee saith afterwards in Christ, for as yet it is not fulfilled in vs, but only in our head, by whose spirit we haue begun to die to sinne, and live in God, which that we be fully brings us on, and maketh vs the hope is certifier for we are as sure of that we looke for, as we are of that we haue received already.

Thy three last Chapters containe principles of manners. 1 The first sheweth how to maintain lawe. 2 sheweth how to follow the lawe of God. 3 that the Church may be built up. 4 how to call to him from the want of the world. 5 from him. 6 and from himselfe.

Therefore, being prisoner in the Lord, pray you that yee walke worthy of the vocation wherunto yee are called.

With all humbleness of minde, and meeknes, with long suffering, supporting one another through loue.

Endeavouring to keepe the vnaide of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

There is one body, and one Spirit, euen as yee are called in one hope of your vocation.

There is one Lord, one Faith, one Baptisme. One God and Father of all, which is aboue all, and through all, and in you all.

But vnto euerie one of vs is giuen grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

Wherefore he saith, When he ascended vp on hie, he led captiuitie captive, and gaue gifts vnto me. Nowe, in that hee ascended, what is it but that hee had also descended first into the lowest parts of the earth?

Hee that descended, is euen the same that ascended, farre aboue all heauens, that hee might fill all things.

He therefore gaue some to be Apostles, and some Prophets, and some Euangelists, and some Pastours, and Teachers.

For the repairing of the Saintes, for the worke of the ministration, and for the edification of the body of Christ.

Till we all meete together (in the vnitie of faith and that acknowledging of the Sonne of God) vnto a perfect man, and vnto the measure of the age of the fullnesse of Christ.

That we henceforth bee no more children, waucring and caried about with euerie winde of doctrine, by the deceite of men, and with craftines, whereby they lay in wait to decauie. But let vs follow the truth in loue, and in all things growe vp into him, which is the head, that is, Christ.

By whome all the body being coupled and knit together by euery ioynt, for furniture thereof (according to the effectual power, which is in the measure of euery part) receiue th increase of the body, vnto the edifying of it selfe in 7 loue.

This I say therefore and testifie in the Lords, that yee henceforth walke not as other Gentiles walke, in vanitie of their mind,

Hauiug their vnderstanding darkened, and being strangers from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their heart:

Which being past feeling, haue giuen themselves vnto wantonnesse, to worke all vncleannesse, men with greedinesse.

But ye haue not so learned Christ,

If so be ye haue heard him, and haue bene taught by him, as the truth is in Iesus,

That is, that yee call off, concerning the conuention in time past, that olde man, which is corrupt through the deceiueable lusts,

And be renewed in the spirit of your mind,

And put on the new man, which is after God is created vnto righteousness, and true holiness.

Wherefore cast off lying, and speake euerie man truth vnto his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

Be not angry, but beare it: let not the sunne goe downe vpon your wrath.

Neither giue place to the deuill.

Let him that stole, steale no more: but let him rather labour, and worke with his handes, the thing which is good, that hee may haue to giue vnto him that needeth.

Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouthes: but which is good, to the vse of edifying, if my minister grace vnto the hearers.

And grieue not the holy Spirit of God,

betweene the children of God, as them which are not regenerate: For in these men, all the powers of the mind are corrupted, their mind is giuen to vanity, and their senses are darkened with most greifeful mist, and their affections are as become dead by idle and idle to wickedness, that though they run headlong into all wickedness, being vnto the deliue of all indignation.

Wherefore God hath in them, a deuide of all indignation. Therefore it is not to be said, as though there had been some gaine to be gotten by it. Here followeth contrary part touching men which are regenerate by the true and liuely knowledge of Christ, which haue other principles of their doings far different, to wit, holy and honest desires, a mind cleane changed by the vertue of the holy Ghost, from whence proceed alio like effects, as liue and holy life in deeds.

10 He declarer his good will towards them, there-withall shewing by what means chiefly they may be confirmed, to wit, by continual prayer.

11 He sheweth what thing we ought chiefly desire, to wit, first of all that we may increase in the true knowledge of God, so that we may be able to discern things that differ one from another, and also in charity, that cuts to the end, and we may give our selves to good works in deeds, to the glory of God by Iesus Christ.

12 Righteousness is the tree, and good works the fruit, when must be desired, when they are the result of righteousness.

13 He presenteth the offence that might come by his perfection, whereby divers tooke occasion to despise his apostleship, to whom heauenly light shined, that God hath blessed his imprisonment in such wise, that hee is by it increased become more famous, and the diguities of the Gospel by this occasion is greatly enlarged, although not with like affliction in all men, yet in dedee.

14 For Christ sake.

15 In the Emperours court.

16 The Gospel is called the word, so far forth the expectation of it.

17 Not with a pure amble, for otherwise their desires were pure.

18 He sheweth by fasting forth his own example.

that the ends of our afflictions is true joy, and that through the vertue of the Spirit of Christ, which he giveth to them that aske it. 19 Under a goodly colour and shew, for they made Christ a cloak for their ambition and enuie. 20 Wee must continue to the end, with great confidence, having nothing before our eyes but Christs glory onely, whether wee live or die. 21 An example of a true shepherd, who maketh more account how he may profit his sheepe, then how much for his commoditie of his owne whatsoever. 22 To live in this mortalitie. 23 Having let downe those things before, in manner of a preface, hee descenderh more to exhortations, warning them first of all, to continue both in doctrine and minde, and afterward, that being thus knit together with those common bandes, they continue through the strength of faith to beare all adversities in such sort, that they admit nothing unworthy the profection of the Gospel. 24 The more faithful to stand fast, and is it proper to worshipp him that stand fast and shirke not a jot.

8 For God is my recorde, howe I long after you all from the very heart roote in Iesus Christ. 9 And this I pray that your loue may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement.

10 That ye may allowe those things which are best, that yet may bee pure, and without offence vntill the day of Christ,

11 Filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Iesus Christ vnto the glory and prayse of God.

12 ¶ I would yee vnderstood, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto mee, are returned rather to the furthering of the Gospel,

13 So that my bandes in Christ are famo u throughout all the iudgement hall, and in all other places.

14 Insomuch that many of the brethren in the Lorde are boldened through my bandes, and dare more frankly speake the word.

15 Some preache Christ euen through enuie and strife, and some of all good will.

16 The one part preacheth Christ of contention and not purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bandes.

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I am left for the defence of the Gospel.

18 ¶ What then yet Christ is preached al manner ways, whether it be vnder a pretence, or sincerely: and I therein ioy: yea and will ioy.

19 For I know that this shall turne to my saluation through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Spirit of Iesus Christ,

20 ¶ As I feruently looke for, and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, so now Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For Christ is to me both in life, and in death advantage.

22 ¶ And whether to live in the flesh were profitable for me, and what to chuse I know not.

23 For I am distressed betwene both, desiring to be loofed and to be with Christ, which is best of all.

24 Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh, is more needfull for you.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shall abide, and with you all continue, for your furtherance and ioy of your faith,

26 That ye may more abundantly reioyce in IESVS CHRIST for mee, by my comming to you againe.

27 ¶ Onely let your conversation be, as it becommeth the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and see you or els be absent, I may heare of your matters that ye continue in one spirit, and in one minde, fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

28 ¶ And in nothing feare your adversaries, which is to them a token of perdition, and to you of saluation, and that of God.

29 ¶ For vnto you it is given for Christ, that not only ye should beleue in him, but also suffer for his sake,

30 ¶ Having the same fight, which yee saw in me, and now heare it to be in me.

God himselfe both of our saluation, and of the destruction of the wicked. 10 The prouer that his saying, that persecution is a token of our saluation, because it is a gift of God to suffer for Christ, which gift hee bestoweth vpon his owne, as he doeth the gift of faith. 11 Nowe he sheweth for what purpose hee made mention of his afflictions.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth them above all things to humilitie, and that by the example of Christ. 2 Hee promitteth to send Timothy shortly vnto them, and excuseth the long tarrying of Epaphroditus.

¶ If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of loue, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any compassion and mercie,

2 Fulfill my ioy, that yee bee like minde, having the same loue, being of one accord, and of one iudgement,

3 That nothing be done through contention or vaine glory, but that in meeknesse of minde euery man esteeme other better then himselfe.

4 Looke not euery man on his owne things, but euery man also on the things of other men.

5 ¶ Let the same minde bee in you that was euen in Christ Iesus,

6 Who being in the forme of God, thought it no robbery to be equal with God:

7 But he made himselfe of no reputation, and took on him the forme of a seruant, & was made like vnto men, and was found in shape as a man.

8 He humbled himselfe, and became obedient vnto the death, euen the death of the crosse.

9 ¶ Wherefore God hath also highly exalted him, and giuen him a name above euery name,

10 That at the Name of Iesus shoulde euery knee bow, both of things in heauen, and things in earth, and things vnder the earth,

11 And that euery tongue shoulde confesse that Iesus Christ is the Lorde, vnto the glory of God the Father.

12 ¶ Wherefore my beloved, as yee haue alwayes obeyed me, not as in my presence onely, but now much more in mine absence: so make an end of your owne saluation wth feare and trembling,

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deed, euen of his good pleasure.

14 ¶ Doe all things without murmuring and reasonings,

9 We ought not to be discouraged, but rather encouraged by the persecutions which the enemies of the Gospel imagine and practise against us, seeing that they are enemies without us, and not within us. 10 The prouer that his saying, that persecution is a token of our saluation, because it is a gift of God to suffer for Christ, which gift hee bestoweth vpon his owne, as he doeth the gift of faith. 11 Nowe he sheweth for what purpose hee made mention of his afflictions.

5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgement of God, that yee may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for the which ye also suffer.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you,

7 And to them which are troubled, rest 4 with vs, 8 When the Lorde Iesus shall shew himselfe from heauen with his mightie Angels,

8 In flaming fire, rendering vengeance vnto them, 9 that doe not know God, and which obey not vnto the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ,

10 Which shall be punished with euertlasting perdition from the presence of the Lorde, and from the glory of his power,

11 When hee shall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to be made maruellous in all them that beleuee (7 because our testimony toward you was beleueed) in that day.

12 Wherefore, we also pray alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthy of this calling, and fulfill 4 all the good pleasure of his goodnesse, and the 4 worke of faith with power,

13 That the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lorde Iesus Christ.

14 And glorious description of the second coming of Christ, to be set against the sinnes of the godly, and the triumphs of the wicked. 6 There is no knowledge of God vnto saluation, without the Gospel of Christ. 7 The children of God shall be counted by the faith which they haue in the Gospel, which is taught vnto them by the Apostles. 8 Seeing that we haue the marke set before us, to remembere that we got vnto it. And we got to it, by certaine degrees of holinesse, which by the free loue, and good pleasure of God, by vertue, whereby all goodnesse cometh vnto vs: from thence proceedeth the free calling to Christ, which calling, faith, wherupon followeth both the glorifying of Christ in vs, and in Christ. 6 By calling, he meaneth not the vocation of calling, but that vocation wherunto we are called, which is a shewling of his electing grace, which he determineth long since, only vpon his graces and mercifull goodnesse in vs. 4 As then, faith is an excellent worke of God in vs: and we see here howe the apostle teacheth us to free will, to make it cheerefull with Gods grace, wherewith the people desire.

CHAP. II.

15 He sheweth that the day of the Lorde shall not come, till there be a departure from the faith, 3 and that Antichrist be crucified, 8 who is the destruction hee is to our, 15 and thenceupon laboureth to confound vs.

16 Nowe we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ, and by our 4 assembling vnto him,

17 That ye be not so suddenly moued from your minde, nor troubled neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as it were from vs, as though the day of Christ were at hand.

18 Let no man deceiue you by any meanes: 3 for that day shall not come, except there come a departing first, and that 4 that man of sinne be disclosed, euen the sonne of perdition,

19 Which is an aduersarie, and 4 exalteth himselfe against all that is called God, or that is worshipped: 4 so that he doth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing himselfe that he is God.

20 Remember yee not, that when I was yet with you, I tolde you these things?

21 And now ye know 2 what withholdeth, that he might be crucified in his time.

22 For the mystérie of iniquitie doth already worke: 7 onely hee which now withholdeth, shall let till he be taken out of the way.

23 And then shall that wicked man be crucified, 4 whose the Lorde shall 4 confound with the spirit of his mouth, and shall abolish with the brightnesse of his coming,

24 Euen him whose coming is by the effectual working of Satan, with all his power, and signes, and 4 lying wonders,

25 And in all deceiualemente of vnrighteousnesse, among them that perish, because they receiued not the loue of the truth, that they might be faued.

26 And therefore God shall send them a strong delusion, that they should beleuee lies,

27 That all they might be damned which beleueed not the truth, but 4 had pleasure in vnrighteousnesse.

28 But wee ought to giue thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloued of the Lorde, because that God hath from the beginning chosen you to saluation, through 4 sanctification of the spirit, and the 4 faith of truth,

29 Whereunto hee called you by our 4 Gospel, to obtaine the glory of our Lord Iesus Christ.

30 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and keepe the instructions, which we haue bene taught, either by word, or by our Epistle.

31 Nowe the same Iesus Christ our Lorde, and our God, euen the Father, which hath loued vs, and hath giuen vs euertlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 32 Comfort your heartes, and stablish you in euery word and good worke.

33 Word for word, that he hath follow: that is to say, be that shall receiue Gods Lawe, shall receiue the word, 4 that is to say, 4 brought to nought. 11 That is to say, the word of the word, as in a mouth, whereby the Lorde breatheth out this mightie and euertlasting word, which shall be crucified in sinners, as it were on yron rods. 9 Hee foretelleth that Satan will build up all his might and power, and vse all false miracles that hee can to establish that state, and that with great successe, because the wickednesse of the world doeth so deuise: yet so, that onely the vnfaillfull shall perish through his deceit. 10 Which now partly false, and partly wanting to establish a falsehood. 11 A most mightie working to deuide them. 4 They did it so well, that they had pleasure in them, which is the greatest working that may be. 12 The elect shall stand fast, and safe from all these wickednesse. Nowe election is knowen by their testimony: Faith is gathered by sanctification: faith, by that that we accord vnto the truth: truth, by calling, through the preaching of the Gospel: from whence we come at length to a certaine hope of glorification. 13 To sanctify you. 14 Faith, which layeth hold vpon vs, but vpon the truth of God, which is the Gospel. 15 By our preaching. 16 The conclusion remaineth then, that we continue in the doctrine which we haue deliuered vnto vs by the mouth and writings of the Apostles, which is the free good will of God, which comforteth vs with an inuincible hope, and also in all godlinesse our whole life long.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee depresse them to further the preaching of the Gospel with shewers, 6 and to withdraw themselves from those, who though idly will, 11 and cariously perseuer good order: 14 whom hee excludeth from the company of the faithful.

15 Furthermore, 4 brethren, 4 pray for vs, that the sword of the Lorde may haue free passage and be glorified, euen as it is with you,

16 And that we may be deliuered from 4 vncom-

12 Therefore I thanke him which hath made me strong, that is, Christ Iesus our Lord: for he counted me faithfull, and put mee in his service:

13 When before I was a blasphemour, and a persecutor, and an oppressor: but I was received to mercie: for I did it ignorantly through vniuerselle. 14 But the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant in faith and loue, which is in Christ Iesus.

15 This is a true saying, and by all meanes wortie to be receiued, that Christ Iesus came into the world to save sinners, of whome I am chiefe.

16 Notwithstanding for this cause was I receiued to mercie, that Iesus Christ should first shewe on me all long suffering, vnto the enfolding of them, which shall in time to come beleeue in him vnto eternal life.

17 Nowe vnto the King cuerlasting, immortal, inuisible, vnto God onely wise, be honour, and glory, for cuer, and cuer, Amen.

18 This commendement cometh I vnto thee, sonne Timothye, according to the prophetias, which went before vpon thee, that thou by them shouldst fight a good fight,

19 Having faith & a good conscience, which some haue put away, and as concerning faith, haue made shipwrecke.

20 Of whome is Hymeneus, and Alexander, 21 whom I haue deliuered vnto Satan, that they might learne not to blaspheme.

22 For there is one God, and one Mediator betweene God and man, which is the man Christ Iesus,

23 Who gaue himselfe a ranfome for all men, to be that testifimone in due time,

24 Wherunto I am ordained a preacher and an Apostle (I speake the truth in Christ, and lie not) among a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and veritie.

25 I will therefore that the men pray, euery where lifting vp pure hands without wrath or doubting.

26 Likewise also the women, that they array themselves in comely apparell, with shamefastnesse and modestie, not with broidered haire, or gold, or pearles, or costly apparell,

27 But (as becometh women that professe the feare of God) with good works.

28 Let the woman learne in silence with all subiection.

29 I permit not a woman to teach, neither to vspure authoritie ouer the man, but to be in silence.

30 For Adam was first formed, then Eue.

31 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived, and was in the transgression.

32 Notwithstanding, through bearing of children she shall be saved if they continue in faith, and loue, and holinesse with modestie.

God should not be manifested to be the only God of all men, unless he should shew his goodness in saving all peoples: men, whether should Christ beleeue to be the only Mediator betweene God and all sorts of men, by having taken vpon him the nature of man which is common to all man, unless he had satisfied for all sorts of men, and made intercession for all.

Christ Iesus which is made man.

A confirmation because that euen to the Gentiles in the secret of saluation now opened and made manifest, the Apostle himselfe being appointed properly to that office which he doth faithfully and sincerely execute.

2. Tim. 1.12.

Faithfully and sincerely: and by faith he meant wholehearted and sound doctrine, and so forth, an aptitude and sincere holding of it. 2. He hath spoken of the persons for whom we must pray, and now he teacheth that the difference of places is taken away: for in times past, one only nation, and in one certaine place came together to publike service: but now Churches or Congregations are gathered together euery where (orderly and decently) and men come together to serue God publike with common prayer, which must we praise for the action or for the publication of the bodie, or for the place, but for the multitude to haue it cleane from all offence, and full of true fruit and confidence. 3. He putteth the figure for the thing, as if he saying, ye pray for them, for the calling vpon God. 4. Whom thou shalt grante and assist of the minds, which haue not from calling vpon God a place of grace. 5. Doubting which is against faith. 6. Tim. 1.6. 7. 1. Pet. 1.3. 7. Thirdly he appointeth women to learne in the publike assemblies with silence and modestie, being comely appareled without any riot or exesse in their apparell. 8. 1. Cor. 14.34. 8. The first argument, why it is not lawfull for women to teach in the Congregation, because by this meanes they should be placed above men, for they should be their masters: which is against Gods ordinance. 9. He proceeth this ordinance of God, whereby the woman is subiect to man, first by that, that God made the woman after man, for mans sake. 10. Gen. 1.27. 11. Gen. 2.18. 12. Then because that after sinne God iudged the woman this punishment, for that the man was deceived by her. 13. Adam was deceived but through his wily meane, and therefore she is worthy for this cause (saith he) to be bound, and ought to be. 14. He addeth a comfort by the way, that their subiection hindereth not but that women may be saved as well as men, if they beane themselves in those burdens of mariage heily and modestly, with faith and charitie.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth them to make publike prayers for all men, 2, 3 and that for two causes: 3 And therefore he willeth all men in all places to pray, and declareth in what apparell, it is with what modestie, women ought to beane themselves in holy assemblies.

1 Exhort therefore, that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giuing of thanks be made for all men,

2 For Kings, and for all that are in authoritie, 3 that we may leade a quiet and a peaceable life, in all godlinesse, and holinesse.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Sauour,

4 Who will that all men shall be saved, and come vnto the acknowledging of the truth, that we must pray for all men, and especially for all manner of Magistrates, that was at that time somewhat doubted of, seeing that King, yes, and the Magistrates were at that time enemies of the Church. 2. An argument of the ends to wit, because that Magistrates are appointed to this end, to might peaceably and quietly live in all godlinesse and honesty, and therefore we commend them especially to God, that they may faithfully execute their office. 3. Thou wouldest contraine all kinde of duties, which is to be refused to all their officers. 4. Another argument, why Churches or Congregations must pray for all men, without any difference of nation, kinde, age, or sex, to wit, because the Lord by calling of all sorts, yes, sometime those that were enemies to the Gospel will haue his Church gathered together after, and therefore prayers to be made for all,

CHAP. III.

1 He setteth out Bishops, 2 and Christen deacons with their wives, 3 and children and familie: 15 hee calleth the Church the house of God.

This is a true saying, 2 If a woman desire the office of a Bishop, hee desireth a woorthie worke.

2 A Bishop therefore must be vnreproucable, the husband of one wife, watching, tempe-

the thirde place cometh to the persons themselves, speaking first of Pastours, and afterwards of Deacons, and hee voucheth a preface, that the Church may knowe that these be certaine and sure rules. 2. A Bishoppe or the ministerie of the worde is not an idle dignitie, but a worke and that an excellent worke: and therefore a Bishop must be furnished with many vertues both at home and abroad, wherefore it is requisite before hee be chosen, to examine well his learning, his gifts and abilitie, and his life. 3. Hee graunteth not heere of ambitious persons, for the which there cannot be a worse fault in the Church, but generally of the nature and disposition of men, named and dignified in bps and vices in the Church of God, and wherefore it is that please the Lord. 4. Titus 2.6. 5. Therefore be that haue such out married men from the office of Bishops, only because they are married, is Antichrist.

He sheweth the dustie of servants: 10 and what a mischievous small conceitnesse is: 12 and having spoken somewhat of rich men, he once againe forbiddeth Timothee 30 to chumber himselfe with vaine babblings.

Et ¹ as many seruants as are vnder the yoke, Count their masters worthy of all honour, ² that the Name of God, and his doctrine be not euil spoken of.

2 3 And they which haue beleeuing maisters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren,
but rather doe seruice, because they are faithfull, and beloued, & partakers of the benefite. 4 These things teach and exhort,

And this is the first rule: Let servants that are come to the unbelieve to their masters, serve them notwithstanding what is the reason: least God should seeme by the decline of any man to rebellion and all wickedness. 2 The second maxime that are come to the faith, and have also masters of the religion, and abuse the name of brotherhood, but let the other obey them. 3 Let this be sufficient, that as touching previous to true living life, they are partakers of the same good as as their masters themselves are. 4 A general confession, ought not only to be simply taught, but must with exhortation be gotten into their heads.

24 Now he giveth rulers, and showeth how he ought to beareth himself with the Elders, that is to say, with the Pastors and such as have the governance in the discipline of the Church, which is president of their company. The full rule: Let the Church or Congregation see unto this especially, as God himself hath commanded, that the Elders that do their duties well, be honestly maintained.

He commendeth Timothy, and commendeth not to the wholesome wordes of the Lord Iesus Christ, and to the doctrine, which is according to godlinesse.

¶ Here is putt vp and knoweth nothing, but dooth about questions and b strife of wordes, wherof commeth enuie, strife, railings, euill surmisinges.

¶ Forward c disputations of men of corrupt mindes and delictive of the mouth, which thinke that gaine is godlinesse: from such separate thy selfe.

¶ But godlinesse is great gaine, if a man bee content with that he hath.

¶ For wee brought nothing into the world, and it is certaine, that we can carrie nothing out.

¶ Therefore when wee haue fopde and raiment, let vs therewith be content.

¶ For they that will bee rich, fall into temptation and snares, and into many foolish and noy-some lutes, which drowne men in perdition and destruction.

¶ For the desire of money is the roote of all euill, which while some lusted after, they erred from the faith, and d pearced themselves thorow with many forowes.

¶ But thou, O man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousnesse, godlinesse, faith, loue, patience, and meekenesse.

¶ Fight the good fight of faith: lay holde of eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

¶ Straining about wordes, and not about matter: and by words doe men wish to haue no paine in them, and whereby we can reape no profite.

¶ Such as we see in these foolish schollers of Popery, which are making life but vaine babbling and prating.

¶ Hee turneth away filly the name of gaine and lute, confecting that godlinesse is gaine gaine, but haue afterwarde to wit, becauise it bringeth true iustification.

¶ Hee mocketh their foolishie, which doe so greedily gaze after fraile things, that they can in no wise be satisfied, and yet notwithstanding they cannot enjoy that excess.

¶ Hee trapect Timothy from couetousnesse after another sort, to wit, becauise it draweth with it an infinite sort of lust, and those very hanelles, wherewith couetous men doe torment themselves to lute forth, that in the ende they cast away from them their faith and saluation.

¶ Seruice and grafft doe as we see prauers storme the minde of man, and are the harp and true fruit of contentment.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHEVS.

CHAP. I.

¶ He commendeth Timothy his faith, & exhorteth him to goe faithfully in the charge committed vnto him: 8 And that wither for his bowels, 15 not the reuelling of others, hee faints.

¶ Hee recomendeth his Apostleship, 15 Hee willeth him to haue care of the thing committed vnto him, 16 and preloeth Onesiphorus.

¶ Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ by the will of God, & according to the promise of life which is in Christ Iesus.

¶ To Timothy my beloved sonne: Grace, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from Iesus Christ our Lord.

¶ I thanke God, & whome I serue from mine elders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

¶ Desiring to see thee, mindfull of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioy:

¶ When I call to remembrance the vnfained faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grand mother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it is dwelleth in thee also.

¶ Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance that thou & stirre vp the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

¶ For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound minde.

¶ Be not therefore ashamed of the testimony

¶ He willeth vs to let the inward power of the Spirit which God hath giuen vs, against those forces which may and come vpon vs.

¶ The gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

¶ For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound minde.

¶ Be not therefore ashamed of the testimony

¶ Hee willeth vs to let the inward power of the Spirit which God hath giuen vs, against those forces which may and come vpon vs.

¶ The gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

¶ For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound minde.

¶ Be not therefore ashamed of the testimony

me of our Lord, neither of me: his prisoner: but be partakers of the afflictions of the Gospel according to the power of God,

9 Who hath saved vs, and called vs with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his owne purpose and grace, which was given to vs through Christ Iesus: before the world was,

10 But is now made manifest by that appearing of our Saviour Iesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortallitie vnto all light through the Gospel,

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I know whom I haue beleued, and I am perswaded that hee is able to keepe that which I haue committed to him against that day.

13 Keepe the true paterne of the wholesome words, which thou hast heard of mee in faith and loue which is in Christ Iesus.

14 That worthy thing, which was committed to thee, keepe through the holy Ghost, which dweller in vs.

15 This thou knowest: that all they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which sort are Phygellus and Hermogenes,

16 The Lord giue mercie vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed mee, and was not ashamed of my chaine,

17 But when he was at Rome, hee sought mee out very diligently and found me.

18 The Lord graunt vnto him that he may find mercie with the Lord at that day, and in how many things hee hath ministered vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

1 The letter to thee sheweth performance in the Christian warfare, 2 he taketh familiars, 3 from soldiers, 4 and from husbandmen, 5 he sheweth that his house is for the profits of the Saints: 6 These he warneth Timothee to shunke the words of searce as right, 7 to be wary of the examples of the wicked, 8 and to do all things modestly.

9 How I therefore my sonne, bee strong in the gracet hat is in Christ Iesus.

10 And what things thou hast heard of mee, by many witnesses, the same deliuer to faithful men, which shall be able to teach other also.

11 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good soldier which keeps it to themselves, but they rather which doe most freely suffer it with other, to the end that many may be partakers of it without hindrance.

12 Another admonition: That the kindness of the word is a spirit, which no man can so usually in that he may please his carnal eyes, as to see with all hindrances which might draw him away from it.

souldier of Iesus Christ. 4 No man that warreth, entangleth himselfe with the affairs of this life, because hee woulde please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier. 5 And if any man alio strue for a matter, he is not crowned, except he strue as hee ought to doe.

6 The husbandman must labour before hee receiue the fruite.

7 Consider what I say: and the Lord geue thee vnderstanding in all things.

8 Remember that Iesus Christ made of the seede of Dauid, was raysed againe from the dead according to my Gospel,

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an euill doer, euen vnto bonds: but the worde of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I suffer all things, for the elects sake: that they might also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Iesus, with eternall glory.

11 It is a true saying, For if wee bee dead together with him, we also shall liue together with him.

12 If we suffer, we shall also reigne together with him: if we denie him, he also will denie vs.

13 If we beleeue not, yet abideth he faithful: he cannot denie himselfe.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, and protest before the Lord, that they strue not about words which is to no profite, but to the perverting of the hearers.

15 Studie to shewe thy selfe approoued vnto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, diuiding the word of truth aright.

16 Stay prophane and vaine babling: for they shall increse vnto more vngodlinesse.

17 And their words shall first as a canker: of which sort is Hymeneus and Philetus, 18 Which as concerning the truth haue erred from the marke, saying that the resurrection is past already, and doe destroy the faith of certain.

19 But the foundation of God remaineth sure, and hath this seale, The Lord knoweth who are his: and, Let euery one that is calleth on the Name of Christ, depart from iniquitie.

20 In prison, as an euill doer, yet there is no cause, why therefore thou shouldst be bound to debase credit from his Gospel, crying that notwithstanding God did bleesse his ministration: say rather, that example of this his captiuitie and paines did sundrie wayes confirme the Church in the hope of a better life.

21 The fourth admonition: we ought not to contend upon wordes and questions, which are not euely vnto profitable, but also for the most part hurtfull: but rather upon this, haue we any manner of pleasure to all manner of peace, and to do all with Christ (that is to say, for Christs Name) because that is the plain way to the most glorious life, as contrariwise, the falling away of men can diminish no part of the truth of God, although by such means they procure most certaine destruction to themselves.

22 As it is written, 1 Cor. 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6. 7. 8. 9. 10. 11. 12. 13. 14. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30. 31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46. 47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62. 63. 64. 65. 66. 67. 68. 69. 70. 71. 72. 73. 74. 75. 76. 77. 78. 79. 80. 81. 82. 83. 84. 85. 86. 87. 88. 89. 90. 91. 92. 93. 94. 95. 96. 97. 98. 99. 100.

23 The fifth admonition: A minister must not be an idle disputat, but a faithfuleward in dising aright the worde of truth, in such that hee must stoppe the mouthes of other vaine doblers. 24 By adding nothing to it, neither subtracting any thing, neither changing it, nor treating it in iudice, nor wresting it: that marking diligently what the hearers are able to hear, and what is fit for edification. 25 Marke and watch, and for they creep not on further. 26 He discouereth the subtiltie of Satan, who beginning with these principles draweth vs by little and little to vngodlinesse through the means of that wicked and prophane babbling, still creeping on: which hee proceeth by the horrible example of them that taught, that the resurrection was already past. 27 A digression: wherein he saileth that offence that rose by their falling away: throwing fish, that the elect are out of all danger of any such falling away: secondly, that they are known to God and not to vntoherwe: it is no maruile if we count by poeities often times for time broken: but we must also heed that we be not like them, but rather that we be in deale, such as we are bid to be. 28 That I remaine and I hope him, and it is as it were named of him, a faithful man or Christian.

15 Of whom he thou ware also : for he withstood out preaching for me.
16 As my first answering no man shifed mee, but all forsooke me : I pray God, that it may not be laid to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding the Lorde assisted mee, and strengthened mee, that by mee the preaching might be fully beleued, and that all the Gentiles should heare : and I was delivered out of the mouth of the Lyon.

18 And the Lord will deliuer thee from every evil worke, and will preserve thee into his eternally kingdom : to whome be praise for ever and ever, Amen.

19 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the familie bold of Onesiphorus.
20 Euodia salute at Corinthus : Trophimus I left at Milecum sicke.
21 Make speede to come before winter. Rubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.
22 The Lord Iesus Christ be with thy spirit.
Grace be with you, Amen.

The second Epistle written from Rome unto Timotheus, the first Bishop elected of the Church of Ephesus, when Paul was presented the second time before the Emperour Nero.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

CHAP. I.

He sheweth what kinde of men ought to be chosen Ministers to have vaine babblers mouths should be stopped : and through this occasion he toucheth the nature of the Cretians, and the lawes who put beliefe in outward things.

Paul a servant of God, and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, according to the faith of Gods elect, and the acknowledging of the truth, which is according unto goodlines,
2 Unto the hope of eternall life, which God that cannot lie, hath promised before the world began :

3 But hath made his word manifest in due time through the preaching, which is committed unto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour.

4 To Titus my naturall sonne according to the common faith, Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shouldst continue to redresse the things that re-maine, and shouldst ordeine Elders in every cite as I appointed thee,

6 If any be vnreprouceable, the husband of one wife, hauing faithfull children, which are not slandered of riot, neither are disobedient.

7 For a Bishop must be vnreprouceable, as Gods steward, not froward, nor angrie, not gi-uen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filibie lucre,

8 But harberous, one that loueth goodnesse, wise, righteous, holy, temperate.

9 Holding fast that faithfull word according to doctrine, that hee also may be able to exhort with wholesome doctrine, and conuince them that lay against it.

10 For there are many disobedient & vaine talkers and deceiuers of minde, chiefly they of the Circumcision,

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, which subuert whole houses, teaching things, which they ought not, for filthy lucre sake.

12 One of themselves, seen one of their owne prophets said, The Cretians are alwayes liars, kill beasts, blow bellies,

13 This thinge is true : wherefore conuince them sharply, that they may be found in the faith.

14 And not taking heed to Jewish fables and commandments of men, that turne away from the truth,

15 Unto the pure : are all things pure, but unto them that are defiled, and vnbeleeuing, is no thing pure, but euen their minds and consciences are defiled.

16 They professe that they know God, but by works they deny him, and are abominable and disobedient, and unto euery good worke reprobate.

Epimenides, who was counted a Prophet amongst them. Look vpon Lartion and Clement in the first booke of information : in Roughly and plainly, and get use about the last words, 1 Tim. 2. 14. He sheweth in few words, that pitie con-sisteth not in any exterrall woorthip, and that that is according to the olde lawe, (as in difference of meates, and walkings, and other such things which are abolished) but in the minde and conscience : and who holow teach otherwise, know not what is true religion indeede, and also are nothing else, than that they would seeme to be. Rom. 14. 16. If lawes makers and consciences be vnchange, what the same is here in vs before regeneration.

CHAP. II.

He setteth out the duties of iudry persons and flatter, and willeth him to instruct the Church in matters. He draweth an argument from the end of our redemption, to which we are bound gaily and uprightly.

Ve speake thou the things which become wholesome doctrine,

1 That the elder men be watchfull, graue, temperate, found in the faith, in loue, and in patience :

2 The elder women likewise, that they bee in such behaviour as becometh holinesse, not false accusers, not subiect to much wine, but teachers of bonest things,

3 That they may instruct the young women to be sober minded, that they loue their husbands, that they loue their children.

4 That they be temperate, chaste, keeping as home, good and as subiect vnto their husbands, that the word of God be not euill spoken of.

5 Exhort young men likewise, that they be sober minded.

6 In all things shewe thy selfe an example

3 Without father, without mother, without kindred, and hath neither beginning of his dayes, neither end of life: it is likened unto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for ever.

4 Nowe consider howe great this man was, unto whom even the Patriarke Abraham gave the title of the foyleys.

5 For verely they which are the children of Leui, which receive the office of the Priesthood, haue a commandement to take, according to the Lawe, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But hee whose kindred is not counted among them, receiveth tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promise.

7 And without all contradiction the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And here men that die, receiveth tithes: but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed, that he liueth.

9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For hee was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection had bene by the Priesthood of the Leuites (for vnder it the Lawe was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not to be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For if the Priesthood be changed, then of necessity must there be a change of the Lawe.

13 For hee of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth vnto another tribe, whereof no man is served at the altar.

14 For it is evident, that our Lord sprung out of Iuda, concerning the which tribe Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthood.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchisedec, there is risen vnto another Priest.

16 Which is not made Priest after the Lawe of the carnall commandement, but after the power of the endless life.

17 For hee testifieth thus, Thou art a Priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For the commandement that went afore, is disannulled, because of the weakenesse thereof, and vnfrofitful benefite.

19 For the Lawe made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope made perfect, whereby we drawe nere vnto God.

20 And forasmuch as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priests without an othe)

21 But this is made with an othe by him that sayd vnto him, The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec

22 By so much is Iesus made a suretie of a better Testament.

23 And among them many were made Priests, because they were not suffered to endure, by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because he endureth euer, hath a Priesthood, which cannot passe from one to another.

25 Wherefore, hee is able also perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing he euer liueth to make intercession for them.

26 For such an hee Priest it became vs to haue, which is wholly, harmeless, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heauens:

27 Which needeth not daily as those hee Priests to offer vp sacrifices, first for his owne finnes, and then for the peoples: for that did hee once, when he offered vp himselfe.

28 For the Lawe maketh men hee Priests, which haue infirmite: but the word of the othe that was since the Lawe, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore, everlasting, so hath hee also an everlasting Priesthood, making most effectuall intercession for them which by him come vnto God. 1 Heeth cannot passe away. 2 Hee is not made. 3 There are required in his Priest innocencie, and perite puresse, which may separate him from sinners for whom hee offereth. But the Leuiticall hee Priests shall not be found to be such, for they offer first for their owne finnes: but Christ onely is such a one, and therefore the true and onely hee Priest. 4 Leui. 16. 11. 12. Another argument which notwithstanding hee handleth afterward: The Leuiticall Priests offered sacrifices after sacrifice, first for themselves, and then for the people. But Christ offered not for himselfe, but for others, not sacrifices, but himselfe, not often times, but once. And this ought not to seeme strange, forasmuch as they are weak, but this man is consecrated an everlasting Priest, and thus by an othe. 1 That sacrifice which hee offered. 2 It was a done, that he needeth not to be repeated or offered againe any more. 3 The commandement of God which was bound with an oath. 4 Another argument taken of the time: former things are taken away by the latter. 5 Embodied.

CHAP. VIII.

1 To proue that certainly the ceremonies of the Lawe are abrogated, & see forthwith that they were appointed to iustice the heart's peace, 2 Hee bringeth in the place of Ieremie, 3 To proue the unprofitableness of the olde covenants.

Nowe of the things which wee haue spoken, Iesus is the summe, that wee haue such an hee Priest, that sitteth at the right hand of the throne of the Maiestie in heauens.

2 And as a minister of the Sanctuary, and of that true Tabernacle which the Lord pight, and not man.

3 For euer high Priest is ordained to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessity, that this man should haue somewhat also to offer:

a They that were his Priests in an earthly Sanctuary, but Christ is in the heauens. 4 Of Iesus. 5 They of Leui excelled their Priesthood in a fleshly tabernacle, but Christ beareth about with him a fure other tabernacle, to win, his body which God himselfe made to be everlasting, as it shall afterward be declared, chap. xix. 6 Of his body. 4 Hee bringeth a reason why it needeth be that Christ should haue a body (which he calleth a tabernacle which the Lord pight and not man) to wit, that he might haue what to offer: for otherwise he could not be as his Priest. And the selfe same body is both the tabernacle and the sacrifices.

Nnn 3: 4 For:

9 Against that no man might obiect, that the last Priesthood was added to make a perbition, by the comparison of them both together, see prooueth that the first was abrogated by the latter, as v. 10. 11. 12. 13. 14. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30. 31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46. 47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62. 63. 64. 65. 66. 67. 68. 69. 70. 71. 72. 73. 74. 75. 76. 77. 78. 79. 80. 81. 82. 83. 84. 85. 86. 87. 88. 89. 90. 91. 92. 93. 94. 95. 96. 97. 98. 99. 100.

10 Another argument, whereby hee prooueth that the Priesthood of Christ is better then the Priesthood of Leui, because it was established with an othe, but theirs was not so. 11 Psalm. 110. 4. 12 Another argument tending to the same purpose. 13 The Leuiticall Priests (as mortall men) could not be everlasting, but Christ as he is everlasting.

the new Testament, that through death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the former Testament, they which were called, might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 ¹ For where a Testament is, there must be the death of him that made the Testament.

17 ² For the Testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is alive.

18 ³ Wherefore, neither was the first ordained without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to the people, according to the Law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water and purple wooll and hyssop, and sprinkled both the books, and all the people,

20 saying: This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed unto you.

21 Moreover, he sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, & all the ministering vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission. Sp:

23 It was then necessary, that the similitudes of heavenly things should be purified with such things: but the heavenly things themselves are purified with better sacrifices than are these.

24 ⁴ For Christ is not entered into the holy places that are made with hands, which are similitudes of the true Sanctuaries: but is entered into very heaven, to appear now in the sight of God for us.

25 ⁵ Not that hee should offer himself often, as the high Priest entered into the Holy place, every yeere with other blood.

26 ⁶ For then must hee often suffered since the foundation of the world) but now in the end of the world hath he bene made manifest, once to put away a sinne by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed unto men that they shall once die, and after that cometh the judgement:

28 So Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of many, and unto them that looked for him, shall hee appeare the second time without sinne unto salvation.

CHAP. X.

¹ He praiseth that the sacrifices of the Law were imperfect, & because they were yearly renewed. ² But that the sacrifice of Christ was once, and perpetual. ³ He praiseth by Daniel's testimony: 19 That hee addeth an exhortation, as and severally sheweth them it as will be the grace of truth. 38 In shewing he praiseth patience, 38 that cometh of faith.

For ¹ the law hauing the shadow of good things, to come, & not the very image of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices, which they offer yeere by yeere continually, sanctifie the consciences.

2 For would they not then haue ceased to haue bene offered, & cause that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sinnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sinnes euery yeere.

4 For it is vnpollable that the blood of bulles and goats should take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when hee cometh into the world, he sayth, & Sacrifice & offering thou wouldest not: but art a bodie hast thou ordained me.

6 In burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then I sayd, Loe, I come (in the beginning of the booke it is written of me) that I should doe thy will, O God:

8 About, when he sayd, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings, and sinne offerings, thou wouldest not haue, neither hast pleasure therein (which are offered by the Law)

9 Then sayd he, Loe, I come to doe thy will, O God, he taketh away the first, that he may stablish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, euen by the offering of the body of Iesus Christ once made.

11 And euery Priest standeth daily ministering, and oftentimes offereth one manner of offering, which can neuer take away sinnes: Sp:

12 But this man after hee had offered one sacrifice for sinnes, & sitteth for euer at the right hand of God,

13 And from henceforth trieth: till his enemies be made his foete loole.

14 For with one offering hath hee consecrated for euer them that are sanctified. Sp:

15 For the holy Ghost also beareth vs record: for after that hee had sayd before,

16 This is the Testament that I will make betweene of his Sonne our he Priest, in which obedience hee offered himselfe once for his Father for vs. 1 2 The Sonne of God is in come into the world to save mannes soules. 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52 53 54 55 56 57 58 59 60 61 62 63 64 65 66 67 68 69 70 71 72 73 74 75 76 77 78 79 80 81 82 83 84 85 86 87 88 89 90 91 92 93 94 95 96 97 98 99 100

He presenteth a praye oblation, Why then were those sacrifices offered? The Apostle sheweth, first touching that yearly sacrifice which was the token of all, wherein (with he) there was made once yeere a remembrance againe of all former sinnes. Therefore that sacrifice had no power to sanctifie: for to what purpose to what purpose? For the sinnes which are purged by repeated againe, and whereof it should new sinnes come to be repeated every yeere, a remembrance did abolish him? a Of things which are earthly, which were purged to the Father, and exhibited to God. A conclusion following of those things that went before, and comprehending also the other sacrifices. Seeing that the sacrifices of the Law could not doe it: therefore Christ speaking of himselfe as of our high Priest sanctified in the flesh, witnesseth fully, that God relecth not in the sacrifices, but in the obedience of his Sonne our he Priest, in which obedience hee offered himselfe once for his Father for vs. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52 53 54 55 56 57 58 59 60 61 62 63 64 65 66 67 68 69 70 71 72 73 74 75 76 77 78 79 80 81 82 83 84 85 86 87 88 89 90 91 92 93 94 95 96 97 98 99 100

the promises, but sawe them a farre off, and beleeued them, and received them thankfully, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly, that they seeke a country.

15 And if they had bene mindfull of that country, from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned.

16 But now they desire a better, that is an heauenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a citie.

17 By faith Abraham offered vp Isaac, when hee was tried, and he that had receiued the promises, offered his onely begotten sonne.

18 To whom it was said, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.)

19 For he considered that God was able to raise him vp then from the dead: from whence hee receiued him also after a sort.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob when he was a dying blessed both the sonnes of Ioseph, and by leaning on the end of his staffe, worshipped God.

22 By faith Ioseph when hee died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, and gaue commandment of his bones.

23 By faith Moses when hee was borne, was hid three monthes of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child, neither feared they the Kings commandment.

24 By faith Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaos daughter.

25 And chose rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to enioy the pleasures of finnes for a season.

26 Esteeming the rebuke of Christ greater riches then the treasures of Egypt: for hee had respect vnto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he forsooke Egypt, and feared not the fiercenesse of the King: for he endured, as hee that saw him which is inuincible.

28 Through faith he ordained the Passouer, and the effusion of blood, least hee that destroyed the first borne, should touch them.

29 By faith they passed through the redde sea as by drie land, when when the Egyptians had alwayd to doe, they were swallowed vp.

30 By faith the wallies of Iericho fel down after they were compassed about seven dayes.

31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them which obeyed not, when she had receiued the spies peaceably.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would be too short for me to tell of: Gedeon, of Barac, and of Sampson, and of Iephth, also of Dauid, and Samuel, and of the Prophets:

33 Which through faith subdued Kingdomes, wrought righteousness, obtained the promises, stopped the mouthes of lions,

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, of weak were made strong, waxed valiant in battell, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 The women receiued their dead raised to life: other also were racked, and would not be deliuered, that they might receiue a better recompence.

36 And others haue bene tried by mockings and scourgings, yea, moreouer by bonds, and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were hewen asunder, they were tempted, they were slaine with the sword, they wandered vp and downe in sheeps skinned, and in goats skinned, being destitute, afflicted, and tormented:

38 Whom the world was not worthe of: they wandered in wildernesses and mountaines, and dennes, and caues of the earth.

39 And these all through faith obtained good report, and receiued y not the promise.

40 God prouiding a better thing for vs, that they without vs should not be made perfecte, in deede exhibited to vs, so that their faith and ours is as one, as is also their consecration and ours.

41 But saw Christ a farre off. For their saluation, and hang vpon Christ, who was exhibited in our dayes.

CHAP. XIL

Hee doeth not onely by the examples of the Fathers before reioyced, but also by the patience and confidence, which hee also by the example of Christ, in that the chastening of God can bee rightly iudged by the outward fruits of our faith.

Wherefore, let vs also, seeing that wee are compassed with so great a cloude of witnesses, cast away euery thing that pfeileth down, and the sinne that hangeth so fast on: let vs run with patience the race that is set before vs.

Looking vnto Iesus the author and finisher of our faith, who for the ioy that was set before him, endured the crosse, and despised the shame, and is set at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 Consider therefore him that endureth such speaking against sinners, least ye should be weakened and faint in your mindes.

4 Yee haue not yet resisted vnto blood, striving against sinne.

5 And yee haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children, My sonne, despite not the chaffening of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord louth, hee chasteneth: and he scourgeth euery sonne that he receiuech.

7 If ye endure chastening, God will offer himselfe vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whom the father chasteneth not?

8 If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are yee bastards, and not sonnes.

9 Moreouer we haue had the fathers of oure bodies which corrected vs, & we gaue them reuerence: should wee not much rather be in subiection vnto the father of spirits, that we might liue?

10 For they verely for a few dayes chastened flaues: for how great is Iesus in comparison of vs, and howe many more grievous things did hee suffer then we? 4 See take an argument of the profite which cometh to vs by Gods chastitements, vntill wee be in fault. First of all because sinne, or that rebellious wickednesse of our flesh, is by this meane tamed. 5 Secondly, because they are testimonies of his fatherly good will toward vs, in so much that they leue themselves to be bastards, which cannot abide to bee chastened of God. 6 Pro. 13. 6 Thirdly, if all men yeid this righte obedience to whom next after God we owe this life, that they may rightly correct their children, shall we not be much more subiect to that our Father, who is the Author of the spiritual and eternall liue? 7 An amplification of the same argument. These fathers haue corrected vs after their fashio, for some strait and transitory profite: but God chasteneth and instructeth vs for our singular profit, to make vs partakers of his holinesse: which thing although these our fathers doe not presently perceiue, yet the end of the matter p rooueth it.

Hee meritteth that perfection which Ananias sought.

7. vults & rough chastings, hee were also paine brought to extreme point, and discomfited to line like brail in wilderness.

16 An amplification taken of the circumstance of the time: their faith is so much the more to be maruelled at, by how much the promises of things to come were more dark, yet at length were as

as is also their consecration and ours.

For their saluation, and hang vpon Christ, who was exhibited in our dayes.

A For Iesus himselfe 21 on all sides, so that we cannot scape out.

He stretcheth before vs, the marke of this race, Iesus himselfe our captaine who willingly overcame all the roughnesse of the fline way.

As it were upon the marke of our faith.

Whereas he had all kinde of blessings in his hand and power, yet suffered himselfe the extremities of the crosse.

8 The conclusion: we must goe forward courageously and keepe advance a right course, and (as late fourth as we may) without any staggering or stumbling.

9 The description of a man that is a man of heart and close affections.

10 Kepe a right course, and what you see in example of God's life for others to follow.

11 We must live in peace, and holiness with all men.

12 We must flouid to ridde one another, both in sin, and in example of life.

13 We must self-denial, forsaking an office.

14 We must self-denial, forsaking an office.

15 We must self-denial, forsaking an office.

vs after their owne pleasure, but hee shepherd us for our profite, that we might be partakers of his holinesse.

11 Now no chaffing for the present seemeth to be ioyous, but grievous: but afterward, it bringeth the quiet fruite of righteousness, vnto them which are thereby exercised.

12 Wherefore lift vp your hands which hang downe, and your weak knees.

13 And make straight steps vnto your feete, lest that which is halting, be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holines, without the which no man shall see the Lord.

15 Take heede, that no man fall away from the grace of God: let no man of those of bitterness spring vp and trouble you, lest thereby many be defiled.

16 Let there bee no fornicator, or prophane person as if Esau, which for one portion of meate folde his birthright.

17 For ye knowe howe that afterward also when hee would have inherited the blessing, hee was reiecte: for hee founde no place to repentance, though hee sought that blessing with teares.

18 For ye are not come vnto the mount that might be touched, nor vnto burning fire, nor to blacknesse and darknesse, and tempest.

19 Neither vnto the founde of a trumpet, and the voyce of words, which they that heard it, excused themselves, so that the word should not bee spoken to them any more.

20 (For they were not able to abide that which was commanded, yea, though a beast touch the mountaine, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart.)

21 And for terrible was the sight which appeared, that Moses said, I feare and quake.

22 But ye are come vnto the mount Sion, and to the citie of the liuing God, the celestial Hierusalem, and to the company of innumerable Angels.

23 And to the assemblie and congregation of the first borne, which are written in heauen, and to God the Iudge of all, and to the spirits of iust and k perfite men.

24 And to Iesus the Mediatour of the new Testament, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

25 See that ye desire not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not which refused him, yf sake on earth: much more shall we not escape, if we trespasse from him that speaketh from heauen.

26 Whose voyce then shooke the earth, and now hath declared, saying, Ye also once more will I shake, not the earth onely, but also heauen.

27 And this word. Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things which are shaken, as of things which are made with hands: that the things which are not shaken, may remaine.

28 Wherefore seeing we receive a kingdome, which cannot be shaken, let vs have grace whereby we may ferue God, that we may please him with reverence and feare.

29 Let vs haue grace whereby we may ferue God, that we may please him with reverence and feare.

dome, which cannot be shaken, let vs haue grace whereby we may ferue God, that we may please him with reverence and feare.

29 For if euen our God is a consuming fire, let vs haue grace whereby we may ferue God, that we may please him with reverence and feare.

man be swift to heare, slowe to speake, and slowe to wrath.

h Math. 7. 1. rom. 1. 12.

i Another admonition. Therefore is Gods word heard, that we may frame our lives according to the precept thereof.

k He addeth reasons, & those most weightie: first, because they that doe otherwise, doe very much hurt themselves.

l Secondly, because they lose the shepherds eye of Gods word, which corrects not by the faults that they know.

m Hee sheweth to that natural spot, in which is contrary that puritie wherunto we are borne againe, the lusty image wherof wee be hold in the Law.

n Behaving himselfe so for workers doeth faith. 18. The third admonition: The word of God prescribeth a rule not only to doe well, but also to speake well.

o The firste of all brading, and careful speaking, and few words, is this, that we use towards our neighbours.

p The fourth, the true service of God standeth in charitie toward our neighbours (especially such as neede others help, as the fatherless & widows) and puritie of life.

q To have a care, of them, and to helpe them as much as we can.

C H A P. II.

1 Hee sayeth, that to have respect of persons is not agreeable to Christs faith, 12. which to profit in wages is not enough, neither is to serve in the deeds of mercie and charitie as after the example of Abraham.

2 The fifth: Charitie which proceedeth from a true faith, cannot fling with the accepting of persons, which hee produeth plainly by setting forth their example, who with the tyebeck or dilance of the poore, honour the rich.

3 For if we know that Christs glory is, and commendation is our ought to doe, there would not be such respect of persons as here is.

4 Levit. 19. 15. dicit. 1. 17. and 16. 10. pro. 24. 22.

5 In the firste of all brading, and careful speaking, and few words, is this, that we use towards our neighbours.

6 Hee sayeth, that to have respect of persons is not agreeable to Christs faith, 12. which to profit in wages is not enough, neither is to serve in the deeds of mercie and charitie as after the example of Abraham.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ in respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your company a man with a golde ring, and in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

3 And ye have a respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou heere in a goodly place, and say vnto the poore, Stand thou there, or sit here vnder my footstoolle,

4 Are ye not partiall in your selues, and are become iudges of euill thoughts?

5 Harken my beloved brethren, hath not God chosen the poore of this world that they should be rich in faith, and heires of the kingdome which hee promised to them that loue him?

6 But ye have despised the poore. 3 Doe not the rich oppress you by tyrannie, and doe they not draw you before the iudgement seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme the worthy Name after which ye be named?

8 Hee sayeth, that to have respect of persons is not agreeable to Christs faith, 12. which to profit in wages is not enough, neither is to serve in the deeds of mercie and charitie as after the example of Abraham.

13 In the firste of all brading, and careful speaking, and few words, is this, that we use towards our neighbours.

14 Hee sayeth, that to have respect of persons is not agreeable to Christs faith, 12. which to profit in wages is not enough, neither is to serve in the deeds of mercie and charitie as after the example of Abraham.

15 Levit. 19. 15. dicit. 1. 17. and 16. 10. pro. 24. 22.

16 In the firste of all brading, and careful speaking, and few words, is this, that we use towards our neighbours.

17 Hee sayeth, that to have respect of persons is not agreeable to Christs faith, 12. which to profit in wages is not enough, neither is to serve in the deeds of mercie and charitie as after the example of Abraham.

8 But if ye fulfill the royall Law according to the Scripture, which sayeth, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye do well.

9 But if ye regard the persons, yee commit finne, and are reuked of the Law, as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keepe the whole Law, and yet faile in one point, he is guiltie of all.

11 For he that sayd, Thou shalt not commit adulterie, sayd also, Thou shalt not kill. Nowe though thou doest none adulterie, yet if thou killest, thou art a transgressor of the Law.

12 So speake ye, and so doe, as they that shall be iudged by the Law of liuety.

13 For there shall be condemnation mercilesse to him that sheweth not mercie, and mercie reioyeth against condemnation.

14 What auaileth it my brethren, though a man say, he hath faith, when he hath no works? can that faith saue him?

15 For if a brother or a sister be naked and destitute of dayly food,

16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace: warme your selues, & fill your bellies, notwithstanding yee giue them not those things, which are needefull to the body, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes, is dead in it selfe.

18 But if some man might say, Thou hast the faith, and I haue workes: shew me thy faith out of thy workes, and I will shewe thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou belieuest that there is one God: thou doest well: the deuils also beleue it, and tremble.

20 Will wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

22 Seest thou not that the faith wrought with his workes, and through the workes was the faith made perfect.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which sayeth, Abraham beleueed God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse: and hee was called the friend of God.

24 But if some man might say, Thou hast the faith, and I haue workes: shew me thy faith out of thy workes, and I will shewe thee my faith by my workes.

25 Thou belieuest that there is one God: thou doest well: the deuils also beleue it, and tremble.

26 Will wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

27 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

28 Seest thou not that the faith wrought with his workes, and through the workes was the faith made perfect.

29 And the Scripture was fulfilled which sayeth, Abraham beleueed God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse: and hee was called the friend of God.

30 But if some man might say, Thou hast the faith, and I haue workes: shew me thy faith out of thy workes, and I will shewe thee my faith by my workes.

31 Thou belieuest that there is one God: thou doest well: the deuils also beleue it, and tremble.

32 Will wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

33 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

34 Seest thou not that the faith wrought with his workes, and through the workes was the faith made perfect.

35 And the Scripture was fulfilled which sayeth, Abraham beleueed God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse: and hee was called the friend of God.

36 But if some man might say, Thou hast the faith, and I haue workes: shew me thy faith out of thy workes, and I will shewe thee my faith by my workes.

37 Thou belieuest that there is one God: thou doest well: the deuils also beleue it, and tremble.

38 Will wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

39 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

10 The conclusion. The conclusion which God prescribeth, cannot agree with the accepting of persons, seeing that we will walk in the kings high way.

11 The kings high way. The kings high way, for that it is plain and without surmisse, and that the Law calleth every one to it.

24 ¹⁰ Yee see then howe that of workes a man is ¹¹ iustificed, and not of ¹² faith onely.
25 ¹³ Likewise also was not ¹⁴ Rahab the harlot iustificed through workes, when he had receiued the messengers, & sent them out another way?
26 ¹⁵ For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.
27 ¹⁶ For the faith which you boast of, ¹⁷ is a fourth reason taken from a like example of the harlot, who also proued by her workes that she was iustificed by a true faith. ¹⁸ For the conclusion repeated againe; faith which bringeth not forth good works, is not faith, but a dead carcase.

CHAP. III.

¹ To shew that a Christian man must gouerne his tongue with the bridle of faith and charitie, ² y^e bee clearely the communitie, and must iustifie that iustie thereof; ³ and how much man misdeeme ⁴ y^e digresse from heauenly.

MY brethren, bee not many masters, ¹ knowing that wee ² shall receiue the greater condemnation.

³ For in many things wee ⁴ sinne all. ⁵ If any man sinne not in word, he is a perfect man, and able to bridle all the body.

⁶ Beholde, wee put bittes into the horses mouthes, that they should obey vs, and wee turne about all their bodie.

⁸ Euen so the tongue is a little member, & boastes of great things; beholde howe great a thing a little fire kindleth.

⁹ And the tongue is fire, ¹⁰ yea, a ¹¹ worlde of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole bodie, and setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

¹² For the whole nature of beastes, & of birdes, and of creeping things, and things of the sea is tamed, and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

¹³ But the tongue can no man tame. It is an vnruled euill, full of ready payson.

¹⁴ Therewith bleeseth we God our Father, and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

¹⁵ Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.

¹⁶ Doeth a fountaine sende forth at one place sweete water and bitter?

¹⁷ Can the figge tree, my brethren, bring forth olives, either a vine figges? so can no fountaine make both salt water and sweete.

¹⁸ Who is a wife man & ended with knowledge among you? let him shew by good conuersation his works in meeknesse of wisdom.

¹⁹ But if yee haue bitter enuying, and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, neither bee liars against the truth.

²⁰ For hee that men may to much the more diligently keepe themselves to moderate ²¹ hope of all wickednesse. ²² It is able to save the whole world on fire, through other fault of the tongue, the Apostle chiefly reproveth backbiting in many and religious. ²³ Hee denieth by two reasons, that God can be angry with man, that vith cursed speaking or to backbite: first because man is made of God, which whofoener is soeneeth not should not honour God himself. Secondly, because the order of nature which God hath set in things, will not suffer that one to contrary the one to the other, to flande the one with the other which hee foretelleth enuie and a contentious mende. And in the beginning the mouth of the chiefe fountaine of all these mischiefes, to the pervasion of wisdom, whereas no withholding there is no true wisdom, that it is heavenly, and frameth our mindes to all kinde of true moderation and simplicitie.

² For where enuying and strife is, there is sedition, and all manner of euill workes.

³ But the wisdom that is from above, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be intreated, full of clemencie and good fruites, without iudging, and without hypocrisie.

⁴ And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace, of them that make peace.

The world perswadeth is false that they are miserable which live peaceably and simply on the contrary side the Apostle pronounceth that they shall at length reap the harvest of peaceable righteousness.

CHAP. IIIII.

¹ Hee reproveth vs in this mischiefe that proceedeth of the workes of the flesh. ² Hee exhorteth to humilitie, ³ and to purge the heart ⁴ of pride, ⁵ of backbiting, ⁶ and the first fruites of our iustitie.

FROM whence are warres and contentions among you? are they not hence, ¹ euen of your pleasures, that fight in your members?

² Ye lust, and haue not: ye enuie, and desire immoderately, and cannot obtaine: ye fight, and warre, and get nothing, ³ because ye aske not.

⁴ Ye aske, and receiue not, because ye aske amaine, that ye might lay the blame out on your pleasures.

⁵ Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know yee not that the amitie of the worlde is the enemie of God? Whofoever therefore will be a friend of the world, maketh him selfe the enemie of God.

⁶ Doe ye thinke that the Scripture sayeth in vaine, The spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enuie?

⁷ But the Scripture offereth more grace, and therefore faith, ⁸ God resisteth the proude, and giueth grace to the humble.

⁹ Submit your feiues to God: resist the deuil, and he will flee from you.

¹⁰ Drawe neere to God, and he will draw neere to you. Cleave your hands, yee sinners, and purge your hearts, ye double minded.

¹¹ Suffer afflictions, and forow ye, & weepe: let your laughter bee turned into mourning, and your ioy into ¹² heauinesse.

¹³ Cast downe your felus before the Lorde, and he will lift you vp.

of hatholy and spiritual healing. ¹ The taking away of an obedienc: In dedde our mindes reare heading into these times, but wee ought so much the more diligently take heed of them: which care and studie shall not be in vaine, seeing that God resisteth the subburne, and giueth that grace to the modell, and humble that fornueth all those vices. ² 1 Peter 3. 34. 1 Peter 5. 6. Ephe. 4. 27. ³ The conclusion: We must let the contrary vertues against those vices, and therefore where we obeyed the suggestions of the diuill, we must subdue our minds to God and resist the deuil, with a certaine assured hope of victorie. To bee short, wee must employ our feloes to conuerne vnto God by penitencie and sincere of life. ⁴ Hee goeth on in the same compariation of contraries, and setteth against those prophane ioyes an earnest forow of mnde, and against pride an arrogantie holy modeltie. ⁵ A By this worde the Grecians meant an heauinesse dynted with humilitie, which is to be seen in a call downe contrariety, and giued as it were upon the ground. ⁶ 1 Peter 5. 6. ⁷ Hee reprehendeth most simply haue other men to lye according to their will and pleasure, and therefore they do most arrogantly condeemne whateuer pleieth them not: which they cannot doe without great iniurie to our onely Law-maker, for by this meanes his Lawes are found fault withall, as not circumspetly enough written, and men charge that vnto themselves which properly belongeth to God alone, that they lay a Law vpon ment consciences.

¹ Hee reprehendeth them by name, which are not ashamed to make God the misliet and helper of their lusts & pleasures, in asking things which either are of the seruile law, or being lawfull, aske them to wicked purposes and vices.

CHAP. II.

He exhorted the new borne in faith, to lead their lives unspotted by the fumes of sin, and left their faith, double flayer, for bringing in that which was first to be taught. Christ, as he will them to be obedient to Magistrates, so that they patiently bear adversities after a bright example.

✠ Rom. 8.4.
1967.4.23.
1967.4.23.
1967.4.23.

✠ Having laid for the foundation the Spirit of God effectually working by the word, and having built there upon three virtues which are the grounds of all Christian adions, to wit, faith, hope, and charity: now he proceedeth to a general exhortation on the first member, which is, that we live as filial, both of severe and also open malice.

The second is, that being newly begotten & borne of the new seed of the incorrupt word, drawing and sucking greedily the life word as milk, we should more and more as it were grow up in that spiritual life, and be called filial, by the same, not only because it is a most pure thing, but also that we should take heed of them which corrupt it.

✠ As a leavened new man, a He commeth that spiritual nourishment for the sweetest and profit of it. 19. 40.

✠ He goes on forward in the time exhortation, but with another kinde of borrowed speech, alluding to the Temple. Therefore he saith, that the company of the faithful: as it were a certain holy and spiritual building, built of living stones, the foundation whereof is Christ, as a lively stone sustaining all that are joyed vnto him with his living virtue, and knitting them together with himselfe, although this so great a treasure be neglected of men.

✠ Going forward in the same familiaritie, he compareth vs now to Priests, placed to this end in that spiritual temple, that we should first him with a spiritual worship, that is, with holiness and righteousness: but as the temple, so is the Priesthood built upon Church, in whom only all our spiritual offerings are accepted. ✠ Rom. 1.6.

✠ By setting the most blessed condition of the believers, and the most miserable of the rebellious one against another, he pricketh forward the believers, and triumpheth over the other: and also presenteth an offence which ariseth thereof, that none doe more resist that doctrine of the Gospel, then they which are chiefe among the people of God, as were at that time Peter, where they were the Priests and Elders, & Seibes. Therefore he answereth full of all that there is no cause why any man should be astonished at their stubbornnesse, as though it were a strange matter, seeing we have beene forewarned so long before, that it should so come to passe: and moreover, that it pleased God to create and make certaine to this selfe same purpose, that the Sonne of God might be glorified in their infall condemnation.

✠ Thirdly, for that the glorie of Christ is hereby set forth early, whereas a notwithstanding Christ is the head of his Church, and the Church is the body of him, call downe and overthrow themselves, and not Christ. Fourthly, although they be created to this end and purpose, yet their fall and decay is not to be attributed to God, but to their owne obdurate stubbornnesse, which cometh betweene Gods decree, and the execution thereof, or their condemnation, and in the true and proper cause of their destruction. ✠ Psal. 135. 16. 141. 22. ✠ 1. Cor. 13. 10. 13. 10.

✠ The contrary member, to wit, he describeth the singular excellencie of the elect, and also lett any man should doubt whether he be chosen or not, the Apostle calleth him to the effectual calling, that is to the voice of the Gospel sounding both in our eares and minde, by the outward preaching and Sacraments, whereby we may certainly understand that everlasting decree of our salvation, (which otherwise is most secret and hidden) and that through the onely mercy of God, who freely choiceth and calleth vs.

✠ Therefore this onely remaneth, surely be, that by all means possible we see forth to great goodnesse of the most mighty God.

Wherefore ¶ laying aside all maliciousnesse, and all guile, and dissimulation, and enuie, and all euill speaking,

✠ As a new borne babes desire that sincere milke of the word, that yee may growe thereby,

✠ Because yee ¶ haue tasted that the Lord is bountifull.

✠ To whome comming as vnto a living stone, disallowed of men, but chosen of God and precious;

✠ Yee also as liuely stones, bee made a spiritual house, & an holy & Priesthood to offer vp spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God by Iesus Christ.

✠ Wherefore also it is contayned in the Scripture, Beholde, I put in Sion a chiefe corner stone, elect and precious: and hee that beleueth therein, shall not be ashamed.

✠ Vnto you therefore which beleue, it is precious: but vnto them which be disobedient, the same which the builders disallowed, the stone is made the head of the corner,

✠ And a stone to stumble at, and a rocke of offence, euen to them which stumble at the worde, being disobedient, vnto the which thing they were enen ordained.

✠ But yee are a chosen generation, a royall

✠ To fight against our saluation. 13 The fourth argument, taken of the promise of doing: for by this manes also we provide for our good name and estimation, whilst we compell them as length to change their minde, which shall call vs. ✠ Chap. 3. 16.

✠ The fifth argument, which also is of great force: is this, that the glorie of God is greatly furthered by that manner of life, which we lead of our house life, euen the most prophane men are brought vnto God, and submit themselves vnto him. ✠ Math. 5. 14. b When God shall also haue mercy on them. 15 That which hee saith generally, bee newe expositions by particular: ibing foresh by every mans dutie. And first of all hee speaketh of obedience, which is due both to the Lawes, and also to the Magistrates both higher and lower. ✠ Rom. 13. 1. c By ordinance, it means the framing and ordering of our government: which by civill ordinance of man, not by any lawe of nature, but because it is proper to man. 16 The first argument: because the Lords is the Author and reuenger of this policie of men, that is, which is set amongst men, and therefore the true servants of the Lords must about all others be diligent obediens of this order. 17 Hee presenteth a canill which is made by force, the say they will obey Kings and the higher Magistrates, and yet countenaynt their ministers: as though their ministers were not armed with their authoritie which they them. 18 The second argument taken of the end of this order, which is not only most profitable, but also verie necessarie, seeing that by this manner vertue is rewarded, and vice punished: wherein the quietnesse and happinesse of this life consisteth. 19 Hee declareth the fifth argument more ample, then the Christian libertie doeth amongst all things least or not at all considerabill, vnto, to cast off the bridle of Lawes, (as at that time some altogether vanishing in the kingdom of God reported) but rather in this, that being holily according to the will of God, we should make manifest to all men, that the Gospel is not a cloke for faine and wickednesse, seeing we are in such sort by this manner as fill the servants of God and not of faine. 20 Hee denieth the civill life of man, by censure of those things which hee saith, into two general parts: to wit, into those duties which private men owe to private men, and especially the faithfull to the faithfull, and into that subiection whereby inferiours are bound to their superiours: but so, that Kings be not made equal to God, seeing that feast it due to God, and honour to Kings. 21 The charitable and dutifull countenance of us. ✠ Chapter 1. 12. Rom. 13. 10. The affection and filialtie of the brethren. ✠ Zacharia 1. 16. c. 16. 22. 21 Here speaketh by the manner of the servants towards their masters, which hee describeth with tiele boundes, that the servants submit themselves willingly and not by constraint, not only to the good and courteous, but also to the froward and sharpe masters. *✠ 1. 13 Therefore giue euen all diligence thereto: 14 boyne moreouer verue with your faith: and with verue, knowledge:

16 And 1 with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godlinesse:

17 The world, that is, from the wicked lusts which we carry about vs) and are made after a sort, like vnto God himselfe, 18 By the diuine nature he meaneth not the substance of the Godhead, but the partaking of their qualities, whereby the image of God is reflected in vs, 19 In woe, 20 For lust is the feare of corruption, and hath his place euen in our very bodies and humer parts. 21 Having laid the foundation (that is, having declared the causes of our saluation, and especially of our sanctification) now he beginneth to exhort vs to giue our mindes wholly to the true vie of this grace. And he beginneth with faith, without which nothing can please God, and he warneth vs to haue it full fraught with verue (that is to say, with good and godly manners) being ioyned with the knowledge of Gods will without which there is neither faith, neither any true verue. 22 Supply also, and supports or adorns. 23 Herein he teacheth vnto certaine other principall vertues, whereof some pertaine to the first table of the Lawe, and others to the last.

7 And with godlines, brotherly kindnes; and with brotherly kindnes, loue.

8 For if these things bee among you, and abound, they will make you that ye neither shall be idle, nor vnfruitfull in the acknowledging of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 For he that hath not these things, is blinde, and can not see fare off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his quid finnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling & election sure: for if ye do these things ye shall neuer fall.

11 For by this means an entering shall be ministered vnto you abundantly into the euertlasting kingdome of our Lord and Sauour Iesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, & be stablished in the present tyme.

13 For I thinke it meete as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance,

14 Seeing I know that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 I will endeuour therefore alwayes, that ye also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For we followed not decciuable fables when we opened vnto you the power, and commanding of our Lord Iesus Christ, but with our eyes we saw his maiestie:

17 For he receiued of God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voyce to him from that excellent glorie. This is my beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voyce we heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the Holy mount.

19 Wee haue also a most pure word of the Prophets, to the which ye do well that ye take heede, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntill the day dawne, and the day starre arise in your hearts.

20 So that ye first know this that no prophetic of the Scriptures is of any priuate interpretation,

21 For the prophetic came not in olde time by the will of man: but p holly men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Ghost.

But there were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you: which priuily shall bring in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lord, that hath bought them, and bring vpon themselves swift damnation.

2 And many shall follow their destructions, by whom the way of truth shall bee euill spoken of,

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with fained words make merchandise of you, whose condemnation long since relecth not, and their destruction flourisheth not.

4 For if God spared not the Angels that had sinned, but cast them downe into hell, and deliuered them into chains of darkenesse, to be kept vnto damnation:

5 Neither hath spared he the olde world, but fained. Noe the eight person a preacher of righteousness, and brought in the flood vpon the world of the vngodly,

6 And turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them and ouertrew them, and made them an example vnto them that after should liue vngodly,

7 And deliuered iust Loth vexed with the vngodly conuersation of the wicked:

8 (For hee being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, he vexed his righteous soule from day to day with their vngodly deedes.)

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of temptation, and to reserve the vniust vnto the day of iudgement vnder punishment:

10 And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of vncleannesse, and despituous enuement, which are bolde, and stand in their owne conceit, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

11 Whereas the Angels which are greater both in power and might, giue not railing judgement against them before the Lord.

12 But these as natural brute beasts, led with sensuality, and made to be taken, & deliuered, speake euill of those things which they know not, & shall perishe through their owne corruption,

13 And shall receiue the wages of vngodnesse, as they which count it pleasure daily to lye deliciouly. If spots they are and blots, delighting themselves in their deceiuing, in a feasting with you,

7 As those fruites doe spring from the true knowledge of Christ, in like sort the true light, or hath forgotten the gift of sanctification which he hath receiued.

8 He that hath not an intellectuall knowledge of God in him, is blind as touching the kingdom of God, for he can not see things that are spirituall, that is to say, heavenly things.

9 The conclusion therefore concerning our calling and election is approueth by these fruites, and is confirmed in vs, & moreover seeing this is the euertlasting kingdome of Christ, it remaineth that we call our minde wholly that way.

10 An amplifying of the conclusion loyded with a modest excuse, wherein he declareth his loue towards them, and foretelleth them of his death which is at hand.

11 In this body, 12 John 3.16, 13 1. Cor. 17, and 3.1.

14 Another amplifying taken both of the great certaintie and also excellencie of this doctrine, as whereof our Lord Iesus Christ the Sonne of God is author, whose glory the Apostle himselfe both saw and heard. 15 Math. 17.5. 16 The troeth of the Gospel is here by also manifest, in that it agreeth wholly with the foretellings of the Prophets. 17 The doctrine of the Apostles doeth not flout out the doctrine of the Prophets, for they confirme each other by each others testimony. But the Prophets were no candles which gave light vnto the blinde, vntill the brightnesse of the Gospel began to shine. 18 A more full and open knowledge there was vnder the shadowes of the Lawe, 19 That clearer doctrine of the Gospel. 20 2. Tim. 1.6. The Propheies are to be read, but so, that we aske of God the gift of interpretation, for he that is the Author of the writings of the Prophets, is also the interpreter of them, 21 He signeth the Scripture and prophetic together to distinguish true Prophecies from fables, 22 For all interpretation cometh from God. 23 The goodly interpreters and messengers, 24 Inspired of God: and their motions were in very good words, and not such as were vnto the purpose of the prophane foolishness and fictions of things to come.

7 For if these things bee among you, and abound, they will make you that ye neither shall be idle, nor vnfruitfull in the acknowledging of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 For he that hath not these things, is blinde, and can not see fare off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his quid finnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling & election sure: for if ye do these things ye shall neuer fall.

2 And many shall follow their destructions, by whom the way of truth shall bee euill spoken of,

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with fained words make merchandise of you, whose condemnation long since relecth not, and their destruction flourisheth not.

CHAP. II.

1 He foretelleth them of false teachers, 2 whose wicked thoughts and desires he declareth, 3 He commendeth them to brute beasts, 4 and to vnder without water, so because they steele to withdraw men from God to their owne saluings.

with darke words, as if were with chains: and by his craft he deceiveth the hearts of simple people, whose flame of life is full of sorrow. 2 Which and they, the Lord, will the God make a more weighty burden vnto the world, (Iacob 1.18.) 3 For he shall cast the place of an habitation, and make it a place of weeping, the weeping shall be vnto the dead, what weas of God brought vnto the dead. 4 Gene. 1.11. 5 Which way further he looked and turned his eyes. 6 He had a sorrowful heart, and being wofully grieved, thus he said. 7 He is to be long long in pain, and in sorrow, and in sorrow. 8 He goeth to another sort of corrupt men, which notwithstanding are within the bosome of the Church, which are wickedly given, and they maliciously speake euill of the authority of Magistrates, (as the wicked Angels do) they say that minister before God, do not dispense. A true and lively description of the Romish church (as they call it). 9 Priests, and great ones, they are in high in authority. 10 A lively painting out of the same person, wherein they are compared to beasts which are made to, to make themselves to destruction, which they put themselves to fill their bellies: For there is no greater ignorance than it is in these men, although they most impudently finde fault with their things, they knowe not, and it shall come to passe that they shall deliuer themselves to beasts with those pleasures wherein they are delighted, and dishonour and dishonour the company of the godly. 11 Made in the red to be a praege to others: so the men willingly call themselves into Saluati. 12 When they were among the Christians in the only bankers which the Church keepeth, they would seeme by the means to be no members of the Church, yet they are in debt but loss of the Church.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF IOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 He testifieth that hee bringeth the eternall word wherein is life, and light. 2 God will be mercifull vnto the faithfull, if growing vnder the burden of their finnes, they turne to first see his mercy.

1 He beginneth with the description of the person of Christ whom he maketh one and not two: and him both God from eternating (for he was with the Father from the beginning in this eternall life) and also made true man, whose Iohn him selfe and his companions, both heard, and beheld, and handled.

2 I heard him say, I saw him with mine eyes, I handled with mine hands him that is word. God being made very man, and not I alone, but others also that were with me.

3 That I saw ear, feeling I saw, touching I saw, without all things are made, and I saw him who is with me.

4 Being first by him, and that doctrine is rightly said to be shown, for no man could see much as hee thought of himselfe, and hee thus showed.

5 The vice of this doctrine is, that all of vs being coupled and ioyned together with Christ by faith, might become the finnes of God: in which thing only consisteth all happinesse.

6 Nowe hee encreth into a question, whereby wee may vnderstand that we are ioyned together with Christ, so will we be governed by his light, which is pertained by the ordering of our life. And thus hee reasoneth, God is in himselfe most pure light, therefore hee is greath with them, which are lightbome, but with them which are darksome he hath no fellowship.

7 John 8.12. God is light, and in him there is no darkness, and we are to walk in light, in that the beams of that light doe shine vnto vs in the word. A digression or going from the matter hee is in hand, vnto the remission of finnes for this can be understood which walke in the light, in a testimony of our ioyning and uniting together with Christ: but because this our light is very darke, we must neede obtaine a further benediction in Christ, to wit, that finnes may be forgiven vs by being sprinkled with his blood: and this in conclusion is the prope and stay of our glauing.

8 Hebernes 9.28. I. Peter 1.19. 1. Cor. 1.5. There is none but needeth this benediction, because there is none that is not a sinner. 1. Kine 8.4. 2. Cor. 5.6. 3. prom. 10.9. This place doth fully reflate that prof. 1. Cor. 1.5. and makes of interpretation which the Papists dream of.

9 So then, John 8.12. I. Peter 1.19. 1. Cor. 1.5. There is none but needeth this benediction, because there is none that is not a sinner. 1. Kine 8.4. 2. Cor. 5.6. 3. prom. 10.9. This place doth fully reflate that prof. 1. Cor. 1.5. and makes of interpretation which the Papists dream of.

10 Therefore the beginning of saluacion is to be in Christ, to wit, that finnes may be forgiven vs by being sprinkled with his blood: and this in conclusion is the prope and stay of our glauing.

Hat which was from the beginning, which wee haue heard, which wee haue scene with these our eyes, which we haue looked vpon, and these hands of ours haue handled of that word of life,

2 (For that life was made manifest, and wee haue scene it, and beare witness, and shew vnto you that eternall life, which was with the Father, and was made manifest vnto vs)

3 That, I say, which we haue scene and heard, declare we vnto you, 2 that yee may also haue fellowship with vs, and that our fellowship also may be with the Father, and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And these things write we vnto you, that your ioy may be full.

5 This then is the message which wee haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God is light, and in him is no darknesse.

6 If we say that we haue fellowship with him, and walke in darknesse, we lie, and do not truly:

7 But if we walke in the light as he is in the light, we haue fellowship one with another, 4 and the blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.

8 If we say that we haue no sinne, we deceive our selues, and the truth is not in vs.

9 If we acknowledge our finnes, he is faithfull and iust, to forgive vs our finnes, & to cleanse vs from all vnrighteousnesse.

10 If we say we haue not sinned, wee make him a liar, and his k word is not in vs,

11 The vice of this doctrine is, that all of vs being coupled and ioyned together with Christ by faith, might become the finnes of God: in which thing only consisteth all happinesse.

12 Nowe hee encreth into a question, whereby wee may vnderstand that we are ioyned together with Christ, so will we be governed by his light, which is pertained by the ordering of our life. And thus hee reasoneth, God is in himselfe most pure light, therefore hee is greath with them, which are lightbome, but with them which are darksome he hath no fellowship.

13 John 8.12. God is light, and in him there is no darkness, and we are to walk in light, in that the beams of that light doe shine vnto vs in the word. A digression or going from the matter hee is in hand, vnto the remission of finnes for this can be understood which walke in the light, in a testimony of our ioyning and uniting together with Christ: but because this our light is very darke, we must neede obtaine a further benediction in Christ, to wit, that finnes may be forgiven vs by being sprinkled with his blood: and this in conclusion is the prope and stay of our glauing.

14 Hebernes 9.28. I. Peter 1.19. 1. Cor. 1.5. There is none but needeth this benediction, because there is none that is not a sinner. 1. Kine 8.4. 2. Cor. 5.6. 3. prom. 10.9. This place doth fully reflate that prof. 1. Cor. 1.5. and makes of interpretation which the Papists dream of.

15 So then, John 8.12. I. Peter 1.19. 1. Cor. 1.5. There is none but needeth this benediction, because there is none that is not a sinner. 1. Kine 8.4. 2. Cor. 5.6. 3. prom. 10.9. This place doth fully reflate that prof. 1. Cor. 1.5. and makes of interpretation which the Papists dream of.

16 Therefore the beginning of saluacion is to be in Christ, to wit, that finnes may be forgiven vs by being sprinkled with his blood: and this in conclusion is the prope and stay of our glauing.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee declareth that Christ is our mediator and advocate, 2 and sheweth that the knowledge of God consisteth in holiness of life, 12 which appertaineth to all for ever, 14 that depend on Christ alone, 17 These having received them in contrition the world, 18 He giueth warning that any scribble be added, 21 and that the known truth be found vnto.

MY little children, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any man sinne, wee haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the iust.

2 And he is the reconciliation for our finnes: and not for ours only, but also for the finnes of the whole world,

3 And hereby we are sure that we know him, if we keepe his commandments.

4 He that sayth, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him,

5 But he that keepeth his worde, in him is the floure of God perfect in deede: hereby wee know that ye are in him.

6 He that faith he remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no newe commandment vnto you: but an olde commandment, which ye haue had from the beginning: this olde commandment is that worde, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

8 Againe a new commandment I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darke is past, & that true light now shineth.

9 He that faith that he is in that light, and hateth his brother, is in darknesse, vntill this time.

10 Hee that loueth his brother, is in that light, & there is none occasion of euil in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darknesse, and walketh in darknesse, and knoweth not whither hee goeth, because that darknesse hath blinded his eyes.

12 Little children, I write vnto you, because your finnes are forgiven you for his Names sake.

declaring what is to walke in the light, to wit, to keepe Gods commandments. Whereby it followeth that holiness doth not consist in those things which men haue deuised, neither in a vaine profession of the Gospel.

2 The first hee is to walke in the light, to wit, to keepe Gods commandments. Whereby it followeth that holiness doth not consist in those things which men haue deuised, neither in a vaine profession of the Gospel.

3 And hereby we are sure that we know him, if we keepe his commandments.

4 He that sayth, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him,

5 But he that keepeth his worde, in him is the floure of God perfect in deede: hereby wee know that ye are in him.

6 He that faith he remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no newe commandment vnto you: but an olde commandment, which ye haue had from the beginning: this olde commandment is that worde, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

1 I tell you now hereof that we must give our wicked nature the bridle, or sinne to much the more freely, because our finnes are closed away by the blood of Christ, but we must rather looke much the more diligently resist him, for yet we must not despise him, cause of our weakness, for we haue an advocate and purger, Christ, in the inland, therefore acceptable vnto his father.

2 As he is the floure of God perfect in deede, hereby wee know that ye are in him.

3 And hereby we are sure that we know him, if we keepe his commandments.

4 He that sayth, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him,

5 But he that keepeth his worde, in him is the floure of God perfect in deede: hereby wee know that ye are in him.

6 He that faith he remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no newe commandment vnto you: but an olde commandment, which ye haue had from the beginning: this olde commandment is that worde, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

8 Againe a new commandment I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darke is past, & that true light now shineth.

9 He that faith that he is in that light, and hateth his brother, is in darknesse, vntill this time.

10 Hee that loueth his brother, is in that light, & there is none occasion of euil in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darknesse, and walketh in darknesse, and knoweth not whither hee goeth, because that darknesse hath blinded his eyes.

12 Little children, I write vnto you, because your finnes are forgiven you for his Names sake.

unto you, yong men, because ye have overcome that wicked one. ³ I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 ¹ I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him, that is from the beginning,
I have written unto you, yong men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you,
and ye have overcome that wicked one.

15 ¹ Loue not this world, neither the things that are in this world. If any man loue this world, he is not loue of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in this world, (as the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of this world.

17 And this world passeth away, and the lust thereof; but he that fulfilleth the wil of God, abideth cuer.

18 ¹ Little children, ² it is the last time,
and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shal come, euen now are there many Antichrists: whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they should have continued with vs. ² But this cometh to passe, that it might appere, that they are not all of vs.

21 ¹ I haue not written unto you, because ye know not the truth: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 ¹ Who is a lier, but he that denieth that Iesus is the Christ? the same is that Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.

23 ¹ Whosoever denieth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father.

24 ¹ Let therefore abide in you that same

God I remembred to vs. Remember ye yong men, that that strength whereby I delivred you Satan to fight, is given you by the word of God, which developeth in you. 14 The world which is full of wicked devices, lyes, or pleasures, is vile, is utterly hated of our heavenly Father. Therefore the Father and the Sonne cannot be loved together; and this admonition is very necessary for greene and flourishing youth. 1 He speaketh of the world, as if it were not with the wil of God; for afterwards God is said to have the world with an infinite love, John 3.16, that whoever believeth in him, shall not perish. 15 He speaketh the Father in heart, in his heart how much better it is to obey the Fathers will than the wills of the world, by both their natures and volkes content. 16 Now hee turneth himself to little children, which notwithstanding are well instructed in the summe of religion, and willett them by diuers reasons to shake off blouthfulness, which is more familiar with that age. 17 He speaketh this word (Little) not because hee speaketh truly, but to allure them the more by saying such sweet words. 17 First, because the last time is at hand, so that the matter is not to be delayed. 18 Secondly, because that doctrine, that is, such as fall from God are already come, as men which they had that they should come. And it was very requisite to warn them that verily and unskillfully age of that danger. 19 A digression againe certaine offences and flourishing blockes wherewith that rude age especially might flumbe and be shaken.
Thinking that they should not be terrified with the foule falling backe of certaine liars, but rather plain to them, that although such as fall from God and his will, had place in the Church, yet they were neuer of the Church because the Church is the company of the elect, which cannot perish, and therefore cannot fall from God. 20 So then it shal be seen that fall from grace. 20 Secondly, because that these things fall out to the profit of the Church, that hypocrites may plainly be known. 21 Thirdly, he comforteth them to make them stand fast, inasmuch as they are annoyed of the holy Ghost with the true knowledge of Christianity. 2 The grace of the holy Ghost; and then a blessed kind of speech taken from sayings of the Law. 3 From Christ who is properly called the Son, denoting away of an oblation. He wrote not these things as to men which were in religion, but rather to them which were in the truth, as in verse fourth that they are able to discern truth from falsehood. 22 He speaketh now plainly the false doctrine of the Antichrists, so wit, that either they deny the person of Christ, or his office, or both together and at once. And they that do so, doe in vaine boast and brag of God, for that in denying the Sonne, they will also be denied. 3 Is the true Messiah. If they then are discerned thus, they shal be able to discern which is the true and which is the false. 4 The whole preaching of the Prophet and Apostles is to be kept in the heart. Therefore it is vnto be kept and away, and this word to be holden and kept, which leadeth vs to seeke eternall life in the free promis that is to be, in Christ alone, who is given vs of the Father, which ye haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shall re-maine in you, ye also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised vs, even that eternall life.

26 ¹ These things haue I written unto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

27 But that t anyting which ye receiued of him, dwellth in you; and ye need not that any man teach you; but as the same ² Anynting teacheth you of all things, and it is true, and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shall appere, we may be bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 ¹ If ye know that he is righteous, know ye that he which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

30 ¹ That is not an ignorant of these things, and therefore I teach them as things that were mine breast of, but call them to your remembrance as things which you doe know. 31 He commendeth both the doctrine which they had embraced, and also highly praiseth their faith, and the diligence of such as taught them, yet so, as hee doth not leave from the honour due to the holy Ghost. 32 The conclusion both of the whole exhortation, and also of the former treatise. 33 A passing over to the treatise following, which tendeth to the same purpose, but yet is more ample, and handleth the same matter after another order, for before he taught vs to goe vs from the effects of the cause, and in this that followeth, hee goeth downe from the cause to the effects. And this is the summe of this argument: God is the fountaine of all righteousness, and therefore they that give themselves to righteousness, are known to be borne of him, because they resemble God the Father.

CHAP. III.

34 ¹ Sitting downe the ineffable glory of this, that we are Gods fellowes, 7 he sheweth that unlesse of life be testified by good works, whereby Charitie is a manifest token. 19 Of Faith, 22 and praying unto God.

Behold, ¹ what love the Father hath giuen to vs, that he should be the called the sonnes of God: ² for this cause this world knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

3 ¹ Dearly beloved, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it is not made manifest what we shall be: and we know that when he shal be made manifest, we shal be like him: for we shall see him as he is.

4 And euery man that hath this hope in him,
purgeth himselfe, euen as he is pure.

5 Whosoever committeth sinne, transgres-seth also the Law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

6 And ye know that he was made manifest, that he might take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

7 Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth not:
whosoever sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath known him.

8 Little children, let no man deceiue you:
he that doeth righteously, is righteous, as hee

because it is vnto us in this world, for the world knoweth not the Father himselfe. 3 The other: This dignitie is not fully made manifest to vs our sinnes, much lesse to strangers, but we are sure of the accomplishment of it, inasmuch that we shall be like the Sonne of God himselfe, and shall enjoy his sight in deede, such as he is now: but yet notwithstanding this is deferred vntill his next coming. 4 Little, but not equal. 5 For now we see him as a glorie, but not as he is. Now hee desireth this adoption, (the glory wherof as yet considereth in himselfe) by the flesh, to wit, because that whosoever is made the Sonne of God, and therefore resembleth the Father in puritie. 6 The word signifies a likeness, but not an equality. 7 The rule of this puritie can not from whence else is taken but from the Lawe of God, the transgression wherof is it that is called sinne.
8 God hath himselfe in power. 9 A short definition of sinne. 6 An argument taken from the materiall cause of our saluation. Christ in himselfe is most pure, and he came to take away our sinnes, by satisfying vs with the holy Ghost.
Therefore, whosoever is truly partaker of Christ, doeth not give himselfe to sinne, and contrariwise hee that giveth himselfe to sinne, knoweth not Christ.

that beleue in the Name of $\frac{1}{2}$ Sonne of God, that ye may knowe that ye haue eternall life, and that ye may beleue in the Name of that Sonne of God.

14 And this is that assurance, that we haue in him, $\frac{1}{2}$ that if we aske any thing according to his will, he heareth vs.

15 And if we knowe that he heareth vs, what fower we aske, we knowe that we haue the petitions that we haue desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne that is not vnto death, let him aske, and he shall giue him life for them: that sinne not vnto death.

17 There is a sinne vnto death: I say not that thou shouldst pray for it.

18 We haue to make prayers not only for ourselues, but also for our brethren which doe sinne, that their finnes bee not vnto death: and yet he excepteth finnes which is neuer forgiven, or the sinne against the holy Ghost, that is to say, an vnrepentant and willfull falling away from the knowne truth of the Gospell. 1 Iohn 5 as much as if he sayd, let him desire the Lord to forgive him, and hee will forgive him being so desired. 2 Math. 12. 31. 32.

17 All vnrighteousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 We knowe $\frac{1}{2}$ whosoever is borne of God, sinneth not: but he $\frac{1}{2}$ is begotten of God keepeth himselfe, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 We knowe that we are of God and this whole world lieth in wickednesse.

20 But we knowe $\frac{1}{2}$ that sonne of God is come, & hath giue vs a mind to know him, which is true: & we are in him $\frac{1}{2}$ it is true, that is in his Son Iesus Christ: this faimes $\frac{1}{2}$ very in God and $\frac{1}{2}$ eternal life.

21 Little children keepe your selues from idols, Amen.

22 Because they be borne of God, that is to say, made the finnes of God in Carth, and being indowed with his Spirit, they doe not serue sinne, neither a deadly wound of Satan. Every man must particularly apply to himselfe the general promise that we may certainly perseuer our selues, whereas all the world is by nature lost, we are freely made the finnes of God, by the sending of Iesus Christ his Sonne vnto vs, of whom we are lightened with the knowledge of the true God and everlasting life. 4 Iohn 24. 25. The doctrine of Christ is most plainly proved by this place. 17 Hee expreth a plaine precept of taking heed of idols; which he setteth against the onely true God, that with this leale as it were he might set vp all the former doctrine.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF IOHN.

1 This Epistle is written to a woman of great renowne, who brought up her children in the feare of God: & hee exhorts her to continue in Christian charitie, & that she accompanie not with Antichrists, to be aware of them.

THIS is the elect Lady, and her children, I whome I loue in the truth: and not I only, but also all that haue knowne the truth,

2 For the truths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shall be with vs for euer:

3 Grace be with you, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, with $\frac{1}{2}$ truth and loue.

4 I reioyced greatly, that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we haue receiued a commandment of the Father.

5 And now beleeue I thee, Ladie, (not as writing a new commandment vnto thee, but that same which we had from the beginning) that wee $\frac{1}{2}$ loue one another.

6 I am now towards another which the Lord hath commanded, and also especially in wholome and sound doctrine, which also is deliuered vnto vs: for the commandment of God is a sound and sure foundation both of the rule of manners, and of doctrine, and thefe cannot be separated the one from the other. 4 Accord- ing as the truth abideth alone. 4 Iohn. 15. 17.

6 And this is that loue, that we should walke after his commandments. This commandment is, that as yet haue heard from the beginning, ye should walke in it.

7 For many deceiuers are entred into this world, which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. Hee that is such one, is a deceiver and an Antichrist.

8 Looko to your selues, that wee lose not the things which we haue done, but that we may receiue a full reward.

9 Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. Hee that continueth in the doctrine of Christ, hee hath both the Father and the Sonne.

10 If there come any vnto you, and bring not this doctrine, $\frac{1}{2}$ receiue him not to house, neither bid him, God speede.

11 For he that biddeth him God speede, is partaker of his euill deedes. Although I had many things to write vnto you, yet would I not write with paper and ynke: but I trust to come vnto you, and speake mouth to mouth, that our ioy may be full.

12 The finnes of thine elect sister greete thee, Amen.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF IOHN.

1 Hee commendeth Gaius for hospitallitie, & repro- beth Diotrophes for vaine glory: hee exhorteth Gaius to continue in well doing: and in the end commendeth Di- otrophes.

THIS is Elder vnto the beloned Gaius whom I loue in the truth.

2 Beloued, I wish chiefly that thou prosperedst and farest well as thou fallest prospereth.

3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came, an I testified of the truth that is in thee, how thou walkest in the truth.

4 I haue no greater ioy then $\frac{1}{2}$ these, that is, to heare that my finnes walke in veritie.

5 Beloued, thou doest faithfully, whatsoeuer thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers.

6 Which bare witness of thy loue before the Churches. Whom if thou $\frac{1}{2}$ bringest on their iour-ney as it becometh according to God, thou shalt doe well.

7 Because that for his Names sake they went forth, and tooke nothing of the Gentiles.

8 Wherefore ought to receiue such, that we might be $\frac{1}{2}$ helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Diotrophes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receiuech vs not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will call to your remembrance his deedes which he doeth prating against vs with malicious wordes, and not therewith content, neither hee himselfe receiuech the brethren, but forbiddeth them that would, and thrusteth them out of the Church.

11 Beloued, follow not that which is euill, but that which is good: hee that doeth well, is of God: but hee that doeth euill, hath not seene God.

22 Demetrius

14 Because we do not yettin oblige that which we hope for the Apollis ioynt inuocation or prayer with faith, which he will haue to proceede from faith, and therefore to be conceiued in such sort, that nothing be asked but that which is agreeable to the will of God: and such prayers cannot bee vaine. 4 Chap. 3. 12.

a This is not proper name, but to be taken as the words foundeth, that is to say, to the worthy and noble Lady, & Reuerend and honorable Dame.

3 The bond of Christian communion, or linking together in the true and constant profession of the truth.

4 With true knowledge which hath alwaye loue say- ing with it, and following in.

6 This true profession consisteth both in loue one towards another which the Lord hath commanded, and also especially in wholome and sound doctrine, which also is deliuered vnto vs: for the commandment of God is a sound and sure foundation both of the rule of manners, and of doctrine, and thefe cannot be separated the one from the other. 4 Accord- ing as the truth abideth alone. 4 Iohn. 15. 17.

1 An example of a Christian gra- mation.

2 I then shepherde, & hee becometh a shepherd and a Christian.

3 Hee commendeth to Gaius rather than to Diotrophes, because hee had entertained before, yet now hee is come to him, about the affairs of the Church, and hee is now as hee which had the highest.

18 The taking away of an ob- ligation: Indeed all iniquitie is com- prehended vnder the name of sinne, but yet we must not despise them fore, because every sinne is not deadly, and without hope of remedie. 12 A reason why not all, say rather why no sin is mortal to some: who because they be borne of God, that is to say, made the finnes of God in Carth, and being indowed with his Spirit, they doe not serue sinne, neither a deadly wound of Satan. Every man must particularly apply to himselfe the general promise that we may certainly perseuer our selues, whereas all the world is by nature lost, we are freely made the finnes of God, by the sending of Iesus Christ his Sonne vnto vs, of whom we are lightened with the knowledge of the true God and everlasting life. 4 Iohn 24. 25. The doctrine of Christ is most plainly proved by this place. 17 Hee expreth a plaine precept of taking heed of idols; which he setteth against the onely true God, that with this leale as it were he might set vp all the former doctrine.

8 Antichrists fighting against the peace and office of Christ, were ready to cry into the Church, in the time of the Apollis.

9 Hee that maketh transgression of doctrine, is a deceiver and a false guide.

10 We ought to haue nothing to doe with them that defend per- uerse doctrine. 4 Rom. 16. 17.

I HAVE NOT THOUGHT GOOD TO PUT FORTH

any such thing as yet, upon the Revelation, as I have upon the former bookes: notwithstanding
 I have liked well to set downe in the meane season that, that I wrote a few yeeres since, concerning the authoritie of this booke. And this is it.

BECAUSE some men of long time doubted of the authoritie of this booke, I will in fewe wordes confute those arguments, which are commonly brought to this purpose, and after shew mine owne opinion, and what I thinke. And I will rectifie the arguments in such order, as Erasmus hath painfully and diligently gathered them together: whose judgement I earnestly to me voice. I am in this point, (as it is also in many other) that no man can readily tell what opinion he was of, fast that after much ado, he seemed to bend this way, that he is of opinion that this booke is of some authoritie, though not of so good as the rest of the bookes are which we receive without any gaine saying. Therefore let us heare what he saith. Hierome witnesseth, faith he, that the Grecians in his time did not receive the Revelation. Dorotheus Bishop of Tyrus and a Martyr, in his abridgement of Iustre recordeth that Iohn wrote his Gospel in the Ile of Patmos but maketh no mention of this booke. Athanasius a Grecian in his catalogue doeth say that this Iohn wrote, Dionysius of Alexia his, as Eusebius reporteth his wordes, in the fourth booke of his Ecclesiastical historie, thinke that this booke was written of some other Iohn, who was a godly man. Eusebius himselfe foireth this booke in diuers places of his historie, that he doeth not flatly vouch it to be Iohns: but allegeth one Caius that was a good Christian, in the fourth booke of his historie, who sayeth it was written of one Cereus an heretike. Let this be the first argument which I answer in this sort. If we weigh the reasons that moved those men to reject this booke, then we shall see how vnderstandably they did it. Against, as I said, did it see the most part receive it: inasmuch that Epiphanius reckoneth them amongst heretikes that did reject it: as for Iustine the Philosopher, and Irenae Bishop of Lyons, which were both Martyrs, and did not onely allow, but also wrote commendations vpon it, I will not speake of them. As for that theis alleged Doctours, it is to no great purpose, for that he is thought to reject it, because he spoke not of it. Concerning Athanasius, Erasmus himselfe witnesseth that it is doubtful whether that worke be his or no. Concerning Dionysius we will weigh by and by what he sayeth, when we come to consider of his reasons. As for Caius (whomsoever he was) he is easily to be refuted even by Dionysius his wordes in the third booke of the Ecclesiastical historie. As for Eusebius, I make no account of him, for there are more learned, but find want of judgement in him. Now let vs come to the other argument. Hierome witnesseth (sayeth he) that certaine very well learned men found great fault, and spake sharply against the whole matter of this booke, as though there were nothing in it worthe the grauitie of an Apollie, but only a common historie of things shadowed with certaine dark figures and hard kinde of speeches. And moreover, that in the very fewest sentences themselves there was something that he commended the grauitie of an Apollie. Which I answer thus: What learned men foereth their, they are greatly to be blamed, in that they durst be so bold to speake rull of that booke, which no doubt is very short, if those things be excepted, which are translated word for word out of the Prophets. Basil, Gregorie, Cyrill, Epiphanius, Irenae, Hippolyte, as Arethas witnesseth, were not of this judgement, which thought not onely as Dionysius of Alexandria did, that some good man wrote this booke, but also plainly voucheth it to be Iohn the Apollie, which no doubt they would neuer have done, if they had found no resemblance of the grauitie of an Apollie in it. And whether of theis shall I call for the better learned? whether these men, which have given record both of their singular godlinesse, and excellent learning by publishing many wordes, or those men rather, whose onely names are scarcely heard of: and the reasons they vnt, give sufficient proofe now learned they were? They lay there appeared no grauitie in this writer, and yet he hath taken every what almost word for word out of the Prophets: they lay he hath put downe a common historie. But how can that be, seeing (a few things onely excepted) he maketh no change of things, but for such things as come? And therefore they doe not onely not speake that, that is truth, but not to much as any piece or resemblance of truth.

Now let vs come to the third argument: Hee is very curious (sayeth one) in setting downe his owne name, as though he should indite an obligation, and not write a booke, which is not onely not vied of any of the Apollies, but is also unaccommoded of himselfe: for in his Gospel where hee instructeth a great deale more modest matters, then there are, hee neuer nameth himselfe, but onely pomeeth it out by such fauourable as theis, the disciple whom Iesus loved. And Paul when he is enforced to speake of his Revelations, Irenae the Bishop of Lyons, and others, when hee speaketh of this booke, hee saith not Iohn the Apollie, but Iohn the Disciple of the Lord. And yet this man, who was a good man, and a true man, as I have said, I thinke, that hee should have said, that Iohn wrote this booke. But what weakes, and slender coniectures are theis? Little did these good men consider, that it was one thing to write an historie, and another to set downe a prophesie: for the truth of an historie hangeth not so much vpon the credite of the writer, as vpon other circumstances: but a prophesie, because it foreshew things to come, standeth vpon the authoritie of him that receiveth it, and his that preacheth it, so that it is of necessity to give vs to vnderstand, both from whence that foreshewing came, and who receiveth it, and who wrote it. Whereupon we see, that not onely in the beginning of prophesies, but also almost in every vicer, there is nothing so curiously set downe as the Name of God who speaketh, and the name of the Prophet who wrote it. Take for example, onely the Prophet Ieremie, who maketh mention of his name, at the least an hundred times. And so was it requisite for him to doe, that hee might not seeme to secke lurking corners to hide himselfe in as the false prophets did. And what I doe vnt saye him from the tenth Chapter of Daniel, that almost in every verse he repeateth his owne name, and sayeth, I Daniel. And how oft doth Eusebius repeat these wordes, Eusebius the Disciple of Amos? But Iohn did not so in his Gospel. I grant: for hee wrote an historie, wherein that believeth him, which befall to none other of the disciples: for he was occasioned to speake many things of himselfe. Nay, Paul also did not so: in deede he did not so, in any place where hee handled not his vniuersal purpose, but whensoever hee voucheth the excellencie of his ministerie, how boldly and how magnificently doeth hee call himselfe that Paul which was appointed to be an Apollie, not of men, nor by men, but by Iesus Christ. And how often hee repeateth his great comittes, doeth hee take vpon him another mans name? Nay, I leave yet further: Iohns name is not to be found (valleth I be deccied in my reckoning) above five times in all his wordes: and those wordes (I Iohn) but onely thrise, to wit, chap. i. verse 9. and yet with an explication added to it, which may suffice abundantly to put away all suspicion of pride: and againe, chap. 21. verse 2. and chap. 22. verse 8. in both which places hee reporteth onely simply what hee sawe, to the ende that no man might doubt of the truth of his prophesie. Therefore, to make an ende of this reason in few wordes, that argument which Dionysius maketh, is not onely vaine, but also argueth want of skill, and is in deede very vnderstand. Nay, I may say more, and say truly (without any malice to any, as the Lord is witnesseth) that this was not vnderstandly spoken, where hee sayeth, that the Banquett is as curious in his often repeating of I Iohn, as if he had bene writing an obligation, and not a booke.

Nowe to the fourth argument: In all the Greek copies that I have seene, sayeth hee, it was not intailed the Revelation of Iohn the Evangelist, but of Iohn the Disciple, which is sufficient to proue it was Iohn the Evangelist, who wrote it. I answer, that I knowe that hee was by excellencie, and by prerogative it was called by this name the Disciple of all the olde writers, because neuer man wrote so plainly and diuinely of the diuinitie of Christ as hee did. As for the other Iohn, who I thinke was a counterfeite, was not called by this excellent name Disciple, but an Elder.

Nowe for the vniuersality of his stile, and speech, which that Dionysius of Alexandria proueeth by three reasons as Nicephorus recordeth, Eusebius lib. cap. 23. firstly by the whole course and nature of his wordes, secondly, that where as the Gospel and Catholike Epistle of Iohn, agree in many many points, this booke hath not one word like. Lastly, because Iohn had an excellent gift of speech, but this more is very downy, barbarous, and tripped off in his language. To the first I answer, that it is no diuers matter, it is no matter to haile to be diuina kinde of stile, for in the historie of the Gospel, and in the Epistles, hee speake as hee was moued by the holy Ghost, yet hee speake what his minde ledde him: and here hee is but the writer of such things as he heard and were delivered him. In the other hee sometime maketh report of the historie, and sometime teacheth, but in this hee speake of things to come, and in such order of wordes as he is appointed. And shall we maruaile then that hee vnt one telle some kinde of sentences? Nay, what writer was there one that was tied to thort: are not many things delivered to him in the very wordes of the olde Prophets, even in the time that Ezechiel, Daniel, Zacharie, Elisha, and other spake withall, by the direction of the selfe same Spirit, which spake the selfe same in them at some other. And therefore it is no maruaile that hee vnt one to schew a kinde of speech, as happily they would deuide, seeing hee foresheweth neither in speech, nor in clause, nor, from the copie which he wrote in the Hebrew tongue: and therefore there is little cause of suspicion that it should be any counterfeite worke stile except into the Church.

Nowe remaineth the last Argument, which seemeth to charge him that hee fauoured the heresie of the Chistiles, whereupon diuers thought that Celsinus made this booke and fauoured it vpon some of the Apollies. But for mine owne part, though I grant that the Chilliase have abused many testimonies out of this booke, yet I cannot yeeld to that, and thinke that some heretics should make it, whose some can be able to shew me, that those places cannot fully be taken in any other sense: or els what booke is there that we may receive? And that these places are otherwise to be taken, diuers learned men haue shewed long agoe: so that the like hath befallen this booke as did on the Epistle to the Hebrewes, which some men received very obstinately, because it seemed to make for the Nouations: whereas indeed they ought rather to haue searched their owne ignorance. Moreover, seeing Cerinthian had many other mad and wicked opinions, as that hee denied that God made the world, and taught that Christ was borne of Marie, and Ioseph, as all other men are borne, and maketh Christ, and Iohn two distinct persons; how cometh it to passe that hee sprinkled none of this foule holy water amongst the rest in this booke? But hee was so farre from doing, that contrariwise there may be diuers arguments taken out of this booke against those errors: so that it may appeare by this one reason, that Cerinthus was not the author of this booke. And againe, whereas hee speaketh of the thousand yeeres, hee mentioneth not one of those things, which Cerinthus so impudently chattered off. For where is there any mention of that ryote which Cerinthus talketh off: where is that eating & drinking? where are those marriages and passimes? where are the sacrifices and holy dayes which should be kept at Hierusalem? Therefore this is a vaine and a foolish argument. And seeing these things are so though I would not flippily fling in contention for the authors name, yet I rather iudge it to be Iohn the Apollite, than any other man: For besides that, it appeareth to be very ancient, and the learneth and godliest of the old Fathers doubt not, but it was Iohns.

These considerations also leade me to thinke so: for that I find none of these dayes to whom either prophecies so full of maiesty, or so honourable name of a diuine, may be ascribed; and moreover, that it fauoureth of the worthines and excellencie of an Apollite, to write to the Churches of Asia, and not to one Church; lastly, because those things which are here spoken of Patmos, agree wholly with that which the old Fathers haue written with one consent, concerning Iohns banishment. And yet notwithstanding if it may be lawfull to coniecture by the kind of speech it selfe, I would thinke it to be no more sooner then Markes, who was also called Iohn: he is so like not only in words, but also in diuers kind of speech, to the Gospell of S. Markes, inasmuch that these two bookes haue almost one kind of character. As for the booke it selfe, beinge written by the vision of the Church, by beinge our hearts too much set on a great maiesty of the spirit of prophesie, and the very sleep and forgetfulness, yes and the wordes of the old Prophets, seeing there are to be found in it manifest and mighty testimonies, both of the Diuinitie of Christ, and also of our redemption. And last of all, seeing that part of those things are most manifestly come to passe, which were foretold by him, as those things which keepe spake of the destruction of the Churches of Asia, and of the kingdome of the whore, which sturth vpon seven hills, I am perswaded and thinke that the holy Ghosts meaning was to heape vp together in this most precious booke, all such things, as by the forewarning of the old Prophets remained to be fulfilled after the coming of Christ: and added also a fewe things, as he thought expedient for vs. I grant they are very dark, but that is no strange thing in the Prophets writings, as especially in Ezechiel. But this is our fault, because we take not diligent heed to things, but conceale by this indigence of Gods providence, which daily are to be seen in his governing of the Church, by beinge our hearts too much set on our owne private affaires. To be short, the Lords knoweth what, and howe farre it is expedient for vs to know, and therefore in times past hee disposed the light of his Prophesie, as for his infinite wisdom hee sawe it should be profitable for his Church. And therefore goodly men haue to search and made in these myseries with feare and reuerence so farre forth, as lawfully and profitably they may: and let all men reuerence the myseries of God, which are comprehended in this booke, whether they know them, or know them not, rather then to say no, either mocke at them, or defile them with their fantastical commentaries.

THE REVELATION OF JOHN THE DIVINE.

CHAP. I.

1 He declareth what kind of vision is here handled, 8 euen his, that is the beginning and ending: 13 Then the myserie of the seven candlesticks and flaries 20 is expounded.

TH E reuelation of Iesus Christ, which God gaue vnto him, to shewe vnto his seruantes things which must shortly be done: which hee sent, and shewed by his Angel vnto his seruant Iohn, a Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimonie of Iesus Christ, of all of things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that heare the wordes of this prophesie, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 Iohn, to the seven Churches which are in Asia, Grace be with you, & peace from him, & which is, & which was, and which is to come, and the seven Spirits which are before his Throne,

5 And from Iesus Christ, which is that faithful witness, & that first begotten of the dead, & that Prince of the Kings of the earth, vnto him that loued vs and washed vs from our sins in his blood,

6 And made vs Kings and Priests vnto God euen his Father, to him I say, for glory, and dominion for euermore, Amen.

7 Behold, he cometh with cloudes, and euery eye shall see him: yea, euen they which pierced him thorow: and all kindreds of the earth shall waile before him. Euen so, Amen.

8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, Which is, & which was, and which is to come, euen the Almighty.

9 I Iohn, euen your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Iesus Christ, was in the yle called Patmos, for the testimony which they thrust from me: & Patmos is one of the Isles of the sea.

word of God, and for the witnessing of Iesus Christ. 10 And I was ramified in the spirit on the Lords day, and heard behind me a great voyce as it had bene of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, that first and that last: and that which thou seest write in a booke, and send it vnto the seven Churches which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pergamus, and vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardis, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 Then I turned backe to see the voyce, that spake with me: and when I was turned, I sawe seven golden candlesticks,

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks, one like vnto the Sonne of man, clothed with a garment downe to the feete, and girded about the pappes with a golden girdle.

14 His head, & hairs were white as white woolle, and as snow, and his eyes were as a flame of fire,

15 And his feet like vnto fine brasse, burning as in a furnace: & his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars, and out of his mouth went a sharp two edged sword: & his face shone as the sunne shinieth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feete as dead: then he laid his right hand vpon me, saying vnto me, Feare not: I am that first and that last,

18 And aliuie, but I was dead: behold, I am aliuie for euermore, Amen: and I haue the keyes of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shall come hereafter.

20 The myserie of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, & the seven golden candlesticks, is this, The seven flaries are the Angels of the seven Churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seven Churches.

CHAP.

9 Behold, I will make them of the Synagogue of Satan, which call themselves Iewes, & are not, but do lie: behold, I say, I will make them, that they shall come and worship before thy feet, and shall know that I haue loued thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the worde of my patience, therefore I will deliuer thee from the house of temptation, which will come vpon all the world, to trie them that dwell vpon the earth.

11 Behold, I come shortly: holde that which thou hast, that no man take thy crowne.

12 Him that ouercometh, will I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and he shall goe no more out: and I will write vpon him the Name of my God, and the name of the cite of my God, which is the newe Hierusalem, which cometh downe out of heauen from my God, and I will write vpon him my new Name.

13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things sayth Amen, that faithful and true witness, that beginning of the creatures of God.

15 I know thy workes, that thou art neither colde nor hot: I would thou werest colde or hot.

16 Therefore, because thou art luke warme, and neither colde nor hot, it will come to passe, that I shall spue thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou sayest, I am rich and increased with goods, and haue neede of nothing, and knowest not how thou art wretched and miserable, and poore, and blinde, and naked.

18 I counsell thee to buy of me gold tried by the fire, that thou mayest be made rich: and white rayment, that thou mayest be clothed, & that thy filthy nakednes doe not appeare: and any one thine eyes with eye salve, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I loue, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore and amend.

20 Behold, I stand at the dore, & knocke. If any man heare my voice & open the dore, I will come in vnto him, and will sup with him, & he with me.

21 To him that ouercometh, will I graunt to sit with me in my throne, euen as I ouercame, and sit with my Father in his throne.

22 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

CHAP. IIII.

2 Another vision concerning the glory of Gods Maiestie: 8 which is magnified of the foure beasts, 10 and the foure and twentie Elders.

AFTER this I looked, and beheld, a doore was open in heauen, and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpeter talking with me, saying, Come vp hither, and I will shew thee things which must be done hereafter.

2 And immediately I was raised up in the spirit, and beheld, a throne was set in heauen, & one sat vpon the throne.

3 And he that sat, was to looke vpon, like vnto a iasper stone, and a fardine, and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like to an emerauld.

4 And round about the throne were foure and twentie seates, and vpon the seates I saw foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white rayment, and had on their heads crownes of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundrings, and voyces, and there were seuen lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like vnto chrystal: and in the mids of the throne, and round about the throne were foure beasts full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the first beast was like a lyon, & the second beast like a calf, & the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each one of them six wings about him, and they were full of eyes within, and they ceased not day nor night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, Which Was, and Which Is, and Which Is to come.

9 And when those beasts gaue glory, & honour, and thanks to him that sat on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer,

10 The foure and twentie Elders fell downe before him that sat on the throne, and worshipped him that liueth for euermore, and cast their crownes before the throne, saying,

11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receiue glory, and honour, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy willes sake they are, and haue bene created.

CHAP. V.

1 The booke sealed with seuen seales, 3 which none could open, 6 that Lambe of God 9 a thought worthy so open, 12 euen by the consents of all the company of beaues.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat vpon the throne, a Booke written within, and on the backside, sealed with seuen seales.

2 And I saw a strong Angel which preached with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the booke, and to loose the seales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth, was able to open the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to read the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the Elders said vnto me, Weepe not: behold, that Lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, that roote of Dauid, hath obtained to open the Booke, and to loose the seuen seales thereof.

6 Then I beheld, and loe, in the mids of the throne, and of the foure beasts, and in the mids of the Elders stood a Lambe as though he had bene killed, which had seuen hornes, & seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the world.

7 And he came, and tooke the Booke out of the right hand of him that sat vpon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the Booke, the foure beasts and the foure & twentie Elders fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one harps & golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of the Saints.

9 And they sang a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the Booke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our God: Kings, and Priests, and we shall reigne on the earth.

11 Then I beheld, & I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beasts and the Elders, & there were ten thousand times ten thousand, & thousand thousands,

12 Saying with a loud voyce, Worthy is the Lambe that was killed to receiue power, & riches, & wisdom, & strength, & honour, & glory, and praise.

13 And

1 God is worthy to haue glory, honour, kingdom, and such like, euen him, whom we godly and reuerently see forth that which is proper to him.

13 And al the creatures which are in heave, and on the earth, & vnder the earth, and in the sea, and all that are in the, heard I, saying, Praise, & honor, and glory, and power be vnto him, that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beasts sayd, Amen, and the foure and twenty Elders fell downe and worshipped him that liueth for euermore.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Lambe openeth the first seale of the booke, 2 the second, 3 the third, 4 the fourth, 5 the fifth, 6 the sixth, and shew arise murders, famine, pestilence, & death, 7 earthquakes, and diuers strange sights in heauen.

And I beheld when ^a Lambe had opened one of the seales, & I heard one of ^b foure beasts say, as it were the noise of thunder, Come and see.

Therefore I beheld, & lo, there was a white horse, and he that sat on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering that he might overcome.

3 And when he had opened the second seale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse, that was red, and power was giuen to him that sat thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see: Then I beheld, and loe, a blacke horse, and he that sat on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the mids of the foure beasts, A ^a measure of wheate for a peny, and three measures of barley for a peny, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voice of ^b fourth beast say, Come & see.

8 And I looked, & beheld, a pale horse, and his name that sat on him was Death, & Hell folowed after him, & power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, & with hunger, and w^c death, & with the beasts of ^c earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seale, I saw vnder the altar the soules of them, that were killed for the word of God, and for the testimonie which they maintained.

10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, How long, Lord, which art holy and true! dost thou not iudge and auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto euery one, and it was sayd vnto them, that they should rest for a litle season vntil their fellow seruants, and their bretheren that should be killed euen as they were, were ^d fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the fifth seale, and loe, there was a great earthquake, and the sunne was as blacke as ^e sackcloth of haire, and the moone was like blood.

13 And the flannes of heauen fell vnto the earth, as a fig tree casteth her greene figs, when it is shaken of a mighty winde.

14 And heauen departed away, as a scroule, when it is rolled, and euery mountaine and yle were moued out of their places.

15 And the Kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chiefe captaynes, and the mightie men, and euery bondman, and euery free man, hid themselves in denes, and among the rockes of the mountains,

16 And said to the mountains & rocks, ^f Fall on vs, and hide vs from the presence of him ^g that sitteth on ^h throne, & from the wrath of the Lambe.

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who can stand?

CHAP. VII.

1 The Angels comming to hurt the earth, 2 are stayed until the will of the Lord, 3 of all tribes were sealed, 4 such as suffered persecution for Christ sake, 5 haue great felicity, 17 and 18.

And after that, I saw foure Angels stand on the ^a four corners of the earth, holding ^b foure winds of the earth, that the winds should not blow on the earth, neither on ^c sea, neither on any tree.

2 And I saw another Angel come vp from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, & he cried w^c a loud voyce to the foure Angels to whom power was giuen to hurt ^d earth, & the sea, saying,

3 Hurt ye not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, till we haue sealed the seruants of our God in their foreheades.

4 And I heard the number of them, which were sealed, and there were sealed an hundredth and foure and fourtie thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Ruben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthali were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelue thousand. Of ^b tribe of ^c Leui were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelue thousand.

8 Of the tribe of ^d Ioseph were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelue thousand.

9 After these things I beheld, and loe a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, & kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with long white robes, and palmes in their hands.

10 And they cried with a loude voice, saying, Saluation cometh of our God, that sitteth vpon the throne, and of the Lambe.

11 And all the Angels stood round about the throne, and about the Elders, and the foure beasts, and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 Saying, Amen. Praise, and glory, and wisdom, and thanks, and honour, and power, and might, be vnto our God for euermore. Amen.

13 And one of the Elders spake, saying vnto me, What are these which are arrayed in long white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I sayd vnto him, Lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they, which came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, & haue made their long robes white in the blood of the Lambe.

15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of God, & serue him ^a day and night in his Temple, and he that sitteth on the throne will dwell ^b among them.

16 ^c They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sunne light on them, neither any heate.

a Herby is signified what great scarcitye of cornes there was, for the word here used is a kinde of measure of three things, which in the quantity had the eight part of a bushell, which was an ordinarie portion used to be giuen to seruants for their food of meate for one day.

b Shall their names be fulfilled.

c So they called in old time those monie wordes that were of haire.

17 For the lambe, which is in the middes of the throne, shall gouerne them, and shall lead them vnto the liuely fountaines of waters, and God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

CHAP. VIII.

1 After the opening of the seventh seal, 3 the Saints praye are offered up with voices, 6 The seven Angels come forth with trumpets, 7 The fourth blow, and fire falleth on the earth, 8 the sea is turned into blood, 10, 11 the waters became bitter, 12 and the floures are darkened.

And when he had opened the seventh seale there was silence in heauen about halfe an houre.

2 And I saw the seven Angels, which stood before God, and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 Then another Angel came and stood before the altar hauing a golden censer, and much odours was given vnto him, that he should offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon the golden altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saints, went vp before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth, and there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and earthquake.

6 Then the seven Angels, which had the seven trumpets, prepared themselves to blow the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel blew the trumpet, and there was haile and fire, mingled with blood, & they were cast into the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt, and all greene grasse was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell a great starre from heauen, burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called wormewood: therefore the third part of the waters became wormewood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the sunne was smitten, and the third part of the moone, and the third part of the starres, so that the third part of them was darkened: and the day was smitten, that the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I beheld, and heard one Angel flying thorow the middes of heauen, saying with a loud voyce, Wo, wo, wo to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the soundes to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blow the trumpet.

CHAP. IX.

1 The first Angel bloweth his trumpet, 3 and destroyeth locusts, 4 the second Angel bloweth, 16 and bringeth forth bioisness, 20 to destroy mankind.

And the fifth Angel blew the trumpet, and I saw a starre fall from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the key of the bottomles pit.

2 And he opened the bottomles pit, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace, and the sunne, and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke Locusts

vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen power, as the scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but only those men which haue not the seale of God in their forehead.

5 And to them was commanded that they should not kill them, but that they should be vexed fye moneths, & that their paine should be as the paine that cometh of a scorpion, when he hath stung a man.

6 Therefore in those dayes shall men seeke death, and shall not find it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the forme of the locusts was like vnto horses prepared vnto battel, and on their heads were as it were crownes, like vnto gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 And they had haire as the haire of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had habbergions, like to habbergions of yron, & the sound of their wings was like the sound of charrets when many horses ran vnto battel.

10 And they had tailes like vnto scorpions, and there were things in their tailes, and their power was to hurt men fye moneths.

11 And they haue a king ouer them, which is the Angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greeke he is named Apollyon, that is, destroying.

12 One wo is past, and behold, yet two woes come after this.

13 ¶ Then the sixth Angel blew the trumpet, and I heard a voyce from the four hornes of the golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth Angel, which had the trumpet, Loose the four Angels, which are bound in the great riuier Euphrates.

15 And the four Angels were loosed, which were prepared at an houre, at a day, at a moneth, and at a yere to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of horsemen of warre were twenty thousand times tenne thousand: for I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in a vision, & them that sat on them, hauing fire habergions, and of iacinth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions: and out of their mouthes went forth fire, and smoke and brimstone.

18 Of these three was the third part of men killed, that is, of the fire, and of the smoke, and of the brimstone, which came out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their mouthes, and in their tailes: for their tailes were like vnto serpents, and had heads wherewith they hurt.

20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, repented not of the works of their hands that they should not worship deuils, and idols of gold & of silver, and of brasle, and of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare, nor go.

21 Also they repented not of their murder, and of their forcery, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

CHAP. X.

1 Another Angel appeareth clothed with a cloud, 3 holding a booke open, 3 and crieth out, 8 A voice from heauen commandeth John to take the booke: 10 he doeth it.

And I saw another mighty Angel come downe from heauen, clothed with a cloud, and the raine bow vpon his head, and his face was as the sunne,

sunne, and his feet as pillars of fire.

2 And he put in his hand a little booke open, and he put his right foot vpon the sea, and his left on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voyce, as when a lyon roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders vnto their voyces.

4 And when the seuen thunders had vnto their voyces, I was about to write: but I heard a voyce from heauen saying vnto me, a Seale vp those things which the seuen thunders haue spoken, and write them not.

a Kryptum est.

b This was a gesture vnto of our that I saw, which was done yet now a dayes ago.

c There shall be no more time.

5 And the Angel which I saw stand vpon the sea, and vpon the earth, b lift vp his hand to heauen, 6 And I sware by him that lieth for euermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, and the earth, & the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things that therein are, that c time should be no more.

7 But in the dayes of the voyce of the seuenth Angel, when he shall begin to blow the trumpet, euen the mystery of God shall be finished, as he hath declared to his seruants the Prophets.

8 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, spake vnto me again, and said, Go and take the litle booke which is open in f hand of the Angel, which standeth vpon the sea and vpon the earth.

9 So I went vnto the Angel, and sayd vnto him, Giue me the litle booke. And he said vnto me, Take it, and eate it vp, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth as sweet as hony.

10 Then I took the litle booke out of f Angel hand, & ate it vp, & it was in my mouth as sweet as hony: but when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he sayd vnto me, Thou must prophesie againe among the people and nations, and tongues, and to many Kinges.

CHAP. XI.

a This temple is commanded to be measured, 2 The Lord stretch vp two witness, 7 whom the beast murdereth, 9 and no man burieth them. 11 God raiseth them to life, 12 and calleth them vp to heauen. 13 The wicked are terrified 15 by the appearance of the Ierusalem Angel. The resurrection, 16 and iudgement is deferred.

1 Then was giuen me a reed, like vnto a rod, and the Angel stood by, saying, Rise and mete the Temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

a He speaketh of the outer court, which was called the peoples court, because all were allowed to come into it, & that is counted to be cast out, which is measuring is refused as prophane.

2 But the b court which is without the temple cast out, and mete it not: for it is giuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holy city shall they tread vnder foot, two and fortie months.

3 But I will giue power vnto my two witness, and they shall prophesie a thousand two hundred and threescore dayes clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are two olive trees, and two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouthes, and deuoureth their enemies: for if any man will hurt the, thus must he be killed.

6 These haue power to shut heauen, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophesying, and haue power ouer waters to turne them into blood, and to smite the earth with all manner plagues, as often as they will.

c When they have done their message.

d After a more secret kind of praying and vnto the standing.

7 And when they haue finished their testimony, the beast that cometh out of the bottomlesse pit, shall make warre against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their corpses shall lye in the streets of the great citie, which e spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where our Lord also was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kindreds, and tongues, and Gentiles shall see their corpses three dayes and an halfe, and shall not suffer their carcases to be buried in graues.

10 And they that dwell vpon the earth, shall reioyce ouer them and be glad, and shall send gifts one to another: for these two Prophets vexed them that dwell on the earth.

11 But after three dayes & an halfe, the spirit of life shall come from God, shall enter into them, and they shall stand vp vpon their feet: and great feare shall come vpon them which saw them.

12 And they shall heare a great voyce from heauen, saying vnto them, Come vp hither. And they shall ascend vp to heauen in a cloud, and their enemies shall see them.

13 And the same houre shall there be a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city shall fall, and in the earthquake shall be slaine in number seven thousand: and the remnant were sore feared, and gaue glory to the God of heauen.

e Christed God by confounding his Name.

14 The second wo is past, and behold, the third wo will come anon.

15 And the seuenth Angel blew the trumpet, and there were great voyces in heauen, saying, The kingdomes of this world are our Lords, and his Christs, and he shall reigne for euermore.

16 Then the foure and twenty Elders, which were before God on their seats, fell vpon their faces, and worshipped God,

17 Saying, we giue thee thanks, Lord God almighty, Which art, and Which wast, and Which art to come: for thou hast receiued thy great might, and hast obtained thy kingdom.

18 And the Gentiles were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be iudged, and that thou shouldst giue reward vnto thy seruants the Prophets, and to the Saints, and to them that feare thy Name, to small and great, and shouldst destroy them, which destroy thee.

19 Then the Temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was scene in his Temple the Arke of his covenant: and there were lightnings, & voyces, and thunders, and earthquake, and much hail.

CHAP. XII.

a A woman is apprehended traouling with child, 4 whose child the dragon would deuoure, 7 but Michael ouercometh him, 9 and cesterth him out, 12 and the more he is cast downe and vanquished, she more fiercely he exerceeth his persecutions.

1 And there appeared a great wonder in heauen: A woman clothed with the sun, and the moone was vnder her feet, and vpon her head a crowne of twelue starres.

2 And she was with child, and cryed traouling in birth, and was pained ready to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for behold, a great red dragon hauing seven heads, and ten hornes, and seven crownes vpon his heads:

4 And his taile drew the third part of the starres of heauen, and cast them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman, which was ready to be deliuered, to deuoure her child, when she had brought it forth.

5 So the brought forth a man child, which should rule all nations with a rod of yron: and that her child was taken vp vnto God & to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand, two hundred and threescore give glorie to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made heaven and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.

8 And there followed another Angel, saying, Babylon that great citie is fallen, it is fallen: for the made all nations to drinke of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third Angel followed them, saying with a loud voyce, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea of the pure wine, which is poured into the cup of his wrath, and he shall be tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe.

11 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiue the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of Saints: here are they that keepe the commandments of God, and the faith of Iesus.

13 Then I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto me, Write, The dead which die in the Lord, are fully blessed. Euen so saith the Spirit: for they rest from their labours, and their workes follow them.

14 And I looked, and beheld, a white cloud, and vpon the cloud one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.

15 And another Angel came out of the Temple, crying with a loude voyce, to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle & reape: for the time is come to reape: for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloude, thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then another Angel came out of the Temple, which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the altar, which had power ouer fire, and cryed with a loud crye to him that had the sharpe sickle, & said, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyard of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sharpe sickle on the earth, and cut downe the vines of the vineyard of the earth, & cast them into that great wine presse of the wrath of God.

20 And the wine presse was troden without the citie, and blood came out of the winepresse, vnto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and sixe hundred furlonges.

CHAP. XV.

1 The seven Angels hauing the seven last plagues. 2 They that conquer the beast worship God. 3 To the seven Angels, 7. f. new viall full of Gods wrath, are delivered.

And I sawe another signe in heauen, great and marvellous, seven Angels, hauing the seven last plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a glassie sea, mingled with fire, and them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, stand at the glassie sea, hauing the harpes of God.

3 And they sung the song of Moses the seruant of God, and the song of the Lambe, saying, Great and marvellous are thy workes, Lord God almightie: iust and true are thy wayes, King of Saints.

4 Who shall not feare thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name! for thou onely art holy, and all nations shall come and worship before thee: for thy iudgements are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and beholde, the Temple of the tabernacle of testimonie was open in heauen.

6 And the seven Angels came out of the Temple, which had the seven plagues, clothed in pure and bright linnen, and hauing their breastes girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the foure beasts gaue vnto the seven Angels, seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, which lieth for euermore.

8 And the Temple was full of the smoke of the glory of God and of his power, and no man was able to enter into the Temple, till the seven plagues of the seven Angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

1 And 17 The Angels poure out the seven vials of Gods wrath giuen vnto them, and so diuers plagues arise in the world, 18 to afflict the wicked, 19 and the subditioms of the great citie.

And I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seven Angels, Go your wayes, and poure out the seven vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 And the first went and poured out his viall vpon the earth: and there fel a noyesome and a grievous sore vpon the men, which had the marke of the beast, and vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angel poured out his viall vpon the sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every liuing thing died in the sea.

4 And the third Angel poured out his viall vpon the riuers and fountaines of waters, and they became blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the waters say, Lord, thou art iust, Which art, and which wast: and Holy, because thou hast iudged these things.

6 For they shed the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuarie say, Euen so, Lord God almightie, true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angel poured out his viall on the sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men with heate of fire,

9 And men boyled in great heate, and blasphemed the Name of God, which hath power ouer these plagues, and they repented not, to giue him glorie.

10 And the fifth Angel poured out his viall vpon the throne of the beast, and his kingdom waxed darke, and they gnawed their tongues for sorow,

11 And blasphemed the God of heauen for their paines, and for their sores, and repented not of their workes.

12 And the sixth Angel poured out his viall vpon the great riuier Euphrates, and the water thereof dried vp, that the way of the Kings of the East should be prepared.

13 And I sawe three vnclane spirites like frogs come out of the mouth of that dragon, and out of the mouth of that beast, and out of the mouth of that false prophet.

14 For they are the spirites of deuils, working miracles, to goe vnto the kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almightie.

16 And they gathered them together into a place called in Hebrew Arma-gedon.

17 ¶ And the fourth Angell poured out his viall into the ayre: and there came a loud voyce out of the Temple of heauen from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were vpon the earth, euen so mightie an earthquake.

19 And the great cite was deuicid into three partes, and the cities of the nations fell: and that great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to giue vnto her the cup of the wine of the fiercenesse of his wrath.

20 And curyle y^e fled away, and the mountaines were not build.

21 And there fell a great haile, like talents, out of heauen vpon the men, & men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the haile: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

1 That great whore is defiled, 2 with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, 3 She is drunken with the blood of Saints, 7 The myserie of the woman and the beast, that ca- rish her, expounded, 11 their destruction, 14 The Lambs willorie.

Then there came one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen vials, and talked with mee, saying vnto me, Come: I will shewe thee the damnation of the great whore that sitteth vpon many waters,

2 With whom haue committed fornication the Kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth are drunken with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he caried me away into the wilderness in the Spirit, and I sawe a woman sit vpon a flatter coloured beast, full of names of blasphemie, which had seuen heads, and ten hornes.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple & skarlet, and gilded with golde, and precious stones, and pearles, and had a cup of gold in her hand full of abominations, and filthinesse of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, A myserie, that great Babylon the mother of whore-domes, and abominations of the earth.

6 And I saw y^e woman drunken with the blood of Saintes, and with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: and when I sawe her, I wondered with great marueile.

7 Then the Angell sayde vnto mee, Wherefore marueilest thou? I will shewe thee the myserie of that woman, and of that beast, that beareth her, which hath seuen heads, and ten hornes.

8 The beast that thou hast seene, was, and is nor, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, & shall goe into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder (whose names are not written in the booke of life from the foundation of the worlde) when they beholde the beast that was and is not, and yet is.

9 Here is the mind that hath wisdomed. The se- uen heads, are seuen mountaines whereon the woman sitteth: they are also seuen kings.

10 Five are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the eight, and is one of the seuen, and shall goe into destruction.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are tenne Kings, which yet haue not receiued a King- dom, but shall receiue power, as Kings at one houre with the beast.

13 These haue onemind, and shall giue their power, and authoritie vnto the beast.

14 These shall fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall ouercome them: for he is Lorde of Lordes, and king of kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chofen, and faithful.

15 And he said vnto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multi- tudes, and nations and tongues.

16 And the ten hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burne her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their heartes to fulfill his will, & to do with one consent for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntill the wordes of God be fulfilled.

18 And that woman which thou sawest, is that great city, which reigneth ouer y^e kings of the earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The horrible destruction of Babylon is set out, 11, 16, 18 The merchants of the earth, who were riched with the pompe and luxurie of the city, weep, and wail: 20 But all the earth re- joice for that last vengeance of Gods.

And after these things, I saw another Angel come downe from heauen, hauing great power, so that the earth was lightened with his glory,

2 And he cried out mightily with a loude voyce, saying, ¶ It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon that great cite, and is become the habitation of deuils, and the hold of all foule spirits, & a cage of euery vnclane and hatefull birde.

3 For all nations haue drunken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, and the marchants of the earth are waxed rich of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I heard another voyce from heauen say, Goe out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sinnes, and that ye receiue not of her plagues:

5 For her sinnes are come vpe into heauen, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Rewarde her, euen as she hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her works: and in the cup that she hath filled to you, fill her y^e double.

7 In as much as she glorified her selfe, and lured in pleasure, so much giue you to her torment and sorrow for the faith in her heart, I sit being a queene, and am no widow, and shall see no mourning.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death, and sorrow, and famine, and she shall be burnt with fire: for that God which condemneth her, is a strong Lord.

9 And the Kings of the earth shall bewaile her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and lured in pleasure with her, when they shall see that smoke of that her burning.

10 And shall stand a farr off for feare of the tor- ment, saying, Alas, alas, that great cite Babylon, that mightie cite, for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 And the marchants of the earth shall weepe and wayle ouer her: for no man buyeth their ware any more.

19 And they shall cast dust on their heades, and cry, weeping and wailing, and say, Alas, alas, that great citie wherein were made rich all that had ships on the sea by her costlinesse: for in one houre she is made desolate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her & ye holy Apostles and Prophets: for God hath punished her to be reuenged on her for your sakes.

21 Then a mightie Angell tooke vp a stone like a great millstone, & cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall that great citie Babylon be cast and shall be found no more.

22 And the voyce of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters shall be heard no more in thee, and no craftsman of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: and the found of a millstone shall be heard no more.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more in thee: and the voice of the bridegrome and of the bride shall be heard no more in thee: for thy marchantes were the great men of the earth: and with thine enchantments were deceiued all nations,

24 And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, and of the Saints, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

2 The heavenly company praise God for avenging the blood of his seruants, on the whore. 3 They are written his first, that are called to the Lambs supper. 4 The Angell will not be worshipped. 5 The mightie King of Kings appeareth from heauen. 6 The basted, 7 wherein the beast is taken, 8 and cast into the burning lake.

And after these things I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, A Halliclu-iah, saluation and glorie, and honour, and power bee to the Lord our God,

2 For true and righteous are his iudgements: for he hath condemned that great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath a-uerged the blood of his seruants shed by her hande.

3 And againe they sayd, Halliclu-iah: and that her smoke rose vp for euermore.

4 And the foure and twentie Elders, and the foure beasts fell downe, and worshipped God that sate on the throne, saying, Amen, Halliclu-iah.

5 Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Prayre our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, both small and great.

6 And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, and as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of strong chummings, saying, Halliclu-iah: for the Lord that God that almightie God hath reigned.

7 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and giue glory to him: for the marriage of that Lambe is come, and his wife hath made her selfe ready.

8 And to her was granted, that she should bee arrayed with pure fine linnen and shining, for the fine linnen is the righteousnes of Saints.

9 Then he sayde vnto me, Write, & Blessed are they which are called vnto the Lambes supper. And he said vnto me, These words of God are true.

10 And I fell before his seete to worship him: but he sayd vnto me, See thou doe it not: I am thy fellow seruant, and one of thy brethren, which haue the testimonie of Iesus, the Spirit of prophesie. 11 And I saw heauen open, and beholde, a white horse, and hee that sate vpon him, was called Faithfull and true, and hee iudgeth and fighteth righteously.

12 And his eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crownes: and hee had a name written, that no man knew but himselfe.

13 And hee was clothed with a garment dipt in blood, and his name is called THE WORDS OF GOD.

14 And the hosts which were in heauen, followed him vpon white horses, clothed with fine linnen white and pure.

15 And out of his mouth went out a sharpe sword, that with it he should smite the heathen: for he shall rule them with a rod of yron: for he is that treadeth the wine presse of the fiercenesse and wrath of almightie God.

16 And he hath vpon his garment, and vpon his thigh a name written, THE KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an Angel stand in the sunne, who cryed with a loud voyce, saying to all the foules that did sit by the middes of heauen, Come, and gather your selues together vnto the supper of the great God,

18 That yee may eate the flesh of Kings and the flesh of his Captaines, and the flesh of mightie men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all freemen, and bondmen, and of small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the Kings of the earth, and their hostes gathered together to make battel against him that sate on the horse, and against his arme.

20 But the beast was taken, and with him y false prophet that wrought miracles before him, whereby he deceiued them that receiued the beastes mark, and them y worshipped his image. These both were alive cast into a lake of fire, burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sitteth vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth, and all the foules were filled full with their flesh.

And I saw an Angel come downe from heauen, hauing the key of the bottomles pit, and a great chaine in his hand.

2 And he tooke the dragon that olde serpent, which is the deuill and Satan, and he bound him a thousand yeres:

3 And cast him into the bottomles pit, and he shut him vp, and sealed the doore vpon him, that he should deceiue the people no more, till the thousand yeres were fulfilled: for after that he must be loosed for a little season.

4 And I saw 4 seates: and they sat vpon them, and iudgement was giuen vnto them; and I saw the soules of them that were beheaded for the witness of Iesus, and for the word of God, & which did not worship the beast, neither his image, neither had taken his marke vpon their foreheads, or on their handes: and they liued, and reigned with Christ a thousand yeres.

5 But the rest of the dead men shall not liue againe, vntill the thousand yeres be finished: this is the first resurrection.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the booke of life, was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAP. XXI.

2 He describeth new Hierusalem descending from heauen, 9 the bride the Lambes wife, 22 and the glorious building of the citie, 19 garnished with precious stones: 25 whose temple the Lambes is.

And I saw: a new heauen, and a new earth: for the first heauen, and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy citie new Hierusalem come downe from God out of heauen prepared, as a bride trimmed for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heauen, saying, Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them: and they shall be his people, and God himselfe shall be their God with them.

4 And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorow, neither crying, neither shall there be any more paine: for the first things are passed.

5 And he that sat vpon the throne, said, & Behold, I make all things new: and he sayd vnto me, Write: for these words are faithfull and true.

6 And he said vnto me, & It is done, I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end: I will giue him that is athirst, of the well of the water of life freely.

7 He that ouercometh shall inherite all things, and I will be his God, and he shall be my sonne.

8 But the fearful and vnbeleeuing, and the abominable and murderers, and whoremongers, and forcerers, and idolaters, and all liars shall haue their part in the lake, which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.

9 And there came vnto me one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen vials full of the seuen last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come: I will shew thee the bride, the Lambes wife.

10 And he caried mee away in the spirit to a great and an hie mountaine, and he shewed me that great citie, that holy Hierusalem, descending out of heauen from God,

11 Hauing the glory of God: and her shining was like vnto a stone most precious, as a Iaspur stone cleare as crysfall,

12 And had a great wall and hie, and had twelue gates, and at the gates twelue Angels, and the names written, which are the twelue tribes of the children of Israel,

13 On the East part there were three gates, and on the North side three gates, on the South side three gates, and on the West side three gates.

14 And the wall of the citie had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambes twelue Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me, had a golden reede, to measure the citie withall, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the citie lay b foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth of it, and he measured the citie with the reede, twelue thousand furlongs: and the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred fourty and foure cubites, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of Iaspur: and the citie was pure golde, like vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all manner of precious stones: the first foundation was Iaspur: the second of Saphire: the third of Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emeraude:

20 The fifth of a Sardonyx: the sixth of a Sardius: the seventh of a Chrysolite: the eighth of a Beryl: the ninth of a Topaze: the tenth of a Chrysoprasus: the eleuenth of a Iacynth: the twelfth an Amethyst.

21 And the twelue gates were twelue pearles, and euery gate is of one perle, and the streete of the citie is pure golde, as shining glasse.

22 And I saw no Temple therein: for the Lord God almightie and the Lamb are the Temple of it.

C H A P. XXII.

1 The river of the water of life is flowed, 2 and the tree of life is 6. 7 These followeth the conclusion of this prophesie, 8 where Iohn declariseth, that the things therein contained are most true: 12 And now the third time repeateth the first word, All things come from him, who is the beginning and the end.

And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, cleare as crysell, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lambe.

3 In the middell of the street of it, and of either side of the river, was y tree of life which bare twelue manner of fruite, & geue fruit euery moneth: and the leaues of the tree shal heale the nations with.

4 And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lambe shall be in it, and his seruants shall serue him.

5 And they shall see his face, and his Name shall be in their foreheads.

† 1/16. 60. 12.

6 And there shall be no night there, and they neede no candle, neither light of the sunne: for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

7 And he sayd vnto me, These wordes are faithfull and true: and the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angel to shew vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

8 Behold, I come shortly. Blessed is he that keepeth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke.

† 1/16. 60. 12.

9 And I am Iohn, which saw and heard these things: and when I had heard and seene, I fell downe to worship before the feete of the Angell which shewed me these things.

9 But he said vnto me, See thou doe it not: for I am thy fellowe seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keepe the wordes of this booke: worship God.

10 And he said vnto me, Seale not the wordes of the prophesie of this booke: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is vnjust, let him be vnjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and hee that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come shortly, and my reward is with me, & to giue euery man according as his worke shall be.

† 2/16. 1. 6.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

† 2/16. 1. 6. and 21. 6. and 22. 13.

14 Blessed are they, that doe his commandments, that their right may be in the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the citie.

15 For without shall be dogges and enchanter, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loueth or maketh lies.

16 I Iesus haue sent mine Angel, to testifie vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the roote and the generation of Dauid, and the bright morning starre.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come: and let him that is athirst, come: and let whosoever will, take of the water of life freely.

18 For I protest vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke, If any man shall adde vnto these things, God shall adde vnto him the plagues, that are written in this booke.

19 And if any man shall diminish of the wordes of the booke of the prophesie, God shall take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy citie, and from those things which are written in this booke.

20 He which testifieth these things, faith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Euen so, come Lord Iesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

THE ENDE.

A BRIEFE

THE REVELATION OF SAINT IOHN THE APOSTLE AND EVANGELIST, VVITH A

briefe and learned Commentaric,

Written by Franc. Iunius, &c.

CHAP. I.

1 He declareth what kind of doctrine is here handled,
2 the beginning and ending: 12 The 3 myserie of the seven candlestickes and starres
4 is expounded.

THE Revelation of IESVS CHRIST, which God gave vnto him, that he might declare vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be-done: which he sent, and signified by his Angel vnto his seruant Iohn.

2 Who testified the word of God, & the wit-nesse of Iesus Christ, and all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, & blessed are they that heare the words of this prophetic, & obserue those things which are written therein: for the time appointed is at hand.

4 Iohn to the seauen Churches which are in Asia: Grace be vnto you, and peace: from him
Which is, and Which was, & Which is to come;
and from the seauen Spirits which are before him. Iohn to the seauen Churches which are in Asia: Grace be vnto you, and peace: from him Which is, and Which was, & Which is to come; and from the seauen Spirits which are before him. Iohn to the seauen Churches which are in Asia: Grace be vnto you, and peace: from him Which is, and Which was, & Which is to come; and from the seauen Spirits which are before him.

And in the first verse, the most glorious faithfulness of Iohn is declared, from the author thereof, vnto the 8. verse. Iohn to the seauen Churches which are in Asia: Grace be vnto you, and peace: from him Which is, and Which was, & Which is to come; and from the seauen Spirits which are before him. Iohn to the seauen Churches which are in Asia: Grace be vnto you, and peace: from him Which is, and Which was, & Which is to come; and from the seauen Spirits which are before him.

his Throne

5 And from Iesus Christ, which is that Faith-full witness, that first begotten of the dead, and that Prince of the kings of the earth; who loved vs, and washed vs from our finnes with his owne blood.

6 And made vs Kings and Priests vnto God euen his Father; to him be glorie, and power for euermore, Amen.

7 Behold, he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him: yea euen they which pierced him through: and all the kindred of the earth shall waile before him: Euen so, Amen.

8 I am Alpha and Omega, that is, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord: Which is, and Which was, and Which is to come, euen that Almighty one.

9 I Iohn, who also am your brother, & companion in tribulation, and in the Kingdome, and patience of Iesus Christ, was in the yle called Pat-mos, for the word of God, and for the witnessing of Iesus Christ.

10 And I was rap't in spirit, on the Lords day, and heard behind me a great voyce, as it had bin of a trumpet.

11 Of one that sayd, I am Alpha and Omega, that first and that last: and, That which thou seest, write in a booke, and send it vnto the seauen Churches which are in Asia, at Ephesus, and at Smyrna, and at Pergamus, and at Thyatira, and at Sardis, and at Philadelphia, and at Laodicea.

*Spirit of the Lord fell upon him. 1 He calleth that the Lord, which shall call him
the first day of the week. 1 Cor. 16. 2.*

2 A most ample and grace commendation of Christ, first from his offices, the priesthood and kingdom: secondly from his benefits, as his love towards vs, and washing vs with his blood, in this verse, and communication of his kingdom and priesthood with vs; thirdly from his eternal glorie and power, which is alwayes to be celebrated of vs, ver. 6. Finally from the accomplishment of all things: once to be effected by him, at his second coming, what time he shall openly destroy the wicked, and shall comfort the goodly in the tribulation.

3 A confirmation of the allegation afore going, taken from the words of God himselfe: in which he announceth his operation in euery singular creature, the immutable, saying that is in himselfe, and his omnipotence in all things: and lastly cleareth in the vinitie of his owne eidence, that timent of persons: which was before spoken of, in the first verse.

4 The apostle, opening the way to the declaring of the prophetie, and saying of Iohn the Evangelist in this booke: Revelation and prophecy shall and credite write this prophetic. This is the second part of this Chapter, containing of a proposition, and an explication. The proposition becometh full when it is called vnto this Revelation, to what place, and how occupied, ver. 5. Then to what time; and by what means, namely, by the Spirit and the word, and thence the Lords day, which day euen since the resurrection of Christ, was celebrated for Christians vnto the religion of the Sabbath: that is to say, to be a day of rest, which is the day of the Sabbath, they used what was the day of rest,
which is the day of the Sabbath, they used what was the day of rest,

8 The exposition, declaring the third and last point of the proposition (for the other points are evident of themselves) wherein is spoken first of the Author of this calling, vnto the 17. verse. Secondly of the calling it selfe, vnto the end of the Chapter. And first of all, the occasion is noted in this verse, in that S. Iohn turned him selfe towards the vliane: after is set downe the description of the Author, in the verses following. 12. 15. 16.

3 The exordium
Author of this prop

12 Then I turned backe to^k see the voyce, that spake with me: ⁹ and when I was turned, I saw seuen golden candlestickes:

13 And in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks, one like vnto the Sonne of man, clothed with a garment downe to the feete, and girded about the pappes with a golden girdle.

14 His head, and haire were white as white wooll, and as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 And his feet like vnro. fine brasse, burning as in a furnace: and his voyce as the sound of manie waters:

16 And he had in his right hand seauen starres:
and out of his mouth went a sharpe two edged sword: and his face shone as the sunne shineth in his strength.

17 ¹⁰ Now when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. ¹¹ Then he layd his right hand vpon me, saying vnto me, Feare not: ¹² I am that * first, and that last;

18 And which am aliue; but I was dead: and behold I liue for euermore, Amen: and I haue the keyes of hell and of death.

19. Write the things which thou hast seene;
both which are, and which shall come to passe hereafter.

20 ¹⁴ The myserie of the seuen starres which thou sawest in my right hand, & the seuen golden candlesticks, is shew; those seuen starres are the ¹Angels of the seuen Churches: and those seuen candlestickes which thou sawest, are the seuen Churches.

deeth those seauen starres in his right hand, a walketh in the midst of those seauen gold candlesticks.

23 I know thy workes, and thy labour, and thy patience; and how thou canst not beare the which are euill, and hast examined them which they are Apottles, and are nor, and hast found liuers.

3 And thou wast burdened, and hast patience and for my Names sake hast laboured, and wast not wearied.

4 Neuertheſſe, I haue this ^a againſt thee that thou haſt giuen ouer thy firſt loue.

5. Remember therefore from whence thou fallen, and repent, and do the first workes: other wise I will come against thee shortly; and will moue thy candleticke out of his place, except thou amend.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest works of the Nicolaitans, which also I hate.

7 4 Let him that hath an eare, heare, what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches; To him that ouercometh, will I giue to eat, of that tree of life which is in the midst of the Paradise of God.

18 ¶ And vnto the Angell of the Church the Smyrnians write; These things saith he is first and last which was dead and is aliue:

9 7 I know thy workes, and tribulation, a pouertie (but thou art rich) and the blasphemy of them, which say they are Iewes, and are not,
but are the Synagogue of Satan.

10 Feare none of those things, which th shall suffer: behold, it shall come to passe, that deuill shall cast some of you into prison that ye m be tried; and ye shall haue^b tribulation for ten dayes: be thou faithfull vnto the death, and I w giue thee the crowne of life.

11 ⁹ Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith to the Churches: He that overcometh, shall not bee hurt ¹⁰ of the second death.

13 ¶ And to the Angel of the Church which is at d Pergamus write, These things sayth he which hath that sharpe sword with two edges.

13 12 I knowe thy workes, and where thou dwellest, euē where Sarans throne is; & that thou keepest my Name, and hast not denied my faith euē in e those dayes when Antipas my faithfull martyr was slaine among you, where Saran dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee; that thou hast there them that maintain the doctrine of* Balaam, which taught Balac to put stumbling blockes before the children of Isra-

7 The proposition of praise is in this verse, and of exhortation in the next verse.

8 That is, of ten years. For so commonly both in the years are signified by the name of days: that God there the space of time is appointed by him, and the same very short wrote this booke in the end of Domitian the Emperour his Irenicus do witness. It is altogether necessarie that this perfection which was done by the authority of the Emperour to make hanocks of the Christian Church in the tenth year historiographers do write: and his blonddie persecution con Emperour had succeeded in his place. The space of which time which are here mentioned.

which is the new Hierusalem; which cometh downe out of heauen from my God; and my new name.

21 Let him that hath an eare; heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches:

22 And vnto the Angell of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things saith I Amen, that faithfull and true witness; that beginning of the creatures of God:

12 I know thy works; that thou art neither cold nor hot: would thou werest cold or hotter.

16 Therefore, because thou art luke warme, and neither cold nor hot: it will come to passe, that I shall spew thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou saist, I am rich, and increased with goods; and haue neede of nothing; and knowest not that thou art a most wretched man, and miserable; and poore, and blind, and naked.

18 I counsell thee to buy of me gold tryed by the fire, that thou mayest become rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed; and that thy filthy nakednesse do not appeare: and anoint thine eyes with eye salve, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I loue, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore and amend.

20 Behold, I stand at the doore, and knocke.

21 If any man heare my voyce & open the doore, I will come in vnto him, and will suppe with him, and he with me.

22 To him that ouercometh, will I graunt to sit with me in my throne, euen as I ouercame, and am sit with my Father in his throne.

23 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

vnto a Jasper stone, and a Sardine; and there was a raine bow round about the throne, as fight like to an Emmerald.

3 And round about the throne were four and twentie thrones; and vpon the thrones I saw foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and had on their heades crownes of gold.

6 And out of that throne proceeded lightnings, and thundrings; and voyces: and there were seuen lampes of fire burning before the throne, which are the seuen Spirits of God.

7 Also before the throne there was a sea of glasse like vnto cristall; and betweene the throne, and the things that were round about the throne, were foure beastes full of eyes before and behind.

7 The first beast was like a Lyon, and the second beast like a Bull, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying Eagle.

8 And the foure beastes had eche one of them six wings about him, and they were full of eyes within; and they ceased not 8 day nor night, saying, Holie, Holie, Holie Lord God almighty, Which Was, and Which is, and Which is to come.

9 And when those beastes gaue glorie, and honour, & thanks to him that sat on the throne, which lieth for euer and euer,

10 The foure and twentie Elders fell downe before him that sat on the throne, and worshipped him that lieth for euermore, and cast their crownes before the throne, saying,

11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glorie and honour, and power: for thou hast created all things; and by thy will they are, and haue bene created.

CHAP. III.

1 Another vision vnto the Angell of the Church of Laodicea: 8 Which is magnified of the foure beastes, 10 and the foure and twentie Elders.

1 After this I looked, and behold, a doore was open in heauen; and the first voyce which I heard, as it were of a trumpet talking with me, said, Come vp hither, & I will shew thee the things which must be done hereafter.

2 And immediately I was vnto in the Spirit; and behold, a throne was set in heauen, and one sat vpon the throne.

3 And he that sat, was to looke vpon, like

vnto all partes of the world, continually watching, (in this verse) working by otherwelt: then the instruments without life last mentioned: contrariety as ynto as Bull, wise as men, swift as Eagles, verse 7 most apt vnto all purposes, shed with wings on euery part, most piercing of sight, and finally pure and serene alwayes in continual motion, verse 8. 8 By excess, in that for all the before mentioned, God is glorified both of Angels as holy, divine, omnipotent, and immutable, verse 8, and also after their example, he is glorified of holy men in signe and in speech, verse 10. 9 Three signes of our time: our God, prostration of falling downe, aloration, and calling their names be in which the godly, though made kings by Christ, do willingly capite their all glorie, moved with a religious respect of the maiesty of God. 10 The of their speech: that all glorie must be giue vnto God: the reason being the eternall beginning of all things, from whose onely will they haue their being, gouerned, and finally in all respects are that which they are.

11 That is, that thou shouldst challenge the same to thy selfe alone. But we are vnworthy that euen by thy goodnesse we should be made partakers of it. And hitherto hath bene handled the principall cause vnapprochable of God.

CHAP. V.

1 The booke sealed with seuen seales, 3 which none could open, 6 that Lamb of God 9 is thought worthy to open, 12 euen by the consent of all the compaign of beastes.

1 And I saw as the right hand of him that sat vpon the throne, a book layed open, written within and without, sealed with seuen seales.

2 And I saw a strong angel, saying vnto the foure and twentie Elders, Sit downe here.

3 And I saw the foure and twentie Elders, sitting downe before the throne, and casting their crownes before the throne, and saying, Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive the praise, and honour, and glorie, for thou hast created all things.

4 And I saw the strong angel, saying vnto the foure and twentie Elders, Sit downe here.

5 And I saw the foure and twentie Elders, sitting downe before the throne, and casting their crownes before the throne, and saying, Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive the praise, and honour, and glorie, for thou hast created all things.

Hitherto hath bene the first part of the book of the Apocalypse.*

4. Expo. Ch. 1. 10. F. IVINVS. 1. Hereafter followeth the second part of this booke, altogether periphetically, heretelling, shewing things which were to come, as was sayd before Chapter 1. 12 This is deuoted into two histories: one common vnto the whole world, vnto the whole Church; & another singular, of the Church of God thence vnto the 22. Chapter. And these histories are said to be described in severall books, Chap. 1. 12. and 10. 2. Now this first verse is as it were a passage strongly, former part vnto this second: where it is said, that the heauen was opened, that is, that heauenly things were vnlocked, and that a voyce as of a trumpet sounded in heauen, to shew vnto the Apostles, and call him to the vnderstanding of things to come. The first historie hath two partes, one of the causes of things done, & of this whole Revelation, in this and the next chapter: Another of the 22. done, in the next. foure Chapters. The principall causes according to the distinction of persons in the vntie of the diuine edifice, and according to the economie or dispensation thereof are two. One the beginning which none can approach vnto, that is, God the Father of whom is spoken in this Chapter. The other, the Sonne, who is the meane cause, cause to be approached vnto, in respect that he is God and man in one person, of whom Chapter 1. 1. The manner of Reuelation, as before is said, is 3. A description of God the Father and of his glorie in the heauen, named vnto that follow afterwards. In this verse he is presented in office a Iudge, as Abraham sayd Gen 18. which is declared by his throne, as an engine of iudgement, and his sitting thereupon. 4. By his nature, in that he is the Father, most glorious in his owne person, and with his glorie ouercometh all other things.

upon the throne, 3 a booke written within, and on the backside, sealed with seven seales.

1 And I saw a mighty Angell, which proclaimed with a loud voyce: Who is worthy to open the booke, and to looke the seales thereof?

3 But none in heauen, nor on earth, neither vnder the earth, was able to open the booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 I therefore wept much, because no man was founde worthy to open, and to read the booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 Then one of the Elders said vnto me, Weepe not hehold, that * 6 Lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, that roote of Dauid, hath gotten the victorie, that he might open the booke and looke the seuen seales thereof.

6 I looked therefore, and loe, 7 betwene the throne, and the foure beastes, and in the midst of the Elders, stood a Lambe as though he had bene killed, which had seuen hornes, and seuen eyes, which are those seuen Spirits of God sent out into all the world.

8 He came, and tooke the booke out of the right hand of him that sat vpon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the booke, the foure beastes and the foure and twentie Elders fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euerie one 10 harpes and golden viells full of odours, which are the prayers of the Saints:

9 And they sung a new 11 song, saying, 12 Thou art worthy to take the booke, & to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast redeemed vs to God, by thy blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation.

10 And hath made vs vnto our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

11 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

15 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 16 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

17 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

18 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 19 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

20 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

21 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 22 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

23 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

24 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 25 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

26 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

27 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 28 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

29 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

30 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 31 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

32 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

33 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 34 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

35 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

36 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 37 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

38 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

39 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 40 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

12 Saying with a loud voyce, Worthy is the Lambe that was killed, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and praye:

13 Also all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I, saying: Vnto him, that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe be praye, and honour, and glory, and power, for euermore.

14 And the foure beastes said, Amen; & the foure & twentie Elders fell downe vpon their faces, and worshipped him that lieth for euermore.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Lambe openeth the first scale of the booke, 3 the second, 5 the third, 7 the fourth, 9 the fifth, 11 and the sixth, and then arise masters, famine, pestilence, ouerflows of seas, earthquakes, and diuers strange sights in heauen.

1 A¹fter I saw, when the Lambe had opened the first of the seales; and I heard one of the foure beasts say, as it were the noyse of the vnder, Come and see.

2 Therefore I beheld, and lo, there was present a white horse, and he that sat on him, had a bow, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering, and that he might conquer.

3 And 3 when he had opened the second scale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there came out another horse, that was red, and power was giuen to him that sat thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another; and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third scale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see: Then I beheld, and lo, a blacke horse; and he that sat on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the midst of the foure beasts say, A measure of wheat for a peny, and three measures of barley for a peny; 5 and the oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 The first signifying is set downe in this Chap: the caution for preferring the Church, is in the next Chapter: and the execution is described chap. 8. and 9. In euery part of the foregoingly saying there are three branches: the first and express calling of S. Iohn, to prepare him selfe to take knowledge of the things that were to be shewed vnto him in the opening of the scales: the signe, and the word expounding the signe. And albeit, the expresse calling of S. Iohn, bevid onely in foure of the signes, yet the same is also to be vnderstood in the rest that follow: The author of these foregoingly is the Lambe, as that word of the Father, made the Mediator, opening the seales of the booke. The instruments are the Angels in most of the visions who expound the signe, & the words thereof. Now this first verse containeth an expresse calling of S. Iohn to open the opening of the first scale. 2 The first signifying with declaration, is that God for the sinnes and horrible rebellion of the world, will invade the same; and first all will as a farrer with his statutes of pestilence most suddenly, mightily, and gloriously, breake downe the same as iudice, and triumph ouer it, as conqueror.

3 The second signifying with wordes of declaration (after the expresse calling of S. Iohn as before) is, that God being provoked vnto wrath by the obduracy and hard heartedness of the world not repenting for the former plagues, so setting vpon the same at hand, will kindle the fire of debate amongst men, and will destroy the inhabitants of this world, one by the sword of another.

4 The third signe with declaration, is, that God will destroy the world with famine, withdrawing all provisions, which by the figure Synecdoche comprehended in wheate, barley, wine and oyle.

5 Had rather distinguish and reade the words plain, and the wine shall be oyle: show shall be deare wine. In this sense; likewise the wine and the oyle shall be oyle: a verie little for a great price: so is the place euident: otherwise that is most true, which the wise man saith, that who so withholdeth the corne shall be cursed of the people: Proverbs 11. 26.

12 Saying with a loud voyce, Worthy is the Lambe that was killed, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and praye:

13 Also all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I, saying: Vnto him, that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe be praye, and honour, and glory, and power, for euermore.

15 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

16 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 17 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

17 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

18 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 19 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

19 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

20 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 21 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

21 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

22 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 23 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

23 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

24 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 25 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

25 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

26 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 27 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

27 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

28 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 29 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

29 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

30 And they said, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, 31 for he was slain, and hath redeemed vs to God, by his blood, out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hath made vs to our God 4 kings & Priests, and we shall reigne ouer the earth.

31 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, 14 and the number was * 10 thousand thousand times ten thousand, and a thousand thousands:

dome, and thanks, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for evermore, Amen.

13 ¹⁰ Then one of the Elders spake, saying unto me; What are these which are arrayed in long white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they, which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their long robes, and have made them white in the blood of the Lambe.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serue him ¹¹ day and night in his Temple; and he that sitteth on the throne will ¹² ouerha-dow them.

16 ¹³ They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sunne light on them, neither any heate.

17 Because the Lambe, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them vnto the liuely fountaines of water; and ¹⁴ God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

And also in most modest manner requesteth the expounding of the vision, the exposition of the vision, wherein the Angell telleth first the acts of the Lord, and then the sufferings, and worke of faith in Christ Iesus, in this verse. Secondly, he telleth the sufferings, which consisteth in two things that they minister vnto God, which is to suffer, verse 15; and to come, in their perfect deliverance from tribulation, verse 16; and in participation of all good things, which even the memory of tribulation shall never be able to diminish, verse 17. The cause efficient, and which is the cause of these things, is only one, even the Lambe of God, the Lord, the Mediator between God and man, Christ Iesus.

CHAP. VIII.

1 ¹ After the opening of the seventh seale, 3 the Saints prayers are offered up with odours. 6 The seven Angels come forth with trumpets. 7 The fourth seale is blown, and fire falleth on the earth, 8 the sea is turned into blood, 10 the waters wax bitter, 13 and the starres are dar kened.

1 ¹ And when hee had opened the seventh seale, there was silence in heauen, about halfe an houre.

2 ² And I saw the seven Angels, which stand before God, and to them were giuen seven trumpets.

3 ³ Then another Angell came, and stood before the altar having a golden censer; and much odours, was giuen vnto him, to offer with the prayers of all the Saintes vpon the golden Altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saintes, ⁴ went vp out of the Angels hand, vnto the presence of God.

5 Then the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with fire of the Altar, and cast it into the earth; and there were made voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and earthquake.

6 ⁵ And the seven Angels, which had the seven trumpets, prepared them selues to blow the trumpets.

7 ⁶ So the first Angell blew the trumpet, and there was hayle and fire, mingled with blood; and they were cast into the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt vp, and all greene grasse was burnt vp.

8 ⁷ Then the second Angell blew the trumpet, and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea; and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, dyed; and the third part of ships were destroyed.

10 ⁸ Then the third Angell blew the trumpet, and there fell a great star out of heauen, burning like a torch, and fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 The name of the starre is called ⁹ worme-wood: therefore the third part of the waters became wormewood; and manie men dyed of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 ⁹ After the fourth Angell blew the trumpet, and the third part of the Sunne was smitten, and the third part of the Moone, and the third part of the starres; so that the third part of them was darkened, and the third part of the day did not shine, and likewise the night.

13 ¹⁰ And I beheld, and heard one Angell say-ing through the midst of heauen, saying with a loud voyce, Wo, wo, wo, to the inhabitants of the earth, from the fowles remaining of the trumpets of the three Angels, which yet must blow their trumpets.

in, in the next verse. 7 The third execution vpon the floods and fountaines, that is, vpon all fresh waters, in this verse: the effect whereof is, that many are destroyed with the bitterness of the waters, in the verse following.

8 This is spoken by Metaphor, of the name of a most bitter herbe, and commonly knowne: vnto the people, a man following those that note the derivation of words, had rather expound it aduicely, for that which by reason of bitterness can not be drink, or which maketh the liquor into which it is poured, more bitter than that any man can drinke the same.

9 The fourth execution vpon those lightsome bodies of heauen, which minister vnto this inferior world.

10 A lamentable prediction or foretelling of those partes of the diuine execution which yet are behind: which also is a passage vnto the argument of the next Chapter. Of all these things in a manner Christ him self expressly foretelleth in the one and twentieth Chapter of Saint Luke, verse 24. &c. and they are common plagues generally denounced, without particular note of time.

CHAP. IX.

1 The first Angell bloweth his trumpet, 3 and saying locusts come out. 13 The sixth Angell bloweth, 16 and bringeth forth bowmen, 20 to destroy mankind.

Our prayers are nothing worth, unless they be true and sweet. I know of that only obtaine to the Father, and deliver us from all dangers with them, that is to say, vnto the Father, by the blood of his Sonne, by acceptable to him.

This is the worke of the administrators. The Angels ad-ministrators of Christ, only by sound of trumpet and voyce.

For they are only as hermes, who ef-fectually call forth the instruments of the wrath of God, through his power.

The second execu-tion, vpon the sea in this verse, and all things that are there-into, are those that ¶ Vnto this is added, the smoke of the heli and infernall fpirites, all darke, as followeth of the fpirits themselves.

¶ A description of the malignant fpirits invading the world, taken from their na-locusts, in quicknesse, subtilitie, hurtfullnesse, number, and such like, in this verse. From their power, in that they are, as the Scorpions of the earth, of a secret force and danger. For one battell is weaker with heli and blood, but with power & Ephel. 1. 12.

¶ This place of the power, is taken away, & specially noted in this verse, in particularly declared at the end of the three next verses.

¶ Here that power of the devils is particularly described, according to their aduice & the effect of the same. Their aduice are sayd to be bounded by the counsell of God:
both because they hurt not all men, but only the reprobate (for the goodly and elect, in whome there is any part of a better life. God ganeth by his decree) wherein Chrift saith not haue feare, in this verse: & also because they neither had all power, nor all things, as mynisters of God are then owne, but limited in manner and time, by the free-will of God, ver. 2. So their power to shew the 2. dy. is able, & for the wicked it is limited in 2. dy. as in the will of God: for the matter was prescribed vnto the, that they should not flye but scourge the wicked world. (The time is shewne in the next verse, as for an hundred and fifty dayes, that is, for so many years, in which the deuils haue indeed malignely peruerfed all things, in the world: and yet without that publike and vniuersall licence of killing, which afterwards they vsuaged when the first Angel had of the world: he excommunicated the Pope, Henry the fourth: went about by all maner of tyrannie to set vp and put downe Emperours: and as if himselfe had doubted not, that Rodolph the Son of the Emperour in the end of Henrie before him, should put him a Crowne with this verse annexed vnto it, Petra dicit Petro, venis gaudere Regibus, that is, The Rocke to Peter gaue the Crowne, and Peter Rodolph the fourth. Finally, he fauorably beheld him selfe in his affaires, as he mistreated fmall Chriftendome on fire, and conveyed out by his successores the burning brand of the same: who engaged with him and addition neuer ceased to nourish that flame, and to increase it more and more: whereby Cities, common weales, and whole king-domes together by the cruelty amongst themselves, by most exasperated contentions, came to ruine, whilst they miserably wounded one another. This time of an hundred and fifty years, taken end in the time of Gregorie the ninth, or Hugolino Anacienfis (as he was before called) who caused to be compiled by one Raymond his Chapleine and confessor, the booke of the Decretals, and by influence of the Kings and Princes, to be published in the Christian world, and established there by this league at length the Pope arrogated vnto them felicitie licence to kill whom they would, whilst other were vnto: and without feare established a kinglye-om of many, the wicked Canon of the Decretals, which the trumpet of the first Angel had expressly forbidden, and had hindered vntill this time. The effects of these bloudie aduices are declared vpon the fixt verse: that the multitude would hang in the great calamities, should willingly surrender vnto their death, and preferre the same before life, by reason of the great multitude of the miseries that oppressed them,

¶ And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be vexed five moneths; and that their paine should be as the paine that cometh of a Scorpion, when he hath stung a man.

¶ Therefore in those dayes shall men seeke death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flie from them.

¶ The forme of the locusts was like vnto horses prepared vnto battell; and on their heads were let as it were crowns, like vnto gold; & their faces were like the faces of men.

¶ And they had haire as the haire of women;
and their teeth were as the teeth of Lyons:

¶ They had also habergeons, like to habber-gions of vnto: and the found of their wings was like the found of charres, when manie horses run together in battell:

¶ Also they had tailles like vnto Scorpions; and there were stings in their tayles; and their power was to hurt men five moneths.

¶ Now they had a king let outter them, which is the Angel of the bottomlesse pit; whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greeke is called Apollyon, that is, the destroyer.

¶ One woe is past, and behold, yet two woes come after this.

¶ Then the fixt Angel blew the trumpet, and I heard a certaine voyce from the foure
hornes of the golden altar, which is before God,

¶ Saying to the fixt Angel, which had the trumpet: Loose the foure Angells, which are bound at the great riuier Euphrates.

¶ The foure Angells were loosed, which treasonously noyfe, though their power be limited, ver. 1. All which things are ly in the infernall powers, and communicated by them vnto their infernall King, vnto whom my selfe call in English the Destroyer, who destroyeth the whole world both Jewes and Gentiles into the destruction that belongeth to himselfe. And I can not tell whether this name haue respect vnto the Ety-mologion of Hildebrand, by a figure often vied in the holy Scripture albeit it may otherwise be turned of the Germanes (as the kinde of some wordes is commonly ambiguous) yet in very deepe it signifieth as much as should befall him the Destroyer, that is, hee that stretch out his hand to destroye.

¶ A passage vnto the next point and to the history of the time the first execution done vpon the world by the tyrannical power of the king in the foure parts of the earth, that is, in most small manner exceeding none distinction through the whole world: and killing the detestable people punishment, which before was not lawfull for them to doe in that sort, I then the fourth verse. This narration hath two partes: a commendement from God
14. verse, and an execution of the commendement, in the next following.

¶ The commendement of God by Chrift himselfe, who is governor vnto all, as I haue said, these histories haue bin found by the power of God, that they freely run vpon all men as themselves, I will, but were stayed & restrained at the flood of Euphrates that again their fpirituall Babylon (for this is a Periphrase civill Babylon) by the limits of the visible Baby lon long force overthrewen might not cameth out horrible daughters, which they long beheaded after Mo-let alone those 4. Angels, that is, admistrators of the wrath of God, which is committed to the slaughtering of the foure quarters of the world, first give them the bridle, that ruling out of the Baby lon of which which is the wicked one they may flye vpon all the world thence to rage, and most li-censely practise their tyrannie, as God hath ordaind. This was done when Gregorie the publike authoritie established for law his owne Decretals, which he might traynes for the life of himselfe. For, who is it that seeth not that the law tall most of them are faires to catch folles vnto: Since the time when how great slaughters haue there bene: how great miseries, how many the and that our age aboundeth with most horrible & most horrible examples.

¶ The execution of the commendement, is in two pointes: one, that the chieftes are let loose, that out of their tower of the fpirituall Babylon they may freely runne abroad through all the world, as well the chieftes of that crew most prouoke vnto all offences, in this verse: as their multitudes, both with which a number certaine is named, for a number infinite, ver. 12. as being by all means fully furnished to ride and to hurt, ver. 11. as being smoke and brimstone, as appeared in the colour of their armour, which eyes of all men, and haue the strength of Lyons to tread vnto, from which (their mouth) the fire, smoke, and stinking darts of the Pope are first other pointes, that these chieftes haue still at the commendement of God

REVELATION / CHAP. X. XI.

were prepared as an hour, as a day, as a month, and as a year, to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the troopes of horsemen were twentie thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

17 I also saw horses in a vision, and them that sat on them, having fire habergeons, and of lacinth, and of brimstone; and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lyons: & out of their mouths came forth fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, that is, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which came out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their meutes, and in their tails: 14 for their tails are like unto Serpents, having heads, where with they hurt.

20 15 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, repented not of the werkes of their hands, that they should not worship devils, & images of gold and of silver, and of brasie, and of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare, nor go:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their forceries, neither of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

For the general historie of things to be done vnderfall in the whole worlde, it doth not so much belong unto the Church of Christ, it is therefore distinguished by certaintie of time and other circumstances, as they say, with a slight hand. Also there is none other cause why the twelfth Angell is passed over in this place, then for that the same apperteyneth unto the historie of the Church. But this is more difficult according to the times thereof; Chapter 12. and 13. shall appere vpon

CHAP. X.

1 Another Angell apperish clothed with a cloud, 2 holding a booke open, 3 and crieth out. 4 A voyce from heauen commaunders Iohn to take the booke. 10 He crieth out.

1 When I saw 2 another mighty Angell coming downe from heauen, clothed with a cloud; and the raine bowe was ouer his head, and his face was as the sunne, and his feete as pillars of fire.

3 And he had in his hand a 3 litle booke open, and he beset his right foote vpon the sea, and his left on the earth.

4 And he cryed with a loud voyce, as when a Lion roareth: and when he had cryed, seven thunders vttered their voyces.

4 And when the seven thunders had vttered their voyces, I was about to write: but I heard a voyce from heauen saying vnto me, 5 Scale vp those things which the seven thunders have spoken, and write them not.

5 And the Angell which I saw stand vpon the sea, and vpon the earth, blift vp his hand to heaue,

6 And I sware by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which therein are, 7 that 6 time should be no more.

7 But in the dayes of the 6 voyce of the sixth Angell, when he shall blow the trumpet, the myserie of God shall be finished, as he hath declared to his seruants the Prophets.

8 7 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, spake vnto me againe and sayd, Go and take the litle booke which is open in the hand of the Angell, which standeth vpon the sea and vpon the earth.

9 So I went vnto the Angell, and sayd to him, Giue me the litle booke. And he sayd vnto me, Take it, and eate it vp; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 Then I tooke the litle booke out of the Angels hand, and did eate it vp; and it was in my mouth sweete as honie: but when I had eaten it vp, my bellie was bitter.

11 And he sayd vnto me, Thou must Prophecie againe before people and nations, & tongues, and many kinges.

also is expounded, verse 9. (1st Ezech. 2. verse 9.) whence this similitude is borrowed, namely, for that S. Iohn at the commandment of Christ took the booke, and found by experience that the same as proceeding from Christ was most sweet, but that it foretold the afflictions of the Church, it was most bitter vnto his spirit.

8 A simple and plaine declaration of the figure before going, witnessing the denis calling of S. Iohn, and laying vpon him the necessitie thereof.

CHAP. XI.

1 The temple is commanded to be measured. 3 The Lord stirreth up two witnesses: 7 whom the beast marshall. 9 & no man hurteth the. 11 God visiteth them to life. 12 and calleth them up to heauen. 13 The wicked are terrified. 15 By the trumpets of the seventh Angell, the resurrection and iudgement is described.

1 Then was given me a reede, like vnto a rod, the historie of the estate of Christ his Church both confiding or waiting, & overcoming in Christ. For both the true Church of Christ is fidei to fight against that which is falsity so called, ouer the which Antichrist ruled, Christ first overthrowing Antichrist by the spirit of his mouth; and Christ is fidei to overcome most gloriously, until he shall day Antichrist, by the appearance of his coming, as St. Apostle excellently teacheth. These 2. 8. 5. this historie hath two parts: One of the state of the Church confiding with tribulations, vnto the 16. Chapter. The other of the fate of the same Church, obtaining vnto the 20. chapter. The first part hath two members, well communitie dispersed together into their times, whereof the first containeth the historie of the Christian Church from 1260. years, wnto the time, when the Gospell of Christ was 20. times taken vp from amongst men into heauen: the seid containeth an historie of the same Church vnto the 20. times perfected. And these two members are briefly, though difficultly, propounded in this Chapter, but are both of them more at large discouered, after in due order. For we understand the fate of the Church confiding out of Chap. 12. & 13. and of the same growing out of afflictions, out of the 14. & 15. & 16. Chapters. Neither did S. Iohn at any waies ioyne together the historie of the seid two times in this Chapter, because here is spoken of prophetic which all cometh to be but one iust and immurable in the Church, & which Christ commanded to be continuall. The historie of the former time reacheth vnto the 14. verse; the later is set downe in the rest of this Chapter. In the former are shewed these things: the calling of the seruants of God, in 4. verses; the confiding which the faithful most godly vndergo in their calling for Christ & for his Church, hence vnto the 10. verses; and their resurrection, & resuscitating vp into heauen vnto the 14. verse. In the calling of the seruants of God are mentioend two things: the beginning of the Church, in 2. verses; & the education thereof in two other verses. The beginning of the Church is here commended vnto S. Iohn by signe and by speech: the signe is a measuring rod, and the speech a commandment to measure the Temple of God, that is to reduce it to a same vnto a new forme: because the Gentiles are already entered into the Temple of Ierusalem, and shall shortly delie and overthrow the same vnto the Iohn is taught from heauen, to demand the booke of Prophecie in this verse: first their motions and desires God doth inspire: that demanding the booke, he is charged to take it in a figurative manner, the way whereof is described in the following verses. The booke which is borne with him, and found by experience that the same as proceeding from Christ was most sweet, but that it foretold the afflictions of the Church, it was most bitter vnto his spirit.

3 And I sawe one of his heades as it were wounded to death; but his deadly wound was healed, and all the world wondered and followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the Dragon which gave power vnto the beast; and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast? who is able to fight with him!

5 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth, that spake great things and blasphemies; and power was giuen vnto him, to doe for two and fortie months.

6 He therefore opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blasphemie his Name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heauen.

7 It was also giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saintes, and to overcome them; and power was giuen him ouer euerie kinred, and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth, shall worship him, whose names are not written in the booke of life of that Lambe, which was slaine from the beginning of the world.

9 If anie man hath an eare, let him heare.

10 If anie leade into captiuitie, he shall go in to captiuitie: if anie kill with a sword, he must be killed by a sword: here is the patience and the faith of the Saintes.

11 Then I sawe another beast comming vp out of the earth, which had two hornes like the Lambe, but he spake like the Dragon.

12 And doeth exercise the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he doth great wonders, so that he maketh fire to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men;

14 And deceiuet them that dwell on the earth, by reason of the signes, which were giuen to him to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image of the beast, which was wounded of the sword, and did liue againe.

15 And it was giuen to him to give life vnto the image of the beast, and that the image of the beast should speake; and to cause that as

pociffe, the wimself of miracles, and tyrannie: of which the first is noted in this verse, the second in the third verse following: the third in the sixteenth verse. His pociffe is most full of lying, whereby he sheweth both the former beast and the whole world: in that albeit he saith by his cunning, as it were by lime, made of the former beast a most miserable σκαλάρω or ananias, vsurped all his authoritie vnto him selfe, and most impudently exerciseth the same in the sight and viewe of him: yet he carrieth him selfe fo, as if he honoured him with most high honour, and did in verie good truth cause him to be reuerenced of all men.

16 For vnto this beast of Rome, which is a ciuill Empire is made an Ecclesiasticall hierarchy, are giuen diuine honors, and diuine authoritie: so farre, as it is belieued to be about the Scriptures, which the glossie vpon the Decretals declarth by this deuillish verbe.

Articulus soluit, synodusque facit generalis.

That is,

He changeth the Articles of faith, and giueth authoritie to general Councels.

Which is spoken of the Payall power. So the beast by birth, foundation, cause, and finally substance ouer: only the Pope hath altered the forme and manner thereof: being him selfe the head both of that tyrannical Empire, and also of the false Prophets: for the Empire hath been taken vnto him selfe, and thereto hath added this cunning deuile. Nowe these wordes, whose deadly wound was cured, are put here for distinction sake, as also sometime afterwards: thus then at that time the godly readers of this prophesie might by this figure be brought to see the thing as present: as if it were said, that they might adote this verie Empire that now is, whose head we haue seene in our owne memorie to haue bene cut off, and to be cured againe.

19 The second point of the things done by the beast, is the crueltie of great wonders or miracles, appertaining to the strengthening of this impietie: of which signes were giuen from above, as it is said that fire was sent downe from heauen by false force, in this verie. Others were shewed here below in the sight of the beast, to establish his empire, and deuide soules: which part Saint Iohn setteth forth, beginning (as they say) at that which is last in this manner: First the effect is declared in these wordes, Hee doth such holinesses of the earth. Secondly, the common manner of working, in two sortes: one of miracles, For the signes which were giuen him to do in the presence of the beast: the other of the wordes added vnto the signes, and teaching the idolatrie confirmed by those figures, Saying vnto the inhabitants of the earth, that they should make an image vnto that beast which dore. Thirdly, a speciall manner is declared, That so it giue power vnto him to put life into the image of the beast: and that with a kinde of quickening, that the same both speake by answer vnto those that aske counsell of it, and also pronounceth death against all those that do not obey nor worship it: all which things oftentimes by false miracles through the procurement and inspiration of the deuill, haue bene effected and wrought in images. The histories of the Papistes are full of examples of such miracles, the most of them false, manie also done by the deuill in images, as of olde in the Serpent, Genes. 3. 1. by which example is confirmed, not the authoritie of the beast, but the truth of God and of these prophesies.

21 In the Greeke the word is of the Dative case, as much to say, as vnto the worship, honour and obeying of the beast: for by this maintenance of images, this propheticall beast doth mightily profite the beast of Rome, of whom long ago hee recieued them. Wherefore the same is hereafter verily called the image of the beast, for that images have their beginning from the beast, and their forme or manner from the will of the beast; and haue their ende and vie fixed in the profite and commoditie of the beast.

22 And of this miracle of the image of the beast (that is, which the beast hath ordained to establish idolatrie) which miraculously speake, and giue iudgement, or rather marvellouslie, by the brand of the false prophesie, the Papistes bookes are full fraughted.

4 To the life of a Lamb, and lowly life: as it is said, the Lamb is lowly. That is, in law hee stumbled the Lamb (for what is lowly, as to more humble than to be the servant of God: but in deed hee played the part of the Dragon, and of the Lamb. For even Sathan chageth him selfe into an Angel of light, 2 Cor. 11. 14, and what should his honest disciples and servants be?

17 The historie of the actes of this beast; containeth in summe 3 things, by which the first is noted in this verse, the second in the third verse following: the third in the sixteenth verse. His pociffe is most full of lying, whereby he sheweth both the former beast and the whole world: in that albeit he saith by his cunning, as it were by lime, made of the former beast a most miserable σκαλάρω or ananias, vsurped all his authoritie vnto him selfe, and most impudently exerciseth the same in the sight and viewe of him: yet he carrieth him selfe fo, as if he honoured him with most high honour, and did in verie good truth cause him to be reuerenced of all men.

16 For vnto this beast of Rome, which is a ciuill Empire is made an Ecclesiasticall hierarchy, are giuen diuine honors, and diuine authoritie: so farre, as it is belieued to be about the Scriptures, which the glossie vpon the Decretals declarth by this deuillish verbe.

Articulus soluit, synodusque facit generalis.

Which is spoken of the Payall power. So the beast by birth, foundation, cause, and finally substance ouer: only the Pope hath altered the forme and manner thereof: being him selfe the head both of that tyrannical Empire, and also of the false Prophets: for the Empire hath been taken vnto him selfe, and thereto hath added this cunning deuile. Nowe these wordes, whose deadly wound was cured, are put here for distinction sake, as also sometime afterwards: thus then at that time the godly readers of this prophesie might by this figure be brought to see the thing as present: as if it were said, that they might adote this verie Empire that now is, whose head we haue seene in our owne memorie to haue bene cut off, and to be cured againe.

19 The second point of the things done by the beast, is the crueltie of great wonders or miracles, appertaining to the strengthening of this impietie: of which signes were giuen from above, as it is said that fire was sent downe from heauen by false force, in this verie. 7. And one of the 4 foure beastes gaue vnto the seven Angels seven golden vials, full of the wrath of God, who lieth for euermore.

8 And the Temple was filled with smoke proceeding from the maiestie of God, and from his power, and no man was able to enter into the Temple, till the seven plagues of the seven Angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

2 And 17 The Angels poure out the seven vials of Gods wrath giuen vnto them, and so diuerse plagues arise vnto the world, 18 to terrifie the wicked, 19 and the inhabitants of the great Citie.

1 When I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seven Angels, Go your wayes, & poure out the seven vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 The first Angell therefore went, and poured his viall vpon the earth: and there fell a noyfe, and a grievous sore vpon the men, which had the 3 marke of the beast, and vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 After the second Angell poured out his viall vpon the sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man: and euery liuing thing that liued in the sea, dyed.

4 Then the third Angell poured out his viall vpon the riuers and fountaines of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the Angell of the waters say, Lord, thou art heauy, Which art, and Which walk, and Which shalt be; because thou hast iudged these things.

6 For they shed the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuary say, Euen so, Lord God almightie; true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angell poured out his viall on the Sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men with heat of fire,

9 And men boyled in great heat, and blasphemed the wickedness of the world, the other generally against the whole world being wicked. And therefore their iudgements are figured more grievously then those.

10 The historie of the first Angell, whose plague vnto the earth is described almost in the same wordes with that first plague of the Egyptians, Exod. 9. But it doth signifie a spiritual vicer, and that torture or butcherie of conscience feared with a hate vpon, which accuteth the vngodly within and both, by truth of the word (the light whereof Gods wrath now so long shined forth) and by bitteresse, flintreth vp and forth out the sword of Gods wrath. See Chap. 15. 16. 4. The storie of the second Angell, who troubleth and melleth the seas, that he may fill up the consciences of men sleeping in their wickednesse for Chap. 8. 7. The storie of the third Angell, striking the riuers, in this verse who proclaiming the iudice of God, commendeth the fame by a most grosse comparison of the finnes of men with the punishment of God: which is common to this place, and that which went before. Wherefore also this praying is attributed vnto the Angell of the waters, a name common to the second and third Angels, according as both of them are sayd to be sent against the waters, albeit the one of the seas, the other of the riuers, in two verses. 6. A confirmation of the praye before going, out of the sanctuary of God, wherein graciously by Christ, our Lord, come out at his Angels: for Christ also is called another Angell Chapter 7. 1. 2. 3. and 14. 1.

11 The storie of the fourth Angell, who throweth a plague vpon the heauen and vpon the Sunne, of which Luke 21. 26. the effects whereof are noted too. The one peculiar, that it shall scorche men with heate in this verse. The other proceeding accidentally from the former, that their furie shall so much the more be enraged against God, in the next verse: when yett 6. wonderful mite and poeuer of God shall other creatures are first stricken often & grievously by the hand, or of God before mankind, by whom he is prouoked: as the things before going do declare.

phemed the Name of God, which hath power ouer these plagues; and they repeated not, to giue him glorie.

10 The fifth Angell poured out his viall vpon the throne of the beast, and his kingdome became darke, and they gnawed their tongues for sorrow:

11 And blasphemed the God of heauen for their paines, and for their forces, and repented not of their workes.

12 Then the sixth Angell poured out his viall vpon the great riuier 10 Euphrates; & the water thereof was dried vp, 13 that way might be prepared for the Kings that should come from the East.

13 And I saw come out of the mouth of the 14 Dragon, and out of the mouth of the 15 beast, & out of the mouth of that 16 false prophet 17 three vncleane spirits 17 like vnto frogs.

14 For they are the spirits of deuils, working miracles, and go vnto the Kings of the earth, & of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almighty.

15 Behold, I come as a theefe. Blessed is he that watcheth and keepeth his garments, least he walke naked, and men see his shuldringe.

16 Hereafter gathered them together into a place, called in Hebrew 20 Arma gedon.

17 The seventh Angell poured out his viall into the 22 ayre: and there came a loude voyce out of the Temple of heauen 23 from the

went to swell and overflow (as Ephraim) were dried vp, by the council of God. The euents, that neuer made these which the wicked are may that they may forme the iudgements of God, and abuse them furiously to serve their owne turne, and to the executing of their owne wicked outrage.

18 The bound of the spiritual Babylon, and the fourtenth of the same, Chap. 18.

19 So the Church of the vngodly, and kingdomes of the beast is byd beleft, naked, all the defences thereof, in which they put their trust, being away from it.

20 That is, that then they that dwell furthest off, may with more comend make halt vnto that face which the Lord hath appointed.

21 That is, the deuill, as Chapter 12. 3.

22 Whereof Chapter 15. 1.

23 That is, of that other beast, of which Chapter 13. 1. so he is called Chapter 19. 20. and 20. 10.

24 That is, euery of them bent their whole force, and conspired, that by waders, word, and worke they might bring into the same destruction all Kings, Princes and Potentates of the world, carefully bewitched of them by their spirits, and chiefe of the vntuile and impuritie of the beast that committed fornication with the Kings of the earth. And this is a right description of our times.

25 Croaking with all importunacie, and continually day and night prooking calling forth to armes, as the trumpets & furies of warre: as is declared in the next verse.

26 A parentesis for admonition, in which God warneth his holie seruants to rest in the expectation of Christ, alwayes to adreffe their myndes vnto his comen and to looke vnto themselves, that they be not thoughtfully made naked, and dremmed of these vncleane spirits, and so they be usefully vnpaured at the comen of their Lord, 16. Math. 24. 26. and 25. 13.

27 Namely the Angell, who holily accorded to the commendation of God was to do sacrilegious, notwithstanding that those impure spirits did him wicked as seruants not vnto God, but vnto that beast, that hath been heads.

28 That is (so say nothing of other exposition) the mountaine it selfe, or mountaine places of Megiddon. Now it is certaine by the holy Scripture, that Megiddon is a Citie and territorie in the Tribe of Manasse, bordering vpon Issachar and Aser: was made famous by that lamentable ouertrow of King Iosiah, whereof 2. Kings. 23. and 2. Chronic. 35. 22. and Zach. 12. 11. In this mountaine couertry God by figure or type, that the Kings of the peoples which serue the beast, shall meet together: because the Gentiles did alwayes call that lamentable ouertrow in the teeth of the Church of the Iewes, vnto their great reproch and therefore were swayed, that that place should be most fortunate vnto them (as they speak) to tinate vnto the pody. But God here pronounceth, that that reproch of the Church, and confidence of the w-godly, shall by himselfe be taken away, in the future place where the nations perswaded themselves, they should mightily exult in triumph against God and his Church.

29 The storie of the seventh Angell vnto the end of the Chapter, in which he shewed by figure and speech, the argument of this plague, in this verse: and he declared the execution thereof, in the verses following.

30 From whence he might moue the heauen above, and the earth beneath.

31 That is, from him that sitteth on the throne, by the figure call

11 It was turned into rain and filly blood, such as is in sea beasts.

F. I. IV. I. V. S.

12 In the former Chapter was set down the preparation into the worke of God: here is declared the execution thereof. And in this discourse of the execution is a general commendation in this verse, then a particular recital in order of the execution done by euery of the seven Angels, in the rell of the Chapter. This special execution against Antichrist & his crew, doth in manner agree vnto that which was generally done vpon the whole world, Chapter 8. and 9. & belongeth (if my coniecture faile me not) vnto the same time. Yet herein they do differ one from another, that this was particularly effected vpon the Princes and rulers of the wickedness of the world, the other generally against the whole world being wicked. And therefore their iudgements are figured more grievously then those.

throne, saying, ²⁴ It is done.
²⁵ And there were sounds, and lightnings and thunders, and there was a great earthquake, such as neuer was since me were vpon the earth, I say I mightie an earthquake.

³⁰ And euery yle fled away, and the mountaynes ³⁰ were not found.

As is described in this Chapter and the last, containing a perfect victorie, is described in the following. ¹ Now I declared the execution (as I sayd), in the things that shall fall come to passe in heauen and in earth, before the ouerthrowing of the head of Babylon: both generally, verse 8, and particularly in the curied and fish as haue any familiaritie therewith, in the three last verses: ²⁶ That haueing place of Antichrist. ²⁷ Of all such as cleaue vnto Antichrist, and Antichrist. ²⁸ That harlot of whom in the Chapter next following, Now she is come into remembrance, as is the common vse of the Hebrew Ipeach, and as is attributed vnto God. ²⁹ That is, were fierce no more, or more extreme. and getting victorie, as I shewed before in the beginning of the tenth Chapter, set forth in 4. Chapters. As in the place before going I noted, that in the order of history, that is it distinguished according to the persons of which it is, and that in the several Rories of the persons is generally observed the time. For first is delivered the storie of Babylon destroyed, in this and the next Chapter. Babylon out of all doubt, shall perish before the two beastes and the thirdly is delivered the destruction of both the two beastes, Chapter 19. and the Dragon, chap. 20. In the Rorie of the spiritual Rabbies are distinctly set forth, in this chapter, and the overthrow done fro God, chap. 18. In this verse, in this Chapter, is a citation or passage vnto the first argument, consisting of a testimony of the Prophet (as often heretofore) a general prophecie. ² That is, the same harlot, by a figure called hyp. 1. 1. For Iohn sayet had not scene her, but another interpretation may be borne, yet I like this better. ³ Henceforth shall the type of Babylon, and the fate there of, in 4. verses. After a declaration in the rest of this Chap. In the type are declared 3. things, the beast of the Rorie, the verse, and the woman that sitteth vpon the beast, verse 4, 5, 6. In the process of time hath ported somewhat more there was expressed in the verse. First in that it is not read before that he was apparelled in skarlet, a robe red of triumph. Secondly, in that this is full of names of blasphemie: the same name of blasphemie only in his heades. So God did teach that the same was increased in impie and vniuitie, and doeth in this last age, triumph in the same insolently and proudly then euer before. ⁴ That harlot, the spiritual Rabbies, which Rome. It is described by her attire, profession, and deeds, which must glorious triumph, most rich, and most glorious.

skarlet, and glittering with gold, and precious stones, and pearles; ⁹ and had a cup of gold in her hand, full of the abominations, and filthinesse of her fornications;

⁵ ⁷ And in her forehead a name written, A Mylerie; ⁸ that great Babylon, that mother of the whoredomes, and abominations of the earth.

⁸ ¹² The beast that thou hast scene, ¹³ was, and is not: ¹⁴ and shall ascend our of the bottomlesse pit, and shall go into perdition, and the inhabitants of the earth shall wonder (whose names are not written in the booke of life from the foundation of the world) ¹⁵ whe they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

⁹ ¹⁶ Here is the mind that hath wisdom. The se-

7. Deceiving with the title of Religion, and publike inscription of mystery: which the beast in times past did not bear. 8. An exposition: in which 5. Iohn declareth what manner of woman this is. 9. In manner of deedes: She is red with blood, and sheddeth it most licentiously, and therefore is coloured with the blood of the Saints: as on the contrary part, Christ is set forth imbrued with the blood of his enemies, I say 13. 10. A passage vnto the second part of this chap. by occasion giue place to Iohn, say the wordes of the Angell do they in the next verse. 11. The second part of the place, as I sayd verse 1. The enaration of the woman, yronied in this verse, & deluised in the verse following. Now there is delivered first an enaration of the beast, & his Rorie, vnto the 14. verse. After, of the harlot, vnto the end of the chap. 13. The Rorie of the beast hath a triple description of him. The first is a distinction of this beast fro all that euer haue bene at any time: which distinction is contained in this verse: The second is a delimitation or painting out of the beast by things present, by which he might euen at that time be knowne of the godly: and this delimitation is according to his heades, verse 10, 11. The third is an historical foretelling of things to come, and to be done by him: and these are ascribed vnto his Rorie, verse 12, 13, 14. This beast is that Empire of Rome, of which I spake chapter 13: according to the mutations and changes whereof, which then had already happened, the holy Ghost hath distinguished and set out the fame. The Apostle distinguisheth this beast from all others in these wordes: The beast which thou sawest, was and is not: For I expound the wordes of the Apostle for euidence sake: as I will further declare in the note following.

12. The meaning is, that beast which thou sawest before (chapter 13), & which yet thou hast now scene, was (I say) euen from Iulius Cesar, in respect of beginning, rising, v. p. nation, glorie, dominion, manner and flocke, from the house of Iulius: and yet is not now the fame, if thou looke vnto the house and flocke: for the dominion of this familie, was translated vnto another, after the death of Nero, from that other vnto a third, from the third vnto a fourth, and so forth, was varied and altered by innumerable changes. Finally, the Empire is one, as it were one beast: but exceedingly varied by kindreds, families, and persons. It was therefore (saith Saint Iohn) the kindreds or house of Iulius: and now is not in that kindred, but translated vnto another.

14. As if he should say, Also this fame that is, shall shortly not be: but shall ascend out of the depth, or out of the sea (as was sayd Chapter 13), that is, shall be a new Rorie from amongst the nations without difference, and shall in the time Rorie go vnto destruction, or ruine, and perish: and so shall successively new Princes or Emperours come, and go, arise and fall, the bodie of the beast remaining still, but tuffed with so manie and often alterations, as no man can but maruell that this beast was able to stand and hold out, in so manie mutations. Verlie no Empire that euer was tuffed with so many changes, and as it were with so manie tempests of the sea, euer continued so long.

15. That is, manie as haue not learned the prouidence of God, according to the faith of the Saints shall maruell at their pious and often changes: when they shall consider, the selfe fame beast, which is the Romaine Empire, to haue bene, not to be, and to be, and still molested with perpetual mutation, and yet in the fame to stand and continue. This, in mine opinion, is the most simple exposition of this place, confirmed by euent of the things themselves. Although the last change also, by which the Empire, that before was ciuill, became Ecclesiastical, is not obscurely signified in these wordes: of which two, the first is expressed cruetie vnto the bodies of the Saintes: the other also vnto their soules: the first by humane order and policie, the other vnder the colour of the law of God, and of Religion, aged and imbued it selfe with the blood of the godly.

16. An exhortation preparing vnto audience, by the same argument, with that of Christ: He that hath eares to here, let him here. Wherefore for mine owne part, I had rather read in this place, Let there be here a miracle, &c. So the Angell putteth fully vnto the second place of this description.

partakers of her finnes, and that ye receiue not of her plagues.

5 For the heape of her finnes doth reach vnto heauē, & God hath remebred her iniquities.
6 Reward her, eue as she hath rewarded you; & giue her double according to her workes: and in the cup that she hath filled to you, fill her double.

7 So much as the hath glorified her self, & liued in pleasure, so much giue to her of torment and sorow: because the faith is in her heart, I fit as a queene, & am no widow, & shall slee no mourning.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and sorow, and famine; and she shall be burnt with fire: for the Lord God which condemneth her is mighty.

9 Then the Kings of the earth shall bewaile her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and liued in pleasure with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 And shall stand a farre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great Citie Babylon, that mighty Citie: one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 Also the marchants of the earth shall weep & wail ouer hir: for no man buyeth their ware any more.

12 The ware of gold and siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linnen, and of purple, & of silke, and of skarlet: and of all manner of Thynewood, and of all vessels of yuorie, and of all vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, & of yron, and of marble,

13 And of cinnamon, and odours, & ointments, and frankensence, & wine, & oyle, and fine flour, and wheate, and beastes, and sheepe, and horses, and charets, and seruants, and soules of men.

14 And the Apples that thy soule lusteth after, are departed from thee; and all things which were fat and excellent, are departed from thee; and thou shalt find them no more.

15 The marchants of these things which were waxed rich by her, shall stand a farre off from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and wailing.

16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great Citie, that was clothed in fine linnen and purple, and skarlet, and glittered with gold, and precious stone, and pearles! That in one houre are so great riches come to defolation.

17 Also euery shipmaster, and all the people that occupie ships, and shipmen, and whosoever trafficked on the sea shall stand a farre off,

18 And cry, whē they see the smoke of her burning, saying, what Citie was like vnto this great city?

19 And they shall cast dust vnto their heads, and cry weeping, and wailing, and say, Alas, alas, that that great Citie, wherein were made rich all that had ships on the sea by her coslinesse, is in one houre made desolate.

20 O heauen, reioyce ouer her, and ye holy Apostles and Prophetes; because God hath punished her, to be reuenged for your sakes.

21 Then a mighty Angell tooke vp a stone like a great millstone, & cast it into the sea, saying, So shall that great Citie Babylon be cast with violence, and shall be found no more.

22 And the voyce of Harpers, & Musicians, & of pipers, & trumpeters shall be heard no more in thee; and no crafts-man, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more in thee: and the voyce of the bridegrome & of the bride shall be heard no more in thee: for thy marchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine enchantments were deceiued all nations.

24 And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, & of the Saints, & of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The brauely companye praye God; for auenging the blood of his seruants, on the whore. 9 They are written blessed, that are called to the Lambes supper. 10 The Angell will not be worshipped.

11 That mighty King of Kings appeareth from brauen. 12 The battell, 20 wherein the beast is taken. 21 and cast into the burning lake.

1 After these things I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauē, saying, A Hal- lelu-iah, saluation, and glorie, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God.

2 For true & righteous are his iudgements: for he hath condemned that great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath auenged the blood of his seruants at her hand.

3 And againe they sayd, Hallelu-iah: & her smoke rose vp for euermore.

4 And the foure and twentie Elders, and the foure beasts fell downe, and worshipped God that sitteth on the throne, saying, Amen, Hallelu-iah.

5 Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, both small and great.

6 And I heard a like the voyce of a great multitude, and as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of strong thundrings, saying, Hallelu-iah: for the Lord that almighty God doth now reigne.

7 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and giue glorie to him: for the marriage of the Lambe is come, & his wife hath prepared her selfe.

8 And to her it is granted, that she should be arrayed with pure fine linnen and shining; for the fine linnen is the righteousness of the Saints. The former praye hath three branches, distinguished after the ancient manner of those that sing Antiphona, that is, an imitation or preouocation in two verses, Antiphona a response or answer in the third verse and alleluia a close or saying together in harmonie: all which I thought good purpose to distinguish in this place, least any man should be troubled, or other like dogges obeyed to S. Iohn or the heavenly Church, a childish and idle repetition of verses. The proposition of praye with exhortation in this verse, and the cause thereof, in the next verse.

9 The song of the Antiphone or response, containing an amplification of the praye of God, from the perperuall and most certaine testimonie of his diuine iudgement: as was done at Sodome and Gomorrah. Gene. 19. 4. The second place of praye (as I sayd verse 1) which first is commanded from God in this verse: and then is in most ample manner pronounced of the creatures, both because they see that kingdome of Christ, to whom, which most they desire verse 6. and also because they see that the Church is called forth to be brought home into the house of her husband, by holy marriage, vnto the fellowship of his kingdome verse 7. 8. Wherefore S. Iohn is commanded to write into a booke the Epiphonae or exclamation ioynt with a diuine testimonie verse 9.

10 Out of the Temple from Ioyd, 21. 19.

* Jerem. 51. 43. 14 The events are two, & one of them appoynted vnto the other for amplification sake. There shall be a destruction of Babylon no mirrour as yet, in this & the next verse: but a legacy & lamentable thing, a bloody slaughter of the righteous, & the vengeance of God coming vpon it for the same.

15 That is, as if by bloody massacres, and calling for vengeance.

16 That is, as if God had appointed a just engine consisting the impetuous, vancious, & vniuall of his men.

17 That is, as if God had appointed a just engine consisting the impetuous, vancious, & vniuall of his men.

19 This Chapter hath in summe two parts, one transitory or of passage vnto the things that follow, vnto the 10. 21. versen after a historical of the victory of Christ gone against both the beasts, vnto the end of the chapt. which I sayd was the second history of this argument chapt. 17. In the transition hath a place, one of praying God for the overthrow done vnto Babylon in 4. verses: & another likewise of praye, & Prophecy, for the coming of Christ into his kingdome and his royall marriage with his Church, thence vnto the 10. versen.

^m The second place of this Chapter (as of the victorie gotten by Christ against both the beastes: in which first Christ is described as one readie to fight, vnto the 10 Then he said vnto me, Write, * Blessed are they which are called vnto the supper of the marriage of the Lambe. And hee said vnto me, These words of God are true.

11 And I fel down before his feet, * to worship him: but he said vnto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow seruant, & of thy brethren, which haue the c^c testimonie of Iesus. Worship God: for the testimonie of Iesus is the spirit of prophecie.

12 After I saw ¹³ heauen open, and behold a white horse, and he that sat vpon him, was called, faithful and true, and he that iudgeth and fighteth righteously.

12 And his eyes were as a flame of fire; and on his head were many crownes: and hee had a name written, that no man knew but himselfe.

13 And he was clothed with a garment dipped in blood, and his name is called, THE WORD OF GOD.

14 And the hostes which were in heauen, followed him vpon white horses, clothed with fine linnen white and pure.

15 And out of his mouth went forth a sharpe sword, that with it he sh^d smite the heathen: for he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he it is that shall tread the wine presse of the fiercenesse and wrath of almightie God.

16 And he had vpon his garment, and vpon his thigh a name written, * THE KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 Then I saw a certaine Angel stand in the sunne, who cried with a loud voyce, saying to all the foules that did sit through ¹⁹ the midst of heauen, Come, and gather your selues together vnto the supper of the great God,

18 That ye may eate the flesh of kings, and the flesh of high Captaines, and the flesh of mig^tie men, and the flesh of offhorles, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all free men, & bondmen, and of small and great.

19 After I saw the beast, & the kings of the earth, and their hostes gathered together to make battell against him that sat on the horse, and against his armie.

20 And the beast ²¹ was taken, and with him that ²² falsse prophet that wrought miracles before him, whereby he deceived them that receiued the bea^st's marke, and them that worshipped his image: These both were cast aliue into a lake of fire, burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sat vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth; and all the foules were filled with his spirit.

22 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sat vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth; and all the foules were filled with his spirit.

23 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sat vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth; and all the foules were filled with his spirit.

24 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sat vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth; and all the foules were filled with his spirit.

25 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sat vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth; and all the foules were filled with his spirit.

26 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sat vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth; and all the foules were filled with his spirit.

27 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sat vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth; and all the foules were filled with his spirit.

28 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sat vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth; and all the foules were filled with his spirit.

29 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sat vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth; and all the foules were filled with his spirit.

1 The Angel ² bindeth Satan for a thousand years: ³ Being loosed, he stirreth vp Gog and Magog, that is, priuie and open enemies, against the Saints, ⁴ but the vengeance of the Lord cutteth off their inuolucres. ⁵ The bookes are opened, by which the dead are iudged.

1 After I saw an Angel come downe from heauen, hauing the key ² of the bottomlesse pit, and a great chaine in his hand.

2 And he tooke the dragon that old serpent, which is the deuill and Satan, and he bound him for 3 a thousand years.

3 And he cast him into the bottomlesse pit, which he shut vp, and sealed vpon him, that he might deceiue the people ⁴ no more, till the thousand years were fulfilled: for after that he must be loosed for 5 a litle season.

4 Then I saw ⁵ 7 thrones: and they sat vpon them, and iudgement was giuen vnto them; and I saw the foules of them that were ⁶ beheaded for the witnesse of Iesus, and for the word of God, and which did ⁷ not worship the bea^st, neither his image, neither had taken his marke vpon their foreheads, or on their hands: and they shall liue, and raigne with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead men ⁶ shall not liue againe, vntill the thousand years be finished: this is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he, that hath part in the first resurrection: for on such the ⁷ second death hath no power: but they shall be the Priestes of God and of Christ, ⁸ and shall raigne with him a thousand years.

7 And when the ⁸ thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, into euertlasting punishment, thence vnto the 10. verse. This first historie happened in the first time of the Christian Church, when the dragon throwne downe from heauen. Christ went about to molle the new birth of the Church in the earth chapter 12. For that cause I gaue warning that this storie of the dragon, must be remembered at that place. 1 That is, of hell, whither God threw downe the Angel which he had, and bound them in chains of darknesse to be kept vnto damnation. 2 Pet. 2. 4.

3 The first whereof continuing this historie with the end of the 12. Chapter the 36. years of the passion of Christ when the Church of the lower being ouercome Satan assayed to invade the Christian church gathered of the Gentiles, and to de- part of her feed. chapter 12. 17. The thousand years fallen precisely upon the time that wicked Hildebrand, who was called Gregorie the fourth, a small downy cronometer and forerunner, whom Satan vied as an instrument when he loosed bonds, thenceforth to annoy the Saints of God with most cruel persecution, as whole world with diffension and most bloudie warres: as Benzo the Cardinal saith at last. And this is the first victorie gotten ouer the dragon in the earth.

4 Namely with that publike and violent deceipt which he attempted before. 1. and which after a thousand years (as I sayd) he most mightily persecuted the Christian world. 5 Which being once expired, the second battell and victorie be, of which verse 7. 8. A declaration of the common state of the Church of the earth, in that place of a thousand years, for which the deuill was in bonds: in the first the authentic life, and common honour of the gally is declared, verse 6. newnesse of life is preached vnto others by the Gospell, after that (pace, verse 6) he conclude with promises. verse 6. 7 This was a type of the authentic good and faithfull seruants of God in the Church: taken from the manner of the 8 Of the Martyrs, which suffered in those first times. 9 The martyrs suffered after that the bea^st were now risen vp, chapter 17. for these times are expounded. 10 Whosoever shall lie dead in sinne, and not knowe their God.

11 They shall not be reuewed with that newnesse of life by the enlightning of the Gospell of the glorie of Christ. For this is the first resurrection, by which foules of the gally do rise from their death. In the second resurrection their bodies shall rise and be iudged vnto euertlast death. See Chapter 2. 11. 12. Accorde the intended historie by refusing the wordes which are in the end of the fourth.

13 The second historie, of the later victorie of Christ, as was sayd ver. which are summarily described the worke, ouerthrowne, and eternal punishment of Satan.

15 Of which I spake verse 2. Then therefore shall be giuen vnto him liberte faithful shall haue associated them selues more then was merite, taking with their impurity of doctrine and of life.

Camprinslegio.

THE WHOLE Booke of Psalmes.

Collected into English meetre, by Thomas
Sternhold, John Hopkins, and others, conserred
With the Hebrue, with apt Notes to sing them withall.

Set forth and allowed to be sung in all churches, of all the people together before and after morning and evening praier: as also before and after sermons and moreover in private houses, for their godlie solace and comforte, laien apart all vngodlie songs, and balades, which tend onelie to the nourishing of vice, and corrupting of youth.

JAMES. V.

If anie be afflicted, let him praise, if anie be merie, let him sing Psalmes.

Colossians, 3.

Let the word of God dwell plenteouslie in you, in al wisedome, teaching and exhorting one another in Psalmes, Hymnes, and spirituall songs, and sing vnto the Lord in your harts.

LONDON

Printed by John Waindet for the Assignes of Richard Daye. 1598.

To the reader.

(Hou shalt understand (gentle Reader) that I haue for the helpe of those that are desirous to learne to sing) caused a new print of Note to be made with letters to be ioyned to euerie Note: Whereby thou maiest know, how to call euerie Note by his right name, so that with a verie little diligence (as thou art taught in the introduction printed hecetofores in the Psalmes) thou mayest the more easilie by the viewing of these letters, come to the knowledge of perfect Solefayeng: whereby thou mayest sing the psalmes the more speedilie and easilie: The letters be these, V for Vt. R for Re. M for My. F for Fa. S for Sol. L for La. Thus where you see any letter ioyned by the note, you may easilie call him by his right name, as by these two examples you may the better perceine.

Thus I commit thee vnto him that liueth for euer, who grant that we sing with our hartsvnto the glorie of his holy name.

Amen.

Veni Creator. The humble sute of a Sinner.

Ome holy Ghost, eternall

God proceeding fro above

Both from the Father and the Sonne the God of peace and lone. Visite our minds and into vs, thy heavenly grace inspire: That in all truth and godlines,

we may haue true desire.

Thou art the very comforter,
in all woe and distress:

The heavenly gift of God most high which no tongue can expresse.

The fountaine And the lively spring of joy celestiall:

The fire to brighte, the lone so cleare,
and unction spirituall.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold, whereby Christs Church both stand:

In faithful hartes waiting thy law,
the finger of Gods hand.

According to thy promise make thou quick speech of grace:

That through thy helpe the praise of God,
may stand in euer place.

O holy Ghost into our mindes.

Lead downe thy heavenly light:
Kindle our hartes with serene loue,

to seeke God day and night.
Strengthen and stablish all our weaknes,

so feble and so fraille:
That neither flesh, the world nor diuell against vs do preuaile.

Put backe our enemies far from vs,
and graunt vs to obtaine

Peace in our hartes with God and man, without geirde or disdaine.

And graunt O Lord, that thou being,
our leader and our guide,

We may euen in the flames of sinne,
and from thee neuer slide.

To vs such plenty of thy grace,
good Lord graunt we thee pray:

That thou may be our comforter,
at the last dreadfull day.

Of all strife and dissention,

O Lord dissolve the bandes:
And make the moort of peace and lone,
throught all Christian landes.

Grant vs O Lord through thee to know
the farther moort of night:

That of his deare beloued Sonne,
we may attaine the light.

And that with perfect faith also,
we may acknowledge thee:

The spirit of them both alway,
one God in persons thre,

Land and prayse be to the Father,
and to the sonne equall:

And to the holy spirit also,
one God coeternall,

And pray we that thy onely Sonne, doun safe thy spirit send:

To all that do profess his name,
vnto the worldes end.

The humble sute of a Sinner. M.

O Lord of whom I doe depend, behold my carefull hart: And when thy will and pleasure is, release me of my smart. Thou seest my sorowes what they are, my griefe is known to thee: And there is none that can remoue, or take the same from me.

But onely thou whose aide I crave,

whose mercy still is prest:

To ease all those that come to thee,
for succour and for rest.

And hee thou seest my restless eyes,

my teares and grievous grones:

Attend vnto my suer (O Lord)

make well my plaint and moane.

For sinne hath so inclosed me, and compass me about:

That I am now remedlesse,
if mercy helpe not out.

For mortall man can not release,
or mitigate this paine:

But euen thy Christ my Lord and God which for my sinnes was slain, to host bloudie wounds as yet to see, through

Venite exultemus.

though not with mortall eyes
Yet do thy fainter behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.
Though mine doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see thy good:
I shall enjoy the sight of him,
and see his wounds and blood.

And as thine Angels and thy Saints,
do now behold the same:
So trust I to possess that place,
with them to praise thy name.
But while I live here in this vale,
where sinners do frequent:
Assist me ever with thy grace,
my sinnes still to lament.

Least that I tread in sinners trace,
and grieve them my content:
To dwell with them in wickedness,
whereof nature is bent.
Onely thy grace must be my stay,
least that I fall downe flat:
And being downe then of my selfe, can not recover that.

Wherefore this is yet once againe,
my sute and my request:
To graunt me pardon for my sinnes,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart, my tongue & voice,
be instruments of prayer:
And in the Church and house of Saints sing praises to thee alwaies.

Venite exultemus. PALXCv.

Sing this as the Benediclus.

O Come and let vs now reioice,
And sing vnto the Lord:
And to our onely Saviour,
Alto with one accord.
O let vs come before his face,
With inward reuerence:
Confessing all our former sinnes,
And that with diligence.
To thank him for his benefites, Alway distributing:
Wherefore to him right sofly,
In Psalmes now let vs sing.
And that because that God alone;
Is Lord magnificient:
And he above all other Gods,
A King omnipotent.
His people doth not he forsake,
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coastes,
Of all the world so wide.
And with his loving countenance
He looketh every where:
And doth behold the tops of all
The mountanes far and nere.
The sea and all that therein,
Are his, for he them made:
And he his hand hath fastened
The earth which doth not fade.
O come therefore and worship him;
And downe before him fall:
And let vs weepe before the Lord:
The which hath made vs all.

Te Deum.

He is our God, our Lord and King
And we his people are:
His flock and sheepe of his pasture
On whom he taketh care.
This day if ye will begin his voice
Yet harden not your hart:
As in the bitter murmuring
Whiche were in desert.

Which thing was of their negligence,
Committed in the time:
Of trouble in the wilderness
A great and grievous crime.

Wherefore your fathers tempted me,
And tryed me every way:
They shamed me and saw my workes
What I could do or say.

These forty years I have bene grieved
With all this generation:
And evermore I said they erred,
In their imagination.

Wherewith their hearts were sore cobbyed,
Long time and many daies:
Wherefore I know assuredly,
They haue not known my waies.

To whom I in mine anger sware,
That they should not be blessed Nor see my gloryfull,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria patri.

All laud and praise be to the Lord
O that of mightie art most:
To God the Father and the Sonne,
And to the holy Ghost.

As it in the beginning was
For ever heretofore:
And is now at this present time,
And shall be evermore.

The song of S. Ambrose called Te Deum.

W^e praise thee God, we know ledge thee, the onely Lord to be: And as eternal father, all the earth doth worship thee. To thee all Angels cry, the heavens and all the powers therein,

To thee Cherub and Seraphin, to cry thydonorin.

Te Deum. The song of the three Children

O holy, holy, holy Lord, of Sabbath Lord the God: (spread) Through heauen and earth thy praise and glory all abroad.
Thy praises glorious companie,
yeild praises vnto thee:
The Prophets goodly fellowship, praise thee continually.

The noble and victorious host,
of Martyrs found thy prayse:
The holy Church throughout the world,
doth know ledge thee alwayes.
Father of endless Mercie,
they do acknowledge thee:
Thy Christ thyne honorable true,
and onely sonne to bee.

The holy Ghost the comforter,
of glory thou art King:
O Christ and of the Father art
the sonne everlasting.
When sinfull man in hand,
thou tookest to rescue:
To be inchoke in virgins wombe,
thou diddest not abhorre.

When thou hadst overcome of death,
the sharpe and cruell might:
Thou heauenly kingdom hadst set ope,
to each belienting wight.
In glory of the Father thou dost sit on Gods right hand:
We trust that thou shalt come our iudge
our cause to vnderstand.

Lord helpe thy seruants whom thou hast, bought with thy precious blood:
And in eternall glory, set them with thy Saints so good.
O Lord do thou thy people saue,
blessed thine intertance:
Lord governe them and Lord do thou for euer them aduance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
and world withouten end:
Adore thy holy name, O Lord touchsafe vs to defend from sinne this day, haue mercy Lord, haue mercy on vs all:
And on vs as we trust in thee,
Lord let thy mercy fall.

O Lord I haue repoted all my confidence in thee:
Wot to confounding shame therefore,
Lord let me neuer bee.

blessed be the Lord, &c.
- Ye holy and ye meek of hart
blessed be the Lord, &c.
- 32 O Ananias blessed be the Lord,
blessed thou the Lord, &c.
- 33 O Sarias blessed be the Lord
blessed thou the Lord, &c.
- And all (saith) blessed thou the Lord,
blessed thou the Lord, &c.

Benedictus.

Benedictus. Luke 1. Zacharias

The onely Lord of Israel, be prayd evermore: For through his visitation and mercy kept in store, his people now he hath redeemed, That long hath been in thral: And spread abroad his saving health, Upon his servants all.

In Dauid's house his seruante true,
 According to his mind:
 And also his annointed king,
 As we in scripture find.
 As by his holy Prophets all,
 Oft times he did declare:
 The which were since the world began,
 His waies for to prepare.

That wermight be deliuered,
 From those that make debate:
 Our enemies and from the hands,
 Of all that do vs hate.
 The mercy which he promised,
 Our fathers to fulfill:
 And thinke vpon his couenant made,
 According to his will.

And also to performe the oth,
 Which he before had sworn:
 To Abraham our Father deare,
 For vs that were forlorne.
 That he would giue himselfe for vs;
 And vs from bondage bring:
 Out of the hands of all our foes,
 To serue our heavenly King.

And that without all manner feare,
 And eke in rightcousnesse:
 And also for to leade out life,
 In stedfast holinesse.
 And thou O Child which now art borne
 And of the Lord elect:
 Shalt be the Prophet of the highest,
 His waies for to direct.

For thou shalt goe before his face,
 For to prepare his waies:
 And also for to reach his will,
 And pleasure all thy dayes.
 To giue them knowledg how that thes Salvation is neere:
 And that remission of their finnes,
 Is through his merrie meere.

Whereby the day spring from on high,

Magnificat.

It come vs for to blesse:
 And those for to illuminate,
 Which do in darknesse sit.
 To lighten those that shadowed be,
 With death, and the opposit:
 And also for to guide their foete,
 The way to peace and rest.

Magnificat. Luke. 1. Mary.

My soule doth magnifie the Lord, my spirit eke evermore: Reioyced in the Lord my God, Which is my Saviour.
 And why? because he did regard, And gaue respect vnto, So base estate of his handmaide, And let the mighty gae.
 For now behold all nations,
 And generations all:
 From this time forth for evermore,
 Shall me right blessed call.
 Because he hath me magnified,
 Which is the Lord of might:
 Whose name he ever sanctified,
 And prayd day and night.
 For with his mercy and his grace,
 All men he doth exalme:
 Throughout all generations,
 To such as feare his name.
 He shewed strength with his great arms
 And made the proud to barre:
 With all Imaginations,
 That they bare in their heart.

He hath put downe the mighty ones,
 From their supernall seate:
 And did exalt the mecke in heart,
 As he hath thought it meet.
 The hungry he replenished,
 With all thinges that were good:
 And though his power he made the rich,
 Oft times to want their foode.
 And calling to remembrance,
 His merrie enemy deale:
 Hath holpen by assistantly,
 His seruant Israel.
 According to his promise made,
 To Abraham before:
 And to his seede successfully,
 To stand for evermore.

Lord, because my hartes desire

My hart wished long to see, thy sonne? Lord and Saviour, Thy sonne before I dre.

The top & heath of all mankind, desired long before: which now is come into the world, Of mercy bringing store.

Thou suffered thy servant now,
In peace for to depart:

According to thy holy word,

Which lighteneth my heart.

Because mine eyes which thou hast made

To give my body light:

Have now beheld thy saving health,

Which is the Lord of might.

Whom thou mercifully hast set,

Of thine abundant grace:

In open light and visible,

Before all peoples face.

The Gentiles to illuminate,

And Satan overquell:

And he to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

Quicunque vult. Athanasius.

What man soener he be, that tak union will attayne: The Catholick bo:

liefe he must before all things receyve.

Which sayth unless hee holy hope, and undeniedly: Without all doubt eter:

nally, he shall sure to dye.

The Catholick beliefe is this,
that God we worship one,
in Trinitie, and Trinitie

Quicunque vult.

in Trinitie alone.

So as we neither do confound,

the persons of the three:

Ne yet the substance whole of one,

in sunder parted be.

One person of the Father is, an other of the Sonne:

An other person proper of the holy Ghost alone.

Of Father, Sonne and holy Ghost,

but one the Godhead is:

Like glory coeternall eke,

the Majesty likewise.

Such as the Father is, such is the Sonne in each degree:

And such also we do believe,

the holy Ghost to be.

Uncreat is the Father, and uncreat is the Sonne:

The holy Ghost uncreat, is uncreat is each one.

Incomprehensible Father is, incomprehensible Sonnet

And comprehensible also is, the holy Ghost of none.

The Father is eternall, and the Sonne eternall so:

And in like sort eternall is,

the holy Ghost also.

And yet though we believe, that each of these eternall be:

Yet there but one eternall is,

and not eternalls thre.

As ne incomprehensible we,

ne yet uncreat at thre:

But one incomprehensible, one uncreat hold to be.

Almightie so the Father is,

the Sonne almightie so:

And in like sort almightie is,

the holy Ghost also.

And albeit that every one,

of these almightie be.

Yet there but one almightie is,

and not almighties thre.

The Father God is, God the Sonne.

God holy Ghost also:

Yet are there not thre Gods at all,

but one God and no moe.

So likewise Lord the Father is,

and Lord also the Sonne:

And Lord the holy Ghost, yet are there not thre Lords but one.

For as we are compelled to grant,

by Christian verities:

Each of the persons by himselfe,

both God and Lord to be.

So Catholike religion,

forbiddeth us alway:

That either Gods be thre, or that thre Lorden be thre to say.

Of none the Father is, ne made,

ne creat, nor begot:

The Sonne is of the Father, not creat, ne made, but got.

The holy Ghost is of them both,

the Father and the Sonne:

Ne made, ne creat, nor begot,

but both proceed alone.

The Simbole or Creede of Achanafius. The Lamentation.

So we one Father hold, nor three,
one Sonne also nor three:
One holy Ghost alone, and not three holy Ghosts to be.
None in this Trinitie, before nor after other is:
No greater any then the rest,
no lesser be likewise.

But every one among them felung,
of all the persons three:
Together coeternall all,
and all coequall be.
So Writte in Trinitie,
as saide it is before:
And Trinitie in Writte,
in all thinges we adoe.

Therefore what man foruer, that saluation will attaine:
This faith touching the Trinitie, of force he must retaine.
And needfull to eternall life,
it is that every wight:
Of the incarnating of Christ,
our Lord beleeue aright.

For this the right faith is, that we believe and eke do know:
That Christ our Lord the Sonne of God, is God and man also.
God of his Fathers substance got
before the world began:
And of his mothers substance, borne in world a very man.

Both perfect God and perfect man,
in one, one Jesus Christ:
That both of reasonable soule,
and humane flesh subsist.
Touching his Godhead equall with his Father God is hee:
Touching his manhood, lower then his Father in degree.

Who though he be both very God,
and very man also:
Yet is he but one Christ alone,
and is not persons two.
One not by turning of Godhead,
into the flesh of man:
But by taking manhood to God,
this being one began.

All one, not by confounding of the substance into one:
But onely by the unity,
that is of one person.
For as the reasonable soule,
and flesh but one man is:
So in one person God and man,
is but one Christ likewise.

Who suffered for to save us all,
to hell he did descend:
The third day rose againe from death,
to heauen he did ascend.
He sits at the right hand of God,
the almightie Father there.
From thence to iudge the quick and dead,
againe he shall retire.

At whose returne all men shall rise,

with bodies new restor'd:
And of their owne workes they shall giue, account unto the Lord.
And they into eternall life,
shall goe that haue done well:
Who haue done ill, shall goe into eternall dee to dwell.

This is the Catholike belief,
whodoe not fawfully:
Believe the same, without all doubt he saved can not be.
To Father, Sonne and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

The Lamentation of a Sinner. M.

Lord turne not away thy face, from him that lieth prostrate: Lamenting for his sinfull life, Before thy mercy gate. Which gate thou openest wide to those, that do lament their sin: But not that gate against me Lord, But let me enter in.

And call me not to mine accomptes,
How I haue lined here:
For then I knowe right well (O Lord)
How vile I shall appeare.
I neede not to confesse my life,
I am sure thou canst tell:
What I haue bene and what I am,
I knowe thou knowest it well.

O Lord thou knowest what things be past,
And eke the things that be:
Thou knowest also what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee. (made,
Before the heauens and earth were Thou knowest what things were then,
As all things els that haue bene since,
Among the fountes of men.

And can the things that I haue done,
Be hidden from thee then?
Nay, nay, thou knowest them all (O Lord)
Where they were done and when.
Wherefore with teares I come to thee
To beg and to entreat:

The Lordes Prayer: The x. Commandements.

When as the child that hath done euill
And feareth to be beaten.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
Wher mercy doth abound:
Requiring mercy for my sinne,
To heale my deadly wound.
O Lord I neede not to repeat,
What I do beg of thee:
Thou knowest O Lord before I aske,
The thing that I would haue.

Mercy good Lord, mercy I aske,
Thy is the totall summe:
For mercy Lord is all my suite,
Lord let thy mercy come.

The Lordes prayer or Pater noster.

Our father which in heauen art, Lord hallowed be thy name: Thy kingdome come. Thy will be done in earth as the same in heauen is. Give vs O Lord our daily bread this day. As we forgive our debtors. So forgive our debts wee pray. In temptation lead vs not, from end make vs free. For kingdome power and glorie thine. Both now and ever be.

Audi Israel. Exod 20.

Heare O Israel, and what I say: giue heede to vnderstand, I am the Lord thy God that brought thee out of Egypt land, even from the house wherein thou didst in thraldome live a slave: none other Gods at all before my presence halt thou haue.

No mannes grauen Image shalt thou make at all to thee:
Nor any figure like by thee shall counterfeited be.
Of any thing in heauen above,
nor in the earth below:
Nor in waters beneath the earth,
to them thou shalt not bow.

Nor shalt thou serue the Lord thy God,
a jealous God am I:
That punish parents faultes vnto,
the third and fourth degree.
Vpon their children that me hate,
and metey to display:
To thousands of such as me loue,
and my preceptes obey.
The name thou of the Lord thy God
in vaine shalt neuer ble:
For him that takes his name in vaine,
the Lord will not excuse.
Remember that the sabbath keepe,
the sacred Sabaoth day:
Sixe dayes thou labour shalt end do,
thy needfull workes alway.

The seuenth day is set by the Lord,
thy God to rest vpon:
No worke then shalt thou do in it,
ne thou nor yet thy sonne.
Thy daughter, seruant, nor handmaide,
thine Oxe, nor yet thine asse:
Nor stranger that within thy gates,
hath his abiding place.

For in sixe dayes God heauen and earth,
and all therein did make:
And after those his rest he did,
vpon the seauenth day take.
Wherefore he blest the day that he,
for resting did ordaine:
And sacred to him selfe alone,
appointed to remaine.

Yeld honore to thy parents, that prolonge thy dayes may be:
Vpon the land the which the Lord,
thy God hath giuen thee.
Thou shalt not murder. Thou shalt not commit adulterie:
Thou shalt not steale. Nor witness false, against thy neighbour be.

Thou shalt not couet house, that to thy neighbour doth belong.

Nor his man seruant, nor his made,
nor Oxe, nor Asse of his:
Nor any other thing that to,

The complaint of a sinner.

Where righteousness doth say, Lord for my sinfull part, In wrath thou

Shouldst me pay Vengeance for my Le sers: I can it not deny, But needs I must confesse, how that continually, thy lawes

I do transgresse. Thy lawes I do transgresse.

But if it be thy will,
With sinners to contend:
Then al thy flock hal spall,
And be lost without end,
For who lieth here so right,
That rightly he can laie:
Yee sinners not in thy sight,
Full oft and surey daie.

The scripture plaine telles me,
The righteous man offendeth,
Seuen times a day to thee,
Whereon thy wrath dependeth.
So that the righteous man,
Doth walke in no such par;
But he faulty now and then,
In danger of thy wrath.

Then sith the case so standes,
That euen the man right wise:
Falloth in sinfull bandes,
Wherby thy wrath may rise.
Lord I that am brutish,
And righteousness none haue:
Whereto then shall I trust,
My sinfull soule to saue?

But truly to that poe, Whereto I cleaue and shall:
Which is thy mercy most,
Lord let thy mercy fall.
And mitigate thy mood,
Or els we perish all:
The price of this thy blood,
Wherein mercy I call.

The scripture doth declare,
No drop of blood in thee.
But that thou dost not spare,
To shed eue drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet,

Sometime my heart so dyet:
That I with sinne repine,
May liue and sinne may dye.

That being mortified,
This sinne of mine in me:
I may be sanctified,
By grace of thine in thee.
So that I neuer fall,
Into such mortall sinne:
That my foes infernall,
Reioyce my death therein.

But donchafe me to keepe
From those infernall foes:
And from that lake so deepe,
Wherewith no mercy growes.
And I shall sing the songs,
Confirmed with the lust,
That unto thee belongs,
Which art mine onely trust.

Psalmes of Dauid in Meeter.

Beatus vir. Psal. i. T. S.

This Psalm is set forth as a preface to the other godly men to study and meditate the heavenly wisdom: for they be blessed that so doe: but the wicked contemne thereof at length shall come to misery.

The man is blest that hath not been, to wicked rede his care: Nor is his life as sinners doe, nor sat in coy:

ness chape. 2. But in the law of God

the Lord, doth set his whole delight:
And in that law doth exercise himselfe

both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that groweth,
fast by the waters side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit:
in her due time and tide.
Whose leafe shall neuer fade nor fall,
but flourish till and stand:
Even so all things shall prosper well,
that this man taketh in hand.

4 So shall not the wicked man:
they shall be nothing so:

Ant

Psalme ii.iii.iiii.

But as the dust which from the earth,
the windeſe dyne to and fro.
Therefore shall nor the wicked men,
in iudgement stand bright:
Nor yet the sinners with the iust, shall come in place of right.

For why? the way of godly men, unto the Lord is knowne:
And eke the way of wicked men,
shall quite be overthrowen.

Quare fremuerunt. Psal. ii. T. S.

David reioyeth, that albeit enemies, and twofold power rage, God will aduance his kingdom euen to the farthest end of the world. Therefore he reioyeth joyfully to submitte themselves vnder the same. Herein is signified Christ and his kingdome.

Sing this as the first Psalme.

Why did the Gentiles tumulte raise?
what rage was in their bryner?
Why did the Jewish people muse,
seeing all for but vaine?

The hinges and rulers of the earth,
conspire and are all bene:
Against the Lord, and Christ his soune,
which he amongst vs sate.

Shall we be bound to them say they?
let all their bondes be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law,
let vs reiect the yoke.

But he that in the heauen dwelt,
their doings will decide:
And make them all as mocking stocks,
throughtout the world so wide.

For in his wrath the Lord will say,
to them vpon a day:
And in his furie trouble them,
and then the Lord will say.

I haue anointed him my king,
vpon my holy hill:
I will therefore Lord preach thy lawes,
and eke declare thy will.

For in this wise the Lord himſelfe,
did say to me, I wot:
Thou art my deare and onely Sonne,
to day I thee begot.

All people I will giue to thee,
as heres at thy request:
The endes and coaſtes of all the earth,
by thee shall be poſſeſt.

Thou shalt them bruse enen with a mace
as men vnder foote tread:
And as the porters ſwarbes shall beake them with an iron rod.

Now ye O hinges and rulers all,
be wise therefore and learnd:
By whom the matters of the world,
be iudged and discrend.

Se that ye serue the Lord aboue,
in trembling and in feare:
Se that with conseruence reioyce,
to him in like maner.

Se that ye kisse and eke embrace,
his blessed soune I say:
Looke in his wrath ye ſedenly, perish in the mid way.

If once his wrath neuer so smary,
shall kindle in his breſt:
Oh then all they that trust in Christ,
shall happie be and bleſt.

Domine quid. Psal. iii. T. S.

David vniuers out of his kingdome by his ſonne Abſalon, was greatly tormentes in minde for his sinne. Therefore he calleth vpon God, & is bold in his promiſes, against the treachery both of enemies and perfect death. Then he reioyeth for the victory giuen to him and the Church, ouer their enemies

Lord, how are my foes increas, which here me moe and moer? They kill my hart when as they say, God can him not reſtore. 2. But thou O Lord art my deſence, when I am hard beſeard: My woe, ſhip and mine honoz both, and thou holdſt vp my head.

When with my voice vpon the Lord,

I be both call and crye:

And he out of his holy hill,

did heare me by and by.

I laide me downe and quierly,

I ſlept and roſe againe:

For why? I know assuredly,

the Lord will me ſuſtaine.

For thou art still my Lord my God,
my Saviour and my aide.

Riſe vp therefore ſaue me my God,
for now to thee I call:
For thou haſt broke the cheynes and teeth of theſe wicked men all.

Saluation onely both belong to thee O Lord aboue:
Thou doſt beſtow vpon thy folke,
thy bleſſing and thy loue.

Cum inuocarem, Psal. iiii. T. S.

David persecuted by Saul, called vpon God with affliction, repeneth by enemies for reſtoring his dominion, and perfecteth the ſauoy of God his foes all treſuice.

Sing this as the first psalme.

God that art my rightconneſſe,
Lord heare me when I call:
Thou haſt ſet me at libertie

when I was bound and thall.
 2 Have mercy Lord therefore on me,
 and graunt me my request:
 For unto the bndessantly to cry I will not rest.

3 O most all men how long will ye my glory thus despise?
 Why wander ye in banishe,
 and tollow after lyes?
 4 Know ye that good and godly men
 the Lord doth take and chuse?
 And when to him I make my plaint
 he doth me not refuse.

5 Shine not but stand in awe therfore examine well your hart:
 And in your chamber quietly see you your felus scoonert.
 6 Offer to God the sacrifice of righteousness I say:
 And looke that in the living Lord,
 you put your trust alway.

7 The greater sote crasse worldly goodes,
 and riches do embrace:
 But Lord graunt vs thy countenance,
 thy fauour and thy grace.
 8 For thou thedey shalt make my heart,
 more ioyfull and more glad:
 Then they that of their come and wine,
 full great encrease haue had.

9 In peace therfore lye downe will I,
 taking my rest and sleepe:
 For thou only wilt me (O Lord) alone in safety keepe.

Verba mea auribus. Psal. v. T. S.

¶ David persecuted by Doeg and Achitophel Sander
 Satterers, calling vpon God to punish their malice
 When assured of successe, he conceived comfort.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme,

1 I incline thine eares vnto my voyde,
 O Lord my plaint consider:
 And heare my voice, my king, my God
 to thee I make my prayer.

2 Heare me betime, Lord tarry not,
 for I will haue respect:
 My prayer early in the morn,
 to thee for to direct.

4 And I will trust through patience,
 in thee my God alone:
 That art not pleased with wickednesse,
 and ill with thee dwells none.

5 And in thy sight shall neuer stand,
 these furious fooles (O Lord):
 Waine workers of iniquitie,
 thou hast alwayes abhoyd.

6 The lyers and the satterers, thou shalt destroy them than:
 And God will bare the bloudy thirstie,
 and the deceitfull man.

7 Therefore will I come to thy house, trusting vpon thy grace.
 And recently will worship thee,
 towards thine holy place.

8 Lord leade me in thy righteousnesse,
 for to confound my foes:

And eke the wales that I shall walke,
 before my face disclose.

9 For in their mouthes there is no truth their yeares are soules and baine:
 10 Their throte an open sepulchre, their tongues do giue and faine.

11 Well say their false conspiencie, that they may come to nought:
 12 Subuert them in their heapes of lyes which haue rebellion wrought.
 13 But those that pur their trust in thee,
 let them be glad alwayes:
 And render thanks for thy defense,
 and gine thy name the praise.

14 For thou with fauour wilt encrease,
 the iust and righteous skill:
 And with thy grace as with a shield, defend them from all ill.

Domine ac in furor, Psal. vi. T. S.

¶ David for his sinnes felt Gods hand, & conceived the feare of everlasting death. Therfore he with sighing, and not to die in Gods indignati on. Then suddenly feeling Gods mercy, he rebuketh his enemies who reioyced at his affliction.

Sing this as the first Psalme.

1 Lord in thy wrath thoue me not,
 though I deserve thine ire:
 Neuer correct me in thy rage,
 O Lord, I thee desire.

2 For I am waken, therefore O Lord,
 of mercy me forbear:

And heale me Lord, for why? thou knowest
 my bones der quake for feare.

3 My soule is troubled very sore,
 and beryd vehemently:
 But Lord how long wilt thou delay,
 to cure my miserie?

4 Lord turne thee to thy wanted grace,
 my soule soule vpraise:
 O save me not for my defaults,
 but for thy mercies sake.

5 For why? no man among the dead,
 rememberd thee one whit:

6 Who shall worship thee O Lord,
 in the infernall pit?

7 So grievous is my plaint and moan,
 that I waxe wondrous faint:
 All the night long I wail my bed,
 with teares of my complaint.

8 My sight is dim and wareth old,
 with anguish of my heart:
 For feare of those that be my foes,
 and would my soule subuert.

9 But now away from me all ye,
 that woeke iniquitie:
 For why? the Lord hath heard the voice of my complaint and crye.

He heard not onely the request,
 and prayer of my heart:
 But it receyued at my handes,
 and tooke it in good part.

10 And now my foes that beryd me,
 the Lord will soone defame:
 And suddenly confound them all,
 to their rebuke and shame.

Domine

Domine Deus meus. Psal. vii. T.S.

6 David falsely accused by Chus, and his kinsman calley God to be his defender. first, for that his conscience did not accuse him of any evil towards hauke. Next, that he purposed Gods glory re-awards himself againe in the wicked. And so the Gods were eyes and spectators his wicked doles, threatening that it shall fall on every necke, that which hee was purposed for others.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

O Lord my God, I put my trust,
and confidence in thee:
Save me from them that me pursue,
and che deliuer me.
Least like a Lion they me teare,
and rend in pieces small:
Whilst there is none to succour me,
and rid me out of thall.

O Lord my God if I have done,
the thing that is not right:
Or else if I be found in fault,
or guiltie in thy sight:
Or to my friend: rewarded ill/
or left him in disgrace, Which me pursued most cruelly,
and hated me causelesse.

Then let my foes pursue my soules,
and che my life downe thyns
Into the earth: and also laye, mine honor in the dust.

Start up O Lord now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to shame:
Perforce thy kingdom promised to me, which wrong I haue.

Then shall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing:
If thou declare for loue of them,
thy selfe as Lord and king.
And thou that art of all men iudge,
O Lord now iudge thour me
According to thy righteousness,
and mine integritie.

The second part.

Lord cease the date of wicked men.
and be the iust mans guide:
By whom the secrets of all heartes,
are searched and descide.
I take my helpe to come of God,
in all my griefe and smart:
That doth preserve all those that be,
of pure and perfect heart.

The iust man and the wicked both,
God iudgeth by his power:
So that he seeth his mighty hand,
enen every day and houre.

Except he change his mynde I dye,
for euen as he should smite:
He wher his sword, his bow he bendes,
smying where he may hit.

And doth prepare his mortall darts,
his arrowes heme and sharpe:
For them that do me persecute, whyles he doth mischief warpe.
But loe though he in trauell be,
of his deathly foresat:
And of his mischief once comming,

yet bringes forth nought at last.

He diggs a ditch and deliues it hope,
in hope to hure his hostie:
But he shall fall into the pit,
that he digd by for other.

Thus wrong returned to the hurt
of him in whom it bred:
And all the mischief that he wrought,
shall fall upon his head.

I will geue thanks to God thereof that iudgeth righteously:
And with a song will paye the name,
of him that is most high Domine Deus noster. Psal viii. T.S.

The prophet, considering the excellent liberation and fatherly providence of God towards small whom he made as it were a God ouer all his workes geue thanks, and is aduised with the admiration of the same.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

O God our Lord, how wonderfull, are thy workes every where:
Whose fame surmountes in dignity,
about the heauens cleare.

Such by the mouthes of sucking babes,
thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in these babes thy might is shene,
thy graces they dislike.

And when I see the heauens high,
the workes of thine owne hand:
The Sunne, the Moone, & all the starres,
in order as they stand.

What thing is man (Lord) thine I then,
that thou dost him remember:
Or what is mans posteritie, that thou dost him consider?

For thou hast made him little lesse,
then Angels in degree:
And thou hast crowned him also,
with glory and dignity.

Thou hast perfect him to be Lord,
of all thy workes of wonder:
And in his fate hast set all thy wayes,
that he should keep them vnder.

As shepe and neate, and all bestes els,
that in the fieldes do feede:

Foules of the ayre, fish in the sea,
and all that therein feede.

Therefore must I say once againe,
O God thou art our Lord:

How famous and how wonderfull, are thy workes through the world.

Confitebor tibi Domine. Psal. ix. T.S.

David geuing thanks for his manifold victories receiued, desireth the same worsted help againe, as gainst his new enemies, and their malicious adugencie to be destroyed.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

With heart and mouth will I the Lord,
will I sing laud and paye:
And speake of all his wondrous workes,
and them declare alwayes.

I will be glad and much reioyce,
in the (O Lord) most high:
And make my songes extoll thy name,
about the Earth thy.

- 1 For that my foes are in mine backe,
and endured vnto flight:
They shall become flat and are destroyed, by thy great force and might.
4 Thou hast triumphed all my wrong,
my grief and all my grudge:
Thou dost with iustice heare my cause,
most like a righteous iudge.
5 Thou dost rebuke the heathen folke,
and wicked is confound:
That afterward the memory,
of them cannot be found.
6 My foes thou hast made god dispatch,
and all their campes destroyd:
Thou hast their shame with them defaced,
through all the world to wide.
7 Know thou, that he which is aboue,
for euermore shall raigne:
And in the feare of equitie,
true iudgement will maintayne.
8 With iustice he will heape and guide,
the world and euery right:
And so will yee with equitie,
to euery man but right.
9 He is protector of the poore,
what tyme they be opprest:
He is in all aduersitie,
their refuge and their rest.
10 All they that know of thy holy name therefore shall trust in thee:
For thou forsakest not their suite,
in their necessitie.

The second part.

- 11 Sing P salmes therefore vnto the Lord that dwelleth in Sion hill:
Publish among all nations,
his noble acts and will.
12 For he is mindful of the bloud, of those that be oppressed:
Forgetting not the afflicted hart,
that seeketh to him for rest.
13 Have mercy Lord on me poore wretch whose enemies still remaine:
Which from the gates of death art wont,
to raise me vp againe.
14 In Sion shalt I maynt forth, thy praise in heart and voice:
And that in thy saluation Lord,
my soule might still reioyce.
15 The heathen like a net is set,
that they themselves prepare:
And in the net that they do set,
their owne feete fall ac snare.
16 God shewes his iudgement which were for euery man to marke: (good, Whoe as yet see the wicked man,
yet crape in his owne warke.
17 The wicked and the sinfull men,
goe downe to hell for aerie:
And all the people of the world,
that God will not remember.
18 But sure the Lord will not forget,
the poore mans grief and payne:
The patient people neuer looke,
for helpe of God in vaine.

- 19 O Lord arise, least men presume, that be of worldly might:
And let the wicked folke become,
their iudgement in thy sight.
20 Lord arme thy rancor, fere and dread,
into the hartes of them:
That they may know assuredly,
they be but mortall men.

Vt quid Domine. Psal. ix. T.S.

The complaint of all the sinners which worldly men be, because of their prosperitie when they soe without all feare of God thinke they may do all things vncontrollably. He calleth for remedy against such, & is comforted with the hope thereof.

Sing this as the 9. psalme.

What is the cause that thou O Lord,
art now so farr from thine,
And hepest close thy countenance,
from vs this troublous tyme.
2 The poore doth perish by the proud,
and wicked mens desire:
Let them be taken in the craft,
that they themselves conspire.

- 3 For in the lust of their owne hart,
the vngodly doeth delight:
So doth the wicked praye himselfe,
and doth the Lord despight.
4 He is so proud that right and wrong, he setteth all apart:
Nay nay, there is no God (sayth he)
for thus he thinke in hart.

- 5 Because his wayes do prosper still,
he doth thy lawes neglect:
And with a blas doth putte agaynst
such as would him correct.
6 Tush, tush (sayth he) I haue no dread, least myne eare should change:
And why? for all aduersitie,
to him is very strange.

- 7 His mouth is full of curdnesse,
of fraude, deceit, and guile:
Vnder his tongue doth mischief sit,
and trauell all the while.
8 He lyeth hid in wayes and holes,
to slay the innocents:
Against the poore that passe, in by his cruel eyes are bent.

- 9 And like a Lyon pryncely,
lyeth lurking in his den:
If he may snare them in his net,
to spoile poore simple men.
10 And for the nonce full craftily,
he croucherb downe I say:
11 So are great heapes of paye men made by his strong power his praye.

The second part.

- 12 Tush, God forgetteth this (sayth he),
therefore I may be bold:
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.
13 Arise O Lord, O God in whom,
the poore mans hope doth rest:
Lift vp thy hand forget not Lord,
the poore that be oppressed.
14 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord dost thou not abhorre it?

To heare the wicked in their hearts,
say thus thou wast not for it:
But thou seest all their wickednesse,
and well dost iudges and:
Thar feendlesse and voyde fatherlesse,
are left vnto thy hand.

Of wicked and malicious men,
then breake the power for euer:
That they with their iniquitie,
may perish altogether.
The Lord shall reigne for euermore,
as kyng and God alone:
And he will rials the yfearthen folke,
out of the land echone.

Thou hearest O Lord the praye in mans their prayers and request: (playnt, Their hartes thou wilt confesse, vntill thine eares to heare be prest.
To iudge the paye and fatherlesse,
and helpe them to their righte:
That they may be no more opprest, with men of maydly might.

In Domino. Psal. xi. T. S.

This psalme sheweth how the afflictions of temptation and anguish of mynde be stayned in personification. For he reioyseth that god sent him such one in necessity, declaring his iustice, as well in gouerning the good and wicked men, as the whole worlde.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

I trust in God how dare ye thin, say thus my faulte beuile Iste hence as fast as any foule,
and hebe you in your hill:
Behold the wicked bend the bowes,
and make their arrowes prest:
To shote in secret and to hurt
the sound and harmelesse best.

Of worldly hope all dayes were they on he,
and clearely brought to nought:
How the iust and righteous man,
what euill hurt he wrought?
But he that in his temple is,
most holy and most high:
And in the heauens hath his seate,
of royall maiestie.

The paye any simple mans effort,
considereth in mynde:
And searcheth out full narrowly,
the matters of mannynde:
And with a chearefull countenance,
the righteous man will be:
But in his hart he doth abhorre,
all such as mischiefe muse.

And on the sinners earth shames,
as thicke as any raine:
And as the sinners wher they stand,
oppressed for their payne.
Ye is then how a righteous God,
doth righteousnesse embrace:
And to the iust and bright men,
shewes forth his pleasant face.

Saluum me fac Psal. xii. T. S.

The prophet seeing the miserable decay of all good men, becometh God speedily to send reformation on them comforted with the assurance of Gods helpe and promises, concluding, that when all others are most corrupted, then God will deliuer his.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

Helpe Lord for good and godly men,
do perishe and decay:
And faith and trust from worldly men,
is perced cleane away.
Who so doth with his neighbour talke,
his talke is all but vaine:
For every man verthinketh how,
to flatter, lye, and faine.
But flattering and deceitfull lips,
and tongues that be so stout,
To speake proud wordes and make great
the Lord soon cut them out.
For they say still we will preuaile,
our tongues shall be as tall:
Our tongues are ours the onely to speake,
what Lord shall be controule?

But for the great complaynt and cry,
of paye and men opprest:
Arise will I now sayth the Lord,
and them resceue to rest.
Gods word is like to silver pure,
that from the earth is tryed:
And hath no lesse then seven tymes,
in fire bene purified.

How since thy promise is to helpe,
Lord haue the promise true:
And saue by now and euermore,
from this ill hynde of men.
For now this wicked world is full,
of mischautes manifold:
When beuile with mortal men,
so highly be extold.

Viquequo Domine. Psal. xiii. T. S.

David as it were overcome with afflictions, dearly to God his onely refuge, and encouraged through Gods pynture, he cometh to confidence agaynst the extreme horrors of death.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

How long wilt thou forget me Lord,
How long wilt thou be remembred:
How long wilt thou thy visage hide:
as though thou were offend:
In hart and mynde how long shall I,
with care chymented be:
How long shall my deadly foes,
thus triumphe over me?

Behold me now O Lord my God,
and heare me sore opprest:
Lighten myne eyes least that I sleepe,
as one by death posses.
Least thus myne enemy say to me,
behold I do preuaile:
Least they also that hate my soule,
reioyce to see me quale.

But for thy mercies and goodnesse,
my hope shall neuer flart:
In thy relief and saving health, right glad shall be my hart.
I will geue thanks vnto the Lord,
and playnes to him sing:
Because he hath bene my resceuer, and granted my wishing.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. cxlii. T. S.

The doctores the wickedness of men so prone to such licentiousness that God must brought to some contempt: the which, albeit he was greatly grieved, yet persecuted that God would requite it, he is confident.

There is no God as foolish men affirme in their mad moodes: They distres are all corrupt and bayne, not one of them both good. 1. The Lord behold from heaven high, the whole race of mankinde: And saw not one that bought in deed, the living God to serve,

They went all wide and were corrupt and truly there was none:

That in the world did any good,

I say there was not one.

4 For all their judgement is false loke, that all wayke mischiefe fill;

Learning my people men as beasts,

not one to seeke Gods will.

When they thus rage then suddenly,

great feare on them shall fall:

For God doth love the righteous men,

and will maintaine them all.

6 Ye moche the dolours of the poore,

to their reproch and shame,

Because they put their trust in Gods and call upon his name.

7 But who shall gine thy people healeth, and when wilt thou fulfill

The promise made to Israel, from out of Zion hill?

8 Euen when thou shalt restore againe,

such as were captiue lad:

Then Jacob shall there in thy sight,

and Israel shall be glad.

Domine quis. Psal. xv. T. S.

Here is taught why God chose the Jews his peculiar people, and placed his temple among them which was, that they by living rightely, might shewe that they were his speciall holy people.

Sing this as the i. Psalme.

Lord within thy Tabernacle, who shall inhabit still:

9 Whom wilt thou make to dwell,

in thy most holy hill?

10 The man whose life is innocent, whose wayes are just and straight;

Whose heart doth thinke the very truth,

whose tongue speakes no deceit.

11 For to his neyghbours, both when ill

in doo, goodes, as name:

For willingly doth moue false tales,

which might impeare the same.

12 That in his heart regereth not,

malicious wicked men:

But that he that loue and feare the Lord,

he maketh much of them.

13 His oth and all his promises, that keepeth faithfully,

Although he make his couenent so,

that he doth lose thereby

14 That putteth not to shame,

his iourney and his cotise:

For to hurt the innocent,

doth hate of his purpise,

15 Who is both all things as you see that here is to be done:

Shall neuer perish in this world,

ne in the world to come.

Conserua me. Psal. xvi. T. S.

David prayeth to God in the Temple, not for his treasures: but for his holynes sake, praying that he maye all wayke, seeing God onely for his choyce and felicity, who suffering his so litle thing.

Sing this as the i. Psalme.

Lord hope me for I trust in the,

and do confesse in doo:

Thou art my God and of my gabes,

O Lord thou hast no ree.

1 I geue my gabes vnto the same,

that in the world he dwelle:

And namely to the saythfull stoche,

in deute that erre.

They shall heape sorowes on their heads,

which runne as they were made:

To offer to the Idoll gods,

alas it is too bad.

4 As for I be bloody in heart,

and offerings of that sort:

I will not touch nor yet thereto,

my lips shall make response.

5 For why? the Lord the portion is,

of anye inheritance:

And thou art he that doest maintaine,

my rent, my lot, my chauce.

6 The place wherein my lot did fall,

in beaute did excell:

Myne heritage assigne to me,

doth praise me wondrous well.

7 I thanke the Lord that caused me, to vnderstand the right:

For by his meane my feare thought,

do reach the eery night.

8 I set the Lord still in my sight, and cast him out all:

For he doth stand on my right hand,

therefore I shall not fall.

- 9 Wherefore my hart and tongue also,
both both rejoyce together:
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I thinke thyngs canst see.
10 Thou wilt not leave my soule in gear:
O Lord thou lovest me:
For yet wilt thou give thy holy one,
consumption for to be.
11 But wilt teach me the way of life,
for all creature and thing
Of perfect joy are in thy face, and power for succour.

Exaudi Domine. Psal. xvii. T. 5.

Here hee complaينت to God of the cruell pnyde & avengance of Saul, who ragyd without any cause.
Therefore he beseecheth God to revenge his innocency and deliver him.

Sing this as the 1. psalme.

- O Lord give eare to my just cause,
attend when I complaine:
And heare the prayer that I put forth,
with lips that do not feigne.
1 And let the iudgement of my cause,
proceede alwayes from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and cleare,
this my simplicitie.

- Thou hast well orde me in the night,
and yet couldest nothing finde:
That I have spoken with my tongue,
that was not in my minde.
4 As for the woordes of wicked men,
and perches peruerse and ill:
For Ioue of thy most holy word,
I have restrained still.

- 4 Then in the perches that be most pure,
say me Lord and presene:
That from the way wherein I walke,
my steps may neuer swene:
6 For I do call to thee (O Lord),
surely thou wilt me aide:
When heare my prayer & weigh right well
the wordes that I haue saide.

- 7 O thou the Saviour of all them,
that put their trust in thee:
Declare thy strength on them that spurne,
against thy maiestie.

- 8 O keepe me Lord as thou wouldest keepe
the apple of thine eye:
And hide covert of thy winges, defend me secretly.

The second part.

- 9 From wicked men that trouble me,
and dayly me annoy:
And from my foes that goe about,
my soule for to destroy.
10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth,
so full and eke so fat:
That in their pride they do not spare,
to speake they care not what.
11 They lye in wait where I should passe with craft me to confound:
And muske mischief in their mindes,
to cast me to the ground.
12 As much like a Lyon greedy, that would his pray embrace:

- Or lurking like a Lyons whelpes, within some secret place.

- 13 Up Lord with hast present my foe,
and cast him at thy feet:
Save thou my soule from the ill man,
and with the sword him smite.

- 14 Deliver me Lord by thy power,
out of these tyrantes handes:
Which now so long tyme raigned haue,
and kept vs in their bandes.

- 15 I meane from worldly men to whom,
all worldly gades are rise:
That haue no hope nor part of joy,
but in this present life.

- 16 Thou of thy hope their bellies fill,
with pleasantnes to their mynde:
Their children haue inough, and leaue to theirs the rest depende.

- 17 But I shall with pure conscience,
behold thy gracious face:
So when I wake I shall be full,
of thine Image and grace.

Diligam te Domine. Psal. xviii. T. 5.

David giveth thanks entering into his kingdome spealling the marvellous graces of God in his prosecution. Herein is the Image of Christs kingdome, which shall conquer through Christ, by the unspeakable love of god, though all the world resist.

God my strength and fortitude, of force I must love thee: Thou art my castle and defence, in my needfullie.

1. My God, my rocke, in whome I trust, the worker of my weake: My refuge, buckler, & my shield, the hope of all my health.

When I sing laud unto the Lord,
most worthy to be served:
Then from my foes I am right sure,
that I shall be preserved.

4 The pang of death did compass me,
and bound me every where:
The flowing waters of wickedness,
did put me in great feare.

The eye and subtle snares of hell,

were round about me first:
 And for my death there was prepared,
 a deadly trapping net.
 5 I thus best with pains and griefe,
 did pray to God for grace:
 And he forthwith did heare my plaint,
 out of his holy place.

7 Such is his power that in his wrath,
 he made the earth to quake:
 Yea, the foundation of the mount,
 of Sasan for to quake:
 8 And from his nostrils came a smoke,
 when kindled was his ire:
 And from his mouth came kindled coales of hore consuming fire.

9 The Lord descended from above,
 and bowed the heavens hye:
 And vnderneath his feete he cast,
 the darknesse of the skye.
 10 On Cherubims and on Cherubines, full royally he rode:
 And on the wings of all the windes,
 came flying all abroad.

The second part.

11 And like a den most darke he made,
 his hye and secret place:
 With waters blacke, and ayrie cloudes, enuironed he was.
 12 But when the presence of his face,
 in brightnesse shall appeare:

The cloudes consume, and in their stead,
 come dayle and coales of fire.

The fire barres and thunder often,
 disperse them here and there:
 And with his often lightenynges,
 he purst them in great feare.

14 Lord, at thy wrath and threatenynge, and at thy chiding cheate:
 The spynges and the foundations, of all the world appeare.

15 And from above the Lord sent downe,
 to fetch me from below:
 And pluckt me out of waters great,
 that would me overflow.

16 And me deliuered from my foes,
 that would haue made me rhyall:
 Yea from such foes, as were to strong,
 for me to deale withall.

17 They did pteuent me to appresse, in tyme of my great griefe:
 But yet the Lord was my defence,
 my succour and relief.

18 He brought me forth in open place,
 whereas I might be frst:
 And kept me safe, because he had a fauour vnto me.

19 And as I was an innocent,
 so did he me regard:
 And to thy cleanness of my handes,
 he gaue me my reward.

20 For that I walked in his wayes, and in his pathes haue robd:
 And haue, nor wauered wickedly, agaynst my Lord my God.

The third part.

21 But furthermore I haue respect,
 as his law and decre:

His statutes and commandementes,
 I cast not out from me.
 22 But pure and cleane and vncorrupt,
 appeare before his face:
 And did refrayne from wickednesse,
 and sinne in any case.

23 The Lord therfore will me reward,
 as I haue done aright:
 And to the cleanness of my handes,
 appearing in his sight.

24 For Lord, with him that holy is wilt thou be holy to:
 And with the god and vertuous men,
 right beremanly wilt doe.

25 And to the longynge and elect, thy loue thou wilt reuerse:
 And thou wilt ble the wicked men,
 as wicked men deserue.

26 For thou doste saue the simple folke,
 in trouble when they lye:
 And doste hyng downe the countenances,
 of them that loke full hye.

27 The Lord will light my candle, that it shall shine full bright:
 The Lord my God will make alle,
 my darknesse to be light.

28 For by thy helpe an host of men, discomfite Lord I shall:
 By the I scale and ouerleape,
 the strength of any wall.

29 Unspotted are the wayes of God,
 his word is purely true:
 He is a sure defence to such,
 as in his faith abide.

30 For who is God except the Lord,
 for other there is none:
 Ours who is omnipotent, leauing our God alone?

The fourth part.

31 The God that giueth me with strength is he that I do meane:
 That all the wayes wherein I walke,
 hee enuermore hee keepe cleane.

32 That made my feete like to the hart,
 in sweetness of my pace:
 And for my feete brought me forth,
 into an open place.

33 He did in order put my handes,
 to battaile and to fight:
 To bryake in funder barres of brasse,
 he gaue mine armes the might.

34 Thou teachest me thy sauing health, thy right hand is my tower:
 Thy loue and familiaritie,
 doth still increase my power.

35 And vnder me thou makest plaine,
 the way where I should walke:
 So that my feete shall neuer slip,
 nor stumble at a balke.

36 And fiercely I pursue and take,
 my foes that me annoyde:
 And from the scid do not reuente,
 till they be all destroyed.

37 So I suppress and wound my foes, that they can rife no more:

for at my fete they fall downe flat,
I ftrike them all fo lowe.
13 for thou doeft giue me thv strength, to warre in fuch a wife:
that they be all fcatrerd abroad,
that by agaynst me rife.

19 Lord thou haft put into my handes,
my mortall enemies yoke:
And all my fear thou doeft denie,
in funder with thy broke.
20 They caid for helpe but none gaue care,
nor helpt them with relief:
yea to the Lord they caid for helpe,
yet heard he not their grief.

The aft part.

41 And ftill like duff before the winde,
I hysnt them under fere:
And fcorpe them out like ftealy clay,
that thicketh in the flure.
42 Thou hepeft me from detritious folke,
that ftill in ftrife be lad:
And thou doeft of the thenthen fothe, appoynt me to be had.

43 A people ftrange to me unknowne, and yet they ftall me fceue:
And at the ftir obey my word,
whereas myne owne will fwerue.
44 I ftall be fchfome to myne owne,
they will not fe my light:
But wander wide out of their wayes,
and hve them out of fight.

45 But bleffed be the living Lord, moft worthy of all praye:
that is my rocke and faying healthy,
played be be alwayes.
46 for God it is that gaue me power, renenged for to be:
And with his holy word fubdude,
the people vnto me.

47 And from my foe me deliuerd, and let me higher then thofe:
that cruell and bngedly were,
and by agaynst me tofe.

48 And for this caule O Lord my God,
to thee geue thanks I ftall:
And fing our prayes to thy name,
among the ftartles all.

49 Thon gneft great proftertie, vnto the hyng I fay:
to waund thine annoynted hyng,
and to his fete for aye.
Celi enarrant. pfal. xix. T.S.

He mouerth the fearchfulle glouffe God by the worpmandhip, propopos and opamars of the hear-uens, and by the law wherein God is reuelid faine harp to his chosen people.

Sing this as the 14. pfalme.

The heauens and the firmament,
do wondrously declare:
the gloffe of God omnipotent,
his workes and what they are.
1 The wondrous workes of God appeare,
by every dayes ftarres:
the nightes likewise which their race run
the felfe fame thinges exprefe.

3 There is no language tongue or fpeech,
where their found is not heard:
In all the earth and coaftes thereof,
their knowledge is conferrd.

4 In them the Lord made for the funne,
a place of great renoune:
Who like a brightsome trade frind, dorth from his chamber come.

5 And as a ballant champion,
who for to get a prize:
With foy doth haft to take in hand,
fome noble enterprife.

6 And all the fays from end to end, he compaffeth about:
Nothing can hide it from his heate,
but he will finde it out.

How perfect is the law of God,
how is his conftance fure:
Connectyng fowles and making wife,
the fimple and obfure.

8 Just are the Lordes commandemens, and glad both hart and mynde:
His precepts pure and geuerly lize,
to eyes that be ftill bynde.

The feare of God is excellent,
and doth endure for euer:
The iudgements of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether.

10 And more to be embraced alwayes,
then fined gold I fay:
The hony and the hony combe,
are not fo fweete as they.

By them thy feruant is forwarde,
to haue God in regard:
And in performance of the fame,
there ftall a great reward.

12 But Lord what earthly man doth the errors of his life? (know,
Then cleafe my foule from fecret finnes,
which are in me moft rife.

13 And kepe me, that pfeumptuous pfeuple not ouer me: (finnes,
And then I ftall be innocent,
and great offences flee.

14 Accept my mouth and the my hart,
my wordes and thoughtes & chone:
for my rede mer and my strength,
O Lord thou art alone.

Exaudiat te Dominus. pfal. xx. T.S.

¶ The people pray to God to heare they king and receiue his facktie, which he offed before he went to battell agaynst the Ammonites, declaring that the death put there truf in boyes: But they ruf only in his name. herforfe the other ftall fall, but the king and his people ftall ftand.

Sing this as the 14. pfalme.

I In trouble and aduerfite,
the Lord God heare the ftill:
The matelste of Jacobs God, defend the from all ill.

2 And fend the from his holy place,
his helpe at every need:
And fo in Sion ftablish the,
and make thee strong in deed.

3 Rememberyng well the facktie,
D. the t

that now to him is done:
And to receive right cheerfully,
thy burnt offerings of love.

4 According to thy hartes desire,
the Lord grant unto thee:
And all thy counsell and devise,
shall well performe may be.

5 We shall reioyce when thou hast failed,
and our banners display:
When the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his appointed faue,
I know well by his grace:
And send him health by his right hand,
out of his holy place.

7 In Charloes some put confidence,
and some in houses trust:
But we remember Gods our Lord,
that keepeth promise fast.

8 They fall downe flat, but we do rise,
and stand by helpfully:
Now faue and helpe vs Lord and king,
on thee when we do crye.

Domine in iurte, Psal. xxi. T.S.

David in the person of the people prayeth God for the victory given them against the Syrians & Am-monites. 1 Sam. xxi. wherein he was crowned with the crown of the hyng of Iudon. 2 Sam. 12. and inward with the manifold blessings of God.

Lord how sofull is the king in thy strength and thy power: How vehemently doth he reioyce in thee.

Thy's Saviour: For thou hast given unto him, thy's godly hartes desire: so him nothing hast thou denied, of that he did require.

3 Thou dost present him with thy gifts and blessings manifold:
And thou hast set upon his heade,
a crowne of perfect gold.

4 And when he asked life of thee, thereof thou madest him sure:
To have long life, yea such a life,
as few should endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy helpe,
thy strength and aid.

Great worship and great honours both,
then hast thou given him.

6 Thou wilt give him desire,
that power shall decay:
And with thy charcell countenance,
wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why? the hyng doth strongly trust,
in Gods say to p'seaple:

Therefore his godly grace,
will not that he shall quaye.

8 But let thine enemies see thy force,
and those that the world stand:
And out thy foes and let them see,
the power of thy right hand.

9 And like an open burne them Lord,
in fiery flame and fume:

Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and like them consume.

10 And thou wilt come out of the earth,
their waste that should increase:
And from the number of thy folke,
their side shall end and cease.

11 For why? much mischief did they muse, against thy holy name:

Yet did they saye and had no power,
for to performe the same.

12 But as a marke thou shalt them set,
in a most open place.

And charge thy bowstrings readyly, against thine enemies face.

13 We then exalted Lord therefore,
in thy strength every house:
So shall we sing right solemnly, praising thy might and power.

Deus Deus meus. Psal. xxii. T.S.

David complaineth of his desperate extremities, & declareth wherof he recovered himselfe by the sacris. Under his person is figured Christ.

Sing this as the 21. Psalme.

1 God my God wherfore dost thou, forsake me bitterly:

And helpest not when I do make,
my great complainant and cry:

2 To thee my God even all day long,
I do both cry and call:

I cease not all the night and yet,
thou hearest not at all.

3 Even thou that in thy sanctuary,
and holy place dost dwell:
Thou art the comfort and the joy,
and glory of Israel.

4 And he in whom our fathers old,
had all their hope for ever:
And when they put their trust in thee,
to doe thou them deliver.

5 They were delivered ours when,
they called on thy name:
And for the faith they had in thee,
they were not put to shame.

6 But I am now become a worm,
more like them any man:
An outcast whom the people scorn, with all the spies they can.

And me despite as they behold, me.

me walking on the way:
They grin, they mow, they nod their heads and in this wise they say.
This man doth glory in the Lord,
his fano, and his lower Let him redeme and helpe him now, his power if he will pson.

But Lord out of my mothers wombe,
I came by thy request:
Thou dost preferre me still in hope,
while I do sucke her teat.
I was committed from my birth,
with thee to have abode:
Since I was in my mothers wombe, thou hast bene euer my God.

The second part.

Then Lord depart not now from me,
in this my ptesent griefe:
Since I have none to be my helpe,
my succour and reliefe.
So many Gullies do compass me,
that bee full strong of beate:
Yc Gullies so far as though they had,
in Basan field bene fed.

They gaze vpon me greedely,
as though they would me slea:
Much like a Lyon roaring out,
and ramping for his pray.
But I dyop downe like water shed,
my iointes in sande beake:
My hearte doth in my body melt,
like waxe against the heat.

And like a porthead dyeth my strenght my tongue it cleaueth fast vnto my sawes, and I am brought,
to dust of death at last.

And many dogs do compass me,
and wicked counsell the Conspire against me cursedly, they pearce my handes and feet.

I was tormented so, that I might all my bones haue tolde:
Yea still vpon me they did looke,
and still they me beholde.

My garments they diuided eke,
in partes among them all:
And for my coate they did cast lots,
to whom it might befall.

Therefore I pray the be not fawre,
from me at my great neede:
But rather sth thou art my strenght,
to helpe me Lord make spede.
And fro the sword Lord saue my soule,
by thy might and thy power:
And kepe my soule thy darling deare,
from dogges that would deuour.

And from the Lyons mouth that would me all in sunder haue:
And from the doynes of inkomes,
Lord safely me deliue.

And I shall to my brethren all,
thy maiestie recorde:
And in thy Church shall praye the name,
of the thy liuing Lord.

The third part.

All ye that feare his name the Lord,
thou Jacob honore him:
And all ye sede of Israel,
with reuerence worship him.

For he despiseth not the poore,
he turned not awaye
his countenance when they do call,
but graunterh to their cry.

Among the folk that feare the Lord,
I will therefore proclaime:
Thy praye and kepe thy promise made,
for setting forth thy name.

The poore shall eate and be sufficed,
and those that do their deuer:
To know the Lord shall praise his name,
their hartes shall liue for euer.

All coastes of earth shal praise the Lord and turne to him for grace:
The heathen folke shall worship him,
before his blessed face.

The hymnhome of the heathen folke,
the Lord shall haue therefore:
And he shal be their gouernour,
and hyng for euermore.

The rich men of his godly giftes, shall fede and tast also:
And in his ptesence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.
And all that shal go downe to dust,
of life by him must tast:
His sede shall serue and praye the Lord,
while any world shal last.

His sede shall playnely shew to them,
that shal be borne hereafter:
His iustice and his goodnesse and all his workes of wonder.

Dominus regit. psal. cxlii. W. W.

David hauing tried gods manifold meries bloud times, gathereth the assurance that God will shew his goodness for euer.

Sing this as the 21. Psalm.

The Lord is onely my support,
and he that doth me fede:
How can I then lacke any thing,
whereof I stand in neede?

He doth me folde in coates most safe,
the tender graske fast by:
And after dyues me to the streames,
which runne most pleasantly.

And when I feele my selfe weare lost,
then doth he me home take:
Conducting me in the right pathes, euen for his owne names sake.

And though I were euen at deathes doze
yet would I feare none ill:
For with thy rod and shepherdes crooke
I am comforted still.

Thou hast my table richly deckt,
in despite of my foe:
Thou hast my head with balme refresht,
my cup doth ouerflow.

And finally while breath doth last,
thy grace shall me defend:
And in the house of God will I,
my life for euer spend.

An other of the same by T.S.

Sing this as the 21. Psalm.

My shepheard is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I neede:
In pastures faire with waters calme,
he set me forth to feede.

2 He did convert and glad my soule,
and brought my mind in frame:
To walke in pastures of righteousness,
for his most holy name.

3 Yea though I walke in vale of death,
yet wil I feare none ill
Thy rod, thy staffe, both comfort me and thou art with me still.

4 And in the presence of my foes, my tabernacle thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt O Lord all full my cup,
and eke annoint my head.

5 Though all my life thy favour is forerichly shewed to me:
That in thy house for evermore,
my dwelling place shall be.

Domini est terra. Psal. xxiii. I.H.

¶ The grace of God being now uttered in the temple, more glorious then before in the Tabernacle, was widely exclamation stirred with the house, shew of moving the consideration of the eternall mansour prepared in heaven, whereof this was a figure.
Sing this as the 21. Psalm.

The earth is all the Lordes, withall her floze and furniture:
yea his is all the world, and all that therein do endure.

2 For he hath fastly founded it,
about the Sea to stand:
And layd a low the liquid floudes,
to flow beneath the land.

3 For who is he (O Lord) that shall ascende into thy hill:
And passe into thy holy place,
there to continue still?

4 Whose handes are harmelesse, & whose no spot there doth defile: (hart)
His soule not set on banerie, who hath not sworne to guile.

5 Him that is such a one the Lord, shall place in blissfull plight:
And God his God and Saviour, shall yeeld to him his right.

6 & his is the boode of transylers,
in the hyng of his grace:
As Jacob did the Itacites,
in that tyme of his race.

7 Ye winckes open your gates, stand open
the everlastyng gate:

For there shall enter in thereby,
the hyng of glorious state.

8 What is the hyng of glorious state?
the strong and mighty Lord:
The mighty Lord in battell stout,
and tryall of the sword.

9 Winckes open your gates, stand open

the everlastyng gate:
For there shall enter in thereby,
the hyng of glorious state.
10 What is the hyng of glorious state?
the Lord of hostes he is:
The hyngdome and the royaltie, of glorious state is his.

Ad te domine. Psal. xxv. T.S.

¶ David grieved at his sinnes, & malicious enemies most secretly praye for forgiveness, especially of such sinnes as he committed in his youth.

Lift myne hart to thee my God and guide most iust: show iustice unto take no shame, for in thee do I trust.

2. Let not my foes reioyce, nor make a scoyne of me: and let them not be over thyne, that put their trust in thee.

But shame shall them besett, which harme them wrongfully:
Therefore thy pathes and thy right waies unto me Lord descrye.

4 Direct me in thy trueth,
and teach me: I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour, on thee I waite alway.

5 Thy mercies manifold,
I pray thee Lord remember:
And eke thy pittie plentiful:
for they haue bene for euer.
6 Remember not the faulces,
and frailties of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant,
I was bene of thy trueth.

7 Nor after my desertes;
let me thy mercy find:
But of thine owne benignitie,
Lord haue me in thy minde.

8 His mercy is full sweete,
his trueth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach,
and surely as hee will.

9 The humble he will teach,
his mercies for to keepe:
He will direct in all his waies,
the lowly and the meek.

10 For all the waies of God, are trueth and mercy both:
To them that keepe his Testament,
the witness of his troth.

Th

The second part.

- 11 Now for thy holy name,
O Lord I thee intreat:
To graunt me pardon for my sinne,
for it is wondrous great.
- 12 Who so doth feare the Lord,
the Lord doth him direct:
To lead his life in such a way,
as he doth best accept.
- 13 His foule shall euermore,
in goodness dwell and stand:
His seed and his posteritie, inherite shall the land.
- 14 All those that feare the Lord,
know his secret intent:
And vnto them he doth declare,
his will and testament.
- 15 Myne eyes and eke my hart,
to him I will aduance:
That plucke my feete out of the snare,
of sinne and ignorance:
- 16 With mercy me behold,
to thee I make my moene:
For I am poore and desolate,
and comfortlesse alone.
- 17 The troubles of my hart,
are multiplied in daide:
Wyng me out of this misery,
necessitie and neede.
- 18 Behold my pueritie,
myne anguish and my payne:
Remit my sinne and myne offence,
and make me cleane agayne.
- 19 O Lord behold my foes,
how they do still increase:
Outsaying me with deadly hate,
that sayne would liue in peace.
- 20 Preserve and keepe my soule,
and eke deliuer me:
And let me not be overthowne,
because I trust in thee.
- 21 Let my simple pueritie, me from myne enemies shend:
Because I looke as one of chine, that thou shouldst me defend.
- 22 Deliuer Lord thy folke,
and send them some reliefe:
I meane thy chosen Israel,
from all their payne and griefe.

Iudica me Domine. Psal. xxvi. I. H.

David iudicially suppliceth, and helpeth, yet assured of his integritie to Saule, rather God to be his castles assured. When he desireth to be in the company of the saythfull in the congregation of God when he hath banished by Saule, a pious milde godly life, open prayer, chaste living, and sacrifice for his deliuerance.

Sing this as the 24. Psalme.

Lord be my iudge, and then shalt se,
my pathes be right and playne:
I trust in God and hope that he,
will strenght me to remayne.
2 Proue me my God I thee desire,
my wayes to search and try:
As men do proue their gold whether it my raiues and hart clyp.

- 3 Thy goodnesse lead before my face,
I dust beholde alwayes:
For of thy truth I tread the trace,
and will do all my dayes.
- 4 I do not lust to haunt a bide,
with men whose wordes are baine:
To come in house I do refuse,
with the deceitfull traine.
- 5 I much abhorre the wicked sort,
their deedes I do despise:
I do not once to them resort, that hurtfull thinges devise.
- 6 My handes I wash and do practise,
in wordes that are bright:
Then to thine altar I make spende,
to offer there in sight.
- 7 That I may speake & preach the praise,
that doth belong to thee:
And so declare how wondrous wayes,
thou hast bene good to mee.
- 8 O Lord thy house I loue most deare,
to me it doth excell:
I haue delihte and would be neare,
whereas thy grace doth dwell.
- 9 O shut not vp my soule with them,
in sinne that take their fill:
Nor yet my life among those men,
that seeke much blood to spill.
- 10 Whose handes are heape with craft,
their lips thereof are full: (guile)
And their right hand with wench & wine for bythes doth plucke and pull.
- 11 But I in righteousness entend,
my time and dayes to serue:
Thine mercy Lord and me defend,
so that I do not swerne.
- 12 My foote is stable for all assaies,
it standeth well and right:
Wherefore to God will I giue praise,
in all the peoples sight.

Dominus illumini. psal. xxvii. I. H.

David deliuered from great perils, much thanked wherein he sees his constant trust against the assaults of all enemies, and the end why he desireth to loue and to be deliuered. Then he exhorteth to faith and to attend vpon the Lord.

Sing this as the 18. psalme.

- The Lord is both my healty and light
What man make me dismaye?
Sith God doth giue me strenght might,
why should I be afraide?
- 2 Whyle that my foes with all their strenght begin with me to banke:
And thinke to eate me vp, at length themselves haue caught the fall.
- 3 Though they in campe agaynst me rise,
my hart is not afraide:
In battell might if they will try,
I trust in God for ayde.
- 4 One thing of God I do require,
that he will not deny:
For which I pray and will desire,
till he to me apply.
- 5 That I within his holy place,
my life throughout may dwell:
For

To see the beautie of his face,
and view his temple well.
In tyme of death he shall me hide,
within his place most pure:
And keepe me secret by his side,
as on a rocke most sure.

7 At length I know the Lords god grace, shall make me strong and stout:
My foes to foyle and cleane deface,
that compass me about.
8 Therefore within thy house will I,
give sacrifice of prayse:
With Olives and songs: I will apply, to laud the Lord alwayes.

The second part.

9 Lord heare the voyce of my request,
for which to thee I call:
Have mercy Lord on me oppressed,
and send me helpe withall.
10 My hart doth know thy grace: unto thee,
I line to haue thy grace:
Then seeke my face: thou to me,
Lord I will seeke thy face.

11 In wrath turne not thy face away,
nor suffer me to shide:
Thou art my helpe still to this day,
be still my God and guide.
12 My parentes both their soules forsooke, and cast me of at large:
And then the Lord himselfe yet toke,
of me the cure and charge.

13 Teach me O Lord the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right:
For feare of such as watch to me,
to trap me if they might.
14 Do not berake me to the will,
of them that be my foes:
For they surmise agaynst me still,
false witness to depose.

15 My hart would faynt, but that in me,
this hope is fixed fast:
The Lord Gods god grace shall it see,
in safe that eye shall last.

16 Trust still in God, whose whole thou his will abide thou must: (art
And he shall ease and strength thy heart,
if thou in him do trust.

Ad te Domine. Psal. xxviii. T. S.

Whying in feare and penitence to see Gods dhimes set by wicked men, he cryeth, for vengeance against them, & being assured that God hath heard him, he commendeth all the sayethall to his tuition.
Sing this as the 21. Psalme.

Thou art O Lord my strength and stay,
the succour which I crave:
Neglect me not least I be like,
to them that got to grave.
3 The voyce of thy suppant heare,
that burs thee both crye:
When I lift up my hands vnto,
thy holy Acts most hye.

Repute me not among the just,
of wicked and peruer:
That speake right face vnto their friends,
and thinke full ill in heart.
According to their hands wayes,
as they deserve in deede.

And after their sinnetions,
let them receive their meede.

For they regard nothing Gods wayes,
his law, he yet his loye:
Therefore he will them and their seede, destroy for ayme.

6 To render thanks vnto the Lord,
how great a cause haue I:
My voice, my praye, and my complaint,
that heare do willingly.

We to my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in battell:
My hope, my helpe, my heartes delight,
my song shall him confesse.
8 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist:
The health and the saluation,
of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage,
Lord bless, guide, and preserue:
Increase them Lord and rule their hearts,
that they may neuer swerne.

Afferte Domino. Psal. xxxix. T. S.

David exhorteth himselfe (why for the most part thinke there is no God) at the last to leave him for the thunder and tempestes, for feare whereof all creatures tremble. And albeit it thynketh thus need, yet it moueth hym to praye by a name.

Sing this as the 30. psalme.

Unto the Lord ye potenters, ye rulers of the world.
Gue ye all prayse, honour, and strength,
vnto the living Lord.
Gue honour to his holy name,
and honour him alone:
Worshyp him in his maiestie,
within his holy thone.

3 His voyce doth rule the waters all,
euen as himselfe doth please:
He doth prepare the thunderclaps,
and gouerneth all the Seas.
14 The voyce of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent:
It is most mightie in effect,
and most magnificient.

5 The voyce of God doth rent and breake,
the Cedar trees so long:
The Cedar trees of Libanus, which are most high and strong.

6 And makes them like as a Calfe, or els the ihericon:
7 Nor onely trees but mountaynes great,
whereon the trees are borne.

8 His voyce denoteth the flames of fire,
and shaketh the wilderness:
It makes the desert quake for feare,
that called is Cadon.
It makes the bindes for feare to Calne,
and makes the couer playne:
Then in his temple every man,
his glory doth praeyse.

10 The Lord will sit above the foudes, ruling the raging Sea:
So shall he raise up Lord and hye,
for ever and for aye.

11 The Lord will geue his people power,
in vertue to exalte:

When Dauid ſhould dedicate himſelfe to the Lord he felt extreme ſore without all hope of life, and therefore after recovery, he thanketh God, recommending others to do the like, and to learne by him, that God is rather mercifull then ſeuere towards his ſoule that aduerſitie is ſodaine. Then he prayeth and promiſeth to praiſe God for euer.

I laud and praye with hart and voice O Lord I come to thee: Which doſt not make my face reioyce, but haſt exalted me. 1. O Lord my God to thee I crye, in all my payne and grief:

Thou graunt an eare, and doſt promiſe to eaſe me with relief.

Of thy good wilt thou haſt cald backe,
my ſoule from hell to ſaue:

Thou doſt reuile when ſtrength did lacke,
and kept me from the graue.

4 Sing prayſe ye Saints that proue & ſee
the goodneſſe of the Lord:

In memorie of his mightie
reioyce with one accorde.

5 For why? his anger but a ſpace, ſorth faſt, and ſhake againe:

But in his fauour and his grace,
alwaies doth life remaine.

6 Though gripes of grieſe & pangues full ſhall lodge with his all night: (ſoye,

7 The Lord to ſoy ſhall be reioyce, before the day be light.

8 When I enioyce the world at will,
thouſt would I boaſt and ſay:

Unleſſe I am ſure to feele none ill,
this wealth ſhall not decay.

9 For thou O Lord of thy good grace,
haſt lent me ſtrength and aide:

But when thou treadſt away thy face,
my minde was ſoye diſmaide.

10 Wherefore againe yet did I crye, to thee O Lord of might:

My God with plaints I did apply, and praiſe both day and night.

11 What gaine is in my bloud ſoye I,
if death deſtroy my dayes:

Doth duſt declare thy mercie,

or yet thy truth doth praiſe?

12 Wherefore my God ſome pittie take,
O Lord I thee deſire:

Do not this ſimple ſoule forſake,
of helpe I thee requyre.

13 Thon doſt thou turne my grief & woe,
into a cheerefull boye:

The mourning webe thou tokeſt me fro and madeſt me to reioyce.

14 Wherefore my ſoule vncheerfully,
ſhall ſing unto thy prayſe:

My Lord my God, to thee will I, gene laud and thanks alwayes.

In te Domine ſper au. Pfal. xxxi. I. H.

Dauid deliuered from great danger betwixt death
what meditation hee had by the power of ſapientie, when death was before his eyes, and how the fa-uour of God alwayes is ready to thoſe that ſeare him. He exhorteth the ſapient to truſt in God, because he perfecteth them.

Sing this as the 18. pſalme.

O Lord I put my truſt in thee,
let nothing worke me ſhame:

As thou art with deliuer me,
and let me quite from blame.

2 Heare me O Lord and thou anon, to helpe me make god ſpede:

Be thou my roche and houſe of ſtone,
my fence in tyme of neede.

3 For why? as ſhewed thy ſtrength is tride,
thou art my forte and tower:

So thy names ſake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy power.

4 Blucke forth my ſtre out of the ſnare, which they for me haue layd:

Thou art my ſtrength, and all my care,
to for thy might and ayde.

5 Into thy handes Lord I commit my ſpirit which is thy due:

For why? thou haſt redeemed it,
O Lord my God moſt true.

6 I haue ſuch folke as will not part,
from thynge: to be abhorre:

When they on riddles ſet their hart,
my truſt is in the Lord,

my friends are all diſmaide:

My neighbours and my kinſmen boine,
to ſee me are afraid.

2 As men once dead are out of minde,
so am I now forgot:
As small effect in me they finde,
as in a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rout, their threats my minde did fray
How they conspide and went about,
to take my life away.

O Lord is in thy hand;
Defend me from the wrath and rage,
of them that me withstand.

16 As me thy seruant Lord expresse, and shew thy ioyfull face:
17 Praise me Lord for thy goodnesse, thy mercy and thy grace.

The third part.

17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call:
But let the wicked beare their shame,
and in the graue to fall.

18 O how great good hast thou in store,
sayd by full safe for them:
Thar feare and trust in thee therefore,
before the founteyne of men.

19 Thy presence shall them fence & guide from all proud brags and wronges:
Within thy place thou shalt them hyde,
from all the brisse of tongues.

20 Thanks to the Lord that hath declared on me his grace to fauour:
He to defend with watch and ward,
as in a towne of warre.

21 This did I say both day and night,
when I was sore opprest:
Loe I was cleane cast out of sight,
yet heardst thou my request.

22 Ye Saints loue ye the Lord I say,
the sayd shall he doth guide:
And to the proud he will repay,
according to their pride.

23 We wrong and God shall say you haue be done and haue a list:
For sure the Lord will take your part sith ye in him do trust.

Beati quorum. Psal. xxxii. T.S.

¶ Dauid punisheth with greuous sickness for his sin counteth them happy to whom God doth not im-pute their transgressions. And after that he had obtained his sinnes, and obtained pardon, he exhor-teth the wicked men to liue godly, and the good to reioyce.

Sing this as the 30. psalme.

The man is blest whose wickednesse,
the Lord hath cleane remitted:
And he whose sinne and wretchednesse,
is hid and alid covered.

2 And blest is he to whom the Lord,
imputeth not his sinne:
Which in his heart had hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein

3 For whilst that I kept close my sinne in silence and contraynt:

My bones did waste and wast away,
with dayly moone and playnt.

4 For night and day thy hand on me,
so greivous was and smart:
That all my blood and humours moyd,
to dymes did conuert.

5 I did therefore confesse my fault, and all my sinnes did confess: then O Lord didst me forgive, and all my sinnes past ouer.

6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seeketh in due time:
So that the floodes of water great,
shall haue no power on him.

7 When trouble and aduersitie, do compass me about:
Thou art my refuge and my toy,
and thou dost rid me out.

8 Come hether and I shall thee teach,
how thou shouldest walke aright:
And will the guide as I my selfe, haue leard by proofes and sight.

9 Be not so rude and ignorant,
as is the people and stule:
Whose mouth without a rayne or bit,
from harmethen canst not rule.

10 The wicked man shall manfolds
sorowes and griefe sustayne:
But unto him that trusteth in God,
his goodnesse shall remayne.

We mercy therefore in the Lord,
ye haue list by your voyce:
And ye of pure and perfect hart,
be glad and che reioyce.

Exultate iusti. Psal. xxxiii. I.H.

¶ The righteous good man shall praise God for creating and governing all things, for his saydfull promise, for scattering the counsell of the wicked reaching that no creature pestereth any man, but only his mercy.

Sing this as the 30. psalme.

Ye righteous in the Lord reioyce,
it is a seemely sight:
That bright men with thankfull voyce, should praise the Lord of might.

2 Praise ye the Lord with harpe & song,
in psalms and pleasant things:
With Lute and instrument among that soundeth with ten stringes.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage gae him praise:

4 For why his word is ever true,
his workes and all his wayes.

5 To iudgement equite and right,
he hath a great good will:
And with his giftes he doth delight,
the earth throughout to fill.

6 For by the word of God alone,
the heauens all were wrought:

Their hostes and powers every chome, his breath to passe hath brought.

7 The waters great gathered hath he,
on heapes within the shore:
And bid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.

9 All men on earth both leste and most,
fear God and kepe his law:
Ye that inhabite in eche coast,
breathe him and stand in awe.
10 What he commaunded wroughte it was at once with present spede:
What he doth will is broughte to passe,
with full effect in dede.

11 The counsels of the nations rude,
the Lord doth bringe to nought:
He doth defeat the multitude,
of their deuise and thought.
12 But his decrees continue still,
they neuer slacke of swage:
13 The motions of his minde and will,
take place in euerie age.

The second part.

14 And blest are they to whome the Lord
as God and guide is knowne:
Whom he doth chuse of mere accord
to take them as his owne.
15 The Lord from heauen cast his sight,
on men mortall by birth:
Considering from his seate of might,
the dwellers of the earth.

The Lord I say whose had hath wrought
manns dact and doth it frame:
For he alone doth knowe the thought,
and working of the same.
16 A king that trusteth in his host,
shall nought prynciple at length.
The man that of his might doth boast,
shall faile for all his strength.

17 The trouper of horsemen he shall faile their sturdy shaddes shall flie:
The strength of horse shall not prynciple,
the rider to preserue.
18 But loe the eyes of God entend,
and watch to abyde the iust:
Whiche such as feare him to offend,
and on his goodnesse trust.

19 That he of death and all distresse, may set their soules from dead:
And if that deathe thes laud oppresse,
in hunger them to fede.
20 Wherefore our soules do still depend,
on God our strength and stay:
He is the shield vs to defend,
and purge all darters away.

21 Our soule in God hath joy and game, reioyng in his might:
For why? in his most holy name,
we hope and much delight.

22 Therefore let thy goodnesse O Lord, still present with vs be:
And we alwayes with one accord do onely trust in the.
Benedicam Domi. Psal. xxxiiii. T. 3

¶ David hauing escaped Achis (1. Sam. 21) by ap-peale to God for his deliverance, giuing others example to trust in God, to saue and strent him, who defendeth the godly with his angels, and vicerly destroyeth
the wicked in their finnes.

Sing this as the 30. psalme.

I will giue laud and honoꝝe to the Lord alwayes.

And eke my mouth for euermore, shall speake vnto his prayse.
3 I do delight to laud the Lord,
in soule and eke in voyce:
That humble men and mortified:
may heare and so reioyce.

4 Therefore se that ye magnifie, with me the liuing Lord:
And let vs now exalte his name,
together with one accord.

5 For I my self besought the Lord,
he answered me agayne:
And me deliuered in continant,
from all my feare and payne.

6 Who so they be that him behold, shall see his light most cleare:
Their countenance shall nor be dasht,
they neede it not to feare.

7 This sile wryeth for some reliefe, vnto the Lord he call:
Who did him heare without delay and rid him out of thail.

8 The Angell of the Lord doth pische, his tentes in euerie place:
To saue all such as feare the Lord,
that nothing them deface.

9 Taste and consider well therefore,
that God is god and iust:
O happy man that maketh him,
his only King and trust.

10 Feare ye the Lord ye holy ones,
aboue all earthly thing:
For they that feare the liuing Lord,
are sure to lack nothing.

11 The Lions shall be hungerbit, and pinde with famine much:
But as for them that feare the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.

The second part.

12 Come neare therfore my children deare and to my wordes giue eare:
I shall you teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord should feare.

13 Who is that man that would liue long and lead a blessed life:
Se thou refraine thy tongue and lips,
from all deceit and strife.

14 Turne back thy face from doing ill,
and doe the goodly dede:
Inquire for peace and righteousness,
and follow it with spede.

15 For why? the eyes of God aboue,
vpon the iust are bent:
His eares likewise do heare the playnt,
of the poore innocent.

But he doth frowne and bend the browes
vpon the wicked trayne:

16 And thus away the memory,
that should of them remaine.
17 But when the iust do call and cry,
the Lord doth heare them, so:
What out of payne and misery,
forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is kinde & straight at hand, to such as be contrite:
19

We saues also the sines to full,
the meke and pome in Griste, Full may be the miseries,
that righteous men do suffer:
But out of all adversities,
the Lord doth them deliver.

30 The Lord doth so preserve and keep,
his very bones alway:
That not so much as one of them,
doth perish or decay.

31 The sinne shall flee the wicked man,
which he himselfe hath wrought:
And such as hate the righteous man,
shall come be brought to nought.

32 But they that serue the living Lord,
the Lord doth saue them sound:
And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

Iudica Domine. Psalxxxv. I. H.

¶ Sauls flatterers persecuted David, who prayeth for vengeance, that his innocency may bee declared, and that such as take his part may reioyce, for which he promisseth to magnify Gods name all the dayes of his lyfe.
Sing this as the humble sute of a Sinner.

Lord plead my cause agaynst my foes, confound their force and might:
Fight on my part agaynst all those,
that seke to wring me to flight.
2 Lay hand upon thy speare and shield,
thy selfe in armours dresse:
Stand by for me and fight the field,
to helpe me from distress.

3 Bird on thy sword and stop the way,
mine enemies to withstand:
That thou unto my soule mayst say,
loe I thy helpe at hande.

4 Confound them with rebuke and blame,
that seke my soule to spill:
Let them turne back and flee with shame,
that thinke to worke me ill.

5 Let them disperse and flee abroade,
as wind doth drive the dust:
And that the Angel of our God,
their might away may thrust.

6 Let all their wayes be boyd of light, and slippery like to fall:
And send thine Angell with thy might,
to persecute them all.

7 For why without my fault they hate,
in secrete for their gain:
And for no cause haue digh a cause,
to take my soule therein.

8 When they think least to haue no care,
O Lord destroy them all:
Let them be trap in their own snare,
and in their mischiefes fall.

9 And leaue my soule, my hatt and hope,
in God haue joy and wealth:
That in the Lord I may reioyce,
and in his lasting health.

10 And then my bones shall speake & say,
my pacts shall all agree:

O Lord though they do seeme full gay,
what man is like to this?

The second part.

11 Thou dost defend the weake fro them that are both stout and strong:
And rid the poore from wicked men,
that theyle and do them wrong.

12 Thy cruell foes agaynst me rise, to winne all thynges by force:
And to accuse me they devise,
of that I neuer knewe.

13 Where I to them doe owe good will,
they quite me with disdain:
That they should pay my good with ill,
my soule doth lose complaine.

14 When they were rich I mouned therefore and clad my selfe in sack:
With fasting I did saynt fast loose,
to pray I was not slack.

15 As they had bene my brethren deare,
I did my selfe becheare:
As one that maketh wofull cheare,
about his mothers graue.

16 But they at my dislike did toy,
and gather on a row:
Yea abiect flauers at me did toy,
with mockes and chereles flout.

17 The belly gods and flattering trayne, that all good thynges debase:
At me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their moneths allowance.

18 Lord when wilt thou avenge this gear,
why dost thou stay and pause?
O rid my soule mine only deare,
out of these Lions claws.

19 And then I will give thanks to the,
before the Church alwayes:
And whereas most of people be,
there will I shew thy praise.

20 Let not my foes pynneale on me,
which hate me for no fault:
Nor yet to winke or turne their eye,
that causeth me assault.

The third part.

21 Of peace no word they thinke or say,
their talke is all butne:
They still consill and wound betray,
all those that peace ensue.

22 With open mouth they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they scorne:
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see,
the thyng that we desire.

23 But Lord thou seest what wayes they cease not this gear to mend: (take
We not farre off nor me forsake, as men that sayle their friend.

24 Awake, arise, and stirre abroad,
defend me in my fight:
Revenge my cause my Lord my God,
and ayde me with thy might.

25 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God set me free:
And let not them their pride exalte,
nor triumph ouer me.

26 Let not their hautes reioyce and cry,
there, there, this gear goeth crimi:
Nor giue them cause to say on high,

we haue one wiſdom þen.

17 Confound them with rebuke & ſhame,
that ſay when I do mourne:
And pay them home with ſpite and blame.
that bragge at me with ſcorne.

18 Let them be glad and cheereful, which leaue anye byſight way:
And they all ryme with hart and voyce,
ſhall praife the Lord, and ſay.

19 Great is the Lord and doth excell,
for why, he doth delight:
To ſee his ſeruaunts prosper well,
that in his pleaſure ſight.

20 Wherefore my tongue I will apply, thy righteousneſſe to praife:
Unto the Lord my God will I, ſing laud and ſounde alwaies.

Dixit iniuſtus, Pſal. xxxvi. I.H.

David ſpeeth by the wicked, compariſon of their malice, but ſhewyng yete great mercy to all creatures, ſpecially toward his children, by ſayng that he is comforted and aſſured of his deliuerance.

Sing this as the humble ſure of a Sinner.

The wicked with his woordes vntruſt,
doth thus perſwade his hart:
That of the Lord he hath no truſt,
his feare he ſet apart.

2 Yet doth he ſay in his eſtate, to walke as he began:
So long till he deſerue the hate,
of God and eke of man.

3 His wordes are wicked, bile & nought, his tongue no truſt doth tell:
Yet at no hand will he be taught,
which way he may do well.

4 When he doth ſlepe then doth he miſe,
his miſchief to ſubiſe:
How wicked wayes he doth here liſe,
nor nothing that is iuſt.

5 But Lord thy goodneſſe doth aſcend, aboue the heauens high:
So doth thy truth it ſelfe extend,
vnto the cloude ſhie.

6 Much more then hilles ſo high & ſtepe
thy iuſtice is expreſſe:
Thy iudgement like to leaſt moſt deepe,
thou ſaweſt both men and beaſt.

7 Thy mercy is aboue all thinges,
O God it doth excell:
In truſt whereof as in thy winges,
the ſonnes of men ſhall dwell.

8 Within thy houſe they ſhall be ſub, with plenty at their will:
Of all delights they ſhall be ſub,
and take therout their fill.

9 For why? the well of liſe ſo pure, doth overflow from the:
And in thy light we are full ſure,
the laſting light to ſee.

10 From ſuch as the deſire to know,
let not thy grace depart:
Thy righteousneſſe decline and ſhow,
to men of byſight hart.

Let not they ſee an enuyous

O Lord of thy good grace:
Do let the wicked me aſſaile,
to throw me out of place.

11 But they in their deuils ſhall ſay that wicked woordes maintain:
They ſhall be overthowne worſhall,
and neuer riſe agayne.

Noli emulari, Pſal. xxxvij. W.W.

Because the goodly ſhould not be deuoured to ſee, when men proſper, David ſheweth that althynge ſhalbe granted men with hartes deſire of them charitable and gentle God: but the wicked althynge they ſeek for a tyme, ſhall at length perſh.

Sing this as the 53. pſalme.

Ridge not to ſee the wicked men,
in wealthy do ſourly ſill:
Nor yet enuy ſuch as to ill,
haue bent and ſet their will.

2 For as greene graſſe & ſtopping heades,
are cut and wnder away:
So ſhall their great powerie,
ſone paſſe ſad and decay.

3 Truſt thou therfore in God alone,
to do well gae thy mynde:
So wait thou haue the land as thine,
and there ſure tobe ſhalt finde.

4 In God ſet al thy hartes delight, and loke what thou wouldeſt haue Gyſte canſt wiſh in all the world, thou needeſt it not to craue.

5 Caſt both thy ſelfe and thine affaires,
on God with perſeuer truſt:
And thou ſhalt be with patience,
the effect both ſure and iuſt.

6 Thy perſeuer liſe and godly name,
he will cleare as the light:
So that the Sunne euen at none dayes, ſhall not thine halſe to bright.

7 Be ſtill therfore and deſireſty, on God in thou wait then:
Not ſtandynge for the prosperous ſtate, of lewd and wicked men.

8 Be ſhake of deſpight, enue and hate,
at leaſt in any wiſe:
The wicked ſteps awoy and ſie,
and follow not their guiſe.

For every wicked man will God
deſtroy both moze and leſſe:

9 But ſuch as truſt in God are ſure,
the land ſo to poſſeſſe:
10 Watch but a while and thou ſhalt ſee,
no moze the wicked reayne:

11 No nor to much as hence of place,
where once he had remayne.
The ſecond part.

12 But mercifull and humble men,
enjoy ſhall ſea and land:

13 In reſt and peace they ſhall reioyce, for nought ſhall them withſtand.

14 The lewd men and malicious, againſt the juſt conſpire:
They gnaw their reſt as him as men,
which do his name deſire.

But while that lewd men thus do think the Lord laughs them to ſcorne:
3 why? he ſeech them euen & appoyne, when they ſhal ſtand mourne

the

14 The wicked haue their sword out drawn,
their bow they haue they bent:
To ouerthrow and kill the pious,
as they the right way went.

15 But the same sword shall pierce them which was to kill the iust: (harres, Likewise the bow shall speake to iudges, wherein they put their trust.

16 Doubtlesse the iust mans poore estate, is better a great deale more:
Then all these lewd and worldly mens rich poynte and heaped store.

17 For by their power neuer so strong,
God will it ouerthrow:
Where contrary he doth preserve,
the humble men and low.

18 The sark by his great prouidence,
the good mens trade and way:
And will giue them inheritance,
which neuer shall decay.

19 They shall not be discouraged,
when some are hard belied:
When other shall be hungerbit,
they shall be clad and fed.

20 For whosoener wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord:
Shall quaple, yea melt euen as Lambes as smothered flies abroad. (great,

The third part.

21 Behold the wicked howeuer much,
and neuer payeth agayne:
Whereas the iust by liberrall giftes,
make many glad and fayne.

22 For they whom God doth bleesse shall the land for heritage: (haue,
And they whom he doth curse likewise, shall perishe in his rage.

23 The Lord the iust mans cause doth guide, and giues him good successe:
To every thing he takes in hand,
he leaues it good addresse.

24 Though that he fall, yet he is sure not utterly to quaple:
Because the Lord stretcheth out his hand at neede and doth not faile.

25 I haue bene young and now am old,
yet did I neuer le:
The iust man leste, nor yet his feide,
to begge for misery.

26 But giues alwayes most liberrally, and lendes where as is neede:
His children and poveritie, receiue of God their meede.

27 Flye vice therefore and wickednesse, and vertue do imbrace:
So God shall graunt the long to haue,
on earth a dwelling place.

28 For God so loueth equitie, and sheweth to his rich grace:
That he preserveth them euermore,
but destroyeth the wicked race.

29 Whereas the good and godly men, inherit shall the land:
Hauing as Lordes all thyngs therein,
in their owne power and hand.

30 The iust mans mouth doth euer speake of matters wise and true:

His tongue doth talke and chide,

with court and equite.

31 For in his heart the law of God,
his Lord doth still abide:
So that where euer he goe or walke,
his foote can neuer slide.

32 The wicked like a running water,
the iust man doth beset:
By all meanes he bring him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth part.

33 Though he should fall into his handes, yet God would succour send:
Though men against him sentence giue,
God will him yet defend.

34 Wayt then on God & keepe his way,
he shall preserve thee then:
The earth to rule and thou shalt sit,
destroyd these wicked men.

35 The wicked haue I seene most strong,
and placed in high degree:
Flopping in all wealth and store,
as doth the Laurell tree.

36 But suddenly he passeth away,
and loe he was quite gone:
Then I him sought but could scarce finde,
the place where dwelt such one.

37 Marke and behold the perill man,
how God doth him increase:
For the iust man shall haue at length,
great joy with rest and peace.

38 As for transgressors, woe to them, destroyd they shall all be:
God will cut off their buddying race,
and rich possessorie.

39 But the saluation of the iust,
doth come from God above:
Who in their trouble sendeth them ayde,
of his more grace and loue.

40 God doth them helpe saue and deliuer,
from lewd men and unkind:
And still will saue them whilst that they,
in him do put their trust.

Domine ne in furore, Psal. xxxviii. I. H
David sicke of some grievous disease, acknowlgeth himselfe to be chastised of the Lord for his sinnes: and therefore prayeth God to turne away his wrath, but in the end worthy some confidence and commending his cause to God, hoping for his helpe at his hand.

Sing this as the humble sute of a Sinner.

Prere me not to rebuke: (O Lord,)
in thy prouoked ire:
As in thy heauy wrath: (O Lord,) correct me I desire.

2 Thine arrowes do sticke fast in me,
thy hand doth presse me sore:
And in my flesh no health at all,
appareth any more.

3 And all this is by reason of,
thy wrath that I am in:
For any rest is in my bones,
by reason of my sinne.

4 For loe, my wicked doynge Lord,
about my head are gone:
A Greater Iode then I can beare,
they lye all lode vpon.

My wounded sinne and are distressed so,
as lochsome in to be:
Which all through myne owne foolishnes,
betwixt into me.

And I in carefull wisdome brought,
in trouble and distress:

That I goe wayling all the day,
my dolefull heavynesse.

My loynes are hid with soze disease,
my flesh hath my whole part:

I feeble am and broken force,
I roare for grief of heart.

Thou knowest Lord my desire, my are open in thy sight: ^(groaned)

My hart both pants, my strength both myne eyes have lost their sight. ^(sighed)

My lovers and my wonted frendes, stand looking on my woe:

And eke my kinmen farre away,
are me departed fro.

They that did seeke my life sayd sinners,
and they that sought the way

To do me hurt, speake heere, and thought on treason all the day.

The second part.

But as a deafe man I became,
that can not heare at all:

And as one dum that opens not,
his mouth to speake withall.

For all my confidence O Lord,
is wholly set on thee:

O Lord thou Lord that see my God,
thou shalt give care to me.

Thou didst I craue, that they my foes,
triumph not over me:

For when my force did slip, then they,
did see my fall to see.

And truly I poyse wretch am set,
in plague a woefull wight:

And eke my greivous heavynesse, is euer in my sight.

For while that I my wickednesse,
in humble wise confesse:

And while I for my sinnes full dobes,
my sorowes do expresse.

My foes do still remaine alive,
and mighty are also:

And they that hate me wrongfully,
in number hugely grow.

They stand agaynst me that my god,
with enill do repay:

Because that god and honest thynges,
I do ensue alway.

For sake me not my Lord my God,
be thou not farre away:

That me to helpe my Lord my God,
my safety and my stay.

Dixi confodiam, Psal. xxxix. I. H.

David hauing betwixt silence yet hadt forth line to woe, for he would not, through his bitter griefe, for he maketh certein requests which taste of mans infirmities, yet mixed with many prayes and all to shew a mynd wonderfully troubled, that it may appeare how he bid himselfe might helpe agaynst death and desperation.

Sing this as the humble sute of a Sinner.

I sayd I will looke to my wayes,
for feare I should go wronge

I will take heed all tymes that I offend not in my tongue.

As with a bee I will worpe fast,
my mouth with soze and might:
For once: o whisper all the while,
the wicked are in sight.

I held my tongue and spake no word,
but kept me close and still:
Yea from god take I did refrayne,
but soze agaynst my will.

My hart waxt hote within in my brest,
with musing thought and doubt:
Which did encrease and thicke the fire,
at last these wordes brast out.

Lord number out my life and dayes,
which yet I haue not past:
So that I may be certifie,
how long my life shall last.

Lord thou hast poynted out my life,
in length much like a span:
Mine age is nothing but to thee,
is daye is euer man.

Man walketh like a shade, and doth
in daye himselfe annoy:
In getting goods and cannot tell,
who shall the same enjoy.

Now Lord thy things this wife doe
what helpe do I desire? ^(sighes)
Of truth my helpe doth hang on thee,
I nothing els require.

The second part.

For all the sinnes that I haue done,
Lord quite me out of hand:

And make me not a scoone to soles,
that nothing vnderstand.

I was as dum, and to complayne,
no trouble might me moue:

Because I know it was thy woeke,
my patience for to proue.

Lord take from me thy scourge & plague
I can them not withstand:

I saynt and pine away, for feare,
of thy most heauy hand.

When thou for sinne doest man rebuke,
he wavereth and wane:

As both a cloth that mothes haue fret,
so daye a thyng is man.

Lord heare my sute & giue god heere,
regard my teares that fall:

I forioyne like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.

O spare a little, giue me spare,
my strength for to restore:

Before I goe away from hence,
and shall be seene no more.
Expectans expectaui, Psal. xl. I. H.

David deliuered from great danger, doth magnify his God therefore, and commendeth his prouidence towards all mankind. Then he promyseth to regenerate himselfe wholly in Gods service, and declareth how God is truly worshipped: Afterward hee giueth thanks, and hauing complained of his enemies, he callith for ayde and succour.

Sing this as the 35. psalme.

I wayted long and sought the Lord,
and patiently did beare:
At length to me he did accord

my voyce and cry to heare.
 1 The pluckt me from the lake of depe.
 out of the myre and clay:
 And on a rocke did set my foote,
 and heere guide my way.
 2 To me he taught a psalme of praye,
 which I must shew abroad:
 And sing new songes of thanks alwayes, unto the Lord our God.
 4 When all the folk: their thyngs shall se as people much astoy:
 Then they unto the Lord will cry,
 and crush upon his ayde.

5 O blest is he whose hope and hart,
 doth in the Lord remaine.
 That with the proud doth take no part,
 nor such as lye and feyne.
 6 For Lord my God, thy wondrous deedes in greatness farre do passe:
 Thy fauour towards vs exceeds,
 all thynges that euer was.

7 When I entred and do demise,
 thy wayes abroad to shew:
 To such a reckoning they do rise, thereof anend I know.
 8 Wont offerings thou delightest not in,
 I know thy whole desire:
 With sacrifice to purge his sinne,
 thou doest no man require.

9 Meat offerings and sacrifices, thou wouldst not haue at all:
 But thou O Lord hast open made,
 mine eares to heare thy will.
 10 But then sayd I, behold and loke,
 I come a meane to be:
 For is the volume of thy booke,
 thus it is sayd of me.

11 That I O God should do thy mind, which thing doth like me well:
 For in my hart thy Law I finde, fast plac'd there to dwell.
 12 Thy iustice and thy righteousness,
 in great reioyses I tell:
 Behold my tongue no time doth cease,
 O Lord thou knowest full well.
 The second part.

13 I haue not hid within my brest,
 thy goodnesse as by stealth:
 But I declare and haue rejoyc'd,
 thy truth and lasting health.
 14 I hepe not close thy louing minde,
 that no man should it know:
 The trust that in thy truth I finde,
 to all the Church I shew.

For I with mischiefes many one,
 am forse beset about:
 My sinnes increase and so come on,
 I cannot spee them out.
 15 For why? in number they excede, the deares upon my head:
 My hart doth layne for eery deede that I am almost dead.

16 With speeke send helpe and set me free
 O Lord I thus require:
 As the hart with spee to succour me,
 O Lord at my desire.

17 Let them that sayest rebuke and shame,
 that seke my soule to spill:
 Drive back my bow, and chaine be lame,
 that with and wound me ill.

18 For their ill ventres do them desire,
 that would deface my name:
 As wayes as me they ruple and rife,
 Be on him, he sayd them.
 19 Let them in their hunger and wealt that seke to the shew:
 That those that loue thy lasting health,
 may say, to God be praise.

20 But as for me I am but poore, opprest and brought full low:
 Yet thou O Lord wilt me restore,
 to health full well I know.
 21 For why? thou art my hope and trust,
 my refuge, helpe and lay:
 Wherefore my God as thou art iust,
 with me no tyme delay.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. xli. T.S.

Dante grimely afflicte, blassey them that pay his cast, complaining of fardel's trauers such as Iudas. Joh. 23. When he gently chides the Gods mercy in chastising him gently, not suffering his enemies to triumph.

The man is blest that carefull is the needy to consider: For in the season

perious the Lord will him deliuer

2. The Lord will make hym safe and sound & happy in the land: And he will not deliuer him into his enemies hnd.

And in bisnes when he lyeth sick,

the Lord will him restore:

And thou O Lord wilt turne to health,

his sickness and his foese.

4 Then in my sickness thus say I,

haue mercy Lord on me:

And heale my soule which is full woe,

that I offended thee.

5 Mine enemies wisht me ill to heart,

and thus of me did say:
 When shall he dye, that al his name,
 may banish quite away.
 6 And when they come to visit me,
 they aske if I do well:
 And in their heartes will chiefe they had,
 and to their mates it tell.

They bite their lips and whisper so as though they wold me harme.

And

And cast their net how he trap, me with some word shall have.
Some gracious sin hath brought him to this sickness say they plaint:
He is so low that without doubt ill can be not againe.

9 The man also that I did trust,
with me did use deceit:
Who at my table eats my bread,
the same for me layd waie.
10 Where mercy Lord on me therefore,
and let me be preferred:
That I may never hurt them,
the which yet they have defamed.

11 By this I know assuredly,
I am belov'd of thee:
Whence mine enemies have no cause,
to triumph over me.
12 But in my sight thou hast me hope,
and maintainest alway:
And in thy presence place assignd,
where I shall dwell for aye.

13 The Lord the God of Israel be praised eternally:
When to be it Lord with Israel, evenso be it therefore.

Quemadmodum. Psal. xliij. I. H.

Would it were that through penitence's way could not be present in the congregation, thy justice in heart, albeit in body separate. As I be the more that notwithstanding these capotes & thoughts yet incessantly pursue his witness in the Lord.

Sing this as the humble sure of a Sinner
[T]he as the hart doth breath and day
the wellspring to obtaine:
So doth my soule desire alway,
with thee Lord to remaine.
1 My soule doth thirst & would draw neare,
the living God of might:
Oh when shall I come and appeare,
in presence of his sight?
2 The teares all times are my repast,
which from mine eyes do flow:
When wicked men cry out so fast,
where now is God thy guide?
3 Alas what grief is this to thinke, what freedom once I had?
Therefore my soule as at pits brinche, is most heavy and sad.

When I did march in good array,
furnished with my trayne:
Unto the temple was our way,
with songs and harps mostaine.
4 My soule why art thou sad alway?
and fere thee thus in my heart?
Trust still in God, for him to praye,
I hold it alway best.

When I have succour at neede,
against all paine and griefe:
He is my God which with all speede,
will hast to send reliefe.
5 And thus my soule within me Lord, doth faint to thinke upon:
The land of Jordan, and receiveth
the lute hill Hermon.

The second part.

One grieke another in both call,
as clowes burst out their doyle:
The fowles of euill that do fall,
runne over me with noyle.
6 Yet I by day feele his goodness,
and helpe at all alway:
Likewise by night I did not cease,
the living God to praye.

7 I am persuaded thus to say,
to him with pure presence:
O Lord thou art my guide and day,
my rocke and my defence.
Why do I then in penitence, hanging the head thus walke:
Where that mine enemies are opposit, and becom with their talke?

8 For why? they beate mine inward parts with pangas to be abhor:
When they cry out with suborne hearts,
where is thy God thy Lord?
9 So faine why dost thou faint and quail
my soule with paine opprest:
Why thoughtest why dost thy self assayle,
in love within my heart?

10 Trust in the Lord thy God alwayes, and thou the time shalt see:
To see him thanks with loud and praise,
for health restore to thee.

Iudica me Domine. Psal. xliij. T.S.
The prayer to be delivered from them which confide with askeles, to the case that he might hope fully praise God in his holy congregation.

Sing this as the 35. psalme.
I Judge and reuenge my cause O Lord,
from them that still be:
From wicked and deceitfull men,
O Lord deliuer me.
2 For of my strength thou art the God,
why part thou me thee fro?
And why walke I so heavily,
oppressed with my foe.
3 Send out thy light and cheere thy trust,
and lead me with thy grace:
Which may conduct me to thy hall,
and to thy dwelling place.
4 Then shall I to the altar goe, of God my joy and cheere
And on my scape gaele, attend to thee,
O God my God most deare.

5 Why art thou then so sad my soule,
and fere thee thus in my heart?
Still trust in God for him to praise,
I hold it alway best.
6 By him I have deliuerance,
against all paine and griefe:
He is my God which doth alway,
at neede send me reliefe.

Deus auribus. Psal. xliij. T.S.
A most earnest prayer made in the name of the lovelyfull in penitence, for obtaining the quoad of Gods worship, as in S. Paul. Rom. viij.

○
We care have heard our foes
C them

3 They conquered not by sword nor by strength
the land of thy best:

But by thy hand, thyne arme and grace,
becaus thou lovedst them best.

4 Thou art my King O God, that helpe
Jacob in sondry wise:

5 Led with thy power we threw down such as did against vs rise.

6 I trusted not in bow nor sword,
they could not save me found:

7 Thou keptst vs from our enemies rage, thoudidst our foes confound.

8 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy name.

9 Yet now thou goest not with our host,
but leavest vs to shame.

10 Thou madest vs flee before our foes,
and so were ouertrod:

Our enemies tobd and spoyld our goods,
while we were sparke abroad.

11 Thou hast vs given to our foes,
as sheepe for to be slain:

Among the heathen enemy where,
scattered we do remaine.

12 Thy people thou hast sold like slaves,
and as a thing of nought:

For profite none thou hast theyrby,
no gaine at all was sought.

13 And so our neighbors thou hast made,
of vs a laughing stocke:

And those that round about vs dwell,
at vs do grinne and mocke.

The second part.

Thus we leue for none other ble,
but for a common calke:

They mock, they scorn, they nod their heads
where ever they go or walke.

15 I am ashamed continually, to heare these wicked men:

Yea so I blush that all my face,
with red is covered then.

16 For why we hear such flatterous word such false reports and lies:

They deare it is to see their wrongs,
their cheannings and their tricks.

17 For all this we forget not thee,
nor yet thy constant care:

18 We turne not back our backs from thee,
nor yet thy pathes forsake.

19 Yet thou hast trad vs down to dust,
where dens of dragons be:

And covered vs with shade of death,
and great aduerty.

20 If we had our Gods name forgot,
and helpe of Idols sought:

21 Would not God then haue tried this out for he doth know our thought?

22 Nay, nay, for thy names sake O Lord, alwaies are we thine thus:

As sheepe vnto the shepales tent,
right so they deale with vs.

23 O Lord why sleepest thou awake,
and leaue vs not for all:

24 Why hidest thou thy countenance, and dost forget out thyall?

25 For down to dust our soul is brought and we now at last cast:

Our belly like as it were glude, vnto the ground cleaues fast.

26 Rise by therefore for our defence,
and help vs Lord at neede:

We thee beseech of thy goodness,
to rescue vs with speede.

Eructauit cor meum. Psal. xlv. I

Salomon hymn maistie, honout, strength, beauty, riches, and power our prayse for hym marriage with the Egyptian, an heathen woman, is blest, if that she renounce her people, and country, and geue her selfe wholy to her husband. There is figure the wothers full meishy, and increase of Chrystes kingdom and the Church hym spouse now taken of the Emile,

Sing this as the 25. psalme.

My hart doth take in hand,
some godly song to sing:

The praise that I shall shew therein,
pertayneth to the King.

2 My rounge shall be as quick his honoy to endore:

As is the pen of any Scribe that blessh fast to write.

3

O thyself of all men,
thy speech is pleasant pure:

For God hath blessed thee with gifts,
for euer to endure.

4 About thee gird thy sword,
O Prince of might elect:

With honoy, glory, and renowne,
thy person pure is deckt.

5 Go forth with godly speed,
in meeknes, truth, and right:

And thy right hand shall thee instruct,
in workes of thy aduall might.

6 Thy arrowes sharp and keen,
their hearts to sore shall sting:

That folk shall fall and kneel to thee,
yea all thy foes (O King.)

7 Thy royal seat O Lord,

For ever shall continue:
Because the scepter of thy realme,
doth righteousnes maintaine:
Because thou louest the right,
and doest the ill detest:
God euen thy God hath raymed thee,
with joy above the rest.
With fflayre and fauours sweet,
thy clothes are all bespced:
When thou dost from thy pallace passe, therein to make thee glad.
Kings daughters do attend,
in fine and rich array:
At thy right hand the Queene doth stand,
in gold and garments gay.

The second part.

11 O daughter take good heed,
incline and geue good eare:
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers house most deare.
12 Then shall the king desire,
thy beauty saye and reioyce:
For why? he is the Lord thy God,
and thou must worship him.
13 The daughters then of Tyre, with giftes full rich to see:
In all the wealth of the land, shall make their suite to thee.
14 The daughter of the king,
is glorious to behold:
Within her closet the doth sit,
all deckt in beaten gold.
15 In robes well wrought with needle,
and many a pleasant thing:
With Virgins faire on her to waite,
the cometh to the king.
16 Thus are they brought with joy,
and mirth on euery side:
Into the pallace of the king,
and there they do abide.

17 In stead of parents left,
(O Queene thy chaunce so stands)
Thou wast bene sons whom thou must see as Dauides in all landes.
18 Whereof thy holy name,
all ages shall record:
Thy people shall geue thanks to thee,
for euermore O Lord.
Deus nostri refugium. Psal. xli. I. H.

A song of thanksgiving for the deliuerance of Jerusalem after Sennacherib with his army was driuen awaye, & some other lyke sayings and mar-uailous deliuerances, by the mighty hand of GOD:
whereby the Prophet commendinge this great benefit, doth exhort the faithful to geue them selues wholy into the hands of God, doubting nothing but that vnder his protection they shall be safe, as gaunt all the armies of their enemies.

The Lord is our defence and ayde
the strength whereby we stand: When we with wee are much dismayed, he is our helpe at hand. 1. Though throned remoue, we will not feare, though hills so high and deepe: Be thoust and hurled here and there, with in the sea to deepe.

2. Though the waves do rage so foye, that all the banks it spoye:
And though it ouerflow the wynde,
and beat downe mighty hills.
4 For one saye: stand both so nry abroad,
his pleasures shewes aspace:
To fresh the city of our God,
and wash his holy place.
5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
he can no whit decay:
All things against her that rebel,
the Lord will truly say.
6 The heathen flock, the kingdoms fence,
the people make a noyce:
The earth doth melt and not appeare,
when God purp sayth his voice.
7 The Lord of hostes doth take our part to vs he hath an eye:
Our hope of health with all our heart,
on Jacobs God hath lye.
8 Come heare and see with mind & thought the working of our God:
What wonders he him self hath wrought,
throughout the earth abroad.

9 By him all wars are hush and gone,
which countries did conspire:
Their bowes he brake and spears eachone, their chariots burnt with fire.
10 Leane off therfore (saith he) and know,
I am a God most stout:
Among the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.
11 The Lord of hostes doth be defendy
he is our strength and tower:
On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on his might and power.

Omnes gentes. Psal. xlvii. I. H.

An exhortation to worship God for his merites to warre Jacobs posteritie. herein is prophesied the kingdome of Christ, in the tyme of the Gospell.

Sing this as the 46. psalme.
Y people all with one accord,
clap hands and che reioyce:
Be glad and sing vnto the Lord
with sweete and pleasant voyce.
2 For high the Lord and dreadfull is with wonders manifold:
A mighty king he is truly,
in all the earth extold.

3 The people he shall come to be, unto our bondage shall:

And vnderneath our feet, he shall
the nations make to fall.

4 For as the heritage be chose,
which we possesse alone:

The flourishing worship of Jacob,
his welbeloued one.

5 One God ascended by on hye, with joy and pleasant noyse:
The Lord goeth by above the hye, with trumpets to sell voyce.

6 Sing prayles to our God, sing prayles:
sing prayles to our King:

For God is King of all the earth,
all shalfull prayles sing.

7 God on the heathen reignes and sits,
upon his holy thron:

8 The princes of the people haue, them toynd euery one,
To Abraham's people, for our God,
which is exalted hye:

As with a buckler Lord defend,
the earth continually.

Magnus Dominus, Psal. xlviii. I. H.

¶ Chances are given to God for the notable deliues rance of Iherusalem from the hands of many kings: the state whereof is prayled, for that GOD is present at all times to defend it: this psalme is met with to be made in the time of Simeon, Iosaphat, & sa of the title: for the same reason, was the title by Seyaine princes aduanced.

Sing this as the 46. psalme.

Great is the Lord and with great prayles, to be aduanced still:

Within the city of our Lord,

upon his holy hill.

9 Mount Sion is a pleasant place,
it gladdeth all the land:

The city of the mighty King,
on her Mount doth stand.

Within the pallaces thereof,
God is a refuge known:

For loe the kings are gathered, and together they are gone.

4 But when they did behold it so, they wondred, and they were Astonied much and suddenly were diuised with feare.

5 Great terror there on them did fall,
for very was they cry:

As doth a woman when she shall,
go trauell by and by.

6 As thou with Easterne wind the ship,
upon the sea dost bryke.

So they were shak, and euen as we heard our fathers speake.

7 So in the city of our God,
we saw as it was told:

Yea in the city, which our God,
for euer will uphold.

8 O Lord we wait and do attend, on thy good helpe and grace:

For which we do all times attend,
within thy holy place.

9 Lord accord ing to thy name, for euer is thy people:

And thy right hand O Lord is full of righteousness alwayes.

10 Let for thy iudgements Sion mount, fulfilled be with voyces:

And she of Iuda gram: (O Lord)
the daughter to reioyce.

11 So walke about all Sion hill,
yea round about her go:

And tell the towers that thereupon are builded on a roe.

12 And saye ye well her bulwarkes all,
behold her towers there:

That ye may tell thereto them,
that after shall be here.

13 For this God is our God, our God for euermore is he:

Yea and unto the deery alle,
our guide shall he be.

Audite hæc omnes. Psal. xlix. I. H.

¶ Gods spirit moueth the consideration of many lyfe, shewing that the wealthie are not happy:
all: but noting how all things are ruled by Gods providence: who as heingeth these worldly men fers to euerything: so heingeth persons his, and will reuise them in the daye of their retribution. 1. hec. 1.

Sing this as the 45. psalme.

Al people hearken and giue eare,
to that that I shall tell:

2 Both hye and low, both rich and poore, that in the world do dwell.

3 For why? my mouth shall make discourse of many things rightwisly.

In vnderstanding that my hart,
his study exercis.

4 I will incline mine eares to know
the parables to hearken:

And open all my doubleth speech,
in matter on my harpe.

5 Why should I feare afflictions, or any carefull toyle:

6 Or els my foes which at my heeles, are prest my life to spoyle?

7 For as for such as riches haue, wherein their trust is moel:

And they which of their treasure great,
themselves do brag and boast.

8 There is not one of them that can,
his brothers death redeeme:

9 Or that can ge: a price to God sufficient for him.

10 It is too great a price to pay,
nowe can thereof attaine:

Or that he might his life pouer,
or not in game remaine.

11 They see with men as well as foolen, subiect into deatchs hands:

And being dead strangers possesse their goods, their rents, their lands.

12 Their care is to build houses forte,
and so determine sure:

To make their name right great on earth
for euer to endure.

13 Yet shall no man at wayes enioy,
high domes, wealth and re:

But shall at length fall of deatchs cup,
as well as the haire head.

The

11 And though they trye their foolishnes to be moulted & bathe: (thoughtes, Theire children yet approue their callie,
and in like sinne remaine.

12 As sheepe into the fold are brought,
so shall they into graue:
Death shall them eate, and in that day
the iust shall Lordship haue.

13 Their Image and theire royall port, shall fade and quite decay:

When as from house to pit they passe with wee and well away.

14 But God will surely preserve me from death and endles paine:
Because he will of his good grace,
my soule recreate againe.

15 If any man were wondrous rich, fear not I say therefore:

Although the glory of his house,
increaseth more and more.

16 For when he dyeth of all these thinges,
nothing shall he receaue:
His glory will not follow him,
his pompe will take her leaue.

17 Yet in this life he takes himselfe,
the happiest vnder sunne:

And others likewise flatter him, saying all is well done.

18 And presuppose he liue as long,
as did his fathers old:

Yet must he needes at length giue place,
and be brought to deathes folde.

19 Thus man to honour God hath calde, yet doth he not consider:

But like hynde beastes so doth he liue, which turne to husk and pouder.

Deus Deorum, Psal. L. W. W.

The prophetie sheweth God will call all nations by the Gospell, and require no other sacrifice of his people: but confession of his benefits, and thanks giving: and how he directeth all such as feare his name of ceremonies, and not of the pure word of God onely.

The mighty God, the eternal God

thus spoke: And all the world, he will call and prouoke: Euen from the East and so forth to the west. 2. From toward

Sion, which place him thither best, God will appeare in beaurty most excellent.

Our God will come, before that long tyme be spent.

Denouncing fire

shall goe before his face:

A great tempest

shall sound about him trace.

Then shall he call the earth and heauens bright;

To iudge his folke,

with equitie and right.

Saying go too,

and now my faintest assemblie

My peace they keepe, theire gifts do not dissemble.

The heauens shall,

declare his righteousness:

For God is iudge

of all thinges: moe and lesse,

Heare my people,

for I will now reuenge:

Like Israel.

I will thee nought conceale:

Thy God, thy God

am I, and will not blame thee:

For giuing not,

all manner offerings to use.

I haue no need,

to take of thee at all:

Songes of thy fold,

or Calfe out of thy stall:

For all the beastes,

are mine within the woodes:

On thousand hilles,

cattell are mine owne goodes.

I know for mine,

all birdes that are on mountaine:

All beastes are mine,

which haunt the fieldes and fountaines.

Hungerie if I were,

I would not thee tell:

For all is mine,

that in the world doth dwell.

Eate I the flesh,

of great Bulles or Bullockes:

Drinke the bloud,

of Goates, and of the Rockes:

Offer to God,

prayer and heartie thanksgiving:

And pay thy vowes,

unto God eternally.

Call vpon me,

when troubled thou shalt be:

Then will I helpe,

and thou shalt honor me.

To thee washed,

thus saith the eternal God,

Why dost thou preach,

my lawes and beates abroad:

Seeing thou hast,

C

them

them with thy mouth abused 17 And bared to be by discipline reformed.

My wordes I say,
thou dost recte and hate:
18 If that thou see,
a theefe as with thy mate.
Thou runnest with him,
and so your pay do take:
And are all one,
with bandes and cuffians eke.
19 Thou giuest thy selfe,
to backbite and to flander:
And how thy tongue,
deceareth tis a wonder.

20 Thou sittest musing,
thy brother how to blame:
And how to put
thy mothers sonnets to blame.
21 These thinges thou dost,
and whilst I held my tongue:
Thou bidst me fudge,
because I staid so long.
Like to thy selfe,
yet though I keep long silence:
Once shalt thou feele
of thy wronges full recompense.

22 Consider this,
ye that forget the Lord:
And feare not when he threatneth with his word.
Least without helpe,
I spoile you as a pray:
23 But he that thankes
offrest, playeth me aye:
Said the Lord God,
and he that walketh this trace:
I will him teach
Gods saving health to embrace.

Another of the same by I.H.

The God of Gods the Lord, hath cald the earth by name:
From where the same doth rise, unto the setting of the same.
2 From Zion his sayre place,
his glory bright and cleare:
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appeare.

3 Our God shall come in hast, to speake he shall not doubt:
Before him shall the fire walk,
and tempest round about.
4 The heauens from on high,
the earth below likewise:
He will call forth to iudge and trye,
his folke he doth denie.

5 Wring forth my Saintes (saith he) my faithfull flocke so deare:
Which are in bond and league with me,
my law to loue and feare.
6 And when those thinges are tresp,
the heauens shall receiue:
The Lord to iudge, and all must see.

the judgement of the Lord.

My people O gine heede.
Israel to thee I cry:
I am thy God, thy helpe at neede,
thou canst it not deny.
7 I do not say to thee,
thy sacrifice is lacke:
Thou offerest dayly unto me,
much more than I do lacke.

8 I thinke thou that I do neede, thy cattell young or olde:
Or els so much dette to seeke,
on Goates out of thy fold:
10 Nay, all the heauen are mine, woodes that eate their fill:
And thousandes more of best and kine,
that runne wild in the hills.

The second part.

11 The birdes that build on high,
in hills and out of sight:
And beastes that in the feldes do lye,
are subject to my might.
12 Then though I hungred sore,
what neede I aught of thine:
Sith that the earth with her great store,
and all therein is mine.

13 To bulles flesh have I minde, to eate it dost thou thinke?
Or such a sweetnelle do I find,
the bloud of Goates to drinke?
14 As due to the Lord his praise,
with thankes to him apply:
And see thou pay thy bowes alwayes, unto the Lord most high.

15 Then seeke and call to me, when ought would worther blame,
And I will sure deliuer thee,
that thou must paye my name.
16 But to the wicked traine, which talke of God each day:
And yet their workes are foule and vaine,
to them the Lord will say.
17 With what a face dost thou,
my wordes once speake of name?
Why dost thou talke my law allow,
thy deedes deny the same?
18 Whereas for to amend,
thy life thou art so slacke:
My word the which thou dost profene,
as canst behiind thy backe.

The third part.

19 When thou a theefe dost see,
by theft to liue in wealth:
With him thou runst and dost agree,
likewise to thine by stealth.
20 When thou dost them behold, that wines and mutes dost let Thou thinkest it well, and wastest bold, to be that life most bet.

- 21 Thy lips thou dost apply,
to flander and defame:
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lye,
and still doth die the same.
- 22 Thou studiest to revile,
thy friends to thee so neare:
With slander thou wouldst needs defile,
thy mothers name most deare.
- 23 Hereat while I do weep,
as though I had not see:
Thou goest on still, and so dost think that I am like to thee.
- 24 But sure I will not let,
to strike when I begin:
Thy faultes in order I will set,
and open all thy sinne.
- Marke this I you requite, that haue not God in mind:
Least when I plague you in mine eye,
your helpe be farre to finde.
- 25 He that doth giue to me,
the sacrifice of praye:
Worth please me well, and he shall see,
to walke in godly waies,

1. Misere mei. Psal. li. W. W.

David rebuked by the prophet Nathan for his great offences, acknowledged the same to God, protesting his naturall corruption. Wherefore he prayeth God to forgive his sinnes, and reuenge in him his holy spirit: promising that he will not bee vniuersall of those great graces. finally, fearing lest God would punish the whole Church for his fault, he requiereth that he would rather increase his graces towards the same.

O Lord consider my distresse, and how with speed some pity take: My sinnes, defence, my faultes redresse, good Lord for thy great mercies sake. 1. Waite me (O Lord) and make me cleane, from this vniuersall sinfull act: And purge yet once agayne, my heinous crime and bloudy fact.

2 Remoue and sorrow doth constrain,

- me to acknowledge mine offence:
My sinnes alas do still remaine, before my face without release.
- 3 For thee alone I haue offended, committing euill in thy sight:
And if I were therefore condemned,
yet woe it is and yet more right.
- 4 It is too manifest alas,
that first I was concerned in sinne:
Yea of my mother so borne was,
and yettill wretch remaine therein.
- 5 Also beholde Lord thou dost loue,
the inward trust of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wisdom from above,
thou hast reuealed me to convert.
- 6 It thou with thy spurge purge this blot,
I shall be clearer then the glasse:
And if thou wash away my spot, thelowe in whitenesse shall I passe.
- 7 Therefore O Lord such loy me send,
that inwardly I may finde grace:
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou hast swaged for my trespass.

- 8 Turne backe thy face and frowning eye,
for I haue felt inough thy hand:
And purge my sinnes I thee desire,
which do in number passe the sand.
- 9 Make new my heart within my brest, and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy constant spirit in me let rest, which may these raging sinnes still.
- The second part.
- 10 Call me not Lord out from thy face,
but speedely my requiemts send:
Take not from me thy spirit and grace, which may from dangers me defend.
- 11 Reioyce me to those sorres againe,
which I was wont in thee to finde:
And let me thy free spirit reaine,
which vnto thee may fixt my minde.

- 12 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low,
by miseramble shall see sinne.
- 13 O God that of my health art Lord, forgiue me this my bloudie vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord to sing thy mercies and iustice.

- 14 Touch thou my lips, my tongue vnto,
O Lord which art the onely say:
And then my mouth shall testifie,
thy wondrous workes & praye alway.
- 15 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would haue offered many a one:
But thou esteemest them of no price,
and therein pleasure takest thou none.
- 16 The deuis heart, the mind opposeth,
O Lord thou neuer dost respect:
And to sweake truerh it is the best,
and of all sacrifice the effect.
- 17 Lord vnto Sion turne thy face,
poure out thy mercies on thy hill:
And on Jerusalem thy grace, build by thy wailes and loue it still.

- 18 Thou shalt accept then our offerings,

of peace and righteousness I say:
Yea Calves and many other things,
upon thine altar will we lay.

An other of the same by T.N.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

Have mercy on me God after thy great abundant grace:

After thy mercies multitude,
do thou my sinnes deface.
2 Yea wash me more from mine offences,
and cleanse me from my sinne:
For I do know my faults, and still my sinnes are in mine eyne.

3 Against thee, thee alone, I have offended in this case:
And evill have I done before
the presence of thy face.
4 There in the things that thou hast done, thy wrath thou mayst be tried:
And in the judging that thou dost,
my guilt upon thy side.

Behould in wickedness my hands,
and shape I did receive:
And for my sinfull mother eke,
in sinne did me conceive.
6 But loe, the truth of inward partes,
is pleasant unto thee:
And secretes of thy wisdom thou, revealed hast to me.

7 With hope Lord bespyrable me,
I shall be cleansed so:
Yea wash thou me and so shall I,
be whiter then the snow.
8 Of joy and gladnesse make thou me,
to heare the pleasing voice:
That to the hyssed bones which thou,
hast broken may rejoyce.

9 From the beholding of my sinnes,
Lord turne away thy face:
And all my deedes of wickednes,
do utterly deface.

10 O God create in me a hart,
disporting in thy sight:
And eke within my bowels Lord,
renew a fabled spight.

11 Deliver me from thy sight, nor take thy holy spight away:
The comfort of thy saving helpe give me againe I pray.

12 With thy free spight establish me,
and I will teach therefore:
Sinners thy wayes, and wicked shall be turned unto thy loe.

The second part.

13 O God that art my God of health,
from bloud deliver me:
That playes of thy righteousness,
my tongue may sing to thee.
14 My lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou O Lord unclose:
The playes of thy mighties,
my mouth shall so disclose.

15 I would have offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee:
But pleased with burnt offerings.

I know thou wilt not be,
16 A troubled spight to sacrifice,
delightfull in Gods eyes:
A broken and a humble heart,
God thou wilt not despise.

17 In thy good will deale gently Lord,
to Zion and to Bethel:
Grant that of thy Jerusalem,
thy peace may be the will.
18 Burnt offerings gifts and sacrifices, of Justice in that day.
Thou shalt accept, and Calves they shall upon thine altar lay.

Quid gloriaris. Psal. Lii. I.H.

David describeth the arrogant tyranny of Doeg Gauls chief sheppard, who by false sweetnes can seduce himself, and the people to be false. Here prophecies his destruction, encourageth the fayth-full to trust in God, who most sharply requir-eth his, and requirer thanks for his deliverance. There is likely set forth the kingdom of Antichrist.

Why dost thou Tyrant boast thy doest thou Tyrant boast abroad, thy wicked wayes to playe?

Doest thou not know there is a God, whose mercyes last alwayes?

Why
doest thy mynde yet still devise, such wicked wiles to warpe? Thy tongue burne in forgyng lies, is like a ra-mour sharpe.

1 On mischief why feedst thou thy mynde, and wilt not worke bright?

Thou hast moe lust full tales to finde,
then hying the truth to light.

Thou dost delight in fraud and guile,
in mischief, bloud and wrong:

Thy lips have leard the flatteryng stile,
O false deceitfull tongue.

Therefore shall God for ever confound, and plucke thee from thy place:

Thy sode route out from of the ground,
and so shall thou decaye.

The last when they beheld thy fall,
with feare will praise the Lord:

And in remembrance of the withall,
cry out with one accord.

7 Who hold the men which would not take,
the Lord to his defence:
But of his goods his God did make,
and trust his corrupt sense.
8 But I an Olive tree and greene, will spring and spread abroad:
For why? my trust all times hath bene,
upon the living God.

9 For this therefore will I give praise,
to thee with heart and voice:
I will set forth thy name alwayes, wherein thy Sanctes rejoice.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. Liii. T. S.

Davis describeth the crooked nature, the crueltie and punishment of the wicked, when they look not for it, and bewaile the delinquency of the Gods, that they may wryete together.

Sing this as the 46. psalme.

The foolish man that which he,
within his heart hath said:
That there is any God at all,
hath utterly denyed.

2 They are corrupt, and they also,
a haynous worke have wrought Among them: all there is not one,
of good that worketh ought.

The Lord lookt & woe on foules of men,
from heauen all abroad

3 So see if any were that would, be wise and seke for God.

4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:
There is not one both any good,
there is not one at all.

5 Do not all wicked workers know, that they do feede upon:
My people as they feede on bread:
the Lord they call not on.

6 When there they were afayd, and good with trembling all dismayd:
Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they should be afraid.

7 For God his bones that thee besieged,
hath scattered all abroad:
Whom hast confounded them, for they relected are of God.

8 O Lord geue thou thy people health,
and thou O Lord fulfill:
Thy promise made to Itraell,
from out of Syon hill.

9 When God his people shall redde, that earth was captiue lat:
Then Jacob shall therein reioyce, and Itraell shall be glad.

Dens in nomine. Psal. Liii. I. H.

Davis in great danger through Ziphis callist upon God to destroy his enemies according to his say his delinquency.

Sing this as the 46. psalme.

God save me for thy holy name,
and for thy goodness sake:
Unto the strong Lord of the name,
I do my cause betake.

2 Regeus O Lord, and geue me grace to me when I do pray:
How downe thy selfe to me, and heare
the wordes that I do say.

3 For wrongers by agaynst me are,
and cymanderd beke me still:
Which haue not God before their eyes,
they seke my soule to spill.

4 But loe my God both giue me ayde,
the Lord is straight at hand:
With them by whom my soule is stayd,
the Lord both euer stand.

5 With magnus repay agayns all thok,
for me that lye in waye:
And in thy trust destroy my foes,
with their owne snare and baye.

6 An offering of fed hart and will,
then I to thee shall make:
And praye thy name, for therein shall great comfort I do take:

7 O Lord at length do let me see,
from them that craft conspire:
And now myne eye with joy doth see,
on them my hartes desire.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. Lv. I. H.

Davis in great distress, complaynt of his citye and saluhoode of his familiar acquaintance, effectually mouing the Lord to piete him. Then affured of deliuerance, he stretch forth the grace of God, as if he had already obtained his request.
Sing this as the 5. psalme.

God geue care and do apply to heare me when I pray:
And when to thee I call and cry, hide not thy selfe away.

2 Take heed to me, grant my request,
and answer me agayne:
With playntes I pray full sore opprest, great griefe both me constrainye.

3 Because my foes with threats and reproch oppress me through despayre:
And so the wicked for likewise,
to vexe me haue delight.

4 For they in counsel do conspire, to charge me with some ill:
So in their harty wrath and ire,
they do pursue me still.

5 My hart both faynt for wane of breath,
it panteth in my brest:
The terrors and the dread of death,
both woeke me much vntrest.

6 Such breadfull feare on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake:
Such horror whelmerh me withall, that I no thist can make.

7 But I do say, who will geue me
the swift and pleasant wings
Of some fayre done, that I may flee, and rest me from these things.

8 Loe then I would goe farre away,
to flye I would not cease:
And I would hide my selfe, and say in some great wilderness.

9 I would be gone in all the hilles,
and not abide behinde:
That I were quite and ouerpass
these blasphemous winds.

10 Denie them Lord and from them putt they: deuilish double tongue:
For I haue spred them: City full,
of rapine, strife and wrong.

which

- 11 Which things both night & day though did close her as a wall:
12 In midst of her is mischief, sorrow,
and sorrow eke we shall.
13 Yet many passions are wicked playnes, her deedes are much too vile:
God in her secretes there doth remaine,
all crafty fraud and guile.
The second part.
14 If that my foes discleeve my shame,
I might it well abide:
From open enemies cheeke and blame,
some where I could me hide.
15 But thou it wast my fellow deare, whiche friendship didst pretend:
And hast my secret counsell heare,
as my familiar friend.
16 With whom I had delight to talke,
in secret and abroad:
And we together oft did walke,
within the house of God.
17 Let death in hast upon them fall,
and send them quicke to hell:
For mischiefes raigneth in their hall
and parlour where they dwell.
18 But I unto my God do cry,
to him for helpe I flee:
The Lord doth heare me by and by,
and hee doth succour me.
19 At morning, noone, and evening tide,
unto the Lord I pray:
When I so instantly haue ride,
he doth not lay me asleepe.
20 To peace he shall restore me yet,
though warre be neere at hand:
Although the number be full great,
that would against me stand.
21 The Lord that first and last doth reigne,
both now and evermore:
Will heare when I to him complaine,
and punish them full sore.
22 For sure there is no hope that they,
to turne will once accord:
For why? they will not God obey,
nor do not feare the Lord.
23 Upon their friends they laid their hands whiche were in covenant knit:
Offrendship to neglect the bandes,
they passe o? care no whit.
24 While they have war within their hart
as butter are their wordes:
Although they? wordes were smooth as oyle
they cut as sharpe as swordes.
25 Call thou thy care vpon the Lord,
and hee shall mourne thee:
For in no wise will he accord,
the iust in thyall to see.
26 But God shall cast them deepe in pit, that spere for blood alwayes:
He will no guiltfull man permit,
to live out halfe his dayes.
27 Though such be quite destroyd & gone,
in thee (O Lord) I trust:
I shall depend thy grace vpon,
with all my heart and lust.

Miserere mei. Psal. Lvi. I. H.

David being brought to Sile the king of Geth,
2 Sam. 21. 11. compassed with his enemies, & made both hungry, & thirstie in God & promising to give him his dower, which was, to paye for his Church.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

- Hine merry Lord on me I pray for man would me deeme:
He lighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me eke by eue.
2 Mine enemies dayly outscaple,
to swallow me outright:
To fight against me many rise,
O thou most high of might.
3 When they would make me most afraid, with boundes and bagges of yddel:
I trust in thee alone for ayde,
by thee will I abide.
4 Gods promise I do mind and prayle,
O Lord I truste to thee:
I do not care at all alwayes,
what flesh can do to me.
5 What things I sufferd do I prayle, they woeke them at their will:
And all the counsel that they take is how to woeke me ill.
6 They all content themselves to hyde, close watch for me so lay:
They spy my pathes and shaden haue rise,
to take my life away.
7 Shall they thus scape on mischiefes,
thou God on them wilt fowne:
For in his wrath he doth not let,
to throw whole kingdomes downe.
8 Thou seest how oft they make me flee,
and on my teares dost looke:
Rescue them in a glasse by thee,
and write them in thy booke.
9 When I do call vpon thy name,
my foes away do faw:
I will perceive it by the same,
that God doth take my part.
10 I glory in the word of God,
to praise it I accord:
With joy I will declare abroad,
the promise of the Lord.
11 I trust in God, and yet I say,
as I before began:
The Lord he is my helpe and say
I do not care for man.
12 I will performe with hart so free,
to God my bowes alwayes:
And I (O Lord) all times to thee,
will offer thanks and prayse.
13 My soule from death thou dost defend and keepe my feete vpight:
That I before thee may ascend,
with such an linein light.
Miserere mei. Psal. Lvi. I. H.
David in the desert of Ziph betrayed by the bramites, and in the same came with Saul called unto God, with full confidence that hee will paye his promise, and shew his glory in heau and earth against the cruel enemies. Therefore hee doth laud and praye.

Sing

Sing this as the 44. psalme.

The pity for thy promise sake,
hath mercie L. ord on me:
for my soule doth bee betake,
vnto the helpe of thee.

Withburthe shadow of thy winges,
I see my selfe full faine:
all mischiefe, malice, and like thinges,
be gone and out of paine.

I call vpon the God most true,
to whome I tricke and stand:
I meane the God that will stand by,
the cause I haue in hand.
from heauen he hath sent his ayde
to saue me from their sight:
that to deuour me haue assayed, his merie tricke and might.

I led my life with Lyons fell,
all set on watch and tre:
and with such wicked men I dwell,
that feel like flames of fire.
Their teeth are speeres & arrowes long,
as sharpe as I haue seene:
they wound & cut with thers, quick tounge like twoedges and weapons heene.

Set vp and shew thy selfe O God,
about the heauens bright:
exalt thy people in earth abroad,
thy mindey and might.
they lape their net, and do prepare a pitty case and pit:
wherein they thynke my soule do share,
but they are fallen in it.

My hart is set to laude the Loyd
in him to hope alwayes:

My hart I say doth well accord,
to sing his laud and prayse:

I wake my toy, awake I say,
my Lute, my Harpe, and string:

I say my selfe before the day,
will rise, beioyce, and sing:

Among the people I will tell,
the goodnes of my God:

And shew his prayse that doth excell,
in heathen landes abroad.

His merie doth extend as farre,
as heauens all are hye:

His crueth as hye as any starre,
that standeth in the hye.

Set forth and shew thy selfe O God,
about the heauens bright:

Exalt thy people on earth abroad,
thy mindey and might.

Sivère vtique. Psal. Lviii. I. H.

The describer by malicious enemies saules do sweare, who secretly and openly sought his destruction, from whom he appealeth to gods iudgement, saying that the iust shall cryoys, at the punishment of the wicked to gods glory.

Sing this as the 48. psalme.

Ye rulers which are put in trust,
to iudge of wrong and right:
be all your iudgements true and iust, not knowing needs of might:
say in your hartes ye make and make,
in mischiefe to consue:
and where you should true iustice be.

your hartes to byden are bent.

This wished sort in their birth day,
hath erred on this wise:

And from their mothers wombe alway,
hath bled craft and lyes.

In them the poyson and the breaht,
of serpents do appeare:

Yea like the adder that is deafe,
and fast doth stop his eare.

Because he will not heare the boye,
of one that chaumeth well:

As though he were the chiefe of choysce,
and did therein excell.

O God breahe thou their teeth at once, within their mouth throughout:

Therushes that in their great chaw bones,
like Lyons whelpes hang out.

Let them consume away in waste,
as water runnes forthright:

The thafres that they do shote in hast,
let them be broke in flight.

As sayles do wast within the shell,
and vnto stime do runne:

As one befoze his time that fell,
and neuer saw the same.

Before the thornes that now are young to bushes big shall grow:

The stormes of anger waring strong,
shall take them ere they know.

Therust shall say if both them good,
that God doth vengeance take:

And they shall wath their feet in blood,
of them that him forsake.

Then shall the mouth shew forth and tel
that good men haue reward:

And that a God on earth doth dwell,
that iustice doth regard.

Eripe me. psal. Lix. I. H.

David in great daunger of Saule, who sent to kyle him in hye bet, declareth hye innocency and theis sury, praying God to destroy all malicious sinners who lye for a tyme to exercise hye people, but in the end consume in hye watch, to gods glory. for the length prayse to god, assured of his meries.

Sil

Ende ayde and saue me from my foes, O Loyd I pray to thee: Defend and keep me from all those, that rise and arme with me. 2. O Loyd preserve me from thole men, whose doyns are not not good: And let me live and live from them that still thirst after blood.

For loe they wait my soule to take,
they rage against me still:
Yea for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.
4 They runne and be themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Arise and save me from their snare,
and see what they intend.

O Lord of hostes of Israel, arise and strike all landes:
And pity none that doth rebell,
and in these mischiefs standes.
6 At night they sitre and seeke abroad,
as boundes they hunte and graze:
And all the city cleane throughout,
from place to place they runne.

7 They speake of me with mouth alway,
but in their hippes were twoydes:
They greed my deatch and then would say,
what name doth heare our wordes.
8 But Lord thou hast their wayes espyed, and laugher beate at spere:
The weathen folke thou shalt deride,
and moche them to thy face.

9 The strength that both my foes withstand
O Lord doth come of thee:
For God he is my helpe at hand,
a fort offence to me.

10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace, in great aboundance still:
That I may see my foes in case,
such as my hart doth will.

The second part.

11 Destroy them not at once O God, least it from mind do fall:
But with thy strength byrue them abroad,
and so consume them all.

12 For their ill wordes and trustles tounge, confound them in their pride:
Their wicked oathes with lies and wrong
let all the world deride.

13 Consume them in thy wrath (O Lord) that nought of them remaine:
That men may know throughout the world that Jacobs God doth reigne.

14 At enen ing they returne a pace,
as dogs they grin and cry:
Throughout the streets in every place,
they runne about and spy.

15 They seeke about for me I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor find a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.

16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodnesse I will prayle:
For thou art my defence and God,
at neede in all assayes.

17 Thou art my strength: then said my sayd
O Lord I sing to thee:
Thou art my fort, my snare and ayde
a loving God to me.

Deus repulisti. Psal. Lx. I.H.

David new kinge over Iudah, after many victories betwixt by sundrie signes, that God elected him king, assuring the people that GOD will prosper them, if they approve the same. After he prayeth for to God to shew that he had begun.
Sing this as the 59. psalme.

O Lord thou didst by cleane falshe,
and scatterest us abroad:
Such great displeasure thou dost take,
because to us O God.

2 Thy might doth move the land so faye,
that it in funder shake:
The hurt thereof O Lord restore,
for it doth bow and quake.

3 With heavy chauce thou plaguedst thus the people that are thine:
And thou hast given unto us,
a drinke of deadly wine.

4 But yet to such as feare thy name
a token shalt ensue:
That they may triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.

5 So that thy might may keepe and save thy folke that fauour thee:
That they thy helpe at hand may have,
O Lord graunt this to me.

6 The Lord did speake from his own place
this was his joyfull tale:
I will denude Sichem by pace,
and mete out Succoths bale.

7 Silence is given to my band, silences mine beside:
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth Iuda guide.

8 In Hebad I will wash my feet,
ouer Edome throw my shooes:
And thou Iacob thou oughtst to see,
for fauour me bestow.

9 But who will bying me at this tyme, unto the Cities strong?
Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I go not wrong?

10 Wilt thou O God whylest thou for sake, thy folke, these land, these coastes:
Our warres in hand thou wouldst not take,
nor walke among our hostes.

11 Behold ayde, O Lord, and be relesse, from them that vs dismayne:
The helpe that holtes of men can give,
it is but all in bayne.

12 But though our God we shall haue to take great things in hand: (might)
He will tread down and put to flight, all those that vs withstand.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. Lxi. I.H.

Whether he were in danger of the Ammonites, purches of Nabalon, here he prayeth to be deliuered, and confirmed in his kingdom, promising peace
small people.

Sing this as the 59. psalme.

Regard O Lord for I complain, and make my suite to thee:
Let not my weep returne in shame,
but give an eare to mee.
From of the iusts and dearest parts,
of all the earth abroad:
In griefe and anguish of my heart,
I cry to thee O God.

1 Upon the rocke of thy great power,
my wehall mind repose:
Then art my hope, my fort and tower,
my fence against my foes.
2 Within thy case I lust to dwell,
for euer to endure:
Vnder thy winges I know right well,
I shall be safe and sure.

3 The Lord both my helpe regarde, and dorch fulfill the same:
With godly giftes dorch he reward,
all them that see his name.
4 The King shall be in healt maintaine,
and so prolong his dayes:
That he from age to age shall raigne,
for euermore alwayes.

5 That he may haue a dwelling place,
before the Lord for aye:
Oste thy mercy, truth and grace,
defend him from decay.
6 Then shall I sing for euer still,
with praye unto thy name:
That all my bowes I may fulfill,
and dayly pay the same.

Nonne Deo, Plal. Lxii. I. H.

Should declare by his example, & the nature of God that he is all people's king in God alone, saying that all without God goeth to naught, who early is of power to save, and that he comforteth man according to his weale.

Sing this as the 51. Psalme.

My soules to God shall give good heed,
and him alone attend:
For why? my health and hope to speed,
dorch whole on him depend.
1 For he alone is my defence,
my rocke, my health and aide:
He is my say that no pretence, shall make me much dismaye.

2 O wicked folke how long will ye discreas? sure you must fall:
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.
3 Whom God dorch love, ye seeke alwayes to put him to the weale:
Yet none to lye, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart dorch crie.

4 Yet still my soule both whole depend,
on God my chiefest desire:
From all succour me to defend,
none but him I require.
5 He is my rocke, my strength and tower,
my health is of his grace:

He dorch support me, that no power,
can moue me out of place.

6 God is my glory and my health,
my soules desire and lust:
My fort, my strength, my say, my wealth,
God is mine only trust.

7 Oh haue your hope in him alway,
ye folke with one accord:
Dorch our your heartes to him and say,
our trust is in the Lord.

8 The sonnes of men deceitfull are,
on ballance but a sleight:
With thinges most vile do them compar,
for they can keepe no weight.

9 Trust not in wrong, robbery, or wealth,
let dorch delighten be gone:
Though goodes well goe down in with let not your heartes thereon. (wealth)

10 The Lord long keth onerthing dorch tell, which here to minde I call:
He spake it out, I heard it well,
that God alone dorch all.

11 And that thou Lord art good and kinde
thy mercy dorch extende:
So that all forces with thee shall kinde,
according to thy be the.

David after his danger of Ziph, greatly shames he God for his wonderfull deliverance, in whose mercy he trusteth even in the midst of affliction:
prophesying the destruction of Gods enemies, and contrarywise happiness to all them that had in the Lord. 1. Samuel 3.

Sing this as the 44. psalme.

O God my God I watch betime, to come to thee in hast:
For why? my soule and bodie both,
do this of thee to last.

2 And in this barrenne wilderness,
where waters there are none:
My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I wish alone.

3 That I might see yet once againe, thy glory, strength and might:
As I was wont it to behold,
within thy temple bright.

4 For why thy mercies fatte surmount,
this life and wretched dayes:
My lips therefore shall give to thee,
due honour, laud and prayse.

5 And whilst I live, I will not idle,
to worship thee alway:
And in thy name I shall lift vp,
my handes when I do pray.

6 My soule is filld as with marrow, which is both fatte and sweet:
My mouth therefore shall sing thy song,
as are for thee most meet.

7 When as I thinke on thee,
and eke all the night tide:
For under cover of thy winges, thou art my topfull guide.

- 8 Thy soule doth surely stick to thee,
thy right hand is my power:
9 And those that seeke my soule to destroy,
their death shall be as denour.
10 The world shall them denour each one:
their carnages shall be preie.
The hungry fowls which do runne,
theye pray to seeke at meeke.
11 The king and all men shall reioyce, that do professe thy gods word:
For lyers mouthes shall then be stoppt,
which haue the truth disturbed.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. LXXIII. I. H.

David prayeth against the false reporters & flatterers, he declareth their punishment and destruction, to the comfort of the iust, and the glory of God.

Sing this as the 18. psalme.

- Lord vnto my boier giue care,
with plainties when I do pray:
And end my life and soule from dead,
of foes that threat to slay.
2 Defend me from that foie of men,
which in deceit do lye:
And from the treuening face of them,
that all ill feates do wyke.
3 Who wher theyr tongues as we haue sene men whet and sharpe their wordes
They shooten bond their arrowes hene
I meane most hurt wordes.
4 With prync sleight more they thei shafes
the vpright man to hit:
The iust beware to hit by craft,
they care of hit no whit.
5 A wicked worke they haue decreed,
in counsell this they crye:
To slee deere let vs not dread,
what? who can it crye?
6 What waies to hurt they take & muse,
all times within their hart:
They all consule what feates to sle,
each doth inuent his part.
7 But yet al this shall not assaile,
when they toinke least vpon:
God with his dart shall sure assaile, and wound them every one. (withall Their crafts and their all conquest shall vnto them sel as fuch blams
That they wher then behold shoue fall, shall wonder at the same.
9 These all that se shall knowe right well that God the thing hath wrought:
And prayle his wry wordes, and tell what he doth passe hath brought.
10 Yet shall the iust in God reioyce, still trusting in his might:
So shall they ioy wry mynde and voyce,
whose hart is pure and right.
Te decet hymnus. Psal. LXX. I. H.
A thanksgyving vnto God by the psalmist, who is signified by David, and Jerusalem, for the chosing, preferment, and gouernance of them, and for the plentiful blessings, poured forth vpon all the church.
Sing this as the 20. psalme.
Thy people alone O Lord doth reigne,
in Zion thine owne hill:
Thei bowes to the they do maintaine, and their bestes shall.

3 For that thou doest their prayer heare,
and dost there to agree:

Thy people all with face and heart,
with trust shall come to thee.

3 One wicked lyfe so fast exceeded, that wretched shall there be

But Lord forgeue our great misdoings and purge vs from our sinne.

4 The man is blest whom thou doest chuse, within thy Courtes to dwell:
Thy house and temple be shall be,
with pleasures that excel.

5 Of thy great iudice heare vs God,
our health of this hath life:
The hope of all the earth abound,
and the sea coastes like wile.

6 With strength thou art better about,
and compass with thy power:
Thou makest the mountaines strong and to stand in eury flower. (thou)

7 The swelling seas thou doest assuage, and make their streames full still:
Thou doest retrace the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.

8 The folke that dwell full fast on earth, shall dread thy signes to se:
Which moine & euening in great myrrh,
do passe with praye to thee.

9 When that the earth is chapt and dry,
and thirsteth more and more:
Then with thy drops thou doest apply,
and much encrease her store.

10 The floud of God doth ouerflow, and so doth canle to sing:
The seide and come which men do sow,
for he doth guide the thing.

11 With wet thou doest her furrowes fill,
whereby her clouds do fall:
Thy drops on her thou doest distill,
and bleste her fruite with all.

12 Thou deckst the earth of thy good grace, with saye and pleasure crop:
Thy cloudes distill their dew apart,
great plenty they do drop.

13 Whereby the desert shall begyn, full great encrease to bying:
The little hilles shall soe reioyce, much fruite in them shall spring.

14 In places playne the flocke shall fede,
and couer all the earth:
The valleys with corne shall soe excede, that men shall sing for myrrh.

Iubilate Deo. psal. LXXI. T.S.

The exhorteth to praise the Lord, in his wonderful works. He testeth forth the power of God to assay rebells, and sheweth gods mercy to iust, to prouoke all men to praise, and praise his name.

Sing this as the 68. psalme.

Yemenon therein in God reioyce, with praye let forth his name:
Extoll his might with hart and voyce,
o one aloue to the same.

3 How wonderfull O Lord say ye,
in all thy workes thou art:
Thy foes for feare do lye to thee,

full hope against their hart.

All men that dwell the earth shal
depraise the name of God:
The land thereof the world about is shrouded and her abode.

4 All folke come forth behold and see,
what thinges the Lord hath wrought:
He make well the widdowes wothes, that he for man to passe hath brought.

5 He layd the sea in the heapes on hye, therein a way they had:
On foote to passe hath layd and byd whereof their barres were gladd.

6 His might doth rule the world alway,
his eyes all thinges behold:
All such as would him disobey,
by him shal be controlld.

7 Ye people gene into our God,
due laud and thankes alway:
With joyfull voyce declare abroad and sing unto his prayse.

8 Which doth exalte our soules with life,
and it preserve us still:
He sayeth our fate is that no strife can make us slip or fall.

9 The Lord both proue our doeds with if that they will abide:
As woemen do when they desire to haue their metalls cryde.

10 Although thou suffer vs to long,
in prison to be cast:
And eber with charyng fetters strong,
to lye in bondage fast.

The second part.

11 Although I say thou suffer men,
on vs to ride and raigne:
Though we through fire and water runne,
of very griefe and payne.

12 Yet sure thou hast of thy good grace,
dispos'd us to the best:
And bying vs out into a place,
to live in wealth and rest.

13 Unto thy house resort will I,
to offer and to pray:
And there I will my selfe apply,
my bowes to thee to pay.

14 The bowes that with my mouth I
in all my griefe and smart:
The bowes I say which I did make,
in dolour of my hart.

15 Burnt offerings I will geue to thee,
of Ozen fat and Hammes:
None other sacrifice shall be,
of Bullockes, Goates, and Lambes.

16 Come forth, hearken here full lone,
all ye that feare the Lord:
What he for my poore soule hath done,
to you I will record.

17 Full oft I call vpon his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry:
And then my rouring make I to be,
to prayse him by and by.

18 But if I fele my hart with in,
in wicked wothes reioyce:
O if I haue delight to sinne,
God will not heare my voyce.

19 Thus liueth God my hart charyng deare, and what I do require:
My prayse be doth well regate,
and gounte my desire.
20 A hope to him that hath not put,
nor cast me out of mynde:
For yer his mercy from me put,
which I do euer finde.

Deus misericatur. Psal. Lxvii. I. H.

A sweet paper thy all thy say shall to obayn the king of heauen: to be lightened with his countenance, to the earth: that he may and iudgements be knowne throughout the earth. A reioyding that gods be the gentlemen of all nations.
Sing this as the 30. Psalme.

Hue mercy on vs Lord,
and graunt to vs thy grace:
To shew to vs do thou accord,
the brightnesse of thy face.
2 That all the earth may know,
the way to godly weald:
And alle the nations on a row,
may see thy sayng deald.

3 Let all the world O God,
give prayse unto thy name:
O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.
4 Throughout the world to wide,
let all reioyce with myght:
For thou with rauch and righted oer gins
the nations of the earth.

5 Let all the world O God,
give prayse unto thy name:
O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.
6 Then shall the earth increase,
great flooe of frume shall fall:
And then our God the God of peare, shall blesse vs eke with all.
7 God shall vs blesse I say,
and then both face and name:
The folke throughout the earth alway,
of him shall stand in feare.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. Lxviii T. S.

David expelleth the wonderfull merites of God rewardes his people, who by all meenes and most strange forces declareth himselfe to them. Gods Church therefore by reason of his promises, grace and victories doth extoll all wayly things, whose foes all meares mourne to prayse God for ever.

Let God arise, and then his foes will turne themselves to flight: His enemies then will run abroad, and scatter out of sight. And as the fire doth melt the wax, and wind blow

Smoke away: So in the silence of the Lord, the wicked shall decay.

3 But righteous men before the Lord, shall happily rejoice:

They shall be glad and merry all,
and cheerful in their voice.

4 Sing praise, sing praise unto the Lord,
who dwelt on the shore:

He shall their name of Ish out God,
and hymn be magnific.

5 That time is he that is about,
within his holy place:

That father is of fatherless,
and judge of widows case.

6 Howbeit he giveth and taketh both,
unto the comfortless:

He bringeth down men out of their hall,
and reveleth to disgrace.

7 When thou dost march before thy foeth,
the Egyptians from among:

And brought them through the wilderness,
that was both wide & long. (downe,

8 The earth did quake, the rayne poured heard were great claps of thunder:

The mount Sion shoke in such sort,
as it would cleave in sunder.

9 Thine heritage with waves of rayne, abundantly was water:

And so be it barren water,
by thy it was refresh.

10 Thy chosen people both there sometime,
thou hast prepared that place:

And for the pious thou dost provide,
of thine special grace.

The second part.

11 God will give women cansties till,
to magnifie his name:

When as his people triumphen make,
and purchase home and fame.

12 And praise hymnes for all their power, shall say and take the soyle:

And women which remayne at home,
shall helpe to praise the soyle.

13 And though ye were as blacke as pots your hue shall passe the dove:

Whose winges and feathers seeme to shine,
silver and gold above.

14 When in this land God shall triumph over hymnes both high and low:

Then shall it be like Salomon hill,
as white as any snow.

15 Though Babel be a trustfull hill,
and in height others passe:

Yet Sion Gods most holy hill, doth farre excell in grace.

16 Why bragge thus ye heathen most high,
and leape for joye together?

This hill of Sion God doth love,
and there will dwell for ever.

17 Gods army is two millions, of warriours and stronge:

The Lord also in Sion,

is present them among.

18 Thou dost O Lord alight on high,
and captives lead them all:

Which in rymer pass thy chosen sheke,
in prison kept and small.

Thou madest them tribute for to pay,
and such as did despise:

Thou dost subdue, that they might dwell,
in thy temple dwelling.

19 How shaldest thou the Lord, say that he pourth on his face grace:

From day to day he is the God,
of our beauty and solace.

The third part.

20 He is the God whom whom alone,
salvation cometh playne:

He is the God by whom I scape,
all dangers, death and payne.

21 Thus God will wound his enemies and breake the heary kalpe: (head,

Of those that in thy wickedness, continually do walke.

22 From Babel will I bring sayd he,
my people and my shepe:

And all mine owne as I have done,
from danger of the depe.

23 And make them dippe their feet in of those that have my name: (blood,

And dogs that have their tongues embred with licking of the same.

24 All men may see how thou O God, thine enemies dost deface:

And how thou goest as God and king,
into thine holy place.

25 The singers go before with joy,
the ministers follow after:

And in the midst the dauides play,
with Timbrell and with Taber.

26 Now in the congregations,
(O Israel) praise the Lord:

And Jacobs whole posteritie, give thanks with one accord.

27 Their chief was little Benjamin,
but Juda made their host:

With Zabulon and Naphtali, which dwell about their coast.

28 As God hath given power to the,
so Lord make firme and sure:

The thing that thou hast wrought in us,
for ever to endure.

29 And in thy temple gifts will we,
give unto the O Lord:

For thine unto Jerusalem,
sure promise made by word.

The fourth part.

30 Ye strange kinges to us subdue, shall do like in those dayes:

I come to the they shall present,
thy gifts of laud and praise.

He shall bestow the speaculous raiment, their Calues and Bulles of might:

And cause them tribute pay, and dance
all such as love to fight.

31 Then shall the Leades of Egypt come,
and presented with them being:

The

The highest most high shall dwell the unto their Lord and King.

Therefore ye highnesses of the earth,
give praise unto the Lord:
Singing praises to God with one consent, therein let all accord.

Who though he ride and sit on high,
above the heavens bright:

Yet by the fearful thunderclap, men may well know his might.

Therefore the strength of Israel,
ascribe to God on high:
Whole might and power doth far extend about the cloudy skye.

O God, thy holinesse and power,
is dead for evermore:

The God of Israel gives us strength, prayed be God therefore.

Saluum me fac. psal. Lxix. I. H.

Christ and his elect is figured in Dauid's psalm and angels: the malicious cruelty of his enemies and their punishment, Jesus and such transgressors noteth, who are accursed. When gathereth he courage in afflictions, offereth prayers to God, which are more acceptable then all sacrifices. Finally he doth praye all creatures to prayes, prophesying of the kingdome of Christ and building of his church where all the faithful and their seeds shall dwelle forever.

Save me O God, and that with speech, the waters flow full fast: So my soul doe they proceede, that I am safe againe. 2. I stick full deepe in slit and clay, whereas I feele no ground: I fall into such floods I say, that I am lyke be dynd.

With crying oft I saynt and quayle,
my throat is hoarse and drye:

With looking up my sight doth faile,
for helpe to God on high.

My foes that gosselle do oppresse my soule, with hate are led:

In number sure they are no lesse,
then harpes are on my head.

Though for no cause they hate me soe,
they prosper and are glad:

They do compell me to rejoyce,
the things I never had.

What I have done for want of wit,

thou Lord all dayes canst tell
And all the founteyns that I comen, to the are knowen full well.

O God of hosties defend and say,
all those that trust in thee:

Let no man doubt of thine away,
for ought that chaunceth me.

It is for thee and for thy sake,
that I doe beare this blame:

In spite of thee they would me make,
to hide my face for shame.

My mothers sonnes my brethren all,
forsake me on a row:

And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.

Unto thy house such zeale I beare,
that it doth grieve me much:

Their cheeks and countenances at thee to hang my very heart doth crush.

Though I doe fast my flesh to chafe,
yea if I weepe and mone:

Yet in my teeth this grace is cast,
they passe not thereupon.

If I for griefe and payne of heart,
in sackcloth be so walke:

Then they anon will it peruey, thereof they jest and talke.

Both hye and low, and all the thynge,
that sit within the gate:

They haue me euer in their tongue,
of me they talke and prate.

The byrthday which in wine delight,
it is their chiefe pastime:

To seeke which waye to worke me spite,
of me they sing and rime.

But thee the while O Lord I pray, that when it pleasest thee:

For thy great truth thou wilt alway,
send downe thine ayde to me.

As muche thou my feete out of the mire
from downing doe me keepe:

From such as owe me wofull and fee,
and from the water deepe.

Least with I wane I should be downe
and depth my soule deuour:

And that the pit should me confound,
and shut me in her power.

O Lord of hosties, to me geue care,
as thou art good and kinde:

And as thy mercy is most deare,
Lord haue me in thy mynde.

And do not from thy seruants hide,
nor turne thy face away.

I am opprest on every side,
with hast geue care I say.

O Lord unto my soule draw nigh,
the same with ayde repolt:

Because of their great rymny, acquyte me from my foes.

That I abide rebuke and shame,
thou knowest and thou canst tell:

For those that sit he and worke the same,
thou seest them all full well.

21 When they with blags do beate my
I sike for helpe anon: ^(how)
But sike no frends for sale my smart, to comfort me not one.

22 But in my meate they gaue me gall,
too cruell for to thinke:
Wagons mein my throat with ball,
strong vinegar to drinke.

24 Lord tene their table to a snare,
to take them selves therein:
And when they thinke full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

25 And let their eyes be backe and blinde, that they may nothing see:
Bow downe their backe, and do them bind in thraldome for to be.

26 Dounce out thy wach as hote as fire,
that it on them may fall:
Let thy displeasure in thine ire,
take hold vpon them all.

27 As defect by theyr house disgrace, their offspinges the expell:
That none thereof possesse their place,
nor in their tentes doe dwell.

28 If thou dost strike the man to tume,
on him they lye full sore:
And if that thou doe wound the same,
they seeke to hurt him more.

29 Then let them beape by mischief still,
sike they are all periers:
That of thy fauour and good will,
they neuer haue a part.

30 And race their cleane out of the booke of life, of hope, of trust:
That for their names they neuer looke,
in number of the full.

¶ the fourth part.

31 Though I (O Lord) with woe and griefe haue bene full sore opprest:
Thy helpe shall geue me such reliefe, that all shall be reuersed.

32 That I may geue thy name thy prayse,
and shew it with a song:
I will extoll the same alwayes, with harry thanks among.

33 Which is more pleasaunt vnto thee,
such minde thy grace hath borne:
Then eyther Oxe, or Calf can be that hath both woofe and borne.

34 When simple folke doe this behold,
it shall reioyce them sure:
Al ye that sike the Lord, behold;
your life for aye shall dure.

35 For why? the Lord of hostes both heare
the poore when they complaine:
His prisoners are to him full deare,
he doth them not disdain.

36 No therefore the ray and earth below,
the sea with sound and streame,
His prayse they shall declare and shew with all that liue in them.

37 For sure our God will Stone fane, and Iubas Cities build:
Such folke possession there shall haue,
her scepter shall all be.

38 His seruantes the shall heape the all ages out of minde: ^(same)
And there all they that loue his name,
a dwelling place shall finde.

Deus in adiuto. Psal. Lxx. I. H.

¶ The property to bright shewdy belinced, his one myse to be ashamed, and all that sike the hope to be comforted.

Sing this at the 72. psalme.

O God to me take heede,
of helpe I thee require:

God of hostes with hand make speede,
helpe, helpe, I thee desire.

2 With shame confound them all,
that seeke my soule to spill:
Rebuke them backe with blame to fill,
that thinke and wisde me ill.

3 Confound them that apply,
and seeke to worke me shame:
And at my harmes doe laugh and cry,
so so, there goeth the game.

4 But let them for full be,
in thee with joy and wealth:
Which sorely trust and seeke to thee,
and to thy saving health.

5 That they may say alwayes,
in mythy and one accord:
All glory, honor, laud, and prayse, be giuen to thee (O Lord).

6 But I am weak and poore, come Lord thine aye I lacke:
Thou art my King and helpe, therefore make speede and be not slacke.

In re Domine. Psal. Lxxi. I. H.

¶ The property in sayth established by promise, and now firm by the worke of God from his pouty, to be delivered from his wicked and cruel foules chielen, with his confederacy, promising to be shaker full therefore.

Sing this at the 69. psalme.

My Lord my God, in all distresse
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no shame my soule oppresse,
nor once take holde on me.

2 As thou art dust, defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dead:
Geue eare and to my face accord,
and send me helpe at neede.

3 Be thou my roche, to whom I may,
for aye all tyme restre:
Thy promise is to helpe alway thou art my fence and fort.

4 Save me my God from wicked men,
and from their strength and power:
From folke that hate, and the from them,
that cruelly draoue.

5 Thou art the stay wherein I trust, thou Lord of hostes art he:
Yea from my youth I had a lust,
still to depend on thee.

6 Thou hast me kept out from my byld, and I through thee was borne,
Wherefore I will thee prayse with myld,
both euening and at morne.

7 As to a monster seldom seene, much folke about me throug:
But thou art now and still hast bene,

my face and eyes to him.
 8 Therefore my mouth no time shall lache,
 thy glory and thy praise:
 And eke my tongue shall not be lache,
 to honore thee alwaye.

9 Refuse me not O Lord I say, when age my limmes doth take,
 And when my strenght doth waste away,
 doe not my soule forsake.

10 Among themselves my foes enquire, to take me thynghout detreies

And they agaynste me be confide, that for my soule layd waye.

The second part.

11 Lay hand and take him now they sayd,
 for God from him is gone:

Disparch him quite for to his arde,
 I was there cometh none.

12 Do not absent thy selfe away,
 O Lord when neede shall be:
 But thou in tyme of griefe thou may,
 in hast geue helpe to me.

13 With shame confound and overthrow,
 all those that se be my life:

Oppresse them with rebuke also,
 that sayne would worke me strife.

14 But I will patiently abide,
 thy helpe at all assaies:
 Still more and more thy tyme and thyde,
 I will let forth thy praise.

15 Thy mouth thy iustice shall recorde, that daye helpe doth send:

But of thy benefites O Lord,
 I know no count nor end.

16 Yet will I go and se the forth one,
 with thy god helpe O God:
 The saving health of this alow to shew and let abroad.

17 For of my youth thou takest the case, and doest instruct me still:

Therefore thy wonders to declare,
 I have great mynde and will.

18 And as in youth from maner tag,
 thou didst me helpe and say:

Forsake me not into myne age,
 and till my head be gray.

The third part.

19 That I thy strength & might may shew,
 to them that now be here:

And that our febe thy power may know,
 hereafter many a yere.

20 O Lord thy iustice doth exorde,
 thy doynge all mayle:
 Thy wayes are wonderfull in dede,
 thy, who is like to thee?

21 Thou madest me fele afflictions sope,
 and yet thou didst me save:

Yea thou didst helpe and me reioyce,
 and tokest me from the game.

22 And thou myne honour doest increase,
 my dignite is maintayne:

Yea thou doest make all strife to cease,
 and comfortest me agayne.

23 Therefore thy myghtfulnes to prayse,
 I will both laude and sing:

Thy harpe shall sound thy laud alwaye,
 O Mercies holy king.

24 Thy mouth shall for with pleasure
 when I shall sing to thee: (voice,
 And eke my soule shall much reioyce,
 for thou hast made me free.

25 Thy tongue thy myghtfulnes shall and speake it daye still: (sound,
 For griefe and shame do them confound, that sought to worke me ill.

Deus iudicium. Psal. Lxxii. I.H.

4 Gods kingdom by Christ is represented by Toles men under whose shall be righteousness, peace and felicity, whoe whome all hinges and nations shall be homage, whose name is praised shall more for us.

Old geue thy iudgements to thy king, therein instruct him well: And with his soune that princely thing

Lord let thy iustice dwell: 2 That he may governe righte, and rule thy folke right: And so defend through equity, the poore that have no might.

3 And let the mountaynes that are high,

unto their folke geue peace;

And eke let little hilles apply,
 to iustice so exteale.

4 That he may helpe the weakes & poore, with ayde and make them strong:

And the bestrope for ever more,
 all those that doe them wrong.

5 And then from age to age shall they, regard and feare thy might:

So long as Sunne doth shine by day,
 as old the Moone by night.

6 Lord make the king unto the iust,
 like rayne to feede new mowne:

And like to hyers that lay the dust,
 and feede the land new sowne.

7 The iust shall flourish in his time,
 and all shall be at peace:

Untill the Moone shall leave to prime,
 wade change and to successe.

8 He shall be Lord of sea and land,
 from Moze to those thynghout:

And from the fountes within the land, thynghout all the earth about.

9 The people that in desire dwell, shall kneele to him full thiche:

And all his enemies shall perish:
the earth and dust shall like.
10 The Lorde of all the Iherusalem, great gifts to him shall bring:
The hinges of Saba, and Arabia, gave many a costly thing.

The second part.

11 All hinges shall seeke with one accord,
in his good grace to stand:
And all the people of the world,
shall seeke him at his hand.
12 For he the needie for doth save,
that unto him doe call:
And eke the simple folke that have,
no helpe of man at all.

13 He taketh pity of the poore, that are much neede opprest:
He doth preserve them evermore,
and bringes their foules to rest.
14 He shall redeeme their life from dread from fraud, from wrong, from might:
And eke the blood that they shall bleed,
is precious in his sight.

15 But he shall live, and they shall bring,
to him of Sabas gold:
He shall be honoured as a king,
and dayly be extold.

16 The mighty mountaynes of his land,
of cygne shall beare such thing:
That is like Cedar trees shall stand,
in Libanus full long.

17 Their Cities the full well shall speede
the fruites thereof shall passe:
In plenty it shall farre exceede,
and spring as greene as grasse.

18 For ever they shall praise his name,
while that the Sunne is light:
And thinke them happy through the same all folke that shall beleeve his might.

19 Wherefore the Lord of hostes and king to Israels God echone:

For he doth every wondrous thing,
yea he himselfe alone.

20 And blessed be his holy name,
all times eternally:

That all the earth may praise the same,
Amen, Amen, say I.

Quam bonus Deus, Psal. Lxxiiij. T. S.

¶ Doubt verily that neither the prosperity of the ungodly, nor the affliction of the godly ought to discourage Gods Chylren, but rather move them to consider Gods providence, and to percerce his judgements; for that the wicked vanitie away like smoke, and the godly enter into life everlasting in hope wherof he rejoyceth hymselfe to Gods honour.

Sing this as the 44. Psalme.

HOW ever it be yet God is good,
and kinde to Israel:
And to all such as safely keepe,
their conscience pure and well.
Yet like a foole I almost slippe,
my feete began to slide:
And ere I will even at a pinche,
my steps wryng gan glide.

¶ For when I saw such foolish men,

I grudge, and did bethynke:
That wicked men all changes should have withour example or payne.

They murthered as hant yet no griefe,
as if death should them free:
Their bodies are both slow and strong,
and ever in gods plighte.

5 And yet from all adversitie,
when other men be wont:
And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.

6 Therefore presumption doth embrace, their neckes as doth a chaine:
And are even waite as in a robe,
with rapin and dilapide.

7 They are so fed, that even for fat,
their eyes oft tymes out start:
And as for worldly godes, they have more then can with their hart.

8 Their life is most licentious, boastying much of the wrong:
Which they have done to simple men,
and ever pride among.

9 The heavens and the living Lord,
they spare not to blasphemie:
And spare they do of worldly thynges,
no wight they do els me.

10 The people of God oft tymes come to see their prosperous state: (backe,
And almost bynke the stile same cup,
and follow in the same race.

The second part.

11 How can it be that God say they,
should know of understand
These worldly thynges, sure worldly men, be Lordes of sea and land.

12 For we may see how wicked men,
in riches still increase:
Rewarded well with worldly goodes,
and time in rest and peace.

13 Then why doe I feare wickednesse,
my fantasie refrayne:

And wash my handes with innocentes,
and cleanse my heart in bayne:

14 And suffer scourges every day,
as subject to all blame:

And every mornynge from my youth,
suffayne scorke and shame.

15 And I had almost sayd as they,
misling anyne estate:
But that I should the chylren hide,
as folke vnfortunate.

16 Then I bethought me how I might
this matter understand:
But yet the labour was too great,
for me to take in hand.

17 Untill the time I went into thy holy place, and then I understood right perfectly,
the end of all these men.

18 And namely how thou tested them,
upon a slippery place:
And at thy pleasure and thy will,
thou dost them all debase.

19 Then all men must attache strange sight to

to lie down soberly:

They are despoiled, dispatched, consumed,
and dead so horribly.

10 As though like a dream when one awaketh,
so shall their wealth decay:

Their famous names in all mens sight,
shall ebbe and passe away.

The third part.

11 Yet thus my hart was grieved then,
my mynde was much opprest:

12 So fowd was I and ignorant, and in this poynt a beast.

13 Yet neuertheles by my right hand,
thou holdst me alwayes fast:

14 And with thy counsell doest me guide to glory at the last.

15 What thing is there that I can wish but the in heauen above?

And in the earth there is nothing,
like the that I can lose.

16 My flesh and che my heart both faile,
but Gods both faile me neuer:

For of my heart Gods is the strength
my portion the for ever.

17 And for all such as thee forsake, thou shalt destroy each one:

And those that trust in any thing,
fauling in thee alone.

18 Therefore will I praise thee to Gods,
and euer with him dwell:

In Gods alone I put my trust,
his wonders will I tell.

Vt quid Deus. Psal. Lxxliij. I. H.

A complaint of the destruction of the Church and true religion, under the name of Zion & the altar despoiled. But trusting in the might & free mercies of God, by his covenant, requirerth helpe and discours to the glory of his name, the saluation of his poore afflicted seruantes, and the confusion of his proud enemies.

Sing this as the 73. psalme.

Why art thou Lord so long from vs,
in all this danger deeper?

Why doth thine anger kindle thus,
at thine owne pasture sheper?

2 Lord call the people to thy thought, which haue bene thine so long:

The which thou hast redeemed and brought from bondage sore and strong.

3 Haue minde I say, and thinke vpon, remember it full well:

Thy pleasant place, thy mounte Zion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.

4 Lift vp thy foote and come in hast,
and all thy foes deface:

Which now at pleasure rob and wast,
within thy holy place.

5 And thy congregations all,
thine enemies roare O God:

They set as signes on every wall,
their banners spilde abroad.

6 As men with axes hew downe trees,
that on the hillles do grow:

So thine the hillles and mountes of them,
within thy temple now.

7 The seluing sawed, the eamed boordes,
the goodly grauen stones:

With axes, hammers, billowes and swaydes,

they beate them downe at once.

8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toile:

The house appointed to thy name,
they rase downe to the soile.

9 And thus they sate within the; heare dispatch them out of hand:

Then burnt they vp in every place
Gods houses through the land.

10 Yet thou no signe of helpe dost send our prophets all are gone:

11 To tell when this our plague shall end,
among vs there is none.

12 When wilt thou Lord once end this and cease thine enemies strong? (name)

Shall they alway blaspheme thy name and eate on thee so long?

13 Why dost thou with thy hand abacke, and hste it in thy lap?

14 Plucke it out and be not slacke, to giue thy foes a rap.

The seconde Part

15 O God thou art my King and Lord,
and euermore hast bene:

Yea thy good grace throughout the world,
for our good helpe hath bene:

16 The seas that are so deepe and dead,
thy might did make them dry:

And thou dost beake the serpents head,
that he therein did by.

17 Yearthon dost beake the heades so grene of whales that are so fell:

And gaue them to the to be to eate,
that in the deserts dwell.

18 Thou makest a spyn, with stormes to from rock both hard and bre:

And eke thy hand hath made the with,
deepe rivers to be drye.

19 Both day and eke the night are thine,
by thee they were begun:

Thou leest to see us with thine shine,
the light and eke the sunne.

20 Thou dost appoint the ends and coasts of all the earth about:

Both sommer heats and winter frogs,
thy hand hath found them out.

21 Think on O Lord, no time forgot thy foes that thee defame:

And how the foolish folke are set,
to rase vpon thy name.

22 O let us cruel beast deuone,
thy Twete that is true:

Forget not alwayes in thy power,
the poore that much doe rue.

23 Regard thy covenant and behold,
thy foes possesse the land:

Al lads and darke, soe wayne and old,
our Realme as now both stand.

24 Let not the simple go away,
with disappointed shame:

But let the poore and weedy are,
giue playe vnto thy name.

25 Rise Lord, let bee by thee maintaine,
the cause that is thine owne:

Remember how that thou blasphemde,
art by the foolish one.

2 The voyce forget not of thy foes,
for the presuming bye;
Is more and more increase of those,
that hate the specially.

Confitebimur tibi, Psal. LXXV. N.

¶ The faithful praye the Lord who shall come to iudge at his tyme, when the wicked shall drinke the cuppe of his wrath. But the righteous shalbe exalted to honor.

Sing this as the 44. psalme.

Vnto the God we will geue thanks,
we will geue thanks to thee:
Sith thy name is so neare, declare thy wondrous workes will we.
3 I will brightly iudge, when get conuenient time I may:
The earth is weake and all therein,
but I her pillers lay.

4 I did to the mad people say,
deale not so furiously:
And unto the vngodly ones,
let not your hoines to bye.

4 I said unto them let not by,
your rayled hoines to bye:
And see that you do with this necke,
not speake presumptuously.

5 For neither from the Easterne partes, nor from the Westerne side:
Nor from forsaken wilderness, protection dost procure.

6 For why? the Lord our God he is,
the righteous iudge alone:
He putteth downe the one, and sets an other in the throne.

7 For why? a cup of mighty wine,
is in the hand of God:
And all the mighty wine thereto,
himselfe doth poure abroad.

8 As for the leas and flinty dyces,
that do remaine of it:
The wicked of the earth shall drinke,
and swike them euery wyte.

But I will talke of God I say,
of Iacob's God theretofore:
And will not cease to celebrate,
his prayes for evermore.

10 In sunder breake the hoines of all vngodly men will I:
But then the hoines of righteous men,
shall be exalted hye.

Gloria patri.

To Father, Sonne and holy Ghost,
all glorie be theretofore:
As in beginning was, is now
and shall be evermore.

In Iudea, Psal. LXXVI. I.H.

¶ There is described the power of God a care for the defence of his people by the destruction of Sennas chariots army, for which the faithful are exhorted to be thankfull.

Sing this as the 66. psalme.

To all that now in Iury dwell
the Lord is clearly knowne his name is great in Israel, a people of his owne.

2 At Salem he his tentes hath pight
to tarrie there a space:
In Sion the he hath delihte,
so make his dwelling place.

3 And there he brake both swift and bow,
the sword, the spear and shield:
And brake the rage to quethow in battell on the field.

4 Thou art more worthy honour Lord more might in thee both lie:
When in the strongest of the world that rob on mountaines his.

5 But now the yron are spoyld through and they are fallen on sleepe: (thee, Though men of warre no helpe can be,
themselves they could not keepe.

6 At thy rebuke O Iacob's God, when thou didst them reprove:
As halfe a sleepe their chariots stood,
no horsemen once did moue.

7 For thou art dreadfull Lord in deeds, what man the courage hath to bide thy sight, and both not dread, when thou art in thy ward?
8 When I dost make thy iudgements heard from heauen through the ground:
Then all the earth full foie asfear,
in silence shalbe found.

9 And that when thou O God dost stand,
in iudgement for to speake:
To saue the afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weake.

10 The fury that in man doth reigne, shall tume vnto thy people:
Weakest Lord do thou restrain their wrath and threaten alwayes.

Make bowes and pay them to your God
ye folke that nigh him be:

Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadfull sure is he.

12 For he doth take both life and might from whines great of byeth:
And full of terror is his sight to all the hinges on earth.

Vox mea ad. Psal. LXXVII. I.H.

¶ David rehearsed his great afflictions a grievous temptations, whereby he is bidden to consider his former education, & the course of Gods workes in the preservation of his seruantes, and so to be firmly his faith against these temptations.

With my voyce to God doe cry,

with hate and harty cheate: say voyce to God I lifte on hye: and he my fate doth deare. In tyme of griefe I sought to God, by night no rest I sooke: But stretch my handes to him abroad

abroad, my soule comforte forsaie,

When I to thinke on God intend,
my trouble then is moze,
I spake but could not make an end,
my breath was kept to sope.

4 Thou holdest mine eyes alwaies fast,
that I there with awake:
With feare am I to sope opprest,
my speech doth me forsake.

5 The dayes of old in minde I call,
and oft did thinke upon:
The times and ages that are past,
full many yeares agone.

6 By night my songes I call to minde, once made thy prayre to shew:
And with my heart much talke I finde,
my spirit doth searcho to know.

7 Will God said I at once for all,
cast off his people thine?
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unto mine?

8 What is his goodness cleane decayde, for ever and a day?
O is his promise now decayde,
and doth his trust decay?

9 And will the Lord our God forget,
his mercies manifold:
O shall his wrath increase to hate,
his mercie to withhold?

10 At last I finde my weakness is the cause of this mischance:
Gods mighty hand can helpe all this,
and change it when he list.

The second part.

11 I will regard and thinke upon,
the working of the Lord:
Of all his wonders past and gone,
I gladly will record.

12 Yea all his wonders I will declare,
and what he did deuce:
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and the his counsaile wise.

13 Thy wonders O Lord are all bright, and holie all abroad:
What one hath strength to match the might of thee O Lord our God?

14 Thou art a God that oft shew,
thy wonders euerie houre:
And to do so make thy people know,
thy verue and thy power.

15 And thine owne for the thou dost defend with strength and stretched arme:
The sonnes of Jacob thou discern,
and Josephs seed from harme.

16 The waters Lord persecuted thee,
the waters saw thee well:
And they for feare addid thee flee,
the depths on trembling fell.

The clouds that were both thicke & blacke
did raine full plentifully:
The thunder in the aire did cracke,
thy shafts abroad did fly:

17 Thy thunder on the earth was heard,
the lightnings from above:
18 With flashes great made them affraid, the earth did quake and moue.

19 Thy waies within the sea doe lye,
thy pathes in waters deepe:
Yet none can there thy steps espy,
nor know thy pathes to keepe.

20 Thou ledest thy folk & upon the land,
as shepe on aerie side:
Through Egypt & through Iarons hand,
thou didst them safely guide.

Attendite populi. psal. Lxxviii. T. S.

He sheweth how God of his mercy chose his Church of the posteritie of Abraham, calling in their teeth
the rebellion of their fathers, that their children might acknowledge Gods free mercies, and be ashammed of their perversities answerelesse. The holy ghost hath compendiously, as it were the summe of all Gods benefites, sheweth the grosse people mightlesse in few wordes the effect of the whole histories.

Tend my people to my laue, and to my words incline, My mouth shall speake strange parables, and sentences deuide, Which we our selues haue heard and leard, euen of our fathers

olde: And which for our instruction,

our fathers haue vs to lerne.

4 Because we should not keepe it close,
from them that should come after:
Who should Gods power to their race and all his wonders of wonder, (psalme

5 To Jacob be commendement gane, how Israel should lerne:
Willing our fathers should the same,
unto their children gane.

6 That they and their posteritie, which were not spozing by the:
Should haue the knowledge of the law,
and teach their seede also.

7 That they may haue the better hope,
in God that is above:
And not forget to keep his lawes,
and his precepts in loue.

8 Not being as our fathers were,
rebell in Gods sight:
And would not frame their wicked hearts,
to know their God aright.

How wroth the people of rebellion,
their neighbours for to spie:
Shooting their darts the day of warre,
and yet they took the victorie.

For why? they did not keepe with God
the covenant that was made:
For yet would waite on lead their liues,
according to his trade.
But put into oblivion,
his counsell and his will:
And all his wonders most magnifike, which he declared still.

The second part.

What wonders to our forefathers,
did he himselfe disclose:
In Egypt land within the field,
that called is Thamees?
He did deuide and cut the sea,
that they might passe at once:
And made the waters stand as still,
as doth an heap of stones.

He led them secret in a cloud,
by day when it was bright:
And in the night when darke it was,
with fire he gaue them light.

He brake the rocks in wilderness and gaue the people drinke:
As plentiful as when the deepes,
doe flow by to the brinke.

He dyed out rivers out of rocks,
that were both drye and hard:
Of such abundance, that no founte
to them might be compar'd.

Yet for all this against the Lord,
their sinne they did increase:
And stirred him that is most high,
to wrath in wilderness.

They tempted him with their hart
like people of mistrust:
Requiring such a kind of meate,
as serued to their lust.

Saying with murmuration,
in their disdainfullnesse:
What? can this God prepare for vs,
a feast in wilderness?

Behold, he brake the stonie rocks,
and founts forthwith did flow:
But can he now giue to his folke,
both bread and flesh also?

When God heard this he wroth wrothly, with Jacob and his seed:
So did his indignation,
on Israel procede.

The third part.

Because they did not faithfully, believe and hope, that he Could alwayes helpe and succour them,
in their necessitie.

Wherefore he did command the clouds,
forthwith they brake in sunder:

And raynd downe Aims for them so fast,
a fowle of miche wonder.

When carnall men with angels food were fed at their request:

He bad the East winde blow away,
and brought in the Southwest.

And raynd downe flay as thicke as flay,

and foule as thicke as flay:
Which he did cast amidst the place,
where all the centur did stand.

Then did they eate exceedingly,
and all men had their fill:
Yet more and more they did desire,
to see their lust and will.

But as if meate was in their mouthes his wrath upon them fell:
And slew the flower of all their youth and choice of Israel.

Yet fell they to their wonted sinne,
and still they did him graue:
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not beleue.

Their dayes therefore he shortned,
and made their honoy bayne:
Their yeares did wast and passe away,
with terrors and with payne.

But euer when he plagued them,
they sought him by and by.
Remembryng then he was their strength,
their helpe and God most hye.

Though in their mouthes they did brag and flatter with the Lord: (Glof.)
And with their tongues and in their hartes, dissembled euer word.

The fourth part.

For why? their hartes were nothing to
to him nor to his trade: (Vene)
For yet to keepe, or to performe
the covenant that was made.

Yet was he still so mercifull,
when they desired to dye:
That he forgane them their iniquities,
and would not them destroy.

Yea many a tyme he turned his wrath,
and did himselfe abuse:
And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to rise.

Considering that they were but flesh,
and euen as a winde:
That at passer away, and cannot well
returne by his owne kinde.

How often tymes in wilderness,
did they their Lord provoke?
How did they moue and stirre the Lord,
to plague them with his stroke?

Yet did they turne againe to sinne,
and tempted God oft soone:
Wondering to the holy Lord,
what thinges they would haue done.

Not thinking of his hand and power,
nor of the day when he:
Would smite them out of the handes,
of the fierce enemy.

How how he wrought his miracles,
as they themselves beheld:
In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zeen field.

How how he turned by his power,
their waters into blood:
That no man might drinke his drinke
at reuer nor at food.

How how he sent them swarmes of flies
which

which did them sore annoy:
And did their country full of fodge,
which should their land destroy.
The six part.
46 How he did commit their fruites, unto the Caterpillar:
And all the labors of their handes,
he gave to the Grasshopper.
47 With hailstones he destroyed thes so that they were all lost, (hines)
And not so much as wilde figge trees, but he consumed with frok.
48 And yet with hailstones once againe,
the Lord their castell smote:
And all their rockes and heaves likewise,
with thunderboltes full hote.
49 He cast upon them in his ire,
and in his furie strong:
Displeasure, wrath, and evil spirits,
to trouble them among.
50 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and shewed not the least:
But gave unto the pestilence,
the man and she the beast.
51 He strake also the first borne ill,
that bp in Egypt came:
And all the chief of men and beastes,
with in the tentes of Ham.
52 But as for all his owne deare soles,
he did preserve and keepe:
And carried them through wilderness,
euen like a flocke of sheepe.
53 Without all feare both safe and sound,
he brought them out of thall:
Whereas their foes with rage of sea,
were overhelmed all.
54 And brought them out into the coastes of his owne holy land:
Euen to the Mount which he had got,
by his strong arme and hand.
55 And there cast out the heathen folke,
and did their land divide:
And in their tentes he set the tribes of Israell to abide.
56 Yet for all this the Lord most high,
they sinned and tempted still:
And would not hee be his testament nor yet obey his will.
57 But as their fathers turned backe,
euen so they went astray:
Much like a bow that would not bend,
but slip and shew away.
The six part.
58 And grieved him with their hill altars,
with offerings and with fire:
And with their Idols, vehemently provoked him to ire.
59 Therewith his wrath began agayne,
to kindle in his heat:
The naughtiness of Israell,
he did so much detest.
60 Then he forsooke the Tabernacle, of Sion where he was:
Right conversant with earthly men,
euen as his dwelling place:
61 Then suffered he his might and power,
in bondage for to stand:
And gave the honoy of his Name,

into his enemies hand.
62 And did commit them to the sword,
worsh with his heritage:
63 The young men were deuoured with fire,
maydes had no marriage.
64 And with the sword the Ioyesses also,
did perishe every one:
And not a widow left alaine,
their death for to demone.
65 And then the Lord began to woe,
like one that slept a tyme:
And as a balaunt man of warre,
refreshed afroe wine.
66 With smokes in the hinder parts,
he strake his enemies all:
And put them then into a shame,
that was personall.
67 Then he the tent and tabernacle,
of Ioseph did refuse:
As for the tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wise chuse.
68 But chose the tribe of Iuda, whereas he thought to dwell:
Euen the noble mount Zion,
which he did loue so well.
69 Whereas he did his temple build,
both sumptuously and sure:
Like as the earth which he hath made,
for euer to endure.
70 Then chose he to dwel in to Ierusalem,
his people for to keepe:
Which he tooke up and brought away,
euen from the foldes of sheepe.
71 As he did follow the ewes with young,
the Lord did him aduance:
To feed his people Ihesael,
and his inheritance.
72 Thus to dwel with a faithfull heart,
his flocke and charge did feed:
And prudently with all his power,
do gouerne them in deed.
Deus, venerant psal. Lxxix. I. H.
As Israell complains to God for the calamity that they suffered when Antiochus destroyed their temple and City, desiring aide against his tyranny, lest God and religion should be contemned by heathen, who should see them forsaken and perishe.
Sing this as the 77. Psalme.
O Lord the Gentiles doe invade,
thyne heritage to spoile:
Iherusalem an heape is made,
et y temple they despoile.
1 The bodies of thy saints most deare, abound to burne they cast:
The flesh of them that doe thee feare,
the beasts deuour and wast.
2 Their blood throughout Ierusalem,
as water spile they haue:
So that there is not one of them,
to late their dead in graue.
3 Thus are we made a laughing stocke,
a ioust the world throughout:
The enemies at vs left and moche, which dwell our eares about.
4 Wilt thou O Lord thus in thine ire, against:

against vs our shame?
 And shew thy wrath as hate as fire,
 thy falshe for to consume?
 6 Wpon those people poure the same,
 whych did the world know:
 All realmes which call not on thy name,
 consume and ouerthrow.
 7 For they haue got the upper hand,
 and Jacobs seed destroyed:
 His habitation and his land,
 they haue left waste and boyd.
 8 Weare not in minde our former faultes, with speche some pity thou:
 And ayde vs Lord in all assaules,
 for we are weake and low.

The second part.

9 O God that giuest all heath and grace,
 on vs declare the same:
 Weigh not our workes, our sinnes deface,
 for honoy of thy name.
 10 Why shall the wicked still alway,
 to vs as people dumme:
 In thy reproch, reioyce and say,
 where is thy God become?

11 Requite O Lord as thou hast god,
 before our eyes in sight:
 Of all these folke thy seruantes blond, which they spile in despite.

12 Reuenge into thy sight in hate,
 the clamours grieue and wrong:
 Of such as are in prison cast, sustaining pions strong.

Thy force and strength to celebrate,
 Lord set them out of hand:
 Which haue death are destinate,
 and in their enemies hand.

13 The nations which haue bene so bold,
 as to blaspheme thy name:
 Into their laps with senen fold,
 repay agayne the same.

4 So we thy folke and pasture shepe,
 will praye the euermore:
 And teach all ages for to kepe,
 for the lyke praye in store.

Qui regis Israel. Psal. Lxxx. I.H.

A lamentable prayer to god to helpe the miseries of the Church, desiring hym to consider the best estate when hys suno shined towards them, that hee might kindly that woake which he begun.

Sing this as the 67. Psalm.

Thou hearest that Israell doeth hepe,
 geue care and take good heed:
 Which leader Joseph like a shepe,
 and doest him watch and feed.

1 Thou Lord I say whose seare is set,
 on Cherubins so bright:
 Shew forth thy selfe and do not let,
 sent downe thy beames of light.

2 Before Ephraim and Manassah, Manasse the likewise:
 To shew thy power do thou begin,
 come helpe vs Lord arise.

3 Direct our hartes vnto thy grace,
 conuert vs Lord to thee:
 Shew vs the brightness of thy face,
 and then full safene we.

4 Lord God of hostes of Israell,

how long wilt thou I say:
 Against thy folke in anger swell,
 and wilt not heare them pray?
 6 Thou doest them feed as thornes hope,
 their thornes with thornes they care:
 And by inke the reases that they do wepe,
 in measure full and great.
 Thou hast vs made a very strife,
 to those that dwell about:
 And that our foes be lone a life,
 they laugh and tell it out.
 8 O take vs Lord vnto thy grace, conuert our minde to the:
 Shew forth to vs thy soylfull face,
 and we full safe shall be.

9 From Egypt where it grew not well, thou broughtest a thyme full deere:
 The shepherds folke thou dost expell,
 and then dost plant it there.
 10 Thou dost prepare for it a place,
 and set her cotes full fast:
 That it did grow and spring apace,
 and fill the land at last.

The second part.

11 The hills were counted round about,
 with shade that from it came:
 And eke the Cedars high and stout,
 with banches of the same.

12 Why the dost thou her wall destroy,
 her hedge pluckt byr thou hast:
 That all the folke that passe thereby,
 the vine may spoyle and waste.

13 The Bees out of the wood so wild,
 doth dig and roote it out:
 The furious beastes out of the felde, deuour it all about.

14 O Lord of hostes reuenge agayne,
 from heauen looke vnto me:
 Behold, and with thy helpe sustaine,
 this poore vineyard of mine.

15 Thy plant I say thine Israell, whom thy right hand hath set:
 The same which thou dost lous forwell,
 O Lord do not forget.

16 They lop and cut it downe a pace,
 they burne it eke with fire:
 And through the frowning of thy face,
 we perish in thine ire.

17 Let thy right hand be with them now, whom thou hast kept so long:
 And with the sonne of man whom thou,
 to thee hast made so strong.
 And so when thou hast set vs free,
 and saued vs from shame:
 18 Then will we neuer fall from thee,
 but call vpon thy name.

19 O Lord of hostes th'ough thy god grace
 conuert vs vnto thee:
 Behold vs with a pleasant face and then full safe are we.

Exultate Deo. Psal. Lxxxi. I.H.

An exhortation to prayse O Lord hys benefits concerning their ingratitudes.

B

Light and glad, in God reioyce
 which

- 3 Blow as it were in the new scone,
with trumpets of the best:
As it is fited to be done,
at any solemne feast.
- 4 For this is unto Israel,
a stature and a shade:
A law that must be kept still well,
which Jacobs God hath made.
- 5 This clause with Joseph was decreed,
when he from Egypt came:
That as a witness all his seed, should still observe the same.
- 6 When God I say had thus prepared,
to bring him from that land
Whereas the speech which hee had heard he did not understand.
- 7 I from his shoulders tooke (sith he)
the burthen cleane away:
And from the furnace quit him free,
from burning bricke of clay.
- 8 When thou in griefe didst cry and call,
I holpe thee by and by:
And I did answer thee withall,
in thimber secretly.
- 9 Yea at the waters of discord,
I did thee tempt and proue:
Whereas the goodness of the Lord,
with muttering thou didst moue.
- 10 Heare O my folke, O Israel,
and I assure thee:
Regard and marke my words full well,
if thou wilt cleane to me.

The second part.

- 11 Thou shalt no God in thee reuerse of aniel and abond:
Nor in no wise to bow or serue,
a strange or foyname God.
- 12 I am the Lord thy God, and I from Egypt set thee free:
Then aske of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.
- 13 And yet my people would not heare,
my voice when that I spake:
Nor Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.

- 14 Then did I leave them to their will,
in hardnesse of their heart:
To walke in their owne counsell still,
them selves they might pervert.
 - 15 O that my people would have heard,
the wordes that I did say:
And he that I fear I would regard,
to walke within my way.
 - 16 How faine would I confound their foes and bring them downe full low:
And turne my hand upon all those,
that would them overthrow.
 - 17 And they that at the Lord do rage,
as flames would seeke him till:
But of his folke the time and age, would flourish ever still.
 - 18 I would have fed them with the crop,
and fild of the wheate:
And made the rocke with honey drop,
that they their fillies should cate.

- Again the people which men of might,
the Lord himselfe doth stand:
To plead the cause of truth and right,
with iudges of the land.
- 1 How long (said he) will you proceed,
false iudgements to award:
And haue respect for loue of meede,
the wicked to regard?

- Whereas of due you should defend,
the fatherles and weak:
And when the poore man doth contend,
in iudgement lustily speake.
- 4 If ye be wise defend the cause,
of poore men in their right:
And rid the needy from the clames of
of tyrants force and might.
- 5 But nothing will they know or learne,
in vaine to them I talke:
They will not see or ought discern,
but still in darkness walke.
- For loe euen now the time is come,
that all thinges fall to nought:
And likewise lawes both all and some for game are sold and bought.

- I had denie it in my sight.
as would to take you all:
And children to the most of might,
for loue I did you call.
- But notwithstanding ye shall dye
as men and so decay:
O tyrants I shall you destroy,
and plucke you quite away.

Sing

Sing this psalme. 77. psalme.

DO not O God reſtraine thy tongue,
in ſilence do not ſay:
Withhold not thy ſelfe ſo long,
nor make no more delay.

3 For why? behold thy foes, and ſee
how they do rage and cry:
And thoſe that beate an hate to thee hold vp their heads on hye.

4 Againſt thy folke they beſe decreit, and craftily they enquire:
For thine elect to lye in wayte, theiſe counſell both conſpire.

5 Come on ſay they, let vs excell,
and pluche theſe folke away:
So that the name of Iſrael,
may ſilently decay.

6 They all conſpire within their hartes,
how they may thee withſtand:
Againſt the Lord to take a part,
they ſee in league and band.

7 The tentes of all the Edomites,
the Iſmaelites alſo:
The Iſagarens and the Gabaſites, with diuers other moe.

Behold with Ammon, and likewiſe
both Amaleke conſpire:
The Philiftines againſt thee riſe, with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 And ſilur eke is well ayde,
with them in league to be:
And both become a fence and ayde,
to Lots poſſeſſie.

9 As thou haſt to the Moabites, ſo ſerue them Lord echone:
As to Siſer and to Tobin beſide the brinke of Iſon.

10 To whom thou in Endor haſt deſtroyd, and waſt them through thy might:
That they lye down on earth ſid lye,
and that in open ſight.

The ſecond part.

11 Make them now and their Lordes ap:
like Zeb and Oſeb than: (yeas)
As Zaba and Zalmana were,
the kinges of Moabian.

12 Which ſaid let vs throughout the land
in all the coaſtes abode:
To deſtroy and take into our hand,
the ſurge houſes of God.

13 Turne them O God with ſtones as ſaſt
as whetſtes that haue no ſay:
O like the chaſſe which men do caſt,
with windes to flye away.

14 Like as the fire with rage and fume,
the mighty force theſe ſpilles:
And as the flame doth quite conſume,
the mountaines and the hilles.

15 And let the tempeſt of thy wrath,
vpon their neckes be layd:
So of thy ſtormy wind and ſhowes,
Lord make them all aſſayd.

16 Lord bring them all I theſe deſire,
to ſuch rebuke and ſhame:
That it may cauſe them to enquire,
and I ſerue to ſeeke thy name.

17 And let them ſweet moſe daye,
to ſhame and ſhoulder fall:
And in rebuke and obloquy,
to periſh eke withall.

18 That they may know and ſee full well,
that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou doſt excell,
and raigne throughout the world.

Quam dilecta. Plal. Lxxxiii. I. H.

¶ David ſcried his country, deſerted ſuddenly to the turne to Gods tabernacle, & aſſembly of the ſalua-tors to ſerue God. When hee playeth the courage of the people, that paſſe the wilderness to aſſemble themſelves in ſion.

Sing this as the 77. psalme.

How pleaſant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hoſtes to me?

The tabernacles of thy grace,
how pleaſant Lord they be?

2 My ſoule doth long full ſore to goe,
into thy courtes abroad:

My hart doth luſt my ſelfe alſo,
in the thy living God.

The ſparrowes find a roome to reſt,
and ſaue themſelves from wrong:
And eke the ſwallow haſt a neſt,
wherein to hepe her yong.

4 Theſe birdes full nigh thine altar may,
haue place to ſit and ſing:

O Lord of hoſtes thou art I ſay,
my God and eke my king.

5 Oh they be bleſſed that may dwell,
within thy houſe alwayes:

For they all times thy fauour do tell,
and euer geue thee praife.

6 Ye happy ſure likewiſe are they,
whoſe way and ſtrength thou art:
Which to thy houſe do mind the way,
and ſeeke thee in their hart.

7 As they go through the vale of teares,
they digge vp ſountaines hill:

That as a ſpring it all appeares,
and thou their pits doſt fill.

8 From ſtrength to ſtrength they walke full no faintnes there ſhaibe: (ſaſt)
And ſo the God of Gods at laſt, in ſion they do ſee.

9 O Lord of hoſtes to me geue heede,
and heare when I do pray:

And let it through thine eares procede
O Iacobus God I ſay.

10 O Lord our ſhield of thy good grace, regard and ſo haue we care:
Regard I ſay, behold the face,
of thine anointed deare.

11 For why? within thy courtes one day,
is better to abide:

Then other where to hepe as day,
a thouſand dayes beside.

12 Much rather would I hepe a daye, within the houſe of God:
Then in the tentes of withednes,
to ſettle mine abode.

13 For God the Lord light and defence, will grace and worthip geue:
And no good thing ſhall be withhold,
from them that purely lue.

14 O Lord of hostes that man is blest, and happy sine to be:
That is perswaded in his heart,
to trust all times in thee.

Benedixisti Do. psal. LXXXV. I. H.

Isaiah doth witness, that his sons from his Church after their time from Babylon, first they put them in prison: that he should not leave the worke of his grace unperfected, and complaine of their long afflic-tion. Then they reioyce in hope of promised deliue-rance, which was a signe of Christes kyngdome, where by which should be perfect felicity.

Sing this as the 81. psalme.

Thou hast bene mercifull in deedes,

O Lord unto thy land:

For thou restordest Jacobs seede,
from the downe out of hand.

1 The wicked sayen that they were in,
thou didst them cleane remit:

And thou didst thy people blame,
full close thou coveredst it.

2 Thine anger eke thou didst avenge, that all thy wrath was gone:

And so didst turne thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.

4 O God of heathen do now connect,
thy people with thee:

For all thy wrath from vs apart,
and angry cease to bee.

Why? shall thine anger neuer end,
but still placed on vs?

And shall thy wrath it selfe extend,
vpon all ages thus?

6 Wilt thou not rather turne therfore, and quicke vs, that we

And all thy folke may exult ioye, be glad and ioy in thee?

7 O Lord on vs do thou declare,
thy goodnesse to our wealth:

Shew forth to vs, and do not spare,
thyne aide and saving health.

8 I will haile what God saith, for he speakes to his people peace:

And to his Saints, that neuer they returue to foolishnesse.

For why? his helpe is still at hand,
to such as do him feare:

Wherby great glory in the land, shall dwell and flourish there.

10 For trust and mercy there shall mete,
in one to take their place:

And peace shall iustice with hisse greet,
and there they shall embrace.

11 As trust from earth shall spring apace,
and flourish pleasantly:

So righteousness shall shew her face,
and looke from heauen high.

12 Yea God himselfe doth take in hand, to giue vs each good thing:

And through the confesse of all the land,
the earth her fruites shall bring.

13 Before his face shall iustice goe, much like a guide or stay:

He shall direct his steps alld,
and keepe them in the way.

Inclina Domine. Psal. LXXXV. I. H.

David saies officers, specially forment by delin-quance: sometimes rebuking his misdeeds & merites reuered, desiring alld to be instructed of the Lord that he may loose any glory his name. He complayneth also of his sinnes, and earnestly to be deliuered from them.

Sing this as the 81. psalme.

L O Lord how thinke we to thy request, and heare me by and by:

With grievous paine and griefe opprest,
full peepe and weake am I.

2 Wherefore my soule, because my wayes and doings holie be:

And thus thy seruant O my Lord,
that puts his trust in thee.

3 Thy mercy Lord on me expresse, defend me eke withall:

For through the day I do not cease,
on thee to crye and call.

4 Comfort O Lord thy seruants soules, that now with paine is pinde:

For unto thee Lord I extoll, and lift my soule and minde.

For thou art god and bountifull,
thy gift of grace are free:

And eke thy mercy plentifull,
to all that call on thee.

6 O Lord likewise when I do pray, regard and giue an eare:

Heare well the wordes that I do say,
and all my prayers heare.

7 In time when trouble doth me moue
to thee I do complaine:

For why? I know and well do proue, thou answerest me againe.

8 Among the Gods (O Lord) is none, with thee to be comparde:

And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not bene heard.

the second part.

6 The Gentiles and the people all,
which thou hast made and framed:

Before thy face on knees will fall,
and glorifie thy name.

10 For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine owne:

Thou workest wonders still in sight,
for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me Lord the way, and I shall in thy trust proceede:

O loyne my heart to the hynde, that I thy name may praise.

12 To thee my God will I giue praise, with all my heart (O Lord):

And glorifie thy name alwayes,
for euer through the world.

13 For why? thy mercy shewed to me,
is great and doth extell:

Thou sett my soule at libertie,
out from the lower hell:

14 O Lord the proud against me rise, and heapes of men of might:

They seeke my soule and in no wise,
will haue thee in their sight.

15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meete, full grace and slow to wrath:

Thy goodnesse is full great, and eke thy trust no measure hath.

6 O turne to me and mercy graunt,
thy strength to me apply:
O helpe and doe thine owne seruant,
thy bondsmen soune am I.

17 On me some signe of kinde shew, that all my foes may see:
And be asham'd, because Lord thou,
dost helpe and comfort mee.

Fundamenta eius. Psal. LXXXVII. I.H.

¶ The holy ghost promitteth that the Church, as yet in miserie after the captiuitie of Babylon, should be reioyced in great tranquillitie, to haue nothing should be more comfortable then to be quicke among the numbers thereof.

Sing this as the 11. Psalme.

¶ That Citie shall full well endure, her ground where she shall dwell:
Upon the holy hill full sure,
it can no time decay.

1 God loues the gates of Zion best,
his grace doth there abide:
He loues them more then all the rest of Jacobs tents beside.

2 Full glorious things reported be,
in Zion and abroad:
Great things I say are done of thee,
thou Citie of our God.

3 On Rahab I will call an eye, and beate in mine the same:
And Babylon shall ere apply,
and learne to know my name.

4 Loe Palestine and Tyre also,
with Ethiopia likewise:
A people old full longage,
were boyne and bere dithrite.

5 Of Syon they shall say abroad, that direct men of fame:
Hauere there sprung vp, and the high God,
hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall,
through Gods deitie appeare,
Of Zion that the chiefe of all,
had his beginning there.
The trumpeters with fure, as king,
therein great plentie bee:
3 Thy son natines and my pleasant springes, are compass all in thee.

Domine Deus. Psal. LXXXVIII. I.H.

¶ The saythfull saye afflicted by sickness, persecution, auaricie, and as it were left of God without any consolation: Yet call on God by sayth, and reioyng in his desperation.

Oh God of heath, the hope and star, thou art alone to me: I call and crye throughout the day, and all the night to thee. 2. O let my prayers soone ascend, but thy sight on me: And thus thyne eare (O Lord) attend and hearken to my cry.

For why? my soules with woe is fill,
and doth in trouble dwell:
My life and breath almost doth feede,
and bawery night to hell.

4 I am encerr'd as one withdrem, that in the pit do fall:
And made as one among those men,
that haue no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free from things that here remaine:
It were more easie for me to bee,
with them the which are slaine.

¶ As those that lye in grane I say, whom thou hast cleane forgot:
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regardst them not.

7 Yea like to one that by full sure,
with in the lower pit:
In places darke and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

8 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise,
full sope on me doth lye:
And all thy frownes against me rife,
my soule to here and crye.

¶ Thou putt my friends far off from me and maketh them hate me sore:
I am shut vp in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.

10 My sight doth faile through griefe and woe
I call to thee O God:
Thy goodness the day my hands also,
to thee I stretch abroad.

the second part.

11 Woe it thou into the dead declare,
thy wondrous workes of fame:
Shall dead to life againe repaire,
and praye thee for the same?

12 O shall thy louing kindnesse Lord be preacht in the graue?
O shall with them that are despoile,
thy trusty her bones haue?

13 Shall they that lye in darke full low,
of all thy wonders woe:
O there shall they thy iustice know,
where all things are forgot?

14 But I (O Lord) for ever alway,
do cry and call apace:
My prayer the ere it be day,
shall come before thy face.

15 Why dost thou Lord abhorre my soules,
in griefe that seeth thee:
And now O Lord why dost thou hide,
thy face away from mee?

16 I am afflicted as dying still,
from youth thus many a yeare.

The ten roys which do bere me all,
with troubled mind I beare.

17 The furges of thy wrathfull rage,
full soye vpon me fall:
Thy terrors eke do not assuage,
but me oppresse withall.

18 All day they compass me about,
as water at the tide:
And all at once with streames full flow,
beset me on each side.

19 Thou settest far from me my friends,
and louers euerie one:
Yea and mine old acquaintance all,
one of my sight are gone.

Misericordias, Psal. LXXXIX. I.H.

David prayeth God, for his conuincement made become him and his elect by Jesus Christ, then he compleyneth of the desolation of his kingdome, so that the promise seemed to be broken. Finally he prayeth to be deliuered from afflictions mentioning the shortness of mans life and confounding himselfe by Gods promises.

Sing this as the 67. Psalme

T O King the mercies of the Lord,
my tongue shall neuer spare:
And with my mouth from age to age,
thy trueth I will declare.

For I haue said that mercy shall,
for euermore remaine:
In that thou dost the heavens say,
thy trouth appeared plaine.

3 To mine elect (saith God) I made,
a covenent and bested:
My seruant I aske to perswade,
I sware and did protest.

4 Thy seede for euer I will say,
and stablish it full fast:
And still I vphold thy throne alway,
from age to age to last.

5 The heauens shew with ioy and mirth,
thy wondrous workes O Lord:
Thy saintes within thy Church on earth,
thy faith and truth record.

6 Who with the Lord is equall then,
in all the cloudes abode:
Among the sonnes of all the Gods,
what one is like our God?

7 God in assembly of his Saintes, is greatly to be feared:
And ouer all that dwell about,
in terror to be had.

8 Lord God of hostes, in all the world,
what one is like to thee:
On euerie side most mighty Lord,
thy trouth is seeme to be.

9 The raging sea by thine abutts, thou rulest at thy will:
And when the waves thereof arise,
thou maketh them calme and still.

10 And Egypt thou Lord hast subdued, and thou hast it destroyed:
Yea thou thy foes with mighty arme,
hast scatterd all abroad.

The second part.

11 The heauens are thine O Lord, thou art, likewise the earth and land:
The world with all that is therein,

thou foundedst with thy hand:

12 Both North and South, with East, and thy selfe dost make and frame: (West, Both Cabo mount, and the Pyram, etioyer and playe thy name.

13 Thine arme is strong and full of power
all might therein dost lye:
Thy strength of thy right hand ech power,
thou listest vp on hye.

14 In righteousness and equity,
thou hast thy seat and place:
Mercy and truth are still with thee,
and go before thy face.

15 What folke is blest that knoweth aright,
thy pacient power O God:
For in the fauour of thy sight,
they walke full safe abroad.

16 For in thy name throughout the day,
they ioy and much reioyce:
And thou, O thy righteousness haue they,
a pleasant fame and noyce.

17 For why? their glory, strength and ayde
in thee alone dost lye:
Thy goodness eke that hast vs fram, shall lift out home on hye.

18 Our strength that dost defend vs well,
the Lord to vs dost bring:
The holy one of Israel,
he is our guide and king.

19 Sometime thy will into thy Saintes in visions thou dost shew:
And thus then dost thou say to them,
thy minde do makethem know.

20 A man of might I haue erect,
your king and guide to be:
And let him vp whome I elect,
among the folke to me.

The third part.

21 My seruant David I appoint,
whome I haue selected out:
And with my holy oyle anoint,
him king of all the court.

22 For why? my hand is ready still,
with him for to remaine:
And with mine arme also I will,
him strengthen and sustaine.

23 The enemies shall him not oppresse,
they shall him not deuout:
As yet the sonnes of wickednes,
on him shall haue no power.

24 His foes likewise I will destroy,
before his face in sight:
And those that hate him I will plague,
and strike them with my might.

25 Thy truth and mercy eke withall, shall still vpon him lye:
And in my name his home eke shall,
be lifted vp on hye.

26 His kingdome I will set to be,
vpon the sea and land:
And eke the running floodes shall be,
embrace with his right hand.

27 He shall depend with all his hart,
on me and thus shall say:
My father and my God thou art,
my roche of health and ay.

22 As ourst heire I will punish:
Of all on earth that sinne:
His might and power I will make,
about all worldly kinges.

23 My mercy shall be with him still,
as I my selfe have told:
My faithfull covenant to faithfull,
my mercy I will hold.

24 And the his seede I will sustaine,
for ever strong and sure:
So that his seat shall still remaine,
while heauen doth endure.

The fourth part.

25 If that his sonnes forsake my law,
and so beginne to swerne:
And of my iudgements haue none awe,
nor will nor them obseue.

26 O if they do not be aright,
my statutes to them make:
And let all my commandmentes light,
and will not hepe my trade.

27 Then with my rod will I begin, their doings to amend:
And so with scourges for their sinne,
when that they do offend.

28 My mercy yet and my goodnesse,
I will not take him free:
Nor handle him with cruelties,
and so my truth forgoe.

29 But sure my covenant I will hold,
with all that I haue spoke:
No word the which my lips hath told,
shall alter or be broke.

30 Once swaie I by my holynesse, and thus performe will I:
With Dauid I shall keepe promise, to him I will not lye.

31 His seede for euermore shall raigne, and the his throne of might:
As both the Sonne it shall remaine,
for ever in my sight.

32 And as the stone within the sye,
for ever standeth fast:
Faithfull witness from on hye,
to shall his kingdome last.

33 But now O Lord thou dost relect, and now thou chaungest cheere:
Yea thou art worthy with thine elect,
thine owne annointed beare.

34 The covenant with thy seruant made,
Lord thou hast quite bondone:
And bowne vpon the ground also,
hast cast his royall crowne.

The fifth part.

35 Thou pluckest his hedges by thine might,
his walles thou dost confound:
Thou beatest the his bulwarke downe,
and breakst them to the ground.

36 That he is for deservod and coyns, of commers by throughout:
And so is made a moche and scorn,
to al that dwell about.

37 Thou their right hand hast lifted by,
that him so sore annoy:
And all his foes that him deuoure,
to thou hast made to toy.

38 His sword they thou dost take away,

that should his foes with hand:
To him in warre no victory
thou givest no upper hand.

39 His glory thou dost also wack,
his throne, his toy, and mirth:
By thee is overthrown and cast,
full low vpon the earth.

40 Thou hast cut of and made full short,
his youth and lusty dayes:
And raish of him an ill report,
with shame and great dyspaise.

41 How long away from me O Lord,
for ever wilt thou turne:
And shall thine anger still alway,
as fire consume and burne?

42 O call to minde remember them,
my time consumed fast:
Why hast thou made the sonnes of men,
as thinges in vaine to wast?

43 What man is he that lieth here,
and death shall neuer see?
O from the ban of offell his soule,
shall he deliuer free?

44 Where is O Lord thine old goodnesse,
so oft declared before:
Which by thy truth and brightnessse,
to Dauid thou hast swore?

45 The great rebukes to mind I call,
that on thy seruants lye:
The saying of the people all,
hoine in my heere haue I.

46 Wherewith O Lord thine enemies,
blasphemed haue thy name:
The steps of thine annointed one,
they cease not to defame.

47 All praise to thee O Lord of hostes,
both now and the for aye:
Through sye & earth, and all the coastes,
Amen. Amen. I say.

Domine refugium. Psal. XC. I.H.
Moses saing the people, neither admonished by the benedictio of their lye, nor by plagues, to be shamefull, prayeth God to turne their heartes and continue his mercies towards them and their po sterities aye.

Sing this as the 78. Psalme.

Thou Lord hast bene our last defence,
our place of safe and rest:
In all times past, yea so long since,
as cannot be expect.

48 For there was made mountaine of hill,
the earth of world abroad:
From age to age and alwayes still,
for ever thou art God.

49 Thou grimest man through griefe & paine to dust of clay, and then:
And then thou sayest againe returne,
againe pe sonnes of men.

50 The lasting of a thousand years,
what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it hath appeard,
as a watch he night.

51 So soone as thou dost scatter them,
that is their life and trade:
All as a sleep, and like the grasse,
whose beauty shone both fade.

which

And to thy name O Lord I will sing to sing with one string to show the hundredth of the Lord
before ere day be light:
And she declines his rock at night,
when it doth draw to night.
Upon ten strings instrument on Lute and Harp to Organs With all the mirthful sound of instruments make us
For thou hast made me to rejoice in things so wrought by thee:
And I have joy in heart and voice thy handmaiden to be.
O Lord how glorious and how great,
are all thy works, O Lord!
So deeply are thy counsels hid that none can see them out.
The man himself shall not find
the counsel of his heart:
And all such folk are nothing ill
to understand the thing.
When to the wicked as their wall,
as grates do shut the full face:
They when they howl in their ill
for ever shall be wail.
But thou art mighty Lord most high,
yea thou dost rule the world.
In every time eternally,
both now and evermore.
For thy word O Lord beyond and to,
before the world I say How all that make iniquity shall perish and decay.
But thou live as an Ocean with fresh and new prepared Oyle, thyne opened kingdom I.
And of my foes before mine eyes shall sit the fall and shame:
Of all that rise against me rise mine ear shall hear the same.
The just shall flourish by on high,
as date trees bud and blow:
And as the Cedars multiply in Libanus that grow.
For they are planted in the place,
and dwelling of our God:
Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.
And in their age much fruit shall bring,
both fat and well to see:
And pleasantly both bud and spring with boughs and branches green.
To show that God is good and just,
and bright in his will:
He is my rock, my hope and trust,
in him there is none ill.

Domineus regnabit. Psal. XCIII. I. H.
The power of God to the creation of the world, and beauty of all people which lift them up against his majesty, and gloriously to conduct them to life.
Sing this as the 77. psalme.
The Lord as King also doth reign in glory godly bright.

And to thy name O Lord I will sing
with one string with might.
The Lord sheweth the earth his might,
and sheweth it his force:
No might can make it move or fade,
at day it doth endure.
For that the world was made, O Lord,
thy fear was the cause:
Beyond all time that can be thought,
thou hast been cause.
The waters O Lord, the floods do rise,
they roare and make a noise:
The floods they do emerge,
and lifted by their voice.
Yea though the flames be in fire,
though heat be rare and fuel:
The Lord is strong with more of might,
to be on high doth dwell.
And loke upon the world both small,
his handings to befall:
For all and every thing is made,
all times withouten end.
Deus vincit. Psal. XCIII. I. H.
The power of God against the violence of tyrants, and conquests made by the good with spiritual weapons, and by the power of his church.
Sing this as the 78. psalme.
O Lord thou hast strength all along that thou dost rule the world:
Sith beaumes doth to thee belong declare that all may tell.
Set forth thy hand O Lord of might,
the earth both sing and guide:
Reward the proud and men of might,
according to their pride.
How long shall wicked men beate away,
with lifting up their voice:
How long shall wicked men I say,
thus triumph and rejoice?
How long shall they with brags burst out and proudly praise their ill?
Shall they rejoice which be so stout,
whose works are ever ill?
The floods O Lord, the heritage,
they shall stand by the sea:
Against the people they do rage,
all day more and more.
The wilderness which are comfortless,
and strangers they do keep:
They say their children fatherless,
and none do put them by.
And when they take these things in hand thou shalt see the time of the:
Can Jacobs God thus withstand and no be cannot be.
O folk be wise and people ride,
some knowledge now discern:
Ye folk among the nations be,
at length begin to learn.
The Lord which made the face of man,
he needs of none must beare:
He made the eye, all things must thou,
before his face appear.
The Lord doth all the world correct,
and make them understand:
Shall he not then punish the wicked?
How

between ye traps the hands

The second book of Samuel

21 The Lord hath kept the thought of his heart

The Lord hath kept the thought of his heart

22 But the Lord hath kept the thought of his heart

And through correction thou shalt procure to reach him in the day

23 He hath kept the thought of his heart

When with a chain thou shalt be bound

14 For sure the Lord hath kept the thought of his heart

His heritage whom he hath chosen

25 But if thou shalt be bound

That all who shall follow thee

16 For who shall follow thee

Of who shall follow thee

17 Except the Lord shall be with thee

My son and life shall now be mine

18 He shall be with thee

19 He shall be with thee

20 He shall be with thee

21 He shall be with thee

22 He shall be with thee

23 He shall be with thee

24 He shall be with thee

25 He shall be with thee

26 He shall be with thee

27 He shall be with thee

28 He shall be with thee

29 He shall be with thee

30 He shall be with thee

31 He shall be with thee

32 He shall be with thee

33 He shall be with thee

34 He shall be with thee

35 He shall be with thee

36 He shall be with thee

37 He shall be with thee

38 He shall be with thee

39 He shall be with thee

40 He shall be with thee

41 He shall be with thee

42 He shall be with thee

43 He shall be with thee

44 He shall be with thee

45 He shall be with thee

46 He shall be with thee

47 He shall be with thee

48 He shall be with thee

In singing to himself unto his grace, let us be glad always.

3 For why? the Lord he is no doubt, a great and mighty God:

4 The secrets of the earth he doth see, and corners of the land:

5 The sea and waters all are his, for he the same hath brought

6 Come let us hymn and praise the Lord, before him let us fall:

7 For why? he is the Lord our God, for us he doth provide:

8 We are his people he hath his people, his sheep and he one guide:

9 To day if ye will hear his voice, when he shall call you:

10 He will speak in peace, they shall be quiet, and I to them will say:

11 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

12 Wherefore I shall when that my wrath was kindled in my heart:

13 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

14 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

15 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

16 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

17 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

18 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

19 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

20 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

21 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

22 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

23 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

24 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

25 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

26 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

27 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

28 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

29 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

30 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

31 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

32 They shall be quiet, they shall be quiet, they shall be quiet:

Venite exultemus. Psal. XCvi. I. H.

8 An actual celebration to God by the government of the world, and the church, to effect the salvation of the fathers, who emptied God in the wilderness, and therefore entered not the land of promise.

9 Sing this as the 77. psalm.

10 Come let us sing unto the Lord, we shall be joyful in him:

11 In him our strength is perfected, for he is our horn of salvation:

12 Ye shall say, we shall be joyful in him, for he is our strength:

13 Ye shall say, we shall be joyful in him, for he is our strength:

14 Ye shall say, we shall be joyful in him, for he is our strength:

15 Ye shall say, we shall be joyful in him, for he is our strength:

16 Ye shall say, we shall be joyful in him, for he is our strength:

17 Ye shall say, we shall be joyful in him, for he is our strength:

18 Ye shall say, we shall be joyful in him, for he is our strength:

19 Ye shall say, we shall be joyful in him, for he is our strength:

9 For he shall come to iudge and trie,
the world and every wight:
And rule the people mightie,
with iustice and with right.

Dominus regnauit. psal. XCix. I. H.
He commenderth the power, equite and excellen-cie of the kingdom of God by this, ouer the kings & Gentiles, pronoking them to magnifye same & to feare the Lord as the auncient fathers, Moses, Aaron, and Samuell, who calling vpon, God were heard in their prayers.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

The Lord doth raigne although at it,
the people rage full foze:
Yea he on Cherubims doth sit,
though all the world do roare.

1 The Lord that doth in Syon dwell, is high and wonderful great:
Above all folke he doth excell,
and he aloft is set.

2 Let all men praise thy mightie name, for it is fearefull sure:
And let them magnifie the same that holy is and pure.

3 Thy princely power of our king,
doth loue iudgement and right:
Thou rightly ruled every thing,
in Jacobeth, through thy might.

4 To praise the Lord our God denist,
all honoz to him doe:
His footstole worship him before,
for he is holy soe.

5 Moyles, Aaron and Samuell, as Whistles on him did call:
When they did pray he heard them well,
and gaue them answer all.

6 Within the cloud to them he spake then did they laboz still:
To hope such lawes as he did make,
and pointed the way vntill.
7 O Lord our God thou didst them heare and answerest them againe:
Thy mercy did on them appeare, their doers didst not maintaine.

8 O laud and praise our God and Lord, within his holy hill:
For why? our God throughout the world is holy euer still.

2. Iubilare Deo omnis. Psal. C.

He exhorteth all men to loue the Lord, who hath made vs to enter into his Courtes, and assemblies to praise his name.

All people that on earth do dwell,

Sing to the Lord with cheerefull voice;

Him serue with feare his praise forth

tell, Come ye before him and reioyce.

2 The Lord ye know is God indeede, without out aide he did vs make:
We are his sheepe he doth vs feede,
and for his sheepe he doth vs take.

4 Enter then his gates with praise,
approch with ioy his court vnto:
Praise him, and bleis his name alwayes,
for it is seemely so to doe.

5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for euer sure:
His truth at all times sheweth good,
and shall from age to age endure.

An other of the same.

Sing this as the 68. psalme.

1 O God the Lord be glad and light, praise him throughout the earth:
Serue him and come before his sight,
with singing and with mirth.

2 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did vs make and kepe:
Not we our selues for we are his owne sheepe he doth vs kepe.

3 O goe into his gates alwayes, gaue thanks within the same:
Within his courts let forth his praise,
and laud his holy name.

4 For why? the goodnesse of the Lord,
for euermore doth raigne:
From age to age throughout the world,
his truth doth still remaine.

Miseri cordiam. Psal. C. i. N.
He sheweth vnto what government heruill obscurer in his house and kingdom, by rooting out the wicked, and cheyning the goodly persons.
Sing this as the 81. psalme.

1 Mercy will and iudgement sing,
O Lord our God vnto vs:

2 And wisely do in perfect way,
vntill thou come to me.

3 And in the midst of my house walke,
in purpasse of my spere:
And I no kind of wicked thing,
will set before my sight.

4 I hate their works that fall away,
it shall nor cleaue to me:
From me shall part the froward hart,
none euill will I see.

5 Whom will I stroy that slandereth,
his neighbors praisely:
The losly hart I cannot beare,
nor him that loveth hye.

6 Mine eyes shalbe on them, within the land that faithfull be:
In perfect way who walke, shall be seruant vnto me.

7 I will no guilefull person haue within my house to dwell:
And in my presence he shall not remaine that lies doth tell.

8 Betime I will destroyen all the wicked of the land:
That I may from Gods Citie cast
the wicked workes of his hand.
Domine exaudi. Psal. C. i. N.

It seemeth that this prayer was appointed to be sayd by the people in the captivity of Babylon. A consolation for the building of the Church whereof followed the people of God to be published unto all posterities. The conversion of the Gentiles and building of the Church.

Sing this as the 67. psalme.

O heare my prayer Lord, and let my cry come unto thee:

1 In time of trouble do not hide thy face away from me.

2 Incline thine eares to me, make hast to heare me when I call:

For as the smoke doth fade, so do my dayes consume and fall.

4 And as a hart my bones are burnt, my hart is smitten dead:

And withers as the grasse, that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of my growning boyre, my bones cleave to my skin:

6 As I dwell in wilderness, such case now am I in.

7 And as an Owle in desert is, soe I am such a one:

I watch, and as a Sparrow on the house top, am alone.

8 Loe dayly in reproch shall with, mine enemies do me wronges

And they that doe against me rage, against me they haue sworn.

9 Surely with aches as with bread, my hunger I haue had:

And mingled haue my drinke with teares, that from mine eyes haue fild.

10 Because of thy displeasing Lord, thy wrath and thy disdain:

For thou hast lifted me aloft, and cast me downe againe.

11 The dayes wherein I passe my life, are like the flitting shade:

And I am withered like the grasse, that come away doth fade.

12 But thou O Lord for ever doest remaine in steady place:

And thy remembrance euer doth abide from race to race.

The second part.

13 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou to Zion wilt extend:

The time of mercy, now the time for ever is come to end.

14 For euen in the bones thereof thy seruants do delight:

And on the dust thereof they haue compassion in their spise.

15 Then shall the heathen people feare, the Lords most holy name:

And all the kings on earth shall bread thy glory and thy fame.

16 Then when the Lord the mighty God againe shall Zion reare:

And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appeare.

17 To prayer of the desolate, when he himselfe shall bende

When he shall not disdaine praye their prayers to attend.

18 This shall be written for the age, that after shall succeede:

The people yet increas'd the Lords renowne shall spread.

19 For he from his hye sanctuary, hath looked downe below:

And out of heauen hath the Lord beheld the earth alle.

20 That of the mourning captive he might heare the woefull cry:

And that he might deliuer those that damned are to dye.

That they in Zion may declare, and Lords most holy name:

And in Ierusalem let forth the playnes of the same.

21 Then when the people of the land, and kingdomes with accord:

Shall be assembled for to do, their seruice to the Lord.

The third part.

22 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way:

And shorter he did cut my dayes, thus I therefore did say.

24 My God in midst of al my dayes, now take me not away:

Thy yeares endure eternally, from age to age for aye.

25 Thou the foundation of the earth, before all times hast layd:

And Lord the builders are the wothe, which thine owne handes haue made.

26 Yea they shall perishe and decay, but thou shalt tary still:

And they shall all in time waie aside, euen as a garment wilt.

Thou as a garment shalt them change, and changed shalt they be:

27 But thou dost still abide the same thy yeares do neuer fide.

28 The children of thy seruants shall continually endure.

And in thy sight their happy seeds for euer shall stand sure.

1. Benedic anima. psal. Ciii. T.5.

The prophet propheseth men and Angels, and all creatures to praise the Lord for his faithful mercies, in deliverance of his people from exile, in his providence over all things, and in preservation of the faithful.

M

y soule praise vnto the Lord,

my spirit shall do the same: And all the secretes of my hart, praise ye his holy name. Some changes to God for all.

1 That gave thee pardon for thy faultes and thee restore againe;
For all thy weake and feeble disease and heale thee of thy paine.

2 That did redeeme thy life from death from which thou couldst not flee:
His mercy and compassion both,
he did extend to thee.

3 That led with goodnes thy desire and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the Eagle carries her bill
wherby her age remeth.

4 The Lord with iustice both repay
all such as be opprest:
So that their sufferings & their wrongs are turned to the best.

5 His waies and his commandments to Moses he did shew:
His counsels and his ballant acts
the Israelites did know.
The Lord is kind and mercifull,
when sinners do him grieve:
The slowest to conceale a wrath,
and readiest to forgive.

6 He chides not vs continually,
though we be full of strife:
Nor hee pes our faultes in memory,
for all our sinfull life.

7 Nor yet according to our finnes,
the Lord doth vs regard:
Nor after our iniquities,
he doth not vs reward.

8 But as the space is wondrous great,
twixt earth and heauen above:
So is his goodness much more large,
to them that do him loue.

9 God doth remove our finnes from vs,
and our offences all:
As farre as is the sunne rising full distant from his fall.

The second part.

10 And loke what pity parente, vnto their children beare:
Like pity beareth God to such,
as worship him in feare.

11 The Lord that made vs knoweth one our molde and fashion full: (shape)
How weake and feble our nature is,
and how we be but dust.

12 And how the time of mortall men,
is like the withering hay:
O like the flower right fayre in field,
that fades full soone away.

13 Whose glorie and beauty shyneth
doth but shortly last:
As the flower that is full of dew,
doth but shortly last.

And make that after their admittes such blossomes have no place.

14 But yet the goodness of the Lord,
with his shall ever stand:
These childrens children do receive,
his righteousness at hand.

15 I meane which haue his covenant with all their whole desire:
And not forget to do the thing,
that he doth them require.

16 The heavens hye are made the seat,
and fortress of the Lord:
And by his power imperiall,
he governes all the world.

17 Ye angels which are great in power, praise ye and blesse the Lord:
Which to obey and do his will,
immediately accord.

18 Ye noble houses and ministers, cease not to laud him still:
Which ready are to execute his pleasure and his will.

19 Yea all his workes in every place
praise ye his holy name:
My heart, my mind and eke my soule,
praise ye also the same.

Benedic anima. pal. Cunt. W.K.

As thanksgiving for the creation of the world, and government of the same by his manifold providence. Also a prayer against the wicked, who are occasions that God diminisheth his blessings.

My soule praise the Lord, speaks good of his name: O Lord our great

God, how dost thou appeare? So passing in glory that great is thy fame!

Honour and mastery in thee shine most clear, with light as a robe thou hast thee beclad, whereby all the earth thy greatnes may see. The heavens in such glory thou altho hast spread, That it to a intelligible

certaine compared may be.

3 His chamber beames lye,
in the cloudes full liue,
Which as his Chariots
are made him to beare:
And there with much swiftnesse,
his course doth endure,
Upon the wings flying,
of winde in the ayre.
4 He maketh his spiriters,
as Herald to go,
And lightnings to ferue,
we see also yest:
His will to accomplish,
they runne to and fro,
To saue or consume thinges,
as he meth him best.

He grounded the earth,
so firmly and fast,
That it once to moue,
now shall haue such power:

6 The deep a faire conering, for made thou hast:
Which by his owne nature,
the hilles woulde deuour.

7 But at thy rebuke,
the waters do fly,
And so giue due place,
thy word to obey:
At thy voice of thunder,
so fearfull they be,
That in their great ragings,
they haue gone away.

8 The mountaines full hye,
they then vp ascend,
If thou do but speake,
thy word they full:
So likewise the ballies,
most quickly descend,
Where thou them appointest, remaine they do still:

9 Their bounds thou hast set,
how far they shal run,
So as in their rage,
not that passe they can:
For God hath appointed,
they shal not return,
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.

The second part.

10 He sendeth the springes,
so strong streames and lakes,
Which runne do full swift,
among the huge hilles:

11 Where both the wild Ases, their thirst oft times shales.
And beastes of the mountaines, cheerefull drinke there filled.

12 By these pleasant springes, of fountaines full faies,
The foules of the ayre,
abide shall and dwell:

13 Who moued by nature,
to hop here and thence,
Among the greene haunches,
their songes shall exche.

14 The mountaines to moide,
the cloudes he doth ble,
The earth with his woakes,
are wholly repaire:

15 So as the hye castell,
he doth not refuse:
But graffe doth prouide them,
and herbe for mans meat,
Yea bread, wine and oyle,
he made for mans sake,
His face to refresh,
and heart to make strong:

16 The Cedars of Liban, this great Goddeth make,
Which trees he doth nourish,
that grow vp so long:

17 In thole may birdes build,
and make there their nest,
In fere trees the Stoghes, remaine and abide:

18 The hye hilles are succours,
for wilde beastes to rest,
And eke the rockes stony,
for Conies to hide.

19 The Snowe then is set,
her seasons to runne,
The dayes from the nightes, thereby to discern:
And by the descending,
also of the Sunne,
The cold from heat away,
thereby we do learne.

20 When darkness doth come,
by Gods will and power,
Then creepe forth do all,
the beastes of the wood:

21 The Lyons raunge roaring, their pray to deuour,
But yet it is thou (Lord)
which giuest them food.

22 As for ne as the Sunne is vp, they retire,
To couch in their dens,
then are they full fire:

23 That man to his worke may,
as right doth requite,
Till night come and call him,
to take rest againe.

The third part.

24 How sundry (O Lord)
are all thy woakes found,
With wisdom full great,
they are in deed wrought:
So that the whole world,
of thy playe doth sound,
And as for thy riches,
they passe all mens thought.

25 So as the great sea,
which large is and broad,
Where thinges that creepe swarme,
and beastes of ech sort,

26 There both nightie things lye,
and some lye at roade:
The whale bge and monstrous,
there also doth spoe.

27 All thinges on the waite,
thou dost them release,
And thou in his time,
full well dost them feede.

28 Now when it doth please the,

The

the same so to give.
They gather full gladly,
those things which they need,
Thou openest thy hand,
and they finde such grace,
That they wish good things,
are filled wile:

29 But soe as they troubled,
if thou turne thy face,
For if thou their breath take,
bile dost then they be.

30 Against when thy spirit,
from thee doth proceed:
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue:

31 Then are they created,
as thou hast decreed,
And doest by thy goodness,
the dry earth reue:

32 The prayse of the Lord,
for ever shall last,
Who may in his workes,
by right well reioyce:
His worke can the earth make,
to tremble full fast,
And likewise the mountaines,
to smoeke at his voice.

33 To this Lord and God, sing will I alwaies,
So long as I live,
my God prayse will I:

34 Then am I most certaine,
my wordes shall him please:
I will reioyce in him,
to him will I cry.

35 The sinners O Lord, consume in thine ire,
And eke the penerle,
them cast out with thine ire:
But as for my soule now,
let it still desire,
And say with the faithfull,
praise ye the Lordes name.

Confiteamini Dom. Psal. Cv. N.

The prayser the singular good will of God, for chosing a peculiar people to himselfe, better calling so do them good than for his promise sake.

Sing this as the 95 psalme.

Give prayse vnto God the Lord,
and call vpon his name:
Among the people he declare,
his workes to spread his fame.

2 Sing ye vnto the Lord I say,
and sing vnto him praise:
And raile of all the wondrous workes,
that he hath wrought alwaies.

3 In honour of his holy name,
reioyce with one accord:
And let the heart also reioyce,
of them that seeke the Lord.

4 Seeke ye the Lord, & seeke the strength, of his eternall might:
And see he his face continually,
and presence of his light.

The wondrous workes that he hath done
keepe still in minde full hart:
He let the iudgements of his mouth,
out of your mind depart.

5 Ye that of faithfull Abraham his seruants are the seed:
Ye his elect the children that of Jacob doe proceed.

7 For he, he only is I say,
the mightie Lord our God:
And his most rightfull iudgement shall see,
throughout all the earth abroad.

8 His promise and his covenant, which he hath made to his:
He hath remembred euermore,
to thousands of degrees.

The second part.

9 The covenant which he hath made,
with Abraham long ago:
And faithfull ory which he hath sworn;
to Isaac also.

10 And did confirme the same for law,
that Jacob should obey:
And for eternall covenant,
to Israel for aye.

11 When thus he said, loe I to you,
all Canaan land will give:
The lot of your inheritance,
wherein your seed shall lie.

12 Although their number at that time,
did but small appeare:
Yea very small, and in the land,
they then but strangers were.

13 While yet they waite from land to land without a fixe abode:
And while from sundry kingdoms they,
did wander all abroad.

14 And wrong at no oppressors hand,
he suffered them to take:
But euen the great and mightie kings,
reioyed for their sake.

15 And thus he said, touch ye not those that mine anointed be:
He do the Prophets any harme,
that do pertaine to me.

16 We called a deaity vpon the land,
of bread he stroyd the store:
But he against their time of need,
had sent a man before.

The third part.

17 Euen Joseph which had once bene sold to liue a slave in woe:
Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose eye yron pearce also.

18 Untill the time came when his cause,
was knowne apparantly:
The mirabile work of God the Lord,
his faultlesse truth did try.

19 The king sent and deliuered him,
from prison where he was:
The ruler of the people then,
did freely let him passe.

20 And ouer all his house he made,
him Lord to beate the sway:
And of his substance made him hane,
the rule and all the day.

21 That he might to his will instruct,
the iudices of the land:
And wisdoms love his ancient me r,
might teach to vnderstand.

22 Then into the Egyptian land.

came Ikenel also:
And Jacob in the land of Ham,
did live a stranger the.

- 24 His people he exceedingly,
in number made to grow:
And over all their enemies,
in strength he wonderfull grew.
25 Whose heart he turned, that they in hate his people did intent:
And did his servants wrongfully,
abuse with false desire.

The fourth part.

- 26 His faithfull servants Moses then,
and Aaron whom he chose:
He did command to go to them,
his message to disclose.
27 The wondrous message of his signes,
among them they did shew:
And wonders in the land of Ham, then did they worke also.
28 Wherein he sent and it was done
in stead of lightnes day:
And unto his commission,
they did not disobay.
29 He turned their waters into bloud,
he did their fishes slay:
30 Their land brought frogs even in the where they king Itharao lay. (place, 31 He spake, and at his voice there came great swannes of noyson flies:
And all the waters of their land,
were filld with crawling lice.
32 He gave them cold and stony hails,
in stead of milde rain:
And fiery flames with in their land,
he sent unto their paine.
33 He smote their vines and all their trees whereon their figs did grow
And all the trees with in their coastes, downe did he overthrow.
34 He spake, then Caterpillers did and Grains appeare abound:
35 Which ate the grasse in all their land,
and fruite of all their ground.
The fift part.
36 The first begotten in their land,
he deadly did he smite:
Yea the beginning and first fruite,
of all their strength and might.
37 With gold and silver he them brought,
from Egypt land to passe:
And in the number of the tribes,
no feble one there was.

- 38 Egypt was glad and joyfull then,
when they did thence depart:
For terror and the feare of them,
was fallen into their heart.
39 To shrow them from the parching heat,
a cloud he did display:
And hee he sent to give them light,
when night had hid the day.
40 They asked, and he caused quailles,
to raine at their request:
And fully with the bread of heaven,
their hunger he appeast.

41 He opened then the stony rocks,
and water gushd out:
And in the dry and parched grounds,
like rivers ran about.

- 42 For of his holy covenant,
aye mindfull was he to:
Which to his servant Abraham,
he plighted long ago.
43 He brought his people forth with might and his elect with joy.
Out of the cruel land where they,
had lived in great annoy.
44 And of the Heathen men he gave,
to them the fruitful landes:
The labours of the people the,
they toke into their handes.
45 That they his holy Name might, obscure for evermore:
And faithfull obey his lawes,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Domi. Pal. Cvi. N.

The people dispersed under Antiochus he magnify the goodness of God among the remnant: & say to be gathered from among the Heathen, that they may praise his name.

Sing this as the 95. psalme.

- Praise ye the Lord for he is good,
his mercy durst for aye:
1 We can expecte his noble acts,
or all his praise display:
2 They blessed are that judgement hope,
and iustly do alway:
3 With favour of thy people Lord, remember me I pray.
4 And with thy saving health O Lord,
bountyfule to visit me:
That I the great felicity,
of thine elect may be.
And with thy peoples joy I may,
a joyful mind possesse:
And may with thine inheritances,
a glorying heart expresse.
5 Both we and the our fathers al,
have sinned every one:
We have committed wickednesse,
and lewdely we have done.
7 The wonders great which thou O Lord
hast done in Egyptland:
Our fathers though they saw them all,
yet did not understand.

- For they thy mercies multitude,
did hope in thankfull mind:
But at the sea, yea thereof sea rebelled most unkind.
8 Nevertheless he saved them,
for honour of his name:
That he might make his power knowne,
and spread abroad his fame.
9 The red sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dry:
And as in wilderness, so through the deep he did them guide.
10 He sander them from the cruel hand,
of their despitefull foe:
And from the enemies hand he did,
deliver them also.

The

The second part.

11 The waters their opposition whelmed,
not one was left alive:
12 Then they beliewed his wonders & people in song they did him give:
13 But by and by withouten heed his worship they cleane forgot:
And for his counsel and his law,
they did neglect to wait.

14 But lusted in the wilderness, with fond and greedy lust:
And in the desert tempted God,
the stay of all their trust:
15 And then their wanton minds & desires,
he suffered them to have:
But waiting leanne they stood upon unto their soule he gave.

16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
at Moses they did grutch:
Aaron the holy of the Lord,
so did they envy much:
17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did denounce:
And all Abrahams company
did cower in that hour.

18 In their assembly kindled was,
the hate consuming fire:
And walking flames did then burne by,
the wicked in his ire.
19 Upon the hill of Moyses they,
an Idol caste did frame:
And there the molten Image they,
did worship of the same.

Into the likeness of a Calf,
that feedeth on the grass:
20 Thus they their glory turned, and all their honours did deface.
21 And God their envy sent out,
vnhindly they forgot:
Which many great and mightie things,
in Egypt land had wrought.

The third part.

22 And in the land of Shun, for them
most wondrous wayes had done:
And by the red sea Dathan all things, performed long ago.
23 Therefore for their so showing them,
forgetfull and vnhinde:
To bring destruction on them all,
he purposed in his mind.

Had not his chosen Moses stood before them in the breake:
To turne his wrath least he on them,
with slaughter should him weake.
24 They did despise the pleasant land,
that he deliight to giue:
Yea and the wordes that he had spoke,
they did not wile beleeue.

25 But in their tents with grudging hearts,
they wickedly repine:
Not to the voice of God the Lord,
they gave an hardening mind.
26 Therefore against them lifted he,
his strong reuenging hand:
Them to destroy in wilderness,
ere they should see the land.

27 And to destroy their life among,
the nations with his rod:
And through the corners of the world,
to scatter them abroad.

28 To Saul Idols then they did, ascribe their felicitie also:
And thus the offerings of the dead,
so they forsake him who.

29 Thus with their own inventions, his wrath they did provoke:
And in his so indubied wrath,
the plague upon them broke.

30 But Daines stood by with zeale,
the sinners bile to lay:
And iudgement he did execute,
and then the plague did lay.

The fourth part.

31 It was imputed vnto him,
for righteousnesse that day:
And from thenceforth so continued is,
from race to race for aye.

32 At waters che of Asiterab, they did him angry make:
Yea so far forth that Idols was,
then punisht for their sake.

33 Because they bent his spirit to sorrow,
that in impatient heat:
His lips spake vndoubtedly,
his seruice was so great.

34 Not as the Lord commanded them,
they slew the people the:
35 But were among the heathen worst,
and leared their wayes also.

36 And did their Idols serue, which were,
their rudeness and decay.

37 To hendes their houses & daughters they,
did offer by and lay.

38 Yea with vnhindly murdering knife,
the guiltlesse blood they spill:
Yea their own houses and daughters blood without all cause of guilt.

Whom they to Canaan Idols then,
offred with wicked hand:
And so with blood of innocents,
defiled was the land.

39 Thus were they stept with the worship of their owne fleshy way:
And with their owne inventions,
a worshiping did they lay.

40 Therefore against his people was,
the Loxes wrath kindled soe:
And enen his owne inheritance,
therefore he did abhorre.

41 Into the hands of heathen men,
he gaue them for a pray:
And made their foes their Lords, whom were forced to obey. (they)

The fifth part.

42 Yea and their hateful entites,
oppress them in the land:
And they were humbly made to knee,
as subiects to their hand.

43 Full often times from thall had he,
deliuered them before:
But with their counsels they to wrath,
prouokt him euermore.

Therefore they by their wickednesse,

were brought full low to ye:

44 Yet when he saw them in distress,
he hardened to their cry.

45 He cald to mind his covenant, which he to them had sworn:
And by his mercies multitude,
repined him therfore.

46 And fauour betwixt him made to finde, before the sight of those:
That led them captive from their land,
when ead they were their foes.

47 Same vs O Lord that art our God,
saue vs O Lord we pray:
And from among the wicked folk,
Lord gather vs away.

48 That we may spread the noble praye,
of thy most holynam:
That we may glory in thy praye,
and sounding off thy name.

49 The Lord the God of Iſtaell be bless for euermore:
Let all the people say amen,
praise ye the Lord therfore.

Coghtemini Do. Plal. Cxvii. W. K.

David exhorteth all that are ordered by the Royde and gathered vnto him, to give thanks therfore by sending prosperity and aduerity byngery men vnto him. Therfore as the righteous three times, so shall the wicked have their mouths stopped.

Sing this as the 96. psalme.

Gue thanks vnto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he:
And that his mercy hath no end,
all mortall men may see.

2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath,
with thanks shoud praise his name:
And shew how they from foes are freed,
and how he wrought the same.

3 The gathered them forth of the lands, that lay so farre about:
From East to West, from North to South
his hand did lead them out.

4 They wandred in the wilderness,
and strayed from the way:
And found no cry where to dwell,
that serue might for their day.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great,
in these deserts so hot:
That faintness did them force assault,
and eke their soles annoyd.

6 Then did they cry in their distress,
vnto the Lord for ayde:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

7 And by that way which was most right
he led them like a guide:
That they might to a city goe,
and there also abide.

8 Let men therfore before the Lord,
confesse his goodnes then:
And shew the wonders that he doth,
before the sonnes of men.

9 For he the empty soul sustains, whome thirst had made to faint:
The hungry soule with goodnes fed,
and did them eke acquaine.

10 Such as dwell in barrenness do ye,
where they of death do wait:
Fast bound to task such troublous toymes,
as yron chains do beate.

The second part.

11 For that against the Lords owne word
they sought so to rebell:
As mingling his counsell byre,
which doe so far excell.

12 As when he humbled them fallow
they then fell downe with griefe:
And none was found so much to helpe,
whereby to get reliefe.

13 Then did they cry in their distress,
vnto the Lord for aide:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

14 For he from darkness out them brought and from deaths dreadful shade:
Bursting with force the yron bandes,
which did before them lade.

15 Let men therfore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnes then:
And shew the wonders that he doth,
before the sonnes of men.

16 For he thre downe the gates of hyaz and brake them with strong hand.
The iron barres ye more in two,
nothing could him withstand.

17 The foolish folke great plagues do feele,
and cannot from them weede:
But heape on more to those they haue,
because they do offende.

18 Their soules so much did loath at meate, that none they could abide:
Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truely ride.

19 Then did they cry in their distress,
vnto the Lord for ayde:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

20 For he then sent to them his word which health did sore redoye:
And brought them from those dangers daps wherein they were before.

The third part.

21 Let men therfore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnes then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

22 And let them offer sacrifice, with thanks and also feare:
And speake of all his wondrous workes,
with glad and tofull cheare.

23 Such as in Shippes by little barres, into the seas descend:
Their march and stithough feartull stound,
to compasse and to end.

24 Those men are forced to bedale, the Lobes workes what they be:
And in the dangerous daps the same,
most merueilous they se.

25 For at his word the stormy winde,
ariseh in a rage:
And stirreth vp the surges so,
as nought can them assuage.

26 Then are they lifted vp so hye,
the cloudes they se me to gaine:

And

And plucking him out of the fire, shall these foules continue with you.

27 And the answer was made unto him, now thou shalt see As men with hope of thee shall as had of hence no hope.

28 Then do thou cry unto him, that into the Lord thy God:
 Who did remove him from his state,
 according as thy prayer.

29 For with his word the Lord hath made the skie, the earth, and sea:
 So that the great waters from their fountains are brought up out of their place.

30 Then shall the sun and moon which they to which he came,
 And are by him in power brought,
 which they to which he came.

The fourth part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord
 confesse his name: Let them
 And shew the wonders which he doth before the eyes of men.

32 Let them in praise of thy holie with praise of his name:
 And where the elders are content,
 let them there do the same.

33 For running floods to dry belets,
 he doth all things and them:
 And dryeth up all waters only,
 the springing well and fountaine.

34 A fruitful land with plenteous herbe, will hee on dry be make:
 Whom on their thirst hee will therein,
 he doth his desire make.

35 Gather the wilderness full of hee maketh him to beare:
 With plenteous herbe of pasture cleare,
 though none be there.

36 Hee maketh the barren land to be as fruitful as the fountaine:
 That they a Cite may therein build,
 to dwell in for ever.

37 That they may sow their pleasant land,
 and vineyardes and plant
 To yield them fruit for ever:
 as none may them to want.

38 They shall also sing and say,
 the Lord our God is great:
 Who doth all things in power and might,
 by him be all things made.

39 But when the sun shall set in the night, by the application of
 And himselfe shall come downe, that hee may be seen.

40 Then shall hee be praised by all which hee hath made:
 And shall be praised by all
 which hee hath made.

41 But what shall we becomen
 if we be not seen?
 And oft times shall we be much like a flock of sheep.

42 The night shall be full of
 and also in the night.

43 Because the wicked and perverse, with noise shall say their voice.

44 But who is like thee, that now full well
 he may these things see?
 For certainly such shall perceive the kindness of the Lord.

Paratup. cor. Psal. Cxviii. N.

45 David with harp and pipe praised the Lord and sheweth himselfe a psalmist of God concerning his kingdom our Iherusalem, and his power against other nations: who though hee seems to say thus he sayd it thus: yet hee sheweth in the end will downe our enemies.

Sing this as the 95. psalme.

46 O God my heart prepared, and mine organes to
 I will mince my voice in song, in giving praise also.

47 Awake my voice, and my harp, sweete melody to make:
 And in the morning I my selfe right early will awake.

48 By me among the people, Lord, shall praise be shaltn be:
 And I among the heathen folke, will sing (O Lord) to thee.

49 Because thy mercie Lord is great,
 above the heavens high:
 And ere thy wrath doth reach the cloudes, within the lofte is he.

50 Above the starres hee hath his seat thy selfe O God:
 And Lord display upon the earth,
 thy glorie all around.

51 That thy heart be desired may,
 be great liberty:
 Heir, O my God, with thy right hand,
 and hasten unto me.

52 God in his holiness hath spoke, wherefore am I here about:
 Sicken I will be, and meete
 the vale of Sion my ground.

53 And a steed shall be mine quene, an assaill myne shall be:
 My head strength Ephraim, and law shall I judge me.

54 As for my wall-pot and my sho,
 on Edom will I shew:
 Upon the hard of Sion I will in triumph will I go.

55 No do shall into the Cite strong,
 be guide to conquer me:
 O how by whom on Edom land, conqered shall I be.

56 Is it meet thou O God which late,
 hadst by thy anger quite:
 And thou O Lord which with our God, didst not go forthes fight.

57 Since thou O Lord thy thinge do when enemies do assaile:
 For all the hope of him to daunt,
 and can no with stand.

58 Though God we shall do ballast dread,
 and worthy of reason:
 He shall subdue our enemies,
 yet he shall reach them now.

Done laudem meam. Psal. Cxviii. N.

▪ Wand being falsly accus'd by wicked sinners praye God to helpe him to defray his enemies, who represent him as the wayward unto Jesus Christ and all like enemies of the Children of God.

Sing this as the 98. psalme.

In the chiefe silence do not doubt,
 O God thy thoughts are wayes.

O God encircled I say that art,
 the God of all my people.

2 The wicked mouth and guitchall mouth on me disclosed be:
 And they wryt false and lying tongue,
 have spoken unto me.

3 They did beset me round about with words of hateful sight:
 Without all cause of my defence against me did they fight.

4 For my god will they were my foes,
 but then can I to praye
 My god withall, my frendlines with him they did away.

5 Seithon the wicked ouer them,
 to haue the upper hand:
 He is right hande the sufferer,
 his heart full of a band.

6 When he is iudged let him then condemned be therein:
 And let the prayer that he makes,
 be turned into mine.

7 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

8 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

9 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

10 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

11 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

12 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

13 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

14 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

15 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

16 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

17 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

18 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

19 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

20 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

21 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

22 Let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let his name be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

Into his bowels, and the eyes into his bowels.

19 Arguement let it be to him,
 to conser him for ever:
 And as a gale before the wind,
 shall open be his eyes.

20 Let it be thus said be from the Lord:
 the question of my foe:
 Yea and of those that call for me, against my soul also.

21 But thou O Lord that art my God,
 deale thou I praye in truth:
 After thy named blessing me for good thy mercies be.

22 Because in depth of darkness I
 I need him and praye:
 And the within my prayer be my heart is wounded sore.

23 The third part.
 When to he I depart away
 as both declining day:
 And as the shadow of death,
 am taken of a fate.

24 With fasting long from me I have been and praye:
 And all her face be my law, enforced bene to let.

25 And I also a bare reproach, to them was made to be:
 And they that do upon me
 have been and praye.

26 But thou O Lord that art my God,
 mine aid and succour be:
 According to the mercy Lord
 mine aid and succour be.

27 And they shall know thy name,
 Lord is thy mighty hand:
 And they shall know thy name,
 Lord is thy mighty hand.

28 Although they seek with hate, shall these men be found:
 They shall arise and leave of hate,
 thy name shall be found.

29 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

30 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

31 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

32 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

33 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

34 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

35 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

36 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

37 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

38 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

39 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

40 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

41 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

42 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

43 Let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind:
 And let them be as chaff,
 as chaff before the wind.

And the most all for he chon
the ruler in their sight
And in the day on which thy reigns and power shall be Then hereby see will offerings shall,
the people offer the Yea with an holy worshipping, that they offer all:
Thy by the new is the new that doth,
from the new morning fall.

4 The Lord both saviour, and never will repent what he doth say:
By the order of his church,
thou art a priest for aye:
The Lord thy God on thy right hand that standeth for thy day:
Shall wound for the the earthly kings upon his way shall say.

6 The earth he shall judge, and all the place with holies dead:
And evermore countries, shall in his hand the head.

7 And he shall bring out of the byrke,
that runneth in the way.
Therefore he shall sit by on hye,
his recall head that day.
Confitebor tibi, psal. Cxli. N.

¶ For godd thanks to my Lord for his mercy that he hath created his Church, and declared in true wisdom and right knowledge cansteth

W

It is here I do accord, to praye and laud the Lord, in presence of the all: For great his workes are found, to search them such are bound, as do hym loue and trust. His workes are glossous, also his righteousness it doth endure for ever. His wondrous workes he wond, we still remember should,

his in thy sayeth never.

Such as to him loue have,

for ever shall saye.
The hart by for them sayd:

For this they shall well abide,
He will them have in mynde,
And he be them as he sayd:
6 For he doth not disdaine,
His woznes to them them playne:
By lightnynges and by thunder;
When he the heare as loud,
And give unto their hand,
Where they behold his wonder.

7 Of all his workes entred,
Both in gent, right and trust,
Whereto his shures tend,
8 They are dected sure,
forever to endure.

Whiche equite doth end,
Redemption he gawe,
His people for so save.
9 And hath also requied,
His promise that to saye:
That alwayes to penury,
His holy name be feared.

10 Who so with hart full saye,
True wisdom would attayne,
The Lord feare and obey:
Such as his lawes he heare,
Shall knowledge have full de pe,
His people shall last for aye.

Benedictus vii. psal. Cxlii. W. K.
¶ The prayer the petition of them that feare God and commendeth the church to the obedience of God.
Sing this as the Lordes prayer.

The man is blest that God doth feare,
And that his lawes doth love in deare:
1 His lawe on earth God will bypasse,
And blest such as from him please.
3 His house with god he will full fill,
His righteousness endure shall fill.

4 Unto the righteous doth attise,
In trouble say, in darkness light,
Compassion is in his eyes,
And mercy alwayes in his sight:
5 Yea pure mouth such to lend,
The doth by iudgement thyngs extend.

6 And surely such shall never fayle,
For in remembrance had is he:
7 No tynges ill can make him quake;
Who in the Lord sure hope doth se.
8 His hart is keme, his face is pale,
For he shall see his foes downe fall.

9 He doth well for the poise proude,
His righteousness shall still remayne:
And his estate with people abide,
Though that the wicked man disdain.
10 Yea gualy his hart sheweth shall be,
And so continue his hart to se.

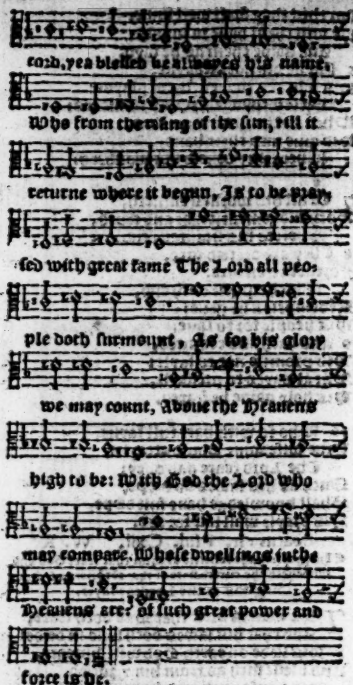

Laudate pueri, psal. Cxlii. W. K.
¶ An exhortation to praye the Lord for his penidence, in that, that contrary to the course of nature he woznes in his Church.

Y

corb, yea blessed be alwayes his name,
 Who from the rising of the sun, till it returne where it began, In so he praysed with great fame The Lord all people doth surmount, As for his glory
 we may count, Above the heavens high to be: With God the Lord who may compare, whose dwelling is in the heavens: For of such great power and force is he.

4 We doth abate himselfe we know,
 Thynges to behold both here below,
 and also in heaven above.
 7 The meere out of dust to draw,
 And eke the poore which helpe none saw,
 his onely mercy did him move:
 8 And so him set in high degree,
 With paines of great dignite,
 that rule his people with great fame:
 9 The barren he doth make to beare,
 And with great joy her fruit to reare,
 therefore prayse ye his holy name.
 In exitu Israel. Psal. Cxliii W. W.
 Jacobs delivrie out of Egypt putteth us in remembrance of Gods great mercies towards his chiedyen, and of our unthankfulness for the same.
 Sing this as the 83. Psalm.

When Israel by Gods addeffe, from Ibaras land was bende:
 And Jacobs house the strangers left,
 and in the same traine went.
 2 In Iuda God his glory shewed, his holynesse most bright:
 So do the Israelites declare, his high and might.

The sea he lew and suddenly,
 as all amies do he:
 The rowling waves of Jordans flood,
 turned back wasdye.
 4 As Rams affrayd the mostrayter foye, their strength did them forsake:

And as the sly treacherous Amalek,
 their roys did he ate and spoye:
 5 What ayle the sea and all amalek,
 so suddenly to the Lord?
 Ye rowling waves of Jordans flood,
 why ranne ye backwardly?
 6 As by shewe ye him as Rams affrayd, why did your strength in shame
 why did your roys as treacherous Amalek, for feare quiver and quaker?

7 O earth confesse thy Sovereign Lord,
 and tread his mighty hand:
 Before the face of Jacobs God, were ye both sea and land.
 8 I meane the God which fed hard carkes, both cattle meane fowles of the ayre:
 And from the founteyne both make gush out the founteynes cleare.

Non nobis Domine. Psal. Cxv. N.

The joyful voyces of Iacobus children promiffe that they will not be forgetfull of so great a benefite, if it toucheth them, they will beare their names and deliver them by his annall point power.

Sing this as the 88. Psalm.

Not unto us Lord, not to us,
 but to thy name give thy selfe:
 Both for the mercy and the truth,
 that are in the alwayes.
 Why shall the speechers say,
 where is their God becomer?
 Our God in heaven is, and what he will that hard he done.

4 Their Idols silnes are and gold, woyme of mens handes they be:
 5 They have a mouth and do not speake,
 and eyes and do not see.
 6 And they have eares toynd to their heads and do not heare at all:
 And noses eke they formed have,
 and do not smell with all.

7 And handes they have and hande not,
 and feete and do not goe:
 8 I thow they haile, yet through the same,
 they make no sound to blow.
 Those that make them be like to them,
 and those whose trust they be:
 9 O Israel trust in the Lord,
 their helpe and shield is he.

10 O Aarons house trust in the Lord,
 their helpe and shield is he:
 11 Trust ye the Lord that feare the Lord,
 their helpe and shield is he.
 12 The Lord hath mynefull bene of us,
 and will blesse us also:
 On Israel and on Aarons house,
 his blessinge will shewe.

13 Then came before us of the Lord
 the Lord will blesse them all:
 Even he will blesse them every one
 the great amene the small.
 14 To you I say the blessing Lord, will multiply his grace:
 To you and to the strength that shall follow of your race.

15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord,

men of the Lord I say:
Which both the heauen and the earth,
hath made and set in stay.
16 The heauens, yea the firmament belong unto the Lord:
The earth into the foundation of men,
because of their iniquity.

17 They that be dead do not worship, set forth the Lordes name:
Nor any that into the place
of silence do go downe.
18 But we will praise the Lord our God,
from henceforth and for aye:
Sound ye the praises of the Lord,
praise ye the Lord I say.

Dilexi quoniam. Psal. Cxvi. N.
Of David saying in great danger of his life by the hand of men, promising the great and true God his bois of God: to make hym magnificently and great mercy, and to testify that he will be thankful for the same.

Sing this as the 111. Psalme.

Lone the Lord because my boyer,
and prayer heard hath he:
When in any dayes I call on him,
he bowed his eare to me
Euen when the thunders of craft death, about his eare rounde:
When paynes of hell me caught, and woe
I woe and sorrow found.

4 Upon the name of God the Lord,
then did I call and say:
Deliver thou my soule O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.

5 The Lord is very mercifull, and full he is of all:
And in our God compassion,
doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in misery both preserve, all those that simple be:
I was in wofull misery,
and he rescued me.

7 And now my soule which thou art safe,
returne unto thy rest:
For largely loe the Lord to thee,
his bounty hath expressed.

8 Because thou hast delivered my soule from deadly thral:
My myddled eyes from mourning teares:
my widdow here from fall.

9 Before the Lord I in the land of life will walke therefore:
10 I did beleeue the Lord I saue, for I was troubled sore.

The second part.

11 I sayd in my distresse and feare, what all men speake be:
12 What shall I say the Lord for all his benefites to me?

13 The whole world will take
I thankfull will take:
And on the Lordes name I will call,
when I my prayer make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the bowes,
that I haue him begidde:
Yea euen at this present tyme,
in all his peoples sight.

15 Right deare and precious in his sight,
the Lord doth paye me:
The death of all his holy ones,
what euer men do me.

16 Thy seruant Lord, thy seruant I doe,
I do my selfe confesse:
Sonne of thy handmaid, thou hast broke the bondes of my distresse.

17 And I will offer up to thee,
a sacrifice of praise:
And I will call upon the name of God the Lord alwayes.

18 I to the Lord will pay the bowes,
that I haue him begidde:
Yea euen at this present tyme,
in all his peoples sight.

19 Yea in the court of Gods own house,
and in the midst of the:
O thou Ierusalem I say,
wherefore the Lord praise ye.
Laudate Dominum, Psal. Cxvii. N.

Of the apostles the Gentiles to praise God because he hath accomplished well to them as to the Jewes
the promise of life meriting by Jesus Christ.

Sing this as the 98. Psalme.

O All ye nations of the world,
praise ye the Lord alwayes:
And all ye people euer where,
set forth his noble praise.
2 For great his kindnesse is to vs,
his truth endureth for aye:
Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God,
praise ye the Lord I say.

Confitemini Do. Psal. Cxviii. N.
Of David rescued of Saul & of the people, at the same appointed obtrayned the kingdom, for the which he hideth all them that feare the Lord, to be thank full: under whose person, Christ is likely for to be who should be of his people rescued.

Sing this as the 84. Psalme.

O Still ye thanke unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure,
for euer towards thee.

2 Let Israel confesse and say,
his mercy dureth for aye:
3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercy dureth for aye.

4 Let all that feare the Lord our God,
euen now confesse and say:
The mercy of the Lord our God,
endureth still for aye.

5 In trouble and in heavynesse, unto the Lord I cryde:
Which lowlyly heard me at large,
my sure was not deuide.

6 The Lord himselfe is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt:
Nor feare what man can do to me,
when God standes me about.

7 The Lord doth take my part with them,
that helpe to succour me:
Therefore I shall be my desire,
upon myne enemy.

Better it is to trust in God,
then in many mortal men:
F

10 To put confidence in him,
as princes in his host.
11 All nations have trusted in me,
and compassed me round:
12 But in the name of God shall I,
myne enemies confound.
13 They kept me in on every side,
they kept me on I thought:
But through the Lord I shall not be
I shall worship and pray.
14 They came about me all the day,
but yet in the Lord I trust:
I quencheth their thornes that were on fire,
and will destroy the same.

The second part

15 Then hast thou thine thornes took at me, that I in debt might fall:
But through the Lord I found my help,
that they were battailen all.
16 The Lord is my defence and strength,
my joy, my myght, and long:
He is become for me in debt,
a Saviour most strong.
17 The right hand of the Lord our God,
doth bring to passe great thynges:
He causeth hope, of joy and health,
in righteous men dwellinges.
18 The right hand of the Lord doth bring most mighty thynges to passe:
His hand hath the preeminence,
his force is as it was.
19 I will no more but ever live,
to utter & declare:
The Lord his might and wondrous power,
his workes and what they are.
20 The Lord himselfe hath chastened and hath corrected me:
But hath not given me over yet,
to death, as ye may see.
21 Set open unto me the gates, of truth and righteousnes:
That I may enter into them,
the Lorden wayes to confesse.
22 This is the gate, ones of the Lord,
which shall not be shut:
But good and righteous men alway, shall enter into it.

The third part

23 I will give thanks to the Lord, because thou hast heard me:
And art become most strongly,
a Saviour unto me.
24 The stone which the ruler layd among the builders was precious:
Is now become the corner stone,
and chiefly to be used.
25 This was the mighty worke of God,
this was the Lorden awne fact:
And it is marvellous to behold,
with eyes that noble art.
26 This is the topvall day in debt,
which God himselfe hath wrought:
Let vs be glad and joy therein,
in heart, in minde, in thought.
27 Now helpe vs Lord and prosper vs,
we wish with one accord:
28 Blessed be he that comes to vs,
in the name of the Lord.

in the name of the Lord.
27 God is the Lord that dwelleth by light, bind ye therefore with cords:
your sacrifice to the altar,
and give thanks to the Lord.
28 Thou art my God I will confesse, and render thankes to thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise,
thy wondrous workes.
29 O give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure,
for ever to waite me.

Beati immaculati. Psal. CXX. W. W.

The Prophet wondrously commended seeketh wherein he cannot find himselfe, nor expect humiliation by his own. The words being but commendation and consolation more for the sake of the holy in heart and hope, such as the holy spirit a perfect begin with one letter of the Alphabet.

Blessed are they that are pure in heart, and pure in minde and heart, whose lynes and conversation, from Gods lawes never part. Blessed are they that keepe themselves, his statutes to observe: Seeking the Lord, with all their heart, and never from him swerve:

Doubtlesse, such men go not astray,
nor do no wicked thyng:
Which steadfastly walke in his pathes,
and have any wandering.

It is thy will that thou shalt be that with us we shall be Thy noble and divine precepts, we learn to keepe in heart.

Oh would to God it might the please,
my wretched soules adde:
That I might both in heart and hope,
thy lawes love and keepe.

So should no shame my conscience which I thus set mine eyes
And bend my mind alway to smile, on thy sacred word.

Then will I praise with bright heart,
and magnify thy name:
When I shall see the judgement just,
and

And how will I give my selfe to hepe thy lawes most righte for I have not for ever Lorde, but thou thy grace and might.

BETH. The second part.

By what meanes maye a yong man be-his life teache to amend:
If that he make and kepe thy word,
and therein his time spend.
Wherfore I have thy sought,
and thus seeking abide:
O neuer suffer me (O Lorde)
from thy precepts to slide.

Within my hart and secret thoughtes thy wordes I have hid still:
That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.

We magnifie thy name O Lorde, and paye the tribute due:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lorde teach me therefore.

Thy lips have neuer ceast to preache,
and publicly day and night:
The iudgements all which did proceede, from thy mouth full of might.

Thy testimonies and thy wayes, please me no lesse in dede:
Then all the treasures of the earth,
which wordlyngs make their mede.

Of thy precepts I will still make,
and thereto frame my talke:
As at a marche so will I ayme,
thy wayes how I may walke.
Thy onely joy shall be to sit,
and on thy lawes to sit:
That nothing can me so far blinde,
that I thy wordes forget.

GIMEL. The third part.

Grant to thy servant now such grace
as may my life prolong:
Thy holy word then will I kepe,
both in my hart and tongue.

As mine eyes which were dim and shut by so open and make bright:
That of thy law and marvellous workes,
I may have the cleare sight.

I am a stranger in this earth,
wandering now here now there:
Thy word therefore to me disclose,
my footstepes for to cleare.

My soule is ravished with desire,
and neuer is at rest:
But seeke to know thy iudgements hie,
and what may please the best.

The proud men and malicious, thou hast destroyed ech one:
And curles are such as do not,
thy bestes attend upon.

Lorde turne from me rebuke and shame which wicked men committe:
For I have kept thy commandments, with zeale as true as fire.

The joyntes great in counsell see,
and did againe me speake:
But then thy servant thought how he,

For why thy commandments are my joy,
and my great harties solace:
They serve in stead of counsellors,
my matters for to pacse.

DALETH. The iij. part.

I am as dust brought to graine,
and almost turned to dust:
Rebuke therefore my selfe againe,
as thy promise is iust.

My wayes when I acknowledge,
with mercy thou dost heare:
Heare now offences and me instruct,
thy lawes to love and feare.

Teach me once thoroughly for to know,
thy precepts and thy loye:
Thy workes then will I meditate,
and lay them by in roye.

My soule I feele so sore opprest, that it melteth for greife:
According to thy word therefore,
hast Lorde to send reliefe.

From lying and deceitful lips,
let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learne the to love,
thy holy law me send.

The way of truth both straight and sure
I have chosen and found:
I let thy iudgements me bespore, which kepe me safe and sound.

Since then O Lorde I forced my selfe, thy commandments to embrace,
Let me therefore have no rebuke,
nor check in any case.

Then will I can with thy full cheare,
where thy word doth me call:
When thou hast set my hart at large,
and rid me out of chyll.

HE. The fift part.

Instruct me Lorde in the righte trade,
of thy statutes divine:
And it to kepe even to the end,
my hart will I encline.

Grant me the knowledge of thy law,
and I shall it obey:
With hart and mind and al my might,
I will it kepe I say.

In the right path of thy precepts, guide me Lorde I require:
None other pleasure do I wish,
nor greater thing desire.

Incline my hart thy lawes to hope,
and commandments to embrace:
And from all filthy anarice,
Lorde shield me with thy grace.

From bayne desires and wooldy lusts
turne back mine eyes and sight:
Give me the spirit of life and power,
to walke thy wayes right.

Confirm thy gracious promise Lorde, which thou hast made to me:
Which am thy servant and do love,
and feare nothing but thee.

Reproh and shame which I to feare,
from me O Lorde expell:
For thou dost guide with requiste,

and therein dost excell
For thou art wiser than I thy law was to keepe for euer Loudly when I was to wryte thy grace that it perforce I may.

VAV The vi Part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold let euer be praised O Lord Thy fauour dearely let me know according to thy word 42 So shall I stop the banquet of wretched of lewd men and blissh:
For in thy faithfull promises stands my comfort and trust.

43 The word of truth within my mouth.
let euer still be prest:
For in thy iudgements wonderfull
my hope doth stand and rest.
44 And whilst that heart within my brest doth naturall life preserve:
Yea till this world shall be dissolved thy lawe will I obserue.

45 So walke will I as set at large and made free from all breaide:
Because I sought how for to keepe thy precepts and thy reade:
46 Thy noble acts I will discerne as thynges of most great fame:
Euen before kings I will them blase and aske no whit for shame.

47 I will reioyce then to obey thy noble behests and will:
Whichearme I haue loued best and so will loue them still.
48 My handes will I lye to thy lawes which I haue dearely sought:
And practise thy commandements in will in dede and thought.

ZA IN The vij. Part.

49 Thy promise which I made to me
thy seruant Lord remember For therein haue I put my trust and confidence for euer.
50 It is my comfort and my toy
when troubles me aduaile:
For were my life not by thy word
my life would come me fayle.

51 The proude and such as God contemne still made of me a scorn:
Yet would I not thy law forsake
as he that were forlorne.
52 But cal to mind Lord thy great worship shewed to our fathers old:
Whereby I felt thy toy firmount
my greif an hundred fold.

53 But yet alas for feare I quake saying how wicked men:
Thy law forsake and did procure thy iudgements who knoweth when.
54 And as for me I feande my songe thy statutes to exalt:
When I among the strangers dwelt and thoughtes gan me assault.

55 I thought vpon thy name O Lord
by night when others sleepe:
As for thy law also I kept;

and came into the house.
56 This grace I haue receiued thy commandments true and deare
I did embrace and also keepe with reuerence and with feare.
HAT H. The viii. part.

57 O God which art my part and lot my comfort and my toy:
I haue dearely and precious thy lawe receiued alway.
58 For I haue earned hurt did humbly kne
in presence of thy face:
As thou theretofore hast promised
Lord graunt me of thy grace.

59 My life I haue commended and reide my deere hart:
Which to thy statutes caused me
my teare straight to commet.
60 I did not stay nor linger long as they that shall be lost:
But hastily thy lawes to keepe
I did my selfe prepare.

61 The cruell bandes of wicked men
haue made of me their pray:
Yet would I not thy lawe forsake nor from thee go astray.
62 Thy righteous iudgement shewed toward to great is and so hie:
That euen midnight will I rise
thy name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them which feare thee in their hart:
An. neither will I for lone nor dread from thy commandments part.
64 Thy mercies Lord most plentifully do all the world fulfill:
O teach me how I may obey thy statutes and thy will.

TETH The ix. part.

65 According to thy promise Lord
so hast thou with me dealt:
For of thy grace in sundry foies
haue I thy seruant felt.
66 Teach me to iudge alwayes aright
and giue me knowledge true:
For certainly beleeue I do that thy precepts are pure.

67 Ere thou dost touch me with thy rod
I erred and went astray:
But now I heape thy holy word
and make it all my way.
68 Thou art both good and gracious and giuest most liberally:
Thy ordinance how to keepe theretofore O Lord teach me.

69 The proude and wicked men haue sought agaynst me many a lie:
Yet thy commanding shall endure
with all my hate will I.

70 Their hartes are as stone with worldly as greafe to see they lie:
But in thy law do I delight and nothing is to be but thine.

71 O happy time may I well say when thou dost me correct:

For as a guide to learne thy lawes,
thy rods did me direct.

72 So that to me thy word and law,
is dearer manifold:

Then thousand great of silver and golde,
or ought that can be sold.

IO D. The x. part.

73 Seeing thy hands haue made me Lord
to be thy creature:

Grant knowledge likewise how to learne,
to put thy lawes in bye.

74 So they that leaue thee shall reioyce, when euer they me see:

Because I haue leaured by thy word,
to put my trust in thee.

75 When is thy rod the world is plagued,
I know the cause is iust:

So when thou dost correct me Lorde,
the cause iust we be must.

76 Now of thy goodness I thus pray, some comfort to me send:

As thou to me thy seruant beest,
so from all ill me send:

77 Thy tender mercies pouce on me,
and I shall surely liue:

For joy and consolation both,
thy lawes to me do giue.

78 Confound the proud whose false pretence to me say to destroy:

But as for me thy helpe to know,
I will my self employ.

79 Who so with reuerence doe thee seare,
to me let them retire:

And such as doe thy covenants know,
and them alone desire.

80 Thy hart without all waivering,
let on thy lawes be bent:

That no confusion come to me,
whereby I shall be shent.

CAPH The xi. part.

81 My soule doth faint and ceaseth not thy saving health to craue:

And for thy wordes sake still I trust,
my hart desire to haue.

82 Mine eyes doe faile with looking for thy word, and thus I say:

Oh when wilt thou me comforte Lorde,
why dost thou thus delay?

83 As a shin bottle in the smoke,
to am I parcht and drye:

Yet will I not out of my hart,
let thy commandmentes slide.

84 Alas how long shall I yet liue,
before I see the house:

That on my foes which meditation,
thy vengeance thou wilt pouce

85 Presumptuous men haue digged pits chinking to make me sure:

Thus contrary against thy law,
my hurt they doe procure.

86 But thy commandmentes are all true,
and can alle they me graue:

So the therefore I do complaine, that thou mightest me releeue.

87 Almost they had me cleane destroyed, and brought me quite to ground:

Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.

88 Reioyce me Lorde agayne to life,
for thy mercies excell:

And so shall I thy covenants keepe,
till death my life expell.

LAMED. The xii. part.

89 In heauen Lord where I dwell thy word is stabilitie sure:

And shall for all errours,
fast grauen there endure.

90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as both the earth and heuene:

Whose ground wozh thou hast laide so sure as no tongue can expelle.

91 Euen to this day we may wel see,
how all things perseuer:

According to thy ordinance,
for all things the renew.

92 Had it not bene that in thy lawe,
my soule had comfort sought:

Longtime ere now in my distresse,
I had bene brought to nought.

93 Therefore will I thy precepts aye,
in memoire keepe fast:

Wherem thou hast me life restord,
when I was at last cast.

94 No might to me can title make,
for I am onely thine:

Save me therefore for thy lawes,
my eares and hart incline.

95 The wicked men do seke my bane,
and thereto lye in way:

But I the while considered,
thy noble acts and great.

96 I see nothing in this wozld
at length which hath not end:

But thy commandmentes and thy word, beyond all end extend.

MEM. The xiii. part.

97 What great desire and frenent loue,
do I beare to thy law?

All the day long my whols deuise,
is onely on thy law.

98 Thy word hath taught me farre to passe
my foes in policie:

For still I keepe it as a thing, of most excellencie.

99 My teachers which did me instruct,
in knowledge I excell:

Because I do thy covenants keepe,
and them to others tell.

100 In wisdom I do passe also,
the ancient men in deede:

And all because to keepe thy lawes,
I held it aye best deede.

101 My feete I haue refrained eke,
from euery euill way:

Because that I continually,
thy word might keepe I say.

102 I haue not sweared led thy iudgement
nor yet shooke any dell:

For thou hast me taught thereby,

And I thy wordes alway Doubtlesse no honey in my mouth, faile ought to sweete I may. (leatnd 204 Thy lawes haue me such wisdom that sweetly I taste:
All wicked and vngodly waies,
in euery kinde of taste.

N V N The xiiii. part.

105 E Wen as a lantern to my feete,
so darly thy wordes shine bright:
And to my pathes where euer I go,
it is a flaming light.
106 I haue both sworne and wil perfoyme,
most certainly doubtlesse:
That I will keepe thy iudgements iust,
and them in life eppelle.

107 Affliction hath me late oppress, and brought me to deathes doze:
O Lord as thou hast promised,
so me to life restore.

208 The offerings which with hart & voice
most franchely I thus giue:
Accept and teach me how I may,
after thy iudgements liue.

109 My soule is aye so in my hand,
that dangers it assaile:
Yet do I not thy law forget,
neer it to keepe will faile.

110 Although the wicked laid their nets,
to catch me at a bay:
Yet did I not from thy precepts,
once I warne or get astray:

1 Thy law I haue so clained alway,
as mine owne heritage:
And why? for therein I delight;
and so let my whole courage.

112 For euer more I haue bene bent, thy statutes to fulfill:
Euen so to the ende of the end,
I will continue still.

L A M E C H The xv. part.

13 T He crafty thoughts & double parts
I do at waies detest:

But as for thy law and precepts,
I loued them euer best.

114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
my shield of strong defence:
Therefore haue I thy promises,
lookt for with patience.

15 S ne to therefore ye wicked men,
depart from me anon:
For the commandements will I keepe,
of God my Lord alone.

116 As thou hast promised to perfoyme, that death me not assaile:
So let my hope abuse me so,
that through distrust I quaille.

117 Uphold me and I shalbe safe,
for ought they do or say:
And in thy statutes pleasure take,
will I both night and day.

118 Thou hast trod such vnder thy feete,
as do thy statutes break:
For now they auailen their subtiltie,

these cometh is but weakie.

19 L the broile thou callest the wicked out where euer they goe or dwell:
Wherefore can I as thy statutes,
loue nothing helpe so well.
120 My flesh also is taken with feare,
as though it were benomd.
For when I see thy iudgements, straight
I am as one asomd.

A I N. The xvi. part.

121 I do the thing that lawfull is,
and giue to all men right:

Resigne me not to them that would,
oppress me with their might.

122 But for thy seruant sure be,
as that thing that is good:

That proud men giue me not the foile,
which rage as they were wood.

123 Mine eyes be waiting ere now blind
thy health to much I craue:

And eke thy righteous promise Lord, whereby thou wilt me saue.

124 Increase thy seruant longing;
and fauour so him shew:

Thy statutes of most excellencie, teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble seruant Lord I am,
graunt me to understand:

How by thy statutes I may know, best what to take in hand.

126 It is now time Lord to begin,
for sweetly is quiet because:

Thy law I shew to thy bene transgress, and none against them saide.

127 This is the cause wherefore I loue thy lawes better then gold:

O Jewels fine which are estimd,
most costly to be sold.

128 I thought thy precept al most iust,
and so them laide in store:

All craftie and malicious waies,
I do abhorre therefore.

P R The xvi. part.

129 T hy covenants are most wonderfull and full of thinges profound:

My soule therefore both hope them sure,
when they are tried and found.

130 When men first enter into thy word,
they finde a light most cleare:

And beery I think understand,
when they are made to heare.

131 For loy I haue both gaped & breathd to know thy commandment:

That I might guide my life thereby,
I sought what thing it ment.

132 With mercy and compassion Lord, behold me from about:

As thou art wont to behold sure,
as thy name feare and loue.

133 Direct my footsteps by thy word,
that I thy will may know:

And neuer let iniquitie, thy seruant overthrow.

of secret tears and fell:
When I behold how wicked men, thy lawes haue neuer bel.

ZADE The xviii. part.

137 I A every point Lord thou art just,
the wicked though they grudge it:
And when thou dost sentence pronounce,
thou art a righteous iudge:

138 To render right and free from guile, are two chief points most hye.
And such as thou hast in thy law, commanded by strictly.

139 With zeale and watch I am confound and euen sinde away:

Toke my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I do may.

140 So pure and perfect is thy word,
as any heart can de me:

And I thy seruant nothing more,
do lone of yet euen.

141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree:

Yet do I not thy bestes forget,
nor shynke away from thee.

142 Thy righteousnesse (Lord) is most full,
for euer to endure:

Alse thy law is truth it selfe,
most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble and griefe haue seale on me,
and brought me wondrous low:

Yet do I still of thy precepts, delight to heare and know.

144 The righteousness of thy iudgements,
doth last for euermore:

Then teach them me, for euen in them,
my life lyeth by in store.

KOPH The xix. part.

145 W Ith fervent hart I call & cryde,
now answer me O Lord:

That thy commandments to observe,
I may fully accord.

146 To thee my God I make my suite,
with most humble request:

Save me therefore and I will keepe,
thy precepts and thy best.

147 To thee I crye euen in the morn,
before the day was light:

Because that I have in thy word,
my confidence whole plight.

148 Mine eyes euen pearch I watch by night,
and ere they call I wake,

That by deuyning of thy word,
I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thine eares to heare my boies,
and pierce on me thair:

As thou wilt wout so iudge me Lord, least life should me forsake.

150 My foes draw neare and do pounce,
my death maliciously:

Which from thy law are faine gone back,
and scolded from it lewdly.

151 Therefore O Lord approach thou neare for ned doth so require:

And all thy precepts true they are,
then helpe I this desire.

152 But thy commandments I haue leard not now but long ago:

That they remaine for euermore,
thou hast them grounded so.

R ESH The xx. part.

153 M Y trouble and affliction,
consider and behold:

Deliver me, for of thy law,
I euer take fast hold.

154 Defend my good and righteous cause, with speed me succour send:

From death as thou hast promised,
Lord hepe me and defend.

155 As for the wicked far they are,
from hauing health and grace:

Whereby they might thy statutes know,
they enter not the trace.

156 Great are thy mercies Lord I graunt, what thing can them attaine?

And as thou hast me iudged ere now,
so let me life obtaine.

157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecute me soye:

Yet from thy lawes I neuer shynke,
nor went away therfoye.

158 And truth it is for griefe I dye,
when I these things see:

Because they kepe no what thy word,
nor yet seeke to know the.

159 Behold for I do lone thy lawes, with heart most glad and faine:

As thou art good and gracious Lord,
rescye my life againe.

160 What thy word doth derre, must be
and so it hath beene euer:

Thy righteous iudgements are also,
most true and decay neuer.

SCHIN The xxi. part.

161 P Rinces haue sought by crueltie, causelesse to make me crouch:

But all in vaine, for of thy word,
the feare did my heart touch.

162 And certainly euen of thy word,
I was more merry and glad:

Then be that of rich spoiles and pray, great store and plenty had.

163 As for all lires and falsete,
I hate most and detest:

For why? thy holy lawes do I,
aboue all things lone best.

164 Seven times a day I praye the Lord singing with heart and voice:

Thy righteous actes and wonderfull,
so cause me to reioyce.

165 Great peace and rest shall all such haue
as do thy statutes loue:

As haunger shall their quiet state,
impaine of once remone.

166 Mine onely health and comfort Lord

I looke for thy hand:
And therefore haue I done these things,
which thou didst me command.

167 Thy lawes haue bene my exalt which my soule most desired:
Somuch my loue to them was bene,
that nought els I required.
168 Thy statutes and commandements
I kept thou knowest aright:
For all the things that I haue done are present in thy sight.

TAV The xxii. part.

169 O Lord let my complaint and cry before thy face appeare:
And as thou hast me promise made,
so reach me thee to staie.
170 O thou humble supplication, toward thee let him accesse:
And grant me Lord bestowment,
for so is thy promise.

171 Then shall my lips thy prayes speak
after most ample sort:
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein standes my comfort.
172 Thy tongue shall sing & preach thy word and on this wise say shall:
Gods famous acts and noble lawes,
are true and perfect all.

173 Stretch out thy hand I thee beseech, and speedely me saue:
For thy commandements to observe, chosen O Lord I haue.

174 Of thee alone Lord I craue health for other I know none:
And in thy law and nothing els,
I do delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long dayes to line
thy name to magnifie
And of thy iudgements mercifull,
let me thy fauor trie.

176 For I was lost and went astray, much like a wandring sheepe:
And seeke me for I haue not fastid,
thy commandements to keepe.
Ad Dominum. Psal. Cxx. T.S.

As lest thou shouldst be
Of hate consuming fire.

6 Alas so long I lack,
Within these tents so blacke,
Which heathens see by name:
By whom the flocke elect,
And all of Israels seed,
are put to open shame.

Those that do put their confidence
Upon the Lord our God onely:
And see to him for his defence
In all their neede and misery.
Their faith is sure firme to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner stone:
Hounded with none ill, but standeth still,
Secure like to the mount Zion.

And as about Jerusalem,
The mighty hills do it compass:
So that no enemies come to them,
To hurt that towne in any case.
So God in deede, in euery neede,
His faithfull people doth defend:
Standing them by assuredly,
From this time forth world without end,

Right wise and good is our Lord So
And will not suffer certainly:
The sinners and vngodly reb,
To tary vpon his family.
Least they also from God should go,
Falling to sinne and wickednesse.

That keepest in thy word abide:
Such as willingly from God sell,
And to false doctrine dayly slide.
Such will the Lord scatter abroad,

With hypocrites thynkest thoue to hold
God will them send paines without end
But Lord graunt peace to Israel.

Glorie to God the Father of might,
And to his Sonne our Saviour:
And to the holy Ghost whose light,

Feeding full hardly with bowne bread
yet were your labour lost and woine,
But they whom God doth love and keepe
He giveth all things with quiet sleepe.

3 Therefore make well when ever you see
That man have heires to enjoy their land
It is the gift of Gods owne hand,
For God him selfe doth multiply,
Of his great liberalitie,
The blessing of posteritie.

4 And when the childzen come to age,
They grow in strength and acciuent,
In person and in comelines,
So that a wast not with courage
Of one that hath a most strong arme,
Fleeth not so swift nor doth,

5 O well is him that hath by squires
Furnished with such armillery.
For when in perill he shall be Such one shall never shame nor shiner,
When that he pleadeth before theudge,
Against his foes which beare him grudge.

Beati omnes. Psal. Cxxviii. T.S.

¶ Here is described the prosperous estate of persons marked in the favour of God, and the promises of Gods blessing, to all them that live in this honorable estate according to his commandment.

Sing this as the 137. psalme.

Blessed art thou that fearest God,
and walkest in his way:
For of thy labour thou shalt eat,
happie art thou I say.

2 Like the fruitfull vine on the house side
so doth thy wife spring out:
Thy childzen stande like Olive plants,
thy table round about.

3 Thou art thou blest that fearest God,
and he shall let thee see:
The promised Jerusalem, and his felicitie.

4 Thou shalt thy childzens childzen see,
to thy great joyes increase:
And likewise grace on Israel,
of prosperitie and peace.

Spe expugnauerunt. Psal. Cxxix.

¶ The admonition to the Church; set though at 123.

March in all ages, for God will deliver and finally destroy the enemies thereof.

Sing this as the 137. psalme.

Oft they now I shall may say,
me from my youth assaile:
2 Oft they assaile me from my youth,
yet never they prevaille.
3 Upon my back the plowes plowed,
and furrowes long did cast:
4 The righteous Lord cut the ropes of wicked foes at last.

5 They that hate me shall be ashamed, and turned back also:
6 And made as grasse upon the house, which withereth ere it grow.
7 Wheresoe the mower cannot find,
though to fill his hand:
For he can fill his lap that goeth,
to glean upon the land.

8 For passeth by pray God on them,
to let his blessing fall:
For say we blese you in the name,
of God the Lord at all.

De profundis. Psal. Cxxx. W.W.

¶ An chorodius prayer to obtayne mercy and forgiveness of his finnes and at length deliverance from all evils.

L Lord to thee I made my moine,
when dangers me oppresse, I call, I

when dangers me oppresse, I call, I

agh. plaine, and grone, trusting to find release. Heare now O Lord, my request, for it is full due time: And let thyne eares eye be prest, unto this prayer mine.

3 O Lord our God if thou wilst
our finnes and them peris:
Who shall then escape and say,
I can my selfe excuse?

4 Wee Lord thou art in earthill, and turnst to us thy grace:

That

That we with heartes most carefull, shoud feare before thy face.

3 In God I put my whole trust, my soule waited on his will:
For his promise is most iust,
and I hope therein still.
4 My soule to God hath reposed,
withing for him alway:
4 Hope then they that watch and waite,
so see the dawning day.

7 Let Israel then boldly,
in the Lord put his trust:
He is that God of mercy,
that his belouer must.

8 For he it is that must saue,
Israel from his sinne:
And all such as surely haue,
their confidence in him.

Domine non est. Psal. Cxxxi. M.

David charged with ambitious, protesteth his humilitie before God.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

1 O Lord I am not puffed in mine,
I haue no scornful liepe:
I do not exerce my selfe,
in things that be too hye.
2 But as a child that waigned is,
euen from his mothers brest:
So haue I Lord behaued my selfe,
in silence and in rest.

3 O Israel trust in the Lord,
let him be all thy stay:
From this time forth for evermore
from age to age, for aye.

¶ He exhorteth the Zenites that watch in the temple to praye the Lord.

Hold, and haue regard ye see:

uaunts of the Lord: which in his house by night do watch, praye him with one accord.

2 Let up your bandes on high,
unto his holy place:
And geue the Lord his prayes due,
his tenentes embrace.

3 For why? the Lord who did both earth and heauen frame:
Doth Zion blesse and will conserue, for euermore the same.

Laudate nomen. psal. Cxxv. N.

¶ Hee exhorteth al the faithful to praye God for his mercifull wayes and graces wherein he hath ben mercifull to the childen of all Iudaters.

10 praye the Lord, praye him, praise him, praise him with one accord: O praye him still, all ye that bee

the seruantes of the Lord. O praye him ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord: ye of his Court and of his house

praise him with one accord.

3 Praise ye the Lord for he is good,
sing praises to his name:
It is a comely and good thing, alwayes to do the same.

4 For why? the Lord hath chose Jacob, his very owne you see:
So hath he chosen Israell,
his treasure for to be.

5 For this I know and am right sure,
the Lord is very great:
He is in dede above all Gods,
most ealie to intreat.

6 For whatsoever pleased him,
all that full well he wrought:
In heauen, in earth, and in the Sea,
which he hath framde of nought.

7 He liftes vp cloudes euen from the earth:
he maketh lightnings and rayne:
He bringeth forth the windes also,
he made nothing in bayne.

8 He smote the first borne of ech thing,
in Egypt that toke rest:
He spared there no luring thing,
the man nor yet the beast.

9 He hath in the shewed wonders great,
O Egypt boyde of bauntes:
On Pharaos thy cursed kyng,
and his seuer seruantes.

10 He smote them many nations, and did great actes and thynges:
He slew the great and mightyest, and chiefest of their kynges.

11 Sehon kyng of the Amorites and Og kyng of Basan:
He slew also the kyngdoms all,
that were of Canaan.

12 And gaue their land to Israell, an heritage we see:
To Israell his owne people,
an heritage to be.

The second part.

13 Thy name O Lord shall still endure,
and thy memoiall:
Throughout all generations,
that are or euer shall.

14 The Lord will surely now auenge,
his people all in dede:
And to his seruantes he will shew,
faour in tyme of neede.

15 The Idols of the Heathen are made,
in all their confes and landes:
Of silver and of gold be they,
the worke euen of mens handes.

16 They haue their mouthes as cannot and eyes and haue no sight: (speake, 17 They haue eares and heare nothing, their mouthes be breathlesse quite,

18 Wherefore all they are like to them,
that so do set them forth:
And likewise those that trust in them,
or thinke they be ought worth.

Op.

19 O all ye house of Israel,
for that ye praye the Lord:
And ye that be of Aarons house,
praise him with one accord.

20 And ye that be of Leuites house, praise ye likewise the Lord:
And all that stand in awe of him,
praise him with one accord.

An other of the same, by T.C.

Sing this as the 148. psalme.

O Land the Lord benigne, whose mercies last for aye:
Great thanks and praises sing,
To God of Gods I say:
For certainly,
His mercies dure,
Both firme and true,
Eternally.

3 The Lord of Lords praise ye, whose mercies aye do dure:

4 Great wonders onely he,
doth worke by his great power:

For certainly,
His mercies dure,
Both firme and true,
Eternally.

5 Which God omnipotent,
By his great wisdom high:
The heavenly firmament,
doth frame as we do se:

For certainly,
His mercies dure,
Both firme and true,
Eternally.

6 Yea be the heavy charge,
Of all the earth did stretch:

And on the waters large,
The same be did out reach:
For certainly. &c.

7 Great lightes he made for us,
for why, his loue is aye:

8 Such as the Sunne we se,
To rule the lightsome day:
For certainly. &c.

9 And yet the Moon so cleare, which shineth in our sight:

And

And farras that do appeare,
To guide the darke some night:
For certainly. &c.

10 With grievous plagues and soze,
All Egypt smote he then:
The first borne lesse and more,
The new of beaſt and men:
For certainly. &c.

11 And from amidſt theſe land,
His Iſraell ſaith he ſought:
12 Which he with mightie hand,
And ſtreched arme hath wrought:
For certainly. &c.

13 The Sea he cut in two,
Which ſtoode by like a wall:

14 And made though it to go,
His choſen children all:
For certainly. &c.

15 But there he belonned then,
The proud king of baba:
With his huge hoſt of men
And chariots theſe all,
For certainly. &c.

16 Who led through waternelle,
His people ſafe and ſound:

17 And for his loue embred,
Great hynges he brought to ground,
For certainly. &c.

18 And aue with puſſant hand,
Hynges mightie and of ſame:

19 As of Amosſes land,
Whon the hyng by name,
For certainly. &c.

20 And Og the ſhyant large,
Of Balan hyng alſo:

21 Whaſe land for heritage,
He gaue his people tho:
For certainly. &c.

22 Euen unto Iſraell,
His ſeruant deare I ſay:

He gaue the ſame to dwel,
And there abide for aye:
For certainly. &c.

23 To mynde he did vs call,
In our moſt baſe degre:

24 And from oppreſſors all,
In ſaſette let vs ſee.
For certainly. &c.

25 All fleſh in earth abrood,

The Iſraelites in their captivity hearing the Caldeans reproch and blaſphemy God, and his helpe given, deſire God to puniſh the Caldeans, who perſecuted the Babylonians agaynſt them, & propheticallie the deſtruction of Babylon.

When as we ſate in Babylon,

The ſungers ſound about, and in ſome

brance of Ston, the teares for grie burſt out. We hang our harps and in-ſtruments the willow trees vpon: For in that place men for then die, had planted many one.

3 Then they to whom we priſoners were,
ſayd to vs tauntingly:
Now let vs heare your Iſrahel ſonges,

David neither sayd are, nor anger, would kill Saule but with a quiet minde prayed vnto God who p^{ro}- serued him.

Sing this as the 141. psalme.
Before the Lord God with my voyce,
I did send out my cry:
And with my strained voyce vnto,
the Lord God prayed I.
3 My meditation in his sight,
to poure I did not spare:
And in the presence of the Lord,
my trouble did declare.

Although perplexed was my spirit,
my pain was knowne to thee:
In way where I did walke, a snare
they layd for me.

4 I looke and viewed on my right hand,
but none there would me know:
All refuge fayled me, and for my soule none cared cho.

5 Then cryed I Lord to thee, and sayd
my hope thou only art:
Thou in the land of lairng art,
my portion and my part.

6 Harken to my cry for I am brought,
full low, desire me:
From them that do me persecute,
for me to strong they be.

Domine exaudi. psal. Cxliii. N.

An earnest prayer for remission of sinnes, and notes begging that the churche shd cruelly persecute him by Gods iust iudgement. He desireth to be restored to grace, to be governed by his holy spirit, that he may spend the rest of his life in the true ace and service of God.

Sing this as the 141. psalme.

Lord heare my prayer, heare the praynt
that I do make to thee:

Lord in thy name trust, and in thy iustice answer me.

2 In iudgement with thy seruant Lord,
oh enter not at all:

For iustified be in thy sight,
not one that lieth shall.

3 The enemy hath pursued my soule,
my life to ground hath thydome:

And layd me in the darke, like them that dead are long ago.

4 Within me in perplexitie,
was myne accombed spirit:

And in me was my troubled hart,
amaled and affright.

Yet I record thyne paine, in all ye thy wothes I meditate:

In thy wothes I meditate,
that thy handes haue crease:

5 Calthid O Lord my God toe I,
do stretch my crouching handes:

My soule desired after thee,
as do the thirky landes.

7 Heare me with speede my spirit doth hide not thy face me fro: (style,

As shall I be like them that downe,
into the pit do goe.

8 Let me thy louing kindeste in the mornyng heare and know:

For in thee is my trust, shew me
the way that I shall goe.

9 For I lye by my soule to thee,
O Lord deliuer me:

From all myne enemies, for I haue hidde me with thee.

10 Teach me to do thy will for thou,
thou art my God I say:

Let thy good spirit bnto the land,
of mercy me conuay.

11 For thy names sake with quickenynge aloue do thou me make: (grace,

And out of trouble bring my soule,

thou thinkest in this wise?

5 As an is but like to vauerie,
so passe his dayes to end:

6 As flyyng shade, both downe O Lord
the heuens and downe.

7 The mountaines couch, & they that smoke cast forth thy lightning flame:

8 And I scatter them, thine arrowes shote, consume them with the same.

9 Send downe thy hand ouer them about,
O Lord deliuer me:

10 Take me from waters great, from hand,
of strangers wher I be.

11 Whole libell mauch of vauerie, and founde it doth surrear:

12 And their right hand is a right hand,
of falsehood and deceit:

13 A new song will I sing O God, and singing will I be:

14 On viol and on instrument,
ten stringed bnto thee:

15 Euen he it is that only giues, deliuerance to his king:

16 Onto his seruant O Lord helpe, from hurtfull sword he bringe.

17 From strangers hande me save & shield, whose mouthes calke vauerie,

18 And their right hand is a right hand,
of guile and subtiltie.

19 That one sonne may be as the plants,
whom growing doth youth reare,

20 Our danghers as cased corner stones,
like to a pallisefaire.

21 Our garners full, and plentie may,
with landy foies be found:

22 Our shepe byng thousandes in our streit,
ten thousandes may abound.

23 Our Oxen be to labour strong,
that none do vs trouble:

24 There be no goyng out, no cryes within our stretes be made.

25 The people blessed are, that with such blessings are so lord:

26 Yes blessed all the people are, whose God is God the Lord.

27 Exaltabo te. psal. Cxlv. N.

David describeth the wonderful psonidie of God, in gouernynge and in preseruing all the other creatures. He prayeth God for his iustice, mercie, and speciall louynge kindness towards those that call vpon him, that feare him, and loue him.

Thee will I laud my God and king & blesse thy name for aye 1. 2. For eternall I praise thy name, and blisse thy

- wers praise.
- 5 For thy glorious majesty
the beasts will record:
And meditate upon thy wonders
most wonderfull O Lord.
 - 6 And they shall of thy power and of thy fearfull actes declare:
And I to publish all abroad,
thy greatness will not spare.
 - 7 And they into the mention shall breake of thy goodness great:
And I aloud thy righteousness,
in singing shall repeat.
 - 8 The Lord our God is gracious, and mercifull also:
Of great abounding mercy, and to anger he is slow.
 - 9 Yea good to all, and all his wonders,
his merits doth exceed:
 - 10 Lo all thy wonders do praise thee Lord,
and do thy honor spread.
 - 11 Thy Saints do bless thee, and they do thy kingdomes glory shew:
21 And blase thy power, to cause the sonnes of men his power to know.

The second part.

- 12 And of his mighty kingdomes shew,
to spread the glorious praise.
Thy kingdom Lord a kingdom is,
that doth endure alwayes.
And thy dominion through eche age,
endures without decay:
- 14 The Lord upholdeth them that fall,
their sliding he doth stay.
- 15 The eyes of all do wake on thee,
then dost thou all relieve:
And thou to eche suffering shew,
in season dost give.
- 16 Thou openest thy plentiful hand,
and bounteously dost fill:
All things whatsoever be line,
with gifts of thy good will.
- 17 The Lord is true in all his wayes,
his wonders are holy all:
- 18 Heare all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.
- 19 He the desires which they require,
that feare him will fulfill:
And he will heare them when they cry,
and save them all he will.
- 20 The Lord's piety all these to him,

that beare a loving heart.
But he them all that wicked are,
will utterly subvert.
21 Thy thankfull mouth shall gladly speake
the praises of the Lord:
All flesh to praise his holy name, for ever shall accord.

Lauda anima mea. Psal. Cxli. I. H.

David teacheth that none should put their trust in men but in God alone, who is almighty and delivereth the afflicted, nourisheth the poor, sets forth prisoners at libertie, comforteth the fatherles left, widows, strangers, and is king for ever.
Sing this as the 137. psalme.

My soule praise thou the Lord alwayes,
my God I will confesse:
2 While breath and life prolong my dayes,
my tongue no time shall cease.
3 Trust not in worldly riches then,
though they abound in wealth:
4 For in the sonnes of mortall men,
in whom there is no health:

4 For whyle their breath doth soone depart,
to earth anon they fall:
And then the counsell of their heartes,
decay and perish all.
5 O happie is that man I say,
whom Jacobs God doth aide:
And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is staid.

6 Which made the earth & waters deepe,
the heavens high withall:
Which doth his word and promise keepe,
in truth and ever shall.
With right alwayes he doth proceede,
for such as suffer wrong:
The poore and hungry he doth feede,
and loke the feeble strong.

7 The Lord doth send the blinde their sight
the lame to lims restore:
The Lord I say doth leue the right and liue man evermore.
8 He doth defend the fatherlesse,
the strangeres sad in hart:
And queth the widow from distresse,
and ill mens wates subvert.
10 Thy Lord and God eternally,
O Zion Hill shall raigue:
In time of all posteritie,
for ever to remaine.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cxlii. N.

The Prophet prayeth the bonitie, wisdom, power or iustice & providence of God upon all his creatures but specially upon his Church, which hee gathered together after their dispersion, declaring his word and iudgement to vnto them, as hee hath done to no other people.

- 3 He heales the broken in their hart,
their foze up both he bind:
4 He counts the number of the starres, and names them in their hind.
5 Great is the Lord, great is his power,
his wisdom infinite:
6 The Lord reliques the meche, & throwes to ground the wicked wight.
7 Sing unto God the Lord with prayle, unto the Lord reioyce:
And to our God upon the harpe,
aduaunce your singing voyce.
8 He couers heauen with cloudes, and foz
the earth prepared raine:
And on the mountaines he doth winde,
the thralle to geat againe.
9 He giues to beastes their food, and to young Ravens when they cry:
10 His pleasure not in strength of horse,
nor in mans legs doth lye.
11 But in all those that feare the Lord,
the Lord hath his delight:
And such as do attend vpon,
his mercies shining light.

The second part.

- 12 O prayle the Lord Ierusalem,
Thy God O Sion prayle:
13 Foz he the hies hart forged strong,
wherewith thy gates he shies.
14 Thy children he hath bled in thee, and in thy boyders he doth letle peace, and with the flower of wheat he filleth thee.
15 And his commandment vpon
the earth he sendeth out:
And eke his word with speedy course,
doth swiftly runne about.
The almes know like wolle, doze frod like almes doth he spread:
17 The moyses calles his sle, & herest
the cold who can abide?
18 He sendeth forth his mightie word,
and melteth them againe:
His winde he makes to blow and then,
the waters flow againe.
19 The doctrine of his holy word,
to Jacob doth he shew:
His statutes and his iudgements he giues Iseall to know.
20 With enery nation hath he not so dealt, nor they haue knowne:
His secret iudgements, & therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cxlviii. I. H.

He prauoketh all creatures to praise the Lord, in heauen, and in all places, especially for the power that he hath giuen to his people Iseall.

- 3 Praile him both Etoone and Summe
Which are so cleere and bright:
The same of you be done
Ye glistering stars of light,
4 And eke no lesse
Ye beaues faire,
And cloudes of the aere,
His land expresse.
5 Foz as his word they were,
All formed as we see:
As his voice his appraie
All things in their degre.
6 Which he set fast:
To them he made
Alaw and trade,
Foz aile to last.

- 7 Extoll and praise Gods name.
On earthye Dragons tell:
All deapes do ye the same,
Foz it becommeth you well,
8 Him magnifie
Fire, halle, Iste, know,
And stormes that blow,
At his decree.

- 9 The hills and mountaines all,
And trees that frutfull are:
The Cedars great and tall,
His worthy prayle declare.
10 Beastes and cattell,
Yea birdes flying,
And wormes creeping,
That on earth dwell.

- 11 All kinges both moze and lesse,
With all their pompous traine:
Winces and all iudges,
That in the world remaine.
Exalt his name,
12 Young men and maties,
Old men and babes
Do ye the same.

- 13 Foz his name shall we proue,
To be most excellent:
Whose prayle so farre about,
The earth and firmament.

- 14 Foz sure he shall Exalt with blisse:
The house of his,
And helpe them all.

His Saints in multitude
 His people in multitude
 The children of Israel.
 And both more and less.

And also they,
 That with good will,
 His wordes fulfill,
 and him obey.

Cantate Domino. Psal. Cxlix. N.

An exhortation to the Church, to praise the Lord for his victorie and conquest that hee smote his Captures agaynst all maner power.

Sing this as the 143. psalme.

Sing ye unto the Lord his our God,
 a new praising song:

And let the people of him be heard,
 his holy Saints among.

1 Let Israel reioyce in him,
 that made him of nothing:
 And let the fence of Zion hill,
 be ioyfull in their King.

2 Let them sound praise with voice of lutes unto his holy name,
 And with the Tambrell and the Harpe,
 sing praises of the same:

4 For why the Lord his pleasure all,
 hath in his people set:
 And by deliuerance he will raise,
 the me he so glory gets.

5 With glory and with honour, now let all the Saints reioyce:
 And now alowd upon they beeg, aduance their singing voyce.

6 And in their mouths let be the actes,
 of God the mighty Lord:
 And in their hands eke let them beare
 a double edged sword.

7 To plague the heathen, and correct
 the people with theyr handes:

8 To binde their sately hyngs in chaynes,
 these Lordes in iron bandes.

9 To execute on them the doome,
 that written is before:

This honoꝝ all his Sayntes shal haue,
 praise ye the Lord therefore.

Laudate Dominum. psal. CL. N.

An exhortation to praise the Lord without ceasing by all maner of wayes, for all his mightie and wonderfull workes.

Sing this as the 147. psalme.

Yield unto God the mighty Lord,
 praise in his sanctuary:

And praise him in the Arment that shewes his power on hye.

2 Aduance his name, and praise him in his mighty actes alwayes:
 According to his excellency of greatnes, geue him praise.

3 His praises with the princely noyse,
 of sounding trumpets blow:
 Praise him vpon the Viole, and vpon the Harpe also.

4 Praise him with Tambrell & with flutes
 Organs and instruments:

5 With sounding Cymbals praise ye him, praise him with loud Cymbals:

What ever hath the benefit,
 of heathing praise the Lord:
 To praise the name of God the Lord,
 agree with one accord.

The end of the Psalmes of David.

An exhortation unto the prayse of God, to be long before Memyng

Prayer. T. B.

Sing this as the 100. psalme.

Praise the Lord, O ye Saints all, which hath brought you into this:
 O praise him all people wofull,
 as it is most worship and right:
 For he is full determined,
 on vs to pour out his mercy:
 And on the Lordes trust be ye aduanced, abiding perpetually.

Glory be to God the Father.
 And so Iesus Christ his true Sonne:
 With the holy Ghost in like manner,
 Now and at euery season.

An exhortation unto the prayse of God to be long before euening.

prayer. T. B.

Sing this as the 100. psalme.

Behold now geue heede such as be
 The Lordes seruants faithfull and true:
 Come praise the Lord euery degree,
 With such longes as to him are due.

Ope that stand in the Lordes house
 Euen in our own Gods mansion:
 Praise ye the Lord is bounden
 With hymn & song our salvation.

Lift vp your hands in his holy place
 Yen and that in the time of night:
 Praise ye the Lord which smech all grace
 For he is a Lord of great might.

When shall the Lord out of Syon
 Which made heauen and earth by his pꝛ.
 Giue to you and your nation,
 His blessing, mercy, and fauour.

Glory to God the Father. as afore.

Audi Israel Exod. xx. VV. VV.

And I will tell thee of feely thyngs I will thee tell: See that my wordes in mynde thou beare, and to my preceptes listen well.

1 I am thy soveraigne Lord and God, which haue thee brought fro careful thral:
 And thee reclaimed from to harnes rod,
 Make thee no gods on t hem to call.

3 Not fashioned for me of any thing,
In heaven or earth to worship be:
For I thy God by recognizing,
With grievous plagues this sin will smite.

Take not in vain his holy name,
Doubt it not after thy will:
For so thou might'st loose purchase blame,
And in his wrath he would thee spill.

4 The Lord from word & twenty day rest,
And brought all things to perfect end,
So thou and thine that day take rest
That to Gods house ye may attend.

5 Unto thy parents honor give,
As Gods commandments do pertain:
That thou long dayes and good may live,
In earth where God a place doth lend.

6 Beware of murder and cruel hate,
All stichie fornication leave:
See thou feare not in any case,
False witness against no man beare.

7 Thy neighbors house with not to haue,
His wife or ought that he calth mine:
His field, his Ox, his Ass, his name
Or any thing which is not thine.

A Prayer.

The spirit of grace grant vs O Lord,
To keepe these lawes our hearts reioyce,
And haue vs all with one accord,
To magnifie thy name therefore.

For of our selues no strength we haue
To keepe these lawes after thy will:
Thy might therefore O Christ we craue
That we in thee may them fulfill.
Lord for thy name's sake praye vs this,
Thou art our strength O Saviour Christ,
Of thee to speed how should we misse:
In whom our trust and hope consist.

To thee for evermore be praise,
Wied the father in each respect:
And with the holy spirit alwaies
The comforte of thine elect.

¶ The Lordes prayer. D. Cox.

O

Our father which in heauen art, and makest vs all one brotherhood: To call upon thee with one hart, Our heavenly

Father and our God: Graunt we pray not with less alone. Our with the rite harts deep sigh & groane.

Thy blessed name be glorified,
Thy holy work might vs instruct,
In holy life for to abide,
To magnifie thy holy name.
From all errors defend us & keepe,
The little flocke of thy poore sheepe.

Thy kingdom come euen at this houre,
And henceforth euerlastingly:
Thine holy Ghost into vs poure,
With all his gifts most plentifully:
From Satans rage and stichie band,
Defend us with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heauen is earth also:
In trouble graunt vs patience,
That to obey in wealth and woe.
Let not flesh, blaine, or any ill,
Oppaule against thy holy will.

Since vs this day one dayly bread
And all other good gifts of thine:
Kepe vs from warre and from bloudshed,
Also from schisme, dearty and pine.
That we may liue in quietnesse,
Without all greedy carelesnesse.

Forgiue vs our offences all,
Relieve our careful conscience:
As we forgiue both great and small,
Which into vs haue done offence.
Prepare vs Lord for to serue thee,
In perfect loue and unitie.

O Lord into temptation,
Lead vs not when the fend doth rage:
To withstand his insuasion,
Give power and strength to every age.
Arise and make strong thy fable host,
With faith, and with the holy Ghost.

O Lord from euil deliue vs,
The dayes and times are dangerous.
From euelladings death saue vs,
And in our laboured comfort vs.
A blessed end to vs bequeath,
Into thy handes our soules receaue.

For thou O Lord art king of kings,
And thou hast power ouer all:
Thy glory shined in all thinges,
In the wide world vniuersall.
Amen, let it be done O Lord,
That we hence praye with one accord.

And in like manner, I beseech
In Christ our Lord his soules,
Corquall with the deary,
And man in flesh and bone.

Concerned by the holy Ghost,
His word both me assure,
And of his mother Mary boyme,
Yet she a virgin pure.

Because man made to Satan was
For time in bond and chace:
He came and offered up himselfe,
To death to save us all.

And suffering most grievous payne,
Then for us being iudge:
Was crucified on the Crosse,
And thereat did not grudge.

And so he layd in the flesh,
But quickened in the spirit:
His body then was buried,
As is our life and site.

His spirit did after this descend,
Into the lower partes:
To them that long in darkness were,
The true light of their partes.

And in the third day of his death,
He rose to life againe:
To them he might be glorified,
Out of all griefe and payne.

Ascending to the heavens bye,
To sit in glory still:
On Gods right hand his father dwells,
According to his will.

Whill the day of iudgement come,
When he shall come againe:
With Angels power, yet of that day,
We all be uncerteine.)

To iudge all people righteously,
Whom he hath donely bought:
The living and the dead alie,
Which he hath made of nought.

And in the holy spirit of God,
My faith to suffice:
The third person in Trinitie, Believe I needfully.

The holy and Catholike Church,
That Gods word both maintaine.
And holy scripture both allow,
Which Satan doth vilaine.

And also I do trust to have,
By Iesu Christ his death:
Release and pardon for my sinnes,
And that onely by faith.

What time all flesh shall live againe,
Before the Lord of might:
And see him with their bodily eyes.

Which now he gave them light.

And then shall Christ our Saviour,
The shepe and Goates divide:
And give life everlastingly,
To those whom he hath tried.

Wherby his Kingdom shall fall,
In glory for to rule:
With all the holy company,
Of Saints and Angels dwell.

Which seems the Lord omnipotent, Obediently each hour:
To whom be all dominion,
And praise for evermore.

A Prayer to the holy Ghost, to be song before the Sermon.
Sing this as the 119. Psalm.

Come holy spirit the God of might,
Comforter of us all:
Teach us to know thy word aright,
That we be never fall.

O holy Ghost visite our soules,
Defend us with thy shield:
Against all sinne and wickednelle,
Lord helpe us winne the field.

Lord helpe our Queene and her Councell, and give them will and might:
To perswade in thy gospell which can put sinne to flight.

O Lord that gruest thy holy word,
Send preachers plenteously:
That in the same we may accord,
and thereon live and dye.

O holy spirit direct aright,
the Ministers of thy word:
That thou by them mayest come downe some as it were with a sword.

Depart not from those pastours pure,
but ayde them at all need:
Which hearken to be the head of life,
whereon our soules do feed.

O blessed spirit of truth, keepe us
in peace and unity:
keepe us from sects and errors all,
and from all dissidy.

Commest all those that are our foes,
and bying them to thy light:
That they and we may well agree,
and prayse thee day and night.

O Lord increase our faith in us,
and love so to abound:
That man and wife be void of strife,
and neighbours about us bound.
In our tyme give thy peace O Lord,
to nations far and nye:
And teach them all thy holy word,
that we may sing to thee.

All glory to the Trinitie, that is of mighties most:
The living Father, and the Sonne,
and eke the holy Ghost,
As it hath bene in all the tyme,
that hath bene heretofore
As it is now, and so shalbe, henceforth for evermore.

Da pacem Domine. The Lamentation. A. B. C. Singing.

Da pacem Domine. E. G.

Give peace in these our days
O Lord, great dangers are now at hand, thine enemies with one accord, Thy name in every land, let us deface, woe out and ease, thy time right may be in due: be thou the say, Lord we do pray, thou be alone in all need.

One is that peace which we do lacke,
Thy word to offer, thou dost not lacke,

Which we wish to be gainfully
Some peace and comfort:

Some with the sword,
Confess the truth,
Without sinners godlines.

But peace is thy spirit down sent,
With grace, and repentance true:

Do peace to us here, our lives to mend,
And by faith Thy name

That peace and bread,
Water and blood shed,
Thy sweet mercy and grace,

May from us slide,
Thy truth may be,
And shine in every place.

The Lamentation
O Though perfect sinners we be,
That sinners have washed away in Thy blood.

O Lord in thee is all my trust, give care unto my woe: I cry: Refuse me not this: I am unclean: but bowing do.

the heavens etc. Behold how I do still lament my sin: wherein I do offend: O Lord, for them shall I do Sith the to please I do intend

No, no, not so thy will is bent to deal with sinners in thine love

But when in heart they shall repent, thou grantst with love that they do see.

To thee therefore still shall I cry,
to wash away my sin: all crimes

Thy blood O Lord is not yet dry, but that it may help me in time.

Haste thee O Lord, haste thee I say,
to pour on me the gifts of grace:

That when this life hath fled away,
in heaven with thee I may have place

Where thou dost reign eternally, with God which once didst choose thee

Where angels sing continually, to thee be praise with without end.

A thanksgiving after the receiving of the Lords Supper.
Sing this as the 17. psalm.

The Lord be thanked for his gifts,
and meeten evermore:

That he doth show unto his saints,
to him be love therefore.

Our tongues cannot to praise the Lord,
as he doth right deserve:

Our hearts cannot of him to think,
as he doth us preserve.

His benefits they be so great to us that be his saints:

That at our heathen for recompence,
there is no hope to winne.

O sinfull flesh, that thou shouldst have such mercies of the Lord:

Thou dost deserve more worship,
of him to be adored.

Thoughts that but fume and vapours be,
doth rest within our hearts:

And stubbornly against the Lord,
we daily play our parts.

The Sunne above in firmament,
that is to be mightie:

Doth show it selfe more cleare and pure,
then we be in his sight.

The heavens above and all therein,
more holy are then we:

They see the Lord in their estate,
exalt in their degree.

They do not strive for mastery,
nor chase their office set:

But state the Lord and do his will,

hate is to them no let.

And the earth and all therein,
of God it is in awe:
It doth observe the farmers will,
by his small nations law.
The sea and all that is therein,
doth bend when he doth becket:
The fowles beneath do reembrace all,
and feare his wastfull cheeke.

But we alas for whom all these,
were made them for to rule:
We not so know of him the Lord,
as doth the Oxe or Assle.
A law he gave for us to know,
what was his holy will:
He would be good, but we would not,
know the thing at all.

Not one of us that seeketh out
the Lord of life to please:
Not doth anything that might us loyne,
to Christ and quiet ease.
Thus are we all his enemies,
we can it not deny:

And be againe of his good will,
would not that we should dye:
Therefore when remedy was none,
so bring us unto life:

The Sonne of God our flesh he took,
to mend our mortall brest.
And all the law of God the Lord,
he did it fulfill day.
And for our finnes upon the Crosse,
his blood our debts did pay.

And that we should not yet forget,
what good he to us wrought:
A signe he left our eyes to tell,
that he our bodies bought.
In bread and wine here visible,
unto thine eyes and tast:
His merites great thou must record,
if that his spirit thou hast.

As once the cozne did line and grow,
and was cut downe with sickle:
And theyed it out with many stripes,
out from his bushe to distill.
And as the mill with violence,
quethere sta out in small
And made it like to earthy dust, is not sparing it at all.

And as the Oxe with sicke hote,
did close it up in heat:
And all this done that I have sayd,
that it should be our meate.
So was the Lord in his ripe age,
cut downe by cruell death:
His soule he gave in torment great,
and yielded by his breath.

Because that he to us might be,
an everlastyng head:
With much sorow and troubles great,
we saved his life he led.
And as the grapes in pleasant tynt,
are pressed beyt soys:
And plucked downe when they be ripe,
and let to grow no more.

Because the wine that in them is
as comfortable drinke:
We might receive and joyfull be,
when sorrowes make us drinke.
So Christs blood our pressed was,
with nayles and the with speare:
The wine wherof doth save all those,
that rightly do him feare.

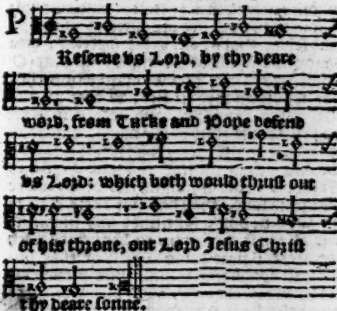

And as the calmes by bruite,
into one loafe is hur:
So is the Lord and his whole Church,
though he in heaven sit.
As many grapes make but one wine,
so should we be but one:
In faith and love in Christ alone,
and unto Christ alone.

Leading a life without all strife,
in quiet rest and peace:
From envy and from malice both,
our hatred and congres to cease.
Which if we do, then shall we shew that we his cholen be:
By sayd in him to lead a life,
as alwayes willed be.

And that we may so do indede,
God send us all his grace:
Then after death we shall be sure,
with him to have a place.

Morning and Euening.

Morning prayer.

Almighty God and most mercifull Father, we doe not present our felues here before thy maiestie trusting in our own merites or worthines, but in thy manie to be merces which hast promised to heare our prayers & graunt our requestes which we shall make to thee in the name of thy beloued Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord: who also hath commaunded vs to ascribe our felues together in his name, with full assurance: he will not onely be amongst vs, but also be our mediator and aduocate towards thy maiesty, that we may obtayne all thynges which shall seme expedient to thy blessed will for our necessities. Therefore we beseeche thee firste rather to turne thy louing countenance towards vs, and impute not vnto vs our manifold finnes and offences, whereby we lustily deserue thy wrath and sharpe punishment but rather receive vs to thy mercy for Iesu Christs sake, accepting his death & passion as a full recompence for all our offences, in whom onely thou art pleased, and though whom thou canst not bee offended with vs. And saying that of thy great merces, we haue quietly passed this night: graunte (O heauenly Father) that we may beflow this day wholly in thy seruice, so that all our thoughtes, wordes, and deedes may rebounde to the glory of thy name, and good ensample to all men, who sayng our good wordes, may glorifie thee our heauenly Father. And forasmuch as of thy mere kinde and loue, thou hast not onely created vs to thine owne similitude and likeness, but also hast chosen vs to bee heyres with thy deare Sonne Iesus Christ of that immortall heritage which thou preparatest for vs before the beginning of the world: we beseeche thee to encrease our faith and knowledge, and to lighten our hartes with thy holy spirit: that we may in the meane time liue in godly conuersation and integrity of life, knowing that Idolaters, adulterers, couetous men, contentious persons, drunkardes, gluttons, and such like, shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

And because thou hast commaunded vs to pray one for an other, we doe not onely make request (O Lord) for our felues & for thee that thou hast already called to the true vnderstanding of thy heauenly will, but for all people and nations of the world, who as they know by thy wonderfull wordes: that thou art god ouer all, so they may be instructed by thy holy spirit, to be true in thee thine onely saviour and redeemer. But forasmuch as they cannot beleue except they heare, nor can not heare but by preaching, & none can preach except he be sent: therefore (O Lord) raise vp faithful distributors of thy wordes:

who setting apart all worldly respects may busy in their life & doctrine onely in the thy glory. Contrarily confounde Satan, Antichrist with all hirings, whom thou hast already cast off into a reprobate state, that they may not by leas, schismes, heresies, & errors disquiet thy liue flock. And because (O Lord) we be fallen into the latter dayes and dangerous times wherein ignorance hath gotten the upper hand, and Satan by his ministers seek by all means to quench the light of thy Gospel, we beseeche thee to maintain thy cause against those causinge volues, and strengthen all thy seruantes, whome they hope in prison and bondage. Let not thy long suffering be an occasion, either to encrease their tyranny, or to discourage thy church: neither yet let our finnes and wickednesse be an hindrance to thy mercyes, but with speed O Lord consider their great miseries. For the people of Israel many tymes by their finnes provoked thy anger, and thou punishedst them by thy iust iudgement, yet though their finnes were neuer so grievous, if they once returned from their iniquity, thou receivest them to mercy. We therefore most wicked finnes bewaile our manifold finnes and earnestly repent vs of our former wickednes and vngodly behaviour towards thee: and whereas we cannot of our felues purchase thy pardon, yet we humbly beseech thee for Iesus Christs sake to shew thy merces vpon vs and receive vs as gayne to thy fauour. Graunte vs deare Father these our requestes, and all other thynges necessary for vs and thy whole Church, according to thy promise in Iesus Christ our Lord. In whose name we beseech thee as he hath taught vs, saying, Our Father which art. &c.

Euening prayer.

O Lord God, Father euertlasting and full of pity, we acknowledge and confesse that we be not worthy to lift vp our eyes to heauen, much lesse to present our felues before thy maiesty with confidence that thou wilt heare our prayers and graunte our requestes, if we consider our owne deservings: for our consciences doe accuse vs and our finnes doe witness against vs, and we know that thou art an upright Judge, which doest not iustifie the sinners and wicked men but punisheth the faultes of all flesh as readily as the thy commandements: yet most mercifull Father, since it hath pleased thee to commaunde vs to call on thee in all our troubles and aduersities promisinge vnto us then to helpe us when we keele our felues (as it were) swallowed up of death and desperation. We therefore renounce all worldly confidence and flye to thy soveraigne bounty, as our onely stay and refuge: beseeching thee not to call to remembrance our manifold sinnes and wickednesse whereby wee continually prouoke thy wrath and indignation agaynst vs: neyther our negligence and vnderstande, which haue neyther woordes they esteemed, nor in all our, but sufficient cause the sweete comfort of our Gospell revealed vnto vs: But rather to accept the obedience, and death of thy sonne Iesus Christ, who by offering vp his body in sacrifice once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our sinnes. Vnto mercy therefore vpon vs O Lord, and forgive vs our offences. Teach vs by thy holy spirit, that wee may rightly weigh them, and earnestly repent for the same. And so much the rather (O Lord) because that thy reprobate and such as thou hast forsaken cannot praye thee nor call vpon thy name: But the repenting heart, the sorrowfull minde, the conscience oppressed; hungering and thirsting for thy grace shall euer set forth thy praise and glory.

And albeit wee bee but wormes and dust, yet thou art our Creator, and wee bee the worke of thy handes: Yea thou art our father, and wee thy children: thou art our Shepheard, and wee thy flocke: thou art our redeemer, and wee thy people whome thou hast bought: thou art our God, and wee thine inheritance. Correct vs not therefore in thine anger (O Lord) neyther according to our desertes punish vs, but mercifully chasice vs with a fatherly affection, that all the world may know thee at what tyme soeuer a sinner doth repent him of his sinne from the bottom of his heart, thou wilt put away al his wickednesse out of thy remembrance as thou hast promised by thy holy prophet.

Finally for as much as it hath pleased thee to make þ night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordeined him the day to trauell in, graunt O deare father that wee may take our dolefull rest, that our soules may continually watch for the tyme that our Lorde Iesus Christ shall appeare for our deliuerance out of this mortal life, in the meane season that we not overcome by any fantasies dreames or other temptations, may fully set our minds vpon thee, loue thee, feare thee & rest in thee. Furthermore that our sleep be not excessive or ouermuch after the variable desires of our flesh, but onely sufficient to content our weake nature, that we may bee the better disposed to loue in all Godly conuerſation to the glory of thy holy name and proſite of our brethren. So be it.

A godly prayer to be sayde at all tymes.

HONOR & praise be giuen to thee O Lord & O almighty most deare father of heauen for all thy mercies and louing kindnes shewed vnto vs, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodnes freely and of thine owne accord to elect and chuse vs to salvation before the beginning of the world: and enen like continuall thanks be giuen to thee for creating vs after thine owne image for redeeming vs with þ precious blood of thy deare sonne when we were utterly lost, for sanctifying vs by thy holy spirit in the reuelation & knowledge of thy holy word, for helping and succoring vs in al our needs & necessities, for saving vs from all dangers of body and soule, for comforting vs so fatherly in all our tribulations & persecutions, for sparing vs so long and geuing vs so large a tyme of repentance. These benefites (O most mercifull father) like as we knowe to haue receaued them of thy onely godnes: enen so wee beseech thee for thy deare son Iesus Christs sake, graunt vs alwayes thy holy spirit that wee may continually grow in thankfulness towards thee to bee led into all truth & comforted in all our aduersities. O Lord strengthen our sayth, humble it more in firmenes and loue towards thee and our neighbors for thy sake. Suffer vs not most deare father to receaue thy word any more in vayne: but graunt vs alwayes the assistance of thy grace and holy spirit, that in heare, word, & deede wee may sanctify and doe worship to thy name, helpe to amplify and increase thy kingdome, and whateuer thou sendest we may bee hartely well content with thy good pleasure and will. Let vs not lerne the thing (O father) without the which wee cannot serue thee: but blesse thou so all the workes of our handes, that wee may haue sufficient and not to bee chargeable but rather helpfull to others. Be mercifull (O Lord) to our offences, and seeing our debt is great which thou hast forgiven vs in Iesus Christ, make vs to loue thee and our neighbors so much the more. Be thou our father, our Captaine and defender in all temptations, hold thou vs by thy mercifull hand that we may be deliuered frō al calamities, and end our liues in the sanctifying and honor of thy holy name through Iesus Christ our Lord & onely Saviour.

Let thy mighty hand and outstretched arme (O Lord) be still our defence: thy mercy and louing kindnes in Iesus Christ thy deare sonne our saluator, thy true and holy word our instruction, thy grace and holy spirit our comfort and consolation vnto the end and in the end. So be it.

O Lord increase our sayth.

A confession for all estates and tymes.

O Eternal God and most mercifull father we confesse & acknowledge here before thy diuine maiestie, that wee are miserable sinners, conceived & borne in sin and iniquity, so that in vs there is no goodness. For the flesh euermore rebellith against the spirit, whereby we continually transgresse thy holy preceptes and commandementes, and so purchase to our selues thyough thy iust iudgement, death, and damnation. Notwithstanding (O heavenly father,) forasmuch as wee are displeased with our selues, for the sinnes that wee haue committed agaynst thee, and doe vnfeignedly repent vs of the same, wee most humbly beseech thee for Iesus Christs sake to as thou thy mercy vpon vs, to forgive vs all our finnes, and increase thy holy spirit in vs: that wee acknowledging from the bottome of our hearts, our vni-righteousnesse, may from henceforth not only mortifie our sinfull lustes and affections, but also bring forth such fruites as may bee agreeable to thy most blessed will, not for the worthines thereof, but for the merites of thy dearly beloved sonne Jesus Christ our onely Saviour, whome thou hast already given an oblation and offering for our finnes, and for whose sake we are certainly perswaded that thou wilt deny vs nothing that we shall aske in his name according to thy will. For thy spirit doth assure our consciences that thou art our mercifull Father, and so louest vs thy Children through him that nothing is able to remoue thy heavenly grace and fauour from vs. To thee therefore (O Father) with thy Sonne and the holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

* A prayer to be sayd before a man begin his worke.

O Lord God most mercifull father & Saviour, seeing it hath pleased thee to command vs to trauell, that we may relieve our neede, we beseech thee of thy grace so to bleesse our labours, that thy blessing may extend vnto vs, without the which we are not able to continue: and that thy great fauour may be a witness vnto vs of thy bountyfullnes and assistance, so that thereby we may know the fatherly care that thou hast ouer vs.

Reuerend (O Lord) we beseech thee that thou wouldest strengthen vs with thy holy spirit, that we may faithfully trauayle in our estate and vocation without fraud or deceite: & that we may endue our selues to follow thine holy ordinance rather then to like to satisfy our greedy affections or desire to gayne. And if it please thee O Lord to prosper our labors, geue vs a minde also to helpe them that haue need according to that ability that thou of thy mercy shalt giue vs: and knowing that all good things come of thee: graunt that wee may humble our selues to our neighbours, and not by any meanes lift our selues aboue them which haue not receiued so liberall a portion as of thy mercy thou hast giuen vnto vs. And if it please thee to try & exercise vs by greater poverty and need then our flesh wold desire:
that thou wouldest yet (O Lord) graunt vs grace to know that thou wilt not take vs continually through thy bountyfull liberality & we be not so tempted that we fall into distrust, but that we may patiently waite till thou fill vs, not only with corporall graces & benefits, but chiefly with thine heavenly & spirituall treasures, so the more that wee may stande haue more ample occasion to give thee thanks and wholly to rest vpon thy mercies. Heare vs O Lord of mercy through Iesus Christ thy Sonne our Lord
Amen.

A Prayer for the whole estate of Christes Church.

A Almighty God and most mercifull Father, we humbly submit our selues and fall down before thy maiesty beseeching thee from the bottome of our hearts, that this side of thy word now sowne amongst vs may take such depe roote that neither the burning heate of persecution can ke it to wither, neither the thorny cares of this life choke it, but that as seed sowne in good ground it may bring forth thirty, sixty, and an hundred fold, as thy heavenly will shal best appoynted. And because we haue not continually to craue many things at thy handes: wee humbly beseech thee (O heauently father) to graunt vs thy holy spirit to direct our petitions that they may proceede from such a serene minde as may be agreeable to thy most blessed will, and being so indefatigable is able to doe nothing without thy helpe, & that thou art not ignorant with how many and great temptations we poore wretches are on euery side encircled and encompassed: Let thy strength (O Lord) discomfort our weakenes, that wee being defended in the force of thy grace may be safely preserved agaynst all assaults of Satan: who goeth about continually like a roaring Lyon seeking to deuoure vs. Increase our faith (O mercifull father) that we doe not sweene at any time from thy heavenly word, but augment in vs hope and loue with a care-full keeping of all thy commaundementes, that no hardness of hart, no Hypocrisie, no concupiscence of the eyes, nor insinuations of the world doe drawe vs away from thy obedience. And seeing we liue now in these most perillous times, let thy fatherly providence defend vs agaynst the violence of our enemies which doe seeke by all meanes to oppresse thy church.

Furthermore forasmuch as by thy holy Apostle wee be taught to make our prayers and supplications for all men: we pray not onely for our selues here present, but beseeche thee also to reduce all such as bee yet ignorant, from the miserable captiuity of blindness and error, to the pure vnder-standing and knowledge of thy truth: that wee all with one accord and unity of minde may worship thee our onely God & Saviour.
And that all pastors, shepherdes, and ministers, to whome thou hast committed the dispensation of thy holy worde and charge of thy chosen people, may both in their life and doctrine bee found faithful, letting onely before their eyes thy glory: and that by them all poore sheepe which wander and goe astray, may be gathered and brought home to thy folde.

Moreover because the hartes of rulers are in thy handes, wee beseech thee to direct and gouerne the hartes of all kings, Princes and magistrates, to whom thou hast committed the sword: especially (O Lord) according to our bounden duety, wee beseech thee to maintayne and increase the horrible estate of the Queenes maiesty and all her most noble Councillors and Magistrates, in all the spiritual paynes & afflictions.

adverses, & all the whole body of this common weale. Let thy sacredly favour to preserve them, & thy holy spirit to govern their hearts that they may in such sort exercise their office & thy religion may be purely maintained, manners reformed, and sinne punished according to thy precise rule of thy holy word. And for we be all members of thy mystical body of Jesus Christ, wee make our requests unto thee O heavenly Father for all such as are afflicted with any kinde of crosse or tribulation: as warre, plague, famine, sickness, poverty, imprisonment, persecution, banishment, or any other kinde of thy rods, whether it bee calamitie of body or heretic of minde, that it would please thee to give them patience and constancy, till thou send them full deliverance of all their troubles. Roote out from hence (O Lord) all taverning Whores, which to fill their bellies, seeke to destroy thy flocke. And shew thy great mercies upon those our brethren in other countries, which are persecuted, cast into prison, and daily condemned to the testimony of thy truth. And though they be utterly destitute of all mans aid, yet let thy sweet comfort never depart from them: but to inflame their hartes with thy holy spirit that they may boldly and chearefully abide such triall, as thy godly wisdom shall appoynt. So that at length as well by their death as by their life, the kingdom of thy deare Sonne Jesus Christ may encrease and shine through all the worlde. In whose name wee make our humble petitions unto thee, as he hath taught vs. Our Father which, &c.

There wanted a tempter and thou wast the cause that he was wanting: there wanted time and place, and thou wast the cause that they wanted. The tempter was present and there wanted neither place nor time: but thou heldst me backe & I should not consēt. The tempter came full of darkness as he is: & thou didst harden me that I might despise him. The tempter came armed and strongly: but to the end he should not overcome me, thou didst restrain him and strengthen me. The tempter came transformed into an Angell of light: and to the intent he should not deceive me, thou didst rebuke him: and to the intent I should know him, thou diddest enlighten me. For he is the great red dragon, the olde serpent called the deuill and Serpent, which hath seven heades and ten hornes, whom thou hast created to take his pleasure in this huge and broad sea, wherein there creepe living wightes innumerable, and beastes great and small: that is to say diuers sorts of scoundrels: which practiseth nothing els day & night, but goeth about seeking whom hee may deuoure, except thou resist him O Lord Jesus. For it is that olde dragon which draweth downe the third part of the harvest of heauen with his tayle & catcheth them to the grounde: which with his dentin pondoneth & waters of & earth, that as many men as drinke of them may dye, which trampled upon god as it were mire, and is of opinion that: Iordans shall runne into his mouth, & which is made: if such a malice that hee feareth no man. And who shall save vs from his choppes O Lord Jesus: who shall plucke vs out of his mouth saying thou O Lord, who hast broken the head of this great dragon: & helpe vs Lord, spread our thy wings over vs O Lord & we may not vnder them from the face of this dragon that pursueth vs: and fence thou vs from his hornes, with thy shield, for this is his continuall endeavour, this is his onely desire, to deuoure the soules which thou hast created. And therefore wee cry unto thee O God: deliver vs fro our daily adversary, who whether we sleepe or wake, whether we eate or drinke, or whether we be doing of any thing els, pressed upon vs by all kinde of meanes assailling vs day and night with traynes & policies, & shooting bys venomous arrowes at vs, sometime openly, & sometime privately to slea our soules. And yet such is our great madness O Lord, in that whereas wee see the dragon continually in a readines to deuoure vs with open mouth: wee neuertheless do sleepe & reioyce in our owne foolishnes, as though we were out of his danger who desireth nothing els but to destroye vs. Our mischievous enemy to the intent to kill vs, watcheth continually and neuer sleepe, and yet will not wee awake from sleepe to save our selues. Behold hee hath pitched infinite snares before our feet, and filled all our wayes with sundry trappes, to catch our soules. And who can escape O Lord Jesus, so many and great dangers: wee hath layd snares for vs in our riches, in our poverty, in our meate, in our drinke, in our pleasures, in our sleepe and in our waking: wee hath set snares for vs in our wordes, and our workes, and in all our life. But thou O Lord, deliver vs from the net of the foulers, and from hard wordes, that wee may geue praye to thee saying: blessed be the Lord who hath not geue vs up to bee a pray for their teeth, our soule is delivered as a sparow out of the foulers net: & net is broken & we escaped.

¶ The confession of the Christian sayth.

Welske & cosse me my Lord God eternall, infinite, immeasurable, incomprehensible, & invisible, one in substance, & three in person Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost, who by his almighty power and wisdom, hath not onely of nothing created heauen and earth and all thinges therein contained, and men after his owne Image that he might in him be glorified: but also by his sacredly powdred governeth, mayntayneth, and preserveth the same, according to the purpose of his will.

I beleue also and confesse: Jesus Christ the the onely Saviour and Messiah, who being equall with God made himselfe of no reparation, but took on him the shape of a servant and became man in all things like unto vs except sinne, to assure vs of mercy and forgiveness. For when through our father Adams transgression, we were become children of perdition, there was no means to bring vs from the poyke of sinne and damnation, but onely Jesus Christ our Lord, who geuing vs that by grace which was his by nature, made vs thow sayth, the children of God, who whē that fulnes of tyme was come, was concerted by the power of the holy Ghost, borne of the Virgin Mary (according to the flesh) and preached in earth the gospell of salvation till at length by ransomy of the priestes, he was guiltles condemned vnder Pontius Pilate, then president of Iury, & most scandalously hanged on the Crosse betwene two theues as a notorious trespasser, where taking vpon him the punishment of our finnes, hee deliuered vs from the curle of the law.

And forasmuch as he being onely God could not feele death, neither being onely man could he overcome death, he toynded both together and suffered his humanity to be punished in most cruell death, feeling in him selfe pangs & severe iudgements of God enen as he had bene in extreme tormentes of hell, & therefore cryed with a loud voyce: my God my God why hast thou forsaken me? Thus of his mercy without compulsion, he offered by himselfe as the onely sacrifice to purge the finnes of all the world, so that all other sacrifices for sinne are blasphemous & derogate from the sufficiency hereof. Which death, albeit it did insufficiently reconcile vs to God, yet the scriptures commonly do ascribe our regeneration to his resurrection. For as by rising againe from the graue the 3. day he conquered death: euen so the victory of our faith standeth in his resurrection, & therefore without the one, we cannot feele the benefites of the other. For as by his death sin was taken away, so our righteousness was restored by his resurrection. And because he would accomplish all things, & take possession for vs in his kingdome, hee ascended into heauen to enlarge the same kingdome, by the abundant power of his Spirit: by whome wee are now assured of his continual intercession towards God the father for vs.

And although he be in heauen as touching his corporal presence where the father hath now set him at his right hand, committing vnto him the administration of all things as well in heauen above, as in earth beneath: yet is he present with vs his members eue to the end of the world in preserving & governing vs with his effectual power and grace, who when all things are fulfilled, which god hath spoken by the mouth of all his Prophets since the world began, will come in the same visible form in the which he ascended with an unspeakable maiesty, power, & company, to elect the lambes from the Goates, to cleare from the reprobates. So that none whether he be alive or dead before, shall escape his iudgement.

Moreover I beleue and confesse the holy Ghost, God equall with the father and the sonne, who regenerateth & sanctifieth vs, ruleth and guideth vs vnto all truth, presiding most assuredly in our consciences that wee be the children of God, by which to Jesus Christ, & fellow heires with him of life everlasting: yet notwithstanding it is not sufficient to beleue that God is omnipotent & mercifull, that Christ hath made satisfactiō, or that the holy ghost hath his power and effect, except we doe apply the same benefites to vs which are Gods elects.

I beleue therefore and confesse one holy Church, which as members of Iesus Christ the only head thereof, consent in faith, hope, and charitie, vnto the giftes of God whether they be temporall or spirituall, to the poynte and furtherance of the same, which Church is not seene to mans eye, but onely knowne to God, who of the lost sonnes of Adam, hath ordained some as vessels of wrath to damnation, and hath chosen others as vessels of his mercy to bee saued: the which in due time hee calleth to integrity of life and godly conuersation, to make them a glorious Church in himselfe.

But that Church which is visible and seene to the eye, hath three tokens & marks whereby it may be known. First the word of God contained in the olde and new Testament, which as it is about the anotherty of the same Church, and onely sufficient to instruct vs in all things concerning salvation: so is it left for all degrees of men to read and understand. For without this word, neither Church, Concill, or Decree can establish any poynt touching salvation. The second is 7 holy Sacraments, to witte of Baptisme, and the Lodes supper, which Sacramentes Christ hath left vnto vs as holy signes and seales of Gods promises. For as by Baptisme once receiued, is signified that we (as wel infants as others of age and discretion) being strangers from God by original sinne, are receiued into his family and congregation, with full assurance, that although this root of sinne lye hid in vs, yet to the elect it shall not be imputed: So the supper declareth God as a most pious father, doth not onely feed our bodies: but also spiritually nourisheth our soules with the graces and benefites of Iesus Christ (which the scripture calleth eating of his flesh, and drinking of his blood) neither must wee in the administration of these sacramentes follow mans fantasy, but as Christ himselfe hath ordained, so must they be ministered, and by such as by ordinary vocation are therunto called. Therefore whosoener receiveth and worshippeth these sacramentes, or contracteth with them in time and place, procureth himselfe damnation.

The third marke of this Church is Ecclesiasticall discipline, which standeth in admonition and correction of faultes. The small end whereof is excommunication by the consent of the Church determined, if the offender be obstinate. And besides this Ecclesiasticall discipline I acknowledge to belong to this Church a palatish Magistrate, who ministereth to every man iustice, defend-ding

ding the good and punishing the euill. To consider in creatures, & trust in our owne whom we must render honor & obedience in imaginatio. The punishment whereof ale al things which are not contrary to the word though God oftentimes deferrith in this of god. And as Moyses, Ezechias, Josias life, yet after the generall resurrection when & other good rulers purged the Church of our soules and bodies shall rise agayne to god for supersticio & Idolatry, so the defence immortallitie they shall bee damned for Christ's Church appertainer to christe quencheable fire, & then we which haue for Magistrates against all Idolaters is here: taken all mans wisdoms to cleane vnc rites, as Papists, Anabaptists, with such Christ shall heare the ioyfull voyce: Come like kings of Antichrist, to root out all doe: ye blessed of my father inherit the king dome of heuile & min, as the Masse, pur- dome prepared for you from the beginning gatory, Limbus Patrum, prayers to saints, & of the world: and lo shall goe triumphing for dead, freewill, distinction of meats, ap- with him in body & soule to remaine euer parell & dayes, bowes of single life, preience lastingly in glory where wee shall see God of Idoll seruice, mans merites, with such face to face, and shall no more need to in ferre, which draw vs from the Societie of strict one an other: we shall all know him Christes Church, wherein standeth onely from the highest to the lowest. To whom reimission of sinnes purchased by Christ with the soules & the holy ghost be al praise bloud to all them that beleue, whether they honoz and glory now and euer. So be it.
